On August 31, 2015, Avra Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a definitive Joint Venture Agreement (the “Agreement”) with Mango Pay SRL (“Mango Pay”) to provide their customers with the ability to purchase digital currency, specifically bitcoin. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, Mango Pay will handle the day-to-day caretaking and operational requirements of the machines and will exclusively use the services of the Company for provision of bitcoin through their network of kiosks for a period of one (1) year. At the conclusion of each month, both the Company and Mango Pay will be entitled to 50% of the transaction revenue from the previous month.

The parties have now completed the programming and development enabling the Mango Terminals with digital currency solutions. The Company's platform is now also available for integration with other kiosk and payment terminal operators worldwide. The Company has begun beta tested prior to a full public launch.
