PRELIMINARY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED SEPTEMBER 22, 2008

JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

Dear Shareholders:

We are pleased to report that the boards of directors of Bunge Limited and Corn Products International, Inc. have approved a merger of Corn Products with Bunge. Before the merger can be completed, the shareholders of Bunge must vote to approve the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders on the terms and conditions set out in the merger agreement, and the stockholders of Corn Products must vote to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization, dated as of June 21, 2008, among Bunge, Bleecker Acquisition Corp., a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge, and Corn Products, as amended. Bunge and Corn Products are sending you this joint proxy statement/prospectus to ask you to vote in favor of these matters.

In the merger, Bleecker Acquisition Corp. will merge with and into Corn Products and Corn Products will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge. As a result of the merger, Corn Products stockholders will be entitled to receive in exchange for each of their shares of Corn Products common stock a fraction of a Bunge common share determined by dividing $56.00 by the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting, provided that if this average closing price is equal to or greater than $133.10, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.4207 of a Bunge common share, and if this average closing price is equal to or less than $108.90, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.5142 of a Bunge common share. Based on the number of shares of Corn Products common stock and shares issuable upon exercise of stock options and settlement of other stock-based awards outstanding as of _____, 2008, a maximum of _____, and a minimum of _____, Bunge common shares will be issued in the merger.

The merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and Corn Products stockholders are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of Corn Products common stock for Bunge common shares in the merger, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional Bunge common shares.

Bunge common shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "BG". On _____, 2008, the last trading day before the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Bunge's closing price was $ _____ per share. Corn Products common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "CPO". On _____, 2008, the last trading day before the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Corn Products' closing price was $ _____ per share. You should obtain current market quotations for Bunge common shares and Corn Products common stock.

Bunge will hold a special general meeting of its shareholders on November _____, 2008 at the time and place indicated in the Bunge notice of special general meeting to consider and vote on the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders. Corn Products will hold a special meeting of its stockholders on November _____, 2008 at the time and place indicated in the Corn Products notice of special meeting of stockholders to consider and vote on adoption of the merger agreement. The merger is conditioned upon, among other things, the approval of Bunge shareholders and Corn Products stockholders.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. We cannot complete the merger unless (i) Bunge shareholders approve the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders and (ii) Corn Products stockholders adopt the merger agreement. Whether or not you plan to attend your special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing, signing, dating and returning the accompanying proxy card or appoint your proxy by telephone or the Internet as soon as possible. If you hold your shares in "street name", you should instruct your broker how to vote in accordance with your voting instruction form. If you are a Corn Products stockholder and you do not submit your proxy card, instruct your broker how to vote your shares, or vote in person at the Corn Products special meeting, it will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement. Returning the proxy does NOT deprive you of your right to attend your special meeting and to vote your shares in person.

Corn Products stockholders can vote at the Corn Products special meeting if they owned shares of Corn Products common stock at the close of business on September 29, 2008, the record date for the Corn Products special meeting. As of the close of business on that day,

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

shares of Corn Products common stock were outstanding.

Q:

What do Bunge shareholders need to do now?

A:

After carefully reading and considering the information contained, or incorporated by reference, in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, please complete, sign and date your proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope or appoint your proxy by telephone or the Internet as soon as possible, so that your shares may be represented at the Bunge special general meeting. If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, Bunge will count your proxy as a vote in favor of the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders and a vote in favor of the adjournment of the Bunge special general meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Because the required vote of Bunge shareholders to issue Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders is based upon the number of shares actually voted, rather than the number of outstanding Bunge common shares, the failure by a Bunge shareholder to appoint a proxy or to vote in person at the Bunge special general meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote, except to make it more difficult to satisfy the requirement that the total number of votes cast exceeds 50% of the number of outstanding Bunge common shares.

Because the required vote of Bunge shareholders to adjourn the Bunge special general meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies is based upon the number of shares actually voted, rather than the number of outstanding Bunge common shares, the failure by a Bunge shareholder to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the Bunge special general meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote.

A:

After carefully reading and considering the information contained, or incorporated by reference, in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, please complete, sign and date your proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope or vote your shares by telephone or the Internet as soon as possible, so that your shares may be represented at the Corn Products special meeting. If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, Corn Products will count your proxy as a vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and a vote in favor of the adjournment of the Corn Products special meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Because the required vote of Corn Products stockholders to adopt the merger agreement is based upon the number of outstanding shares of Corn Products common stock, rather than upon the number of shares actually voted, the failure by a Corn Products stockholder to appoint a proxy or to vote in person at the Corn Products special meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against adoption of the merger agreement.

Because the required vote of Corn Products stockholders to adjourn the Corn Products special meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies is based upon the number of shares present or represented at the Corn Products special meeting, rather than upon the outstanding shares of Corn Products common stock entitled to vote, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the adjournment of the Corn Products special meeting. The failure by a Corn Products stockholder to appoint a proxy or to vote in person at the Corn Products special meeting and broker non-votes will have no effect with respect to the vote on the adjournment of the Corn Products special meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Q:

Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy?

A:

Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the Bunge special general meeting or the Corn Products special meeting, as the case may be. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete and submit a new valid proxy bearing a later date by Internet, telephone or mail. Third, you can attend the Bunge or Corn Products special meeting, as the case may be, and vote in person. Attendance at the Bunge or Corn Products special meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy.

If you are a Bunge shareholder and you choose to send a written notice of revocation or to mail a new proxy, you must submit your notice of revocation or your new proxy to Bunge's Assistant Secretary at 50 Main Street, White Plains, New York 10606, or by facsimile to (914) 684-3497, and it must be received by November _____, 2008.

If you are a Corn Products stockholder and you choose to send a written notice or to mail a new proxy, you must submit your notice of revocation or your new proxy to Corn Products International, 5 Westbrook Corporate Center, Westchester, Illinois 60154, Attention: Corporate Secretary, or hand deliver your new proxy to Corn Products' Corporate Secretary, and it must be received by November _____, 2008.

Q:

If my shares are held in "street name" by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A:

Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. You should follow the directions provided by your broker regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares. Without instructions, your shares will not be voted, which, if you are a Corn Products stockholder, will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement at the Corn Products special meeting.

Q:

Do the Bunge shareholders have to vote on the merger at the Bunge special general meeting if the Bunge board of directors has changed its recommendation of the merger?

A:

Yes. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the Bunge special general meeting, Bunge shareholders will be asked to vote on the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders even if the Bunge board of directors has changed its recommendation of such issuance, consistent with the terms of the merger agreement.

Q:

Do the Corn Products stockholders have to vote on the merger at the Corn Products special meeting if the Corn Products board of directors has changed its recommendation of the merger?

A:

Yes. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the Corn Products special meeting, Corn Products stockholders will be asked to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement even if the Corn Products board of directors has changed its recommendation of such adoption, consistent with the terms of the merger agreement.

Q:

If my Bunge common shares are held through a Bunge savings plan, how do I vote my shares?

A:

If you have interests in Bunge common shares through participation in the Bunge Retirement Savings Plan, the Bunge Savings Plan and the Bunge Savings Plan Supplement A, you will receive a proxy card that will also serve as voting instructions for the trustees of these plans. If you do not provide voting instructions for shares held for you in any of these plans, the trustees will vote these shares in the same ratio as the shares for which voting instructions have been provided.

Q: How do I vote my shares in the Corn Products International Stock Fund of the Corn Products retirement savings plans?

A: You may instruct the plan trustee on how to vote your shares in the Corn Products International Stock Fund by completing the enclosed proxy card. You may vote all the shares allocated to your account on the record date. However, your shares will not be voted if you do not provide timely directions to the plan trustee. The plan trustee will not vote any shares held in the retirement savings plans as to which it does not receive timely directions.

Q: If I am a Corn Products stockholder, should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, you will receive a transmittal form with instructions for the surrender of your Corn Products common stock certificates. Please do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy card.

Q: Is the merger expected to be taxable to Corn Products stockholders?

A: Generally, no. The merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes and Corn Products stockholders are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of Corn Products common stock for Bunge common shares in the merger, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional Bunge common shares.

You should read "The Merger - Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger and Ownership of Bunge Common Shares Received by Corn Products Stockholders" beginning on page 92 for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger and of owning Bunge common shares. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: Bunge and Corn Products are working to complete the merger as promptly as practicable. If Bunge shareholders and Corn Products stockholders approve the matters submitted to them for their approval and we receive the necessary governmental clearances, Bunge currently expects that the merger will be completed during the fourth quarter of 2008. However, it is possible that factors outside our control could require us to complete the merger at a later time or not complete it at all.

For a description of certain matters that could delay or prevent the completion of the merger, please refer to "Risk Factors" beginning on page 26.

Q: Can I dissent and require appraisal of my shares?

A: No. Bunge shareholders have no dissenters' rights under Bermuda law in connection with the merger. Corn Products stockholders have no dissenters' rights under Delaware law in connection with the merger.

Q: Where can I find more information about the companies?

A: You can obtain more information about Bunge and Corn Products from the various sources described under "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 154.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

General

The Companies (page 37)

50 Main Street
White Plains, New York 10606
(914) 684-2800

Bunge is a leading global agribusiness and food company operating in the farm-to-consumer food chain. Bunge conducts operations in agribusiness, fertilizer, edible oil products and milling products.

Corn Products International, Inc.
5 Westbrook Corporate Center
Westchester, Illinois 60154
(708) 551-2600

Corn Products is one of the world's largest corn refiners and a major supplier of high-quality food ingredients and industrial products derived from wet milling and processing of corn and other starch-based materials. Corn Products and its subsidiaries manufacture and sell a number of ingredients to a wide variety of food and industrial customers.

The Merger (page 38)

On June 21, 2008, Bunge, Corn Products and Bleecker Acquisition Corp., a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge, entered into the merger agreement, which is the legal document governing the merger. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Bleecker Acquisition Corp. will be merged with and into Corn Products, with Corn Products continuing as the surviving corporation. Upon completion of the merger, Corn Products will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge and Corn Products common stock will no longer be publicly traded.

What Corn Products Stockholders Will Receive in the Merger (page 90)

In the merger, Corn Products stockholders will be entitled to receive in exchange for each of their shares of Corn Products common stock a fraction of a Bunge common share determined by dividing $56.00 by the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting (the average closing price), so long as the average closing price is between $108.90 and $133.10. However, if the average closing price is equal to or greater than $133.10, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.4207 of a Bunge common share; and if the average closing price is equal to or less than $108.90, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.5142 of a Bunge common share.

Based on the number of shares of Corn Products common stock and shares issuable upon exercise of stock options and settlement of other stock-based awards outstanding as of June 19, 2008 and a closing price of $71.18 per Bunge common share on September 15, 2008, Corn Products stockholders would receive Bunge common shares having a market value of approximately $2.9 billion in the merger.

Set forth below is a table showing a range of hypothetical average closing prices along with the corresponding exchange ratio, the equivalent value of the merger consideration per share of Corn Products common stock, the aggregate number of Bunge common shares to be issued to Corn Products stockholders that would result from the exchange ratio and the percentage of the outstanding Bunge common shares that will be held by former Corn Products stockholders after the consummation of the merger. This table is for illustrative purposes only. The actual prices at which Bunge common shares trade during the average closing price determination period will determine the actual exchange ratio. The actual exchange ratio may differ from the examples below. The actual exchange ratio will not be determinable until two trading days prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting.

- (1) Calculated as the market value of the Bunge common shares to be issued in the merger, which is calculated by multiplying the hypothetical average closing price by the exchange ratio.
- (2) The number of Bunge common shares to be issued in the merger is based on 74,352,843 shares of Corn Products common stock outstanding as of June 19, 2008 and 5,330,335 shares of Corn Products common stock issuable upon exercise of stock options and settlement of other stock-based awards outstanding as of June 19, 2008.
- (3) The percentage of the outstanding Bunge common shares to be held by former Corn Products stockholders is based on 121,594,093 Bunge common shares outstanding as of June 19, 2008.

Each holder of Corn Products common stock who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a Bunge common share will receive cash in an amount equal to the amount obtained by multiplying (1) the fractional share interest to which that holder would otherwise be entitled by (2) the average closing price.

The Bunge common shares to be received in exchange for each share of Corn Products common stock and any cash to be received by Corn Products stockholders in lieu of any fractional Bunge common shares are referred to collectively as the "per share merger consideration" in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Treatment of Corn Products Stock Options (page 100)

Each Corn Products stock option outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger will become fully exercisable upon completion of the merger and will be converted into an option to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the related Corn Products stock option, a number of Bunge common shares equal to the number of shares of Corn Products common stock subject to such Corn Products stock option multiplied by the exchange ratio, and the exercise price per share will be an amount equal to the exercise price per share of such Corn Products stock option in effect immediately prior to the completion of the merger divided by the exchange ratio. For a more complete description of the treatment of Corn Products stock options, see "The Merger Effect on Awards Outstanding Under Corn Products Incentive Plans".

Dissenters' Rights (page 98)

Under Bermuda law, Bunge shareholders will not have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger.

Under Delaware law, Corn Products stockholders will not have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 92)

The merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes and Corn Products stockholders are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of Corn Products common stock for Bunge common shares in the merger, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional Bunge common shares. It is a condition to the completion of the merger that each of Corn Products and Bunge receive written opinions from its respective tax counsel to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code).

Corn Products stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the merger as well as the subsequent ownership of Bunge common shares in light of their particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of U.S. federal, state and local and non-U.S. income and other tax laws.

Recommendation of the Bunge Board of Directors (page 46)

The Bunge board of directors, by unanimous vote of those present at a meeting duly called, approved the merger agreement and declared its advisability and recommends that Bunge shareholders vote "FOR" the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders on the terms and conditions set out in the merger agreement.

To review the background of, and Bunge's reasons for, the merger, as well as certain risks related to the merger, see pages 38 through 49 and pages 26 through 28, respectively.

Recommendation of the Corn Products Board of Directors (page 49)

The Corn Products board of directors, by unanimous vote, determined that the merger is in the best interests of Corn Products and its stockholders, approved the merger agreement and declared its advisability and recommends that Corn Products stockholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the merger agreement.

To review the background of, and Corn Products' reasons for, the merger, as well as certain risks related to the merger, see pages 38 through 46, pages 49 through 52 and pages 26 through 28, respectively.

Opinions of Bunge's Financial Advisors

In connection with the merger, Credit Suisse rendered its oral opinion to Bunge's board of directors, subsequently confirmed by delivery of its written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, to Bunge's board of directors, to the effect that, as of the date thereof and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the written opinion, the exchange ratio was fair to Bunge from a financial point of view.

The full text of the written opinion of Credit Suisse, dated June 21, 2008, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Credit Suisse provided its opinion for the information of Bunge's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger. The Credit Suisse opinion does not constitute advice or a recommendation to any holder of Bunge common shares as to how such holder should vote or act on any matter relating to the proposed merger or otherwise.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

Pursuant to Bunge's engagement letter with Credit Suisse, Bunge has agreed to pay Credit Suisse a fee of approximately $12.8 million for its services in connection with the merger, of which approximately $11.6 million is contingent upon consummation of the merger. In addition, Credit Suisse is eligible to receive a discretionary fee of approximately $2.5 million. Credit Suisse and its affiliates have in the past provided, and in the future may provide, investment banking and other financial services to Corn Products, Bunge and their respective affiliates for which Credit Suisse and its affiliates have received, and would expect to receive, compensation.

In connection with the merger, Morgan Stanley rendered its oral opinion to Bunge's board of directors, subsequently confirmed by delivery of its written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, to Bunge's board of directors, to the effect that, as of the date thereof, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the written opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to Bunge.

The full text of the written opinion of Morgan Stanley, dated June 21, 2008, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the opinion and the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Bunge shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety, but should note that the Morgan Stanley opinion is addressed to Bunge's board of directors, and is not a recommendation as to how Bunge shareholders or Corn Products stockholders should vote on, or take any action with respect to, the merger or any other matter.

Pursuant to Bunge's engagement letter with Morgan Stanley, Bunge has agreed to pay Morgan Stanley a fee of approximately $12.8 million for its services in connection with the merger, of which approximately $11.6 million is contingent upon consummation of the merger. In addition, Morgan Stanley is eligible to receive a discretionary fee of approximately $2.5 million. Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have provided financial advisory and financing services for Bunge and Corn Products and have received fees in connection with such services. Morgan Stanley may also seek to provide such services to Bunge and Corn Products in the future and expects to receive fees for the rendering of these services.

Opinions of Corn Products' Financial Advisors

In connection with the merger, on June 21, 2008, Corn Products' financial advisor, Lazard, rendered to the Corn Products board of directors an oral opinion, which opinion was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated June 21, 2008, to the effect that, as of the date of its opinion and based upon and subject to the assumptions, procedures, factors, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the per share merger consideration to be paid to Corn Products stockholders in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders.

The full text of Lazard's written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Lazard in connection with its opinion, is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D and is incorporated into this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. The description of Lazard's opinion set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified by reference to the full text of Lazard's written opinion attached as Annex D. We encourage you to read Lazard's opinion and the section beginning on page 69 carefully and in their entirety. Lazard's opinion was directed to the Corn Products board of directors for the information and assistance of the Corn Products board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger. Lazard's opinion did not address any other aspect of the merger and was not intended to and does not constitute a recommendation to any Corn Products stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to the merger or any matter relating to the merger.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated April 24, 2008, Corn Products agreed to pay Lazard $500,000 upon execution of the letter, $2 million upon rendering its opinion of June 21, 2008 and, if the merger is consummated, a fee of 0.35% of the aggregate consideration, as customarily defined, to be paid in the merger. The payment paid to Lazard in connection with the execution of the engagement letter was credited against the fee paid to Lazard in connection with the delivery of its opinion and the fee paid to Lazard in connection with the delivery of its opinion will be credited against the fee, if any, payable to Lazard upon consummation of the merger. Taking such credits into account, the aggregate fee payable to Lazard upon consummation of the merger was estimated, for illustrative purposes only, to be approximately $9.9 million based on an implied $3.4 billion transaction value as of September 10, 2008. The actual amount of the aggregate fee will be calculated based on the market value of the merger consideration on the date the fee is paid. Lazard in the past has provided investment banking services to Corn Products and certain of its affiliates, for which Lazard has received customary compensation, and Lazard in the future may provide investment banking services to Corn Products and Bunge and certain of their affiliates, for which Lazard would expect to receive customary compensation.

Opinion of JPMorgan (page 78)

Corn Products retained JPMorgan as its financial advisor for the purpose of rendering a fairness opinion to the Corn Products board of directors in connection with the merger. At the meeting of the Corn Products board of directors on June 21, 2008, JPMorgan rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing on June 21, 2008, to the Corn Products board of directors that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of Corn Products common stock.

The full text of the written opinion of JPMorgan dated June 21, 2008, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the opinion undertaken by JPMorgan in connection with rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of JPMorgan's opinion included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified by reference to the full text of the opinion, and Corn Products stockholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. JPMorgan provided its opinion to the Corn Products board of directors in connection with and for the purposes of Corn Products' evaluation of the merger. JPMorgan's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to any matter and should not be relied upon by any stockholder as such.

Pursuant to its engagement letter, JPMorgan received a fee for its services of $1.5 million from Corn Products payable upon the delivery of its opinion. JPMorgan and its affiliates in the past have had commercial and investment banking relationships with Bunge, for which JPMorgan and its affiliates have received customary compensation, and JPMorgan and its affiliates in the future may have commercial or investment banking relationships with Bunge and Corn Products, for which JPMorgan and its affiliates would expect to receive customary compensation.

In considering the recommendation of the Corn Products board of directors with respect to the merger, Corn Products stockholders should be aware that the executive officers and non-employee directors of Corn Products have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Corn Products stockholders generally. These interests include the following:

all outstanding options to purchase Corn Products common stock issued under the Corn Products stock incentive plan, including those held by executive officers, will become fully exercisable upon completion of the merger. All options currently held by Corn Products' non-employee directors are fully exercisable. Each outstanding option to purchase Corn Products common stock existing at the time of completion of the merger, including each stock option held by the Corn Products executive officers and non-employee directors, will be converted into an option to purchase the number of Bunge common shares equal to the number of shares of Corn Products common stock subject to such Corn Products stock option multiplied by the exchange ratio, and the exercise price per share will be an amount equal to the exercise price per share of such Corn Products stock option divided by the exchange ratio. Based upon options outstanding as of September 10, 2008, options held by the Corn Products executive officers relating to 382,670 shares of Corn Products common stock will vest and become immediately exercisable upon completion of the merger;

all restrictions imposed on shares of restricted stock granted under the Corn Products stock incentive plan, including those held by the Corn Products executive officers and non-employee directors, will immediately lapse upon completion of the merger. Each such share of Corn Products restricted stock will be converted into a fraction of an unrestricted Bunge common share equal to the exchange ratio. Based upon grants outstanding as of September 10, 2008, the restrictions on shares of restricted stock held by the Corn Products executive officers and non-employee directors relating to 25,883 shares of Corn Products common stock will lapse upon completion of the merger;

all performance shares that are unvested and subject to the satisfaction of performance measures under the Corn Products stock incentive plan, including those held by executive officers of Corn Products, will immediately vest at their respective target levels upon completion of the merger. Each such performance share, except performance shares subject to deferral elections, will be converted into a fraction of an unrestricted Bunge common share equal to the exchange ratio. Each performance share subject to a deferral election will be converted into a fraction of a Bunge stock unit equal to the exchange ratio upon completion of the merger and will be paid in Bunge common shares or Bunge stock units in accordance with the deferral election to which it is subject. Based upon target awards outstanding as of September 10, 2008, 281,077 performance shares held by Corn Products executive officers will vest and be payable in Bunge common shares upon completion of the merger. Additionally, Bunge has agreed to negotiate in good faith with Corn Products with a view to agreeing on a mechanism with respect to executive officers of Corn Products who hold performance shares relating to the 2006-2008 performance period and remain employees of Bunge, so that such executive officers are not adversely affected from a financial viewpoint as a result of the completion of the merger;

each of the Corn Products executive officers is a party to an executive severance agreement that requires Corn Products to make certain payments and provide certain benefits if the executive officer's employment is terminated by Corn Products other than because of death, "Disability" or "Cause" or is terminated by the executive officer for "Good Reason" within two years after a change in control of Corn Products, including the merger; and prior to the closing of the merger and effective as of the effective time of the merger, Bunge will appoint Samuel C. Scott III, Chairman, President and Chief Executive of Corn Products, to the class of directors of the Bunge board of directors with its term expiring at the 2011 annual general meeting of Bunge shareholders.

The Corn Products board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when approving the merger agreement.

For a more complete description, see "The Merger Interests of Corn Products Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger".

Market Prices and Dividend Information

Bunge common shares and shares of Corn Products common stock are listed on the New York Stock Exchange. The following table presents the last reported sale prices of Bunge common shares and Corn Products common stock, as reported on the New York Stock Exchange on:

June 20, 2008, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger agreement; and

, 2008, the last full trading day prior to mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The table also presents the equivalent value of the merger consideration per share of Corn Products common stock on those dates.

	Bunge Common Shares	Corn Products Common Stock	Equivalent Price Per Share of Corn Products Common Stock(1)

(1) Calculated as the market value of the per share merger consideration, which will equal $56.00, assuming that the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting is equal to or greater than $108.90 but not greater than $133.10. See also " What Corn Products Stockholders Will Receive in the Merger" on page 6 for an illustrative table showing a range of hypothetical average closing prices along with the corresponding exchange ratio, the equivalent value of the merger consideration per share of Corn Products common stock, the aggregate number of Bunge common shares to be issued to Corn Products stockholders that would result from the exchange ratio and the percentage of the outstanding Bunge common shares that will be held by former Corn Products stockholders upon the completion of the merger.

These prices will fluctuate prior to the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting (the date on which the exchange ratio will be fixed), and Bunge shareholders and Corn Products stockholders are urged to obtain current market quotations prior to making any decision with respect to the merger.

Each of Bunge and Corn Products declares and pays regular quarterly cash dividends. After the completion of the merger, Bunge currently intends to continue to pay cash dividends to holders of its common shares on a quarterly basis; however, there can be no assurance that it will do so or as to the amount of any such dividends. See "Comparative Stock Prices and Dividends".

Comparative Per Share Information

The following table sets forth for the periods presented certain per share data of each of Bunge and Corn Products on a historical basis, an unaudited pro forma consolidated basis, which gives effect to the merger, and on an unaudited pro forma equivalent basis, which is intended to show how Corn Products common stock would have participated in the net income and book value of Bunge if Bunge and Corn Products had always been consolidated for accounting and financial reporting purposes during all periods presented.

The historical per share data of Bunge and Corn Products has been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the historical financial statements of Bunge and Corn Products incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information". The unaudited pro forma per share data has been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements". The unaudited pro forma equivalent data was calculated by multiplying the corresponding unaudited pro forma consolidated data by an assumed exchange ratio of 0.5142, which assumes a volume weighted average closing price for Bunge common shares of $75.86 (the closing price of Bunge common shares on the NYSE on September 12, 2008) for purposes of calculating the exchange ratio pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. The actual exchange ratio will be based on the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated information and the unaudited pro forma equivalent information is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the merger had been consummated as of the assumed date, nor is it necessarily indicative of future operating results or the financial position of the combined companies. The pro forma adjustments are based upon available information and certain assumptions that Bunge's management believes are reasonable.

- (1) Earnings per common share basic is computed by dividing net income available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period.
- (2) In November 2007, Bunge sold 862,500 shares of 5.125% cumulative mandatory convertible preference shares in a public offering, for which Bunge received net proceeds of approximately $845 million, after underwriting discounts, commissions and expenses. The annual dividend on each mandatory convertible preference share is $51.25 and is payable quarterly. Each mandatory convertible preference share has an initial liquidation preference of $1,000, plus accumulated and unpaid dividends. Each mandatory convertible preference share will automatically convert on December 1, 2010 into between 8.2190 and 9.6984 Bunge common shares. Each mandatory convertible preference share is also convertible at any time before December 1, 2010, at the holder's option, into 8.2190 Bunge common shares. The conversion rates are subject to certain anti-dilutive adjustments. In November 2006, Bunge sold 6,900,000 4.875% cumulative convertible perpetual preference shares in a public offering, for which Bunge received net proceeds of $677 million, after underwriting discounts, commissions and expenses. Each cumulative convertible preference share has an initial liquidation preference of $100 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends up to a maximum of an additional $25 per share and is convertible, at the holder's option, at any time, initially into approximately 1.0846 Bunge common shares (7,483,740 Bunge common shares), based on an initial conversion price of $92.20 per share, subject in each case to anti-dilution adjustments. The calculation of diluted earnings per share for the six months ended June 30, 2007 does not include the weighted average common shares that were issuable upon conversion of the convertible perpetual preference shares as they were not dilutive. The calculation of diluted earnings per common share for the year ended December 31, 2006 does not include the weighted average common shares that were issuable upon conversion of the convertible perpetual preference shares as they were not dilutive.
- (3) In October 2005, Bunge announced its intent to redeem on November 22, 2005 for cash the remaining approximately $242 million principal amount outstanding of its 3.75% convertible notes. Substantially all of the then outstanding convertible notes were converted into 7,532,542 common shares of Bunge prior to the redemption date. Readily marketable inventories are agricultural commodity inventories that are readily convertible to cash because of their commodity characteristics, widely available markets and international pricing mechanisms.

Selected Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information

The following selected unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information gives effect to the merger of Bunge and Corn Products. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated operating data is presented as if the merger had occurred on January 1, 2007. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet data combines the historical balance sheets of Bunge and Corn Products giving effect to the merger as if it occurred on June 30, 2008.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information includes adjustments that are based on preliminary estimates pending the completion of an independent appraisal and other evaluations to reflect the allocation of the purchase price of Corn Products' net assets as of June 30, 2008. The excess of purchase price over the estimated net fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed is recognized as goodwill. The final purchase accounting adjustments recorded in connection with the merger may differ from those presented herein. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information does not give effect to any anticipated cost savings or any other financial benefits expected to result from the merger.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information is presented for informational purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the financial position that would have been obtained or the financial results that would have occurred if the merger had been consummated on the dates indicated, nor is it necessarily indicative of the financial position or results of operations of Bunge in the future. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information presented below reflects pro forma adjustments that are described in the notes accompanying the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and are based upon available information and certain assumptions that Bunge's management believes are reasonable. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information should be read in conjunction with the section entitled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements" and other information included in or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included and incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Bunge shareholders and Corn Products stockholders should consider carefully the matters described below in determining whether to approve the merger, the merger agreement and the other related matters.

Risks Related to the Merger

As the market price of Bunge common shares may fluctuate, and the closing date of the merger is not yet ascertainable, Corn Products stockholders cannot be certain of the market value of the Bunge common shares that they will receive in the merger.

When we complete the merger, Corn Products common stock will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a Bunge common share, which will be determined by dividing $56.00 by the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting, so long as this average closing price is between $108.90 and $133.10. If this average closing price is equal to or greater than $133.10, each share of Corn Products common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.4207 of a Bunge common share, and if this average closing price is equal to or less than $108.90, each share of Corn Products common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.5142 of a Bunge common share. Once the exchange ratio is determined as described above, any subsequent change in the market price of Bunge common shares prior to the completion of the merger will not be reflected in the exchange ratio but will affect the market value of the per share merger consideration that Corn Products stockholders will receive upon completion of the merger. The market price of Bunge common shares may vary as a result of changes in the business, operations or prospects of Bunge or Corn Products, market assessments of the likelihood that the merger will be completed, the timing of the completion of the merger, the prospects of post-merger operations, regulatory considerations, general market and economic conditions and other factors. Accordingly, at the time of the Corn Products special meeting, although Corn Products stockholders will know the exchange ratio that will be used to calculate the fraction of a Bunge common share that they will receive as merger consideration, Corn Products stockholders will not know or be able to calculate the market value of the per share merger consideration they will receive upon completion of the merger.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and clearances from domestic and foreign regulatory authorities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on Bunge and Corn Products or the combined company or, if not obtained, could prevent completion of the merger.

Before the merger may be completed, applicable clearances and waiting periods must be obtained or expire under applicable foreign, federal or state antitrust, competition or fair trade laws. In deciding whether to grant antitrust or regulatory clearances, the relevant governmental entities will consider the effect of the merger on competition within their relevant jurisdictions. No assurance can be given that the required consents and clearances will be obtained. The terms and conditions of the clearances that are granted may impose requirements, limitations or costs or place restrictions on the conduct of the combined company's business, any of which could delay completion of the merger or impose additional material costs on, or materially limit the revenues of, the combined company following the merger. In addition, Bunge and Corn Products can provide no assurance that these conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions will not result in the delay or abandonment of the merger. Additionally, completion of the merger is conditioned on the absence of certain restraining orders or injunctions by judgment, court order or law that would restrain or prohibit consummation of the merger. For a more detailed description of the regulatory review process, see the sections entitled "The Merger Regulatory Matters", "The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Completion of the Merger" and "The Merger Agreement".

Additional Terms". Any delay in completing the merger could cause the combined company not to realize some or all of the benefits that they expect to achieve if the merger is consummated successfully within its expected timeframe.

Bunge and Corn Products will incur transaction, integration and restructuring costs in connection with the merger.

Bunge and Corn Products expect to incur significant transaction costs related to the merger. In addition, the combined company will incur integration and restructuring costs following the completion of the merger as the combined company integrates Corn Products' businesses with Bunge's businesses. Although Bunge expects that the realization of benefits and efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses may offset these transaction, integration and restructuring costs over time, no assurances can be made that this net benefit will be achieved in the near term, or at all.

Termination of the merger agreement could negatively impact Bunge and Corn Products.

If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences including:

Corn Products might have to pay Bunge a termination fee of $110 million;

Bunge's businesses and Corn Products' businesses may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of each company's management on the merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger; and the market price of Corn Products common stock might decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed.

If the merger agreement is terminated and Corn Products' board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, Corn Products stockholders cannot be certain that Corn Products will be able to find a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price Bunge has agreed to pay in the merger.

The directors and executive officers of Corn Products have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Corn Products stockholders.

In considering the information in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that the Corn Products executive officers and directors have interests in the merger other than their interests as stockholders of Corn Products. Options, restricted stock and performance shares held by directors and executive officers of Corn Products will become exercisable or vested, as the case may be, upon completion of the merger. All of the executive officers of Corn Products have arrangements with Corn Products that provide for severance benefits if their employment is terminated under certain circumstances following the merger, and certain of Corn Products' compensation and benefits plans and arrangements provide for payment or accelerated vesting or distribution of the rights or benefits thereunder upon completion of the merger. Executive officers and directors of Corn Products also have rights to indemnification and directors' and officers' liability insurance that will survive completion of the merger. Additionally, upon completion of the merger, Samuel C. Scott III, Chairman, President and Chief Executive of Corn Products, will join Bunge's board of directors. The Bunge and Corn Products boards of directors were aware of these interests at the time each approved the merger agreement. These interests may cause Corn Products' directors and executive officers to view the merger proposal differently and more favorably than you may view it. See "The Merger Interests of Corn Products Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" for more information.

If Corn Products stockholders immediately sell Bunge common shares received in the merger, they could cause the price of Bunge common shares to decline.

The Bunge common shares to be issued in the merger will be registered under U.S. federal securities laws. As a result, those shares generally will be immediately available for resale in the public market. See "The Merger Resale of Bunge Common Shares" on page 101. The number of Bunge common shares to be issued to Corn Products stockholders in connection with the merger, and immediately available for resale, will be as much as 25.20% or as little as 21.61% of the outstanding Bunge common shares. If Corn Products stockholders sell a substantial number of the Bunge common shares they receive in the merger immediately after the merger, the market price of Bunge common shares could decline.

Pending Corn Products stockholder litigation could delay or prevent the closing of the merger.

Since the announcement of the proposed merger on June 23, 2008, four purported class action lawsuits have been filed by stockholders of Corn Products in Illinois and Delaware state courts. The plaintiffs assert, among other things, claims of breach of fiduciary duty against Corn Products' directors in connection with the merger. The complaints seek, among other things, injunctive relief against consummation of the merger, declaratory judgments for breach of fiduciary duties, attorneys' fees and damages in an unspecified amount. For a more detailed description, see the section entitled "Certain Litigation" beginning on page 102 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

One of the conditions to the closing of the merger is that no governmental authority shall have issued any judgment, decree, or award that is then in effect and makes the merger illegal or otherwise prohibits the consummation of the merger. There can be no assurance that this litigation will not result in an injunction being issued, which could prevent or delay the closing of the merger, or that the defendants will be successful in defending these lawsuits. It is also possible that additional lawsuits may be filed against Corn Products in connection with the merger asserting similar or different claims.

Risks Related to the Combined Company

The market price of Bunge common shares after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the price of Bunge common shares and Corn Products common stock.

The businesses of Bunge and Corn Products differ in material respects. As such, many of the factors affecting Bunge's results of operations and stock price are different from those affecting Corn Products' results of operations and stock price. Additionally, Bunge's results of operations and the market price of Bunge common shares after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations and stock prices of each of Bunge and Corn Products prior to the merger. For a discussion of Bunge's and Corn Products' businesses and operations and the risks associated therewith, see the sections entitled "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in each of Bunge's and Corn Products' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 and the section entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in each of Bunge's and Corn Products' Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three-month period ended June 30, 2008, each of which is incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See also "Where You Can Find More Information".

Although both Bunge and Corn Products expect that the merger will result in benefits to the combined company, the combined company may not realize those benefits because of various challenges.

The success of the merger will depend, in part, on Bunge's ability to successfully combine the businesses of two companies that have previously operated as independent public companies. There is no assurance that Bunge will be able to complete the integration process smoothly or successfully.

Bunge's management will face challenges in the coordination of separate and disparate personnel, properties, systems and facilities, and may also need to address differences in business backgrounds and corporate cultures. The success of the combined company after the merger will also depend in part upon the ability of Bunge and Corn Products to retain key employees of both companies both during the period before and after the merger is completed. In addition, the integration process could divert the attention of each company's management, disrupt or interrupt or result in the loss of momentum in each company's ongoing businesses, or cause inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies, any of which could adversely affect each company's ability to maintain relationships with its customers and employees, or the ability of Bunge and Corn Products to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger, or could reduce each company's earnings or otherwise adversely affect the business and financial position, operating results and liquidity of the combined company.

The timing and extent to which the merger will become accretive to Bunge's earnings are uncertain.

There are a number of factors that will affect when, and to what extent, the merger will become accretive to Bunge's earnings per common share. These factors include the ability of the combined company to realize the benefits from the merger in the amounts and at the times Bunge and Corn Products currently anticipate, and the number of Bunge common shares actually issued to Corn Products stockholders in the merger. The failure of the combined company to realize the expected benefits of the merger in the amounts or at the times anticipated, or the issuance of more, rather than fewer, Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders in the merger (depending on the final exchange ratio, which is calculated as described below), could delay or prevent the merger from becoming accretive or reduce the extent to which the merger may become accretive, which could, in turn, result in a decrease in the market price of Bunge common shares.

If Bunge is unable to retain key Corn Products personnel after the merger is completed, the combined company's business might suffer.

The success of the merger will depend in part on Bunge's ability to retain key Corn Products employees who continue employment with the combined company after the merger. It is possible that these employees might decide not to remain with Bunge or the combined company after the merger is completed. If these key employees terminate their employment, the combined company's sales, marketing or development activities might be adversely affected, management's attention might be diverted from successfully integrating Corn Products' operations to hiring suitable replacements, and the combined company's business might suffer. In addition, Bunge might not be able to locate suitable replacements for any such key employees that leave Bunge or offer employment to potential replacements on reasonable terms.

A write-off of a significant portion of the goodwill recorded in connection with the merger would negatively affect the combined company's financial results.

Based on Bunge's preliminary valuations, Bunge expects to record goodwill of approximately $778 million as a result of the merger. This amount of goodwill assumes that the Bunge common shares received by the Corn Products stockholders in the merger have a market value of $75.86 (the closing price of Bunge common shares on the NYSE on September 12, 2008). The actual amount of goodwill will depend in part on the market value of Bunge common shares as of the closing date of the merger. On at least an annual basis, Bunge assesses whether there has been an impairment in the value of goodwill. If the carrying value of goodwill exceeds its estimated fair value, impairment is deemed to have occurred, and the carrying value of goodwill is written down to fair value. Under current accounting rules, this would result in a charge to the combined company's operating earnings. Accordingly, any determination requiring the write-off of a significant portion of goodwill recorded in connection with the merger would negatively affect the company's results of operations.

Bunge reported two material weaknesses in its internal control over financial reporting, which if not remedied, could adversely affect the combined company's internal controls and financial reporting and could lead to materially inaccurate financial reports.

In connection with Bunge's management's assessment of the effectiveness of Bunge's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2007, Bunge identified two material weaknesses in its internal control over financial reporting, relating to the analysis, reconciliation and elimination of intercompany transactions and the analysis and assessment of the presentation and recording of certain sales transactions related to Bunge's trade structured finance activities.

