Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 19, 2007 the Marion Superior Court in the State of Indiana entered an order confirming a Consent Judgment agreed to between iMergent, Inc. (the Company) and the State of Indiana. This stipulated judgment stems from a complaint filed by the State of Indiana that alleged the Company operated as a seller of business opportunities under Indiana law and engaged in certain improper conduct.

There is no finding that the Company operates as a seller of business opportunities under Indiana law, and there is no requirement for the Company to register as a seller of business opportunities now or in the future.

The Company has agreed to not make certain representations at its workshops (which the Company contends it has not, and does not make). The Company further agreed to cancel six contracts and allow refunds totaling $19,261. In addition, the Company agreed to reimburse the State of Indiana $2,708 in costs and pay $9,815 to the Office of Attorney General Consumer Protection Fund. The order makes clear that there is no admission of any wrongdoing by the Company.

The settlement does not limit the Company's ability to conduct business in the State of Indiana or require any change to the business model or practices of the Company.
