JA Solar Announces Executive Management Changes

Shanghai, June 30, 2009 -- JA Solar Holdings Co., Ltd. (Nasdaq:JASO), a leading manufacturer of high-performance solar products, today announced several changes in its executive management team to better position the company for continued growth.

Mr. Baofang Jin, JA Solar's co-founder and chairman of the board since the company's inception, has been named executive chairman and will assume additional responsibilities within the senior management team. Mr. Samuel Yang will remain as chief executive officer and will work closely with Mr. Jin to ensure the new management structure will be effectively implemented.

Additionally, Dr. Elmer Hsu, chief operating officer and director, announced his plan for retirement, effective immediately. Mr. Jian Xie, secretary of the board of directors, has been named vice president of sales and will act as acting chief operating officer until a replacement is found. "All of us at JA Solar want to thank Elmer for his service to the company and we wish him well," said Samuel Yang, CEO.

Also, Mr. Daniel Lui will leave his current position as chief strategy officer to become managing director of US operations.

Mr. Ray Wilson will leave his current position as vice president, sales to become managing director of European operations.

Mr. Jin has extensive management experience in the solar industry and has been the chairman and chief executive officer of Jinglong Group, JA Solar's largest shareholder, since 2003. "As one of the pioneers of China's solar industry and a founder of the company, Mr. Jin has demonstrated his further commitment to JA Solar by assuming this new executive leadership role," said Samuel Yang, CEO. "With his deep knowledge of the industry and history with the company, I believe the management team will help the company realize its full potential and achieve stronger operational results."

"I am very excited to take on this new executive role," said Mr. Jin. "Samuel and I have worked as a team for many years and we share the same vision for JA Solar's growth. I look forward to working with the team more closely and helping to continue our role as a leader in the solar industry," he said.