Although Bunge believes it is taking the steps necessary to remediate the material weaknesses, the processes, procedures and controls it implements may not result in full remediation of the material weaknesses. Any failure by Bunge to implement required new or improved controls or to remediate the material weaknesses, or difficulties encountered in their implementation, could result in material misstatements in Bunge's financial statements or cause Bunge to fail to timely meet its reporting obligations. The occurrence of these events could in turn potentially negatively impact Bunge's stock price.

THE BUNGE SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

Bunge is furnishing this joint proxy statement/prospectus to Bunge shareholders as of the Bunge record date as part of the solicitation of proxies by the Bunge board of directors for use at the Bunge special general meeting.

Date, Time and Place

The special general meeting of Bunge shareholders will be held on November _____, 2008 at _____, Eastern Time, at _____.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the Bunge special general meeting, Bunge shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders on the terms and conditions set out in the merger agreement and a proposal to adjourn the Bunge special general meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Bunge special general meeting to approve the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders. It is currently contemplated that no other matters will be considered at the Bunge special general meeting.

The Bunge board of directors, by unanimous vote of those present at a meeting duly called, approved the merger agreement and declared its advisability and recommends that shareholders vote "FOR" the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders and "FOR" the adjournment of the Bunge special general meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Quorum

Only holders of record of Bunge common shares at the close of business on September 29, 2008, the Bunge record date for the Bunge special general meeting, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Bunge special general meeting and any adjournment or postponement of it. On the Bunge record date, _____ Bunge common shares were issued and outstanding and held by approximately _____ holders of record.

A quorum is present at the Bunge special general meeting if two or more persons are present in person at the start of the Bunge special general meeting representing (in person or by proxy) more than one-half of the paid up share capital of Bunge entitled to vote at the Bunge special general meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes (described below) will be treated as present at the Bunge special general meeting for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of all business. In the event that a quorum is not present at the Bunge special general meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies. Holders of record of Bunge common shares on the Bunge record date are entitled to one vote per share on each matter submitted to a vote at the Bunge special general meeting.

Vote Required

The approval of the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders requires the affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast by Bunge shareholders at the Bunge special general meeting, so long as the number of such votes cast represents over 50% of all outstanding Bunge common shares. The approval of the adjournment of the Bunge special general meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Bunge special general meeting to approve the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders requires the affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast by Bunge shareholders at the Bunge special general meeting. Any failure by a shareholder to appoint a proxy or to vote in person at the Bunge special general meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect with respect to the votes on the proposals to approve the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders and the adjournment of the Bunge special general meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies. However, such a failure to appoint a proxy or vote in person at the Bunge special general meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will make it more difficult to satisfy the requirement that the number of votes cast with respect to the proposal to issue Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders represents over 50% of all outstanding Bunge common shares.

Shares Owned by Bunge Directors and Executive Officers

At the close of business on the Bunge record date, directors and executive officers of Bunge beneficially owned and were entitled to vote _____ Bunge common shares, which represented approximately _____ % of the Bunge common shares outstanding on that date.

Voting of Proxies

Shareholders of record may vote their shares by attending the Bunge special general meeting and voting their shares in person at the meeting, or by completing the enclosed proxy card, signing and dating it and mailing it in the enclosed envelope. No postage is required if your proxy card is mailed in the United States. Shareholders also may appoint their proxies/vote by telephone or the Internet by following the instructions provided in the enclosed proxy card. If a proxy card is signed by a shareholder of record and returned without specific voting instructions, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted "FOR" the proposals presented at the Bunge special general meeting. No proxy voted against the proposal to issue Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders will be voted in favor of any adjournment or postponement of the Bunge special general meeting.

Shareholders whose shares are held in "street name" must either instruct the record holder of their shares how to vote their shares or obtain a proxy from the record holder to vote at the Bunge special general meeting. Please check the voting form used by your bank, broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian for information on how to submit your instructions to them. Failure to provide voting instructions to your record holder will result in a "broker non-vote" for those shares held in street name. Shares represented by broker non-votes will not be voted "FOR" or "AGAINST" the proposals, but will be counted in determining whether or not a quorum exists.

Shareholders whose shares are held through participation in the Bunge Retirement Savings Plan, the Bunge Savings Plan and the Bunge Savings Plan Supplement A will receive a proxy card that will also serve as voting instructions for the trustees of those plans. If such shareholders do not provide voting instructions for shares held in any of those plans, the trustees will vote those shares in the same ratio as the shares for which voting instructions have been provided.

Bunge does not expect that any matter other than the proposals to approve the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders and to adjourn the Bunge special general meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies will be brought before the Bunge special general meeting. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the Bunge special general meeting, or any adjourned meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their judgment.

Revocability of Proxies

Shareholders of record may revoke their proxy at any time prior to the time it is voted at the meeting. Shareholders of record may revoke their proxy by:

submitting a written notice revoking their earlier vote or providing a properly completed and signed proxy card with a later date to Bunge's Assistant Secretary;

voting again telephonically or through the Internet (available until 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on November , 2008); or voting in person at the Bunge special general meeting.

Any written revocation or subsequent proxy card must be sent to the attention of Carla L. Heiss, Bunge's Assistant General Counsel and Assistant Secretary at 50 Main Street, White Plains, New York 10606, or by facsimile to (914) 684-3497.

Solicitation of Proxies

Bunge is soliciting proxies for the Bunge special general meeting and will bear all expenses in connection with its solicitation of proxies. Upon request, Bunge will pay banks, brokers, nominees, fiduciaries or other custodians their reasonable expenses for sending proxy material to, and obtaining instructions from, persons for whom they hold shares.

Bunge has retained Innisfree M&A Incorporated to assist with the solicitation of proxies. Innisfree will receive customary fees as compensation for its services plus reimbursement for its related out-of-pocket expenses.

Bunge expects to solicit proxies primarily by mail, but directors, officers and other employees of Bunge or Innisfree may also solicit in person or by Internet, telephone or mail. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or other employees of Bunge in connection with this solicitation.

Bunge shareholders who receive more than one proxy card or voting instruction form have shares registered in different forms or in more than one account. Please complete, sign, date and return all proxy cards and provide instructions for all voting instruction forms received to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

THE CORN PRODUCTS SPECIAL MEETING

Corn Products is furnishing this joint proxy statement/prospectus to Corn Products stockholders as of the Corn Products record date as part of the solicitation of proxies by the Corn Products board of directors for use at the Corn Products special meeting.

Date, Time and Place

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the Corn Products special meeting, Corn Products stockholders will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the merger agreement pursuant to which Bleecker Acquisition Corp. will merge with and into Corn Products, with Corn Products becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge. Pursuant to the merger agreement, each outstanding share of Corn Products common stock will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a Bunge common share determined by dividing $56.00 by the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting, provided that if this average closing price is equal to or greater than $133.10, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.4207 of a Bunge common share, and if this average closing price is equal to or less than $108.90, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.5142 of a Bunge common share.

At the Corn Products special meeting, Corn Products stockholders will also be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the Corn Products special meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Corn Products special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

The Corn Products board of directors, by unanimous vote, determined that the merger is in the best interests of Corn Products and its stockholders, approved the merger agreement and declared its advisability and recommends that Corn Products stockholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the merger agreement and "FOR" the adjournment of the Corn Products special meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Quorum

Only holders of record of Corn Products common stock at the close of business on September 29, 2008, the Corn Products record date for the Corn Products special meeting, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Corn Products special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of it. On the Corn Products record date, _____ shares of Corn Products common stock were issued and outstanding and held by approximately _____ holders of record.

A quorum is present at the Corn Products special meeting if a majority of all the shares of Corn Products common stock issued and outstanding on the Corn Products record date and entitled to vote at the Corn Products special meeting are represented at the Corn Products special meeting in person or by a properly executed proxy. Abstentions and broker non-votes (described below) will be treated as present at the Corn Products special meeting for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of all business. In the event that a quorum is not present at the Corn Products special meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies. Holders of record of Corn Products common stock on the Corn Products record date are entitled to one vote per share on each matter submitted to a vote at the Corn Products special meeting.

Vote Required

The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Corn Products common stock entitled to vote at the Corn Products special meeting. Because the required vote of Corn Products stockholders is based upon the number of outstanding shares of Corn Products common stock entitled to vote, rather than upon the shares actually voted, the failure by a Corn Products stockholder to appoint a proxy or to vote in person at the Corn Products special meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement.

The approval of the adjournment of the Corn Products special meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Corn Products special meeting to adopt the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power present or represented at the Corn Products special meeting. Because the required vote of Corn Products stockholders is based upon the number of shares present or represented at the Corn Products special meeting, rather than upon the outstanding shares of Corn Products common stock entitled to vote, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the adjournment of the Corn Products special meeting. The failure by a Corn Products stockholder to appoint a proxy or to vote in person at the Corn Products special meeting and broker non-votes will have no effect with respect to the vote on the adjournment of the Corn Products special meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Shares Owned by Corn Products Directors and Executive Officers

At the close of business on the Corn Products record date, directors and executive officers of Corn Products beneficially owned and were entitled to vote _____ shares of Corn Products common stock, which represented approximately _____ % of the shares of Corn Products common stock outstanding on that date.

Voting of Proxies

Stockholders of record may vote their shares by attending the Corn Products special meeting and voting their shares in person at the meeting, or by completing the enclosed proxy card, signing and dating it and mailing it in the enclosed postage pre-paid envelope. Stockholders also may appoint their proxies by telephone or the Internet by following the instructions provided in the enclosed proxy card. If a proxy card is signed by a stockholder of record and returned without specific voting instructions, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted "FOR" the proposals presented at the Corn Products special meeting. No proxy voted against the proposal to adopt the merger agreement will be voted in favor of any adjournment or postponement.

Stockholders whose shares are held in "street name" must either instruct the record holder of their shares how to vote their shares or obtain a proxy from the record holder to vote at the Corn Products special meeting. Please check the voting form used by your bank, broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian for information on how to submit your instructions to them. Failure to provide voting instructions to your record holder will result in a "broker non-vote" for those shares held in street name. Shares represented by broker non-votes will not be voted "FOR" or "AGAINST" the proposals, but will be counted in determining whether or not a quorum exists.

Stockholders whose shares are held under the Corn Products International Stock Fund in Corn Products' Retirement Savings Plans may instruct the plan trustee on how to vote their shares by completing the enclosed proxy card. The plan trustee may vote all the shares of the stockholder allocated to his or her account on the record date. The plan trustee will not vote shares held in the Retirement Savings Plans as to which it does not receive timely directions.

Corn Products does not expect that any matter other than the proposals to adopt the merger agreement and to adjourn the Corn Products special meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies will be brought before the Corn Products special meeting. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the Corn Products special meeting, or any adjourned meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their judgment.

Revocability of Proxies

Stockholders of record may revoke their proxy at any time prior to the time it is voted at the meeting. Stockholders of record may revoke their proxy by:

submitting a later-dated proxy card relating to the same shares to Corn Products' Corporate Secretary before the taking of the vote at the Corn Products special meeting;

providing later-dated Internet or telephone voting instructions; submitting a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy card or Internet or telephone voting instructions to Corn Products' Corporate Secretary before the taking of the vote at the Corn Products special meeting; or attending the Corn Products special meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Corn Products special meeting will not, in and of itself, revoke a proxy).

Any written revocation or subsequent proxy card should be delivered to Corn Products International, Inc., 5 Westbrook Corporate Center, Westchester, Illinois 60154, Attention: Mary Ann Hynes, Vice President, General Counsel, Corporate Secretary and Chief Compliance Officer, or hand delivered to Corn Products' Corporate Secretary or her representative before the taking of the vote at the Corn Products special meeting.

Solicitation of Proxies

Corn Products is soliciting proxies for the Corn Products special meeting and will bear all expenses in connection with its solicitation of proxies. Corn Products will pay brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares held in street name certain fees associated with forwarding the notice or availability to beneficial owners, forwarding paper proxy materials by mail to beneficial owners, and obtaining beneficial owners' voting instructions. In addition to soliciting proxies by the Internet and mail, Corn Products' board members, officers and employees may solicit proxies on the company's behalf, without additional compensation, personally, by e-mail or by telephone.

Corn Products has retained Morrow & Co., LLC to assist with the solicitation of proxies. Morrow & Co. will receive customary fees as compensation for its services plus reimbursement for its related out-of-pocket expenses.

Corn Products expects to solicit proxies primarily by mail, but directors, officers and other employees of Corn Products or Morrow & Co. may also solicit in person or by Internet, telephone or mail. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or other employees of Corn Products in connection with this solicitation.

Corn Products stockholders who receive more than one proxy card or voting instruction form have shares registered in different forms or in more than one account. Please complete, sign, date and return all proxy cards and provide instructions for all voting instruction forms received to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Corn Products stockholders should not send stock certificates with their proxies. A transmittal form with instructions for the surrender of Corn Products common stock certificates will be mailed to Corn Products stockholders shortly after completion of the merger.

THE MERGER

General

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Bleecker Acquisition Corp., a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge, will merge with and into Corn Products. Corn Products will be the surviving corporation and will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge. As a result of the merger, Corn Products stockholders will be entitled to receive in exchange for each of their shares of Corn Products common stock a fraction of a Bunge common share determined by dividing $56.00 by the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting, provided that if this average closing price is equal to or greater than $133.10, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.4207 of a Bunge common share, and if this average closing price is equal to or less than $108.90, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.5142 of a Bunge common share.

Background to the Merger

From time to time, Bunge explores and assesses the various strategic alternatives available to strengthen its existing market positions, establish new growth platforms, extend its global footprint into key geographies and deliver increased value to its shareholders. In late 2007 and early 2008, Bunge retained Credit Suisse and Morgan Stanley as financial advisors to assist it in evaluating potential business combination transactions, including a combination with Corn Products.

At a regularly scheduled meeting of the Bunge board of directors on December 13 and 14, 2007, Alberto Weisser, Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of Bunge, discussed with the Bunge board of directors potential business combination transactions through which Bunge could enter the corn wet milling industry, including a potential business combination transaction with Corn Products. Following discussion, the Bunge board of directors authorized Bunge senior management to proceed with a more in-depth evaluation of opportunities to enter the corn wet milling industry.

Following this meeting, Bunge senior management concluded that, as a preliminary matter, Bunge should focus on a potential business combination with Corn Products. The factors considered by senior management of Bunge in reaching this conclusion included Corn Products' status as a pure play corn wet miller, its products profile, its size and its geographic footprint. Based on their knowledge of Corn Products and its senior management, Bunge senior management also thought that Corn Products would be a good cultural fit with Bunge.

In early 2008, Bunge retained Shearman & Sterling LLP as its legal advisor in connection with its consideration of potential business combination transactions, including a combination with Corn Products.

On January 30, 2008, Mr. Weisser telephoned Samuel C. Scott III, the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Corn Products, to request a meeting with Mr. Scott. On February 21, 2008, Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott met and Mr. Weisser inquired about Corn Products' possible interest in a potential strategic transaction between Bunge and Corn Products.

On February 25, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors met by teleconference. Mr. Scott reported on his conversations with Mr. Weisser and the Corn Products board of directors authorized Mr. Scott to continue his conversations with Mr. Weisser and report back to the board. Following the meeting, representatives of Corn Products contacted its regular outside counsel, Sidley Austin LLP, to inform them of these developments.

At a regularly scheduled meeting of the Bunge board of directors on February 29, 2008, senior members of Bunge management discussed with the Bunge board of directors various business combination possibilities, including a possible combination with Corn Products. As part of that discussion, the strategic rationale for a business combination transaction with Corn Products was discussed, as well as the likely financial impact on Bunge of such a combination. Following discussion, the Bunge board of directors authorized Bunge senior management to continue discussions with senior management of Corn Products regarding a possible business combination transaction between Corn Products and Bunge.

On March 4, 2008, Mr. Scott, William Norman, Corn Products' lead director, and Mary Ann Hynes, Vice President, General Counsel, Corporate Secretary and Chief Compliance Officer of Corn Products, met with representatives of Sidley Austin and discussed the recent conversations between Mr. Scott and Mr. Weisser, as well as the discussion relating thereto among the members of the Corn Products board of directors, including various matters related to the fiduciary duties of the directors and a potential transaction process.

Later on March 4, 2008, Mr. Weisser telephoned Mr. Scott to confirm Bunge's preliminary interest in exploring a business combination transaction with Corn Products. Mr. Weisser did not indicate any financial terms for such a transaction during this call. At the end of the telephone call, Mr. Scott suggested that he and Mr. Weisser meet in Chicago on March 14, 2008 to continue their discussions regarding the exploration of a possible business combination transaction.

On March 7, 2008, management of Corn Products and representatives of Sidley Austin met with representatives of Lazard and informed Lazard of the discussions with Bunge (and Lazard was later formally engaged as Corn Products' financial advisor in connection with a potential business combination transaction). Following that meeting, a telephonic meeting of the Corn Products board of directors was held in which members of Corn Products' senior management and representatives of Sidley Austin and Lazard participated. Representatives of Sidley Austin reviewed with the Corn Products board of directors various matters regarding fiduciary duties and other considerations to be taken into account during the transaction process. Mr. Scott presented an update on the events that had occurred since the most recent board meeting and indicated that Lazard would present materials regarding various valuation methodologies for Corn Products at the next regularly scheduled board meeting.

On March 14, 2008, Mr. Weisser and Jacquelyn A. Fouse, Chief Financial Officer of Bunge, met in Chicago with Mr. Scott and Ms. Hynes to discuss their preliminary views on a business combination transaction between Bunge and Corn Products. At the meeting, Mr. Scott said that while Corn Products was not currently considering strategic alternatives, he would consider and present to the Corn Products board of directors any indication of interest that Mr. Weisser expressed at the meeting. Mr. Weisser stated that, based solely on Bunge's review of publicly available information, including reports of equity research analysts, Bunge might be prepared to pursue an all-stock transaction for Corn Products at a price that valued each share of Corn Products common stock in the "high-$40s", which suggested a premium of 25% to 30% over the then current market price of Corn Products common stock. The meeting concluded by Mr. Scott committing to discuss Bunge's indication of interest with the Corn Products board of directors and to follow up with Mr. Weisser thereafter.

On March 19, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors met in person at a regularly scheduled meeting. Representatives of Sidley Austin and Lazard and members of senior management also participated in the meeting. Mr. Scott reported on the meeting with Mr. Weisser and Ms. Fouse and stated that he had received an indication of interest from Bunge at that meeting. Representatives of Sidley Austin briefed the Corn Products board of directors on various legal considerations to be taken into account, including the fiduciary duties of the directors and confidentiality. Representatives of Lazard presented a preliminary analysis of Corn Products' recent stock performance, various strategic alternatives and other observations regarding the indication of interest received from Bunge. Following discussion, the Corn Products board of directors authorized Corn Products senior management to continue discussions with Bunge, enter into a mutual confidentiality agreement, exchange high level due diligence information and request Bunge to make a more specific proposal.

On April 1, 2008, Corn Products and Bunge entered into a mutual confidentiality agreement containing customary confidentiality and standstill provisions, and, on April 2, 2008, Bunge sent a due diligence request list to Corn Products requesting that Corn Products provide Bunge and its representatives with certain business, financial, accounting, legal, regulatory and other information.

On April 4, 2008, the Bunge board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which Mr. Weisser updated the Bunge board of directors on the status of discussions with Corn Products and answered questions posed by the Bunge directors.

On April 9, 2008, Mr. Scott, Cheryl K. Beebe, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Corn Products, and Ms. Hynes met in New York with Ms. Fouse and Carl Hausmann, President and Chief Executive Officer, Bunge North America. At the meeting, the Corn Products representatives made a presentation and answered questions posed by the Bunge representatives regarding certain aspects of Corn Products' business, including recent trends in commodities prices, tax planning and the status of its arbitration against the federal government of Mexico under the North American Free Trade Agreement. The Corn Products representatives also told the Bunge representatives that they wanted a firmer indication from Bunge as to the price it might be prepared to pay for each share of Corn Products common stock. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Bunge representatives stated that they would consider the information that had been presented by Corn Products and contact Corn Products the following week regarding a per share valuation of Corn Products' common stock.

On April 15, 2008, Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott spoke by telephone, and Mr. Weisser indicated that Bunge was prepared to revise its preliminary price indication to a price of up to $50.00 per share and reiterated that Bunge was seeking an all-stock transaction structure. Mr. Scott indicated that, if Corn Products were to enter into a transaction with Bunge with a significant stock component, Corn Products would be seeking some form of price protection for its stockholders in the event of fluctuations in the market price of Bunge common shares.

On April 17, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors met by teleconference. Representatives of Sidley Austin and Lazard and members of Corn Products senior management also participated in the meeting. Mr. Scott updated the Corn Products board of directors on the discussions with Bunge since the last board meeting, including the execution of a confidentiality agreement and the mutual exchange of certain due diligence information. He also indicated that Bunge had indicated an interest in acquiring Corn Products at a price of $50.00 per share, based on an all-stock transaction structure. Representatives of Lazard presented an updated preliminary analysis of valuation methodologies for Corn Products, which reflected the increased earnings expectations that Corn Products intended to announce to the public at its upcoming earnings call. Following discussion, the Corn Products board of directors authorized management to continue discussions with Bunge and seek an increase in its indicated price per share of Corn Products common stock before proceeding with additional due diligence review.

On April 18, 2008, Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott spoke by telephone. Mr. Scott stated that the Corn Products board of directors had authorized Mr. Scott to meet with Mr. Weisser to continue discussing potential transaction terms and structure with Bunge. Mr. Scott also stated that Corn Products would not proceed with due diligence unless Bunge could indicate a price no lower than the "mid-$50s" for each share of Corn Products common stock. Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott agreed to try to arrange a meeting on either April 25, 2008 in Chicago or April 28, 2008 in New York to continue discussions.

On April 21, 2008, Mr. Weisser spoke with Mr. Scott about the transaction process and timing issues, including the mutual due diligence information to be exchanged. At this time, Mr. Scott told Mr. Weisser that a price of $50.00 per share of Corn Products common stock was "too low" and that Bunge would have to propose a higher indicative price in order to initiate a process that could lead to a definitive agreement for a business combination transaction with Corn Products. Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott discussed potential ranges of valuation that Mr. Scott would be willing to recommend to the Corn Products board of directors but did not agree on an indicative range and decided to allow Bunge's financial advisors and Corn Products' financial advisor to have discussions regarding the views of Bunge and Corn Products, respectively, as to the valuation of Corn Products.

On April 22, 2008, Bunge's financial advisors and Corn Products' financial advisor spoke by telephone. During the call, the financial advisors discussed the views of Bunge and Corn Products, respectively, as to the valuation considerations for Corn Products and Corn Products' request that Bunge should propose a higher indicative price per share for Corn Products common stock. Corn Products' financial advisor reiterated that while Corn Products was open to an all-stock transaction, some form of price protection would be required.

Also, on April 22, 2008, Corn Products reported its financial results for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2008. On April 24, 2008, Bunge reported its financial results for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2008.

On April 25, 2008, at Bunge's request, Bunge's financial advisors spoke by telephone to Corn Products' financial advisor. Bunge's financial advisors stated that Bunge might be prepared to pay as much as $55.00 per share of Corn Products common stock in an all-stock transaction, but that additional due diligence would be required to determine whether such a price was attainable, and that Bunge was making no commitment on any form of price protection. The financial advisors also discussed the scope of due diligence that Bunge intended to conduct on Corn Products and that Corn Products intended to conduct on Bunge. At the conclusion of the call, Corn Products' financial advisor agreed to respond to Bunge's financial advisors by early the following week.

On April 28, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors met by teleconference. Representatives of Sidley Austin and Lazard and members of Corn Products senior management also participated in the meeting. Lazard reported on recent discussions with Bunge's financial advisors regarding the price and structure of a proposed transaction. Lazard also reviewed the preliminary valuation analyses that it had previously presented to the Corn Products board of directors. Sidley Austin addressed certain legal matters, including the fiduciary duties of the directors. Following discussion, the Corn Products board of directors authorized Lazard to respond to Bunge's financial advisors to schedule additional due diligence review sessions to provide additional information to support an increase in Bunge's indicated price per share of Corn Products common stock.

On April 29, 2008, Bunge's financial advisors spoke by telephone with Corn Products' financial advisor regarding the views of Bunge and Corn Products, respectively, on the valuation of Corn Products common stock. On the telephone call, the financial advisors discussed having the senior management of Corn Products give a presentation to Bunge's senior management to assist Bunge and its financial advisors in understanding Corn Products' views on the valuation of Corn Products common stock. Later that afternoon, Mr. Weisser spoke by telephone with Mr. Scott about their respective views on the valuation of Corn Products common stock. Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott also discussed scheduling a presentation by the senior management of Corn Products to the senior management of Bunge and set the date of such management presentation for May 9, 2008.

On May 9, 2008, Mr. Scott, Ms. Beebe and Ms. Hynes made a full-day presentation in Chicago to the senior management of Bunge focusing on Corn Products' high-level business plan, its arbitration against the federal government of Mexico under the North American Free Trade Agreement and potential synergy opportunities and answering questions posed by Bunge's senior management. The financial advisors for Bunge and Corn Products also attended the meeting. After the presentation, Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott discussed potential ranges for the value of shares of Corn Products common stock and Mr. Weisser stated that, based upon the information that had been provided to date, and subject to satisfactory completion by Bunge of its due diligence review, Bunge was prepared to revise its preliminary indication to a price in the range of $54.00 to $56.00 per share of Corn Products common stock.

On May 12, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors met by teleconference. Representatives of Sidley Austin and Lazard and members of Corn Products senior management also participated in the meeting. Mr. Scott updated the Corn Products board of directors on the recent discussions with Bunge, including the $54.00 to $56.00 price range. Lazard discussed its preliminary views regarding valuation in light of the range proposed by Bunge. The Corn Products board of directors also preliminarily discussed with the representatives of Sidley Austin and Lazard the potential terms for a definitive merger agreement, including the operation of collars in stock-for-stock transactions, deal protection measures, break-up fees and the right to consider competing proposals. Representatives of Sidley Austin again reviewed the fiduciary duties of the directors and other legal matters. Mr. Scott indicated that if the Corn Products board of directors concluded that the proposed price range justified continuing discussions with Bunge, Corn Products management recommended proceeding with mutual in-depth due diligence and described a tentative schedule for proceeding with negotiations. Following further discussion, the Corn Products board of directors authorized continued discussions with Bunge.

On May 14, 2008, Corn Products provided Bunge and its advisors access to an "electronic dataroom". From May 15, 2008 until June 21, 2008, Bunge and its advisors reviewed the due diligence materials provided to them by Corn Products and its financial advisor. In addition, during such period, Bunge and its advisors convened conference calls from time to time with Corn Products and its advisors to discuss matters relating to Bunge's due diligence review of Corn Products.

On May 16, 2008, Mr. Scott, Ms. Beebe and Ms. Hynes together with the regional presidents of Corn Products made a full-day presentation to the senior management of Bunge and its financial advisors and representatives of Ernst & Young LLP, Bunge's transactional due diligence advisors, in Chicago. Corn Products' financial advisor was also present at this meeting. During the management presentation, senior management of Corn Products provided business, financial, accounting, legal, regulatory and other information that was more detailed than the information that had previously been provided to representatives of Bunge, including information by individual business region, and answered due diligence questions posed by Bunge's senior management.

On May 19, 2008, Corn Products' financial advisor sent to Bunge's financial advisors a list of materials and questions that Corn Products and its advisors requested in connection with their due diligence review of Bunge. From May 19, 2008 through June 21, 2008, Corn Products and its advisors reviewed the due diligence materials provided to them by Bunge. In addition, during such period, representatives of Corn Products and its advisors convened conference calls from time to time with representatives of Bunge and its advisors to discuss matters relating to Corn Products' due diligence review of Bunge.

On May 21, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors met in person at a regularly scheduled meeting of the board following its annual meeting of stockholders. Representatives of Sidley Austin and Lazard and members of Corn Products senior management also participated in the meeting. Mr. Scott updated the Corn Products board of directors on the discussions with Bunge since the last board meeting. The Corn Products board of directors also met separately with representatives of Sidley Austin but without management and discussed various matters, including an illustrative timetable in the event that the board determined to continue to pursue a potential transaction with Bunge. The Corn Products board of directors also discussed the possible retention of a second investment banking firm to act as financial advisor to Corn Products and render a fairness opinion with respect to any potential transaction.

Later, on May 21, 2008, Bunge sent a draft of a proposed merger agreement to Corn Products.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

On May 22, 2008, the Bunge board of directors held a regularly scheduled meeting in advance of its annual general meeting of shareholders. Representatives of Shearman & Sterling, Credit Suisse and Morgan Stanley attended the meeting. Shearman & Sterling presented an overview of the responsibilities of the Bunge board of directors under Bermuda law in considering the proposed transaction with Corn Products. Then, Bunge senior management made a presentation to the Bunge board of directors regarding the status of their discussions with Corn Products senior management and Bunge's due diligence review of Corn Products. In addition, senior members of Bunge management discussed their preliminary views as to the valuation of Corn Products common stock and the impact of the proposed transaction on Bunge from financial and credit viewpoints. Bunge's senior management also presented to the Bunge board of directors a comparison of various types of exchange ratio mechanisms used in stock-for-stock transactions. Finally, Bunge senior management presented a preliminary transaction timeline and, along with Credit Suisse and Morgan Stanley, answered questions posed by the Bunge directors. Following discussion, the Corn Products board of directors approved the retention of a second investment banking firm to act as financial advisor to Corn Products and authorized management to retain JPMorgan for such purpose.

On June 3, 2008, Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott met in New York. Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott discussed valuation ranges for the shares of Corn Products common stock, including a price of $56.00 for each share of Corn Products common stock. Mr. Scott reiterated his position that, while a transaction in which the consideration consisted entirely of Bunge common shares might be acceptable to the Corn Products board of directors, some form of price protection for Corn Products stockholders would be required. They further discussed possible roles for Corn Products senior and business segment management in the Bunge organization following completion of the merger as well as various other integration issues to be addressed in a potential business combination, and agreed that Corn Products would maintain its operational headquarters in Westchester, Illinois, and continue to use the Corn Products brand name following any transaction.

On June 4, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors met by teleconference. Representatives of Sidley Austin and Lazard and members of Corn Products senior management also participated in the meeting. Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

On June 9, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors met in person. Sidley Austin reviewed the terms of the proposed merger agreement with the directors and received guidance with respect to responding to Bunge with respect to various issues in the proposed merger agreement. On June 9, 2008, Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott spoke by telephone and Mr. Scott updated Mr. Weisser on certain points of discussion among the Corn Products board of directors at their meeting earlier that day. Mr. Scott also told Mr. Weisser that the Corn Products board of directors wanted two or three existing Corn Products directors to be appointed to the Bunge board of directors upon the completion of the proposed merger. Mr. Weisser told Mr. Scott that the Bunge board of directors was prepared to commit to appoint only Mr. Scott to the Bunge board of directors upon the completion of the merger.

On June 10, 2008, representatives of Lazard spoke by telephone with representatives of Credit Suisse and Morgan Stanley regarding Corn Products' views on the valuation of Corn Products common stock and price protection mechanisms, as well as certain aspects of the proposed merger agreement, including the termination fee provisions. That evening, Corn Products' legal advisor sent to Bunge's legal advisor a revised proposed merger agreement.

From June 11, 2008 through June 21, 2008, Bunge's legal advisor and Corn Products' legal advisor negotiated the terms of the proposed merger agreement. In connection with these negotiations, the parties exchanged multiple drafts of the proposed merger agreement and comments with respect thereto. Each of Bunge's and Corn Products' senior management teams met regularly with their respective advisors to receive an update on the status of the negotiations and provide direction and instructions to their advisors. Among other terms discussed between the representatives, topics of significant discussion included:

the conditions under which either the Bunge or Corn Products board of directors would be permitted to change its recommendation to its stockholders or terminate the merger agreement and the consequences of any such change in recommendation or termination;

the non-solicitation provisions applicable to Corn Products and the circumstances under which the Corn Products board of directors would be permitted to solicit or respond to and accept a superior proposal, including Bunge's right to match any such proposal;

the mechanism for determining the exchange ratio;

the extent of the representations and warranties to be provided by both Bunge and Corn Products and the covenants applicable to the operations of their respective businesses pending consummation of the merger; and certain employee benefit provisions of the merger agreement.

On June 16, 2008, Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott spoke by telephone twice regarding the remaining principal issues with respect to the proposed transaction. Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott discussed valuation and agreed in principle to a price of $56.00 per share of Corn Products common stock, subject to satisfactory completion by both parties of their final due diligence reviews and to the final merger agreement, including the exchange ratio mechanism, being satisfactory to both parties. In addition, Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott agreed that representatives of Credit Suisse and Morgan Stanley and Lazard would discuss possible price protection mechanisms, including a floating exchange ratio with upper and lower limits of 10% above and below a representative stock price to be agreed at the time of entering into a definitive agreement, and would report back to members of senior management of Bunge and Corn Products, respectively. Mr. Scott reiterated that the Corn Products board of directors wanted two or three existing Corn Products directors to be appointed to the Bunge board of directors upon the completion of the proposed merger, and Mr. Weisser responded that the Bunge board of directors was prepared to commit only to appointing Mr. Scott to the Bunge board of directors upon completion of the proposed merger, but that he would raise with the Bunge board of directors the possibility of appointing one or two additional Corn Products directors.

On June 16, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors met by teleconference. Representatives of Sidley Austin and Lazard and members of Corn Products senior management also participated in the meeting. Mr. Scott commented on the recent market performance of the Corn Products common stock and reported on his discussions with Mr. Weisser. Representatives of Sidley Austin reported on their discussions with Bunge's legal advisors regarding the terms of the proposed merger agreement. Following discussion, Corn Products management and its advisors were directed to continue to work towards resolving the remaining outstanding issues.

Mr. Weisser and Mr. Scott spoke several times by telephone from June 17, 2008 through June 20, 2008 regarding certain terms of the proposed merger agreement, as well as their plans regarding the announcement of the transaction were it to be finally agreed.

On the morning of June 20, 2008, a special meeting of the Bunge board of directors was held. At the meeting, senior members of Bunge management reviewed with the Bunge board of directors the structure of the proposed transaction, the background of the discussions with Corn Products and the results of Bunge's due diligence review of Corn Products. Bunge senior management also presented the principal terms of the proposed transaction. Credit Suisse presented its financial analyses of the transaction and rendered its oral opinion to Bunge's board of directors, subsequently confirmed by delivery of its written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, to the effect that, as of the date thereof, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the written opinion, the exchange ratio was fair to Bunge from a financial point of view. Morgan Stanley presented its financial analyses of the transaction and rendered its oral opinion to Bunge's board of directors, subsequently confirmed by delivery of its written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, to the effect that, as of the date thereof, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the written opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to Bunge. Shearman & Sterling then reviewed the principal terms of the proposed merger agreement, including the provisions that had changed over the course of negotiation with Corn Products and its legal advisor. Following extended discussion, and taking into account the factors described below in greater detail under "Bunge's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Bunge Board of Directors", the Bunge board of directors, by unanimous vote of those present, approved the merger agreement and declared its advisability and resolved to recommend that Bunge shareholders vote to approve the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders.

On June 20, 2008, the Corn Products board of directors also met in person at a special meeting. Representatives of Sidley Austin, Lazard and JPMorgan and members of Corn Products senior management were also present. Representatives of Sidley Austin reviewed the fiduciary duties of the directors and other legal matters. Management presented an update of events since the last meeting of the Corn Products board of directors, including the principal financial terms of the proposed transaction, as well as an update on the status of business and legal due diligence of Bunge. Representatives of Sidley Austin reviewed the principal terms of the proposed merger agreement, including the course of negotiations between the advisors regarding the open terms, relevant tax and regulatory considerations, a comparison of Delaware and Bermuda law, the stockholder approval process and timeline and the interim operation of Corn Products after the proposed execution of the merger agreement. Lazard presented its valuation report and described the fairness opinion that it was prepared to deliver. Following Lazard's report, JPMorgan presented its valuation report and described the fairness opinion that it was prepared to deliver. Extended discussion followed with numerous questions addressed to Corn Products management and its advisors, following which the meeting was scheduled to be reconvened by teleconference the following day.

On June 21, 2008, the meeting of the Corn Products board of directors was reconvened by telephone. Representatives of Sidley Austin, Lazard and JPMorgan and members of Corn Products senior management also participated. Mr. Scott and representatives of Sidley Austin updated the Corn Products board of directors with respect to discussions that had taken place since the previous day, including final changes to the merger agreement. After responding to questions, Lazard delivered to the Corn Products board of directors an oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, that as of such date and based on and subject to the assumptions, procedures, factors, limitations and qualifications set forth in its respective written opinion, the per share merger consideration to be paid to Corn Products' stockholders in the merger was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Corn Products common stock. Following the presentation by Lazard and after responding to questions, JPMorgan delivered to the Corn Products board of directors an oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, that as of such date and based on and subject to the assumptions, procedures, factors, limitations and qualifications set forth in its respective written opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Corn Products common stock. After additional discussion, and taking into account the factors described below in greater detail under "Corn Products' Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Corn Products Board of Directors", the Corn Products board of directors unanimously adopted resolutions which, among other things, determined that the merger is in the best interests of Corn Products and its stockholders, approved the merger agreement and declared its advisability, approved the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and resolved to recommend that the Corn Products stockholders vote for the adoption of the merger agreement.

Following the meeting of the Corn Products board of directors on June 21, 2008, Bunge, Bleecker Acquisition Corp. and Corn Products executed the merger agreement.

Early in the morning of June 23, 2008, Bunge and Corn Products issued a joint press release announcing their execution of the merger agreement.

Bunge's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Bunge Board of Directors

At a special meeting of the Bunge board of directors held on June 20, 2008, the Bunge board of directors, by unanimous vote of those present, approved the merger agreement and declared its advisability and approved a proposal to issue Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders on the terms and conditions set out in the merger agreement, and recommends that Bunge shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the proposal.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

In reaching its decision to adopt the proposal and recommend that Bunge shareholders vote to approve the proposal, the Bunge board of directors, at its June 20, 2008 meeting, and at other meetings at which it had considered the proposed acquisition of Corn Products, considered a number of factors, including the following:

Market Price. The Bunge board of directors considered the value of the per share merger consideration to be paid by Bunge in the merger, including the fact that Corn Products stockholders will receive, for each share of Corn Products common stock that they own, per share merger consideration consisting of the right to receive a fraction of a Bunge common share determined by dividing $56.00 by the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting, provided that if this average closing price is equal to or greater than $133.10, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.4207 of a Bunge common share, and if this average closing price is equal to or less than $108.90, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.5142 of a Bunge common share. The Bunge board of directors also considered the historical stock prices of Bunge common shares and Corn Products common stock.

