Forward-looking Statements

This material contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including estimates, forecasts, targets and plans. Such forward-looking statements do not represent any guarantee by management of future performance.

In many cases, but not all, we use such words as aim, anticipate, believe, endeavor, estimate, expect, in plan, probability, project, risk, seek, should, strive, target and similar expressions in relation to us or our operations to identify forward-looking statements. You can also identify forward-looking statements by discussions of strategy, plans or intentions. These statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions.

We may not be successful in implementing our business strategies, and management may fail to achieve its targets, for a wide range of possible reasons, including, without limitation: incurrence of significant credit-related costs; declines in the value of our securities portfolio; changes in interest rates; foreign currency fluctuations; decrease in the market liquidity of our assets; revised assumptions or other changes related to our pension plans; a decline in our deferred tax assets; the effect of financial transactions entered into for hedging and other similar purposes; failure to maintain required capital adequacy ratio levels; downgrades in our credit ratings; our ability to avoid reputational harm; our ability to implement our Medium-term Business Plan, realize the synergy effects of One MIZUHO, and implement other strategic initiatives and measures effectively; the effectiveness of our operational, legal and other risk management policies; the effect of changes in general economic conditions in Japan and elsewhere; and changes to applicable laws and regulations.

Further information regarding factors that could affect our financial condition and results of operations is included in Item 3.D. Key Information Risk Factors and Item 5. Operating and Financial Review and Prospects in our most recent Form 20-F filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and our report on Form 6-K furnished to the SEC on December 28, 2017, both of which are available in the Financial Information section of our web page at www.mizuho-fg.com/index.html and also at the SEC's web site at www.sec.gov.

We do not intend to update our forward-looking statements. We are under no obligation, and disclaim any obligation, to update or alter our forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required by the rules of the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

Plan for the Profit Attributable to Owners of Parent Was Achieved

Profit Attributable to Owners of Parent for FY 2017 was JPY 576.5 billion, achieved 104% against the earnings plan of JPY 550.0 billion for FY 2017.

Regarding Consolidated Net Business Profits, while Gross Profits in Customer Groups (the banking and trust banking business) maintained the same level as last fiscal year supported by the improvement in Non-interest Income, Gross Profits in Trading & Others (the banking and trust banking business) decreased mainly due to the business environment inside and outside Japan.

Meanwhile, Reversal in Credit-related Costs and Net Gains related to Stocks due to disposal of ETFs and cross shareholdings contributed to Profit Attributable to Owners of Parent.

The Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio* of 10.15% was maintained. (* Basel III fully-effective basis, excluding Net Unrealized Gains on Other Securities.)

	May 2018	Board of Directors Meeting	Determined dividend for fiscal year 2017 and dividend estimates for fiscal year 2018.

In accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, the Company is to decide the distribution of dividends from surplus, not by a resolution of a general meeting of shareholders, but by a resolution of the Board of Directors, unless otherwise provided for in laws or regulations.

Capital Management Policy:

The Company continues to pursue disciplined capital management policy which maintains the optimal balance between strengthening of stable capital base and steady returns to shareholders.

Process to Determine Executive Appointments

The Nominating Committee plays the role as stated above in the appointment of directors of the Company and the Three Core Companies.

In addition, the appointment of the management team of the Company and the Three Core Companies (i.e., (i) executive officers as defined in the Companies Act of the Company, (ii) executive officers as defined in our internal regulations of the Company with titles, and (iii) executive officers as defined in our internal regulations of the Three Core Companies with titles) are determined by the resolutions of the Board of Directors that are based on the discussions at the Human Resources Review Meeting, which consists of members of the Nominating Committee and the Compensation Committee (all of whom are outside directors) and the Group CEO. In this manner, the Company ensures a highly objective and transparent process to determine executive appointments.

Succession of the Group CEO

The New Group CEO has assumed his office in April this year.

What role did the Nominating Committee play in the succession?

Since 2014 when the Company was transformed into a Company with Three Committees, the Nominating Committee had discussed the succession plan on the Group CEO, and it played an important role in selecting the Group CEO. Specifically, it discussed, among other matters, the personnel requirements for, timing of the succession of and the selection of the next Group CEO, and it was engaged in procedures regarding the Group CEO succession. Each of the members of the Nominating Committee deliberated on the above matters by obtaining a deep understanding of the qualifications, abilities and personalities of the respective candidates through, among other methods, a third-party evaluation by external institutional evaluators, observation of candidates in meetings of various types and offsite meetings, and interviews with candidates.

He has served as Representative Director and Executive Vice President of Nippon Steel Corporation; President (Representative Director) of the Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd.; Chairperson of the Japan Corporate Auditors Association; and Chairperson of the Audit Committee of Japan Post Holdings Co., Ltd. The Company proposes to appoint him as an outside director based on its conclusion that he will be able to significantly contribute to, among others, (i) strengthening the effectiveness of both the decision-making and supervisory functions of the Company's Board of Directors and (ii) the Company's effort to further enhance internal control systems and group governance, from a perspective independent from that of the management, leveraging his extensive experience and deep insight as a top executive, etc.

He has considerable expert knowledge concerning finance and accounting which he gained through his experiences and career, etc., as CFO of Nippon Steel Corporation, Chairperson of the Japan Corporate Auditors Association, and a member of the Audit Committee of the Company.

His/Her Independence

He satisfies the Independence Standards of Outside Directors of MHFG established by the Company.

Activities on the Board of Directors and Committees

By leveraging his extensive experience and deep insight as a top executive, he proactively voiced useful opinions in the discussions on proposals, provided necessary advice from a perspective independent from that of the management, and performed the decision-making functions and management supervisory functions of the Company's Board of Directors, etc. In particular, he proactively made suggestions concerning, among others, the significance of (i) costs and personnel controls to construct a stable income base, (ii) considering fundamental measures by improving productivity, (iii) how profit plans and performance evaluations should be structured and (iv) the area strategy of domestic branches.

Furthermore, as the Chairman of the Audit Committee, he led the committee with respect to implementing the initiatives to enhance audit and supervisory functions on a group basis.

Reason for Selecting Him/Her as a Candidate for Director

He has served as Representative Executive Officer, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer and Director; Representative Executive Officer, Chairman and Director; and Chairman of the Board of Hitachi, Ltd. During that time, he explored how to implement corporate governance in line with global standards and spearheaded bold management reform and governance reform. The Company proposes to appoint him as an outside director based on its conclusion that he will be able to significantly contribute to, among others, (i) strengthening the effectiveness of both the decision-making and supervisory functions of the Company's Board of Directors and (ii) the Company's effort to enhance group governance, from a perspective independent from that of the management, leveraging his extensive experience and deep insight.

