On March 1, 2007, Bunge Limited ( "Bunge" ) entered into a Separation Agreement and Release of Claims (the "Separation Agreement" ) with William Wells, Chief Financial Officer of Bunge. Pursuant to the Separation Agreement, as previously disclosed, Mr. Wells' employment with Bunge will terminate on April 1, 2007. Mr. Wells will not receive any payments under the Separation Agreement other than payment for any accrued and unused vacation days pursuant to Bunge's vacation policy. Pursuant to the Separation Agreement and in accordance with Bunge's Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan" ), Mr. Wells will become vested in a portion of certain previously granted stock options and have the right to exercise them for a period of 90 days following termination of his employment. Additionally, he will become vested in a portion of certain previously granted restricted stock unit awards. Mr. Wells will also be entitled to receive his vested, accrued benefits under Bunge's retirement and deferred compensation plans (as applicable) in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plans. The Separation Agreement provides that Mr. Wells will be bound by certain confidentiality, non-solicitation, and cooperation covenants and includes a general release of all claims against Bunge.

The foregoing description of the Separation Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Separation Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On February 28, 2007, William Wells, Chief Financial Officer of Bunge, adopted a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan to sell certain common shares of Bunge which Mr. Wells will have the right to acquire under outstanding employee stock options, including stock options that will vest upon termination of his employment as described in Item 5.02 above, and in connection with the vesting and settlement of certain outstanding performance-based restricted stock units. The trading plan was adopted by Mr. Wells to provide for an orderly disposition of his holdings of Bunge shares in connection with Mr. Wells previously announced departure from Bunge Limited. The trading plan was established by Mr. Wells in accordance with guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Bunge s policies regarding transactions in its securities.

The trading plan will cover the sale of up to approximately 35,000 common shares in the aggregate. Sales under the trading plan will begin no earlier than March 15, 2007, subject to the trading price of Bunge s common shares.

Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 permits corporate insiders to adopt prearranged written plans for selling specified amounts of stock. Insiders may adopt such plans when they are not in possession of material nonpublic information. Once a plan is established, the insider retains no discretion over sales under the plan, and the pre-planned trades can be executed through a broker at later dates without regard to any subsequent material non-public information that the insider may receive. Appropriate securities filings reporting the sales will be made with the Securities and Exchange Commission when due.

Other executive officers of Bunge Limited have in the past, and may in the future, enter into 10b5-1 plans for the sale of Bunge Limited common shares. These persons and other officers and directors may engage in other transactions in Company securities outside the use of Rule 10b5-1 plans. Except as may be required by applicable law, Bunge does not undertake to report modifications, terminations or other activities under these plans, nor the establishment of future 10b5-1 plans by these or other Bunge directors or officers.