Form of Per Share Merger Consideration. The Bunge board of directors considered that the per share merger consideration will have a dilutive effect on the ownership of the current holders of Bunge common shares. The Bunge board of directors noted that because the per share merger consideration is subject to a collar, the dilution to existing Bunge shareholders would be limited.

Business, Condition and Prospects. The Bunge board of directors considered Corn Products' financial condition, results of operations, business, competitive position, reputation and business prospects, as well as current industry, economic, government regulatory and market conditions and trends. The Bunge board of directors also reviewed information with respect to the prospects of the combined company.

Strategic Advantages. The Bunge board of directors considered its assessment of the complementary strengths of each of the companies and the experience of Bunge in integrating acquired companies. The Bunge board of directors also reviewed information with respect to the prospects of the combined company, including the potential to create a larger, more diversified and competitive global provider of agribusiness and food products as a result of the following:

through the addition of Corn Products' sweeteners, starches and other products to Bunge's portfolio of products, the combined company is expected to be well positioned to serve growing global demand for a broad array of agribusiness and food products;

the merger is expected to bring together the established strengths of the two companies in core geographic regions, including the United States, Brazil and Argentina; it is also expected to provide opportunities to build on each company's assets to expand in high-growth geographic regions, such as China, Mexico, India, South America, Southeast Asia and Africa; through the creation of common and more efficient distribution channels and improved sales and product development capabilities, the combined company is expected to be able to increase its presence in shared customer segments, such as processed food, bakery, animal feed and brewing, while serving a larger and more diverse set of customers overall; and Bunge expects to achieve certain cost synergies through savings in areas such as procurement, logistics and elimination of duplicate costs; additionally, the all-stock transaction is expected to strengthen Bunge's balance sheet for future growth and contribute positively to cash flows.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

Terms of the Merger Agreement. The Bunge board of directors, with the assistance of its legal advisors, reviewed the terms of the merger agreement, including the amount of the termination fee payable to Bunge under certain circumstances, the circumstances under which the Corn Products board of directors could change its recommendation to the Corn Products stockholders that they adopt the merger agreement, the March 23, 2009 termination date and the circumstances under which Bunge or Corn Products would have to pay certain fees and expenses of the other up to a $10 million limit.

Potential Risks. The Bunge board of directors considered a number of potential risks, as well as related mitigating factors, in connection with its evaluation of the merger. These risks include the potential diversion of management resources from operational matters and the opportunity costs associated with the merger prior to the completion or abandonment of the merger. Other risks considered by the Bunge board of directors included:

the risk that the merger would not be consummated at all, despite the parties' efforts to cause it to occur;

the risk that the potential benefits of the merger may not be realized;

the restrictions on Bunge contained in the merger agreement to conduct its business between signing and closing in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement;

because of the floating exchange ratio between 0.5142 and 0.4207, the possibility that the value of the merger consideration could increase prior to the closing of the merger if the trading price of Bunge common shares increases above $133.10 per share, and the possibility of additional dilution to Bunge shareholders in the event of any decrease in the trading price of Bunge common shares to $108.90 per share or lower;

the risks arising from the challenges of integrating the businesses, management teams, strategies, cultures and organizations of the two companies;

the risk that the merger might not be consummated on a timely basis despite the parties' efforts and if the merger is not closed by March 23, 2009, the fact that the merger agreement will become terminable;

the impact of merger-related costs and expenses, including integration expenses, on the combined company's financial position; and other applicable risks described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 26.

In the judgment of the Bunge board of directors, however, these potential risks were favorably offset by the potential benefits of the merger discussed above.

Opinion of Credit Suisse. Credit Suisse rendered its oral opinion to Bunge's board of directors, subsequently confirmed by delivery of its written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, to Bunge's board of directors, to the effect that, as of the date thereof and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the written opinion, the exchange ratio was fair to Bunge from a financial point of view, as described under "Opinions of Bunge's Financial Advisors Opinion of Credit Suisse" beginning on page 53. A copy of Credit Suisse's written opinion is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Opinion of Morgan Stanley. Morgan Stanley rendered its oral opinion to Bunge's board of directors, subsequently confirmed by delivery of its written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, to Bunge's board of directors, to the effect that, as of the date thereof and based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in the written opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to Bunge, as described under "

Opinions of Bunge's Financial Advisors - Opinion of Morgan Stanley" beginning on page 62. A copy of Morgan Stanley's written opinion is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Additional Considerations. In the course of its deliberations on the merger, the Bunge board of directors consulted with members of Bunge management and Bunge's legal and financial advisors on various legal, business, regulatory and financial matters relating to the merger. Additional factors considered by the Bunge board of directors in determining whether to approve the merger agreement and the merger and to adopt the proposal to issue Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders and recommend that Bunge shareholders vote to approve this proposal included:

the fact that Bunge shareholders will have an opportunity to vote on the proposal to issue Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders; and the fact the Bunge board of directors has the right under the merger agreement to withdraw its recommendation to Bunge shareholders that they approve the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders if the Bunge board of directors determines, in its good faith judgment prior to the Bunge special general meeting and after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to withdraw its recommendation of such issuance of Bunge common shares would be inconsistent with the Bunge directors' exercise of their fiduciary obligations to Bunge and its shareholders under applicable law.

The foregoing discussion is not intended to be exhaustive, but Bunge believes it addresses the material information and factors considered by the Bunge board of directors in its consideration of the merger, including factors that may support the merger, as well as factors that may weigh against it. In view of the variety of factors and the amount of information considered, the Bunge board of directors did not find it practicable to quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to and did not make specific assessments of the factors considered in reaching its determination. In addition, the Bunge board of directors did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination, and individual members of the Bunge board of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Corn Products' Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Corn Products Board of Directors

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and declare its advisability and to recommend adoption of the merger agreement to Corn Products stockholders, the Corn Products board of directors consulted with the Corn Products senior management team, as well as its outside legal and financial advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors which the Corn Products board of directors viewed as supporting its decision to approve the merger agreement and declare its advisability and to recommend that Corn Products stockholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the merger agreement:

Value of Merger Consideration. The Corn Products board of directors considered the value of the per share merger consideration to be received by Corn Products stockholders in the merger, including the fact that, if the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting is between $108.90 and $133.10, Corn Products stockholders will receive, for each share of Corn Products common stock that they own, per share merger consideration with a value of $56.00. The Corn Products board of directors also considered the fact that, because the exchange ratio becomes fixed outside this range, the value of the per share merger consideration to be received by Corn Products stockholders will be less than $56.00 to the extent that the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting falls below $108.90 and will be more than $56.00 to the extent that the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share during that period rises above $133.10. The Corn Products board of directors also considered the course of negotiations between the parties, including that such negotiations resulted in a higher price per share of Corn Products common stock than was initially proposed by Bunge.

Form of Merger Consideration. The Corn Products board of directors considered that the merger consideration will permit Corn Products' stockholders to exchange their shares of Corn Products common stock for Bunge common shares and retain an equity interest in the combined enterprise with the related opportunity to share in its future growth. The Corn Products board of directors also reviewed the current and historical trading prices for Bunge common shares as well as the volatility of the price for Bunge common shares compared to the volatility of the Corn Products common stock price.

Terms of the Merger Agreement. The Corn Products board of directors, with the assistance of its legal advisors, reviewed the terms of the merger agreement, including:

the ability of the Corn Products board of directors to respond to and engage in discussions or negotiations regarding unsolicited third party acquisition proposals under certain circumstances and, ultimately, to terminate the merger agreement in order to accept a superior proposal;

the ability of the Corn Products board of directors to withdraw, modify or amend its recommendation that Corn Products stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement under certain circumstances;

Corn Products' right to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances; and the possibility that Corn Products will be obligated to pay a $110 million termination fee to Bunge or to reimburse Bunge for certain fees and expenses.

Corn Products' Business Condition and Prospects. The Corn Products board of directors considered information with respect to Corn Products' financial condition, results of operations, business, competitive position and business prospects and risks, on both a historical and prospective basis, as well as current industry, economic and market conditions and trends. The Corn Products board of directors also took into account the risks involved with succession planning following Samuel C. Scott III's announced retirement as President and Chief Executive Officer of Corn Products as well as Corn Products' prospects for recovering damages in connection with proceedings relating to Corn Products' assertion that the imposition by Mexico of a discriminatory tax on beverages containing high fructose corn syrup breached various obligations of Mexico under North American Free Trade Agreement.

Bunge's Business Condition and Prospects. The Corn Products board of directors considered information with respect to Bunge's financial condition, results of operations, business, competitive position and business prospects and risks, on both a historical and prospective basis, as well as current industry, economic and market conditions and trends. In considering Bunge's condition and prospects, the Corn Products board of directors reviewed Bunge's historical performance, public filings made by Bunge, analysts reports about Bunge and reports from Corn Products' senior management team regarding its due diligence review of Bunge's business and legal affairs and Bunge's management. The Corn Products board of directors also took into account the expected effect of the merger on Bunge's earnings per common share and pro forma debt structure.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

Strategic Advantages. The Corn Products board of directors also considered its assessment of the complementary strengths of each of the companies and the compatibility of the corporate structures. The Corn Products board of directors also reviewed information with respect to the prospects of the combined company, including the potential for the combined company to have a stronger competitive position and greater opportunities for growth than Corn Products would have operating independently. The Corn Products board of directors considered the potential synergies that could be expected to result from the merger as well as the ability of the combined companies to leverage their independent production, operating and distribution infrastructures and further diversify their product offerings.

Regulatory Matters. The Corn Products board of directors considered the required regulatory approvals for the merger and the prospects and anticipated timing of obtaining those approvals.

Tax Treatment. The Corn Products board of directors noted the expected tax treatment of the merger to Corn Products stockholders, including the fact that the merger is structured as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes which will generally allow Corn Products stockholders to avoid recognizing any gain from the receipt of the merger consideration.

Potential Negative Considerations. The Corn Products board of directors considered a number of potentially negative factors, as well as related mitigating factors, in its deliberations concerning the merger agreement and the merger, including:

the possibility that the merger might not be completed as a result of the failure to receive regulatory approvals or satisfy other closing conditions, including securing approvals from stockholders of Corn Products and shareholders of Bunge, which could result in significant distractions to Corn Products' employees and increased expenses from an unsuccessful attempt to complete the merger;

the risk that adverse changes to the financial condition, results of operations, business, competitive position, reputation and business prospects of either Corn Products or Bunge could result in fluctuation in the value of the merger consideration to be received by Corn Products stockholders, could adversely affect the value of the combined company or could result in the failure to complete the merger;

the possibility that the value of the per share merger consideration could decrease prior to the closing of the merger if the trading price of Bunge common shares decreases below $108.90 per share and the inability of Corn Products stockholders to participate in any increase in the trading price of Bunge common shares unless and until it increases above $133.10 per share;

the potential difficulties of integrating the businesses of Corn Products and Bunge and the risk that the potential benefits of the merger might not be realized;

under the terms of the merger agreement, prior to the completion or abandonment of the merger, Corn Products is required to conduct its business only in the ordinary course and subject to operational restrictions;

the expectation, based on the current dividends paid by Corn Products and Bunge, that the dividends to be paid by Bunge to its shareholders may be less than the dividends currently paid by Corn Products to its stockholders;

the differences between rights of stockholders under Delaware and Bermuda law;

the fact that there are no dissenters' rights applicable to the proposed merger;

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

the fact that the uncertainties involved in a change of control environment impose difficulties in retaining key management and sales personnel and motivating employees facing uncertainties about the future ownership and direction of Corn Products; and

Corn Products' inability to solicit competing acquisition proposals and the possibility that the $110 million termination fee payable by Corn Products upon the termination of the merger agreement could discourage other potential bidders from making a competing bid.

In the judgment of the Corn Products board of directors, however, these potential risks were more than offset by the potential benefits of the merger discussed above.

Opinions of Financial Advisors. The Corn Products board of directors considered the presentations given by Lazard and JPMorgan at several meetings of the Corn Products board of directors during the course of its evaluation of the merger. The Corn Products Board of Directors also considered the oral opinions delivered by Lazard and JPMorgan on June 21, 2008, which opinions were subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinions and based on and subject to the matters set forth in the respective opinions, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to Corn Products stockholders, and the analyses, methodologies and conclusions underlying such determinations, as described under " Opinions of Corn Products' Financial Advisors" beginning on page 69. A copy of Lazard's written opinion is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and a copy of JPMorgan's written opinion is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Additional Considerations. In the course of its deliberations on the merger, the Corn Products board of directors consulted with members of Corn Products' management and Corn Products' legal, financial, accounting and tax advisors on various legal, business and financial matters. Additional factors considered by the Corn Products board of directors in determining whether to approve the merger agreement and declare its advisability and recommend that Corn Products stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement included:

the existence of severance benefits under Corn Products severance arrangements for certain employees whose employment may terminate under certain circumstances following the execution of the merger agreement; and the fact that Corn Products stockholders will have an opportunity to vote on the merger on the terms provided in the merger agreement.

The foregoing discussion is not intended to be exhaustive, but Corn Products believes it addresses the material information and factors considered by the Corn Products board of directors in its consideration of the merger, including factors that may support the merger as well as factors that may weigh against it. In view of the variety of factors and the amount of information considered, the Corn Products board of directors did not find it practicable to, and did not make specific assessments of, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to, the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. In addition, the Corn Products board of directors did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination, and individual members of the Corn Products board of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

In considering the recommendation of the Corn Products board of directors to adopt the merger agreement, Corn Products stockholders should be aware that the executive officers and directors of Corn Products have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Corn Products stockholders generally. The Corn Products board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them when adopting the merger agreement and recommending that Corn Products stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement. See " Interests of Corn Products Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger".

Opinion of Credit Suisse

Bunge retained Credit Suisse to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger. In connection with its review of the merger, Bunge's board of directors requested that Credit Suisse advise it with respect to the fairness of the exchange ratio to Bunge from a financial point of view. On June 20, 2008, Bunge's board of directors met to review the merger and the terms of the merger agreement. During this meeting, Credit Suisse reviewed with Bunge's board of directors certain financial analyses with respect to the merger and rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed by delivery of its written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, to Bunge's board of directors, to the effect that, as of the date thereof and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the written opinion, the exchange ratio was fair to Bunge from a financial point of view.

The full text of Credit Suisse's written opinion, dated June 21, 2008, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Holders of Bunge common shares are encouraged to read the opinion carefully in its entirety. Credit Suisse provided its opinion for the information of Bunge's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger and Credit Suisse's opinion does not constitute advice or a recommendation to any holder of Bunge common shares as to how such holder should vote or act on any matter relating to the merger or otherwise. Credit Suisse's opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Bunge of the exchange ratio and does not address any other aspect or implication of the merger, or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the merger or otherwise. The following is a summary of Credit Suisse's opinion and is qualified by reference to the full text of the opinion attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

In arriving at its opinion, Credit Suisse, among other things:

reviewed the merger agreement and certain related agreements;

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Corn Products and Bunge;

reviewed certain other information relating to Corn Products and Bunge, including financial forecasts relating to Corn Products and certain publicly available financial forecasts relating to Bunge, as well as certain limited forecasts relating to Bunge for calendar year 2008, provided to or discussed with Credit Suisse by Corn Products and Bunge; met with the managements of Corn Products and Bunge to discuss the business and prospects of Corn Products and Bunge, respectively; considered certain financial and stock market data of Corn Products and Bunge, and compared that data with similar data for other publicly held companies in businesses Credit Suisse deemed similar to those of Corn Products and Bunge; considered, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other business combinations and other transactions which had recently been effected or announced; and considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria which Credit Suisse deemed relevant.

In connection with its review, Credit Suisse did not independently verify any of the foregoing information and assumed and relied on such information being complete and accurate in all material respects. With respect to the financial forecasts for Corn Products that Credit Suisse reviewed, Bunge's management advised Credit Suisse, and Credit Suisse assumed, that such forecasts were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of Bunge's management as to the future financial performance of Corn Products. Credit Suisse was not provided with, and did not have access to, financial forecasts for Bunge prepared by Bunge's management, other than the limited financial forecasts for Bunge referred to above for calendar year 2008. Accordingly, with respect to the limited financial forecasts for Bunge that Credit Suisse reviewed, Bunge's management advised Credit Suisse, and Credit Suisse assumed, that such forecasts were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of Bunge's management as to the future financial performance of Bunge. In addition, with respect to the publicly available financial forecasts for Bunge referred to above, Credit Suisse reviewed and discussed such forecasts with Bunge's management and assumed, with the consent of Bunge's board of directors, that such forecasts (other than for calendar year 2008) represented reasonable estimates and judgments relating to the future financial performance of Bunge. With respect to the estimates provided to Credit Suisse by Bunge's management relating to the cost savings and synergies anticipated to result from the merger, Bunge's management advised Credit Suisse, and Credit Suisse assumed, that such forecasts were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of Bunge's management as to such cost savings and synergies and will be realized in the amounts and the times indicated thereby.

Credit Suisse assumed, with the consent of Bunge's board of directors, that the merger would be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Credit Suisse also assumed, with the consent of Bunge's board of directors, that, in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Corn Products, Bunge or the contemplated benefits of the merger and that the merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof. In addition, Credit Suisse was not requested to make, and did not make, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Bunge or Corn Products, nor was Credit Suisse furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Credit Suisse's opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Bunge of the exchange ratio and did not address any other aspect or implication of the merger or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the merger or otherwise including, without limitation, the fairness of the amount or nature of, or any other aspect relating to, any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any party to the merger, or class of such persons, relative to the amounts to be received by any party in the merger or otherwise. The issuance of Credit Suisse's opinion was approved by its authorized internal committee. Credit Suisse's opinion was necessarily based upon information made available to it as of the date of the opinion and financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on such date. Credit Suisse did not express any opinion as to what the value of Bunge common shares actually will be when issued to the holders of Corn Products common stock pursuant to the merger or the prices at which Bunge common shares will trade at any time. Credit Suisse's opinion did not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to alternative transactions or strategies that may be available to Bunge, nor did it address Bunge's underlying business decision to proceed with the merger.

In preparing its opinion to Bunge's board of directors, Credit Suisse performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The summary of the analyses described below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Credit Suisse's opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various quantitative and qualitative judgments and determinations with respect to the financial, comparative and other analytic methods employed and the adaptation and application of these methods to the unique facts and circumstances presented. As a consequence, neither a fairness opinion nor its underlying analyses are readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Credit Suisse arrived at its opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any individual analysis, analytic method or factor. Accordingly, Credit Suisse believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, analytic methods and factors, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion.

In performing its analyses, Credit Suisse considered financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, June 21, 2008. No company, transaction or business used in Credit Suisse's analyses for comparative purposes is identical to Bunge, Corn Products or the merger. An evaluation of the results of Credit Suisse's analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, Credit Suisse's analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies, transactions or businesses analyzed. The estimates contained in Credit Suisse's analyses and the implied reference ranges indicated by Credit Suisse's analyses are illustrative and not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, any analyses relating to the value of assets, businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which may depend on a variety of factors, many of which are beyond the control of Bunge, Corn Products and Credit Suisse. Much of the information used in, and accordingly the results of, Credit Suisse's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Credit Suisse's opinion and analyses were provided to Bunge's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger and were among many factors considered by Bunge's board of directors in evaluating the merger. Neither Credit Suisse's opinion nor its analyses were determinative of the exchange ratio or of the views of Bunge's board of directors or management with respect to the merger or the exchange ratio. The exchange ratio was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Bunge and Corn Products and was approved by Bunge's board of directors. Credit Suisse was not requested to, and it did not, recommend any specific exchange ratio to Bunge or that any specific exchange ratio constituted the only appropriate exchange ratio for the merger.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Credit Suisse in connection with the preparation of its opinion and reviewed with Bunge's board of directors. The analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. To understand the analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the analyses, as well as the methodologies underlying and the assumptions, qualifications and limitations affecting each analysis, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Credit Suisse's analyses.

Corn Products Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Credit Suisse calculated the estimated present value of the unlevered, free cash flows that Corn Products could generate during the period from March 31, 2008 through December 31, 2015, based on financial forecasts for Corn Products provided by Bunge's management. Credit Suisse then calculated a range of estimated terminal values by multiplying calendar year 2015 estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) by selected EBITDA multiples ranging from 7.5x to 9.0x. The estimated free cash flows and terminal values were then discounted to present value using discount rates ranging from 8.0% to 9.5%. Based on this analysis, Credit Suisse derived an implied per share equity value reference range for Corn Products common stock. Credit Suisse compared the results of this analysis to the $56.00 per share value of the merger consideration for Corn Products common stock established within the exchange ratio collar pursuant to the merger agreement. See "Merger Consideration" for a description of the exchange ratio and the related collar mechanism.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

Credit Suisse also derived an implied exchange ratio reference range by dividing the implied per share equity value reference range for Corn Products common stock by the closing price for Bunge common shares of $122.17 on June 20, 2008, the last trading date prior to Credit Suisse's opinion. To illustrate the sensitivity of the implied exchange ratio reference range to changes in the price for Bunge common shares, Credit Suisse also derived implied exchange ratio reference ranges by dividing the implied per share equity value reference range for Corn Products common stock by reference prices for Bunge common shares of $108.90 and $133.10, respectively, which would result in the exchange ratio collars of 0.5142x and 0.4207x, respectively, becoming effective pursuant to the merger agreement. Credit Suisse compared the results of these analyses to the exchange ratios implied by the $56.00 per share value of the merger consideration for Corn Products common stock established within the exchange ratio collar pursuant to the merger agreement relative to the applicable reference prices for Bunge common shares. The following table summarizes the results of these analyses:

	Implied Reference Ranges		Per Share Value of Merger Consideration and Related Implied Exchange Ratios
	$	$	$	$
Implied Corn Products Per Share Equity Value	47.27	$60.12	$56.00

At Bunge Share Price Implied by Low End of Exchange Ratio Collar ($133.10)	0.3551x	0.4517x		0.4207x

Credit Suisse also calculated an implied per share equity value reference range for Corn Products common stock after giving effect to the estimates of potential cost savings and synergies anticipated by Bunge's management to result from the merger. Credit Suisse calculated this implied per share equity value reference range by adding 100% of the net present value per share of the potential cost savings and synergies (based on the midpoint of the estimates provided by Bunge's management and using discount rates ranging from 8.0% to 9.5%) to the implied per share equity value reference range for Corn Products common stock derived above. Credit Suisse then derived an implied exchange ratio reference range, as well as implied exchange ratio reference range sensitivities, by dividing the implied per share equity value reference range for Corn Products common stock (including the potential cost savings and synergies) by the applicable prices for Bunge common shares. The following table summarizes the results of these analyses:

	Implied Reference Ranges (Including Cost Savings and Synergies)		Per Share Value of Merger Consideration and Related Implied Exchange Ratios
	$	$	$	$

Pro Forma Impact on Bunge

Credit Suisse analyzed certain pro forma effects estimated to result from the merger, including the illustrative effect of the merger on Bunge's estimated earnings per common share (EPS) for calendar years 2009 and 2010, with and without giving effect to estimates of potential cost savings and synergies anticipated by Bunge's management to result from the merger. Credit Suisse's analysis did not take into account one-time costs related to implementation of any potential cost savings and synergies. Credit Suisse performed this analysis using the exchange ratio implied by the $56.00 per share value of the merger consideration for Corn Products common stock established within the exchange ratio collar pursuant to the merger agreement relative to an illustrative current price for Bunge common shares of $121.00 over the measurement period for establishing the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement. Credit Suisse also performed this analysis using the exchange ratios implied by the $56.00 per share value of the merger consideration for Corn Products common stock established within the exchange ratio collar pursuant to the merger agreement relative to reference prices for Bunge common shares of $108.90 and $133.10, respectively, which would result in the exchange ratio collars of 0.5142x and 0.4207x, respectively, becoming effective pursuant to the merger agreement. This analysis was based on financial forecasts for Corn Products provided by Bunge's management and publicly available financial forecasts relating to Bunge.

This analysis suggested that the merger would be dilutive to Bunge's estimated calendar year 2009 EPS using the exchange ratios implied by the $56.00 per share value of the merger consideration for Corn Products common stock established within the exchange ratio collar pursuant to the merger agreement relative to the illustrative current price and reference prices for Bunge common shares of $121.00, $108.90 and $133.10, respectively, in each case with and without giving effect to potential cost savings and synergies. This analysis also suggested that the merger would be dilutive to Bunge's estimated calendar year 2010 EPS using the exchange ratios implied by the $56.00 per share value of the merger consideration for Corn Products common stock established within the exchange ratio collar pursuant to the merger agreement relative to the illustrative current price and reference prices for Bunge common shares of $121.00, $108.90 and $133.10, respectively, in each case without giving effect to potential cost savings and synergies and, in the case of the $108.90 reference price for Bunge common shares, with giving effect to potential cost savings and synergies. Finally, this analysis suggested that the merger would be accretive to Bunge's estimated calendar year 2010 EPS using the exchange ratios implied by the $56.00 per share value of the merger consideration for Corn Products common stock established within the exchange ratio collar pursuant to the merger agreement relative to the illustrative current price and reference price for Bunge common shares of $121.00 and $133.10, respectively, in each case with giving effect to potential cost savings and synergies.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Morgan Stanley calculated a range of equity values per share of Corn Products common stock based on an eight year discounted cash flow analysis for calendar years 2008 through 2015, and Morgan Stanley calculated a range of equity values per Bunge common share based on a five year discounted cash flow analysis for calendar years 2008 through 2012. In preparing its analysis for Corn Products, Morgan Stanley relied upon Bunge management's projections with respect to the projected future financial performance of Corn Products, both with and without giving effect to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the merger, which are referred to as "synergies". In preparing its analysis for Bunge, Morgan Stanley relied upon the limited financial projections for calendar year 2008 concerning Bunge prepared by Bunge's management, publicly available equity research estimates with respect to the projected future financial performance of Bunge for calendar years 2009 and 2010, and extrapolations by Morgan Stanley of those projections for calendar years 2011 and 2012. Morgan Stanley refers to this scenario for Bunge as the "illustrative street research case".

In arriving at the estimated equity values per share of Corn Products common stock, Morgan Stanley calculated Corn Products' projected annual after-tax unlevered free cash flows for the calendar years 2008 through 2015, both with and without giving effect to synergies. Morgan Stanley then estimated terminal values in 2015 by applying a nominal perpetual growth rate of 2.5% to the projected unlevered free cash flows in 2015. Morgan Stanley then discounted Corn Products' projected unlevered free cash flow streams and the estimated terminal value to a present value using a range of discount rates from 7.5% to 8.5%. Morgan Stanley also considered the impact of the net present value, using a 9% discount rate, of a potential after-tax benefit to Corn Products from the assumed receipt of proceeds of a litigation judgment against the Mexican (federal) government, assuming that this benefit was received at the end of calendar year 2008. Based on the foregoing analysis, the discounted cash flow analysis of Corn Products yielded an implied valuation range for Corn Products common stock of approximately $50 to $61 per share, without giving effect to any synergies, and an implied valuation range for Corn Products common stock of approximately $50 to $64 per share, without giving effect to any synergies and including the potential after-tax benefit of the judgment against Mexico. Based on the foregoing analysis, the discounted cash flow analysis of Corn Products yielded an implied valuation range for Corn Products common stock of approximately $64 to $78 per share, giving effect to synergies, and an implied valuation range for Corn Products common stock of approximately $64 to $81 per share, giving effect to synergies and including the potential after-tax benefit of the judgment against Mexico. Morgan Stanley noted that the closing price for shares of Corn Products common stock as of June 20, 2008 was $42.90 per share. Morgan Stanley also noted that the implied merger consideration value of shares of Corn Products common stock established within the exchange ratio collar pursuant to the merger agreement was $56 per share.

In arriving at the estimated equity values per Bunge common share, Morgan Stanley calculated Bunge's projected annual after-tax unlevered free cash flows for the calendar years 2008 through 2012 using the illustrative street research case. Morgan Stanley then estimated a terminal value in 2012 by applying a nominal perpetual growth rate of 2.5% to the projected unlevered free cash flows in 2012. Morgan Stanley then discounted Bunge's projected unlevered free cash flow streams and the estimated terminal value to a present value using a range of discount rates from 7.5% to 8.5%. Based on the foregoing analysis, the discounted cash flow analysis of Bunge yielded an implied valuation range for Bunge common shares of approximately $116 to $150 per share. Morgan Stanley noted that the Bunge closing price as of June 20, 2008 was $122.17.

Morgan Stanley calculated the exchange ratios implied by dividing the implied valuation range for Corn Products common stock by the implied valuation range for Bunge common shares. Morgan Stanley noted that such discounted cash flow analysis for Corn Products and Bunge and indicated a range of implied exchange ratios of 0.4104x to 0.4284x, without giving effect to synergies at Corn Products, and 0.5240x to 0.5468x, after giving effect to synergies at Corn Products, as compared to the exchange ratio range of 0.4207x (at the top of the exchange ratio collar) to 0.5142x (at the bottom of the exchange ratio collar) pursuant to the merger agreement.

In connection with the review of the merger by Bunge's board of directors, Morgan Stanley performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex process and is not susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor it considered. Furthermore, Morgan Stanley believes that the summary provided and the analyses described above must be considered as a whole and that selecting any portion of the analyses, without considering all of the analyses as a whole, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying Morgan Stanley's analyses and opinion. In addition, Morgan Stanley may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis or combination of analyses described above should not be taken to be the view of Morgan Stanley with respect to the actual value of Corn Products or Bunge, their respective shares of capital stock or the value of the combined company.

In performing its analyses, Morgan Stanley made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, regulatory, and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Morgan Stanley. Any estimates contained in the analyses of Morgan Stanley are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates.

Morgan Stanley conducted the analyses described above solely as part of its analysis of the fairness of the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement from a financial point to Bunge and in connection with the delivery of its opinion to Bunge's board of directors. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which Bunge common shares or Corn Products common stock might actually trade.

The exchange ratio was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Bunge and Corn Products and was approved by Bunge's board of directors. Morgan Stanley provided advice to Bunge during these negotiations. Morgan Stanley did not, however, recommend any specific exchange ratio to Bunge or that any specific exchange ratio constituted the only appropriate exchange ratio for the merger.

Morgan Stanley's opinion and its presentation to Bunge's board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by Bunge's board of directors in deciding to approve, adopt and authorize the merger agreement. Consequently, the analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of Bunge's board of directors with respect to the exchange ratio or of whether Bunge's board of directors would have been willing to agree to a different exchange ratio. Morgan Stanley's opinion was approved by a committee of Morgan Stanley investment banking and other professionals in accordance with its customary practice.

In addition, Lazard expressed no view as to the timing with respect to, or value of the ultimate award, if any, with respect to, outcome or settlement of, the dispute pending between Corn Products and the government of Mexico and at Corn Products' direction did not include it in its valuation of Corn Products.

Further, Lazard's opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of its opinion. Lazard further assumed that the merger would qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Lazard did not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the merger, nor did its opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which Lazard understands that Corn Products obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals. Lazard expressed no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects of the merger (other than the merger consideration to the extent expressly specified in its opinion). In addition, Lazard expressed no view or opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of, or any other aspects relating to, the compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the merger, or class of such persons, relative to the merger consideration or otherwise.

In rendering its opinion, Lazard was not authorized to, and it did not, solicit indications of interest from third parties regarding a potential transaction with Corn Products, nor was Lazard requested to consider, and its opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other transaction or business strategy in which Corn Products might engage or the merits of the underlying decision by Corn Products to engage in the merger.

The following is a brief summary of the material financial analyses and reviews that Lazard deemed appropriate in connection with rendering its opinion. The brief summary of Lazard's analyses and reviews provided below is not a complete description of the analyses and reviews underlying Lazard's opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of analysis and review and the application of those methods to particular circumstances, and, therefore, is not readily susceptible to summary description. Considering selected portions of the analyses and reviews or the summary set forth below, without considering the analyses and reviews as a whole, could create an incomplete or misleading view of the analyses and reviews underlying Lazard's opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Lazard considered the results of all of its analyses and reviews and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor, analysis or review considered by it; rather, Lazard made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses and reviews.

For purposes of its analyses and reviews, Lazard considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Corn Products and Bunge. No company, business or transaction used in Lazard's analyses and reviews as a comparison is identical to Corn Products, Bunge or the merger, and an evaluation of the results of those analyses and reviews is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses and reviews involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies, businesses or transactions used in Lazard's analyses and reviews. The estimates contained in Lazard's analyses and reviews and the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis or review are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by Lazard's analyses and reviews. In addition, analyses and reviews relating to the value of companies, businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which companies, businesses or securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, Lazard's analyses and reviews are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

The summary of the analyses and reviews provided below includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Lazard's analyses and reviews, the tables must be read together with the full text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of Lazard's analyses and reviews. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full description of the analyses and reviews, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses and reviews, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Lazard's analyses and reviews.

Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before June 21, 2008 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

Corn Products Comparable Public Companies Analysis

Lazard reviewed and analyzed selected public companies that it viewed as operating businesses reasonably comparable to that of Corn Products, namely mid- and large-cap companies participating in the global agriculture processing industry. Lazard selected these companies on the basis of similarity of the companies' products, size, scale, market capitalization, growth prospects, geographic presence and end markets to those of Corn Products. In performing this analysis, Lazard reviewed and analyzed certain financial information, valuation multiples and market trading data relating to the selected comparable companies and compared such information to the corresponding information for Corn Products' business. This analysis was designed to assess how the market values shares of reasonably comparable publicly traded companies and provide a range of implied equity values per share of Corn Products common stock.

Lazard compared Corn Products' business to the following three companies:

Archer Daniels Midland Company

Tate & Lyle PLC

For each of these companies, Lazard calculated enterprise value as a multiple of projected 2008 EBITDA and price as a multiple of projected 2008 earnings per share using equity analyst research reports as of June 20, 2008. As used in this analysis, EBITDA means net earnings (loss) before interest expense (income), income tax expense (benefit) and depreciation, amortization and depletion expense and is before the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle, if applicable. The following table summarizes the results of this review:

	Multiple of Enterprise Value Projected 2008 EBITDA	Multiple of Price to Projected 2008 EPS
Archer Daniels Midland Company	7.8x	10.7x
Bunge Limited	9.4x	15.6x
Tate & Lyle PLC	6.4x	9.7x

Lazard then calculated implied per share equity values for Corn Products common stock by applying EBITDA multiples ranging from 7.0x to 9.0x to Corn Products' base case projected 2008 EBITDA. Based on this analysis, Lazard calculated an implied equity value range per share of Corn Products common stock of $41.73 to $54.75. Lazard also calculated implied per share equity values for Corn Products common stock by applying PE multiples ranging from 12.0x to 16.0x to Corn Products' base case projected 2008 EPS. Based on this analysis, Lazard calculated an implied equity value range per share of Corn Products common stock of $36.12 to $48.16. Lazard noted that the per share merger consideration of $56.00 (based on the closing price of Bunge common shares on June 20, 2008) was above both of the ranges described above.

Precedent Merger Transactions Analysis

Lazard also performed a precedent merger transaction analysis, which was designed to provide a valuation of Corn Products based on publicly available financial terms of selected transactions in the starch and food ingredients industry with transaction values greater than $50 million. Lazard selected merger transactions involving companies in the starch industry since 1988, as well as additional merger transactions involving companies in the food ingredients industry since 1994, on the basis of similarity of the targets' products, size, scale, growth prospects, geographic presence and end markets to those of Corn Products in order to obtain a broad set of meaningful and relevant transactions to benchmark. The precedent transactions selected by Lazard were (listed by date publicly announced followed by the acquiror and the target company):

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

For each selected comparable transaction, Lazard calculated the multiple of total transaction value to EBITDA of the acquired business for the latest 12-month period preceding the acquisition announcement. The following table summarizes the results of this review:

	TV as a Multiple of LTM EBITDA
Starch Transactions (1988 - June 2008)
Mean	7.6x
Median	8.3x
High	9.8x
Low	4.2x
Starch & Food Ingredients Transactions (1994 - June 2008)
Mean	9.7x

High	17.3x
Low	5.1x

Lazard then calculated implied per share equity values for Corn Products common stock by applying EBITDA multiples ranging from 8.0x to 9.5x to Corn Products' latest 12-month EBITDA. Based on this analysis, Lazard calculated an implied equity value range per share of Corn Products common stock of $45.61 to $54.88. Lazard noted that the per share merger consideration of $56.00 (based on the closing price of Bunge common shares on June 20, 2008) was above this range.

Corn Products Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Using the Corn Products financial projections, Lazard performed a discounted cash flow analysis, which was designed to provide insight into the value of Corn Products as a function of their future unlevered free cash flows. "Present value" refers to the current value of future cash flows and is obtained by discounting those future cash flows or amounts by a discount rate, as described below. Other financial terms used below are "projected unlevered free cash flows" and "terminal value". "Projected unlevered free cash flows" refer to a calculation of the future cash flows of an asset without including in such calculation any debt servicing costs. "Terminal value" refers to the estimated capitalized value of all future cash flows from an asset at a particular point in time.

Lazard calculated the net present value of Corn Product's projected unlevered free cash flows for 2008 to 2012 and added to this amount the present value of the terminal value in 2012.

This analysis assumed a range of perpetual growth rates of 2.25% to 2.75%. It also assumed a range of discount rates of 8.25% to 8.75% based on estimates relating to Corn Products' weighted average cost of capital. Corn Products' "weighted average cost of capital" is a measure of the average expected return on all of Corn Products' securities or loans based on the proportions of those securities or loans in Corn Products' capital structure.

Based on these calculations, Lazard calculated an implied equity value range per share of Corn Products common stock of $47.52 to $55.97 assuming Corn Products' base case projections, and $50.09 to $60.48 assuming Corn Products' capital investment case projections. Lazard noted that the per share merger consideration of $56.00 (based on the closing price of Bunge common shares on June 20, 2008) was above or within the ranges described above.

Bunge Comparable Public Companies Analysis

Lazard reviewed and analyzed selected public companies that it viewed as operating businesses reasonably comparable to Bunge's businesses, namely mid- and large-cap companies participating in the global and emerging markets agriculture processing industry. Lazard selected these companies on the basis of similarity of the companies' products, size, scale, market capitalization, growth prospects, geographic presence and end markets to those of Bunge. In performing this analysis, Lazard reviewed and analyzed certain financial information, valuation multiples and market trading data relating to the selected comparable companies and compared such information to the corresponding information for Bunge's business. This analysis was designed to assess how the market values shares of reasonably comparable publicly traded companies and provides a range of implied equity values per share of Bunge common shares.

Lazard compared Bunge's business to the following four companies:

Archer Daniels Midland Company

China Agri-Industries Holdings, Ltd.

