Financial Statements

December 31, 2003 and 2002

(With Independent Auditors' Report Thereon)

Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors
Service Enhancement Systems, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Service Enhancement Systems, Inc. (dba 360 Group) (the Company) as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of operations, shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Service Enhancement Systems, Inc. as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

SERVICE ENHANCEMENT SYSTEMS, INC.

(DBA 360 Group)

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2003 and 2002

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Practices

(a)

Description of Business

Service Enhancement Systems, Inc. (dba 360 Group) (the Company), was incorporated on September 19, 1986 in the State of California. The Company is a direct marketing company that provides services such as custom database development and management, strategic planning, media and list planning and buying, creative and production services, response management, and analytic services.

(b)

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

Management of the Company has made a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities to prepare these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(c)

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include checking accounts, money market accounts and all highly liquid debt instruments with maturities at purchase of three months or less.

Accounts Receivable

At December 31, 2003 and 2002, approximately 97% of the accounts receivable balance relates to advance billings to customers. Accounts receivable are recorded at the invoiced amount and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts represents the Company's best estimates of the amount of probable credit losses related to existing accounts receivable.

Work in Progress

Work in progress represents the amount billed by media vendors for advertising space and ongoing costs incurred for providing other services to the customer for services that are in progress and thus have not been delivered to the customers. These costs are recognized when the products are delivered to the customer.

(f)

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Equipment acquired under capital leases are stated at the present value of future minimum lease payments at the date of acquisition. Expenditures for additions, renewals, and improvements are capitalized. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets ranging three to seven years. Equipment held under capital leases and leasehold improvements are amortized straight-line over the shorter of the lease term or the estimated useful life of the asset.

(g)

Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets, such as property and equipment, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the asset. Assets to be disposed of, if any, are separately presented in the balance sheet and reported at the lower of the carrying amount of fair value less costs to sell, and are no longer depreciated. The assets and liabilities of a disposed group classified as held for sale, if any, are presented separately in appropriate asset and liability sections of the balance sheet.

(h)

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is deferred when the Company receives deposits or advanced payments for contracts in progress. Revenue is recognized as products and services are delivered to the customer. Revenue also includes any reimbursements received from clients related to expenses incurred by the Company for items such as airfare, mileage, meals and hotel stays.

The percentage of sales to customers representing more than 10% of revenue is as follows:

	2003	2002
INVESTools, Inc.	55%	%
Men's Wearhouse	22
Cricket Communications, Inc.		33
Score		17
Chela Financial Resources		12
Wells Fargo Bank		11

The percentage of accounts receivable representing more that 10% of accounts receivable is as follows:

	2003	2002
INVESTools, Inc.	41%	88%
Gardner Geary Coll, Inc.	29

(i)

Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes has been determined using the asset and liability approach of accounting for income taxes. Under this approach, deferred income taxes represent the future tax consequences expected to occur when the reported amounts of assets and liabilities are recovered or paid. The provision for income taxes represents income taxes paid or payable for the current year plus the change in deferred taxes during the year. Deferred income taxes result from differences between the financial reporting and tax basis of assets and liabilities and are adjusted for changes in tax rates and tax laws when changes are enacted. Deferred taxes are also recognized, subject to a valuation allowance, for net operating tax loss carry forwards expected to be utilized to offset anticipated future earnings of the Company.

(j)

Cost of Revenue and Selling, General and Administrative

Cost of revenue consists mainly of the costs of advertising space that the Company purchases from the media and costs related to production, lettershop, printing, name list purchase, and email lists from third parties.

Selling, general and administrative expenses consist primarily of salaries and related expenses for finance, legal, marketing, administrative personnel, professional fees and other general corporate expenses including rent. These expenses include employees' salaries who performed service related to generation of revenue.

(k)

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expense was $14,792 and $9,289 during the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In November 2002, the Emerging Issues Task Force reached a consensus on Issue No. 00-21 (EITF 00-21), Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables. EITF 00-21 provides guidance on how to account for arrangements that involve the delivery or performance of multiple products, services and/or rights to use assets. The provisions of EITF 00-21 apply to revenue arrangements entered into in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2003. The adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on the Company's financial condition, result of operations or cash flows.

On December 17, 2003, the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104 (SAB 104), Revenue Recognition, which supercedes SAB 101, Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements. SAB 104's primary purpose is to rescind accounting guidance contained in SAB 101 related to multiple element revenue arrangements, superceded as a result of the issuance of EITF 00-21, Accounting for Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables. Additionally, SAB 104 rescinds the SEC's Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements Frequently Asked Questions and Answers (FAQ) issued with SAB 101 that had not been codified in SEC Topic 13, Revenue Recognition. Selected portions of the FAQ have been incorporated into SAB 104. While the wording of SAB 104 has changed to reflect the issuance of EITF 00-21, the revenue recognition principles of SAB 101 remain largely unchanged by the issuance of SAB 104.