His/Her Independence

He satisfies the Independence Standards of Outside Directors of MHFG established by the Company.

The business relationship, etc. between Tokyo Electric Power Company Holdings, Inc., where he serves as the Chairman of the Board of Directors (outside director), and the Group does not affect his independence, for reasons including that (i) the percentage of sales gained through the business with the Group of the consolidated net sales of Tokyo Electric Power Company Holdings, Inc. and (ii) the percentage of gross profits gained through the business with group companies of Tokyo Electric Power Company Holdings, Inc. of the consolidated gross profits of the Company, are less than 1%, respectively.

Activities on the Board of Directors and Committees

By leveraging his extensive experience and deep insight as a top executive, he proactively voiced useful opinions in the discussions on proposals, provided necessary advice from a perspective independent from that of the management, and performed the decision-making functions and management supervisory functions of the Company's Board of Directors, etc. In particular, he proactively made suggestions concerning, among others, the significance of (i) streamlining personnel and improving productivity in light of long-term personnel structures and digitalization and (ii) enhancing the measures for focusing and streamlining areas of the business portfolio strategies.

Furthermore, as the Chairman of the Nominating Committee, he led the committee with respect to decisions on proposals, including proposals for the appointment of directors of the Company, and approvals for the appointment of directors and officers with titles for the Three Core Companies.

Reason for Selecting Him/Her as a Candidate for Director

He has served in positions such as Superintending Prosecutor of the Tokyo High Public Prosecutors Office and Justice of the Supreme Court, and he is currently active as an attorney-at-law. The Company proposes to appoint him as an outside director based on its conclusion that he will be able to significantly contribute to, among others, (i) strengthening the effectiveness of both the decision-making and supervisory functions of the Company's Board of Directors and (ii) the further enhancement of the corporate governance, compliance and risk management system of the Company, from a perspective independent from that of the management, leveraging his extensive experience, deep insight and high level of expertise.

Although he has not previously been engaged in management of a company other than in his career as an outside director and outside audit & supervisory board member, the Company believes he will fulfill the duties of an outside director of the Company appropriately due to the reasons stated above.

His/Her Independence

He satisfies the Independence Standards of Outside Directors of MHFG established by the Company.

The relationship between him, as an attorney-at-law, and the Group does not affect his independence, for reasons including that he or the law office to which he belongs, i.e., Takusyou Sogo Law Office, has not received any money or proprietary benefit from the Group other than the compensation he receives as an outside director of the Company.

Activities on the Board of Directors and Committees

By leveraging his extensive experience, deep insight and high level of expertise as Justice of the Supreme Court, an attorney-at-law, etc., he proactively voiced useful opinions in the discussions on proposals, provided necessary advice from a perspective independent from that of the management, and performed the decision-making functions and management supervisory functions of the Company's Board of Directors, etc. In particular, he proactively made suggestions concerning, among others, the significance of (i) clarifying the authority and responsibility in respect of group management, including the management of costs, (ii) how performance targets and performance evaluations should be structured and (iii) compliance.

Furthermore, as the Chairman of the Compensation Committee, he led the committee with respect to decisions on proposals, including proposals for compensation for each individual director, etc., of the Company, and an executive compensation system, etc., for the Company and the Three Core Companies.

<Oppose> The Board of Directors of the Company opposes all of the Proposals 2 through 6.

The Board of Directors believes that the Company's current corporate governance system enables the Board of Directors to sufficiently fulfill its fiduciary duties to shareholders and enables shareholders to entrust the Board of Directors with the management of the Company without concerns.

Table of Contents

The Group has prepared and implemented the various necessary regulations, including, among others, the Corporate Governance Guidelines, which have been established and published, and which provide for the basic policy, framework, and governing policies of the corporate governance system.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that it is unnecessary to add the proposed new provisions to the Articles of Incorporation.

Table of Contents

Proposal 2: Partial amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (disclosure of compensation paid to individual officers)

1. Details of Proposal

It is proposed that the following provision be added to the Articles of Incorporation:

The Company shall be obliged to disclose annually in its Business Report and Annual Securities Report the amounts and details of compensation for individual directors and each of the disclosed amounts that was evaluated on a Japanese yen basis.

2. Reasons for Proposal

Disclosure of the amount and details of compensation for individual officers is quite important for shareholders who wish to check whether the amount of compensation paid by a company is appropriate from the perspective of maximization of shareholder's interests. In capital markets in major industrialized countries other than Japan, disclosure of compensation for individual officers is a matter of course and has never presented any inconvenience to investors, and equity indexes in such capital markets show high return that far exceeds the return shown by the Nikkei Stock Average in Japan for the past twenty years. In Japan, the real problem does not lie in high amount of compensation for officers but lies in the compensation system that is irrelevant to the medium to long-term shareholder value. If the compensation for individual officers will be disclosed, measurement of cost-effectiveness would become easier. A similar proposal to this one made to the general meeting of HOYA CORPORATION in 2011 was agreed by its shareholders holding 48.47% of the voting shares, and the Company will attract positive attention if it discloses the compensation for individual officers well ahead of its time.

Opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company

<Oppose> The Board of Directors of the Company opposes this proposal.

The Company considers the executive compensation for Directors, Executive Officers and Specialist Officers (Officers unless otherwise expressed) to be one of the most important factors in corporate governance. For such reason, the Compensation Committee exclusively comprised of Outside Directors has established the Mizuho Financial Group Compensation Policy, and determines the amount of compensation for each individual Officer in accordance with such policy, aiming at having the Company's compensation system (i) reflect the management environment and business performance of the Group and (ii) give consideration to improving corporate value and creating value for various stakeholders over the medium to long term.

Table of Contents

Within such policy, the variable compensation for the Officers responsible for business execution is to account for approximately 40% of the total compensation for such Officers, and the variable compensation for each of such Officers is to reflect such factors as the degree of his/her achievement of the annual business plan and is to be paid within the range of 0% to 150% of the standard amount (i.e., the amount to be paid in the case where such Officer achieves 100% of his/her objective). By employing such system, the Company appropriately incentivizes each Officer to exercise his/her designated function to the fullest for the improvement of corporate value. In addition to such reflection of performance levels, in order to align Officers' interests with those of the shareholders, the Company made 50% of the variable compensation amount performance-based stock compensation and adopted a system that enables deferred payments over three years and a decrease or forfeiture of the deferred amount, as a medium to long-term incentive.