Cosan S. A. Indústria e Comércio

Wilmar International Limited

For each of these companies, Lazard calculated enterprise value as a multiple of projected 2008 EBITDA using equity analyst research reports as of June 20, 2008. The following table summarizes the results of this review:

	Multiple of Enterprise Value to Projected 2008 EBITDA
Archer Daniels Midland Company	7.8x
China Agri-Industries Holdings, Ltd.	9.4x
Cosan S. A. Indústria e Comércio	13.7x
Wilmar International Limited	15.0x

Lazard then calculated implied per share equity values for Bunge common shares by applying EBITDA multiples ranging from 9.0x to 10.0x to the 2008 EBITDA forecast for Bunge (such forecast was based on equity analyst research reports as of June 20, 2008 and discussions with Bunge management and was reviewed and deemed reasonable by Corn Products management). Based on this analysis, Lazard calculated an implied equity value range per share of Bunge common shares of $115.97 to $132.34. Lazard noted that the closing price of Bunge common shares on June 20, 2008 was within this range.

Bunge Sum-of-the-Parts Analysis

A sum-of-the-parts analysis reviews a business' operating performance and outlook on a segment-by-segment basis and compares each segment's performance to a group of publicly traded peer companies to determine an implied market value for the enterprise as a whole. Lazard performed a sum-of-the-parts analysis for the following operating segments of Bunge:

Agribusiness

Fertilizer

Food Products

Lazard reviewed and analyzed selected public companies that it viewed as operating businesses reasonably comparable to Bunge's operating segments, namely mid- and large-cap companies participating in the global and emerging markets agriculture processing industry, phosphate fertilizer industry and edible oils industry. Lazard selected these companies on the basis of similarity of the companies' products, size, scale, market capitalization, growth prospects, geographic presence and end markets to those of Bunge's operating segments. In performing this analysis, Lazard reviewed and analyzed certain financial information, valuation multiples and market trading data relating to the selected comparable companies and compared such information to the corresponding information for Bunge's operating segments.

The following table indicates the companies reviewed by Lazard in each of these segments:

Agribusiness	Fertilizer	Food Products
Archer Daniels Midland Company China Agri-Industries Holdings, Ltd. Cosan S. A. Indústria e Comércio Wilmar International Limited	Agrium Inc. Mosaic Company Potash Corp. of Saskatchewan, Inc.	Associated British Foods plc ConAgra Foods, Inc. General Mills Inc. The J.M. Smucker Company

For each of these companies, Lazard calculated enterprise value as a multiple of projected 2008 EBITDA using equity analyst research reports as of June 20, 2008. The following table summarizes the results of this review:

	Multiple of Enterprise Value to Projected 2008 EBITDA (Median)
Agribusiness	11.6x
Fertilizer	11.4x
Food Products	8.3x

Based on the foregoing, Lazard applied EBITDA multiple ranges of 7.5x to 9.5x, 9.5x to 12.0x and 8.0x to 9.0x to the 2008 EBITDA forecast for Bunge's Agribusiness, Fertilizer and Food Products segments, respectively (such forecasts were based on equity analyst research reports as of June 20, 2008 and discussions with Bunge management and were reviewed and deemed reasonable by Corn Products management). Based on this analysis, Lazard calculated an implied range for Bunge common shares of $104.52 to $139.12. Lazard noted that the closing price of Bunge common shares on June 20, 2008 was within this range.

Bunge Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Using financial forecasts for Bunge, Lazard performed a discounted cash flow analysis, which was designed to provide insight into the value of Bunge as a function of its future unlevered free cash flows. Lazard calculated the net present value of the unlevered free cash flow forecast for 2008 to 2012 and added to this amount the present value of the terminal value in 2012.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

This analysis assumed a range of perpetual growth rates of 2.75% to 3.25%. It also assumed a range of discount rates of 7.75% to 8.25% based on estimates relating to Bunge's weighted average cost of capital. Bunge's "weighted average cost of capital" is a measure of the average expected return on all of Bunge's securities or loans based on the proportions of those securities or loans in Bunge's capital structure.

Based on these calculations, Lazard calculated an implied equity value range per share of Bunge common shares of $109.74 to $141.81 assuming a base case forecast for Bunge and $95.16 to $124.60 assuming a downside case forecast for Bunge. Both the base case forecast and the downside case forecast were based on publicly available financial information, equity analyst research reports as of June 20, 2008 and discussions with Bunge management and were reviewed and deemed reasonable by Corn Products management. Lazard noted that the closing price of Bunge common shares on June 20, 2008, was within the ranges described above.

Lazard's Fee; General Matters

Lazard is acting as financial advisor to Corn Products in connection with the merger. Pursuant to an engagement letter dated April 24, 2008, Corn Products agreed to pay Lazard $500,000 upon execution of the letter, $2 million upon rendering its opinion of June 21, 2008 and, if the merger is consummated, a fee of 0.35% of the aggregate consideration, as customarily defined, to be paid in the merger. The payment paid to Lazard in connection with the execution of the engagement letter was credited against the fee paid to Lazard in connection with the delivery of its opinion and the fee paid to Lazard in connection with the delivery of its opinion will be credited against the fee, if any, payable to Lazard upon consummation of the merger. Taking such credits into account, the aggregate fee payable to Lazard upon consummation of the merger was estimated, for illustrative purposes only, to be approximately $9.9 million based on an implied $3.4 billion transaction value as of September 10, 2008. The actual amount of the aggregate fee will be calculated based on the market value of the merger consideration on the date the fee is paid. Corn Products also has agreed to reimburse Lazard for its reasonable expenses, including the expenses of legal counsel, and to indemnify Lazard and related parties against liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, arising out of its engagement.

Lazard, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, leveraged buyouts, and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. Lazard in the past has provided investment banking services to Corn Products and certain of its affiliates, for which Lazard has received customary compensation, and Lazard in the future may provide investment banking services to Corn Products and Bunge and certain of their affiliates, for which Lazard would expect to receive customary compensation. In addition, in the ordinary course of their respective businesses, affiliates of Lazard and LFCM Holdings LLC (an entity indirectly owned in large part by managing directors of Lazard) may actively trade securities of Corn Products and/or the securities of Bunge and certain of their respective affiliates for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. The issuance of Lazard's opinion was approved by the opinion committee of Lazard.

Lazard is an internationally recognized investment banking firm providing a full range of financial advisory and other services. Lazard was selected to act as financial advisor to Corn Products because of its qualifications, expertise and reputation in investment banking and mergers and acquisitions, as well as its familiarity with the business of Corn Products.

Corn Products and Bunge determined the merger consideration to be paid to the holders of Corn Products common stock in the merger through arm's-length negotiations, and the Corn Products board of directors approved the merger agreement. Lazard conducted the analyses and reviews summarized above for the purpose of providing an opinion to the Corn Products board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Corn Products common stock of the merger consideration to be paid to such holders in the merger. Lazard did not recommend any specific consideration to the Corn Products board of directors or any other person or indicate that any given consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger.

Lazard's opinion was one of many factors considered by the Corn Products board of directors. Consequently, the summary of the analyses and reviews provided above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of the Corn Products board of directors with respect to the merger consideration or of whether the Corn Products board of directors would have been willing to recommend a different transaction or determine that a different merger consideration was fair. Additionally, Lazard's opinion is not intended to confer any rights or remedies upon any employee or creditor of Corn Products.

Opinion of JPMorgan

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated June 18, 2008, Corn Products retained JPMorgan as its financial advisor for the purpose of rendering a fairness opinion to the Corn Products board of directors in connection with the merger.

At the meeting of the Corn Products board of directors on June 21, 2008, JPMorgan rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing on June 21, 2008, to the Corn Products board of directors that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of Corn Products common stock.

The full text of the written opinion of JPMorgan dated June 21, 2008, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the opinion undertaken by JPMorgan in connection with rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A compared the proposed financial terms of the merger with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions it deemed relevant; compared the financial and operating performance of Corn Products and Bunge with publicly available information concerning certain other companies it deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of Corn Products common stock and Bunge common shares and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies;

reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the management of Corn Products relating to its business and certain publicly available financial forecasts relating to the business of Bunge; and performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as it deemed appropriate for the purposes of its opinion.

In addition, JPMorgan held discussions with certain members of the management of Corn Products and Bunge with respect to certain aspects of the merger, and the past and current business operations of Corn Products and Bunge, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of Corn Products and Bunge, the effects of the merger on the financial condition and future prospects of Corn Products and Bunge, and certain other matters it believed necessary or appropriate to its inquiry.

In giving its opinion, JPMorgan relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with it by Corn Products and Bunge or otherwise reviewed by or for it, and JPMorgan did not independently verify (nor has it assumed responsibility or liability for independently verifying) any such information or its accuracy or completeness. JPMorgan did not conduct and was not provided with any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor did it evaluate the solvency of Corn Products or Bunge under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to it by Corn Products or derived therefrom, JPMorgan assumed, with the consent of Corn Products, that they were reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of Corn Products to which such analyses or forecasts relate. With respect to the publicly available financial forecasts relating to Bunge, JPMorgan assumed, with the consent of Corn Products, and was advised by Bunge that such forecasts were a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate the future financial performance of Bunge and were appropriate to use in JPMorgan's analysis. JPMorgan expressed no view as to such analyses or forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. JPMorgan also assumed that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes, and will be consummated as described in the merger agreement. JPMorgan also assumed that the representations and warranties made by Corn Products and Bunge in the merger agreement were and will be true and correct in all respects material to its analysis, and that Corn Products will have no exposure under any indemnification obligations contained within the merger agreement in any amount material to its analysis. JPMorgan is not a legal, regulatory or tax expert and relied on the assessments made by advisors to Corn Products with respect to such issues. JPMorgan further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on Corn Products or Bunge or on the contemplated benefits of the merger.

JPMorgan's opinion was necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of the opinion. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect the opinion and that JPMorgan does not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm its opinion. JPMorgan's opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Corn Products common stock of the exchange ratio in the merger and it expresses no opinion as to the fairness of the merger to, or any consideration to be received by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Corn Products or as to the underlying decision by Corn Products to engage in the merger. Furthermore, JPMorgan expressed no opinion with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the merger, or any class of such persons relative to the exchange ratio applicable to the holders of Corn Products common stock in the merger or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation. JPMorgan expressed no opinion as to the price at which Corn Products common stock or Bunge common shares will trade at any future time.

In addition, JPMorgan was not requested to and did not provide advice concerning the structure, the specific exchange ratio, or any other aspects of the merger, or to provide services other than the delivery of its opinion. JPMorgan was not authorized to and did not solicit any expressions of interest from any other parties with respect to the sale of all or any part of Corn Products or any other alternative transaction. JPMorgan did not participate in negotiations with respect to the terms of the merger or any related transactions.

Financial Analyses of JPMorgan

In accordance with customary investment banking practice, JPMorgan employed generally accepted valuation methods in reaching its opinion. The following is a summary of the material financial analyses used by JPMorgan in connection with providing its opinion.

Projections. The projections furnished to JPMorgan for Corn Products were prepared by the management of Corn Products. Corn Products does not publicly disclose internal management projections of the type provided to JPMorgan in connection with JPMorgan's analysis of the merger, and such projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure. These projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond the control of management, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and prevailing interest rates. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such projections.

Historical Exchange Ratio Analysis. JPMorgan reviewed the per share daily closing market price of Bunge common shares and Corn Products common stock over the previous three years, and calculated the implied historical exchange ratios during this period by dividing the daily closing prices per share of Corn Products common stock by those of Bunge common shares and the average of those implied historical exchange ratios for the one-day, one-week, one-month, three-month, six-month and one-year periods ending June 17, 2008. The analysis resulted in the following average implied exchange ratios for the periods indicated (rounded to the nearest hundredth):

Current	0.3349	$ 41.10
One-week	0.3560	$ 43.70
One-month	0.4720	$ 57.94
Three-month	0.3864	$ 47.42
Six-month	0.3636	$ 44.63
One-year	0.4022	$ 49.37

JPMorgan noted that a historical stock trading analysis is not a valuation methodology and that such analysis was presented merely for informational purposes.

Company Public Trading Multiples Analysis. Using publicly available information, JPMorgan compared selected financial and operating data of Corn Products and Bunge with similar data for selected publicly traded companies engaged in businesses which JPMorgan judged to be relevant to the businesses of Corn Products and Bunge. These companies were selected, among other reasons, for their size, target market, business focus and performance. None of the companies utilized in the analysis, however, is identical to Corn Products or Bunge. Accordingly, JPMorgan made judgments and assumptions concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected companies and other factors that could affect their public trading value.

For each of the selected companies, JPMorgan calculated Firm Value divided by the estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA, for the calendar year ending December 31, 2008, which is referred to as Firm Value/EBITDA Multiple. For this analysis, Firm Value of a particular company was calculated as market value of that company's common stock or common shares, as applicable (as of June 17, 2008), plus the value of that company's indebtedness, capital leases, minority interest and preferred stock, minus that company's cash and cash equivalents, and marketable securities.

The companies selected by JPMorgan for comparison with Corn Products included: Archer Daniels Midland Inc., Bunge, Associated British Foods, Kerry Group, Tate & Lyle and Viterra. However, none of the companies selected is identical or directly comparable to Corn Products. Accordingly, JPMorgan made judgments and assumptions concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of the selected companies.

The following table reflects the ratios, Firm Value and public market multiples for each of the selected companies reviewed by JPMorgan for comparison with Corn Products:

Company	Market Price 6/17/08	% of 52-week high	Firm Value ($ millions)	Firm Value/ 2008E EBITDA Multiple
Archer Daniels Midland	$ 33.12	67.7%	$ 28,622	7.8x
Bunge	$ 122.74	90.9%	$ 23,572	10.8x
Associated British Foods	$ 16.05	86.7%	$ 14,847	8.4x
Kerry Group	$ 29.94	83.6%	$ 7,094	8.6x
Tate & Lyle	$ 8.29	70.0%	$ 5,880	6.9x
Viterra	$ 14.46	96.9%	$ 3,804	10.0x

The companies selected by JPMorgan for comparison with Bunge included companies in three sectors in which Bunge operates: Agricultural Processing, Ingredients and Fertilizer. In Agricultural Processing, JPMorgan selected for comparison: Archer Daniels Midland Inc., Corn Products and Viterra. In Ingredients, JPMorgan selected for comparison: Associated British Foods, Kerry Group and Tate & Lyle. In Fertilizer, JPMorgan selected for comparison: Potash Corp, Mosaic, Israel Chemicals, Yara International and Agrium. However, none of the companies selected is identical or directly comparable to Bunge. Accordingly, JPMorgan made judgments and assumptions concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of the selected companies.

Based on the results of this analysis, JPMorgan implied a range for Corn Products of 7.0x to 8.5x Firm Value/EBITDA Multiples, which using Corn Products estimates for calendar 2008 EBITDA, implied a range for Corn Products common stock of $40.00 to $50.00 per share. Additionally, based on the same analysis, JPMorgan implied a range for Bunge of 8.5x to 10.5x Firm Value/EBITDA Multiples, which using Bunge estimates for calendar 2008 EBITDA, implied a range for Bunge common shares of $108.00 to $140.00 per share. Based on the results of this analysis, JPMorgan implied an exchange ratio of 0.29 to 0.47 Bunge common shares per share of Corn Products common stock.

Selected Transaction Multiples Analysis. Using publicly available information, JPMorgan examined the following selected transactions which together were considered the most relevant transactions for purposes of JPMorgan's analysis:

Date Announced	Acquiror	Target
February 14, 2007	American Sugar Refining	Tate & Lyle Canada Ltd.
November 7, 2006	Viterra	Agricore
September 9, 2005	Cargill	Degussa
April 29, 2005	PAI Partners	Christian Hansen Food Ingredients
May 10, 2004	Kerry Group	Four flavor businesses; Manheimer Inc., Flavourence, Laboratorios Krauss and Fructamine
March 2, 2004	Kerry Group	Quest International's food ingredients business

These transactions were deemed to be most relevant in evaluating the merger in JPMorgan's judgment based on a variety of factors including, among other things, the transaction date, transaction size, transaction terms, target geographic location and target operational characteristics and asset mix. For each of the selected transactions, JPMorgan calculated and, to the extent information was publicly available, compared the transaction's firm value as a multiple of the target's last 12 months' EBITDA. JPMorgan then calculated the target's equity value per share. The Agricore acquisition by Viterro was deemed to be the most relevant of the selected transactions.

JPMorgan applied a range of multiples derived from such analysis to Corn Products' last 12 months' EBITDA, and arrived at an implied range of equity values for the shares of Corn Products common stock between $51.00 and $57.00 per share.

Relative Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. JPMorgan conducted a discounted cash flow analysis for each of Bunge and Corn Products for the purpose of determining their respective fully diluted equity value per share on a stand-alone basis.

JPMorgan calculated the unlevered free cash flows that Bunge and Corn Products are expected to generate during fiscal years 2008 through 2017 based on financial projections prepared by the management of Corn Products, and, for Bunge, based on publicly available financial forecasts, which JPMorgan has assumed, with the consent of Corn Products, and have been advised by Bunge that such forecasts are a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate the future financial performance of Bunge and are appropriate to use in JPMorgan's analysis. JPMorgan also calculated a range of terminal asset values of Corn Products at the end of the 10-year period ending the fiscal year ended December 2017 by applying a perpetual growth rate ranging from two percent to three percent of the unlevered free cash flow of Corn Products during the final year of the 10-year period. The unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal asset values were then discounted to present values using a range of discount rates from 8.5% to 9.5% for Bunge and a range of discount rates from 8.0% to 9.0% for Corn Products.

This analysis indicated a range of equity values for Corn Products common stock between $50.00 and $69.00 per share and a range of equity values for Bunge common shares between $106.00 and $154.00 per share. Based on the results of this analysis, JPMorgan implied an exchange ratio of 0.33 to 0.65 Bunge common shares per share of Corn Products common stock.

The foregoing summary of certain material financial analyses does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by JPMorgan. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. JPMorgan believes that the foregoing summary and its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the foregoing summary and these analyses, without considering all of its analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying the analyses and its opinion. In arriving at its opinion, JPMorgan did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it and did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative), considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. Rather, JPMorgan considered the totality of the factors and analyses performed in determining its opinion. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are inherently uncertain, as they are subject to numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties and their advisors. Accordingly, forecasts and analyses used or made by JPMorgan are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by those analyses. Moreover, JPMorgan's analyses are not and do not purport to be appraisals or otherwise reflective of the prices at which businesses actually could be bought or sold. None of the selected companies reviewed as described in the above summary is identical to Corn Products, and none of the selected transactions reviewed was identical to the merger. However, the companies selected were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of JPMorgan's analysis, may be considered similar to those of Corn Products. The transactions selected were similarly chosen because their participants, size and other factors, for purposes of JPMorgan's analysis, may be considered similar to those of the merger.

The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the companies compared to Corn Products and the transactions compared to the merger.

JPMorgan's Fees; General Matters

As a part of its investment banking business, JPMorgan and its affiliates are continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, investments for passive and control purposes, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. JPMorgan was selected to deliver an opinion to the Corn Products board of directors with respect to the merger on the basis of such experience and its familiarity with Corn Products.

Pursuant to its engagement letter, JPMorgan received a fee for its services of $1.5 million from Corn Products payable upon the delivery of its opinion. Corn Products has also agreed to reimburse JPMorgan for its reasonable expenses, including the fees of legal counsel and other professional advisors. In addition, Corn Products has agreed to indemnify JPMorgan for certain liabilities arising out of its engagement. During the two years preceding the date of its opinion, JPMorgan and its affiliates have had commercial and investment banking relationships with Bunge, for which JPMorgan and its affiliates have received customary compensation. Such services during such period have included acting (i) as administrative agent in connection with Bunge's credit facilities in October 2007; (ii) as administrative agent in connection with Bunge's credit facility in September 2007; and (iii) as joint bookrunner on Bunge's offering of its debt securities in March 2007. JPMorgan and its affiliates in the future may have commercial or investment banking relationships with Bunge and Corn Products, for which JPMorgan and its affiliates would expect to receive customary compensation. In addition, JPMorgan's commercial banking affiliate is an agent bank and a lender under outstanding credit facilities of Bunge, for which it receives customary compensation or other financial benefits. In the ordinary course of its business, JPMorgan and its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of Corn Products or Bunge for its own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, it may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities.

Interests of Corn Products Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Corn Products board of directors with respect to the merger, Corn Products stockholders should be aware that the executive officers and non-employee directors of Corn Products have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Corn Products stockholders generally. The Corn Products board of directors was aware of the interests described below and considered them, among other matters, when approving the merger agreement and recommending that the Corn Products stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement. These interests are summarized below.

Stock Options and Other Stock-Based Awards

All outstanding options to purchase Corn Products common stock issued under the Corn Products stock incentive plan, including those held by executive officers, will become fully exercisable upon completion of the merger. All options currently held by Corn Products' non-employee directors are fully exercisable. Based upon options outstanding as of September 10, 2008, options held by the Corn Products executive officers relating to 382,670 shares of Corn Products common stock will vest and become immediately exercisable upon completion of the merger.

Also, all restrictions imposed on shares of restricted stock granted under the Corn Products stock incentive plan, including those held by the Corn Products executive officers and non-employee directors, will immediately lapse upon completion of the merger. Based upon grants outstanding as of September 10, 2008, the restrictions on shares of restricted stock held by the Corn Products executive officers and non-employee directors relating to 25,883 shares of Corn Products common stock will lapse upon completion of the merger. Of the 25,883 shares of restricted stock held by Corn Products' executive officers and non-employee directors, 6,216 shares of restricted stock are currently held by non-employee directors. Each of Richard Almeida, Luis Aranguren, Karen Hendricks, Bernard Kastory, Barbara Klein, William Norman, and James Ringler hold 888 shares of restricted stock that are subject to lapsing of restrictions upon completion of the merger.

In addition, all performance shares that are unvested and subject to the satisfaction of performance measures under the Corn Products stock incentive plan, including those held by executive officers of Corn Products, will immediately vest at their respective target levels upon completion of the merger. Based upon target awards outstanding as of September 10, 2008, 281,077 performance shares held by the Corn Products executive officers will vest upon completion of the merger. Additionally, Bunge has agreed to negotiate in good faith with Corn Products with a view to agreeing on a mechanism with respect to executive officers of Corn Products who hold performance shares relating to the 2006-2008 performance period and remain employees of Bunge or any of its subsidiaries following the completion of the merger and through the applicable payment date, so that such executive officers are not adversely affected from a financial viewpoint as a result of the completion of the merger, taking into consideration the actual performance of Corn Products and its subsidiaries during 2008.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each outstanding option to purchase Corn Products common stock existing at the time of the completion of the merger, including each stock option held by the Corn Products executive officers and non-employee directors, that is exercisable, or that becomes exercisable as described in this section, will be converted into an option to purchase the number of Bunge common shares equal to the number of shares subject to such Corn Products stock option multiplied by the exchange ratio, and the exercise price per share will be an amount equal to the exercise price per share of such Corn Products stock option divided by the exchange ratio.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each share of Corn Products restricted stock and each performance share that vests as described in this section, except performance shares subject to deferral elections, will be converted into a fraction of an unrestricted Bunge common share equal to the exchange ratio.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each stock unit subject to a deferral election, including each stock unit held by an executive officer or non-employee director under a Corn Products supplemental executive retirement plan, deferred compensation plan or deferred stock unit plan, each restricted stock unit held by a non-employee director and each performance share subject to a deferral election will be converted into a fraction of a Bunge stock unit equal to the exchange ratio upon completion of the merger. Corn Products executive officers do not hold restricted stock units and restricted stock units held by Corn Products' non-employee directors are fully vested and subject to deferral elections. All Corn Products stock units that are converted as described in this section will be paid in accordance with their related deferral elections, and all such stock units will be payable in Bunge common shares, except for stock units held under the Corn Products deferred stock unit plan, which will be paid in cash in accordance with the terms of such plan. As of September 10, 2008, 201,761 stock units held by the Corn Products executive officers and non-employee directors will be converted as described in this section upon completion of the merger.

Executive Severance Agreements

Each of the Corn Products executive officers is a party to an executive severance agreement that requires Corn Products to make certain payments and provide certain benefits if the executive officer's employment is terminated by Corn Products other than because of death, "Disability" or "Cause" or is terminated by the executive officer for "Good Reason" within two years after a change in control of Corn Products.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

Under the severance agreements a change in control results from any of the following:

the acquisition by an individual, entity or group of persons of beneficial ownership of 20% or more of Corn Products common stock, other than pursuant to most transactions in which Corn Products is a party;

a majority of the Corn Products directors at the start of a two-year period, and persons whose nominations are approved by those directors or directors approved by those directors, not constituting a majority of the Corn Products board of directors at the end of the two-year period;

a merger or sale of substantially all of Corn Products' assets, except where owners of Corn Products shares own a majority of the voting shares of the surviving corporation or purchaser of the assets and no person other than Corn Products or the benefits plans of Corn Products who owned 15% of Corn Products stock before the transaction owns 25% or more of the stock of the survivor or purchaser, and the directors who must be a majority under the preceding provision are a majority of the directors of the surviving corporation or purchaser; or the consummation of a plan of complete liquidation or dissolution of Corn Products.

For the purposes of the severance agreements:

Corn Products has "Cause" to terminate an executive officer if the executive officer (a) has willfully engaged in conduct which involves dishonesty or moral turpitude which either (1) results in substantial personal enrichment of the executive officer at the expense of Corn Products or (2) is demonstrably and materially injurious to the financial condition or reputation of Corn Products, (b) has willfully violated the provisions of the confidentiality or non-competition agreement entered into between Corn Products or any of its subsidiaries and the executive officer, or (c) has committed a felony.

The executive officer has "Good Reason" to terminate his or her employment (and thereby become entitled to the benefits described below) if Corn Products reduces the executive officer's base salary, requires the executive officer's to relocate more than 35 miles from his or her office location immediately prior to the change in control, reduces in any manner which the executive officer reasonably considers important, the executive officer's title, job authorities or responsibilities immediately prior to the change in control or takes certain other actions as specified in the definition.

Each severance agreement requires, as a precondition to the receipt of payments, that the executive officer sign a standard form of release in which he or she waives all claims that he or she might have against Corn Products and certain associated individuals and entities. They also include a prohibition on soliciting or recruiting any of the employees or consultants of Corn Products that would apply for one year following the executive officer's termination of employment (two years in the case of Mr. Scott) and confidentiality provisions that would apply for an unlimited period of time following the executive officer's termination of employment.

The severance agreements provide for the payment of salary and vacation pay accrued through the termination date, plus amounts under the annual incentive plan based on the assumption that the target awards were achieved, prorated for a partial year. The merger agreement provides for an adjustment in the payment of the prorated target awards under the annual incentive plan to reflect the actual performance of Corn Products. See "Corn Products Employee Benefits Matters". In addition, the executive officer would receive, as a severance payment, a lump sum amount equal to three times the sum of his or her (a) highest base salary in effect during any consecutive 12-month period within the 36 months immediately preceding the date of termination and (b) his or her target annual incentive plan payment for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs. Mr. Scott would not receive such lump sum amount because of his previously announced retirement and would receive in lieu thereof an amount equal to his base salary and his prorated target annual incentive plan payment from the date of his termination to the date on which he attains age 65. In addition, Mr. Fiamenghi's lump sum payment would be reduced by 40% of the sum of the balance of his Brazilian government-mandated FGTS account and previous distributions from that account.

The severance agreements provide for certain continued insurance and other benefits for a period of 36 months (if the executive officer is at least 62 years old, the Corn Products compensation committee has the discretion to provide such continued insurance and other benefits only until the executive officer attains age 65) and certain allowances for a period of three months, which include, based on current allowances, continued use of a leased car for three months.

The severance agreements also provide for the executive officer to receive three additional years of service credits under the Corn Products cash balance plan and under his or her nonqualified cash balance make-up account based on the executive officer's target total cash compensation (except that if the executive officer is at least 62 years old he or she will receive a pro rata amount of additional service credits based on the number of full months until the executive officer reaches age 65). All such additional years of service credits will be credited to the executive officer's nonqualified cash balance make-up account. In addition, the severance agreements provide for vesting of the executive officer's accounts under the cash balance plan and nonqualified cash balance make-up account, if they are not already vested.

The executive officer would also receive credits to his or her nonqualified savings plan make-up account equal to three years of employer matching contributions and profit sharing contributions to the executive officer's retirement savings plan and nonqualified savings plan make-up accounts (if the executive officer is at least 62 years old he or she will receive a pro rata amount of additional employer matching contributions and profit sharing contributions based on the number of full months until the executive officer reaches age 65). The severance agreements also provide for the vesting of the executive officer's accounts under the retirement savings plan and nonqualified savings plan make-up account, if they are not already vested.

The executive officer also would receive the cash value of his or her current retiree healthcare spending account and related dependent account under the Corn Products Master Retiree Welfare Plan (the Retiree Plan), plus the value of three additional years of company contributions to that account (if the executive officer is at least 62 years old he or she will receive a pro rata amount of additional company contributions based on the number of full months until the executive officer reaches age 65). The executive officer will be immediately vested in his or her retiree healthcare spending account and related dependent account under the Retiree Plan upon termination, and these accounts will be paid out in accordance with the terms of the Retiree Plan. In addition, the executive officer will upon termination be immediately eligible, and the executive officer and the executive officer's spouse shall remain eligible for their lifetimes, to participate in the benefits available to retirees under the Retiree Plan as of the date of the executive officer's termination of employment.

If the executive officer is a participant in the Corn Products executive life insurance plan on the date of his or her termination of employment, the executive officer's eligibility to participate in such plan with respect to an insurance policy shall continue, provided that during the 36-month period following termination of employment the executive officer will attain at least age 55 and would have completed, if the executive officer's termination of employment had not occurred, at least five policy years with respect to such insurance policy.

The executive officer also would receive executive-level outplacement services for a period of one year from the date of his or her termination of employment.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

The severance agreements also provide that Corn Products will reimburse any "golden parachute" excise tax paid by the executive officer as a result of payments under his or her severance agreement unless a less than 10% reduction in the payments would make the excise tax inapplicable, in which case the payments would be reduced by the least amount that would make the excise tax inapplicable. If Corn Products is barred from providing any of the benefits contemplated by the severance agreements, Corn Products is obligated to arrange to provide substantially similar benefits or the after-tax cash equivalent thereof.

To the extent payments may not be paid out of the qualified plans, such amounts will be paid out of the general assets of Corn Products. The merger agreement provides that, no earlier than August 5, 2008, Corn Products will deliver to the Corn Products executive benefit trust cash not to exceed $45 million and a number of shares of Corn Products common stock not to exceed 800,000 in order to fund all of the obligations of Corn Products pursuant to the plans under such trust relating to certain of the payments of cash and shares described in this section.

Estimated Payments upon the Merger and Subsequent Termination of Employment

The estimated amounts payable to each executive officer upon the merger and upon termination of the executive officer's employment, other than for death, Disability or Cause by Corn Products or its successor or by the executive officer for Good Reason, within two years following the completion of the merger in accordance with the terms of the severance agreements and the terms of the merger agreement are shown in the table below. The amounts assume that any such termination is effective as of October 31, 2008.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

Based upon an assumed Corn Products stock price of $37.56 (reflecting a closing price of $73.05 per Bunge common share on September 10, 2008 multiplied by an exchange ratio of 0.5142) minus the applicable exercise price.

The number of shares of restricted stock multiplied by $37.56.

- (5) Reflects the target number of performance shares for the 2006 through 2008, 2007 through 2009 and 2008 through 2010 performance periods multiplied by $37.56. Does not reflect the negotiations described under " Corn Products Employee Benefits Matters" with respect to the possibility of agreeing to a mechanism to prevent employees who hold performance shares relating to the 2006-2008 performance period from being adversely affected from a financial viewpoint as a result of the completion of the merger, taking into consideration the actual performance of Corn Products and its subsidiaries during 2008.
- (6) Reflects only the additional amounts earned under the cash balance plan and nonqualified cash balance make-up accounts due to a change in control (three extra years of service credits) and continuation of vesting over the severance period. For Mr. Scott, who is over age 62, the amount has been prorated to age 65.
- (7) Reflects only cash payments or nonqualified plan credits equal to three years of employer matching contributions and profit sharing contributions under the retirement savings plan and the non-qualified savings plan make-up accounts as well as the continuation of vesting over the severance period. For Mr. Scott, who is over age 62, the amount has been prorated to age 65.
- (8) Executive officers are vested in their accounts under the Retiree Plan at age 55 with 10 years of service. Upon a change in control, each executive officer would receive three additional years of service credits and company contributions and become vested in his or her Retiree Plan account, if not already vested. Mr. Fiamenghi does not participate in a Retiree Plan account. For Mr. Scott, who is over age 62, the amount has been prorated to age 65.
- (9) As a result of the change in control, Ms. Beebe, Mr. Fortnum and Mr. Hirschak will continue to participate in the Executive Life Insurance Plan (absent a change in control, participation would cease as these executives are not 55 years of age at the assumed time of termination). The amounts shown reflect the estimated sum of the continued payments these executives would receive to assist in the payment of premiums on life insurance policies for their benefit and to assist in the payment of taxes due as a result of such payments.
- (10) Upon termination of employment from the Brazilian subsidiary following a change in control, Mr. Fiamenghi would receive the balance in his government-mandated FGTS account, an additional 40% of the sum of that balance and previous distributions from that account which are required when termination is without cause, plus three years of salary continuation under his severance agreement. The amount shown is the additional 40% payment. His cash severance amount has been reduced (from $3,274,399 to $2,823,467) by the additional 40% payment on his FGTS account. An exchange rate of 1.61 Reais/USD (the average rate for August 2008) has been used to convert payments in Brazilian Reais to U.S. Dollars.
- (11) The cash severance amount payable to Mr. Scott is limited to an amount equal to his base salary and his prorated target annual incentive plan payment from the date of his termination to the date on which he attains age 65.
- (12) For Mr. Scott, who is over age 62, the amount has been prorated to age 65.

Appointment of Samuel C. Scott III as a Director of Bunge

The merger agreement provides that, prior to the closing of the merger and effective as of the effective time of the merger, Bunge will appoint Samuel C. Scott III, Chairman, President and Chief Executive of Corn Products, to the class of directors of the Bunge board of directors with its term expiring at the 2011 annual general meeting of Bunge shareholders.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that the certificate of incorporation of Corn Products, as the surviving corporation in the merger, and each of its subsidiaries will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, exculpation and advancement of expenses than are set forth in the current certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Corn Products or the applicable subsidiary, and that such provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the completion of the merger in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or at any time prior to the completion of the merger, were directors, officers, employees, fiduciaries or agents of Corn Products or the subsidiaries, unless such modification is required by law.

The merger agreement also provides that Corn Products will, and if Corn Products is unable to, Bunge will, cause Corn Products, as the surviving corporation in the merger, to obtain and fully pay the premium for the extension of the directors' and officers' insurance policies and the fiduciary liability insurance policies, in each case for at least six years from the completion of the merger on terms that are not, in the aggregate, less favorable than Corn Product's existing policies.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each share of Corn Products common stock (other than shares owned by Corn Products, Bunge or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge, including Bleecker Acquisition Corp.) will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a Bunge common share determined by dividing $56.00 by the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting. The market value of the Bunge common stock received in exchange for each share of Corn Products common stock may be greater or less than $56.00 because the trading price of Bunge common stock at the closing date of the merger or when the Bunge common stock is received by Corn Products stockholders may be different than the average closing price used to calculate the exchange ratio. In addition:

if the average closing price is equal to or greater than $133.10, the exchange ratio will be 0.4207. This means that the market value of the Bunge common shares received in exchange for each share of Corn Products common stock will be greater than $56.00 to the extent that the trading price of Bunge common shares is more than $133.10; and if the average closing price is equal to or less than $108.90, the exchange ratio will be 0.5142. This means that the market value of the Bunge common shares received in exchange for each share of Corn Products common stock will be less than $56.00 to the extent that the trading price of Bunge common shares is less than $108.90.

Each holder of Corn Products common stock who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a Bunge common share will receive cash in an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the fractional share interest to which that holder would otherwise be entitled by (2) the average closing price.

The merger agreement provides that if, between the date of the merger agreement and the completion of the merger, there is a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into Bunge common shares or Corn Products common stock), extraordinary cash dividends, subdivision, combination or exchange of shares with respect to, or rights issued in respect of, Bunge common shares then, in any such case, the per share merger consideration will be appropriately adjusted to reflect that action.

Ownership of Bunge Following the Merger

Based on the number of outstanding shares of Corn Products common stock on June 19, 2008, the number of outstanding Bunge common shares on June 19, 2008 and assuming an exchange ratio of 0.5142, we anticipate that Corn Products stockholders will own approximately 25.20% of the outstanding Bunge common shares following the merger. Based on potential fluctuations in the exchange ratio, Corn Products stockholders may own as much as 25.20% or as little as 21.61% of the outstanding Bunge common shares following the merger.

Conversion of Shares; Procedures for Exchange of Certificates; Fractional Shares

The conversion of Corn Products common stock into the right to receive the per share merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. As promptly as practicable after the effective time of the merger, BNY Mellon Shareowner Services, Bunge's exchange agent and paying agent, will send a letter of transmittal to each former holder of record of shares of Corn Products common stock. The transmittal letter will contain instructions for obtaining the per share merger consideration, including the Bunge common shares and cash for any fractional Bunge common shares, in exchange for shares of Corn Products common stock. Corn Products stockholders should not return stock certificates with the enclosed proxy card.

After the effective time of the merger, each certificate that previously represented shares of Corn Products common stock will no longer be outstanding, will be automatically canceled and retired and will represent only the right to receive the per share merger consideration as described above.

Until holders of certificates previously representing Corn Products common stock have surrendered those certificates to the exchange agent for exchange, those holders will not receive dividends or distributions on the Bunge common shares into which those shares of Corn Products common stock have been converted with a record date after the effective time of the merger and will not receive cash for any fractional Bunge common shares. When holders surrender those certificates, they will receive any dividends with a record date after the effective time of the merger and a payment date on or prior to the date of surrender and any cash for fractional Bunge common shares, in each case without interest.

In the event of a transfer of ownership of Corn Products common stock that is not registered in the transfer agent's records of Corn Products, payment of the per share merger consideration as described above will be made to a person other than the person in whose name the certificate so surrendered is registered if:

the certificate is properly endorsed or otherwise is in proper form for transfer; and the person requesting the exchange pays any transfer or other taxes resulting from the payment of the per share merger consideration as described above to a person other than the registered holder of such certificate.

No fractional Bunge common shares will be issued to any Corn Products stockholder upon surrender of certificates previously representing Corn Products common stock. Each Corn Products stockholder who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a Bunge common share will receive cash in an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the fractional share interest to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by (2) the average closing price.

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger or certificate of ownership and merger (the certificate of merger) with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or any later time as is agreed upon by Bunge and Corn Products and specified in the certificate of merger. The filing of the certificate of merger will occur as soon as practicable after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the completion of the merger described in the merger agreement.

