In this prospectus supplement, we provide you with specific information about the terms of this offering. You should rely only on the information or representations incorporated by reference or provided in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus or in any free writing prospectus filed by us with the Commission. We have not authorized anyone to provide you with different information. If anyone provides you with different or inconsistent information, you should not rely on it. If the description of this offering varies between this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, you should rely on the information contained in or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement. You may obtain copies of the shelf registration statement, or any document which we have filed as an exhibit to the shelf registration statement or to any other Commission filing, either from the Commission or from the Secretary of MGM Resorts International as described under Where You Can Find More Information in the accompanying prospectus. Neither we nor the selling stockholder is making an offer to sell these securities in any jurisdiction where the offer or sale is not permitted. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus supplement includes or incorporates by reference forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as anticipates, intends, plans, seeks, believes, estimates, expects, will, may and similar references to future periods. Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements we make regarding expected market growth in Macau, our ability to generate significant cash flow and execute on ongoing and future projects, such as the Profit Growth Plan, the expected results of the Profit Growth Plan, amounts we will spend in capital expenditures and investments, the opening of strategic resort developments, the estimated costs and components associated with those developments, the realization of any advantages to the MGM Growth Properties LLC (MGP) initial public offering and related financing transactions (and the impact of any opportunities created by the transaction), dividends and distributions we will receive from MGM China, MGP or CityCenter and amounts projected to be realized as deferred tax assets. The foregoing is not a complete list of all forward-looking statements we make.

Forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations and assumptions regarding our business, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Our actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements. They are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. Therefore, we caution you against relying on any of these forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, regional, national or global political, economic, business, competitive, market, and regulatory conditions and the following:

our substantial indebtedness and significant financial commitments, including our fixed annual lease payment to MGP, could adversely affect our development options and financial results and impact our ability to satisfy our obligations; current and future economic, capital and credit market conditions could adversely affect our ability to service or refinance our indebtedness and to make planned expenditures and investments as well as strategic initiatives;

S-ii

restrictions and limitations in the agreements governing our senior credit facility and other senior indebtedness could significantly affect our ability to operate our business, as well as significantly affect our liquidity;

the fact that we are required to pay a significant portion of our cash flows as fixed and percentage rent under the master lease, which could adversely affect our ability to fund our operations and growth, service our indebtedness and limit our ability to react to competitive and economic changes;

a significant number of our domestic gaming facilities are leased and could experience risks associated with leased property, including risks relating to lease termination, lease extensions, charges and our relationship with the lessor, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial position or results of operations;

financial, operational, regulatory or other potential challenges that may arise with respect to MGP, as our sole lessor for a significant portion of our business, may adversely impair our operations;

James J. Murren, our Chairman, and Daniel J. Taylor, one of our directors, and William J. Hornbuckle, Elisa C. Gois, and John M. McManus, our executive officers, may have actual or potential conflicts of interest because of their positions at MGP; the fact that MGP has adopted a policy under which certain transactions with us, including transactions involving consideration in excess of $25 million, must be approved by a conflict committee comprised of independent directors of MGP;

significant competition we face with respect to destination travel locations generally and with respect to our peers in the industries in which we compete;

the fact that our businesses are subject to extensive regulation and the cost of compliance or failure to comply with such regulations could adversely affect our business;

the impact on our business of economic and market conditions in the markets in which we operate and in the locations in which our customers reside;

restrictions on our ability to have any interest or involvement in the gaming business in China, Macau, Hong Kong and Taiwan, other than through MGM China;

the ability of the Macau government to terminate MGM Grand Paradise's gaming subconcession under certain circumstances without compensating MGM Grand Paradise or refuse to grant MGM Grand Paradise an extension of the subconcession, which is scheduled to expire on March 31, 2020;

our ability to build and open our development in Cotai by January 2018;

the dependence of MGM Macau upon gaming promoters for a significant portion of gaming revenues in Macau;

our ability to recognize our foreign tax credit deferred asset and the variability of the valuation allowance we may apply against such deferred tax asset;

extreme weather conditions or climate change may cause property damage or interrupt business;

the concentration of a majority of our major gaming resorts on the Las Vegas Strip;

the fact that we extend credit to a large portion of our customers and we may not be able to collect gaming receivables;

the potential occurrence of impairments to goodwill, indefinite-lived intangible assets or long-lived assets which could negatively affect future profits;

the susceptibility of leisure and business travel, especially travel by air, to global geopolitical events, such as terrorist attacks or acts of war or hostility, and to disease epidemics;

