Internet Gold Acquires 51% of Yahala, Leading Israeli Arab-Language Portal

Wednesday March 22, 1:02 am ET

PETACH TIKVA, Israel, March 22 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Internet Gold, (Nasdaq NMS: IGLD - News) today announced that its fully-owned subsidiary GoldMind has signed an agreement to acquire 51% of the shares of Yahala Ltd., the operator of yahala.co.il, one of Israel's largest Arab-language portals. According to the agreement, Nizar Hori, Yahala's founder, will continue to hold Yahala's remaining shares and serve as its CEO, while Eli Holtzman, Internet Gold's CEO, will become Yahala's Chairman.

Yahala is a popular Internet portal that offers a rich variety of content and services to Israel's Arab-speaking sector, a segment that accounts for approximately 20% of Israel's population or 1.5 million individuals. Penetration of Internet access into the Arabic sector has been significantly lower than that of the Hebrew-speaking sector, but has been growing significantly during the past 12 months.

Internet Gold intends to integrate Yahala into its Internet Smile.Media Group with the goal of taking full advantage of the potential operating synergies between Yahala and its other portals.

Commenting on the news, Eli Holtzman, CEO of Internet Gold, said, "This acquisition is another step in our efforts to expand our leadership position as Israel's largest Interactive Media Group. It reflects our expectation that Internet usage in the Arab sector will continue growing dramatically as it has during the past year, making the Arab population an important new target market for Internet advertising. We believe that ownership of an Arab-language portal may also help us identify additional investment opportunities in neighboring emerging markets."