Stock Exchange Listing of Bunge Common Shares

It is a condition to the completion of the merger that the Bunge common shares issuable to:

Corn Products stockholders in the merger; and holders of options to acquire shares of Corn Products common stock, which will be converted into options to acquire Bunge common shares, have been approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance.

Delisting and Deregistration of Corn Products Common Stock

If the merger is completed, Corn Products common stock will be delisted from the New York Stock Exchange and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act).

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger and the Ownership of Bunge Common Shares Received by Corn Products Stockholders

The following is a discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to Corn Products stockholders who exchange Corn Products common stock for Bunge common shares pursuant to the merger and the subsequent ownership of the Bunge common shares received by Corn Products stockholders in the merger. This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Code, Treasury regulations, administrative pronouncements of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and judicial decisions, all as in effect as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, or differing interpretations. In addition, this discussion does not address any U.S. alternative minimum, estate or gift, U.S. state or local or non-U.S. tax consequences of the merger or subsequent ownership of the Bunge common shares.

This discussion only addresses a beneficial owner of Corn Products common stock that holds Corn Products common stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code and exchanges Corn Products common stock for Bunge common shares in the merger. If a partnership, or other entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, holds Corn Products common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of that partnership. If a person is a partner of a partnership holding Corn Products common stock, such person should consult its tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the merger.

This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular Corn Products stockholder in light of such stockholder's particular a trader in securities who elects to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting;

a stockholder who holds Corn Products common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

a stockholder who acquired his or her shares of Corn Products common stock pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation; and a stockholder that actually or constructively owns 10% or more of the voting shares of Bunge.

Corn Products stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the merger and the subsequent ownership of Bunge common shares in light of their particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of U.S. federal, state and local and non-U.S. income and other tax laws.

Tax Status of the Merger

It is a condition to the completion of the merger that Bunge receive a written opinion from its tax counsel, Shearman & Sterling LLP, and that Corn Products receive a written opinion from its tax counsel, Sidley Austin LLP, in each case dated as of the effective time of the merger, to the effect that (i) the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, (ii) each of Bunge, Bleecker Acquisition Corp. and Corn Products will be a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code, and (iii) the exchange of Corn Products common stock for Bunge common shares pursuant to the merger will be an exchange governed by Section 354 of the Code to which Section 367(a) of the Code does not apply. These opinions will be based on representation letters of Bunge and Corn Products to be provided prior to the delivery of the opinions and customary assumptions. Changes in the facts and circumstances arising after the date hereof could affect the ability of Shearman & Sterling LLP and Sidley Austin LLP to render these requisite opinions.

No ruling has been or will be sought from the IRS as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger and an opinion of tax counsel is not binding on the IRS or any court. Accordingly, there can be no assurances that the IRS will not take a position contrary to the conclusions of Shearman & Sterling LLP or Sidley Austin LLP or that a court will not agree with a contrary position of the IRS in the event of litigation.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to Corn Products Stockholders

Assuming, based on the opinions of Shearman & Sterling LLP and Sidley Austin LLP, that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and the exchange of Corn Products common stock for Bunge common shares pursuant to the merger will not be subject to Section 367(a) of the Code, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

a Corn Products stockholder who exchanges Corn Products common stock in the merger for Bunge common shares will not recognize gain or loss, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional Bunge common shares (as discussed below);

a Corn Product stockholder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in the Bunge common shares received in the merger (including any fractional Bunge common shares deemed received and exchanged for cash) will equal the aggregate adjusted tax basis of the Corn Products common stock surrendered in the merger; and a Corn Products stockholder's holding period for the Bunge common shares received in the merger will include the holding period for the Corn Products common stock surrendered in the merger.

If Corn Products stockholders acquired different blocks of Corn Products common stock at different times and at different prices, such Corn Products stockholders' adjusted tax basis and holding periods in their Bunge common shares may be determined with reference to each block of Corn Products common stock.

Corn Products stockholders who receive Bunge common shares pursuant to the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and certain Corn Products stockholders will be required to file with their U.S. federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger. Corn Products stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding such record retention and reporting requirements

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. A Corn Products stockholder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional Bunge common share generally will be treated as having received such fractional share in the merger and then as having received cash in exchange for such fractional share. Gain or loss generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional Bunge common share and the portion of such stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the Corn Products common stock that is allocable to such fractional Bunge common share. Such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective time of the merger, the Corn Products stockholder's holding period for such fractional Bunge common share (which will include such stockholder's holding period for the Corn Products common stock exchanged in the merger) is greater than one year.

Treatment of Five Percent Transferee Shareholders. In accordance with Treasury regulations under Section 367(a) of the Code, a Corn Products stockholder who is a "five percent transferee shareholder" of Bunge after the merger will qualify for the non-recognition treatment described above only if the five percent transferee shareholder files a "gain recognition agreement" with the IRS. A five percent transferee shareholder who fails to file a gain recognition agreement with the IRS will not qualify for non-recognition treatment and will recognize gain (but not loss) in the merger in an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Bunge common shares received in the merger (plus the amount of cash received in lieu of fractional Bunge common shares) and the five percent transferee shareholder's basis in its Corn Products common stock surrendered.

Any Corn Products stockholder who will be a five percent transferee shareholder is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor concerning the decision to file a gain recognition agreement and the procedures to be followed in connection with such filing.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. A Corn Products stockholder may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding of U.S. federal income tax (currently at a rate of 28%) on any cash payments received in lieu of a fractional Bunge common share. A Corn Products stockholder will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if such stockholder (i) furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that such stockholder is not subject to backup withholding on the Substitute Form W-9 (or successor form) included in the letter of transmittal to be delivered to such stockholder following the completion of the merger, or (ii) is otherwise exempt from backup withholding. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against such Corn Products stockholder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided such stockholder timely furnishes the required information to the IRS.

Tax Consequences of the Ownership of Bunge Common Shares Received in the Merger

The following discussion applies to the ownership of Bunge common shares that Corn Products stockholders receive in the merger. Except where expressly stated below, the following discussion assumes that Bunge is not a passive foreign investment company (PFIC) for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Taxation of Distributions. The amount of any distribution made by Bunge in respect of Bunge common shares generally will be treated as a dividend, taxable as ordinary income (subject to certain exceptions discussed below), to the extent of the current or accumulated earnings and profits of Bunge, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. Such a dividend generally will be income from sources outside the United States. Dividends paid by Bunge will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction generally allowed to U.S. corporations in respect of dividends received from other U.S. corporations.

Subject to certain exceptions for short-term and hedged positions, and provided that Bunge is not a PFIC (as discussed below), dividends received by certain stockholders (including individuals) prior to January 1, 2011 with respect to Bunge common shares may qualify for preferential rates of U.S. federal income tax provided that the Bunge common shares are readily tradable on an established securities market in the United States. Although the Bunge common shares are currently readily tradable on an established securities market in the United States, no assurances can be made that the Bunge common shares will remain readily tradable. Corn Products stockholders who receive Bunge common shares are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the availability of the reduced rate of U.S. federal income tax on dividends in light of their particular circumstances.

To the extent that the amount of any distribution received by a stockholder in respect of Bunge common shares exceeds the current and accumulated earnings and profits of Bunge, the excess will first be treated as a tax-free return of a stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the Bunge common shares (with a corresponding reduction of such adjusted tax basis), and thereafter generally as U.S. source capital gain.

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Shares. Subject to the PFIC discussion below, upon a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of Bunge common shares, a stockholder generally will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash and the fair market value of property received in respect of the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition and such stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the Bunge common shares. Such capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the stockholder's holding period for the Bunge common shares exceeds one year. Certain non-corporate stockholders (including individuals) are eligible for preferential rates of U.S. federal income tax in respect of long-term capital gains under current law. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations under the Code. Any gain or loss recognized by a stockholder in respect of the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of Bunge common shares generally will be treated as derived from U.S. sources.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

Passive Foreign Investment Company Status. Special U.S. federal income tax rules apply to U.S. stockholders owning shares of a PFIC directly or indirectly. A non-U.S. corporation generally will be classified as a PFIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes in any taxable year in which, after applying relevant look-through rules with respect to the income and assets of subsidiaries, either:

at least 75% of its gross income is "passive income"; or on average at least 50% of the gross value of its assets (including goodwill) is attributable to assets that produce passive income or are held for the production of passive income.

For this purpose, passive income generally includes, among other things, dividends, interest, rents, royalties, gains from the disposition of passive assets and gains from commodities transactions, other than gains derived from "qualified active sales" of commodities and "qualified hedging transactions" involving commodities, within the meaning of applicable Treasury regulations (the Commodity Exception). For this purpose, Bunge will base the calculation of goodwill, in part, on the then market value of the outstanding Bunge common shares and any other outstanding Bunge shares, which is subject to change.

Based on certain estimates of Bunge's gross income and gross assets available as of December 31, 2007 and relying on the Commodity Exception, Bunge does not believe that it is currently classified as a PFIC. However, since PFIC status will be determined on an annual basis and depends upon the composition of Bunge's income and assets (including, among others, less than 25% owned equity investments), and the nature of Bunge's activities (including the ability of Bunge to qualify for the Commodity Exception and similar exceptions), from time to time, and since the manner in which the Commodity Exception should be applied is uncertain, there can be no assurance that Bunge will not be considered a PFIC for the current taxable year or any future taxable year. Moreover, Bunge will not obtain an opinion of tax counsel, and no ruling will be sought from the IRS regarding the U.S. federal income tax characterization of Bunge as a PFIC.

If Bunge is or becomes a PFIC, unless a former Corn Products stockholder makes an election to treat Bunge as a "qualified electing fund" (a QEF) or elects to be taxed annually on a mark-to-market basis with respect to its Bunge common shares, any gain realized on a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of Bunge common shares and certain "excess distributions" (generally distributions in excess of 125% of the average distribution over a three-year period or shorter holding period for the Bunge common shares) would be treated as realized ratably over such stockholder's holding period for its Bunge common shares, and amounts allocated to prior years while Bunge is a PFIC would be taxed at the highest U.S. federal income tax rate in effect for each such year. In addition, an interest charge may apply to the portion of the U.S. federal income tax liability on such gains or distributions treated under the PFIC rules as having been deferred by the former Corn Products stockholder.

Further, if Bunge is characterized as a PFIC and, at any time, holds equity interests of a non-U.S. corporation that is classified as a PFIC, a former Corn Products stockholder generally would be deemed to own, and also would be subject to the PFIC rules with respect to, such stockholder's indirect ownership interests in that lower-tier PFIC. In such a case, a former Corn Products stockholder could incur liability for the deferred tax and interest charge described above if either (i) Bunge receives a distribution from, or disposes of all or part of its interest in, the lower-tier PFIC or (ii) such stockholder disposes of all or part of its Bunge common shares.

If Bunge is treated as a PFIC for any taxable year and a former Corn Products stockholder makes a timely QEF election, such stockholder generally will be required to annually include in its gross income (i) as ordinary income, a pro rata share of the ordinary earnings of Bunge, and (ii) as long-term capital gain, a pro rata share of the net capital gain of Bunge, in either case, whether or not distributed by Bunge. In addition, if Bunge holds equity interests of a lower-tier PFIC, unless such equity interests are held through a U. S. partnership that itself makes a QEF election with respect to the lower-tier PFIC, a former Corn Products stockholder must also make a QEF election in respect of such lower-tier PFIC. If Bunge determines that it is a PFIC for any taxable year during which a former Corn Products stockholder holds Bunge common shares, Bunge will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide such stockholder, upon written request, with (i) information and documentation that such stockholder is reasonably required to obtain in connection with its making a QEF election in respect of Bunge, and (ii) information related to the PFIC status of any non-U.S. corporation in which Bunge holds equity interests, including information and documentation necessary to make a QEF election.

If Bunge is treated as a PFIC for any taxable year and a former Corn Products stockholder makes a timely mark-to-market election, such stockholder would take into account each year the appreciation or depreciation in value of such stockholder's Bunge common shares, which would be treated as ordinary income or (subject to limitations) ordinary loss, as would gains or losses on actual dispositions of Bunge common shares. In order to make a mark-to-market election, under Treasury regulations, the Bunge common shares must be "regularly traded" on a "qualified exchange". The Bunge common shares are currently traded on the New York Stock Exchange, which is a qualified exchange. The Bunge common shares will be treated as regularly traded for any calendar year during which such shares are traded, other than in de minimis quantities, on at least 15 days during each calendar quarter. Bunge cannot assure former Corn Products shareholders that the Bunge common shares will be treated as regularly traded. In addition, a mark-to-market election with respect to the Bunge common shares would not apply to a lower-tier PFIC, and a former Corn Products stockholder would not be able to make such a mark-to-market election in respect of its indirect ownership interest in that lower-tier PFIC. Consequently, the PFIC rules could apply with respect to income of the lower-tier PFIC, the value of which already had been taken into account indirectly via mark-to-market adjustments.

Any former Corn Products stockholder who owns Bunge common shares during any year that Bunge is a PFIC would be required to file IRS Form 8621. Corn Products stockholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of the PFIC rules to the Bunge common shares and the availability and advisability of making an election to avoid the adverse tax consequences of the PFIC rules should Bunge be considered a PFIC for any taxable year. Moreover, dividends that a former Corn Products stockholder receives from Bunge will not be eligible for the reduced U.S. federal income tax rates described above if Bunge is a PFIC either in the taxable year of the distribution or the preceding taxable year (and instead will be taxable at rates applicable to ordinary income).

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. A former Corn Products stockholder may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding of U.S. federal income tax (currently at a rate of 28%) on any dividends paid on the Bunge common shares. A Corn Products stockholder will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if such stockholder (i) furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that such stockholder is not subject to backup withholding on an IRS Form W-9 (or successor form), or (ii) is otherwise exempt from backup withholding. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against such Corn Products stockholder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided such stockholder timely furnishes the required information to the IRS.

THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER AND THE OWNERSHIP OF BUNGE COMMON SHARES COULD BE AFFECTED BY THE PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES OF A CORN PRODUCTS STOCKHOLDER. ACCORDINGLY, EACH CORN PRODUCTS STOCKHOLDER IS URGED TO CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR WITH RESPECT TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER AND OF THE OWNERSHIP OF BUNGE COMMON SHARES BASED ON THE STOCKHOLDER'S PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES, INCLUDING THE APPLICATION AND EFFECT OF U.S. FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL AND NON-U.S. INCOME AND OTHER TAX LAWS.

Regulatory Matters

United States Antitrust

Under the HSR Act and related rules, certain transactions, including the merger, may not be completed until each party has filed its notification and report form with the Antitrust Division of the DOJ and the FTC and the HSR Act waiting period has expired or been terminated. Bunge and Corn Products each filed their notification and report forms with the Antitrust Division of the DOJ and the FTC regarding the merger on August 1, 2008 and the HSR Act waiting period expired at 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on September 2, 2008. At any time before or after the effective time of the merger, the Antitrust Division of the DOJ, the FTC, or others (including states and private parties) could take action under the antitrust laws, including seeking to prevent the merger, to rescind the merger or to conditionally approve the merger upon the divestiture of assets of Bunge or Corn Products. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if a challenge is made, that it would not be successful.

Other Laws

In addition to the regulatory clearances described above, filings with or the consent of other governmental agencies are required to be obtained prior to the effective time of the merger. Filings must be made with, and clearances obtained from, the relevant competition authorities in Canada, Mexico and Colombia. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger on antitrust or competition grounds will not be made or, if a challenge is made, that it would not be successful. Bunge and Corn Products have made filings in other jurisdictions, where required, and have either received clearances in such jurisdictions or clearances are not required as a condition to the closing of the merger in such jurisdictions.

General

It is possible that any of the governmental entities with which filings have been made or may be made may seek additional regulatory concessions or impose additional conditions or states or private parties may commence litigation to prevent the completion of the merger. There can be no assurance that:

Bunge or Corn Products will be able to satisfy or comply with any conditions imposed; compliance or non-compliance will not have adverse consequences on Bunge after completion of the merger; or litigation, if any, will be resolved favorably by Bunge and Corn Products.

Dissenters' Rights

Under Bermuda law, holders of Bunge common shares will not be entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the merger because they will not be receiving any merger consideration in the merger.

Under Delaware law, holders of Corn Products common stock will not be entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the merger because they are not receiving any merger consideration other than Bunge common shares and, if applicable, cash in lieu of fractional Bunge common shares, and Bunge common shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

Corn Products Employee Benefits Matters

The merger agreement provides that:

Bunge will cause the surviving corporation to honor all contracts, agreements, arrangements, policies, plans and commitments of Corn Products as in effect immediately prior to the closing of the merger that are applicable to any current or former Corn Products employees or directors, in accordance with their terms. Bunge or the surviving corporation may amend, modify or terminate any such contracts, agreements, arrangements, policies, plans and commitments to the extent allowed by their terms.

Corn Products employees will receive credit for purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting and benefit entitlement (but not, except to the extent required by applicable law, for benefit accruals under a defined benefit pension plan) under any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement established or maintained by the surviving corporation for service with Corn Products accrued or deemed accrued prior to the closing of the merger as long as such crediting of service does not duplicate any benefit or the funding of any such benefit.

Bunge will waive, or cause to be waived, any limitations on benefits relating to any pre-existing conditions or actively-at work requirements, except to the same extent such limitations are applicable under any comparable Corn Products plan.

For at least one year following the effective time of the merger, Bunge will provide persons who are employed by Corn Products as of the effective time of the merger and who continue to be employees of Bunge or its subsidiaries, including the surviving corporation, with employee benefit plans, programs, contracts and arrangements that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those currently provided to them in connection with their employment by Corn Products. However, equity-related awards and executive life insurance benefits will not be taken into account in this determination. Persons who are employed by Corn Products as of the effective time of the merger and who continue to be employees of Bunge or its subsidiaries, including the surviving corporation, will be eligible to receive equity-related awards under the equity plans of Bunge to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of Bunge or its subsidiaries.

Bunge will credit Corn Products employees with any co-payments, deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses paid by such employees under Corn Products plans during the plan year in which the closing of the merger occurs.

Bunge will continue to maintain the Retiree Plan, including all accounts under such plan as of the closing of the merger, in accordance with its terms. Bunge may freeze the Retiree Plan with respect to new participants and future benefit accruals effective as of December 31, 2009. Bunge will allow participants in the Retiree Plan to participate in the medical and dental programs generally available to active salaried employees of the surviving corporation at group premium rates, subject to its terms, with the cost of such premiums to be paid from the Retiree Plan accounts in accordance with the terms of the plan or by such participant.

Bunge will continue the Corn Products Annual Incentive Plan (AIP) and pay to eligible AIP participants the bonuses they have accrued under the AIP at the end of the bonus determination period that includes the date on which the closing of the merger occurs (based on Corn Products' performance for the period beginning on January 1, 2008 and ending on the date on which the closing of the merger occurs and based on the surviving corporation's performance for the period beginning on the date on which the closing of the merger occurs and ending on December 31, 2008) as determined by Bunge in its discretion. In order to be eligible to receive such AIP payments, a participant must be employed by Corn Products on December 31, 2008 or have terminated such employment due to death, retirement or disability and not be eligible to receive any other annual bonus other than bonuses paid outside the U.S.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

In addition, Bunge has agreed that it will negotiate in good faith with Corn Products with a view to agreeing on a mechanism with respect to Corn Products employees who hold Corn Products 2006-2008 Performance Share Awards and who remain employed by Bunge or any of its subsidiaries following the closing of the merger and through the applicable payment date, so that such employees are not adversely affected from a financial viewpoint as a result of the occurrence of the closing of the merger, taking into consideration the actual performance of Corn Products during 2008.

No earlier than August 5, 2008, Corn Products will fund the Corn Products International, Inc. Executive Benefit Trust in an amount up to $45 million and up to 800,000 shares of Corn Products common stock in order to fund all of Corn Products' obligations pursuant to the plans under such trust.

Bunge and Corn Products have agreed to provide each other with reasonable access to personnel and information as either of them may reasonably request in connection with Bunge negotiating and entering into retention arrangements with certain key Corn Products employees selected by Bunge.

Bunge and Corn Products have agreed that nothing in the merger agreement will be treated as an amendment or other modification of any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement or the establishment of any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement or will limit the right of Bunge or any of its subsidiaries to amend, terminate or otherwise modify (or cause to be amended, terminated or otherwise modified) any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement following the closing of the merger in accordance with its terms. Nothing in the merger agreement creates any third party beneficiary or other rights in any other person, including any employees, former employees, any participant in any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement (or any dependent or beneficiary thereof), of Corn Products or any of its affiliates or to continued employment with Bunge or any of its affiliates or continued participation in any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement.

Effect on Awards Outstanding Under Corn Products Stock Incentive Plan

Under the merger agreement, each stock option outstanding under the Corn Products stock incentive plan immediately prior to the completion of the merger will become fully exercisable upon completion of the merger and will be converted into an option to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the related Corn Products stock option, the number of Bunge common shares (rounded down to the nearest whole share) equal to the number of shares subject to such Corn Products stock option multiplied by the exchange ratio, and the exercise price per share will be an amount equal to the exercise price per share of such Corn Products stock option in effect immediately prior to the completion of the merger divided by the exchange ratio (rounded upward to the nearest full cent).

As soon as practicable after the completion of the merger, Bunge will deliver to each holder of a Bunge stock option that was converted from a Corn Products stock option an appropriate notice setting forth such holder's rights, and such Bunge stock option will be fully exercisable and will otherwise continue in effect on the same terms and conditions as the related Corn Products stock option (subject to the adjustment described in this section). Bunge will ensure, to the extent required by, and subject to the provisions of, the Corn Products stock incentive plan, that such converted stock options that qualified as incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Code prior to the completion of the merger will continue to qualify as incentive stock options after the completion of the merger. Bunge will reserve for issuance a sufficient number of Bunge common shares for delivery upon exercise of such converted stock options. As soon as practicable after the completion of the merger, the Bunge common shares subject to such converted stock options will be covered by an effective registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor form) or another appropriate form, and Bunge will use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement for so long as such converted stock options remain outstanding. In addition, Bunge will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Bunge common shares subject to such converted stock options to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange and such other exchanges as Bunge may determine.

Under the merger agreement, upon completion of the merger, all restrictions imposed on shares of Corn Products restricted stock and restricted stock units, except restricted stock units subject to deferral elections, will immediately lapse upon completion of the merger and such shares and restricted stock units will be converted into a number of Bunge common shares equal to the exchange ratio that will be fully vested and no longer subject to restriction. Each restricted stock unit subject to a deferral election will be converted into a fraction of a Bunge stock unit equal to the exchange ratio upon completion of the merger and will be paid in Bunge common shares in accordance with the deferral election to which it is subject.

Under the merger agreement, upon completion of the merger, all performance shares that are unvested and subject to the satisfaction of performance measures under the Corn Products stock incentive plan, except performance shares subject to deferral elections, will immediately vest at their respective target levels and will be converted into a number of Bunge common shares equal to the exchange ratio that will be fully vested and no longer subject to restriction or other condition. Each performance share subject to a deferral election will be converted into a fraction of a Bunge stock unit equal to the exchange ratio upon completion of the merger and will be paid in Bunge common shares in accordance with the deferral election to which it is subject. Additionally, Bunge has agreed to negotiate in good faith with Corn Products with a view to agreeing on a mechanism with respect to employees of Corn Products who hold performance shares relating to the 2006-2008 performance period and remain employees of Bunge or any of its subsidiaries following the completion of the merger and through the applicable payment date, so that such employees are not adversely affected from a financial viewpoint as a result of the completion of the merger, taking into consideration the actual performance of Corn Products and its subsidiaries during 2008.

Resale of Bunge Common Shares

Bunge common shares to be issued in the merger will not be subject to any restrictions on transfer arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). This joint proxy statement/prospectus does not cover resales of Bunge common shares received by any person upon completion of the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of this joint proxy statement/prospectus in connection with any resale.

CERTAIN LITIGATION

On June 23, 2008, a putative class action lawsuit, entitled Simon v. Almeida, et al., Case No. 08CH22717, was filed against Corn Products and its directors in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, County Department, Chancery Division. The complaint purports to be on behalf of all Corn Products stockholders (except the defendants and their affiliates). The complaint alleges that Corn Products' directors violated their fiduciary obligations to Corn Products stockholders in approving the merger agreement. Specifically, the complaint alleges, among other things, that the directors failed to:

- undertake an adequate evaluation of Corn Products' worth as a potential merger candidate;
- take adequate steps to enhance Corn Products' value as a merger candidate;
- effectively expose Corn Products to the marketplace to create an open auction for Corn Products; and
- act independently to protect the interests of Corn Products stockholders.

The complaint seeks various forms of relief, including injunctive relief that could, if granted, prevent the completion of the merger.

On July 8, 2008, a second putative class action lawsuit entitled Fuller v. Corn Products International, et al., Case No. 08CH24465, was filed against Corn Products and its directors in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, County Department, Chancery Division. The complaint purports to be on behalf of all Corn Products stockholders (except the defendants and their affiliates). The complaint alleges that Corn Products' directors violated their fiduciary obligations to Corn Products stockholders in approving the merger agreement. Specifically, the complaint alleges, among other things, that the directors:

- failed to take steps to maximize the value of Corn Products to its stockholders and took steps to avoid competitive bidding, to cap the price of Corn Products' stock and to give the defendants an unfair advantage by failing to solicit other potential acquirors or alternative transactions;
- failed to properly value Corn Products;
- ignored or did not protect against conflicts of interest resulting from the directors' own interrelationship or connection with the merger; and
- failed to disclose all material information to Corn Products' stockholders.

In addition, the Fuller complaint alleges that the terms of the merger agreement were designed to ensure that the sale of Corn Products to Bunge is preferential to Bunge, and to subvert the interests of plaintiff and other Corn Products stockholders. In particular, plaintiff alleges that the merger agreement contains "unlawful provisions" including the termination fee provisions, the no solicitation provisions, and the grant of "matching rights" to Bunge to match any superior proposal received by Corn Products. The complaint seeks various forms of relief, including injunctive relief that could, if granted, prevent the completion of the merger.

On July 9, 2008, a third putative class action lawsuit entitled Smith v. Corn Products International, et al., Case No. 08CH24565, was filed against Corn Products and its directors in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, County Department, Chancery Division. The complaint purports to be on behalf of all Corn Products stockholders (except the defendants and their affiliates). The allegations and relief sought in this case are substantially the same as that of the Fuller case, discussed above. At this time, the likely outcome of this case cannot be predicted, nor can a reasonable estimate of loss, if any, be made.

On July 14, 2008, the plaintiffs in the Fuller and Smith cases filed a motion to consolidate their cases with the Simon case. On July 15, 2008, the plaintiffs in the Simon case also filed a motion to consolidate the three cases and for appointment of Wolf Haldenstein Adler Freeman & Herz LLP (Wolf Haldenstein) as interim class counsel. On July 17, 2008, the plaintiffs in the Simon case withdrew the portion of their motion seeking appointment of Wolf Haldenstein as interim class counsel. On July 22, 2008, the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, County Department, Chancery Division consolidated the Fuller and Smith cases with the Simon case and, on that same day, the plaintiffs in the Simon case re-filed their motion for appointment of Wolf Haldenstein as interim class counsel. On July 25, 2008, the plaintiffs in the Fuller and Smith cases filed a motion for appointment of the law firm of Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman & Robbins LLP (Coughlin Stoia) as class counsel. On August 25, 2008, the Court entered an order pursuant to which Wolf Haldenstein and Coughlin Stoia would be appointed co-class counsel for the proposed class, and on September 4, 2008 the plaintiffs in the Simon, Fuller and Smith cases filed a consolidated complaint. A motion to dismiss the complaint was filed on September 12, 2008.

On August 20, 2008, a fourth putative class action lawsuit entitled Adams Family Limited Partnership No. 1 v. Corn Products International, et al., Case No. 3987, was filed against Corn Products and its directors in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware. The complaint purports to be on behalf of all Corn Products stockholders (except the defendants and their affiliates). The allegations and relief sought in this case are substantially the same as that of the Simon, Fuller and Smith cases, discussed above. No answer or responsive pleading has yet been filed.

Corn Products believes the above referenced lawsuits to be without merit and is defending them vigorously. However, at this time, the likely outcome of these lawsuits cannot be predicted, nor can a reasonable estimate of loss, if any, be made.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

This is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement. The merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference, contains the complete terms of that agreement. You should read the entire merger agreement carefully.

The merger agreement and the discussion under the heading "The Merger Agreement" have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. They are not intended to provide any other factual information about Bunge and Corn Products. That information can be found elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the other public filings made by Bunge or Corn Products with the SEC, which are available without charge at www.sec.gov.

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties the parties made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between Bunge and Corn Products and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed by Bunge and Corn Products in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, certain representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date because they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders or were used for the purpose of allocating risk between Bunge and Corn Products rather than establishing matters as facts. For the foregoing reasons, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as statements of factual information.

Important Definitions

The merger agreement provides that a "material adverse effect" means, when used in connection with Corn Products or Bunge, any event, circumstance, change or effect that, individually or in the aggregate with all other events, circumstances, changes and effects:

is or is reasonably likely to be materially adverse to the business, financial condition, assets, liabilities or results of operations of Corn Products and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or Bunge and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as the case may be, except that to the extent any event, circumstance, change or effect is caused by or results from any of the following, it shall not be taken into account in determining whether there has been a material adverse effect:

changes in general economic conditions or changes in financial markets in general to the extent such changes would not reasonably be expected to have a materially disproportionate impact (relative to other participants in the industries in which Corn Products operates or the industries in which Bunge operates, as the case may be) on Corn Products or Bunge, as applicable;

general changes in the industries in which Corn Products operates or the industries in which Bunge operates, as the case may be, to the extent such changes would not reasonably be expected to have a materially disproportionate impact (relative to other participants in the industries in which Corn Products operates or the industries in which Bunge operates, as the case may be) on Corn Products or Bunge, as applicable;

failure of Corn Products or Bunge, as applicable, to meet any internal or public projections, forecasts or estimates of revenues or earnings for any period ending on or after June 21, 2008 (but the facts or occurrences giving rise to or contributing to the occurrence of any such failure may be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, a material adverse effect);

any change in any applicable law, rule or regulation or GAAP or interpretation thereof after June 21, 2008;

the commencement, occurrence or continuation of any war, armed hostilities or acts of terrorism involving or affecting any part of the United States of America; and solely with respect to a material adverse effect with respect to Corn Products, changes resulting from the entry into or the public announcement of the merger agreement, the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or the performance of obligations under the merger agreement; or would prevent or materially delay consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or otherwise prevent or materially delay Corn Products or Bunge, as applicable, from performing its obligations under the merger agreement.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

Bunge and Corn Products can provide no assurance that all of the conditions precedent to the merger will be satisfied or waived by the party permitted to do so. Neither Bunge nor Corn Products can at this point determine whether it would resolicit proxies in the event that it decides to waive any of the items listed above. Each of Bunge's and Corn Products' decisions would depend upon the facts and circumstances leading to their respective decisions to complete the merger and whether Bunge or Corn Products believes there has been a material change in the terms of the merger and its effect on Bunge or Corn Products and their respective shareholders or stockholders. In making this determination, Bunge and Corn Products would consider, among other factors, the reasons for the waiver, the effect of the waiver on the terms of the merger, whether the requirement being waived was necessary in order to make the transaction fair to Bunge shareholders or Corn Products stockholders from a financial point of view, the availability of alternative transactions and the prospects of Bunge or Corn Products as an independent entity. If either Bunge or Corn Products determines that a waiver of a condition would materially change the terms of the merger, it will resolicit proxies.

No Solicitation

The merger agreement provides that neither Corn Products nor any of its subsidiaries will, and Corn Products will use its reasonable best efforts to cause their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, other advisors and representatives not to:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage (including by furnishing non-public information), or knowingly facilitate the making of any acquisition proposal, as described below;

enter into, continue or otherwise engage or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal; furnish to any person any information with respect to an acquisition proposal; knowingly cooperate, encourage or facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement any proposal or inquiry that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to result in, an acquisition proposal;

approve, endorse or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, endorse or recommend, any acquisition proposal;

submit to a vote of its stockholders, approve, endorse or recommend, or publicly announce an intention to approve, endorse or recommend, any acquisition proposal; or enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, amalgamation agreement, scheme of arrangement or other similar agreement relating to any acquisition proposal (other than a qualifying confidentiality agreement, as described below)

The merger agreement provides that the term "acquisition proposal" means any proposal or offer from any person or group of persons (other than Bunge, Bleecker Acquisition Corp. or their affiliates):

for any merger, consolidation, amalgamation, share exchange, business combination, scheme of arrangement, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or other similar transaction involving Corn Products or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to which such person or group of persons would own 25% or more of the voting power of any class of equity securities of Corn Products or of any resulting parent of Corn Products; for any sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of assets or businesses that constitute or represent 25% or more of the consolidated revenue, consolidated operating income or consolidated total assets of Corn Products and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; or for any sale, exchange, transfer or other disposition pursuant to which such person or group of persons would own 25% or more of the voting power of any class of equity securities of Corn Products, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions in each case other than the merger.

The merger agreement provides that the term "qualifying confidentiality agreement" means a confidentiality agreement with provisions requiring any person receiving non-public information with respect to Corn Products to keep such information confidential, which confidentiality provisions are no less restrictive in the aggregate to such person than the confidentiality agreement executed by Corn Products and Bunge is to Bunge and provided that such confidentiality agreement will not conflict with any rights of Bunge or Bleecker Acquisition Corp. or obligations of Corn Products and its subsidiaries under the merger agreement.

The merger agreement provides further that, notwithstanding the restrictions described above, if Corn Products receives an unsolicited written acquisition proposal from any person or group of persons at any time prior to the Corn Products special meeting, Corn Products:

may contact such person or group of persons to clarify the terms and conditions of the proposal; and if the Corn Products board of directors (or any of its committees) has determined, in its good faith judgment (after consultation with Corn Products' financial advisors and outside legal counsel), that the acquisition proposal constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal, as described below, and has obtained from such person a qualifying confidentiality agreement, may furnish information to, and enter into discussions and negotiations with, such person or group of persons, so long as Corn Products has provided written notice to Bunge of its intent to furnish information or enter into discussions or negotiations with such person or group of persons at least one business day prior to taking any such action.

The merger agreement provides that the term "superior proposal" means an unsolicited written bona fide offer made by a third party to consummate any of the following transactions:

a merger, consolidation, amalgamation, share exchange, business combination, asset purchase, scheme of arrangement, or other similar transaction involving Corn Products pursuant to which the stockholders of Corn Products immediately preceding such transaction would hold less than 50% of the voting power of any class of equity securities of Corn Products or of any resulting entity of such transaction or Corn Products would sell more than 50% of the consolidated assets of Corn Products and its subsidiaries; or the acquisition by any person or group (including by means of a tender offer or an exchange offer or a two-step transaction involving a tender offer followed with reasonable promptness by a cash out merger involving Corn Products), directly or indirectly, of ownership of 100% of the then outstanding shares of stock of Corn Products in each case on terms that the Corn Products board of directors determines, in its good faith judgment (after consultation with Corn Products' financial advisors), to be more favorable to Corn Products' stockholders than the merger (after taking into account, among other factors the Corn Products board of directors may deem relevant, the likelihood of obtaining any financing required to consummate the transaction contemplated by such offer).

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

The merger agreement provides that Corn Products must promptly (but in no event more than 24 hours) advise Bunge in writing of the receipt of any acquisition proposal, or any inquiry, discussions or negotiations relating to any acquisition proposal and the terms and conditions of such acquisition proposal, and Corn Products must promptly provide to Bunge a copy of any acquisition proposal made in writing provided to Corn Products and copies of any written materials received by Corn Products in connection with such acquisition proposal. Corn Products must keep Bunge reasonably informed of the status of any discussions or negotiations relating to any acquisition proposal. Corn Products also must simultaneously provide to Bunge any non-public information concerning Corn Products that is provided to any other person or group of persons in connection with any acquisition proposal if such information was not previously provided to Bunge.

The merger agreement provides that neither the Corn Products board of directors nor any committee of the Corn Products board of directors may withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, or propose to withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, in any manner adverse to Bunge, the approval or recommendation by the Corn Products board of directors or any committee of the Corn Products board of directors of the merger agreement or the merger or take any action, or make any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with its recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger.

Notwithstanding the above, at any time prior to the Corn Products special meeting, if Corn Products has received a superior proposal (after giving effect to any revised offer by Bunge as described below), the Corn Products board of directors may:

in connection with such superior proposal, withdraw its recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger, if the Corn Products board of directors has determined in good faith, after consultation with Corn Products' financial advisors and outside counsel, that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with the Corn Products directors' exercise of their fiduciary obligations to Corn Products and its stockholders under applicable law and Corn Products' certificate of incorporation; or terminate the merger agreement for the purpose of causing Corn Products to enter into an acquisition agreement relating to such superior proposal (so long as Corn Products has paid the termination fee, described below), which Corn Products must enter into concurrently with or immediately following such termination, if the Corn Products board of directors has determined in good faith, after consultation with Corn Products' financial advisors and outside counsel, that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with the Corn Products directors' exercise of their fiduciary obligations to Corn Products and its stockholders under applicable law and Corn Products' certificate of incorporation.

No withdrawal of its recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger, or termination of the merger agreement, by the Corn Products board of directors in response to a superior proposal may be made unless:

Corn Products has provided Bunge at least 5 calendar days' prior written notice of its intention to take that action, which notice shall advise Bunge that the Corn Products board of directors has received a superior proposal, specify the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal and indicate that the Corn Products board of directors intends to withdraw its recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger, or terminate the merger agreement, and the manner in which the Corn Products board of directors intends to take that action;

during that 5 day period, Corn Products and its advisors have negotiated with Bunge in good faith (if Bunge desires to negotiate) to change the terms and conditions of the merger agreement so that the acquisition proposal received by Corn Products ceases to constitute (in the judgment of the Corn Products board of directors) a superior proposal; and if, during that 5 day period, any revisions are made to the superior proposal, Corn Products must have delivered a new written notice to Bunge specifying the details of any revisions to the superior proposal, and the provisions relating to notice and negotiation described above will continue to apply with respect to the revised superior proposal, except the Corn Products board of directors must in such event provide prior written notice to Bunge only 2 calendar days in advance of its intention to withdraw its recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger, or to terminate the merger agreement, in response to a superior proposal and Corn Products' corresponding obligation to negotiate in good faith shall run for only 2 days.

The merger agreement provides that any disclosure that the Corn Products board of directors may be compelled to make with respect to the receipt of a proposal or offer for an acquisition proposal or otherwise in order to comply with its fiduciary obligations to Corn Products and its stockholders under applicable law and Corn Products' certificate of incorporation or Rule 14d-9 or 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act, will not constitute a violation of the merger agreement so long as such disclosure does not constitute a withdrawal of the Corn Products board of directors' recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger other than in accordance with the above provisions and other provisions of the merger agreement (and a mere "stop, look and listen" disclosure will not be deemed to be such a withdrawal).

