Commentary

Bank Ekonomi reported profits before tax of IDR353 billion (US$39 million) for the nine months to 30 September 2010, a decrease of 2 per cent on the same period in 2009.

Net interest income for the nine months to 30 September 2010 increased by 1 per cent, or IDR5 billion (US$0.6 million), to IDR635 billion compared to the same period in 2009 as growth in the loan book was largely offset by lower interest rates.

Non interest income for the nine months to 30 September 2010 increased to IDR141 billion (US$15 million), an increase of 99 per cent or IDR70 billion (US$8 million) compared to the same period in 2009. This mainly resulted from a strong trading performance in favourable market conditions and an increase in the gain on sale of investment securities of IDR50 billion (US$5 million).

Operating expenses for the nine months to 2010 were IDR424 billion (US$46 million), an increase of 29 per cent or IDR95 billion (US$10 million) compared to the same period in 2009. The increase was mainly due to an increase in staff costs of IDR80 billion (US$9 million) as the bank continued to invest in expanding its operations to support business growth.

The cost efficiency ratio for the nine months to 30 September 2010 increased to 55 per cent compared to 47 percent in the same period in 2009, largely as a result of the higher operating expenses.

Impairment losses on financial assets for the nine months to 30 September 2010 were IDR3 billion (US$0.4 million), compared with IDR49 billion (US$5 million) for the same period in 2009.

Total assets at 30 September 2010 increased by IDR0.9 trillion (US$0.1 billion) or 4 per cent to IDR22.1 trillion (US$2.5 billion), compared to 30 September 2009. Customer loans and advances of IDR10.1 trillion (US$1.1 billion) increased by IDR1.5 trillion (US$0.2 billion) or 17 per cent. This was mainly due to higher business lending to fund investment and working capital facilities. Customer deposits at 30 September 2010 rose to IDR19.3 trillion (US$2.2 billion) from IDR18.6 trillion (US$2 billion) for the same period in 2009.

The bank continues to be strongly capitalised and highly liquid.
