PRESS RELEASE

ABLEAUCTIONS ANNOUNCES 2007 FINANCIAL RESULTS

OJAI, CALIFORNIA March 31, 2008 Ableauctions.com Inc. (AMEX:AAC) (the Company) announced today the results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2007.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY:

The Company reported revenue of $4,938,918 for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to $6,243,865 for the year ended December 31, 2006, a decrease of 21% from the previous year.

The Company reported a net loss of $693,258 or $(0.011) per share for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to net income of $167,233 or $0.003 per share in 2006. The loss for the year ended December 31, 2007 is attributed to a write-down of inventory in the amount of $163,415, depreciation in the amount of $194,737, and a write-down of $225,111 to accounts receivable primarily due to the bankruptcy of an auction house located in the U.S.

Shareholders' equity, defined as the carrying amount of the Company's assets minus its liabilities, increased to $14,012,307 at December 31, 2007 from $12,890,232 at December 31, 2006.

MANAGEMENT'S REVIEW OF RESULTS:

Commenting on the 2007 results, Abdul Ladha, President and Chief Executive Officer of Ableauctions.com Inc. said, "We have maintained profitability over the last several years as result of prudent management and innovative approaches to enhancing our business model. This year, while our shareholders equity has grown, we have incurred an operating loss of $693,258. This loss can be attributed to two main factors; the downturn in the general economy of the United States and the shift in our investment strategy.

We derive most of our revenues, both from our liquidation and auction broadcast services, from the United States.

Revenues from our liquidation sector dropped sharply, by 27%, in 2007 as our existing and potential customers remained conservative in their spending, especially in the fourth quarter, as the United States economy struggled and continues to be challenged in the near term. Revenues from our auction broadcast services, iCollector and NAALive, remained substantially unchanged despite a significant loss incurred from the insolvency of an auction house located in the U.S.

We are adjusting accordingly and concentrating on prudent capital management while retaining a focus on building new revenue streams, maintaining cutting-edge technological capabilities, and developing our Canadian based projects.

In an effort to expand our business, we develop real estate and make short term loans. The returns on our investments, real property development and lending help to support the development of our liquidation and auction businesses, including the development of new technologies for use by our on-line businesses. In 2007, we realized lower investment income as we shifted the focus of our investment portfolio from loans and securities, which tend to have shorter return cycles, to real-estate development projects, which have longer return cycles. In the absence of a shift in investment strategy, we may have realized greater investment income that could have offset some of the losses from operations we experienced during the 2007 fiscal year. However, we believe that income from our development projects will be greater over time.

On a positive note, we have recently seen an increase in activity on a number of new opportunities we have been pursuing over the last few years. We also expect revenue in 2009 to quadruple to over $20 million from our real-estate development projects in British Columbia if we are able to successfully complete the development of our properties. We have added a number of key individuals to our operations to assist us in further developing and executing our business strategy in the U.S. and Canada and we believe that we are well positioned and have sufficient capital resources to survive the economic downturn.

FINANCIAL DETAILS:

The Company reported revenue of $4,938,918 for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to $6,243,865 for the year ended December 31, 2006, a decrease of 21% from the previous year. Due to the downturn in the U.S. economy, the Company experienced a 27% decrease in revenue from its liquidation services. Revenues from the Company's liquidation services totaled $3,574,616 during the 2007 fiscal year as compared to $4,917,198 during the 2006 fiscal year. Revenue from the Company's auction operations, iCollector and NAALive, remained substantially unchanged.

The decrease in liquidation services revenue, which currently accounts for approximately 72% of the Company's total revenue, is the result of a decrease in demand for liquidation inventory from top retailers in the U.S. In order to weather the loss of revenues during the economic downturn, the Company has implemented strong cost controls in order to reduce recurring operating expenditures and is considering ways in which it might expand its operations in order to supplement revenue. If the U.S. economy does not experience a significant recovery during the 2008 fiscal year, the Company expects that its operations will continue to be adversely affected.

The Company reported gross profit of $1,958,697 or 40% of total revenue for the year ended December 31, 2007, compared to $2,375,466 or 38% of total revenue for the year ended December 31, 2006. The marginal increase in gross profit as a percentage of revenue is a result of improvements in the pricing and product offerings of its liquidation operations. The increase also reflects the performance of the Company's higher-profit auction broadcasting services group, the growth of which outperformed the growth of the liquidation services groups during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007.

The Company's overall operating expenses for the year remained substantially unchanged. The Company's operating expenses totalled $2,994,064, or 61% of net revenues for the year ended December 31, 2007 as compared to $2,816,617, or 45% of net revenues for the year ended December 31, 2006. As a percentage of revenues, operating expenses increased significantly due to the decrease in revenue experienced in 2007. Management believes that the implementation of cost controls in order to reduce recurring operating expenditures and any expansion of its operations may result in increased revenue, which would improve the ratio of operating expenses to revenues.

The Company reported a net loss of $693,258 or $(0.011) per share for the year ended December 31, 2007 compared to net income of $167,233 or $0.003 per share in 2006. The loss for the year ended December 31, 2007 is attributed to a write-down of inventory in the amount of $163,415, depreciation in the amount of $194,737, and a write-down of $225,111 to accounts receivable primarily due to the bankruptcy of an auction house located in the U.S.

Shareholders' equity, defined as the carrying amount of the Company's assets minus its liabilities, increased to $14,012,307 at December 31, 2007 from $12,890,232 at December 31, 2006.