Notwithstanding the above, at any time prior to the adoption of the merger agreement at the Corn Products special meeting, the Corn Products board of directors may, other than in response to a superior proposal, withdraw its recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger if the Corn Products board of directors determines, in its good faith judgment prior to the time of the Corn Products special meeting and after consultation with outside legal counsel, that failure to withdraw its recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger would be inconsistent with the Corn Products directors' exercise of their fiduciary obligations to Corn Products and its stockholders under applicable law and Corn Products' certificate of incorporation. However, no such withdrawal may be made by the Corn Products board of directors unless:

Corn Products has provided Bunge at least 5 calendar days' prior written notice of its intention to take that action, which notice shall advise Bunge of the circumstances that have resulted in the Corn Products board of directors determining to take such action and indicate that the Corn Products board of directors intends to withdraw its recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger and the manner in which the Corn Products board of directors intends to take that action; and during that 5 day period, Corn Products and its advisors have negotiated with Bunge in good faith (if Bunge desires to negotiate) to change the terms and conditions of the merger agreement so that the circumstances that have resulted in the Corn Products board of directors determining to take such action cease to constitute circumstances with respect to which the Corn Products board of directors determines in its good faith judgment after consultation with outside legal counsel that failure to withdraw its recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger would be inconsistent with the exercise of the Corn Products directors' fiduciary obligations to Corn Products and its stockholders under applicable law and Corn Products' certificate of incorporation.

The merger agreement provides that neither the Bunge board of directors nor any committee of the Bunge board of directors may withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, or propose to withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, in any manner adverse to Corn Products, the approval or recommendation by the Bunge board of directors or any committee of the Bunge board of directors of the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders on the terms and conditions set out in the merger agreement, or take any action, or make any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with its recommendation of such issuance of Bunge common shares.

Notwithstanding the above, at any time prior to the approval of the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders, the Bunge board of directors may withdraw its recommendation of such issuance of Bunge common shares, if the Bunge board of directors determines, in its good faith judgment prior to the Bunge special general meeting and after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to withdraw its recommendation of such issuance of Bunge common shares would be inconsistent with the Bunge directors' exercise of their fiduciary obligations to Bunge and its shareholders under applicable law. However, no such withdrawal may be made by the Bunge board of directors unless:

Bunge has provided Corn Products at least 5 calendar days' written notice of its intention to take that action; and during that 5 day period, Bunge and its advisors have negotiated with Corn Products in good faith (if Corn Products desires to negotiate) to change the terms and conditions of the merger agreement so that the circumstances that have resulted in the Bunge board of directors determining to take such action cease to constitute circumstances with respect to which the Bunge board of directors determines in its good faith judgment after consultation with outside legal counsel that failure to withdraw its recommendation of such issuance of Bunge common shares would be inconsistent with the exercise of the Bunge directors' fiduciary obligations to Bunge and its shareholders under applicable law.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the merger, even if the merger agreement has been adopted by the Corn Products stockholders and the issuance of Bunge common shares to the Corn Products stockholders has been approved by Bunge shareholders:

by mutual written consent of Bunge and Corn Products;

by either Bunge or Corn Products, if the merger has not occurred by March 23, 2009, except that this right to terminate the merger agreement will not be available to a party whose intentional failure to fulfill any obligation of the merger agreement or other intentional breach of the merger agreement has resulted in the failure of any condition of the merger to be satisfied prior to that date;

by either Bunge or Corn Products, if any court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental authority has issued an order to taken any other action permanently restricting, enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the merger and that order or other action has become final and non-appealable, except that this right to terminate the merger agreement will not be available to a party who has not used its reasonable best efforts to cause the order to be lifted or otherwise complied with provisions of the merger agreement relating to its use of reasonable best efforts;

by either Bunge or Corn Products, if the merger agreement has not been adopted by the Corn Products stockholders at the Corn Products special meeting;

by either Bunge or Corn Products, if the issuance of Bunge common shares to the Corn Products stockholders has not been approved by the Bunge shareholders at the Bunge special general meeting;

by Bunge, if Corn Products breaches any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, which breach would give rise to the failure of a condition to the merger, the breach cannot be cured or has not been cured within 30 days of the receipt by Corn Products of notice of the breach, and the breach has not been waived by Bunge;

by Bunge, prior to the Corn Products special meeting, if the Corn Products board of directors withdraws, qualifies, modifies or amends, or proposes to withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, in any manner adverse to Bunge, the approval or recommendation by the Corn Products board of directors or any committee of the Corn Products board of directors of the merger agreement or the merger;

by Bunge, if Corn Products has failed to include the recommendation of the Corn Products board of directors to the Corn Products stockholders in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or any amendment or supplement to this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

by Corn Products, if Bunge breaches any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, which breach would give rise to the failure of a condition to the merger, the breach cannot be cured or has not been cured within 30 days of the receipt by Bunge of notice of the breach, and the breach has not been waived by Corn Products;

by Corn Products, in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions described in " No Solicitation";

by Corn Products, prior to the Bunge special general meeting, if the Bunge board of directors withdraws, qualifies, modifies or amends, in any manner adverse to Corn Products, the approval or recommendation by the Bunge board of directors or any committee of the Bunge board of directors of the issuance of Bunge common shares to the Corn Products stockholders, or takes any action, or makes any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with the approval or recommendation by the Bunge board or any committee of the Bunge board of the issuance of Bunge common shares to the Corn Products stockholders; or by Corn Products, if Bunge has failed to include the recommendation of the Bunge board of directors to the Bunge shareholders in favor of the issuance of Bunge common shares to the Corn Products stockholders in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or any amendment or supplement to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Payment of Certain Fees and Expenses

General

The merger agreement provides that each party will pay its own fees and expenses in connection with the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement whether or not the merger or any other transaction is consummated.

Payment of Termination Fee

Corn Products must pay to Bunge a termination fee of $110 million in each of the following circumstances:

the merger agreement is terminated by Bunge, because:

prior to the Corn Products special meeting, the Corn Products board of directors withdraws, qualifies, modifies or amends, or proposes to withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, in any manner adverse to Bunge, the approval or recommendation by the Corn Products board of directors or any committee of the Corn Products board of directors of the merger agreement or the merger; or

Corn Products has failed to include the recommendation of the Corn Products board of directors to the Corn Products stockholders in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or any amendment or supplement to this joint proxy statement/prospectus; and in either case, within 12 months after the date of such termination Corn Products enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a transaction contemplated by an acquisition proposal (for purposes of this circumstance, all references to 25% in the description of an acquisition proposal above will be replaced with 50%); or the merger agreement is terminated by Corn Products, in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions described in " No Solicitation"; or the merger agreement is terminated:

by Bunge or Corn Products, if the merger has not occurred by March 23, 2009; or by Bunge, if Corn Products breaches any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, which breach would give rise to the failure of a condition to the merger, the breach cannot be cured or has not been cured within 30 days of the receipt by Corn Products of notice of the breach, and the breach has not been waived by Bunge; and prior to the termination of the merger agreement an acquisition proposal has been made or communicated to the senior management of Corn Products or the Corn Products board of directors, or an acquisition proposal has been publicly made known or publicly announced with respect to Corn Products; and within 12 months after the merger agreement is terminated, Corn Products enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a transaction contemplated by any acquisition proposal, whether or not it is the same as the acquisition proposal made, communicated, publicly made known or publicly announced (for purposes of this circumstance, all references to 25% in the description of an acquisition proposal above will be replaced with 50%); or the merger agreement is terminated by Bunge or Corn Products:

if the merger agreement has not been adopted by the Corn Products stockholders at the Corn Products special meeting; and prior to the time of such failure of the Corn Products stockholders to adopt the merger agreement an acquisition proposal has been publicly made known or publicly announced with respect to Corn Products; and within 12 months after the merger agreement is terminated, Corn Products enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a transaction contemplated by any acquisition proposal, whether or not it is the same as the acquisition proposal made, communicated, publicly made known or publicly announced (for purposes of this circumstance, all references to 25% in the description of an acquisition proposal above will be replaced with 50%).

Payment of Certain Expenses

Corn Products must reimburse Bunge for all of Bunge's expenses (up to a $10 million limit) in connection with the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in each of the following circumstances:

the merger agreement is terminated by Bunge, because Corn Products breaches any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, which breach would give rise to the failure of a condition to the merger, the breach cannot be cured or has not been cured within 30 days of the receipt by Corn Products of notice of the breach, and the breach has not been waived by Bunge;

the merger agreement is terminated by Bunge, because prior to the Corn Products special meeting the Corn Products board of directors withdraws, qualifies, modifies or amends, or proposes to withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, in any manner adverse to Bunge, the approval or recommendation by the Corn Products board of directors or any committee of the Corn Products board of directors of the merger agreement or the merger; or the merger agreement is terminated by Bunge, because Corn Products has failed to include the recommendation of the Corn Products board of directors to the Corn Products stockholders in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or any amendment or supplement to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The amount of any expenses paid by Corn Products to Bunge will be credited against any termination fee to be paid by Corn Products if the termination fee subsequently becomes payable.

Bunge must reimburse Corn Products for all of Corn Products' expenses (up to a $10 million limit) in connection with the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in each of the following circumstances:

the merger agreement is terminated by Corn Products, because Bunge breaches any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, which breach would give rise to the failure of a condition to the merger, the breach cannot be cured or has not been cured within 30 days of the receipt by Bunge of notice of the breach, and the breach has not been waived by Corn Products;

the merger agreement is terminated by Corn Products, because prior to the Bunge special general meeting, the Bunge board of directors withdraws, qualifies, modifies or amends, in any manner adverse to Corn Products, the approval or recommendation by the Bunge board of directors or any committee of the Bunge board of directors of the issuance of Bunge common shares to the Corn Products stockholders, or takes any action, or makes any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with the approval or recommendation by the Bunge board or any committee of the Bunge board of the issuance of Bunge common shares to the Corn Products stockholders; or the merger agreement is terminated by Corn Products, because Bunge has failed to include the recommendation of the Bunge board to directors to the Bunge shareholders in favor of the issuance of Bunge common shares to Corn Products stockholders pursuant to the merger in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or any amendment or supplement to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

Under the merger agreement, Corn Products has agreed that, during the period from the date of the merger agreement to the completion of the merger, except as consented to by Bunge, it and its subsidiaries will conduct their businesses in all material respects in the ordinary course of business as currently conducted and it will use its reasonable best efforts to preserve substantially intact the business organization of Corn Products and its subsidiaries, to keep available the services of the current officers, employees and consultants of Corn Products and its subsidiaries and to preserve the current relationships of Corn Products and its subsidiaries with customers, suppliers and other persons with which Corn Products or any of its subsidiaries has significant business relations.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, during the period from the date of the merger agreement to the completion of the merger, Corn Products has also agreed to specific restraints on itself and its subsidiaries relating to the following, unless it shall receive the prior written consent of Bunge (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, except with respect to the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth and twelfth items listed below):

the amendment of its certificate of incorporation or bylaws;

In the merger, the outstanding shares of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for Bunge common shares pursuant to the exchange ratio described in the notes to the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements. For pro forma purposes the merger has been accounted for as a purchase pursuant to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 141, Business Combinations. Under the purchase method of accounting, the total estimated purchase price is allocated to all tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their respective fair values on the date the merger is consummated.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of income are presented as if the merger had occurred on January 1, 2007. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet combines the historical balance sheets of Bunge and Corn Products giving effect to the merger as if it occurred on June 30, 2008.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements include adjustments that are based on preliminary estimates pending the completion of an appraisal and other evaluations to reflect the allocation of the purchase price of Corn Products' net assets as of June 30, 2008. NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA
CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Description of Transaction and Basis of Presentation

On June 21, 2008, Bunge entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization with Corn Products and Bleecker Acquisition Corp., a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge. The merger agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Bleecker Acquisition Corp. will merge with and into Corn Products, with Corn Products as the surviving corporation of the merger. As result of the merger, Corn Products will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Bunge.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, each outstanding share of Corn Products common stock will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a Bunge common share determined by dividing $56.00 by the volume weighted average of the closing prices of a Bunge common share on the New York Stock Exchange for the 15 trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting (which we refer to in these notes to the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements as the Bunge Share Price), provided that if the Bunge Share Price is equal to or greater than $133.10, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.4207 of a Bunge common share, and if the Bunge Share Price is equal to or less than $108.90, each share of Corn Products common stock will be exchanged for 0.5142 of a Bunge common share.

Upon consummation of the merger, the outstanding stock options and other stock-based awards of Corn Products will convert without any action on the part of the holder into stock options and equity awards with respect to Bunge common shares, appropriately adjusted to reflect the exchange ratio, described above.

Bunge will account for the merger as a purchase under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Under the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Corn Products will be recorded as of the acquisition date, at their respective fair values, and consolidated with those of Bunge. The results of operations of Corn Products will be consolidated with those of Bunge beginning on the date of the merger.

The merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including the approval of stockholders of Corn Products and the shareholders of Bunge and receipt of certain regulatory approvals. Subject to these conditions, Bunge currently expects that the merger will close during the fourth quarter of 2008.

2. Purchase Price

The following is a preliminary estimate of the purchase price for Corn Products:

	(US$ in millions)
Estimated number of shares of Corn Products common stock to be acquired as of June 30, 2008 (in thousands)	74,369
Assumed exchange ratio(1)	0.5142
Estimated number of Bunge common shares to be issued to Corn Products stockholders (in thousands)	38,241
Multiplied by assumed price per share of Bunge common shares	$ 75.86	$ 2,901
Estimated fair value of other outstanding Corn Products stock-based awards to be settled in Bunge common shares (calculated using Bunge common share price of $75.86)(2)		34
Estimated fair value of outstanding Corn Products stock options to be exchanged for Bunge stock options (calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model)(2)		72
Estimated transaction costs(3)		35
Estimated purchase price		$ 3,042

2. Purchase Price (Continued)

The following table summarizes the allocations of fair value to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed. Such allocations are based on preliminary estimates pending the completion of an appraisal and other evaluations to reflect the fair value allocations of the purchase price of Corn Products' net assets as of June 30, 2008. The final values may differ from those set forth below.

Estimated Purchase Price Allocation	(US$ in millions)
Book value of net assets acquired as of June 30, 2008	$ 1,898
Redeemable common stock	23
Share-based payments subject to redemption	8
Less: Write-off of existing goodwill and other intangible assets, and related deferred taxes	(385)
Adjusted book value of net assets acquired	$ 1,544
Remaining allocation:
Increase inventories to fair value	45
Increase property, plant and equipment to fair value(4)	773
Identifiable intangible assets at fair value(5)	256
Goodwill(5)	778
Restructuring costs(6)
Deferred income taxes(7)	(354)
Estimated purchase price	$ 3,042

- (1) Assumes exchange ratio of 0.5142, resulting from an exchange of Bunge common shares pursuant to the exchange ratio described above at an assumed Bunge Share Price of $75.86 (the closing price of Bunge common shares on the NYSE on September 12, 2008) for each share of Corn Products common stock. The Bunge Share Price of $75.86 is an assumed share price used for purposes of calculating the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement (as described above) for purposes of these pro forma financial statements. The actual exchange ratio will be determined in accordance with the merger agreement, and the actual purchase price for purposes of this allocation will be determined based on the market value of Bunge common shares as of the closing date of the merger. See "Summary General What Corn Products Stockholders Will Receive in the Merger" for information on the aggregate number of Bunge common shares to be issued to Corn Products stockholders if the Bunge Share Price is not $75.86.
- (2) The assumed Bunge Share Price of $75.86, as described above, was used to estimate the number of Bunge stock options issued upon conversion of Corn Products stock options and the related fair value. In addition, Corn Products' other stock-based awards will fully vest and be payable in Bunge common shares following consummation of the merger. As of June 30, 2008, there were 872,430 other Corn Products stock-based awards that will be settled in Bunge common shares using the assumed exchange ratio of 0.5142 at the assumed Bunge Share Price of $75.86.
- (3) Estimated transaction costs to be recorded as of the closing date of the merger.
- (4) The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements include an estimated fair value increase of property, plant and equipment, which is expected to be amortized on a straight-line basis over an average of 17 years based on the application of the "indirect cost approach". The indirect cost approach estimates "cost of reproduction new" by indexing the asset's original cost based on inflationary cost index factors. These estimates will be adjusted upon final valuation, which is expected to be within 12 months following the completion of the merger.

2. Purchase Price (Continued)

- (5) For purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements, the estimated allocation to acquired identifiable intangible assets is expected to be within, but not limited to, the following general categories:

customer relationships

patents/technological knowledge

technical license agreements

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements include an estimated identifiable intangible asset value in the aggregate of $256 million, which is expected to be amortized on a straight-line basis over an average of 13 years, based on information and assumptions provided by Corn Products management and our independent consultants. The amount of goodwill assumes that the Bunge common shares received by the Corn Products stockholders in the merger have a market value of $75.86 (the closing price of Bunge common shares on the NYSE on September 12, 2008). The actual amount of goodwill will depend in part on the market value of Bunge common shares as of the closing date of the merger. These estimates will be adjusted upon final valuation. The final valuation is expected to be completed within 12 months following the completion of the merger. In accordance with the requirements of SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, any goodwill and, if any, other indefinite-lived intangible assets associated with the merger will not be amortized but are required to undergo impairment tests at least annually or more frequently if facts and circumstances indicate an impairment may have occurred. If an impairment exists, goodwill is immediately written down to its fair value through a charge to earnings. Accordingly, goodwill and, if any, other indefinite-lived intangible assets arising from the merger will be subject to an impairment test at least annually.

- (6) Certain restructuring and integration charges will be recorded subsequent to the merger that, under purchase accounting, may or may not be treated as part of the purchase price for Corn Products. Any such potential charges are not factually supportable at this time and, therefore, such charges have not been reflected in unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements.
- (7) The deferred tax liability relates to acquired identifiable intangible assets and fair value increases in inventory and property, plant and equipment.

3. Financial Statement Classification

For purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements, certain reclassifications were made to Corn Products' financial statements to conform to the classifications used by Bunge. Reclassifications primarily related to financing costs, net, which were reallocated to interest income, interest expense and foreign exchange gains (losses) and accounts payable and accrued liabilities, which was reallocated to trade accounts payable and other current liabilities.

These prices will fluctuate prior to the second trading day prior to the date of the Corn Products special meeting (the date on which the exchange ratio will be fixed), and Bunge shareholders and Corn Products stockholders are urged to obtain current market quotations prior to making any decision with respect to the merger.

Each of Bunge and Corn Products declares and pays regular quarterly cash dividends. DESCRIPTION OF BUNGE CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary of the capital stock of Bunge does not purport to be a complete summary of all the rights and preferences of Bunge's capital stock, or a complete description of the specific provisions referred to in this summary. The following summary is subject in all respects to applicable Bermuda law, the Bunge Memorandum of Association and the Bunge Bye-laws. See "Comparison of Rights of Common Shareholders of Bunge and Common Stockholders of Corn Products" and "Where You Can Find More Information".

Authorized Share Capital

Pursuant to Bunge's Memorandum of Association, Bunge's authorized share capital consists of 400,000,000 common shares, par value $0.01 per share, and 21,000,000 preference shares, par value $0.01 per share.

As of June 19, 2008, there were issued and outstanding:

862,500 5.125% cumulative mandatory convertible preference shares.

As of December 31, 2007, 4,685,082 common shares were reserved for future issuance pursuant to outstanding stock options and restricted stock unit awards, and from January 1, 2008 through June 19, 2008, Bunge granted stock options and restricted stock unit awards pursuant to Bunge's equity incentive plans representing the right to acquire 941,050 Bunge common shares in the aggregate.

Bunge's Bye-Laws were amended on May 23, 2008 to authorize shares repurchased by Bunge to be held as treasury shares. There were no shares held as treasury shares as of June 19, 2008.

There are no limitations on the right of non-Bermudians or non-residents of Bermuda to hold or vote Bunge's shares.

Common Shares

Bunge common shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "BG".

Outstanding Bunge Common Shares

As of June 19, 2008, 121,594,093 Bunge common shares were issued and outstanding, all of which were duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

Voting and Other Rights

Holders of common shares are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of holders of common shares. Unless a different majority is required by law or by Bunge's Bye-Laws, resolutions to be approved by holders of common shares require approval by a simple majority of votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Holders of Bunge common shares have no pre-emptive, redemption, conversion or sinking fund rights.

Dividend Rights

Under Bermuda law, a company's board of directors may not declare or pay dividends if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the company is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due or that the realizable value of its assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and issued share capital and share premium accounts. Issued share capital is the aggregate par value of Bunge's issued shares, and the share premium account is the aggregate amount paid for issued shares over and above their par value. Share premium accounts may be reduced in certain limited circumstances. Under Bunge's Bye-Laws, each common share is entitled to dividends if, as and when dividends are declared by its board of directors, subject to any preference dividend right of the holders of any preference shares. There are no restrictions on Bunge's ability to transfer funds (other than funds denominated in Bermuda dollars) in or out of Bermuda or to pay dividends to U.S. residents who are holders of its common shares or preference shares.

Rights Upon Liquidation

In the event of Bunge's liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, the holders of common shares are entitled to share equally and ratably in Bunge's assets, if any, remaining after the payment of all of its debts and liabilities, subject to any liquidation preference on any outstanding preference shares.

Convertible Perpetual Preference Shares

Outstanding Convertible Perpetual Preference Shares

As of June 19, 2008, 6,900,000 4.875% cumulative convertible perpetual preference shares, which are referred to as the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares, were issued and outstanding, all of which were duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

Voting Rights

Except as required by Bermuda law and the certificate of designation for the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares and as set out in Bunge's Bye-Laws, the holders of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares will generally have no voting rights unless dividends payable on the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares are in arrears for six or more dividend periods. In that event, the holders of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares, voting as a single class or with any other class or series of preference shares having similar voting rights, in proportion to the aggregate liquidation preference of each such class or series of preference shares, will be entitled at the next annual general meeting or special general meeting of Bunge's shareholders to elect two directors. These voting rights and the terms of the directors so elected, subject to Bunge's Bye-Laws and Bermuda law, will continue until such time as the dividend arrearage on the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares has been paid in full. The affirmative vote or consent of holders of at least 66% of the issued and outstanding Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares will be required for amendments to Bunge's Memorandum of Association, Bye-laws or certificate of designation that would vary adversely the rights of holders of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares.

Dividend Rights

Holders of Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares are entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by Bunge's board of directors out of funds legally available for payment, cumulative dividends at the rate per annum of 4.875% per share on the liquidation preference thereof of $100 per Bunge convertible perpetual preference share (equivalent to $4.875 per annum per share). Accumulations of dividends on the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares do not bear interest.

Ranking

The Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares rank, with respect to dividend rights and rights upon liquidation, winding-up or dissolution, senior to all Bunge common shares and to all other shares issued in the future unless the terms of those shares expressly provide that they rank senior to or on a parity with, the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares; on a parity with any series of shares issued in the future, the terms of which expressly provide that they will rank on a parity with the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares; and junior to all shares issued in the future, the terms of which expressly provide that such shares will rank senior to the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares.

Liquidation Preference

In the event of Bunge's voluntary or involuntary liquidation, winding-up or dissolution, each holder of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares will be entitled to receive and to be paid out of Bunge's assets available for distribution to its shareholders, before any payment or distribution is made to holders of junior shares (including Bunge common shares), a liquidation preference in the amount of $100 per Bunge convertible perpetual preference share, plus an amount equal to accumulated and unpaid dividends on the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares (up to a maximum of an additional $25 per share). If, upon Bunge's voluntary or involuntary liquidation, winding-up or dissolution, the amounts payable with respect to the liquidation preference of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares, the mandatory convertible preference shares and all parity shares are not paid in full, the holders of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares, the mandatory convertible preference shares and the parity shares will share equally and ratably in any distribution of Bunge's assets in proportion to the full liquidation preference, including the amount equal to accumulated and unpaid dividends on the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares, the mandatory convertible preference shares and the parity shares required to be paid. After payment of the full amount of the liquidation preference and accumulated and unpaid dividends to which they are entitled, the holders of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares will have no right or claim to any of Bunge's remaining assets. Neither the sale of all or substantially all of Bunge's assets or business (other than in connection with Bunge's liquidation, winding-up or dissolution), nor Bunge's merger, consolidation or amalgamation into or with any other person, will be deemed to be its voluntary or involuntary liquidation, winding-up or dissolution.

Neither Bunge's Bye-Laws nor the certificate of designation for the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares contains any provision requiring funds to be set aside to protect the liquidation preferences of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares even though they are substantially in excess of the par value thereof.

Redemption and Conversion

Bunge does not have the right to redeem the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares. Each Bunge convertible perpetual preference share may be converted at any time, at the option of the holder, into approximately 1.0846 common shares (which is calculated using the initial conversion price of $92.20 per common share) plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. The initial conversion price is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain anti-dilution events. Additionally, if holders convert within a certain period of time after a fundamental change has occurred, the conversion rate will be adjusted. On or after December 1, 2011, if, for 20 trading days within any period of 30 consecutive trading days (including the last trading day of such period), the closing price of Bunge common shares exceeds 130% of the then prevailing conversion price of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares, Bunge may, at its option, cause all issued and outstanding Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares to be automatically converted into that number of Bunge common shares that are issuable at the then prevailing conversion price. In addition, if, on or after December 1, 2011, there are fewer than 250,000 Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares issued and outstanding, Bunge may also, at its option, cause all issued and outstanding Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares to be converted into common shares.

The certificate of designation for the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares has been filed as Exhibit 4.2 to Bunge's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007.

Mandatory Convertible Preference Shares

Outstanding Mandatory Convertible Preference Shares

As of June 19, 2008, 862,500 5.125% cumulative mandatory convertible preference shares, which are referred to as the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares, were issued and outstanding, all of which were duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

Voting Rights

Except as required by Bermuda law and the certificate of designation for the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares and as set out in Bunge's Bye-Laws, the holders of the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares will generally have no voting rights unless dividends payable on the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares are in arrears for six or more dividend periods. In that event, the holders of the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares, voting as a single class or with any other class or series of preference shares having similar voting rights, in proportion to the aggregate liquidation preference of each such class or series of preference shares, will be entitled at the next annual general meeting or special general meeting of Bunge's shareholders to elect two directors. These voting rights and the terms of the directors so elected, subject to Bunge's Bye-Laws and Bermuda law, will continue until such time as the dividend arrearage on the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares has been paid in full. The affirmative vote or consent of holders of at least 66% of the issued and outstanding Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares will be required for amendments to Bunge's Memorandum of Association, Bye-laws or certificate of designation that would vary adversely the rights of holders of the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares.

Dividend Rights

Holders of Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares are entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by Bunge's board of directors out of funds legally available for payment, cumulative dividends at the rate per annum of 5.125% per share on the liquidation preference thereof of $1,000 per Bunge mandatory convertible preference share (equivalent to $51.25 per annum per share). Accumulations of dividends on the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares do not bear interest.

Ranking

The Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares rank, with respect to dividend rights and rights upon liquidation, winding-up or dissolution, senior to all Bunge common shares and to all other shares issued in the future unless the terms of those shares expressly provide that they rank senior to or on a parity with, the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares; on a parity with any series of shares issued in the future, the terms of which expressly provide that they will rank on a parity with the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares; and junior to all shares issued in the future, the terms of which expressly provide that such shares will rank senior to the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares.

Liquidation Preference

In the event of Bunge's voluntary or involuntary liquidation, winding-up or dissolution, each holder of the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares will be entitled to receive and to be paid out of Bunge's assets available for distribution to its shareholders, before any payment or distribution is made to holders of junior shares (including Bunge common shares), a liquidation preference in the amount of $1,000 per Bunge mandatory convertible preference share, plus an amount equal to accumulated and unpaid dividends on the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares to the date fixed for liquidation, winding-up or dissolution. If, upon Bunge's voluntary or involuntary liquidation, winding-up or dissolution, the amounts payable with respect to the liquidation preference of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares, the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares and all parity shares are not paid in full, the holders of the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares, the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares and the parity shares will share equally and ratably in any distribution of Bunge's assets in proportion to the full liquidation preference, including the amount equal to accumulated and unpaid dividends on the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares, the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares and the parity shares required to be paid. After payment of the full amount of the liquidation preference and accumulated and unpaid dividends to which they are entitled, the holders of the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares will have no right or claim to any of Bunge's remaining assets. Neither the sale of all or substantially all of Bunge's assets or business (other than in connection with Bunge's liquidation, winding-up or dissolution), nor Bunge's merger, consolidation or amalgamation into or with any other person, will be deemed to be its voluntary or involuntary liquidation, winding-up or dissolution.

Neither Bunge's Bye-Laws nor the certificate of designation for the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares contains any provision requiring funds to be set aside to protect the liquidation preferences of the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares even though they are substantially in excess of the par value thereof.

Redemption and Conversion

Bunge does not have the right to redeem the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares. Each Bunge mandatory convertible preference share, unless previously converted, will automatically convert on December 1, 2010, into between 8.2190 and 9.6984 Bunge common shares, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments, depending on the average of the volume weighted average closing price per Bunge common share over the 20 consecutive trading day period ending on the third trading day immediately preceding December 1, 2010. At any time prior to December 1, 2010, holders may elect to convert the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares at the minimum conversion rate of 8.2190 Bunge common shares, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments. If holders convert within a certain period of time after a fundamental change has occurred, the holders receive, per Bunge mandatory convertible preference share, a number of Bunge common shares equal to the fundamental change conversion rate in effect at that time. Holders who convert Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares will also receive all accumulated and unpaid dividends and a fundamental change dividend make-whole amount, subject to a dividend cap, equal to the present value of all remaining dividend payments, to the extent Bunge is legally permitted to pay such amounts.

The certificate of designation for the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares has been filed as Exhibit 4.4 to Bunge's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007.

Blank Check Preferred Shares

Pursuant to Bermuda law and Bunge's Bye-Laws, Bunge's board of directors by resolution may establish one or more series of preference shares having such number of shares, designations, dividend rates, relative voting rights, conversion or exchange rights, redemption rights, liquidation rights and other relative participation, optional or other special rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions as may be fixed by the board without any further shareholder approval. Such rights, preferences, powers and limitations as may be established could also have the effect of discouraging an attempt to obtain control of Bunge. Bunge currently has the Bunge convertible perpetual preference shares and the Bunge mandatory convertible preference shares issued and outstanding.

Dividends

Under the Companies Act, a company may not declare or pay a dividend, or make a distribution out of contributed surplus, if there are reasonable grounds for believing that (i) the company is, or after such payment would be, unable to pay its liabilities as they fall due, or (ii) the realizable value of the company's assets after the payment or distribution would be less than the aggregate amount of its liabilities and its issued share capital and share premium accounts.

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that the Bunge board of directors may from time to time declare dividends.

Dividends declared under Bunge's Bye-Laws may be paid in cash or in kind, and payments in kind may be made from the assets of the company.

The Bunge board of directors may deduct from a dividend or distribution payable to any shareholder all monies due from such shareholder to the company on account of calls or otherwise.

Under the DGCL, the directors of every corporation, subject to any restrictions contained in its certificate of incorporation, may declare and pay dividends upon shares of its capital stock, or to its members if the corporation is a nonstock corporation, either: (i) out of its surplus, as defined in the DGCL, or (ii) in case there is no surplus, out of its net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year.

A distribution out of net profits is not permitted if a corporation's capital is less than the amount of capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets, until the deficiency has been repaired.

Voting Rights

The voting rights of Bunge common shares are set forth under "Description of Bunge Capital Stock" beginning on page 131.

The holders of shares of common stock are entitled to (i) one vote per share; (ii) such dividends as the board of directors may declare from time to time; (iii) the surplus assets of the company in the event of a winding-up or dissolution of the company; and (iv) all of the rights attaching to such shares.

Special Shareholder Meetings

Under the Companies Act, a special general meeting of shareholders must be convened by the board of directors upon the request of shareholders holding at least one-tenth of the paid-in capital of the company carrying the right to vote at general meeting.

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that either the chairman or the Bunge board of directors may call a special general meeting of the Bunge shareholders whenever they judge it necessary.

Under the DGCL, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called for any purpose by the board of directors or by any other person authorized to do so in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

Under Corn Products' By-laws, a special meeting of stockholders may be called only on the order of the chairman of the board, the lead director, or the board of directors.

Shareholder Action by Written Consent

Bunge's Bye-Laws permit action by written consent of shareholders and, with the exception of a resolution to remove a director before the expiration of his or her term of office, the resolutions contained therein are passed when the written consent is signed by all shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution as if it had been voted on at a meeting of the shareholders.

Corn Products' certificate of incorporation provides that no action required to be taken or which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, unless all stockholders entitled to vote thereon shall sign a written consent.

Shareholder Meeting Quorum; Voting Requirement

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that 2 or more persons present in person at the start of a meeting and representing (in person or by proxy) more than one-half of such amount of paid up capital of the company which, as at the date of the general meeting, carries the right to vote at general meetings, shall form a quorum for such meeting. There is no cumulative voting.

Corn Products' By-laws provide that holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the corporation shall constitute a quorum for any special or general stockholders meeting, unless otherwise provided by law, the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws, all matters shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of the capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote on such matters, so long as a quorum is present. There is no cumulative voting.

Notice of Shareholder Meetings

The Companies Act requires that shareholders be given at least five days' advance notice of a general meeting, but the accidental omission to give notice to any person does not invalidate the proceedings at a meeting.

The DGCL requires not less than 10 days nor more than 60 days' written notice of any meeting of stockholders to be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting.

Corn Products' By-laws require not less than 20 days' nor more than 60 days' written notice of all meetings of stockholders to be given to each stockholder of the corporation.

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that at least 21 days' notice to shareholders is required for an annual general meeting and a special general meeting. If a general meeting is called on shorter notice, it will be deemed to have been properly called if it is so agreed by (i) all the shareholders entitled to attend and vote thereat, in the case of an annual general meeting, and (ii) by a majority in number of shareholders having the right to attend and vote at the meeting (provided that, in the case of a special general meeting, a majority shall be not less than 95% in nominal value of the shares giving the right to attend and vote at the meeting), in the case of a special general meeting.

Notice of Shareholder Proposals; Nomination of Director Candidates by Shareholders

Under the Companies Act, shareholders holding not less than one-twentieth of the total voting rights of all shareholders having a right to vote at the meeting to which the request relates, or not less than 100 shareholders, may, as set forth below, at their own expense (unless the company otherwise resolves), require a company to give notice of any resolution that the shareholders can properly propose at the next annual general meeting and/or to circulate a statement (of not more than 1000 words) in respect of any matter referred to in a proposed resolution or any business to be conducted at a general meeting.

Stockholders may propose to transact other business or to nominate any person for election as a director at any annual meeting of stockholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting (but not at special meetings) by delivering to the secretary of the corporation a written notice thereof, (a) not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days in advance of the anniversary of the date that the previous year's proxy statement was released to stockholders (or if the date of the annual meeting has been changed by more than 30 days from the date contemplated in the previous year's proxy statement, not less than 90 days before the meeting), and (b) not more than 10 days after receipt of a written request from the secretary, such additional information as the secretary may reasonably require.

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that, directors may be nominated by the board or by any shareholder of Bunge entitled to vote for the election of directors at the meeting which complies with the notice procedure provided in Bunge's Bye-Laws. Bunge's Bye-Laws also provide that business may be properly moved by a shareholder before a general meeting by any person who gives proper notice and is entitled to vote at such meeting. To be timely in each case, such notice must be given in writing not less than 120 days before the first anniversary of the date on which Bunge's proxy statement was distributed to shareholders in connection with the prior year's annual general meeting. If no annual general meeting was held the prior year or if the date of the annual general meeting has been changed by more than 30 days from the date contemplated in the prior year's proxy statement, then notice must be given prior to the later of 150 days before the contemplated date of the annual general meeting and the date which is ten days after the date of the first public announcement or other notification of the actual date of the annual general meeting. In the case of a special general meeting, such notice must be given prior to the later of 120 days before the date of the special general meeting and the date which is ten days after the date of the first public announcement or other notification of the date of the special general meeting. Only persons who are proposed or nominated in accordance with Bunge's Bye-Laws are eligible for election as directors.

Board Meeting Quorum; Voting Requirement

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that a majority of the directors then in office shall form a quorum. A resolution put to a vote at a meeting of the board of directors shall be carried by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast and, in the case of an equality of votes, the resolution shall fail.

Corn Products' By-laws provide that a majority of the directors shall form a quorum. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting where a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors.

Classification of Board of Directors

Bermuda law permits a classified board of directors if provided for by a company's bye-laws.

Under Bunge's Bye-Laws, the board of directors shall be divided into three classes, Class I, Class II and Class III. The number of directors in each class shall consist, as nearly as possible, of one-third of the total number of directors. All directors are elected for a term of three years, with staggered terms so that the term of only one class of directors expires at each annual general meeting.

The DGCL permits a Delaware corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws that the board of directors shall be divided into as many as three classes of directors with staggered terms of office, with only one class of directors being elected each year for a maximum term of three years.

Under Corn Products' certificate of incorporation, the board of directors is divided into three classes that are, as nearly as possible, of equal size. The number of directors may be changed from time to time by resolution adopted by affirmative vote of a majority of such directors then in office. Each director is elected for a three year term.

Number of Directors

Under the Companies Act, the minimum number of directors on the board of directors of a company is two, although the minimum number of directors may be set higher and the maximum number of directors may also be set in accordance with the bye-laws of the company. The maximum number of directors is usually fixed by the shareholders in a general meeting. Only the shareholders may increase or decrease the number of directors' seats last approved by the shareholders.

Bunge's Bye-Laws currently provide that the number of directors which shall constitute the whole board of directors of Bunge shall not be less than seven nor more than fifteen, the actual number to be determined by the board of directors. Any increase or decrease in the number of directors which constitutes the whole board of directors of Bunge to a number between seven and fifteen directors must be determined by the affirmative vote of not less than 66% of the directors then in office.

The Bunge board of directors currently consists of 11 directors.

The DGCL provides that the board of directors of a Delaware corporation must consist of one or more directors as fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the corporation's bylaws, unless the certificate of incorporation fixes the number of directors.

Under Corn Products' certificate of incorporation, the board of directors shall consist of not fewer than 7 nor more than 17 members. The exact number of members was determined by resolution of the majority of the board of directors, with only one class of directors being elected each year.

The Corn Products board of directors currently consists of 10 directors.

Removal of Directors

Subject to Bunge's Bye-Laws, the Companies Act states that the shareholders of a company may, at a special general meeting called for that purpose, remove any director. Any director given notice of removal will be entitled to be heard at the meeting.

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that directors may be removed from office without cause at a special general meeting by a resolution of the members, including the affirmative votes of not less than 66% of all votes attaching to all shares then in issue entitling the holder to attend and vote on the resolution in question, provided that notice, containing a statement of the intention to remove such director, is given to the director not less than 14 days before the meeting.