With respect to the disclosure of compensation, the Company believes that, in order to fulfill its responsibility to operate for the common benefit of the shareholders, it is more important to show how the compensation system of the Company functions as an incentive for improvement of corporate value than it is to disclose individual compensation amounts, which are nothing more than results. From such perspective, the Company publishes on its website, etc. the basic policy regarding compensation, the compensation system, an outline of compensation, its transparent and objective determination process of compensation, etc., which are contained in the Mizuho Financial Group Compensation Policy mentioned above.

In addition, with respect to the disclosure of compensation for individual Officers, the Company has disclosed in its Annual Securities Report, in accordance with laws and regulations, amounts of individual compensation for Directors and Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act who received JPY 100 million or more in total compensation, including consolidated compensation (if any). Furthermore, the Company has disclosed aggregate amounts of compensation paid to Directors and Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act and the number of such persons. Therefore, the Board of Directors believes that the Company has provided information that enables one to obtain an appropriate understanding of the objectiveness and rationality of compensation amounts and the relationship between performance and compensation amounts.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that it is unnecessary to add the proposed provision to the Articles of Incorporation.

Proposal 3: Partial amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (separation of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and CEO)

1. Details of Proposal

It is proposed that the following provision be added to the Articles of Incorporation:

In principle, the Chairman of the Board of Directors is prohibited from acting concurrently as CEO, and only an outside director shall act as Chairman of the Board of Directors. With regard to an exception in special circumstances that allows such concurrent duties, a written disclosure to shareholders in a convocation notice of a general meeting of shareholders or reference materials for a general meeting of shareholders is necessary explaining why it is in the best interests of shareholders to allow such concurrent duties. In such case, an instructive outside director must be appointed. The role of the instructive outside director shall be determined by the Board of Directors and disclosed to shareholders.

2. Reasons for Proposal

Since a CEO has power over resources within its company and personnel matters, etc. and should be in a position to be subject to closest monitoring, a company should preferably avoid to have the chairman of the board of directors also act as a CEO because it is contrary to the trend that should be globally adopted for the strengthening of corporate governance. Under the current system, it is suspected that the executive employees whose personnel matters, etc. are managed by the Representative Executive Officer, etc. are virtually able to have great influence on choice of information for decision by the Board of Directors and each Committee. However, those are the tasks that should be implemented by the Chairman of the Board of Directors independent from the President, etc., and the Chairman of the Board of Directors is required to spend longer hours administering a company than other outside directors. In North America, the purpose of this proposal is a standard view of researchers of corporate governance and practitioners (in Points to be Checked for Corporate Governance of Board of Directors from Perspective of Shareholders (kabunushi-no shiten ni yoru torishimariyakukai corporate governance checkpoint) in CFA Examination Handbook (CFA juken handbook) (Level II) by Tadashi Ono (Kinzai Institute for Financial Affairs, Inc., 2004, p.177), independence of the chairman of the board of directors is the second check item), and an instructive outside director is a well-known concept.

(Company's Note) The details and reasons for the proposal are as stated in the original text.

Opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company

<Oppose> The Board of Directors of the Company opposes this proposal.

The Board of Directors of the Company established the Corporate Governance Guidelines, which are the high-level regulations superseded only by the Articles of Incorporation, as the guidelines that provide for the basic policy, framework, and governing policies of the corporate governance system, and, as a commitment to all stakeholders, made them publicly available by putting them on the Company's website.

Table of Contents

In the Corporate Governance Guidelines, it is provided that the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall, in principle, be an outside director (or at least a Non-Executive Director) in light of the role of the Board of Directors to supervise the management. Thus, the CEO is not allowed to serve as the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

In fact, after the transformation to a Company with Three Committees, Ms. Ota, an outside director, has served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors, and the CEO has not acted concurrently as the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that it is unnecessary to add the proposed provision to the Articles of Incorporation.

Proposal 4: Partial amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (exercise of voting rights of shares held for strategic reasons)

1. Details of Proposal

It is proposed that the following provision be added to the Articles of Incorporation:

The Company shall instruct its subsidiaries that the Company administers, such as bank subsidiaries and securities companies subsidiaries, in exercising voting rights of shares held for strategic reasons, to exercise their voting rights appropriately by means such as seeking opinions from independent proxy advisers.

2. Reasons for Proposal

As the Group holds equity portfolio of several trillions on a consolidated basis, with respect to continuous shareholding, risk management and value enhancement measures to avoid existing of stock value are necessary. Nevertheless, actions that were strikingly lacking in economic rationality, such as blindly approving the company's proposals presented by a listed company that has continued to have a low ROE ratio over a period of many years, were continuously taken in the course of exercising voting rights of shares held for strategic reasons. Recently, as shown in the establishment of the Stewardship Code by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. and the Financial Services Agency, duty of institutional investors (including banks), as managing trustees of assets, to corporations to be invested in has been specified in a form of a soft law, and the necessity of dialogue between institutional investors and listed companies has been stressed. Internationally, the fact that such reform is being implemented in capital markets in Japan (where a series of unprecedented decisions, including the decision in Murakami Fund case, were given) is highly appreciated. Enhancement of the equity portfolio value should be pursued through the rational exercise of voting rights of shares held for strategic reasons. At the general meeting of shareholders of Mizuho Financial Group, Inc. in 2015, a similar proposal was agreed on by the shareholders holding 34% of the voting shares.

(Company's Note) The details and reasons for the proposal are as stated in the original text.

Opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company

<Oppose> The Board of Directors of the Company opposes this proposal.

With regard to decisions on exercising the voting rights of shares held for strategic reasons by the Company and Core Subsidiaries (*), it is necessary to make comprehensive decisions through discussions with the issuing companies and verification with independent specialized departments, from the following viewpoint.

- Whether the issuing company has established an appropriate governance structure, and whether such company has made appropriate decisions leading to an increase in the medium- to long-term corporate value of such company

- Whether such decision contributes to an increase to the corporate value of the Group.
In particular, with respect to a proposal that may affect corporate value and the shareholders' interests, approval or disapproval is to be decided comprehensively after confirmation of such proposal's purpose and policy for the improvement of the corporate value. The above policy is disclosed in the Corporate Governance Report, and thus far, there has been no irrational exercise of voting rights that is contrary to such policy and impairs the corporate value of the Group. The Group will make continued efforts to ensure that voting rights are exercised appropriately based on such policy. Accordingly, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that it is unnecessary to add the proposed provision to the Articles of Incorporation.

