Barclays PLC and Barclays Bank PLC Announce Offers to Exchange Existing T1 Securities for New AT1 Securities

Barclays PLC (Barclays) and Barclays Bank PLC (Barclays Bank), and together with Barclays, the Offerors) have today launched invitations to holders (Holders) of certain existing Tier 1 securities (as described in the tables below) (the Existing T1 Securities) issued by Barclays Bank to offer to exchange any or all of such securities for new additional tier 1 securities (the New AT1 Securities) to be issued by Barclays (the Exchange Offers), as the next step in the transition of the Group's capital structure.

The Exchange Offers are being made on the terms and subject to the conditions and restrictions set out in the prospectus (the Prospectus) contained in the Form F-4 Registration Statement (the Registration Statement) filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on 15 May 2014, as may be amended from time to time. Copies of the Registration Statement are available for free by visiting EDGAR on the SEC website at www.sec.gov or from the Exchange Agents whose contact details are set out at the end of this announcement.

Capitalised terms used and not otherwise defined in this announcement have the meanings given in the Prospectus.

Fractional Entitlements

Book-entry interests in the New AT1 Securities will be issued in minimum denominations of £200,000, 200,000 and $200,000 (as applicable) and in integral multiples of £1,000, 1,000 and $1,000 (as applicable) in excess thereof. Instead, each tendering holder of Existing T1 Securities who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional New AT1 Security will receive cash in an amount equal to such fractional entitlement in the currency of the relevant Series of New AT1 Securities.

Cash Payment Amount

Holders whose Existing T1 Securities are accepted for exchange will receive an amount in cash equivalent to any accrued and unpaid interest or dividends, as the case may be, on the relevant Existing T1 Security from (and including) the immediately preceding interest or dividend payment date to (and excluding) the relevant Settlement Date of an Exchange Offer as part of the consideration under the relevant Exchange Offer and not, for the avoidance of doubt, as a payment of interest or a dividend on the Existing T1 Securities. For the avoidance of doubt, the Exchange Price column in the tables above does not take into account any Cash Payment Amount due to Holders. The Cash Payment Amount will be paid to tendering Holders, if applicable, as a separate cash payment.

Minimum New Issue Size

Each Exchange Offer is subject to the condition that a minimum amount of the corresponding New AT1 Securities are issued (each, a Minimum New Issue Size) and other conditions set out in the Prospectus. In particular:

the Sterling Exchange Offer is subject to the condition that a sufficient number of Sterling T1 Securities are validly tendered and not validly withdrawn by the Expiration Date such that at least £150,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Sterling AT1 Securities will be issued by Barclays;

the Euro Exchange Offer is subject to the condition that a sufficient number of Euro T1 Securities are validly tendered and not validly withdrawn by the Expiration Date such that at least 300,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Euro AT1 Securities will be issued by Barclays; and

This announcement and the Prospectus contain important information, which must be read carefully before any decision is made with respect to the Exchange Offers. Holders should reach their own investment decision about the New AT1 Securities only after consultation with their own financial, legal and tax advisers (as such Holder deems appropriate) about risks associated with participating in the Exchange Offers and with an investment in the New AT1 Securities and the suitability of participating in the Exchange Offers and investing in the New AT1 Securities in light of the particular characteristics and terms of the New AT1 Securities, which are complex in structure and operation, and of such Holder's particular financial circumstances. Offer Restrictions

Certain Matters Relating to Non-U.S. Jurisdictions

Although the Offerors will mail the Prospectus to holders of the Existing T1 Securities to the extent required by U.S. law, neither the Prospectus nor this announcement is an offer to sell or exchange and it is not a solicitation of an offer to buy or exchange securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, sale, purchase or exchange is not permitted. Countries outside the United States generally have their own legal requirements that govern securities offerings made to persons resident in those countries and often impose stringent requirements about the form and content of offers made to the general public. The Offerors have not taken any action under those non-U.S. regulations to facilitate a public offer to exchange outside the United States. Therefore, the ability of any non-U.S. person to tender Existing T1 Securities in the Exchange Offers will depend on whether there is an exemption available under the laws of such person's home country that would permit the person to participate in the Exchange Offers without the need for the Offerors to take any action to facilitate a public offering in that country or otherwise. For example, some countries exempt transactions from the rules governing public offerings if they involve persons who meet certain eligibility requirements relating to their status as sophisticated or professional investors. Non-U.S. holders should consult their advisers in considering whether they may participate in the Exchange Offers in accordance with the laws of their home countries and, if they do participate, whether there are any restrictions or limitations on transactions in the New AT1 Securities that may apply in their home countries. The Offerors and the Dealer Managers cannot provide any assurance about whether such limitations may exist.

No action has been or will be taken by Barclays, the Dealer Managers or the Exchange Agents in any jurisdiction outside the United States that would constitute a public offering of the New AT1 Securities other than the preparation of the Prospectus in compliance with articles 652a and 1156 of the Swiss Code of Obligations for purposes of making the Exchange Offers in Switzerland.