(2) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment at December 31, 2003 and 2002 are as follows:

	2003	2002
Office equipment	$ 672,364	1,066,509
Computer software	102,739	308,963
Furniture and fixture	391,875	815,332
Logo		12,525
Leasehold improvements	40,768	455,405
	1,207,746	2,658,734
Accumulated depreciation and amortization	(683,268)	(1,773,310)
	$ 524,478	885,424

The Company's former location was owned and leased from the Company's main shareholder. During 2003, the Company wrote off approximately $202,000 of the net value of property and equipment, including leasehold improvements, furniture and abandoned equipment, upon their move to their new location. Approximately $104,000 was recognized as a shareholder distribution for abandonment of building, leasehold and land improvements abandoned.

(3) Long-Term Debt

Long-term debt at December 31, 2003 consisted of two notes payable to a bank due in monthly installments totaling $10,000, plus interest at the bank's prime rate plus 0.25% and 0.50%, respectively, per annum. The notes are guaranteed by the shareholder of the Company, with approximately $121,000 being collateralized by the accounts receivable, equipment, general intangibles and contract rights of the Company.

The aggregate annual maturities of long-term debt at December 31, 2003 are as follows:

2004	$ 120,000
2005	120,000
2006	32,500
	272,500
Less current portion	(120,000)
	$ 152,500

These notes payable were subsequently paid in full during March 2004.

(4) Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes consists of the following:

	2003	2002
Current:
Federal	$	(195,282)
State	800	800
Deferred:
Federal
State

Total income tax expense (benefit)	$ 800	(194,482)

During 2003 and 2002, the Company paid $800 in state income taxes and no federal income taxes. The Company received cash refunds of $195,282 of state and federal taxes paid in prior years.

The following table reconciles the differences between the statutory Federal income tax rate and the effective tax rate for continuing operations:

	2003	2002
Federal statutory rate	$ (152,161)	(252,173)
State income taxes, net of Federal income tax benefit	(27,203)	(38,552)
Expense not deductible for tax purposes	332	11,372
Adjustment to valuation allowance, state and federal	215,082	90,943
Other	(35,250)	(6,072)

Total income tax expense (benefit)	$ 800	(194,482)

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amount used for income tax purposes. Significant components of deferred tax liabilities and assets are as follows:

	2003	2002
Deferred tax assets:
Allowance for bad debt	$ 398	398
Property and equipment		49,970
Net operating loss carry forward	400,441	60,145
Accrued liabilities	35,180	31,036

Total deferred tax assets	436,019	141,549
Valuation allowance	(356,631)	(141,549)

Net deferred tax assets	79,388
Deferred tax liabilities:
Property and equipment	(79,388)

Edgar Filing: INVESTTOOLS INC - Form 8-K/A

	2003	2002
Net deferred tax assets	$

Edgar Filing: INVESTTOOLS INC - Form 8-K/A

At December 31, 2003, the Company had available approximately $870,000 of net operating loss carry forward for federal tax purposes. This carry forward, which may provide future tax benefits, begins to expire in 2023. Additionally, U.S. Federal income tax law limits a corporation's ability to utilize net operating losses if it experiences an ownership change greater than 50% over a three-year period. See note 7 regarding subsequent events.

(5) Commitments and Contingencies

Leases

The Company is obligated under capital leases covering certain equipment that expired during the year ended December 31, 2003. At December 31, 2002, the gross amount of equipment and related accumulated amortization recorded under capital leases were $339,222 and $165,970, respectively. Amortization of assets held under capital leases is included with depreciation expense.

The Company has various noncancelable operating leases, including building and equipment leases that expire at various times through 2008. Future minimum lease payments due under noncancelable operating leases as of December 31, 2003 are as follows:

2004	$	201,060
2005		210,556
2006		216,815
2007		221,389
Thereafter		74,358
		<hr/>
Total	$	924,178
		<hr/>

Line of Credit

The Company has a bank line of credit that allows for borrowings up to $500,000. Outstanding borrowings against the line of credit bear interest at the bank's prime note (4.0% at December 31, 2003). The line of credit is guaranteed by the shareholder. There were no borrowings outstanding under the line of credit agreement at December 31, 2003.

(c)

Litigation

From time to time, the Company is subject to various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. Management of the Company vigorously defends such matters as they occur and is of the opinion that their ultimate outcome will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

Employee Benefit Plan

The Company has a salary deferral savings plan qualified under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(k) covering substantially all employees. Employees may contribute up to 15% of their eligible compensation. The Company may elect to make contributions to this plan annually. The Company did not contribute to the Plan during the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002.

(6) Related Party Transactions

Building rental costs paid to the shareholder for the year ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 were $230,426 and $634,908, respectively.

(7) Subsequent Event

In February 2004, the Company was acquired by INVESTools, Inc.
