13 July 2006

INTERCONTINENTAL HOTELS GROUP
SALE OF SEVEN HOTELS IN CONTINENTAL EUROPE FOR 634MILLION (£440m)

InterContinental Hotels Group PLC ("IHG") today announces it has agreed to sell a portfolio of seven InterContinental branded hotels (2,537 rooms) located in Continental Europe to the Morgan Stanley Real Estate Funds ("MSREF"). IHG previously announced in January 2006 that these hotels had been put on the market.

IHG has retained 30 year management contracts on the hotels, with two 10 year renewals at IHG's discretion giving a total potential contract length of 50 years. These long term contracts ensure the representation of the InterContinental brand in these important locations. IHG and MSREF have separately reached preliminary agreement on converting further hotels comprising up to 1,000 rooms to IHG's brands, and are exploring other opportunities where IHG's brand family complements MSREF's asset portfolio.

The portfolio has been sold for 634m (£440m(1)) in cash before transaction costs, approximately 80m above net book value of approximately 550m, with no material tax charge arising. In addition, MSREF has agreed to make capital investments in the portfolio for approximately 60m, including implementing new brand initiatives and adding further facilities to these prestigious hotels.

The transaction is expected to complete in the third quarter of 2006, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions including EU merger clearance. Proceeds received from the disposal will be used for investment, returns to shareholders, and managing IHG's level of debt.

In 2005, these seven hotels generated revenues of 185m, 42m and EBIT of 23m before management fees. Normalised management fees from the management contracts are expected to be approximately 10m per annum going forward.

On completion of this transaction, IHG will have sold 175 hotels with a net asset value of more than £2.8bn since separation from Six Continents in April 2003. IHG has retained over 90% of sold properties under its brand flags, as part of its strategy to grow its managed and franchised business and reduce asset ownership. Aggregate proceeds received to date have been above net asset value. IHG has announced the return of £2.75bn to shareholders, of which £2.6bn has already been completed.

Andrew Cosslett, Chief Executive of IHG, commented:

"This deal is a significant step for IHG as we near the conclusion of our asset disposal programme. MSREF is a highly respected real estate investor and will be a strong business partner. We look forward to working with them and developing our relationship. Looking ahead, IHG is fully focused on its growth target of adding 50,000 to 60,000 rooms to our portfolio on a net and organic basis by the end of 2008."

Struan Robertson, Managing Director, Head of Morgan Stanley Real Estate Europe & Middle East, commented:

"With this transaction MSREF is extending its hotel investment business into Europe. We are pleased to be working with InterContinental Hotels Group, and the prestigious InterContinental brand, and look forward to expanding our involvement with them around the world. At the same time we are establishing a specialised hotel asset management platform to ensure the highest quality interaction with our hotel operating partners across the region."
