Item 5.02(a) Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 12, 2011, the majority shareholder of Defense Industries International, Inc. (the “Company”), which owns over two-thirds of the voting power of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote of the Company, removed Tsippy Moldovan as a director of the Board. The Company does not plan to appoint a replacement director to fill Ms. Moldovan’s vacancy at this time.

Mrs. Tzipi Moldovan, who is also a former employee of Export Erez Ltd., a subsidiary of the Company (“Export Erez”), filed an action against Export Erez with the Labor Court in Be'er-Sheva, Israel on October 24, 2011 (the “Motion”). Ms. Moldovan alleged that Export Erez was improperly withholding payments and certain documents that she required in order to obtain certain rights allegedly due to her as a former employee of Export Erez. Export Erez filed a response claiming, inter alia, that it fulfilled its entire obligation according to the applicable law and the former employee is not entitled to the remedies sought in the Petition. While the Motion was rejected by the Court on November 17, 2011, it does not preclude Ms. Moldovan from bringing an action for her underlying claims.
