NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Entravision Communications Corporation (the "Company") is unable to file, without unreasonable effort or expense, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 (the "Form 10-K") by March 16, 2018, the original due date for such filing.

As a result of the Company's expanding business operations and geographical scope, primarily related to the acquisition of 100% of the stock of several entities collectively doing business as Headway, the Company has experienced a significant increase in the volume of complex accounting matters and the number of control activities necessary to properly present consolidated results. These issues have caused unexpected delays in the preparation of the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017 and Company management has identified a material weakness in its internal control over financial reporting with respect thereto.

On March 14, 2018, the Company issued a press release announcing its financial results for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2017, which press release includes a comparison to its results of operations from the corresponding periods in the last fiscal year. The press release was furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to the Company's Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on March 14, 2018. Grant Thornton LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, has advised Company management that it does not believe the matters discussed in Part III of this Form 12b-25 Notification will result in any material changes in the Form 10-K to the financial results set forth in such press release.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 Notification contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that involve risks and uncertainties, including statements regarding the Company's anticipated results of operations, identified material weaknesses and management's assessment of internal control over financial reporting; the Company's intention to file its Form 10-K on or before the fifteenth day following its prescribed due date; and the completion of matters necessary to permit filing by such extension deadline. There can be no assurance that these forward-looking statements will be achieved, and actual results could differ materially from those suggested by such forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on information available at the time those statements are made and/or management's good faith belief as of that time with respect to future events, and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual performance or results to differ materially from those expressed in or suggested by the forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, that the Company's results for the fourth quarter and full-year ended December 31, 2017 are subject to change pending the completion of the audit of its financial statements for fiscal year 2017, and the existence and identification of control deficiencies, including disclosure controls or internal control over financial reporting, and any impact of such control deficiencies and associated costs in remediating those control deficiencies, as well as those risks and uncertainties described in the sections entitled “Risk Factors” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in the Company’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC and similar disclosures in subsequent periodic and current reports filed from time to time with the SEC. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. Except as required by law, the Company does not intend, and undertakes no obligation, to update this information to reflect future events or circumstances.
