Mullery, as Farmer Mac's new Senior Vice President - General Counsel and Secretary. Mr. Oslick will continue to serve as an employee of Farmer Mac in an advisory role through the end of 2012.

A press release dated June 13, 2012 describing these events in more detail is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.

(e) Adoption of Executive Officer Severance Plan

On June 7, 2012, the Board of Directors of Farmer Mac adopted an Executive Officer Severance Plan (the "Plan"). The primary purpose of the Plan is to provide executive officers who are in a position to contribute materially to the success of Farmer Mac with reasonable compensation in the event of their termination of employment with Farmer Mac. The Plan is effective June 30, 2012, and the initial participants in the Plan will be Timothy L. Buzby (Senior Vice President - Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer) and Tom D. Stenson (Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer).

Participation in the Plan is limited to certain executive officers of Farmer Mac who are designated by the Plan Administrator and approved by the Compensation Committee, and who are not parties to individual employment agreements with Farmer Mac. To become a participant in the Plan (a "Participant"), the designated executive officers must execute a participation agreement ("Participation Agreement"), which sets forth the conditions for receipt of payments and benefits under the Plan. The Participation Agreement includes (i) an agreement not to compete for a period of one year following termination of employment; (ii) an agreement not to use confidential or proprietary information; (iii) an agreement not to solicit, for a period of one year following termination of employment, certain employees of Farmer Mac to engage in certain activity; (iv) an agreement not to solicit for employment any current or former Farmer Mac employee, unless such employee has ceased to be employed by Farmer Mac for at least six months and is not subject to non-compete covenants similar to those contained in the Participation Agreement; (v) an agreement not to solicit customers for a period of one year following termination of employment; and (vi) an agreement not to disparage Farmer Mac following termination of employment.

Under the Plan, in the event of termination by Farmer Mac other than for Cause or by the Participant after an Adverse Change in Conditions of Employment, upon execution of a release, the Participant will be entitled to: (i) an amount equal to the sum of the Participant's annual base salary and annual target bonus, payable in one lump sum; (ii) for 12 months, (a) Farmer Mac's coverage of the cost of premiums for the Participant and the Participant's eligible dependents under the Consolidated Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended ("COBRA"), subject to the Participant's continued compliance with the terms of the Participation Agreement, and (b) Farmer Mac's permission to participate, at Farmer Mac's cost, in all Farmer Mac-sponsored life, accidental death and disability insurance benefit plans or programs in which the Participant was participating at the time of termination to the extent permitted by the plans or programs and applicable law; and (iii) payment of accrued compensation, including base salary, accrued vacation and annual incentive compensation calculated at the annual target bonus, prorated for the period of time worked during the year. The payments described in (i), (ii) and (iii) above will be in lieu of any other severance payments to Participants.

Upon termination of the Participant's employment due to Disability, Farmer Mac will pay, during the 12 months following termination, the difference between the Participant's base salary and the amount of disability insurance payments received by the Participant under Farmer Mac's long-term disability policy. In the event the Participant dies after the commencement of such payments, the balance will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary designation provisions of the Plan.

Participants are not required to mitigate amounts of payments by seeking employment or otherwise, and payments under the Plan will not be offset by amounts payable from new employment with respect to services rendered during the 12 months following termination of employment with Farmer Mac. However, the Participant's eligibility for the continuation of COBRA and participation in Farmer Mac-sponsored life, accidental death and disability insurance benefit plans or programs will immediately cease upon the start of the new employment.

Amounts payable to any Participant under the Plan are subject to any recoupment or clawback policy as may be implemented and interpreted by Farmer Mac, including those implemented to comply with the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, or any other applicable law and regulation.

This description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Plan and the Participation Agreement. The Plan is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference. The Participation Agreement is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated by reference. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this report have the meanings provided in the Plan.