the fact that co-investing in properties, including our investment in CityCenter, decreases our ability to manage risk; the fact that current and future construction or development projects will be susceptible to substantial development and construction risks;

the fact that our insurance coverage may not be adequate to cover all possible losses that our properties could suffer, our insurance costs may increase and we may not be able to obtain similar insurance coverage in the future;

the fact that a failure to protect our trademarks could have a negative impact on the value of our brand names and adversely affect our business;

the risks associated with doing business outside of the United States and the impact of any potential violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act or other similar anti-corruption laws;

risks related to pending claims that have been, or future claims that may be brought against us;

the fact that a significant portion of our labor force is covered by collective bargaining agreements;

the sensitivity of our business to energy prices and a rise in energy prices could harm our operating results;

increases in gaming taxes and fees in the jurisdictions in which we operate; and the potential for conflicts of interest to arise because certain of our directors and officers are also directors of MGM China, which is now a publicly traded company listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Any forward-looking statement made by us in this prospectus supplement or incorporated by reference herein speaks only as of the date on which it is made. Factors or events that could cause our actual results to differ may emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for us to predict all of them. We undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as may be required by law. If we update one or more forward-looking statements, no inference should be made that we will make additional updates with respect to those or other forward-looking statements.

You should also be aware that while we from time to time communicate with securities analysts, we do not disclose to them any material non-public information, internal forecasts or other confidential business information. Therefore, you should not assume that we agree with any statement or report issued by any analyst, irrespective of the content of the statement or report. To the extent that reports issued by securities analysts contain projections, forecasts or opinions, those reports are not our responsibility and are not endorsed by us.

Table of ContentsSELLING STOCKHOLDER

This prospectus supplement relates to the resale of shares of our common stock held by the selling stockholder identified in the table below. The shares of our common stock that may be offered by the selling stockholder using this prospectus supplement represent (i) 7,060,492 shares of our common stock that we transferred to the selling stockholder in a private offering pursuant to an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and Regulation D and Regulation S promulgated thereunder, in connection with our acquisition of outstanding ordinary common shares of MGM China, as summarized below, and (ii) 4,000,000 shares of our common stock that were acquired by the selling stockholder from Tracinda in a private resale.

On August 16, 2016, we entered into a securities purchase agreement (the Agreement) with MGM Resorts International Holdings, Ltd. (MRIH), a company incorporated in the Isle of Man and our wholly owned subsidiary, Grand Paradise Macau Limited (GPM), a company incorporated in the Isle of Man and controlled by Ms. Ho, Chiu King Pansy Catilina (Ms. Pansy Ho), and the selling stockholder, Expert Angels Limited (EA), a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands and a wholly owned subsidiary of GPM. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, GPM transferred to MRIH 188,100,000 ordinary common shares, or 4.95% of the outstanding ordinary common shares, of MGM China. In consideration for the MGM China shares, we issued to MRIH 7,060,492 shares of our common stock, par value $0.01, for delivery to EA, in addition to other consideration set forth in the Agreement. In a separate transaction, on August 16, 2016, EA entered into a share purchase agreement with Tracinda, pursuant to which Tracinda agreed to sell 4,000,000 shares of our common stock that it holds to EA. In accordance with the terms of the Agreement, we entered into a registration rights agreement, dated as of September 1, 2016, with EA (the Registration Rights Agreement), pursuant to which we agreed to file a prospectus supplement to our registration statement on Form S-3ASR (File No. 333-202427) with the Commission for the purposes of registering for resale the shares of our common stock transferred to the selling stockholder by us and Tracinda.

The table below sets forth certain information known to us, based upon written representations from the selling stockholder, with respect to the beneficial ownership of our shares of common stock held by the selling stockholder as of September 1, 2016. Because the selling stockholder may sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all, some, or none of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus supplement, we cannot determine the number of such shares that will be sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of by the selling stockholder, or the amount or percentage of shares of our common stock that will be held by the selling stockholder upon termination of any particular offering. See Plan of Distribution. For purposes of the table below, we assume that the selling stockholder will sell all of its shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus supplement.

We have determined beneficial ownership in accordance with the rules of the Commission. EA is a wholly owned subsidiary of GPM, a company controlled by Ms. Pansy Ho, who is also the sole director of EA. Ms. Pansy Ho is a member of the Board of Directors of, and holds a minority ownership interest in, MGM China. For information regarding material transactions between us and the selling stockholder or its affiliates, see Note 17 to the consolidated financial statements, and the information incorporated by reference under Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence, in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015.

