Items 1 through 9 and Item 11

In the Summary Term Sheet of the Offer to Purchase, the first query and response on page 1 is amended and restated as follows:

Who is offering to buy my securities?

We are Fire Transaction Sub, Inc., a newly formed Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Jaguar Technology Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. We were organized in connection with this offer and have not carried on any activities other than in connection with this offer.

Parent is Jaguar Technology Holdings, LLC, a newly formed Delaware limited liability company that seeks acquisitions and strategic relationships in the technology sector.

Riverland Enterprises LLC is the managing member of Parent. Riverland provides strategic advisory services to companies and holds and manages investments.

Daniel S. Laikin is the non-managing member of Parent.

Douglas B. Croxall is the sole and managing member of Riverland Enterprises. He is also the President of Fire Transaction Sub, Inc.

See Section 8 for more information about these individuals and companies.

Section 5 of the Offer to Purchase is amended and restated as follows:

5. United States Federal Income Tax Consequences.

The following is a description of the United States federal income tax consequences of the Offer and the Merger to stockholders of the Company whose Shares are tendered and accepted for payment pursuant to the Offer or whose Shares are converted into the right to receive cash in the Merger. The discussion does not purport to consider all aspects of United States federal income taxation that might be relevant to stockholders of the Company. The discussion is based on current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), existing, proposed and temporary regulations thereunder and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, all of which are subject to change, possibly with a retroactive effect. The discussion applies only to stockholders of the Company in whose hands Shares are capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This discussion does not apply to Shares received pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation, or to other types of stockholders (such as insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, broker-dealers and persons who hold their Shares as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion transaction, synthetic security or other integrated investment) who may be subject to special rules. This discussion does not discuss the United States federal income tax consequences to any stockholder of the Company who, for United States federal income tax purposes, is a nonresident alien individual, a foreign corporation, a foreign partnership or a foreign estate or trust, nor does it consider the effect of any foreign, state or local tax laws. The tax consequences of the Offer and Merger to holders who hold their shares through a partnership or other pass-through entity will generally depend upon the holder's status for U.S. federal income tax purposes. No ruling as to any matter discussed in this Section 5 has been requested or received from the United States Internal Revenue Service.

BECAUSE INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES MAY DIFFER, EACH STOCKHOLDER SHOULD CONSULT HIS, HER OR ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR TO DETERMINE THE APPLICABILITY OF THE RULES DISCUSSED BELOW AND THE PARTICULAR TAX EFFECTS OF THE OFFER AND THE MERGER ON A BENEFICIAL HOLDER OF SHARES, INCLUDING THE APPLICATION AND EFFECT OF THE ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX AND ANY STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX LAWS AND OF CHANGES IN SUCH LAWS.

The exchange of Shares for cash pursuant to the Offer or the Merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and possibly for state, local and foreign income tax purposes as well. In general, a stockholder who sells Shares pursuant to the Offer or receives cash in exchange for Shares pursuant to the Merger will recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received and the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the Shares sold pursuant to the Offer or exchanged for cash pursuant to the Merger. Gain or loss will be determined separately for each block of Shares (that is, Shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) tendered pursuant to the Offer or exchanged for cash pursuant to the Merger. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss provided that a stockholder's holding period for such Shares is more than one year at the time of consummation of the Offer or the Merger, as the case may be. Capital gains recognized by an individual upon a disposition of a Share that has been held for more than one year generally will be subject to a maximum United States federal income tax rate of 15%. In the case of a Share that has been held for one year or less, such capital gains generally will be subject to tax at ordinary income tax rates. Limitations apply to the use of a stockholder's capital losses. Capital gain recognized by a corporate taxpayer will be subject to tax at the rates applicable to that corporation. Capital losses recognized by an individual in any tax year may be used to offset capital gains for that year plus up to $3,000 in ordinary income for that year. Capital losses not utilized in any taxable year by an individual may be carried forward indefinitely and allowed to offset capital gains plus $3,000 of ordinary income in any future taxable year. Capital losses recognized by a corporation upon the sale of capital assets are allowed only to the extent of gains from the sale of capital assets. Capital losses not utilized in any taxable year by a corporation generally must first be carried back and applied against capital gains in the three preceding taxable years and then may be carried forward and allowed to the extent of capital gains in the five succeeding taxable years.

Under the backup withholding provisions of United States federal income tax law, the Depository may be required to withhold and pay over to the Internal Revenue Service a portion of the amount of any payments pursuant to the Offer. In order to prevent backup federal income tax withholding with respect to payments to stockholders of the offer price for Shares purchased pursuant to the Offer, each such stockholder must provide the Depository with such stockholder's correct taxpayer identification number and certify that such stockholder is not subject to backup withholding by completing the substitute Form W-9 in the Letter of Transmittal or alternative certification described in the Letter of Transmittal. See Instruction 8 of the Letter of Transmittal and "Important Tax Information" contained therein.