Proposal 5: Partial amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (preparation of a corporate ethics code regarding acts of purchasing sexual services from minors and other similar acts)

1. Details of Proposal

It is proposed that the following provision be added to the Articles of Incorporation:

If the representative of a company that has a business relationship with the Company, such as a loan borrower, engages in anti-social conduct, such as an act of purchasing sexual services from minors, the Company must take measures that are in agreement with social conventions, such as refusing or suspending the provision of loans, and must prepare a corporate ethics code for such purpose.

2. Reasons for Proposal

Despite the fact that Mizuho Bank has been aware that a member of top management of a certain company it is financing, the head office of which is located in Nakano Ward and a major shareholder of which is the founder of a company listed on the First Section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, has been committing illegal acts whereby such person has been purchasing sexual services day and night from nearly 20 women per month for a long period of time through an online dating site, etc., including photographing their genitalia, and has paid fees to intermediaries of the prostitutes, Mizuho Bank openly neglects to address such anti-social conduct and still maintains a business relationship with the borrower. For a listed company that is targeted for investment by international institutional investors, neglecting to address such anti-social conduct is out of the question in light of social conventions and if it is revealed that such company has been excluded by international institutional investors as an investment target, it would likely be to the disadvantage of the existing shareholders of such company. Formal observance of the law is not sufficient for the purpose of compliance; such matter must be in agreement with comprehensive social conventions and social norms and such matter must respond to the demands of society rather than legal compliance (Nobuo Gohara, esq., attorney-at-law and former public prosecutor). If people are only conscious of this standard of compliance, a company neglecting to address such anti-social conduct could be criticized by overseas human rights groups or even be exposed to the risk of paying extensive damages.

(Company's Note) The details and reasons for the proposal are as stated in the original text.

Opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company
<Oppose> The Board of Directors of the Company opposes this proposal.

As described in the overall opinion at the beginning of this section, the Group has appropriately established and implemented the necessary regulations, etc. Accordingly, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that it is unnecessary to add the proposed provision to the Articles of Incorporation.

Proposal 6: Partial amendment to the Articles of Incorporation (creating a platform for dialogue between shareholders and the company by using blockchain)

1. Details of Proposal

It is proposed that the following provision be added to the Articles of Incorporation:

The Company shall create a platform for useful dialogue between shareholders and management by using blockchain or other technologies.

2. Reasons for Proposal

In Japan, people recently started to understand the necessity of dialogue between shareholders and management aimed at increasing medium to long-term shareholder value. However, under the Japanese Companies Act, companies have no legal obligation to pass an advisory shareholder proposal. Therefore, a proposal has to be submitted in the form of an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation. In addition, the anachronistic proposal to restrict the number of proposals that may be submitted by shareholders at one time was submitted by a part of the legal profession (the Eighth Civil Department of the Tokyo District Court, the Civil Affairs Bureau of the Ministry of Justice, scholars specializing in the Companies Act, etc.), who intended to acquire their rights by intentionally making the Companies Act complicated and inscrutable, and due to the ability of parties with vested interests, such as large companies, to strongly conduct lobbying activities. Has there ever been a case where the amount of legislation by Diet members or statements regarding questions submitted by Diet members was restricted? On the other hand, it is possible for blockchain technologies to make revolutionary changes in corporate governance and capital markets and among other things, it is highly possible to create a platform on which the exercise of voting rights by shareholders and the necessity of having dialogue between management and shareholders outside shareholders meetings can be conducted more constructively.

(Company's Note) The details and reasons for the proposal are as stated in the original text.

Opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company

<Oppose> The Board of Directors of the Company opposes this proposal.

The Company has established and published the Disclosure Policy which sets forth, among others, the basic principles on disclosure of information, including IR activities to facilitate constructive dialogue with shareholders, and the framework for the disclosure controls and procedures.

In accordance with the Disclosure Policy, the Company has been making efforts to ensure the fair, timely and appropriate disclosure of information and communication opportunities, such as improving the disclosure materials for investors available on the Company's website and regularly holding presentations for investors.

Table of Contents

In addition, the Company has made the IR Contact Information available on the Company's website in order to address various questions and opinions, and also shares the details thereof with the management. Further, the Company adopted the method to exercise voting rights at general meetings of shareholders not only through postal mail but also through the Internet.

The Company will continue to make efforts to improve interactive dialogue, taking into consideration the diversification of communication tools accompanying the development of technologies. Accordingly, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that it is unnecessary to add the proposed provision to the Articles of Incorporation.

Financial and Economic Environment (For the Fiscal Year ended March 31, 2018)

Reviewing the economic environment over the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018, the global economy has continued on a path of gradual recovery backed by factors such as the rally of the Chinese economy, improvements related to the IT cycle and improvements in business confidence, predominately in major industrialized countries.

In the United States, continued recovery has been underpinned by (i) continued strong consumer spending resulting from improvements in the employment and income environment and wealth effects due to a surge in stock prices and (ii) capital investment that began to increase as a result of expectations over the Trump administration's tax reduction measures. Under such circumstances, the Federal Reserve Board (FRB) pursued an exit strategy from monetary easing whereby, among other measures, the FRB raised interest rates in June 2017, September 2017 and March 2018 and began shrinking its balance sheet in October 2017.

In Europe, despite downward pressure from the further appreciation of Euro, the economy has continued to recover, backed by the continued expansion of consumer spending due to an increase in employment, in addition to the actualization of demand for capital investments that had been put off due to political uncertainty surrounding the presidential election in France. Given these conditions, the European Central Bank (ECB), while leaving key interest rates unchanged, determined in October 2017 to decrease monthly asset purchases by half and steered itself in the direction of pursuing an exit strategy from monetary easing.

In Asia, the Chinese economy remained strong, despite continued sluggishness in capital investment due to tighter financial regulations and policies to control real-estate speculation, supported by such factors as strong consumer spending and an expansion of exports, which were backed by income growth and governmental policies to support the economy adopted in preparation for the National Congress of the Communist Party of China in Fall 2017. The economies of emerging countries continued on a recovery trend, due to such factors as the steadiness of China's economy and expansion of exports.

In Japan, the economy continued on a recovery trend, benefiting from overseas economic expansion and strong domestic demand. Regarding domestic demand, the improvement of the inventory cycle, the rise of capital investment related to the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games and productivity improvements, as well as the implementation of public investment in connection with Japan's economic stimulus measures, served to bolster growth. Consumer spending has maintained its recovery due to the replacement of durable goods and the effect of wage increases especially in small and medium-sized enterprises. Under such circumstances, stock prices trended upward and the exchange rate continued to trend sideways; however, since February 2018, stock prices have entered a correction phase with a stronger yen due to the rise in the long-term interest rates in the United States and concerns regarding the protectionist policies of the Trump administration. On the other hand, long-term interest rates continued to remain low, at around zero percent, under the Bank of Japan's Quantitative and Qualitative Monetary Easing with Yield Curve Control.