The following table shows the total number of shares of our common stock beneficially held by the selling stockholder prior to this offering and the number of shares of our common stock offered by the selling stockholder under this prospectus supplement. Percentage of beneficial ownership is based on 572,708,908 shares outstanding upon completion of this offering.

Name of Selling Stockholder	Shares of Common Stock Beneficially Owned Prior to this Offering	Percentage of Total Voting Power before this Offering	Number of Shares of Common Stock Being Offered	Shares of Common Stock Beneficially Owned After this Offering	Percentage of Total Voting Power after this Offering

(1) EA is a wholly owned subsidiary of GPM, a company controlled by Ms. Pansy Ho, who is also the sole director of EA and is deemed to have voting and investment power over the securities being registered for resale in this prospectus supplement. In addition, Ms. Pansy Ho indirectly owns 16,149,210 shares of our common stock that is held by another company owned by Ms. Pansy Ho. As such, in aggregate, Ms. Pansy Ho indirectly controls 27,209,702 shares, or 4.8%, of our common stock prior to this offering, and will indirectly control 16,149,210 shares, or 2.8%, of our common stock after this offering (assuming she sells all of the common stock covered by this prospectus supplement).

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholder, which term as used herein includes donees, pledgees, transferees, or other successors-in-interest selling shares received after the date of this prospectus supplement from the selling stockholder as a gift, pledge, partnership distribution, or other transfer, may, from time to time, sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any or all of its shares on any stock exchange, market, or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions. The selling stockholder will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner, and size of any such sale, transfer or other disposition. These dispositions may be at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such market prices, at a fixed price or prices subject to change, or at negotiated prices.

The selling stockholder may use any one or more of the following methods when disposing of shares or interests therein:

on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the securities may be listed or quoted at the time of sale; in the over-the-counter market; in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or systems or in the over-the-counter market; through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise; ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers; block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction; purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account; an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange; privately negotiated transactions;

broker-dealers may agree with the selling stockholder to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

a combination of any such methods of sale; and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholder may also enter into option, derivative or hedging transactions with respect to the shares of common stock, and any related offers or sales of shares may be made pursuant to this prospectus supplement. For example, the selling stockholder may:

enter into transactions involving short sales of the shares by broker-dealers in the course of hedging the positions they assume with the selling stockholder; sell shares short itself and deliver the shares registered hereby to settle such short sales or to close out stock loans incurred in connection with its short positions; write call options, put options, or other derivative instruments (including exchange-traded options or privately negotiated options) with respect to the shares, or which it settles through delivery of the shares;

enter into option transactions or other types of transactions that require the selling stockholder to deliver shares to a broker, dealer, or other financial institution, who may then resell or transfer the shares under this prospectus supplement; or lend the shares to a broker, dealer, or other financial institution, which may sell the lent shares.

These option, derivative and hedging transactions may require the delivery to a broker, dealer or other financial institution of shares offered hereby, and such broker, dealer or other financial institution may resell such shares pursuant to this prospectus supplement.

The selling stockholder may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act (Rule 144), if available, rather than under this prospectus supplement. The selling stockholder is not obligated to, and there is no assurance that the selling stockholder will, sell all or any of the shares we are registering. The selling stockholder may transfer, devise or gift such shares by other means not described in this prospectus supplement.

The aggregate proceeds to the selling stockholder from the sale of the common stock offered by it will be the purchase price of the common stock less discounts or commissions, if any. The selling stockholder reserves the right to accept and, together with its agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of common stock to be made directly or through agents. We will not receive any of the proceeds from this offering. We are required to pay certain fees and expenses incurred by us incident to the registration of the shares.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholder may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholder (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The selling stockholder does not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved. Any profits on the resale of shares by a broker-dealer acting as principal might be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act. Discounts, concessions, commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, attributable to the sale of shares will be borne by the selling stockholder. The selling stockholder may agree to indemnify any agent, dealer or broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving sales of the shares if liabilities are imposed on that person under the Securities Act.

The selling stockholder, broker-dealers, or agents that participate in the sale of the common stock may be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act. Any discounts, commissions, concessions, or profit they earn on any resale of the shares may be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. If the selling stockholder is an underwriter within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, it will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. There is no underwriter or coordinating broker acting in connection with the proposed sale of the resale shares by the selling stockholder and the selling stockholder may not participate in an underwritten offering without our prior written consent.

The selling stockholder may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares owned by it and, if it defaults in the performance of any of its secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares from time to time under this prospectus supplement, or under an amendment to this prospectus supplement under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee, or other successors-in-interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus supplement. The selling stockholder also may transfer the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors-in-interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus supplement.

