INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Mid-America Apartment Communities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses of Silverado Apartments (the Acquisition Property), as described in Note 1, for the year ended December 31, 2005. This statement is the responsibility of the Acquisition Properties management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the statement of revenue and certain expenses for the Acquisition Property based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of revenue and certain expenses for the Acquisition property. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of revenue and certain expenses referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenue and certain expenses described in Note 1 for the year ended December 31, 2005, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principals.

The accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses for the Acquisition Property was prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission as described in Note 1 and is not intended to be a complete presentation of the Acquisition Property's revenues and expenses.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

General

The accompanying financial statements includes the operations of Silverado Apartments (the Acquisition Property) owned by parties unaffiliated with Mid-America Apartment Communities, Inc. (the company) and Mid-America Apartments, L.P. (the operating partnership). The Acquisition Property, a multi-family residential property located in Austin, Texas was acquired by a subsidiary of the Operating Partnership on March 23, 2006 and contains 312 units.

Basis of Presentation

The statement of revenue and certain expenses was prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Rule 3-14 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, certain expenses such as depreciation, amortization, income taxes, mortgage interest expense and entity expenses are not reflected in the statement of revenue and certain expenses. In addition, some expenses have been excluded because the Operating Partnership does not anticipate that they will be incurred in the future operation of this property. Expenses excluded consist primarily of management fees. Direct operating expenses primarily include payroll, utilities, leasing and marketing, insurance and other general and administrative costs.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues from rental property are recognized when due from tenants. Leases are generally for one year or less.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principals generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that effect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

General

The accompanying financial statements includes the operations of Reserve at Woodwind Lakes Apartments (the Acquisition Property) owned by parties unaffiliated with Mid-America Apartment Communities, Inc. (the company) and Mid-America Apartments, L.P. (the operating partnership). The Acquisition Property, a multi-family residential property located in Houston, Texas was acquired by a subsidiary of the Operating Partnership on September 6, 2006 and contains 328 units.

Basis of Presentation

The statement of revenue and certain expenses was prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Rule 3-14 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, certain expenses such as depreciation, amortization, income taxes, mortgage interest expense and entity expenses are not reflected in the statement of revenue and certain expenses. In addition, some expenses have been excluded because the Operating Partnership does not anticipate that they will be incurred in the future operation of this property. Expenses excluded consist primarily of management fees. Direct operating expenses primarily include payroll, utilities, leasing and marketing, insurance and other general and administrative costs.

The accompanying unaudited interim statement of revenue and certain expenses has been prepared on the same basis as the statement of revenue and certain expenses for the year ended December 31, 2005. In the opinion of the management of property all adjustments consisting only of normal recurring adjustments necessary for fair presentation of the information for this interim period have been made. The revenue in excess of certain expenses for such interim period is not necessarily indicative of the excess of revenue over certain expenses for the full year.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues from rental property are recognized when due from tenants. Leases are generally for one year or less.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principals generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that effect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet

The accompanying unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet of Mid-America Apartment Communities, Inc. is presented as if Oaks at Wilmington Island had been acquired on September 30, 2006. The remaining Acquired Properties were acquired prior to September 30, 2006 and therefore are already represented in the historical amounts. This Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet should be read in conjunction with the Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Statement of Operations for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006 and for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the historical consolidated financial statements and notes thereto of the Company reported on Form 10-Q for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006 and on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. In management's opinion, all adjustments necessary to reflect the acquisition of Oaks at Wilmington Island have been made. The following Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet is not necessarily indicative of what the actual financial position would have been assuming the above transaction had been consummated at September 30, 2006, nor does it purport to represent the future financial position of the Company.

Notes to Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet

- (A) Represents the condensed consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of September 30, 2006, as contained in the historical consolidated financial statements and notes thereto filed on Form 10-Q. This includes the completed acquisitions of the Acquired Properties, except for Oaks at Wilmington Island, that were purchased during the nine month period ended September 30, 2006 for a total purchase price of $167.3 million of which $5.2 million has been allocated to the FMV of leases. These acquisitions were funded through draws under the Company's line of credit facilities, various equity transactions, and the assumption of a mortgage note.
- (B) Represents the acquisition of Oaks at Wilmington Island for a total purchase price of $29.1 million of which $1.0 million has been allocated to the FMV of leases. The acquisition was funded through $18.9 million in draws under a line of credit facility and the remainder from proceeds of equity issued prior to September 30, 2006. The proceeds were received subsequent to September 30, 2006 and accordingly were recorded as a receivable within other assets in the Historical Amounts.