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that directors may be removed from office for cause at a special general meeting by a vote of at least a majority of the holders of shares entitled to vote thereon, provided that notice, containing a statement of the intention to remove such director and a summary of the facts justifying the removal, is given to the director not less than 14 days before the meeting.

Under the DGCL, stockholders holding a majority of shares entitled to vote at an election of directors may remove any directors or the entire board of directors, except that, unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise, in the case of a corporation whose board of directors is classified, stockholders may only remove a director for cause or at an election of the class of directors of which such director is a part.

Under Corn Products' certificate of incorporation, subject to any rights of the preferred stockholders, any director or the entire board of directors may be removed at any time, with cause, by the holders of a majority of shares entitled to vote at an election of directors (voting as a single class). No removal without cause is permitted.

Vacancies on the Board of Directors

Under Bunge's Bye-Laws, any vacancy in the board of directors may be filled by the election or appointment by the shareholders at the meeting at which such director is removed, and the board of directors may also fill any vacancy in the number left unfilled. A director so appointed holds office until the next election of the class for which such director has been chosen.

Under the DGCL, unless a corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from a resignation, an increase in the authorized number of directors or otherwise may be filled by a vote of a majority of the directors remaining in office, even if such majority is less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director.

Under Corn Products' certificate of incorporation, vacancies resulting from any increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, if a quorum is present, and any other vacancy may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. Any director elected to fill a vacancy not resulting from an increase in the number of directors shall hold office for the remaining term of his or her predecessor.

Director Liability

The Companies Act permits a company to exempt any officer or auditor from loss or liability in circumstances where it is permissible for the company to indemnify such officer or auditor, as indicated below.

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that Bunge's shareholders waive all claims or rights of action that they might have, individually or by or in the right of the company, against any director or officer for any act or intentional misconduct or a that director's or officer's duties with or for the company. However, Bunge's Bye-Laws do not extend indemnification of any director or officer of Bunge to matters in respect of any fraud or dishonesty.

The DGCL permits the adoption of a provision in the certificate of incorporation limiting or eliminating the monetary liability of a director to a corporation or its stockholders by reason of a director's breach of the fiduciary duty of care. However, the law and Corn Products' certificate of incorporation do not permit any limitation of the liability of a director for:

Breaching the duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders;

Acts or omissions not in good faith or failure to act in the performance of knowing violation of law;

Obtaining an improper personal benefit from the corporation; or Paying an improper dividend or approving an improper repurchase or redemption of the stock of the corporation.

Variation of Shareholder Rights

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that if, at any time Bunge has more than one class of shares, the rights attaching to any class, unless otherwise provided for by the terms of issue of the relevant class, may be varied either: (1) with the consent in writing of the holders of 75% of the issued shares of that class; or (2) with the sanction of a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast at a general meeting of the relevant class of shareholders at which a quorum shall be two or more persons holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class.

Bunge's Bye-Laws specify that the creation or issue of shares ranking equally with existing shares will not, unless expressly provided by the terms of issue of existing shares, vary the rights attached to existing shares. In addition, the creation or issue of preference shares ranking senior to common shares will not be deemed to vary the rights attached to common shares.

Waiver of Claims by Shareholders; Indemnification of Officers, Directors and Employees

Bunge's Bye-Laws contain a provision by virtue of which its shareholders waive any claim or right of action that they have, both individually and on its behalf, against any director or officer in relation to any action or failure to take action by such director or officer, except in respect of any fraud or dishonesty of such director or officer. Bunge has been advised by the SEC that, in the opinion of the SEC, the operation of this provision as a waiver of the right to sue for violations of federal securities laws would likely be unenforceable in U.S. courts.

The Companies Act permits a company to indemnify its officers and auditor with respect to any loss arising or liability attaching to such person by virtue of any

Under Corn Products' certificate of incorporation, personal liability of directors is limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, and a director of Corn Products shall not be liable to Corn Products or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty of care as a director.

The DGCL provides that the holders of each class of outstanding stock will be entitled to vote as a class upon any proposed amendment to the certificate of incorporation that would alter or change the powers, preferences, or special rights of the shares of such class so as to affect them adversely.

Corn Products' certificate of incorporation and by-laws contain no provision providing for the variation of rights of outstanding shares of stock.

Under the DGCL, a Delaware corporation must indemnify its present or former directors and officers against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred to the extent that the officer or director has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding brought against him or her by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation.

The DGCL generally permits a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a rule of law concerning any negligence, default, breach of duty, or breach of trust of which the officer or auditor may be guilty in relation to the company or any of its subsidiaries; provided that the company may not indemnify an officer or auditor against any liability arising out of his or her fraud or dishonesty. The Companies Act also permits a company to indemnify an officer or auditor against liability incurred in defending any civil or criminal proceedings in which judgment is given in his or her favor or in which he or she is acquitted, or when the Bermuda Supreme Court grants relief to such officer. The Companies Act permits a company to advance moneys to an officer or auditor to defend civil or criminal proceedings against them on condition that these moneys are repaid if the allegation of fraud or dishonesty is proved against them. The Court may relieve an officer from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust if it appears to the Court that such officer has acted honestly and reasonably and, in all the circumstances, ought fairly to be excused.

Bunge's Bye-Laws provide that the directors, secretary and other officers of Bunge, and their heirs, executors and administrators, shall be indemnified and secured harmless out of the assets of Bunge from and against all actions, costs, charges, losses, damages and expenses which they incur or sustain as a result of execution of their duty, or supposed duty. None of such officers and directors shall be answerable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of other directors or officers with which they were joined for the sake of conformity, or for any bankers or other persons with whom money or effects belonging to the company are lodged for safekeeping. Such indemnity shall not extend to any matter in respect of fraud or dishonesty.

such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or entity, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually or reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

Corn Products' By-laws provide that each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person or a person for whom such person is the legal representative is or was a director, officer or employee of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer or employee of another enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, shall be indemnified by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, against all expenses, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith.

Corn Products' By-laws provide that it need only indemnify a person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding initiated by that person if such proceeding was authorized by the board of directors, either generally or in the specific instance.

Bunge Shareholder

Corn Products Stockholder

Corn Products' By-laws provide that the right to indemnification includes the advancement of expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition in accordance with procedures established from time to time by the board. If the DGCL requires, the indemnified party must deliver to Corn Products an undertaking to repay all amounts so advanced if it is ultimately determined that the person was not entitled to indemnification.

Corn Products' By-laws provide that, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, the indemnification rights and advancement rights are applicable to any person who has ceased being a director, officer or employee and are applicable to proceedings commenced after the adoption of the by-laws, even if arising from acts or omissions occurring before the adoption of the by-laws. The rights conferred by Corn Products' By-laws are not exclusive of any right which such persons may have or acquire under any law.

Under Corn Products' By-laws, Corn Products may purchase and maintain insurance to protect itself and any person against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not Corn Products would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the DGCL. Corn Products may create a trust fund, grant a security interest or use other means to insure the payment of such a policy as may be necessary to effect indemnification.

Amendment of

The Companies Act provides that the memorandum of association of a company may be amended by a resolution passed at a general meeting of shareholders of which due notice has been given.

Under the Companies Act, the holders of an aggregate of not less than 20% in par value of a company's issued share capital or any class thereof, or the holders of not less than 20% of Bunge's debentures entitled to object to amendments to the memorandum of association, have the right to apply to the Supreme Court of Bermuda for an annulment of any amendment to the memorandum of association adopted by shareholders at any general meeting.

This does not apply to an amendment that alters or reduces a company's share capital as provided in the Companies Act. Upon such application, the alteration will not have effect until it is confirmed by the Supreme Court of Bermuda. An application for an annulment of an amendment to the memorandum of association passed in accordance with the Companies Act may be made on behalf of persons entitled to make the application by one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose. No application may be made by shareholders voting in favor of the amendment.

Amendment of Bye-Laws and By-laws

Except as provided in Bunge's Bye-Laws, any rescission, alteration, amendment or adoption of the Bunge Bye-laws must be approved by a resolution of the board of directors and by a resolution of the shareholders.

Any rescission, alteration or amendment of the following bye-laws must be approved by an affirmative vote of not less than 66% of the directors then in office and 66% of all votes attaching to all shares then in issue entitling the holder to vote:

Bye-law 86 (business combinations);
and

Bye-law 87 (alteration of bye-laws).

Any rescission, alteration or amendment of the following bye-law must be approved by an affirmative vote of not less than a simple majority of the directors then in office and by an affirmative vote of not in the election of directors, considered as a single class:

Article Seventh (amendment of certificate of incorporation);

Article Eighth (board composition, classification, election and vacancies);

and

Article Twelfth (board of directors authority to take into account other interests).

Corn Products' certificate of incorporation provides that the board of directors is authorized to adopt, amend and repeal the by-laws of the corporation.

Corn Products' certificate of incorporation provides that its by-laws may be adopted, amended, or repealed by the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of the voting power of all the outstanding shares of capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote in the election of directors, considered as a single class.

Corn Products' By-laws provide that the board of directors may add, alter, amend or repeal any provision of the by-laws by majority vote of the total number of directors.

less than 66% of all votes attaching to all shares then in issue entitling the holder to vote:

Bye-law 14 (removal of directors).

Any rescission, alteration or amendment of the following bye-laws must be approved by an affirmative vote of not less than a simple majority of the directors then in office and by an affirmative vote of not less than 66% of votes cast on the resolution:

Bye-law 50(3) (board of directors' power to issue unissued shares);

Bye-law 50(4) (board of directors' authority to issue preference shares); and Bye-law 51(2) (board of directors' power to issue securities, contracts, warrants, etc.).

Business Combinations

When engaging in a business combination a director must comply with common law fiduciary duties to the company. Examples of business combinations include mergers, asset sales, amalgamations and other transactions in which a large shareholder or affiliate receives or could receive a financial benefit that is greater than that received or to be received by other shareholders.

Approval of Certain Transactions

The Companies Act is silent on whether a company's shareholders are required to approve a sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of a company's property and assets. The Companies Act does require, however, that shareholders approve certain forms of mergers and reconstructions.

Pursuant to the Companies Act, an amalgamation of two or more companies requires approval of the board of directors and the approval of the shareholders of each Bermuda company by a three-fourths majority, unless the company's bye-laws otherwise provide. For purposes of approval of an amalgamation, all shares whether or not otherwise entitled to vote, carry the right to vote. A separate vote of a class of shares is required if the rights of such class would be altered by virtue of the amalgamation.

Section 203 of the DGCL prohibits a Delaware corporation from engaging in a "business combination" with a person owning 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock for three years following the time that person becomes a 15% stockholder, with certain exceptions. Corn Products has not opted out of Section 203 in its certificate of incorporation and is therefore governed by the terms of this provision of the DGCL.

Under the DGCL, there is no statutory restriction on a Delaware corporation's ability to acquire the business of another corporation. However, a merger or consolidation, sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property of the corporation not in the usual and regular course of the corporation's business, or a dissolution of the corporation, generally must be approved by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. Corn Products' certificate of incorporation does not provide otherwise.

Under the DGCL, no vote of the stockholders of a corporation surviving a merger is required to approve a merger if:

Pursuant to its Bye-laws Bunge may, with the affirmative vote of 66% of all votes attaching to all shares then in issue entitling the holder to attend and vote on the resolution in question amalgamate, merge, or consolidate with another company.

The Companies Act provides the general public with a right of inspection of a Bermuda company's public documents at the office of the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda. These documents include the company's memorandum of association, including its objects and powers and all amendments to the memorandum of association. The Companies Act also provides shareholders of a Bermuda company with a right of inspection of the company's bye-laws, minutes of general (shareholder) meetings and the company's audited financial statements. The register of shareholders is also open to inspection by the members of the public free of charge. A Bermuda company is required to maintain its share register at its registered office in Bermuda or upon giving notice to the Registrar of Companies at such other place in Bermuda. Under the DGCL, any stockholder may inspect Corn Products' books and records for a proper purpose.

Under the DGCL, a complete list of stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in each stockholder's name, shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours for a period of at least ten days prior to the meeting, either (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, or (ii) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the corporation.

Under the DGCL, the stock list shall also be kept at the place of the meeting (if the meeting is to be held at a place) during the whole time thereof and shall be open to the examination of any such stockholder who is present. If the meeting is held by means of remote communication, the list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder during the whole time of the meeting on a reasonably accessible electronic network. Dissenter's Rights

Under the Companies Act, a dissenting shareholder of a company participating in extraordinary corporate transactions may, under varying circumstances, receive cash in the amount of the fair market value of its shares (as determined by a court), in lieu of the consideration it would otherwise receive in the transactions. The Companies Act generally does not condition dissenters' rights to circumstances in which a vote of the shareholders of the surviving company is required. The Companies Act, in general, provides for dissenters' rights in an amalgamation between non-affiliated companies and affiliated companies where one company is not a Bermuda company, an amendment to a company's memorandum of association, a scheme of arrangement, or reconstruction and certain other transactions.

Under the DGCL, in certain situations, appraisal rights may be available in connection with a merger or a consolidation. Appraisal rights are not available under the DGCL to stockholders of the surviving corporation when a corporation is to be the surviving corporation and no vote of its stockholders is required to approve the merger. In addition, no appraisal rights are available under the DGCL to holders of shares of any class of or series of stock which is either:

held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders.

Notwithstanding the above, appraisal rights shall be available to those stockholders who are required by the terms of the merger or consolidation to accept for that stock anything other than:

shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof; shares of stock of another corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which, as of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, are listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders; cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts in the foregoing paragraphs; or any combination of the items listed above.

Bunge ShareholderCorn Products Stockholder*Derivative Suits

Class actions and derivative actions are generally not available to shareholders under the Companies Act. Bermuda courts, however, would ordinarily be expected to permit a shareholder to commence an action in the name of a company to remedy a wrong to the company where the act complained of is alleged to be beyond the corporate power of the company or illegal, or would result in the violation of the company's memorandum of association or bye-laws. Furthermore, consideration would be given by a Bermuda court to acts that are alleged to constitute a fraud against the minority shareholders or, for instance, where an act requires the approval of a greater percentage of the company's shareholders than that which actually approved it. However, generally a derivative action will not be permitted where there is an alternative action available that would provide an adequate remedy. Any property or damages recovered by derivative action go to the company, not to the plaintiff shareholders. When the affairs of a company are being conducted in a manner which is oppressive or prejudicial to the interests of some part of the shareholders, one or more shareholders may apply to the Supreme Court of Bermuda, which may make such order as it sees fit, including an order regulating the conduct of the company's affairs in the future or ordering the purchase of the shares of any shareholders by other shareholders or by the company or that the company be wound up.

Except as mentioned above, claims against a Bermuda company by its shareholders must be based on the common law of Bermuda. A statutory right of action is conferred on subscribers to shares of a Bermuda company against persons (including directors and officers) responsible for the issue of a prospectus in respect of damage suffered by reason of an untrue statement contained in the prospectus, but this confers no right of action against the Bermuda company itself. In addition, a Bermuda company

The DGCL requires that the stockholder bringing a derivative suit must have been a stockholder at the time of the wrong complained or that he received the stock by operation of law from a person who was such a stockholder. In addition, the stockholder must remain a stockholder throughout the litigation. Furthermore, a stockholder may not sue derivatively unless he or she first makes a demand on the corporation that it bring suit and such demand has been refused, unless it is shown that the demand would have been futile.

Preemptive Rights

Under the Companies Act, no shareholder has a preemptive right to subscribe for additional issues of a company's shares unless, and to the extent that, the right is expressly granted to the shareholder under the bye-laws of a company or under any contract between the shareholder and the company.

Bunge's Bye-Laws do not provide for preemptive rights.

Under the DGCL, security holders of a corporation only have preemptive rights as may be provided in the corporation's certificate of incorporation.

Corn Products' certificate of incorporation does not provide for preemptive rights.

THE MERGER

SECTION 2.01. The Merger. At the Effective Time, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement and in accordance with the DGCL, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company. As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation of the Merger (the "Surviving Corporation").

SECTION 2.02. Effective Time; Closing. As promptly as practicable after the satisfaction or, if permissible, waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VIII, the parties hereto shall cause the Merger to be consummated by filing a certificate of merger or certificate of ownership and merger (the "Certificate of Merger") with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in such form as is required by, and executed in accordance with, the relevant provisions of the DGCL (the date and time of such filing of the Certificate of Merger (or such later time as may be agreed by each of the parties hereto and specified in the Certificate of Merger) being the "Effective Time"). Immediately prior to such filing of the Certificate of Merger, a closing of the Merger (the "Closing") shall be held at the offices of Shearman & Sterling LLP, 599 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10022, or such other place as the parties shall agree, for the purpose of confirming the satisfaction or waiver, as the case may be, of the conditions set forth in Article VIII.

SECTION 2.03. Effect of the Merger. The effect of the Merger at and following the Effective Time shall be as provided in the applicable provisions of the DGCL and this Agreement.

SECTION 2.04. Conversion of Securities. (a) Conversion of Company Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company, each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company ("Company Common Stock") (all shares of Company Common Stock being collectively, the "Shares") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Shares to be canceled or converted, as the case may be, in accordance with Section 2.04(b)) shall be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable Parent Common Share (the "Per Share Merger Consideration") equal to the quotient (the "Exchange Ratio") determined by dividing $56.00 by the Parent Share Value and rounding to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share; provided, that (x) if the Parent Share Value is equal to or greater than $133.10, the Exchange Ratio shall equal 0.4207, and (y) if the Parent Share Value is equal to or less than $108.90, the Exchange Ratio shall equal 0.5142.

(b) Cancellation and Conversion of Certain Shares. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company, (i) all Shares owned by the Company as treasury stock and any Shares owned by Parent or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (including Merger Sub) immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger, and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, automatically be canceled without any conversion thereof and retired and shall cease to exist and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor, and each holder of a certificate or certificates representing any such Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, and (ii) each Share held by any Subsidiary immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into such number of shares of stock of the Surviving Corporation such that each such Subsidiary owns the same percentage of shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation immediately following the Effective Time as such Subsidiary owned in the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(c) Capital Stock of Merger Sub. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company, each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Merger Sub ("Merger Sub Common Stock") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall become one duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

SECTION 2.05. Company Stock Options. (a) All options (the "Company Stock Options") outstanding, whether or not exercisable and whether or not vested, at the Effective Time under the Company Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, supplemented or modified (the "Company Stock Option Plan"), shall accelerate and remain outstanding following the Effective Time. From and after the Effective Time, all references to the Company in the Company Stock Option Plan and the applicable stock option agreements issued thereunder shall be deemed to refer to Parent, which shall assume the Company Stock Option Plan as of the Effective Time by virtue of this Agreement and without any further action. Each Company Stock Option assumed by Parent (each, a "Substitute Option") shall be fully vested and exercisable upon the same terms and conditions as under the Company Stock Option Plan and the applicable option agreement issued thereunder, except that (A) each such Substitute Option shall be exercisable for, and represent the right to acquire, that whole number of Parent Common Shares (rounded down to the nearest whole share) equal to the number of Shares subject to such Company Stock Option multiplied by the Exchange Ratio; and (B) the option price per Parent Common Share shall be an amount equal to the option price per Share subject to such Company Stock Option in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time divided by the Exchange Ratio (the option price per share, as so determined, being rounded upward to the nearest full cent). Such Substitute Option shall otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions as such Company Stock Option.

(b) As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to each holder of a Substitute Option an appropriate notice setting forth such holder's rights pursuant thereto and such Substitute Option shall be fully vested and exercisable as described in Section 2.05(a) and shall otherwise continue in effect on the same terms and conditions as such Company Stock Option. Parent shall comply with the terms of all such Substitute Options and ensure, to the extent required by, and subject to the provisions of, the Company Stock Option Plan, that Substitute Options that qualified as incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Code prior to the Effective Time continue to qualify as incentive stock options after the Effective Time. Parent shall take all corporate action necessary, if any, to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of Parent Common Shares for delivery upon exercise of Substitute Options pursuant to the terms set forth in this Section 2.05. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, the Parent Common Shares subject to Substitute Options will be covered by an effective registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor form) or another appropriate form, and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements for so long as Substitute Options remain outstanding. In addition, Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Parent Common Shares subject to Substitute Options to be listed on the NYSE and such other exchanges as Parent shall determine.

(c) On or after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Company shall take all necessary action such that, with respect to each member of the Company Board and each employee of the Company that is subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, the acquisition by such person of Parent Common Shares or Substitute Options in the Merger and the disposition by any such person of Parent Common Shares or Company Stock Options pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be exempt from the short swing profit liability rules of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act pursuant to Rule 16b-3 promulgated thereunder.

SECTION 2.06. Stock Awards. (a) Restricted Stock. At the Effective Time, any Shares or stock unit awards outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are unvested or are subject to a repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other condition under the Company Stock Option Plan or any applicable restricted stock purchase agreement or other agreement with the Company (other than Company Performance Share Awards) (each, a "Company Restricted Stock Award") shall be exchanged for Parent Common Shares pursuant to Section 2.04 that shall be fully vested and no longer subject to restriction or other condition to which the applicable Company Restricted Stock Award was subject immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(b) Performance Shares. At the Effective Time, any Shares or stock unit awards outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are unvested and are subject to the satisfaction of certain performance measures under the Company Stock Option Plan or any applicable restricted stock purchase agreement or other agreement with the Company (each, a "Company Performance Share Award") shall be deemed to be vested at its respective target performance measures pursuant to the terms of the Company Stock Option Plan and shall be exchanged for Parent Common Shares pursuant to Section 2.04 that shall be fully vested and no longer subject to restriction or other condition to which the applicable Company Performance Share Award was subject immediately prior to the Effective Time.

SECTION 2.07. Certificate of Incorporation; Bylaws. (a) At the Effective Time and subject to Section 7.07(a), the certificate of incorporation of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation (except that the name of the Surviving Corporation shall be Corn Products International, Inc.) until thereafter amended as provided by Law and such certificate of incorporation.

(b) Unless otherwise determined by Parent prior to the Effective Time, and subject to Section 7.07(a), at the Effective Time, the bylaws of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation (except that any references therein to Merger Sub's name shall be replaced with references to Corn Products International, Inc.) until thereafter amended as provided by Law, the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation and such bylaws.

SECTION 2.08. Directors and Officers. At the Effective Time, the directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation, each such director to hold office in accordance with the DGCL, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, and the officers of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, subject to the applicable provisions of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation, in each case until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified or until the earlier of their death, resignation or removal.

ARTICLE III

DELIVERY OF PARENT COMMON SHARES

SECTION 3.01. Exchange of Certificates. (a) Exchange Agent. From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with BNY Mellon Shareowner Services or another bank or trust company selected by Parent and reasonably acceptable to the Company (the "Exchange Agent"), for the benefit of the holders of Shares, (i) for exchange in accordance with this Article III through the Exchange Agent, certificates representing the Parent Common Shares issuable to holders of Shares in the Merger pursuant to Section 2.04 as of the Effective Time, (ii) immediately available funds, from time to time as required to make payments in lieu of any fractional shares pursuant to Section 3.01(e) and (iii) any cash or other consideration from time to time as required for any dividends or other distributions pursuant to Section 3.01(c) (such cash and certificates for Parent Common Shares, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the "Exchange Fund"). The Exchange Agent shall, pursuant to irrevocable instructions, deliver the Parent Common Shares contemplated to be issued pursuant to Section 2.04, dividends or other distributions contemplated to be delivered pursuant to Section 3.01(c) and the cash in lieu of fractional shares contemplated to be paid pursuant to Section 3.01 (e) out of the Exchange Fund. Except as contemplated by Section 3.01(g) hereof, the Exchange Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

(b) Exchange Procedures. (i) As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each person who was, at the Effective Time, a holder of record of Shares whose Shares were converted into the right to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.04(a) : (A) a letter of transmittal (which shall be in customary form and shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates evidencing such Shares (the "Certificates") shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates (or an affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) to the Exchange Agent); and (B) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates (or an affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) pursuant to such letter of transmittal.

(ii) Upon surrender to the Exchange Agent of a Certificate (or an affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) for cancellation, together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may reasonably be required pursuant to such instructions, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (A) a certificate representing that number of whole Parent Common Shares which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the Shares formerly represented by such Certificate (after taking into account all Shares then held by such holder), (B) cash in lieu of any fractional Parent Common Shares to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(e), and (C) any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(c), and the Certificate (or an affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Shares that is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, a certificate representing the proper number of Parent Common Shares, cash in lieu of any fractional Parent Common Shares to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(e) and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(c) may be delivered to a transferee if the Certificate (or an affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) representing such Shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and by evidence that any applicable stock transfer Taxes have been paid. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.01, each Certificate shall be deemed at all times after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the certificate representing Parent Common Shares, cash in lieu of any fractional Parent Common Shares to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(e) and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(c).

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Parent Common Shares. No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to the Parent Common Shares with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the Parent Common Shares represented thereby, and no cash payment in lieu of any fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 3.01(e), until the holder of such Certificate shall surrender such Certificate (or an affidavit of loss in lieu thereof). Subject to the effect of escheat, Tax or other applicable Laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to the holder of the certificates representing whole Parent Common Shares issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) the amount of any cash payable with respect to any fractional Parent Common Shares to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(e) and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time and theretofore paid with respect to such whole Parent Common Shares, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions, with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date occurring after surrender, payable with respect to such whole Parent Common Shares.

(d) No Further Rights in Company Common Stock. All Parent Common Shares issued upon surrender of a Certificate in accordance with the terms of this Article III and any cash paid pursuant to Section 3.01(c) or Section 3.01(e) shall be deemed to have been issued in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Shares formerly represented by such Certificate.

(e) No Fractional Shares. No certificates or scrip representing fractional Parent Common Shares shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Parent. Each holder of a fractional share interest shall be paid an amount in cash (without interest, rounded to the nearest whole cent and subject to the amount of any withholding Taxes as contemplated in Section 3.01(h)) equal to the product obtained by multiplying (i) such fractional share interest to which such holder (after taking into account all fractional share interests then held by such holder) would otherwise be entitled by (ii) the Parent Share Value. As promptly as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of fractional share interests, the Exchange Agent shall so notify Parent, and Parent shall deposit such amount with the Exchange Agent and shall cause the Exchange Agent to forward payments to such holders of fractional share interests subject to and in accordance with the terms of Section 3.01(b) and Section 3.01(c).

(f) Adjustments of Merger Consideration. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, there is a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into Parent Common Shares or Company Common Stock), extraordinary cash dividends, subdivision, combination or exchange of shares with respect to, or rights issued in respect of, the Parent Common Shares (each, an "Adjustment"), the Per Share Merger Consideration shall be adjusted accordingly, without duplication, to provide the holders of Shares with the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such Adjustment.

(g) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the holders of the Shares for nine months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent, upon demand, and any holders of Shares who have not theretofore complied with this Article III shall thereafter look only to Parent (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar laws) for the Per Share Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional Parent Common Shares to which they are entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(e) and any dividends or other distributions with respect to the Parent Common Shares to which they are entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(c). Neither Parent nor the Surviving Corporation shall be liable to any holder of Shares for any Per Share Merger Consideration (or dividends or distributions with respect to Parent Common Shares), or other cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(h) Withholding Rights. Each of the Company, Merger Sub, the Surviving Corporation and Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration or other amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Shares, Company Stock Options, Company Restricted Stock Awards, Company Performance Share Awards or other interests in the Company such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign Law relating to Taxes. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Company, Merger Sub, the Surviving Corporation or Parent, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Shares, Company Stock Options, Company Restricted Stock Awards, Company Performance Share Awards or other interests in the Company in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Company, Merger Sub, the Surviving Corporation or Parent, as the case may be.

(i) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the whole number of Parent Common Shares, any cash in lieu of fractional Parent Common Shares to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(e) and any dividends or other distributions to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(c).

SECTION 3.02. Stock Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and there shall be no further registration of transfers of Shares thereafter on the records of the Company. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of Certificates representing Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or by Law. On or after the Effective Time, any Certificates presented to the Exchange Agent or Parent for any reason shall be canceled and converted in accordance with the terms of this Article III.

SECTION 3.03. No Appraisal Rights. In accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL, no appraisal rights shall be available to holders of Shares in connection with the Merger.

ARTICLE IV

SECTION 4.01. Organization and Qualification; Subsidiaries. (a) Each of the Company and each subsidiary of the Company (each, a "Subsidiary") is a legal entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing (with respect to jurisdictions where such concept is applicable) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization and has the requisite corporate or similar power and authority and all necessary governmental approvals to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted, except where the failure of any Subsidiary to be so organized, existing or in good standing or to have such power, authority and governmental approvals would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect. The Company and each Subsidiary is duly qualified or licensed as a foreign corporation to do business, and is in good standing (with respect to jurisdictions where such concept is applicable), in each jurisdiction where the character of the properties owned, leased or operated by it or the nature of its business makes such qualification or licensing necessary or desirable, except for such failures to be so qualified or licensed and in good standing that would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Section 4.01(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule sets forth all of the Subsidiaries of the Company in existence as of the date hereof (other than Subsidiaries with immaterial amounts of assets, operations or liabilities), together with the jurisdiction of incorporation or organization of each such Subsidiary and the percentage of the outstanding capital stock or other equity interests of each such Subsidiary owned by the Company and its other Subsidiaries. There are no outstanding contractual obligations of the Company or any Subsidiary to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire, or register under any securities Law, any Shares or any capital stock of any Subsidiary or to provide funds to, or make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in, any Subsidiary.

(c) Each Company Material Subsidiary is so identified in Section 4.01(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

SECTION 4.02. Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. The Company has heretofore furnished to Parent a complete and correct copy of the certificate of incorporation and the bylaws or equivalent organizational documents, each as amended to date, of the Company and each of the Company Material Subsidiaries listed in Section 4.02 of the Company Disclosure Schedule. Such certificates of incorporation, bylaws or equivalent organizational documents are in full force and effect. Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary is in violation of any of the provisions of its certificate of incorporation, bylaws or equivalent organizational documents.

SECTION 4.03. Capitalization. (a) The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of (i) 200,000,000 Shares, and (ii) 25,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Company Preferred Stock"). As of June 19, 2008, (i) 74,325,043 Shares were issued and outstanding (not including Shares held in the treasury of the Company), all of which are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, (ii) 994,731 Shares were held in the treasury of the Company, (iii) no Shares are held by the Subsidiaries, (iv) 4,386,270 Shares were reserved for future issuance pursuant to outstanding Company Stock Options, Company Restricted Stock Awards, Company Performance Share Awards and other purchase rights (the "Company Stock Awards") granted pursuant to the Company Stock Option Plan, and (v) no shares of Company Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding. Except as set forth in this Section 4.03, there are no options, warrants, convertible debt or other convertible instruments or other rights, agreements, arrangements or commitments of any character relating to the issued or unissued capital stock of the Company or obligating the Company to issue or sell any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interests in, the Company.

(b) The following information has been made available to Parent prior to the date hereof with respect to each Company Stock Award outstanding as of the date of this Agreement: (i) the name and address of the Company Stock Award recipient; (ii) the particular plan pursuant to which such Company Stock Award was granted; (iii) the number of Shares subject to such Company Stock Award; (iv) the exercise or purchase price of such Company Stock Award; (v) the date on which such Company Stock Award was granted; and (vi) the date on which such Company Stock Award expires.

(c) Each outstanding share of capital stock of, or other equity interest in, each Subsidiary is duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and each such share is owned by the Company or another Subsidiary free and clear of all security interests, liens, claims, pledges, options, rights of first refusal, agreements, limitations on the Company's or any Subsidiary's voting rights, charges and other encumbrances of any nature whatsoever, except for limitations on transfer imposed by federal or state securities Laws. There are no options, warrants, convertible debt or other convertible instruments or other rights, agreements, arrangements or commitments of any character relating to the issued or unissued capital stock of any Subsidiary or obligating the Company or any Subsidiary to issue or sell any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interests in, any Subsidiary.

(d) The Company has made available to Parent an accurate and complete copy of the Company Stock Option Plan pursuant to which Company has granted the Company Stock Awards that are currently outstanding and the form of all stock award agreements evidencing such Company Stock Awards. All Shares subject to issuance as aforesaid, upon issuance on the terms and conditions specified in the instruments pursuant to which they are issuable, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable. SECTION 4.04. Authority Relative to This Agreement. The Company has all necessary corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and, subject to receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action, and no other corporate proceedings on the part of the Company are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby (other than, with respect to the Merger, obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval and the filing and recordation of appropriate merger documents as required by the DGCL). This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Company and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Parent and Merger Sub, constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that its enforceability may be subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles. The Company Board has approved this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and such approvals are sufficient so that the restrictions on business combinations set forth in Section 203(a) of the DGCL shall not apply to the Merger or any of the transactions contemplated hereby. To the knowledge of the Company, no other state takeover statute is applicable to the Company with respect to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 4.05. No Conflict; Required Filings and Consents. (a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company does not, and the performance of this Agreement by the Company will not, (i) conflict with or violate the certificate of incorporation or bylaws or any equivalent organizational documents, each as amended to date, of the Company or any Subsidiary, (ii) assuming that all consents, approvals, authorizations and other actions described in Section 4.05(b) have been obtained, that all filings and obligations described in Section 4.05(b) have been made and that the Company Stockholder Approval has been obtained, conflict with or violate any United States or non-United States statute, law, ordinance, regulation, rule, code, writ, executive order, injunction, judgment, decree or other order ("Law") applicable to the Company or any Subsidiary or by which any property or asset of the Company or any Subsidiary is bound or affected, or (iii) result in any breach of, loss of any benefit under, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would become a default) under, or give to others any right of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of a lien or other encumbrance on any property or asset of the Company or any Subsidiary pursuant to, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise or other instrument or obligation, except, with respect to clauses (ii) and (iii) above, for any such conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults or other occurrences that would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company do not, and the performance of this Agreement by the Company will not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any United States federal, state, county or local or non-United States government, governmental, regulatory, Taxing or administrative authority, agency, instrumentality or commission or any court, tribunal, or judicial or arbitral body (a "Governmental Authority"), except (i) for applicable requirements, if any, of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, state securities or "blue sky" laws ("Blue Sky Laws") and state takeover laws, the pre-merger notification requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act") and as otherwise described in Section 4.05(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, and filing and recordation of appropriate merger documents as required by the DGCL, and except as may be required in connection with Taxes described in Section 7.12 and (ii) where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings or notifications, would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 4.06. Permits; Compliance. Each of the Company and the Subsidiaries is in possession of all franchises, grants, authorizations, licenses, permits, easements, variances, exceptions, consents,

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

SECTION 7.01. Registration Statement; Joint Proxy Statement. (a) As promptly as practicable after the execution of this Agreement, (i) Parent and the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC the proxy statement (such proxy statement, as amended or supplemented from time to time, being the "Joint Proxy Statement") to be sent to the stockholders of the Company relating to the meeting of the Company's stockholders (including any adjournments or postponements thereof, the "Company Stockholder Meeting") to be held to consider adoption of this Agreement and to be sent to the shareholders of Parent relating to the meeting of Parent's shareholders (including any adjournments or postponements thereof, the "Parent Shareholder Meeting") to be held to vote on the Parent Share Issuance, and (ii) Parent shall prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 (together with all amendments thereto, the "Registration Statement") in which the Joint Proxy Statement shall be included as a prospectus, in connection with the registration under the Securities Act of the Parent Common Shares to be issued to the stockholders of the Company pursuant to the Merger. Parent and the Company each shall use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Registration Statement to become effective as promptly as practicable and, prior to the effective date of the Registration Statement, Parent shall take all or any action required under any applicable federal or state securities Laws or requirement of the NYSE in connection with the Parent Share Issuance. The Company and Parent shall furnish all information reasonably requested by the other party for inclusion in each of the Registration Statement and Joint Proxy Statement. As promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement shall have become effective, the Company shall mail the Joint Proxy Statement to its stockholders and Parent shall mail the Joint Proxy Statement to its shareholders.

(b) Except as provided in Section 7.05(d) or Section 7.05(e), the Company covenants that neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, or propose to withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, in any manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub, the approval or recommendation by the Company Board or any committee thereof of this Agreement or the Merger (the "Company Recommendation"), or take any action, or make any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with the Company Recommendation (any such actions being a "Change in Company Recommendation"), and the Joint Proxy Statement shall include the recommendation of the Company Board to the stockholders of the Company in favor of adoption of this Agreement.

(c) Parent covenants that neither the Parent Board nor any committee thereof shall withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, or propose to withdraw, qualify, modify or amend, in any manner adverse to the Company, the approval or recommendation by the Parent Board or any committee thereof of the Parent Share Issuance (the "Parent Recommendation"), or take any action, or make any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with the Parent Recommendation (any such actions being a "Change in Parent Recommendation"), and the Joint Proxy Statement shall include the recommendation of the Parent Board to the shareholders of Parent in favor of approval of the Parent Share Issuance; provided, that Parent shall not have any obligation under the foregoing provision of this Section 7.01(c) if the Parent Board determines, in its good faith judgment prior to the time of the Parent Shareholder Meeting and after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to make a Change in Parent Recommendation would be inconsistent with the directors' exercise of their fiduciary obligations to Parent and its shareholders under applicable Law, in which event the Parent Board may make a Change in Parent Recommendation, but only after (i) providing written notice to the Company advising the Company of its intention to make a Change in Parent Recommendation at least five (5) calendar days prior to effecting such Change in Parent Recommendation and (ii) negotiating, and causing its financial advisors and outside counsel to negotiate, with the Company in good faith during such five-day period (to the extent the Company desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that the failure to make a Change in Parent Recommendation would no longer be inconsistent with the directors' exercise of their fiduciary obligations to Parent and its shareholders under applicable Law.

(d) No amendment or supplement to the Joint Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement will be made by Parent or the Company without the approval of the other party (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and without providing a reasonable opportunity to review and comment thereof. Parent and the Company each will advise the other, promptly after they receive notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order, of the suspension of the qualification of the Parent Common Shares issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or of any request by the SEC for amendment of the Joint Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information, and Parent and the Company shall cooperate to prepare appropriate responses to the SEC to such comments and make such modifications for the Registration Statement as shall be reasonably appropriate and to the extent required by applicable Law.

(e) Parent represents that the information supplied by Parent for inclusion in the Registration Statement and the Joint Proxy Statement shall not, at (i) the time the Registration Statement is declared effective, (ii) the time the Joint Proxy Statement (or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto) is first mailed to the stockholders of the Company and shareholders of Parent, (iii) the time of the Company Stockholder Meeting, (iv) the time of the Parent Shareholder Meeting, and (v) the Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or fail to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. If, at any time prior to the Effective Time, any event or circumstance relating to Parent or Merger Sub, or their respective officers or directors, should be discovered by Parent which is required by applicable Law to be set forth in an amendment or a supplement to the Registration Statement or Joint Proxy Statement, Parent shall promptly inform the Company. All documents that Parent is responsible for filing with the SEC in connection with the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement will comply as to form and substance in all material aspects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations thereunder and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder.

