EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 (the “Amendment”) to Registration Statement No. 333-213159 (the “Registration Statement”) is being filed pursuant to Rule 414(d) under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), by Tronox Holdings plc (“Tronox Holdings”), a newly formed public limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales, as the successor to Tronox Limited, a public limited company registered under the laws of the State of Western Australia. Effective March 27, 2019, Tronox Limited effected a redomiciliation transaction, effectively changing its jurisdiction of incorporation from Western Australia to England and Wales, by “top-hatting” the Tronox group of companies with Tronox Holdings, as a result of which Tronox Limited became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Tronox Holdings (the “Redomicile Transaction”).

The Redomicile Transaction was implemented by two schemes of arrangement, which were approved by Tronox Limited’s shareholders and the Federal Court of Australia, pursuant to which Tronox Limited’s Class A and Class B ordinary shares were exchanged on a one-for-one basis for ordinary shares in Tronox Holdings, par value US$0.01 per share. Immediately prior to the Redomicile Transaction, Tronox Holdings had no assets or liabilities other than nominal assets or liabilities.

Tronox Holdings, as successor to Tronox Limited, hereby expressly adopts the Registration Statement, as modified by this Amendment, as its own registration statement (the “Amended Registration Statement”) for all purposes of the Securities Act and the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

For purposes of this Amendment, the Registration Statement and the Amended Registration Statement, references to the “Company,” “Tronox,” the “Registrant,” “we,” “our,” “us” and similar terms mean, as of any time prior to the Redomicile Transaction, Tronox Limited and, except where the context requires otherwise, its consolidated subsidiaries, and, as of any time after the Redomicile Transaction, Tronox Holdings and, except where the context requires otherwise, its consolidated subsidiaries. The information contained in this Amendment sets forth additional information to reflect the Redomicile Transaction. All documents filed by Tronox Limited under Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act before the effective date of the Redomicile Transaction will not reflect the change in our name, jurisdiction of incorporation or capital structure.

Pursuant to Instruction E to Form S-8, the contents of Tronox Limited’s Registration Statement on Form S-8 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on July 6, 2012 (File No. 333-182556) relating to the registration of 2,556,245 shares of Tronox Limited’s Class A ordinary shares, par value US$0.01 per share (the “Class A Shares”), authorized for issuance pursuant to the Tronox Limited Management Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”), were incorporated by reference in their entirety into the Registration Statement. The Registration Statement provided for the registration of an additional 8,000,000 shares of Tronox Limited’s Class A Shares to be issued pursuant to the Plan. The Plan was subsequently amended and restated to reflect the completion of the Redomicile Transaction (as so amended, the “Amended and Restated Plan”).

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Tronox Holdings has entered into deeds of indemnification with each of its directors. Pursuant to these agreements, Tronox Holdings has agreed to indemnify these individuals to the fullest extent permissible under English law against liabilities arising out of, or in connection with, the actual or purported exercise of, or failure to exercise, any of his or her powers, duties or responsibilities as a director, and to advance monies to the directors in order to meet expenses incurred as a result of any proceeding against them as to which they could be indemnified or in order to enable them to avoid incurring such expenses. These agreements do not indemnify directors of Tronox Holdings against any liability attaching to such individuals in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company. Tronox Holdings has also agreed to use all reasonable endeavors to provide and maintain appropriate directors' and officers' liability insurance to the fullest extent permissible under English law (including ensuring that premiums are properly paid) for their benefit for so long as any claims may lawfully be brought against them.

There are certain provisions of the UK Companies Act 2006 (the “UK Companies Act”) that restrict Tronox Holdings from indemnifying officers in certain circumstances. Under the UK Companies Act, any provision that purports to exempt a director of a company (to any extent) from any liability that would otherwise attach to him or her in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company is void. Subject to this, Tronox Holdings is permitted to provide an indemnity to a director in respect of liabilities arising from proceedings, both in respect of legal and financial costs of any adverse judgment, brought by third parties and in respect of liabilities arising from proceedings taken by Tronox Holdings or any associated companies, but not if the director is unsuccessful in defending the proceedings. This includes indemnification against any liability incurred in the defense of civil proceedings brought by a regulator, even if judgment is given against the director, provided this does not include any regulatory penalties. Tronox Holdings can indemnify the director against any liability incurred in defending any criminal proceedings, but not if he or she is convicted.