As for the future direction of the global economy, recovery is expected to continue to be centered on the United States, but it remains necessary to further monitor downward risks such as the United States' governmental policies, political concerns in Europe, the economic outlook for China and heightening geopolitical risks. As for the future direction of the Japanese economy, it is expected to continue on its gradual recovery path, supported by the effects of government economic measures and growth in consumer spending and capital investment. However, the potential impact of increasing uncertainty in overseas economies on Japan requires monitoring.

Developments and Results of Operations, etc.

Results of Operations for fiscal year 2017

Profit Attributable to Owners of Parent for fiscal year 2017 amounted to JPY 576.5 billion, achieving 104% of the earnings estimate of JPY 550.0 billion, which was determined at the beginning of the fiscal year.

During fiscal year 2017, non-interest income retained the same level as that of the previous fiscal year due to an increase in the solution business-related income from the Customer Groups and an increase in the real estate-related profits in the trust banking business; however, the profits from the bond business decreased primarily due to the domestic and overseas interest rate environments, and the business environment for financial institutions remained difficult due to factors such as the continued negative interest rate policy of the Bank of Japan. Therefore, Consolidated Net Business Profits for fiscal year 2017 decreased by JPY 205.5 billion on a year-on-year basis to JPY 457.8 billion. On the other hand, Profit Attributable to Owners of Parent achieved the plan for the fiscal year due in part to factors such as the gains on reversal of Credit-related Costs and the profit from cross-shareholdings disposal. As a result, the Consolidated Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio as of March 31, 2018 was 12.49%, representing a sufficient level.

MHFG continues to pursue disciplined capital management policy which maintains the optimal balance between strengthening of stable capital base and steady returns to shareholders. As for a policy to return profits to shareholders, MHFG has implemented a steady dividend payout policy setting a dividend payout ratio on a consolidated basis of approximately 30% as a guide for its consideration.

Based on this policy, MHFG has decided to make year-end cash dividend payments of JPY 3.75 per share of Common Stock (resulting in annual cash dividends including interim dividends totaling JPY 7.50 per share for fiscal year 2017, which is the same amount as that for the previous fiscal year) for fiscal year 2017, as predicted in the dividends estimates for fiscal year 2017. The Board of Directors of MHFG has considered thoroughly and decided the above-stated cash dividend payments taking into account our business environment comprehensively such as the financial results for fiscal year 2017 in which Profit Attributable to Owners of Parent achieved earnings estimates, future earnings forecasts, profit base, status of capital adequacy, and domestic and international regulation trends such as the Basel framework.

Medium-term Business Plan

The Group has been promoting its new three-year medium-term business plan, the Progressive Development of One MIZUHO The Path to a Financial Services Consulting Group, formulated for the three (3) years from fiscal year 2016. This plan aims to establish a new business model that we call a financial services consulting group and further develop the One MIZUHO strategy by reinforcing the customer-focused perspective that the Group has promoted thus far and pursuing operational excellence as part of a project to promote greater business improvement and efficiency.

By adding asset management functions and research & consulting functions as new pillars second to the banking, trust banking and securities functions and striving more than ever to provide the best possible and optimal services to customers so as to increase customer satisfaction, the Group aims to become an indispensable partner in the sustainable development of corporate customers and in securing a stable future for individual customers.

With the aim of establishing this new business model, in the medium-term business plan, the Group has set forth five basic policies and ten basic strategies as specific representations of such basic policies in its business strategies, financial strategies and management foundations.

Table of Contents

* Implementation of the One MIZUHO strategy in each geographical area by collaboration of banking, trust banking and securities functions. The business offices independently design and implement the Area strategy. Initiatives in FY 2017

In fiscal year 2017, the second year of the medium-term business plan, the Group adopted Acceleration of the One MIZUHO Strategy by Further Enhancing Customer First (Client-oriented) Business Management and Fundamentally Improving Productivity as its operational policy and has worked together as a Group in furtherance thereof.

First, in order to further promote the evolution of the integrated group-wide operation across banking, trust banking, securities and other business areas to ensure that the business is managed on a customer-first basis, the Group has enhanced its front-line capabilities, implemented prompt decision-making processes, increased the efficiency of group management, etc., and worked to strengthen the non-interest business on a group-wide basis by providing solutions to the issues that customers may face.

Further, with respect to the fulfillment of fiduciary duties¹, in addition to its policies and action plans for each of the group companies regarding the asset management-related business, the Group set and published quantitative key performance indicators (KPI) to confirm the extent to which the fiduciary duties are being fulfilled, and implemented various kinds of customer-focused measures.

Secondly, the Group has promoted operational excellence in order to dramatically improve productivity. With the aim of improving operational efficiency and enhancing service value for customers by raising the sophistication of its operations, the Group has streamlined head office operations and advanced its business process reform through the utilization of digital technologies such as RPA (robotic process automation)² and employee mind-set reforms, etc.

Thirdly, the Group has actively worked on improving innovation. Under a new structure for promoting innovation, which the CDIO (Chief Digital Innovation Officer) is exclusively in charge of, the Group has materialized its initiatives, such as the establishment of Blue Lab Co., Ltd., for the purposes of creating next-generation business models and actual commercialization related businesses, and commencement of AI-based Score Lending³, the first fintech service in Japan, provided by J.Score CO., LTD.

Fourthly, in order to contribute to the sustainable development of society and to create new corporate value, the Group has pursued a CSR initiative regarding environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues. With respect to environmental and social aspects, MHFG issued green bonds, developed a human rights policy in line with international standards and worked on other initiatives. With respect to governance, MHFG became the first Japanese bank holding company for which the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the chairmen of the three legally-required committees are all outside directors, and each of the Three Core Companies⁴ changed its corporate governance system from the Company with Board of Company Auditors structure to the Company with Audit and Supervisory Committee structure.

