Stewart Information Services Confirms Receipt of Notice of Nominations from Bulldog Investors

No Stockholder Action Required at this Time

HOUSTON, February 26, 2015 -- Stewart Information Services Corp. (NYSE: STC) (“Stewart”), a leading provider of real estate services, including global residential and commercial title insurance, escrow and settlement services, lender services, underwriting, specialty insurance and other solutions that facilitate successful real estate transactions, today confirmed that Bulldog Investors, LLC (“Bulldog”) submitted to the Company a notice of nomination of five director candidates to stand for election to the Stewart Board of Directors at the Company’s 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Stewart stockholders are not required to take any action at this time. The Company will review the notice from Bulldog to ensure it complies with the Company’s governing documents and applicable law, and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of Stewart’s Board of Directors will consider the nominations in due course. The Company will present its recommendation with respect to the election of directors in its proxy statement to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Stewart issued the following statement:

Creating value for all stockholders remains the highest priority at Stewart, and we welcome input toward achieving this goal. Members of Stewart’s management team and Board have had discussions with Phil Goldstein, a principal of Bulldog, and we will seek to continue the dialogue to better understand his views. Phil Goldstein has stated that he is focused on selling the Company and is now attempting to take control of the Stewart Board to advance his personal interests. Stewart’s Board and management team have a proven record of taking decisive actions to create value for all stockholders, and will continue its focus to do so.

Stewart’s Board and management team maintain open, constructive communications with stockholders. Last year, in direct response to feedback from stockholders, Stewart added two new independent directors to our Board, began quarterly earnings calls, and committed to cost cutting and capital return measures.

Over the past three years, Stewart has aggressively transformed its business, and we are making strong progress against our strategic initiatives, as evidenced by our recently announced fourth quarter 2014 results. During the fourth quarter, we achieved in excess of $10 million of annualized savings toward our target of $25 million, and we remain on track to achieve the full amount by the end of 2015. As a result of our focus on margin improvement, title pre-tax margins for 2014 of 11.1% reflect more than 160 bps improvement over 2012 margins. During the past year, we also completed several acquisitions which have significantly enhanced Stewart’s competitiveness in providing services all along the continuum of mortgage origination, servicing and support, as well as greatly expanded our ability to provide centralized title services. Our mortgage services business is now growing and profitable, having significant acquisition-driven revenue expansion and achieving $5 million in ongoing cost savings in 2014. As was further discussed in our earnings release, we have made significant progress in transforming the business to accelerate our growth and profitability.

Given the continued progress in our business, we began our share repurchase program earlier than previously expected, and during 2014 acquired $22.1 million worth of shares against our target of $70 million. Further highlighting the solid progress we have made toward transforming Stewart, we announced on February 25, 2015 that the Stewart Board approved an increase in the Company's cash dividend to $1.00 per share to be paid quarterly at a rate of $0.25 per share beginning in the second quarter of this year. We believe these moves reflect the Board's confidence in Stewart and the Company's strategy, and demonstrate our commitment to returning meaningful amounts of capital to stockholders on a regular basis.

The Board will continue to act in the best interest of stockholders with the goal of enhancing value for all stockholders.