(f) The Company represents that the information supplied by the Company for inclusion in the Registration Statement and the Joint Proxy Statement shall not, at (i) the time the Registration Statement is declared effective, (ii) the time the Joint Proxy Statement (or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto) is first mailed to the stockholders of the Company and shareholders of Parent, (iii) the time of the Company Stockholder Meeting, (iv) the time of the Parent Shareholder Meeting, and (v) the Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or fail to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. If, at any time prior to the Effective Time, any event or circumstance relating to the Company or any Subsidiary, or their respective officers or directors, should be discovered by the Company which is required by applicable Law to be set forth in an amendment or a supplement to the Registration Statement or Joint Proxy Statement, the Company shall promptly inform Parent. All documents that the Company is responsible for filing with the SEC in connection with the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement will comply as to form and substance in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations thereunder and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder.

SECTION 7.02. Company Stockholder Meeting. (a) The Company shall call and hold the Company Stockholder Meeting as promptly as practicable for the purpose of voting upon the adoption of this Agreement and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to hold the Company Stockholder Meeting as soon as practicable after the date on which the Registration Statement becomes effective and, subject to Section 7.05(d)(y), the Company agrees that this Agreement shall be submitted for adoption at the Company Stockholder Meeting. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Company may, but shall not be required to, adjourn or postpone the Company Stockholder Meeting to the extent necessary to ensure that any necessary supplement or amendment to the Joint Proxy Statement is provided to its stockholders in advance of a vote on the adoption of this Agreement, or, if, as of the time for which the Company Stockholder Meeting is originally scheduled, there are insufficient Shares represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting.

(b) Subject to Section 7.05(d) and Section 7.05(e), the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to solicit from its stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption of this Agreement and shall take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the Company Stockholder Approval. Subject to Section 7.05(d)(y), the obligation of the Company to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Company Stockholder Meeting shall not be limited or otherwise affected by the commencement, disclosure, announcement or submission to it of any Acquisition Proposal, or by any Change in Company Recommendation.

SECTION 7.03. Parent Shareholder Meeting. (a) Parent shall call and hold the Parent Shareholder Meeting as promptly as practicable for the purpose of voting upon the Parent Share Issuance and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to hold the Parent Shareholder Meeting as soon as practicable after the date on which the Registration Statement becomes effective and Parent agrees that the Parent Share Issuance shall be submitted for approval at the Parent Shareholder Meeting. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Parent may, but shall not be required to, adjourn or postpone the Parent Shareholder Meeting to the extent necessary to ensure that any necessary supplement or amendment to the Joint Proxy Statement is provided to its shareholders in advance of a vote on the approval of the Parent Share Issuance, or, if, as of the time for which the Parent Shareholder Meeting is originally scheduled, there are insufficient Parent Common Shares represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting.

(b) Subject to Section 7.01(c), Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to solicit from its shareholders proxies in favor of the approval of the Parent Share Issuance and shall take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the Parent Shareholder Approval. The obligation of Parent to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Parent Shareholder Meeting shall not be limited or otherwise affected by any Change in Parent Recommendation.

SECTION 7.04. Access to Information; Confidentiality. (a) Except as otherwise prohibited by applicable Law or the terms of any contract or agreement (provided that each party shall use all reasonable efforts to promptly obtain any consent required under any such contract or agreement in order that it may comply with the terms of this Section 7.04), from the date of this Agreement until the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Company shall, and shall cause its respective subsidiaries to, (i) provide to the other party and the other party's officers, directors, employees, accountants, consultants, legal counsel, agents and other representatives access at reasonable times during normal business hours upon prior notice to the officers, employees, agents, properties, offices and other facilities of such party and its subsidiaries and to the books and records thereof, and (ii) furnish promptly to the other party such information concerning the business, properties, contracts, assets, liabilities, personnel and other aspects of such party and its subsidiaries as the other party or its representatives may reasonably request; provided, however, that neither Parent nor the Company shall be required to provide access to or disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights of its customers, jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the person in possession or control of such information or contravene any Law, order, judgment, decree or agreement to which such party or any of its subsidiaries is a party or is subject.

(b) All information obtained by the parties pursuant to this Section 7.04 shall be kept confidential in accordance with the confidentiality agreement, dated March 31, 2008 (the "Confidentiality Agreement"), between Parent and the Company.

(c) No investigation pursuant to this Section 7.04 shall affect any representation or warranty in this Agreement of any party hereto or any condition to the obligations of the parties hereto.

(d) Neither party shall conduct any invasive testing of soil, groundwater or building components at any property of the other party without the prior written consent of such other party.

SECTION 7.05. No Solicitation of Transactions. (a) The Company agrees that neither it nor any Subsidiary will, and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, other advisors or representatives (such persons, together with Subsidiaries, collectively, the "Company Representatives") not to (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing non-public information), or take any other action to knowingly facilitate the making of any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) enter into, continue or otherwise engage or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person, any information with respect to, or otherwise knowingly cooperate, encourage or facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement any proposal or inquiry that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to result in, an Acquisition Proposal, (iii) approve, endorse or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, endorse or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal, or (iv) submit to a vote of its stockholders, approve, endorse or recommend, or publicly announce an intention to approve, endorse or recommend, or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement amalgamation agreement, scheme of arrangement or other similar agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal (other than a Qualifying Confidentiality Agreement in accordance with Section 7.05(b)). The Company immediately shall cease and cause to be terminated all existing discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to an Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall not release any third party from, or waive any provision of, any confidentiality or standstill agreement to which it is a party.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 7.05, if the Company or any of the Company Representatives receives an unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal from any person or group of persons at any time prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting, the Company and Company Representatives may (i) contact such person or group of persons to clarify the terms and conditions thereof, and (ii) if the Company Board (or any committee thereof) has (A) determined, in its good faith judgment (after consultation with the Company's financial advisors and outside legal counsel), that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal, and (B) obtained from such person a Qualifying Confidentiality Agreement, furnish information to, and enter into discussions and negotiations with, such person or group of persons; provided, that the Company shall have provided written notice to Parent of its intent to furnish information or enter into discussions or negotiations with such person or group of persons at least one business day prior to taking any such action.

(c) Promptly (but in no event more than 24 hours) following receipt thereof, the Company shall advise Parent in writing of the receipt of any Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry, discussions or negotiations with respect to any Acquisition Proposal and the terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal and the Company shall promptly provide to Parent a copy of any Acquisition Proposal made in writing provided to the Company and copies of any written materials received by the Company in connection therewith. The Company agrees that it shall keep Parent reasonably informed of the status of any discussions or negotiations with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. The Company agrees that it shall simultaneously provide to Parent any non-public information concerning the Company that may be provided (pursuant to Section 7.05(b)) to any other person or group of persons in connection with any Acquisition Proposal which was not previously provided to Parent.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 7.05, at any time prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting, if the Company has received a Superior Proposal (after giving effect to the terms of any revised offer by Parent pursuant to this Section 7.05(d)), the Company Board may (x) in connection with such Superior Proposal, make a Change in Company Recommendation or (y) terminate this Agreement for the purpose of causing the Company to enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal (provided that the Company shall have paid the Termination Fee prior to or concurrently with such termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 9.03(b)), which the Company shall enter into concurrently with or immediately following such termination, if the Company Board has determined in good faith, after consultation with the Company's financial advisors and outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' exercise of their fiduciary obligations to the Company and its stockholders under applicable Law and the Company's certificate of incorporation; provided, however, that if the Change in Company Recommendation pursuant to clause (x) or the termination of this Agreement pursuant to clause (y) is to be effected as a result of a Superior Proposal, then the Company Board may not take the actions set forth in clause (x) or (y), as the case may be, unless:

(i) the Company shall have provided prior written notice to Parent at least five (5) calendar days in advance (the "Notice Period") of its intention to take such actions, which notice shall advise Parent that the Company Board has received a Superior Proposal, specify the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and indicate that the Company Board intends to effect a Change in Company Recommendation or terminate this Agreement and the manner in which it intends (or may intend) to take such action (a "Notice of Superior Proposal"), and

(ii) during the Notice Period, the Company shall, and shall cause its financial advisors and outside counsel to, negotiate with Parent in good faith (to the extent Parent desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute (in the judgment of the Company Board) a Superior Proposal.

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

If during the Notice Period any revisions are made to the Superior Proposal, the Company shall deliver a new written notice to Parent specifying the details of any such revisions and shall comply with the requirements of this Section 7.05(d) with respect to such new written notice, except that the new Notice Period shall be two (2) calendar days. Any disclosure that the Company Board may be compelled to make with respect to the receipt of a proposal or offer for an Acquisition Proposal or otherwise in order to comply with its fiduciary obligations to the Company and its stockholders under applicable Law and the Company's certificate of incorporation or Rule 14d-9 or 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act will not constitute a violation of this Agreement; provided, that such disclosure does not violate any provision of this Section 7.5(d) (it being understood that a mere "stop, look and listen" disclosure shall not violate this Section 7.5(d) or constitute a Change in Company Recommendation). Any Change in Company Recommendation shall not change the approval of the Company Board for purposes of causing any state takeover statute or other state law to be inapplicable to the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 7.05(d), at any time prior to the Company Stockholder Approval, the Company Board may, other than in response to a Superior Proposal, make a Change in Company Recommendation if the Company Board determines, in its good faith judgment prior to the time of the Company Stockholder Meeting and after consultation with outside legal counsel, that failure to make a Change in Company Recommendation would be inconsistent with the directors' exercise of their fiduciary obligations to the Company and its stockholders under applicable Law and the Company's certificate of incorporation; provided, that the Company Board may not take the actions set forth in this Section 7.05(e) unless prior thereto the Company shall take the actions set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) of Section 7.05(d) as if a Superior Proposal had been received by the Company.

(f) An "Acquisition Proposal" means any proposal or offer from any person or group of persons (other than Parent, Merger Sub or their respective affiliates): (i) for any merger, consolidation, amalgamation, share exchange, business combination, scheme of arrangement, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or other similar transaction involving the Company or any Subsidiary pursuant to which such person or group of persons would own 25% or more of the voting power of any class of equity securities of the Company or of any resulting parent of the Company; (ii) for any sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of assets or businesses that constitute or represent 25% or more of the consolidated revenue, consolidated operating income or consolidated total assets of the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole; or (iii) for any sale, exchange, transfer or other disposition pursuant to which such person or group of persons would own 25% or more of the voting power of any class of equity securities of the Company, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, in each case other than the Merger.

(g) A "Superior Proposal" means an unsolicited written bona fide offer made by a third party to consummate any of the following transactions: (i) a merger, consolidation, amalgamation, share exchange, business combination, asset purchase, scheme of arrangement, or other similar transaction involving the Company pursuant to which the stockholders of the Company immediately preceding such transaction would hold less than 50% of the voting power of any class of equity securities of the Company or of any resulting entity of such transaction or the Company would sell more than 50% of the consolidated assets of the Company and the Subsidiaries; or (ii) the acquisition by any person or group (including by means of a tender offer or an exchange offer or a two-step transaction involving a tender offer followed with reasonable promptness by a cash-out merger involving the Company), directly or indirectly, of ownership of 100% of the then outstanding shares of stock of the Company, in each case on terms that the Company Board determines, in its good faith judgment (after consultation with the Company's financial advisors), to be more favorable to the Company stockholders than the Merger (after taking into account, among other factors the Company Board may deem relevant, the likelihood of obtaining any financing required to consummate the transaction contemplated by such offer).

SECTION 7.06. Employee Benefits Matters. (a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation and the Subsidiaries to honor in accordance with their terms, all contracts, agreements, arrangements, policies, plans and commitments of the Company and the Subsidiaries as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time that are applicable to any current or former employees or directors of the Company or any Subsidiary; provided, that nothing contained herein shall prohibit Parent or the Surviving Corporation or any of Parent's subsidiaries from amending, modifying or terminating any such contracts, agreements, arrangements, policies, plans and commitments in accordance with their terms. Employees of the Company or any Subsidiary shall receive credit for purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting and benefit entitlement (but not, except to the extent required by applicable Law, for benefit accruals under a defined benefit pension plan) under any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement established or maintained by the Surviving Corporation or any of the Subsidiaries for service accrued or deemed accrued prior to the Effective Time with the Company or any Subsidiary; provided, however, that such crediting of service shall not operate to duplicate any benefit or the funding of any such benefit. In addition, Parent shall waive, or cause to be waived, any limitations on benefits relating to any pre-existing conditions or actively-at work requirements, except to the same extent such limitations are applicable under any Company Plan and recognize, for purposes of annual deductible and out-of-pocket limits under its medical and dental plans, deductible and out-of-pocket expenses paid by employees of the Company and the Subsidiaries in the calendar year in which the Effective Time occurs.

(b) For a period commencing at the Effective Time and ending no earlier than the first anniversary of the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause its affiliates to, provide employees of the Company and the Subsidiaries who are employed by the Company and the Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time and who continue to be employees of Parent or its subsidiaries, including the Company or any Subsidiary, with employee benefit plans, programs, contracts and arrangements that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those currently provided to them in connection with their employment by the Company or a Subsidiary (excluding equity-related awards and executive life insurance benefits). Employees of the Company and the Subsidiaries who are employed by the Company and the Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time and who continue to be employees of Parent or its subsidiaries, including the Company or any Subsidiary, shall be eligible to receive equity-related awards under the equity plans of Parent to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of Parent or its subsidiaries.

(c) Parent shall credit employees of the Company and the Subsidiaries with any co-payments, deductibles and out of pocket expenses paid by such employees under Company Plans during the plan year in which the Effective Time occurs.

(d) Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to be a guarantee of employment for any employee of the Company or their respective subsidiaries, or to restrict the right of Parent or any of its subsidiaries to terminate or cause to be terminated any employee at any time for any or no reason with or without notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.06, nothing contained herein, whether express or implied, (i) shall be treated as an amendment or other modification of any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement or the establishment of any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement or (ii) shall limit the right of Parent or any of its subsidiaries to amend, terminate or otherwise modify (or cause to be amended, terminated or otherwise modified) any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement following the Closing in accordance with its terms. Parent and the Company acknowledge and agree that all provisions contained in this Section 7.06 are included for the sole benefit of Parent and the Company, and that nothing herein, whether express or implied, shall create any third party beneficiary or other rights (i) in any other person, including any employees, former employees, any participant in any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement (or any dependent or beneficiary thereof), of the Company or any of its affiliates or (ii) to continued employment with Parent or any of its affiliates or continued participation in any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement.

(e) Within fifteen (15) days of the date hereof, the Company shall provide, on Section 4.10(k) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, a current list of each material Non-U.S. Benefit Plan that is not required by the Law of any non-U.S. jurisdiction, and the Company shall make available to Parent all material documents related to each such material Non-U.S. Benefit Plan.

(f) No earlier than forty-five (45) days following the date hereof, the Company shall deliver, or shall cause to be delivered, cash to the Company Executive Benefit Trust, dated as of May 23, 2000 (as amended from time to time) (the "Executive Benefit Trust") in an amount not to exceed $45,000,000 and a number of shares of Company Common Stock not to exceed 800,000 in order to fund all of the Company's obligations under such trust, pursuant to the terms of the Executive Benefit Trust.

if (A) Parent or the Company shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01(b)(iii)(A), (B) prior to the time of such failure to so adopt this Agreement an Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly made known or publicly announced with respect to the Company, and (C) within twelve months after the date of such termination the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a transaction contemplated by an Acquisition Proposal (in each case, whether or not such Acquisition Proposal is the same as the original Acquisition Proposal publicly made known or publicly announced); provided, that for purposes of this Section 9.03(b)(iv), all references to 25% in the definition of "Acquisition Proposal" shall be replaced with references to 50%; then the Company shall pay to Parent (A) prior to or concurrently with the termination of this Agreement if payable pursuant to Section 9.03(b)(ii), or (B) promptly (but in any event no later than one (1) business day after the first of such events shall have occurred) with respect to the termination of this Agreement if payable pursuant to Section 9.03(b)(i), Section 9.03(b)(iii) or Section 9.03(b)(iv), a fee of $110,000,000 (the "Termination Fee"), which amount shall be payable in immediately available funds.

(c) The Company agrees that if Parent shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01(c)(i), Section 9.01(c)(ii) or Section 9.01(c)(iii) then the Company shall, whether or not any payment is made pursuant to Section 9.03(b), reimburse Parent for all of its Expenses, up to a maximum of $10,000,000 (not later than three business days after submission of statements therefore). Parent agrees that if the Company shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01(d)(i), Section 9.01(d)(iii) or Section 9.01(d)(iv) then Parent shall reimburse the Company for all of its Expenses, up to a maximum of $10,000,000 (not later than three business days after submission of statements therefore). Any reimbursement of expenses by the Company pursuant to this Section 9.03(c) shall be credited against any amount that may become payable pursuant to Section 9.03(b).

(d) The Company and Parent acknowledge that the agreements contained in this Section 9.03 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event that the Company shall fail to pay the Termination Fee, or the Company or Parent shall fail to pay any Expenses, when due, the term "Expenses" shall be deemed to include the costs and expenses actually incurred or accrued by Parent or the Company, as the case may be, (including fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with the collection under and enforcement of this Section 9.03.

SECTION 9.04. Amendment. Except as may otherwise be provided herein, any provision of this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto by action taken by or on behalf of their respective Boards of Directors at any time prior to the Effective Time; provided, that, after either of the Company Stockholder Approval and the Parent Shareholder Approval have been obtained, no such amendment shall be made that under applicable Law requires further approval by the stockholders of the Company or the shareholders of Parent, as applicable, without such approval having been obtained. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by each of the Company and Parent.

SECTION 9.05. Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any party hereto may (a) extend the time for the performance of any obligation or other act of any other party hereto, (b) waive any inaccuracy in the representations and warranties of any other party contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto, and (c) subject to the proviso in the first sentence of Section 9.04 and to the extent permitted by applicable Law, waive compliance with any agreement of any other party or any condition to its own obligations contained herein. Any such extension or waiver shall be valid if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by the party or parties to be bound thereby.

Board of Directors
50 Main Street
White Plains, New York 10606

Members of the Board:

You have asked us to advise you with respect to the fairness to Bunge Limited ("Parent") from a financial point of view of the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization, dated as of June 21, 2008 (the "Merger Agreement"), among Parent, Bleecker Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), and Corn Products International, Inc. (the "Company"). The Merger Agreement provides for, among other things, the merger (the "Merger") of Merger Sub with the Company pursuant to which the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent and each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Company Common Stock"), of the Company will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a common share, par value $0.01 per share ("Parent Common Share"), of Parent equal to the quotient (the "Exchange Ratio") determined by dividing $56.00 by the Parent Share Value (as defined below) and rounding to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share; provided, that (x) if the Parent Share Value is equal to or greater than $133.10, the Exchange Ratio shall equal 0.4207, and (y) if the Parent Share Value is equal to or less than $108.90, the Exchange Ratio shall equal 0.5142. "Parent Share Value" means the volume weighted average of the per share daily closing prices of a Parent Common Share on the New York Stock Exchange, as reported by The Wall Street Journal, for the fifteen consecutive trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date on which the meeting of the Company's stockholders is held to consider adoption of the Merger Agreement.

In arriving at our opinion, we have reviewed the Merger Agreement, certain related agreements and certain publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company and Parent. We have also reviewed certain other information relating to the Company and Parent, including financial forecasts relating to the Company and certain publicly available financial forecasts relating to Parent, as well as certain limited forecasts relating to Parent for calendar year 2008, provided to or discussed with us by the Company and Parent, and have met with the managements of the Company and Parent to discuss the business and prospects of the Company and Parent, respectively. We have also considered certain financial and stock market data of the Company and Parent, and we have compared that data with similar data for other publicly held companies in businesses we deemed similar to those of the Company and Parent and we have considered, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other business combinations and other transactions which have recently been effected or announced. We also considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria which we deemed relevant.

In connection with our review, we have not independently verified any of the foregoing information and have assumed and relied on such information being complete and accurate in all material respects. With respect to the financial forecasts for the Company that we have reviewed, the management of Parent has advised us, and we have assumed, that such forecasts have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Parent as to the future financial performance of the Company. As you are aware, we have not been provided with, and we did not have access to, financial forecasts for Parent prepared by the management of Parent, other than the limited financial forecasts for Parent referred to above for calendar year 2008. Accordingly, with respect to the limited financial forecasts for Parent that we have reviewed, the management of Parent has advised us, and we have assumed, that such forecasts have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Parent as to the future financial performance of Parent. In addition, with respect to the publicly available financial forecasts for Parent referred to above, we have reviewed and discussed such forecasts with the management of Parent and have assumed, with your consent, that such forecasts (other than for calendar year 2008) represent reasonable estimates and judgments with respect to the future financial performance of Parent. With respect to the estimates provided to us by the management of Parent with respect to the cost savings and synergies anticipated to result from the Merger, we have been advised by the management of Parent, and we have assumed, that such forecasts have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Parent as to such cost savings and synergies and will be realized in the amounts and the times indicated thereby. We have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. We also have assumed, with your consent, that, in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Company, Parent or the contemplated benefits of the Merger and that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof. In addition, we have not been requested to make, and have not made, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Parent or the Company, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals.

Our opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Parent of the Exchange Ratio and does not address any other aspect or implication of the Merger or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the Merger or otherwise including, without limitation, the fairness of the amount or nature of, or any other aspect relating to, any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Merger, or class of such persons, relative to the amounts to be received by any party in the Merger or otherwise. The issuance of this opinion was approved by our authorized internal committee.

Our opinion is necessarily based upon information made available to us as of the date hereof and financial, economic, market and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof. We are not expressing any opinion as to what the value of the Parent Common Shares actually will be when issued to the holders of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger or the prices at which the Parent Common Shares will trade at any time. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger as compared to alternative transactions or strategies that might be available to Parent, nor does it address the underlying business decision of Parent to proceed with the Merger.

We have acted as financial advisor to Parent in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. We also will become entitled to receive a fee upon the execution of the Merger Agreement. In addition, Parent has agreed to indemnify us and certain related parties for certain liabilities and other items arising out of or related to our engagement. We and our affiliates have in the past provided, and in the future we may provide, investment banking and other financial services to the Company and its affiliates for which we and our affiliates have received, and would expect to receive, compensation. We and our affiliates also have in the past provided, and are currently providing and in the future we may provide, investment banking and other financial services to Parent and its affiliates, including having acted as financial advisor to Parent in connection with the sale of a controlling stake in Seara Alimentos S.A. and as placement agent in connection with the placement of 4.875% cumulative convertible perpetual preference shares by Parent. We and our affiliates may have provided other financial advice and services, and may in the future provide financial advice and services, to the Company, Parent and their respective affiliates for which we and our affiliates have received, and would expect to receive, compensation. We are a full service securities firm engaged in securities trading and brokerage activities as well as providing investment banking and other financial services. In the ordinary course of business, we and our affiliates may acquire, hold or sell, for our and our affiliates own accounts and the accounts of customers, equity, debt and other securities and financial instruments (including bank loans and other obligations) of the Company, Parent and any other company that may be involved in the Merger, as well as provide investment banking and other financial services to such companies.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of Parent in connection with its consideration of the Merger and does not constitute advice or a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act on any matter relating to the proposed Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair to Parent from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

[LETTERHEAD OF MORGAN STANLEY & CO. INCORPORATED]

June 21, 2008

Board of Directors
50 Main Street
White Plains, New York 10606

Members of the Board:

We understand that Bunge Limited (the "Buyer"), Bleecker Acquisition Corp. (the "Merger Sub"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer, and Corn Products International, Inc. (the "Company") have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization, dated as of June 21, 2008 (the "Merger Agreement"), which provides, among other things, for the merger (the "Merger") of Merger Sub with and into the Company. Pursuant to the Merger, the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer, and each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Company Common Stock") of the Company, other than shares held in treasury or held by the Buyer or any of its subsidiaries (including Merger Sub), or any subsidiary of the Company, will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a common share, par value $0.01 per share, of the Buyer (the "Buyer Common Stock") determined pursuant to the formula set forth in the Merger Agreement (the "Exchange Ratio"), subject to adjustment in certain circumstances. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the Buyer.

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (a) reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other business and financial information of the Company and the Buyer, respectively;
- (b) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning the Company and the Buyer, respectively;
- (c) reviewed certain financial projections concerning the Company prepared by the managements of the Buyer and the Company, respectively;
- (d) reviewed certain publicly available financial projections concerning the Buyer, as well as certain limited financial projections for calendar year 2008 concerning the Buyer prepared by the management of the Buyer;
- (e) reviewed information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the Merger, prepared by the managements of the Buyer and the Company, respectively;
- (f) discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of the Buyer, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the Merger, with senior executives of the Buyer;
- (g) discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of the Company, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the Merger, with senior executives of the Company and the Buyer;
- (h)

reviewed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the earnings per share of the Buyer;

(i) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for the Buyer Common Stock and the Company Common Stock;

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

- (j) compared the financial performance of the Company and the Buyer and the prices and trading activity of the Company Common Stock and the Buyer Common Stock with that of certain other publicly-traded companies comparable with the Company and the Buyer, respectively, and their securities;
- (k) reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain acquisition transactions with comparable characteristics;
- (l) participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of the Company and the Buyer and their financial and legal advisors;
- (m) reviewed the Merger Agreement and certain related documents; and
- (n) performed such other analyses, reviewed such other information and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We have assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information that was publicly available or supplied or otherwise made available to us by the Buyer and the Company, and formed a substantial basis for this opinion. With respect to the financial projections, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the Merger, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the respective managements of the Buyer and the Company of the future financial performance of the Buyer and the Company. We have relied, at your direction, on the financial projections concerning the Company prepared by the management of the Buyer for purposes of our opinion. In addition, as you are aware, we have not been provided with, and we did not have access to, financial projections concerning the Buyer prepared by the management of the Buyer other than the limited financial projections provided to us for calendar year 2008. Accordingly, we have been advised by the management of the Buyer and have assumed that the publicly available financial projections concerning the Buyer (other than for calendar year 2008), and the limited financial projections for calendar year 2008 concerning the Buyer prepared by the management of the Buyer, are a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate the future financial performance of the Buyer, and we have relied, at your direction, on these financial projections for purposes of our opinion. In addition, we have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement without any waiver, amendment or delay of any terms or conditions, including, among other things, that the Merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization and/or exchange, each pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Morgan Stanley has assumed that in connection with the receipt of all the necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required for the proposed Merger, no delays, limitations, conditions or restrictions will be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits expected to be derived in the proposed Merger. We have relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment by the management of the Buyer of: (i) the strategic, financial and other benefits expected to result from the Merger; (ii) the timing and risks associated with the integration of the Buyer and the Company; (iii) their ability to retain key employees of the Buyer and the Company, respectively and (iv) the validity of, and risks associated with, the Buyer and the Company's existing and future intellectual property, products, services and business models. We are not legal, tax or regulatory advisors. We are financial advisors only and have relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of the Buyer and the Company and their legal, tax or regulatory advisors with respect to such matters. We express no opinion with respect to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of the Buyer's or the Company's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to the consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of the Company Common Stock in the Merger. We have not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of the Company or the Buyer, nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals. Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof may affect this opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and we do not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Buyer in connection with this transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the closing of the Merger. In the two years prior to the date hereof, we have provided financial advisory and financing services for the Buyer and the Company and have received fees in connection with such services. Morgan Stanley may also seek to provide such services to the Buyer in the future and expects to receive fees for the rendering of these services.

Please note that Morgan Stanley is a global financial services firm engaged in the securities, investment management and individual wealth management businesses. Our securities business is engaged in securities underwriting, trading and brokerage activities, foreign exchange, commodities and derivatives trading, prime brokerage, as well as providing investment banking, financing and financial advisory services. Morgan Stanley, its affiliates, directors and officers may at any time invest on a principal basis or manage funds that invest, hold long or short positions, finance positions, and may trade or otherwise structure and effect transactions, for their own account or the accounts of its customers, in debt or equity securities or loans of the Buyer, the Company, or any other company, or any currency or commodity, that may be involved in this transaction, or any related derivative instrument.

This opinion has been approved by a committee of Morgan Stanley investment banking and other professionals in accordance with our customary practice. This opinion is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Buyer and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent, except that a copy of this opinion may be included in its entirety in any filing the Buyer is required to make with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with this transaction if such inclusion is required by applicable law. In addition, this opinion does not in any manner address the prices at which the Buyer Common Stock will trade following consummation of the Merger and Morgan Stanley expresses no opinion or recommendation as to how the shareholders of the Buyer and the Company should vote at the shareholders' meetings to be held in connection with the Merger.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion on the date hereof that the Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the Buyer.

Very truly yours,

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Corn Products International, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Company"), Bunge Limited, an exempt limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Bermuda ("Parent"), and Bleeker Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement"), providing for a business combination (the "Transaction"). Pursuant to the Transaction, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Company and each outstanding share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Company ("Company Common Stock"), other than shares of Company Common Stock held in treasury or owned by subsidiaries of the Company, will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Parent ("Parent Common Stock") equal to the quotient ("Exchange Ratio") determined by dividing $56.00 by the Parent Share Value and rounding to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share; provided that, (x) if the Parent Share Value is equal to or greater than $133.10, the Exchange Ratio shall equal 0.4207, and (y) if the Parent Share Value is equal to or less than $108.90, the Exchange Ratio shall equal 0.5142, such number of shares so issuable, the "Consideration"). The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Agreement. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning assigned thereto in the Agreement.

You have requested our opinion as of the date hereof as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to holders of Company Common Stock of the Consideration to be paid to such holders in the Transaction.

In connection with this opinion, we have:

- (i) Reviewed the financial terms and conditions of a draft, dated June 20, 2008, of the Agreement;
 - (ii) Analyzed certain publicly available historical business and financial information relating to Company and Parent;
 - (iii) Reviewed various financial forecasts and other data relating to the business of Company and anticipated synergies from the Transaction, in each case provided to us by Company, and certain publicly available financial forecasts and other data relating to the business of Parent;
 - (iv) Held discussions with members of the senior managements of Company and Parent with respect to the businesses and prospects of Company and Parent, respectively;
 - (v) Reviewed public information with respect to certain other companies in lines of business we believe to be generally relevant in evaluating the businesses of Company and Parent, respectively;
 - (vi) Reviewed the financial terms of certain business combinations involving companies in lines of business we believe to be generally relevant in evaluating the businesses of Company and Parent, respectively;

Edgar Filing: Bunge LTD - Form S-4/A

- (vii) Reviewed historical stock prices and trading volumes of Company Common Stock and Parent Common Stock; and
- (viii) Conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

We have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the foregoing information, without independent verification of such information. We have not conducted any independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Company or Parent or concerning the solvency or fair value of Company or Parent, and we have not been furnished with such valuation or appraisal. With respect to the financial forecasts and anticipated synergies referred to above provided by Company, we have assumed, with the consent of Company, that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Company as to the future financial performance of Company and the combined company. With respect to the publicly available financial forecasts referred to above relating to Parent, we have been advised by Parent and have assumed, with the consent of Company, that they are a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate the future financial performance of Parent, and are appropriate for us to utilize in our analyses. We assume no responsibility for and express no view as to such forecasts or the assumptions on which they are based. In addition, we express no view as to the timing with respect to, or value of the ultimate award, if any, with respect to, outcome or settlement of, the dispute pending between the Company and the government of Mexico and at the Company's direction have not included it in our valuation of the Company.

Further, our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. We assume no responsibility for updating or revising our opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date hereof. We do not express any opinion as to the prices at which shares of Company Common Stock or Parent Common Stock may trade at any time subsequent to the announcement of the Transaction.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed, with your consent, that the Transaction will be consummated on the terms described in the Agreement, without any waiver or modification of any material terms or conditions. Representatives of Company have advised us, and we have assumed, that the Agreement, when executed, will conform to the draft reviewed by us in all material respects. We also have assumed, with your consent, that obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals and consents for the Transaction will not have an adverse effect on Company, Parent or the combined company. We further have assumed that the Transaction will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. We do not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the Transaction, nor does our opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which we understand that Company obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals. We express no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects of the Transaction (other than the Consideration to the extent expressly specified herein). In addition, we express no view or opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of, or any other aspects relating to, the compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the Transaction, or class of such persons, relative to the Consideration or otherwise.

Lazard Frères & Co. LLC is acting as financial advisor to Company in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a portion of which is payable upon the rendering of this opinion and a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the closing of the Transaction. We may have in the past provided, and may currently and in the future provide, investment banking services to Company and Parent other than in connection with the Transaction, for which we have received and may receive customary fees. In addition, in the ordinary course of their respective businesses, affiliates of Lazard and LFCM Holdings LLC (an entity indirectly owned in large part by managing directors of Lazard) may actively trade securities of Company and/or the securities of Parent and certain of their respective affiliates for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. The issuance of this opinion was approved by the Opinion Committee of Lazard Frères & Co. LLC.

In rendering our opinion, we were not authorized to, and we did not, solicit indications of interest from third parties regarding a potential transaction with Company, nor were we requested to consider, and our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any other transaction or business strategy in which Company might engage or the merits of the underlying decision by Company to engage in the Transaction.

Our engagement and the opinion expressed herein are for the benefit of the Board of Directors of Company and our opinion is rendered to the Board of Directors of Company in connection with its evaluation of the Transaction. Our opinion is not intended to and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to the Transaction or any matter relating thereto.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Consideration to be paid to holders of Company Common Stock in the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Very truly yours,

LAZARD FRÈRES & CO. LLC

June 21, 2008

The Board of Directors
Corn Products International, Inc.
5 Westbrook Corporate Center
Westchester, Illinois 60154

Members of the Board of Directors:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Company Common Stock"), of Corn Products International, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company") of the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) in the proposed merger (the "Transaction") of the Company with a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bunge Limited, an exempted limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Bermuda (the "Parent"). Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization dated as of June 21, 2008 (the "Agreement"), among the Company, the Parent and a subsidiary of the Parent, the Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Parent, and each outstanding share of Company Common Stock, other than shares of Company Common Stock held in treasury or owned by the Parent or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Parent, will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of the Parent's common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Parent Common Stock"), equal to the Exchange Ratio, which is defined in the Agreement as quotient determined by dividing $56.00 by the Parent Share Value (as defined in the Agreement) and rounding to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share; provided, that (x) if the Parent Share Value is equal to or greater than $133.10, the Exchange Ratio shall equal 0.4207, and (y) if the Parent Share Value is equal to or less than $108.90, the Exchange Ratio shall equal 0.5142.

In arriving at our opinion, we have (i) reviewed the Agreement; (ii) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning the Company and the Parent and the industries in which they operate; (iii) compared the proposed financial terms of the Transaction with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions we deemed relevant; (iv) compared the financial and operating performance of the Company and the Parent with publicly available information concerning certain other companies we deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of the Company Common Stock and the Parent Common Stock and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies; (v) reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the management of the Company relating to its business and certain publicly available financial forecasts relating to the business of the Parent; and (vi) performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as we deemed appropriate for the purposes of this opinion.

In addition, we have held discussions with certain members of the management of the Company and the Parent with respect to certain aspects of the Transaction, and the past and current business operations of the Company and the Parent, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of the Company and the Parent, the effects of the Transaction on the financial condition and future prospects of the Company and the Parent, and certain other matters we believed necessary or appropriate to our inquiry.

In giving our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with us by the Company and the Parent or otherwise reviewed by or for us, and we have not independently verified (nor have we assumed responsibility or liability for independently verifying) any such information or its accuracy or completeness. We have not conducted or been provided with any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor have we evaluated the solvency of the Company or the Parent under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to us by the Company or derived therefrom, we have assumed, with the consent of the Company, that they have been reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of the Company to which such analyses or forecasts relate. With respect to the publicly available financial forecasts referred to above relating to Parent, we have assumed, with the consent of the Company, and have been advised by the Parent that such forecasts are a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate the future financial performance of the Parent and are appropriate to use in our analysis. We express no view as to such analyses or forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. We have also assumed that the Transaction and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes, and will be consummated as described in the Agreement. We have also assumed that the representations and warranties made by the Company and the Parent in the Agreement and the related agreements are and will be true and correct in all respects material to our analysis, and that the Company will have no exposure under any indemnification obligations contained within the Agreement or the related agreements in any amount material to our analysis. We are not legal, regulatory or tax experts and have relied on the assessments made by advisors to the Company with respect to such issues. We have further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any adverse effect on the Company or the Parent or on the contemplated benefits of the Transaction.

Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect this opinion and that we do not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the Company Common Stock of the Exchange Ratio in the proposed Transaction and we express no opinion as to the fairness of the Transaction to, or any consideration to be received by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or as to the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the Transaction. Furthermore, we express no opinion with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Transaction, or any class of such persons relative to the Exchange Ratio applicable to the holders of the Company Common Stock in the Transaction or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation. We are expressing no opinion herein as to the price at which the Company Common Stock or the Parent Common Stock will trade at any future time.

In addition, we were not requested to and did not provide advice concerning the structure, the specific Exchange Ratio, or any other aspects of the Transaction, or to provide services other than the delivery of this opinion. We were not authorized to and did not solicit any expressions of interest from any other parties with respect to the sale of all or any part of the Company or any other alternative transaction. We also note that we did not participate in negotiations with respect to the terms of the Transaction or any related transactions.

We will receive a fee from the Company for the delivery of this opinion. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. During the two years preceding the date of this letter, we and our affiliates have had commercial or investment banking relationships with the Parent, for which we and such affiliates have received customary compensation. Such services during such period have included acting (i) as administrative agent in connection with the Parent's credit facilities in October 2007; (ii) as administrative agent in connection with the Parent's credit facility in September 2007; and (iii) as joint bookrunner on the Parent's offering of its debt securities in March 2007. In addition, our commercial banking affiliate is an agent bank and a lender under outstanding credit facilities of the Parent, for which it receives customary compensation or other financial benefits. In the ordinary course of our businesses, we and our affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of the Company or the Parent for our own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, we may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities.

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion as of the date hereof that the Exchange Ratio in the proposed Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the Company Common Stock.

The issuance of this opinion has been approved by a fairness opinion committee of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. This letter is provided to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the Transaction. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Transaction or any other matter. This opinion may not be disclosed, referred to, or communicated (in whole or in part) to any third party for any purpose whatsoever except with our prior written approval. This opinion may be reproduced in full in any proxy or information statement mailed to shareholders of the Company but may not otherwise be disclosed publicly in any manner without our prior written approval.

Very truly yours,

/s/ J.P. MORGAN SECURITIES INC.

Item 22. Undertakings

(1) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the undersigned Registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

(5) The Registrant undertakes that every prospectus (a) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (4) immediately preceding, or (b) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(6) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(7) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(8) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first-class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(9) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