- 1 Fiduciary duties is a general term for the broad range of various roles and responsibilities that fiduciaries are expected to fulfil when engaging in certain business activities in order to live up to the trust that is placed in them by their customers.
- 2 RPA (robotic process automation) is software that is capable of inputting/processing/collecting/checking data that requires simple judgment that can be utilized for the automation of routine manual tasks.
- 3 AI-based Score Lending is an individual consumer financing service that provides reference values for lending terms, such as the interest rate and borrowing limit, based on the AI-based score level.
- 4 The Three Core Companies are Mizuho Bank, Ltd., Mizuho Trust & Banking Co., Ltd. and Mizuho Securities Co., Ltd.

Issues to be Addressed by the Group

The business environment surrounding financial institutions continues to be difficult, and major structural changes are anticipated. Under these circumstances, the Group will undertake fundamental structural reforms in its business structure and, with a view to ten years from now, the Group will strive to ensure the sustainable growth and continued competitive advantage of the Group.

The Group will utilize remarkable advanced technology in accordance with its concept of open innovation and aims to further develop the One MIZUHO strategy, by, for example, (i) endeavoring to increase Gross Profits through actively pursuing collaborative engagement with other companies, not limited to financial activities, in order to create new business opportunities, and (ii) endeavoring to strengthen cost competitiveness and enhance productivity while striving to optimize organization and staffing, restructure branch strategies and accomplish other related tasks.

In fiscal year 2018, in order to address three material issues, launch and implementation of fundamental structural reforms, achievement of the medium-term business plan and completion of implementation of the next generation IT systems, the Group is focusing its attention on progressively developing the One MIZUHO strategy by implementing changes to the structure and foundations of its business, further integrating the customer first principle into everything the Group members do, and fundamentally increasing productivity, and the Group will work to advance such strategy by placing an emphasis on the following points.

Details of the business strategies of each of the in-house companies and units are as stated under Developments and Results of Operations, etc.

(Increasing the Group's Earning Capacity through Fully Implementing the Customer First Principle)

Through strengthening customer contacts, ensuring awareness of customer needs and accomplishing other related tasks, the Group will work to further develop the One MIZUHO strategy by which group-wide operations are integrated and work to increase the Group's earnings capacity on a group-wide basis by solving the issues that need to be addressed. The Group will also work to fulfill its fiduciary duties* with respect to the asset management-related business and incorporate customers' voices and evaluation in the process of following the business plan to reflect them in its strategies and measures.

(Selecting and Focusing on Certain Areas of Business)

By improving, in the focus areas and the streamline areas, the reasonable allocation of management resources, by which targets and markets are narrowed, the Group will work to make efficient use of the limited management resources and increase the Group's earnings capacity. In the focus areas, the Group will work to expand the area and breadth of risk taking and will commence to strengthen new businesses and growth area businesses.

(Establishment of a Resilient Financial Base)

By capturing signs of changes in the business environment and exercising flexible and effective control over its balance sheets, the Group will seek to optimize risk and return. With respect to the disposal of cross-shareholdings, the Group will work to achieve targets set forth in the medium-term business plan.

In addition, by thoroughly reviewing the business processes through the pursuit of operational excellence and other similar efforts and by reviewing its working style, the Group will reform its cost structure.

(Utilization of Technology and Data)

The Group will strengthen its ability to develop and promote digital innovation strategies across the Group and will promote efforts towards the utilization of technology and data and co-creation of value through collaboration with other companies in each area of productivity enhancement through upgraded business processes, the reform of business foundation and the creation of new businesses.

(Transformation of a Corporate Culture that Encourages the Active Participation of the Workforce to Support a Stronger Mizuho)

The Group will seek to establish and spread the fundamental reform of HR management by promoting, among other matters, HR management that respects employees' individuality, active participation of a diverse workforce, a work-life balance initiative to provide flexible and varied work arrangements, and the health and productivity management initiative. The Group will also proceed with initiatives toward the transformation of its corporate culture, such as mind-set reforms that encourage employees to take on challenges and elimination of inward-facing energy.

Table of Contents

(Completion of Implementation of the Next Generation IT Systems)

As it is the most important and largest systems project, the Group will take all possible measures to complete the implementation of the next-generation IT systems in a safe and steady manner.

In addition to the foregoing efforts, the Group will also continue to endeavor to upgrade the risk appetite framework and strengthen the attitude toward governance and compliance with laws and regulations, including severance of business relations with anti-social elements.

As already announced, Trust & Custody Services Bank, Ltd., which is a consolidated subsidiary of MHFG, has executed a management integration agreement with Japan Trustee Services Bank, Ltd. to the effect that both parties will carry out management integration. The integrated company will aim to be the top trust bank in Japan specializing in asset administration services that meet a wide variety of customer needs regarding asset administration services.

The Group will also continue to consider the possibility of consolidation between MHBK and MHTB.

The Group will, by pursuing a CSR initiative toward addressing social challenges, such as SDGs¹, contribute to the sustainable development of society on a group-wide basis and further promote its corporate values.

In addition, the Group will continue to implement measures to further improve the value of the Mizuho brand by means such as undertaking positive communication with various stakeholders and extending support to the Olympic and Paralympic Games Tokyo 2020².

Our shareholders' continuing support would be greatly appreciated.

(2) Aggregate Compensation for Directors and Executive Officers

The policies concerning determination of the amount of, or the method of calculating, compensation, etc. for officers

MHFG set out the Mizuho Financial Group Compensation Policy as a policy concerning the determination of compensation for each individual director, executive officer and specialist officer (Directors, etc.) of MHFG as well as MHBK, MHTB and MHSC (Three Core Companies).

Executive compensation for MHFG and the Three Core Companies pursuant to such policy aims to function as incentive and compensation for each officer to exercise the designated function to the fullest with respect to striving to realize management with consideration to value creation for various stakeholders and improve corporate value through continuous and stable corporate growth based on our basic management policies under our Corporate Identity.

The overview of the policy is as summarized below. (For more details, please see the webpage of MHFG (<https://www.mizuho-fg.com/company/structure/governance/pdf/compensation.pdf>).

Basic Policy

The basic policy with respect to the determination concerning the individual compensation of Directors, etc., of MHFG and the Three Core Companies is set forth below:

- (1) The executive compensation shall be based on the function and responsibility assigned to and the performance of each of the Directors, etc.
- (2) The executive compensation shall give consideration to improving corporate value and creating value for various stakeholders over the medium to long term.
- (3) The executive compensation shall reflect the management environment and business performance of our group.
- (4) The executive compensation shall enable compensation for securing expert personnel such as professionals with a competitive edge in the market.
- (5) The compensation system and standards shall be reevaluated based on such factors as the economic and social conditions and survey data with respect to management compensation provided by external specialized organizations.
- (6) Regulations and guidelines, etc., concerning executive compensation, both in Japan and overseas, shall be complied with.

