In December, 2002, the Board of Directors of First Pacific Company Limited (First Pacific), which beneficially owns a significant percentage of the common shares of Philippine Long Distance Telephone Co. (PLDT), announced the appointment of Ernst & Young following the resignation of PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) as First Pacific 's external auditors. According to PwC, their decision was premised on the fact that they were not directly responsible for the audit of a certain significant and material subsidiary of First Pacific.

In line with the First Pacific Group 's effort to streamline audit process and improve audit efficiency and communications, Joaquin Cunanan & Co. (JCC), a member firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers, has resigned as the external auditor of PLDT and Smart Communications, Inc. (Smart) effective February 19, 2003, this being the date of PLDT 's first Audit Committee meeting of 2003.

The respective Audit Committees of PLDT and Smart, have recommended the engagement of SyCip Gorres Velayo & Co. (SGV), a member practice of Ernst & Young Global, as the new external auditors to audit the financial statements of PLDT and Smart for the year ended December 31, 2002. Smart is a significant, material and wholly-owned subsidiary of PLDT.

JCC, as the principal external auditor of the PLDT Group for the financial statements ended December 31, 1999 to 2001, expressed an unqualified opinion on the consolidated financial statements of PLDT on those years. SGV was the principal external auditor of the PLDT Group until the appointment of JCC in 1999.

Preliminary and unaudited financial results and condition of the PLDT Group are expected to be released as planned on February 26, 2003 after the Board of Directors meeting scheduled on the same day. Final audited financial results and condition will be released after the Board of Directors meeting of PLDT scheduled on March 25, 2003.
