ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

Concurrent with the execution of the Purchase Agreement, the Lehman (Cayman Islands) entered into a Shareholders Agreement (the "Shareholders Agreement") with the Company, Berggruen Holdings North America Ltd. and Marlin Equities II, LLC (together with Berggruen Holdings North America Ltd., the "Sponsors") and the other equity holders of GLG (including Lehman (Cayman Islands) (the "GLG Shareowners"). The Shareholders Agreement restricts the GLG Shareowners, certain additional entities (the "Green Transferees"), which may be made a party to the agreement following a sale of equity interests in GLG by Jonathan Green and the Green GLG Trust, and their permitted transferees from the direct or indirect sale or transfer of their equity interests in the Company or its subsidiaries for periods of up to four years after completion of the acquisition. The transfer restrictions applicable to Lehman (Cayman Islands) are described below. In addition, the Shareholders Agreement provides registration rights for the GLG Shareowners, the Green Transferees and the Sponsors, which are described more below. On August 16, 2007, Istithmar (PJSC) and Sal. Oppenheim jr. & Cie. S.C.A., in connection with the purchase of certain shares from Mr. Green and the Green GLG Trust, entered into an agreement to be bound by the Shareholders Agreement as Green Transferees. A copy of the Shareholders Agreement is attached as Exhibit B to this Schedule 13D.

Transfer Restrictions

Pursuant to the Shareholders Agreement, Lehman (Cayman Islands) and its permitted transferees will be prohibited from selling or transferring any of the Common Stock it owns for one year after the closing of the Acquisition, except to affiliates and charitable institutions, which are referred to as "permitted transferees." Lehman (Cayman Islands) and its permitted transferees may sell or transfer up to 25% of the Common Stock it owned immediately following the closing of the Acquisition during the year beginning on the first anniversary of the closing of the Acquisition and up to 50% of the Common Stock it owned immediately following the closing of the Acquisition (plus the unused amount of the 25% cap from the prior year, if any) during the year beginning on the second anniversary of the closing of the Acquisition. Thereafter, Lehman (Cayman Islands) and its permitted transferees may transfer or sell all of the Common Stock it owns pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), in a registered public offering or in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. These transfer restrictions may be waived by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the board of directors of the Company, provided that (i) prior to the first anniversary of the closing of the Acquisition, any waiver will be preconditioned on a pro rata release of all GLG Shareowners, unless such waiver is consented to by each GLG Shareowner owning registrable securities (as defined below) representing 5% or more of the Company's voting securities and (ii) after the first anniversary of the closing of the Acquisition, a waiver with respect to any GLG Shareowners owning registrable securities (as defined below) representing 5% or more of the Company's voting securities will be preconditioned on a pro rata release of all GLG Shareowners owning such an amount of registrable securities still subject to the transfer restrictions, unless such waiver is consented to by each such GLG Shareowner.

Registration Rights

Each of the GLG Shareowners, the Green Transferees and the Sponsors will have certain registration rights with respect to their Common Stock owned by such shareholder immediately following the closing of the Acquisition (or securities convertible into, exchangeable for or exercisable for such shares of the Common Stock (other than the Class B Non-Voting Ordinary Shares of FA Sub 2 Limited)) ("registrable securities") under the Shareholders Agreement as described below. These registration rights terminate as to each GLG Shareowner as soon as all registrable securities held by that shareholder become freely tradeable by the GLG Shareowner pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act.

Edgar Filing: GLG Partners, Inc. - Form SC 13D

Demand Registration Rights. Any of the GLG Shareowners, the Green Transferees or the Sponsors who, together with permitted transferees, holds 5% or more of the Company's total voting securities may demand registration of its registrable securities under the Securities Act at any time after the first anniversary of the closing of the Acquisition.

For purposes of the registration rights provisions of the Shareholders Agreement, the total voting securities of the Company will be the number of its issued and outstanding voting securities immediately following the closing of the acquisition, and the number of voting securities held by a GLG Shareowner, a Green Transferee or the Sponsors will include only those securities owned by such shareholder immediately following the closing of the acquisition that are voting securities of the Company (or convertible into, exchangeable for or exercisable for voting securities of the Company), but will exclude securities sold by such shareholder prior to the date of the demand for registration.

Each of the GLG Shareowners, the Green Transferees and the Sponsors that is eligible to demand registration may demand a total of two demand registrations. The Company must use reasonable best efforts to effect such registration as soon as practicable. However, it may postpone such registration to prevent the disclosure of material, non-public information that it needs to keep confidential and to give effect to timing issues related to prior registrations. The Company may also cut back the number of shares covered by a demand registration statement if an underwriter or investment bank advises the Company that inclusion of all securities in the registration statement would adversely affect marketability of the securities sought to be sold.

Piggyback Registration Rights. Any of the GLG Shareowners, the Green Transferees or the Sponsors who, together with permitted transferees, holds 1% or more of the Company's issued and outstanding voting securities immediately following the closing of the Acquisition will have piggyback registration rights that allow the shareholder to include its registrable securities in any public offering of the Company's equity securities initiated by the Company whenever the Company proposes to register any of its equity securities under the Securities Act (except for registrations on Form S-8 or Form S-4), either for its own account or for the account of others, and including in connection with a demand registration (as described above). The calculation of the percentage ownership of equity securities of the Company held by an eligible shareholder and the cut-back provisions in connection with a piggyback registration are the same as for a demand registration described above.

Shelf Registration Rights. Any of the GLG Shareowners, the Green Transferees or the Sponsors who, together with permitted transferees, holds 10% or more of the Company's issued and outstanding voting securities immediately following the closing of the Acquisition may demand a shelf registration of its registrable securities on Form S-3 under the Securities Act at any time after the Company is eligible to file a shelf registration statement on Form S-3. The calculation of the percentage ownership of equity securities of the Company held by an eligible shareholder in connection with a shelf registration is the same as for a demand registration described above.

Lehman (Cayman Islands) (if it is an affiliate of the Company) and each of Noam Gottesman, Emmanuel Roman and Pierre Lagrange (the Principals) may demand such number of shelf registrations as is necessary to sell all of its or his registrable securities. The Company must use reasonable best efforts to keep the shelf registration effective for two years or until all the shareholders' securities registered thereunder have been sold, whichever is earlier. The Company has the right to suspend the shelf registration to prevent the disclosure of material, non-public information which it needs to keep confidential.

The shares of Common Stock held by LBI are not subject to the Shareholders Agreement.