Table of ContentsCompensation Determination Process

The compensation is determined by the Compensation Committee which consists completely of outside directors.

1. The Compensation Committee shall determine the determination policy of executive compensation for MHFG and the Three Core Companies and the compensation system. In addition, the Compensation Committee shall determine the compensation for each individual director and executive officer as defined in the Companies Act of MHFG and approve at MHFG the compensation of each individual director of the Three Core Companies.
2. The President & CEO, pursuant to this policy, etc., shall determine the compensation for each executive officer as defined in our internal regulations and specialist officer of MHFG and approve at MHFG the compensation of each individual executive officer and specialist officer of the Three Core Companies, etc.
3. All members of the Compensation Committee shall be appointed from among outside directors (or at least non-executive directors) and the Chairman thereof shall be an outside director.
4. The Compensation Committee, where necessary, may have officers who are not members of the committee such as the President & CEO and outside experts, etc., attend its meetings and request their opinion.

Aggregate amounts of compensation paid to directors and executive officers as defined in the Companies Act

6. Matters Regarding Independent Auditor

(1) Independent Auditor

Name	Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC Designated Partners with Limited Liability Mutsuo Emi, C.P.A. Ryuji Takagi, C.P.A. Junko Kamei, C.P.A. Shinichi Hayashi, C.P.A.
Compensation, etc. for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018	JPY 47 million
Other	1. The Audit Committee reviewed, based on the performance of duties by the Independent Auditor in previous years pursuant to the auditing plan, whether (i) the items and structure of the auditing plan for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018 were such that they appropriately corresponded to the risk assessments, and (ii) the estimate of the compensation for the audit had been prepared based on the auditing hours required to ensure effective, efficient and proper auditing quality. As a result thereof, the Audit Committee determined that the amount of compensation for the audit was reasonable, and the Audit Committee gave the consent set forth in Article 399, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. 2. MHFG paid consideration to the Independent Auditor for the advisory services and other services related to the U.S. GAAP, which are not included among the services set forth in Article 2, Paragraph 1 of the Certified Public Accountant Act (non-audit services).

(Notes)

1. Fractions are rounded down.

2. The audit contract between MHFG and the Independent Auditor does not separate the compensation for the audit under the Companies Act from the compensation for the audit under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act. Moreover, it is practically impossible to separate the two. Accordingly, the above amount is the total of such compensation.

3. The total amount of cash and other proprietary benefits to be paid to the Independent Auditor of MHFG by MHFG, its majority-owned consolidated subsidiaries and its other consolidated subsidiaries is JPY 4,137 million.

If the amounts to be paid under the audit contract concluded with the Independent Auditor by MHFG, its majority-owned consolidated subsidiaries and its other consolidated subsidiaries have not yet been determined, approximate amounts are used for the calculations.

Summary of the operational status of the Structure for Ensuring Appropriate Conduct of Operations (Internal Control System)

(1) Risk management structure

MHFG ensures the soundness of its capital by allocating risk capital to its subsidiaries, etc., to control risk within the limits set for each company. In addition, MHFG regularly monitors the manner in which risk capital is used and reports to the Board of Directors, etc.

Business Policy Committees, such as the Risk Management Committee, comprehensively coordinate and conduct discussions, and report to the Board of Directors, etc., periodically and as necessary.

The Crisis Management Office has been established within the Strategic Planning Group as a section specializing in the supervision of business continuity management. In addition, for the purposes of uniform maintenance and improvement of the Group's business continuity management system, the Group's development policies and plan are formulated each fiscal year taking into account the social environment, risk changes and other factors. The Business Continuity Management Committee periodically follows up on the progress of the development plan and reports to the Board of Directors, etc. In addition, the Group continuously implements the Group's joint training and drills, etc. and through such training and drills, etc., works on improvement of the effectiveness of the business continuity management system of the entire Group.

In conjunction with the introduction of the In-house Company System, MHFG has strengthened autonomous control, which is one of the three lines of defense, and has established and operated a structure in which risk monitoring and compliance associated with business operations is managed and integrated with its businesses by each in-house company, unit, etc.

MHFG centrally captures and manages the status of risk and business continuity management of the core group companies by receiving reports on such status, etc., from the core group companies and informing the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee, etc., of such reports. The risk and business continuity management of subsidiaries, etc., other than the core group companies, is managed through the core group companies.

(2) Compliance structure

Every year, MHFG develops and implements compliance programs, including various arrangements, training and checks, etc., related to compliance for the implementation of specific plans for complete compliance and additionally, manages the progress of and makes necessary amendments to such plans.

MHFG's activities against anti-social elements are conducted as part of its compliance structure. MHFG dedicates itself to severing relations with anti-social elements as an important policy of the Group when designing and implementing the specific plans for complete compliance above.

The Compliance Committee, etc., discuss and coordinate issues concerning compliance, including the compliance programs, and report to the Board of Directors, etc., periodically and as necessary.

MHFG centrally captures and manages the compliance status of the core group companies by receiving reports on the status of compliance management, etc., from the core group companies and informing the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee, etc., of such reports. The compliance status of subsidiaries, etc., other than the core group companies, is managed through the core group companies.

(3) Execution of duties by Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act

MHFG carries out the safekeeping and management of material documents, such as the minutes of the Executive Management Committee meetings and other various committee meetings and materials related thereto, as well as ringisho (or approval documents) and reports, pursuant to certain rules. MHFG establishes and follows up on specific plans for information management, including training and checks, and reports to the Board of Directors, etc. with respect to the status of information management, etc.

MHFG has adopted a structure of Company with Three Committees for the purpose of securing the effectiveness of corporate governance and supervision of the management, and enabling the management to make swift and flexible decisions and to realize expeditious corporate management by the Board of Directors delegating decisions on business execution.

The in-house company system, which is a management structure based on customer segments that aims to promptly conduct the banking, trust banking, securities, asset management and think tank functions, etc., was introduced.

With an aim to balance its risk-return through the integrated group-wide operation of business strategies, financial strategies and risk controls, the Group introduced the risk appetite framework, under which, the Group determines its business strategies and measures as well as its resource allocation and profit plans based on Mizuho's risk appetite that is defined as the level and type of risk management the Group is willing to assume in order to realize its business and financial strategies, and the Group monitors the operation status.

Table of Contents

MHFG has determined the matters to be resolved by or reported to the Board of Directors, assignment of each organization, decision-making authority, etc. In addition, the Executive Management Committee and the Business Policy Committees were established and thus, MHFG ensures that Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act execute their duties efficiently on a company-wide basis. In order to improve the effectiveness of decision-making processes through simplification and increase efficiency, the integration and abolition of meetings, including those of the Business Policy Committees, etc., were resolved.