To the extent required, the shares to be sold, the names of the selling stockholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agents, dealer or underwriter, and any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus supplement.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus includes or incorporates by reference forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as anticipates, intends, plans, seeks, believes, estimates, expects and similar references to future periods. E forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements we make regarding our ability to generate significant cash flow; amounts we will spend in capital expenditures and investments; amounts we will pay under the CityCenter completion guarantee; the opening of strategic resort developments, the estimated costs associated with those developments and the expected components of such developments; and dividends we will receive from MGM China. The foregoing is not a complete list of all forward-looking statements we make.

Forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations and assumptions regarding our business, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks, and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Our actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements. They are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. Therefore, we caution you against relying on any of these forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, regional, national or global political, economic, business, competitive, market, and regulatory conditions and the following:

our substantial indebtedness and significant financial commitments could adversely affect our operations and financial results and impact our ability to satisfy our obligations; current and future economic and credit market conditions could adversely affect our ability to service or refinance our indebtedness and to make planned expenditures and investments;

restrictions and limitations in the agreements governing our senior credit facility and other senior indebtedness could significantly affect our ability to operate our business, as well as significantly affect our liquidity;

significant competition we face with respect to destination travel locations generally and with respect to our peers in the industries in which we compete;

the fact that our businesses are subject to extensive regulation and the cost of compliance or failure to comply with such regulations may adversely affect our business;

the impact on our business of economic and market conditions in the markets in which we operate and in the locations in which our customers reside; restrictions on our ability to have any interest or involvement in gaming businesses in China, Macau, Hong Kong and Taiwan, other than through MGM China;

the ability of the Macau government to terminate MGM Grand Paradise's subconcession under certain circumstances without compensating MGM Grand Paradise or to refuse to grant MGM Grand Paradise an extension of the subconcession, which is scheduled to expire on March 31, 2020;

our ability to build and open our development in Cotai by January 2018;

Table of Contents

the dependence of MGM Macau upon gaming promoters for a significant portion of gaming revenues in Macau;

our ability to recognize our foreign tax credit deferred asset and the variability of the valuation allowance we may apply against such deferred tax asset;

extreme weather conditions or climate change may cause property damage or interrupt business;

the concentration of a majority of our major gaming resorts on the Las Vegas Strip;

the fact that we extend credit to a large portion of our customers and we may not be able to collect gaming receivables;

the potential occurrence of impairments to goodwill, indefinite-lived intangible assets, or long-lived assets which could negatively affect our future profits;

the susceptibility of leisure and business travel, especially travel by air, to global geopolitical events, such as terrorist attacks or acts of war or hostility;

the fact that co-investing in our properties, including our investment in CityCenter, decreases our ability to manage risk; the fact that future construction or development projects will be susceptible to substantial development and construction risks;

the fact that our insurance coverage may not be adequate to cover all possible losses that our properties could suffer, our insurance costs may increase and we may not be able to obtain similar insurance coverage in the future;

the fact that CityCenter has decided to abate the potential for structural collapse of the Harmon Hotel & Spa (the Harmon) in the event of a code-level earthquake by demolishing the building, which exposes us to risks in connection with the demolition process;

the fact that a failure to protect our trademarks could have a negative impact on the value of our brand names and adversely affect our business;

the risks associated with doing business outside of the United States and the impact of any potential violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act or other similar anti-corruption laws;

risks related to pending claims that have been, or future claims that may be brought against us;

the fact that a significant portion of our labor force is covered by collective bargaining agreements;

the sensitivity of our business to energy prices and a rise in energy prices could harm our operating results;

the potential that failure to maintain the integrity of our computer systems and internal customer information could result in damage of reputation and/or subject us to fines, payment of damages, lawsuits or restrictions on our use or transfer of data;

increases in gaming taxes and fees in the jurisdictions in which we operate; and the potential for conflicts of interest to arise because certain of our directors and officers are also directors of MGM China, which is now a publicly traded company listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

The forward-looking statements included or incorporated herein are made only as of the date of this prospectus, any prospectus supplement or as of the date of the documents incorporated by reference. Other factors or events not identified above could also cause our actual results to differ materially from those projected. Most of those factors and events are difficult to predict accurately and are generally beyond our control. A detailed discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results and events to differ materially from such forward-looking statements is included in Part I, Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 in the section entitled "Risk Factors" and as may be included from time to time in our reports filed with the SEC. We undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as may be required by law.

RATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES
