III. The election of Socorro Hernández as President of CANTV and President of the Board of Directors
The Company

Cantv, a Venezuelan corporation, is the leading Venezuelan telecommunications services provider with nearly 3.6 million switched fixed access lines in service, over 8.1 million mobile subscribers and over 528 thousand broadband subscribers as of March 31, 2007. On April 9, 2007, the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela commenced concurrent tender offers in Venezuela and the United States (the "Offers") to acquire any and all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company and ADSs representing such shares. The Offers expired on May 8, 2007, and on May 9, 2007, the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela announced that as a result of the Offers, approximately 86.2% of the outstanding Common Shares of Cantv are now owned by the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela.

Forward Looking Statements

This press release contains statements about expected future events and financial results that are forward-looking and subject to risks and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from those predicted in such forward-looking statements. Factors which may cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed herein include the impact on Cantv's business that may result from the Government's planned nationalization of Cantv, economic considerations that could affect demand for telecommunications services and the ability of the Company to make collections, inflation, regulatory factors, exchange controls and occurrences in currency markets, competition, labor relations, legal proceedings and the risk factors set forth in the Company's various filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including its most recently filed Annual Report on Form 20-F. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof, and claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized.