(4) Group management administration structure

Integrated group management is ensured by the adoption of the Mizuho Code of Conduct by each group company and the implementation of management based on the common concept of the Group, Mizuho's Corporate Identity, of the core group companies that are directly administered by MHFG and of subsidiaries, etc., other than the core group companies that are administered through the core group companies.

Pursuant to the Group Management Administration Regulations, MHFG received application for approval from the core group companies on material matters concerning the entire Group and received reports on matters compatible thereto.

With respect to risk management, compliance management and internal audit, MHFG received reports periodically and as necessary, and reported such reports to the Board of Directors, etc. MHFG also gave appropriate instructions with respect to the risk management, compliance management and internal audit.

MHBK, MHTB and MHSC were transformed into Companies with Audit and Supervisory Committees to establish a system with a strong group governance structure in the Group for the following reasons.

(1) It is a structure that fits well with the Nominating Committee and Compensation Committee of MHFG, which is a holding company, and it is possible to secure appropriateness and fairness on a group-wide basis for matters such as director appointments and compensation.

(2) Outside directors fulfill important roles and through enhancing supervisory functions and securing the appropriateness, fairness, and swiftness of decision-making, it is possible to strengthen the internal control systems of the corporate group.

Table of Contents

(3) Through performing organizational audits in MHFG, by utilizing the Internal Audit Group, it is possible to enhance systems for coordination on a group-wide basis.

(5) Execution of duties by Audit Committee

The Audit Committee consists of two Internal Non-Executive Directors and three Outside Directors, and the two Internal Non-Executive Directors are appointed as full-time members of the Audit Committee. The full-time members of the Audit Committee strive to ensure the effectiveness of the Audit Committee's activities by attendance at important meetings, inspection of relevant documents and collection of reports from Directors, Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act and employees of MHFG as well as directors, corporate auditors, or other persons equivalent thereto and employees of MHFG's subsidiaries, etc.

The Audit Committee periodically receives reports from the Executive Officers defined in the Companies Act, etc., on, among other things, the status of the execution of duties, including administration of group companies, and takes the opportunity to exchange opinions, etc., mainly from an internal control perspective. The Audit Committee, after confirming the effectiveness of the internal control system, consented to the submission of a proposal to the Board of Directors concerning annual modification of the internal control system.

Above all, with respect to internal audits, the Audit Committee has the Head of Internal Audit Group periodically attend the meetings of the Audit Committee to receive reports on, among other things, the status of internal audits, including those of group companies, and give specific instructions whenever necessary. Further, it approves the basic internal auditing plan.

In order to seek close coordination with the audit and supervisory committee members and the corporate auditors of subsidiaries, etc., the Audit Committee and members of the Audit Committee periodically and as necessary take the opportunity to exchange opinions, etc.

In addition, the Audit Committee has Independent Auditors periodically attend the meetings of the Audit Committee to receive reports on auditing plans, the status of audits and audit results, etc., and to discuss risk assessments, etc.

Through the in-house training and by distributing information on the intranet, MHFG ensures that employees, etc., are well informed that employees, etc., who find any problems concerning compliance and contact the compliance hotline or report to the full-time members of the Audit Committee, shall not be treated disadvantageously due to any such contact or report.

Table of Contents

MHFG has established the Audit Committee Office as a division responsible for assisting in the duties of the Audit Committee and has assigned thereto employees who are not subject to the chain of command structure of Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act. In order to ensure the independence of the employees assigned to the Audit Committee Office, from Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act, the prior consent of the Audit Committee is obtained with respect to personnel changes relating to employees assigned to and the budget of the Audit Committee Office, etc.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. The purpose of an audit of the consolidated financial statements is not to express an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control, but in making these risk assessments the auditor considers internal controls relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position and results of operations of the Mizuho Financial Group, Inc. and consolidated subsidiaries, applicable to the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Conflicts of Interest

We have no interest in the Company which should be disclosed in compliance with the Certified Public Accountants Act.

Audit Report

The Audit Committee audited the performance of duties of the Directors and the Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act of the Company during the 16th fiscal year from April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018 and hereby reports the auditing method and the results thereof as follows:

1. Auditing Method and Details Thereof

The Audit Committee received from the Directors and the Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act, employees and other related persons reports on the content of resolutions made by the Board of Directors regarding the matters as enumerated in (b) through (e) of Article 416, Paragraph 1, Item (i) of the Companies Act, and the status of (i) the establishment of systems that have been developed in compliance of such resolutions (internal control system) and (ii) the management thereof and, when necessary, requested explanations regarding such reports and expressed its opinions. In addition, in accordance with the auditing policy established by the Audit Committee and the assignment of the duties of each member of the Audit Committee and other related matters, the Audit Committee, working closely with the Internal Audit Group, attended important meetings, received from the Directors, the Executive Officers as defined in the Companies Act and other related persons reports on the matters regarding the performance of their duties and, when necessary, requested explanations regarding such reports, inspected important authorized documents and associated information, and examined the business and financial position of the Company. As for the subsidiaries of the Company, the Audit Committee has shared information with the directors and corporate auditors and other related persons of the subsidiaries and, when necessary, received reports from the subsidiaries regarding their businesses. Based on the foregoing method, we examined the Business Report and the supplementary schedules for this fiscal year.

In addition, the Audit Committee monitored and examined whether the independent auditors maintain their independence and carry out audits in an appropriate manner. The Audit Committee received from the independent auditors reports on the performance of their duties and, when necessary, requested explanations regarding those reports. The Audit Committee also received notification from the independent auditors regarding the Structure for ensuring appropriate execution of the duties of the independent auditors (as enumerated in each Item of Article 131 of the Company Calculation Regulations). When necessary, the Audit Committee requested explanations on such notification. Based on the foregoing method, the Audit Committee reviewed the consolidated financial statements for this fiscal year (consolidated balance sheet, consolidated statement of income, consolidated statement of changes in net assets and notes to consolidated financial statements), and the non-consolidated financial statements (non-consolidated balance sheet, non-consolidated statement of income, non-consolidated statement of changes in net assets and notes to non-consolidated financial statements) and supplementary schedules thereto.

2. Audit Results

(1) Audit Results on the Business Report, etc.

A.

In our opinion, the Business Report and the supplementary schedules fairly represent the Company's condition in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan as well as the Articles of Incorporation of the Company.
