ABILITY INC.

On March 17, 2019, the Israeli Ministry of Defense (the "MOD") informed Ability, Inc. (the "Company") that it has ordered the suspension of the licenses granted to its Israeli subsidiary, Ability Security Systems Ltd. under the Israeli Defense Export Control Law, 2007.

In addition, on March 20, 2019 the MOD decided to suspend the licenses which were granted to Ability Security Systems Ltd and to Ability Computer & Software Industries Ltd (another Israeli subsidiary of the Company) under the Order for the Supervision of Goods and Services (Engagement in Encryption Items), 1974.

The abovementioned decisions arose in the course of an investigation which is ongoing, the details of which are subject to a gag order. On March 26, 2019, the MOD made public the existence of the investigation and the suspensions.

The Company is reviewing the decisions of the MOD and has limited information about the reasons for the MOD decisions and the investigation.

Based upon the limited information available to the Company at present, the Company believes that the decisions of the MOD will have a limited impact on future orders.