The UK Companies Act also permits companies to meet a director’s costs, or lend money to the director for the purpose, when the director is facing any criminal or civil proceeding as a director; or in connection with certain applications the director might make under the UK Companies Act; or when he or she incurs costs in a regulatory investigation or action; or in order to enable the director to avoid incurring such costs. Except in relation to a regulatory investigation or action, this must be on the basis that the director will repay or reimburse the company immediately if the director loses in the criminal or civil proceedings or the application for relief. The relevant provisions are described below.

UK Companies Act

The relevant provisions under the UK Companies Act are Sections 205, 206, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238 and 1157.

Section 205 provides that a company can provide a director with the funds to meet expenditures incurred or to be incurred in defending any criminal or civil proceedings or in connection with any application under sections 661(3) and 661(4) (failure by nominee of the company to make payments in respect of shares) or section 1157 (described below). Such payments must be repaid if the director is convicted, judgment is found against such director or the court refuses to grant the relief on the application.

Section 206 provides that a company can provide a director with the funds to meet expenditures incurred or to be incurred by him or her in defending in an investigation by a regulatory authority, or against action proposed to be taken by a regulatory authority, in connection with any alleged negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust by him or her in relation to the company or an associated company.

Section 232 provides that any provision to exempt to any extent a director from liability from negligence, default, breach of duty or trust by him or her in relation to the company is void. Any provision by which a company directly or indirectly provides (to any extent) an indemnity for a director of the company or an associated company against any such liability is also void unless it is a qualifying third party indemnity provision. Section 233 permits liability insurance, commonly known as directors’ and officers’ liability insurance, purchased and maintained by a company against liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the company.

Pursuant to Section 234, an indemnity is a qualifying third party indemnity as long as it does not provide: (i) any indemnity against any liability incurred by the director to the company or to any associated company; (ii) any indemnity against any liability incurred by the director to pay a fine imposed in criminal proceedings or a sum payable to a regulatory authority by way of a penalty in respect of non-compliance with any requirement of a regulatory nature; and (iii) any indemnity against any liability incurred by the director in defending criminal proceedings in which he or she is convicted, civil proceedings brought by the company or an associated company in which judgment is given against such director or where the court refuses to grant such director relief under an application under sections 661(3) or 661(4) (failure by nominee of the company to make payments in respect of shares) or its power under section 1157 (described below).

Edgar Filing: Tronox Holdings plc - Form S-8 POS

Section 235 allows a company to provide an indemnity to a director if the company is a trustee of an occupational pension scheme, with such indemnity to protect against liability incurred in connection with the company's activities as trustee of the scheme.

Any indemnity provided under Section 234 or Section 235 in force for the benefit of one or more directors of the company or an associated company must be disclosed in the directors' annual report in accordance with Section 236 and copies of such indemnification provisions made available for inspection in accordance with Section 237 (and every shareholder has a right to inspect and request a copy of such copies under Section 238).

Section 1157 provides that, in proceedings against an officer of a company for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, the courts may relieve such officer from liability if it appears to the court that such officer may be liable but acted honestly and reasonably and that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, such officer ought fairly to be excused. Further, an officer who has reason to apprehend that a claim of negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust will or might be made against him or her may apply to the court for relief, and the court will have the same power to relieve such officer as it would if the proceedings had actually been brought.

A court has wide discretion in granting relief, and may authorize civil proceedings to be brought in the name of the company by a shareholder on terms that the court directs. Except in these limited circumstances, English law does not generally permit class action lawsuits by shareholders on behalf of the company or on behalf of other shareholders.

The articles of association provide the board of directors of Tronox Holdings with the power to purchase and maintain insurance for, and for the benefit of, any persons who are or were at any time directors, officers (other than an auditor) or employees of Tronox Holdings or any associated company. Tronox Holdings has agreed to use all reasonable endeavors to provide and maintain appropriate directors' and officers' insurance to the fullest extent permissible under English law (including ensuring that premiums are properly paid) for the directors' benefit for so long as any claims may lawfully be brought against the director.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”);

To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which (ii) was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the “Calculation of Registration Fee” table in the effective registration statement; and

- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-8 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

- That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment (2) shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

- The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant’s annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan’s annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the (b) Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

- Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than (c) the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
