PART II RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date.
- (c) The accountant's statement required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been included.

PART III NARRATIVE

The Registrant is unable to timely file its Form 10-KSB for the period ended December 31, 2004, because the auditors have not completed the audited financial statements of the Registrant and are unable to complete such financial statements without unreasonable effort and expense. The Registrant was unable to obtain certain information related to contingencies in a timely manner and additional time is required to determine their impact on the Registrant's financial statements and required disclosures.

The Company will reflect a net loss of approximately ($3,083,000) compared to net income of $1,343,672 for 2003. In general, the Company's net loss is primarily due to the Company's recording provisions for loan losses amounting to approximately $2,071,000 during 2004. The Company is at risk under certain of its agreements with private investors for credit losses and the cost of foreclosure on default of the borrower. The Company analyzed certain attributes of the mortgage loans that it has sold to investors and determined that a substantial provision for loan losses was necessary in order to provide for potential future loan losses. In addition, the Company experienced a significant reduction in the amount of residential mortgage loans funded in 2004 and a reduction in the realized gain on the sale of residential mortgage loans.
