ITEM 1. BUSINESS

GENERAL

Noble International Ltd., through its subsidiaries, is a full-service provider of tailored laser welded blanks for the automotive industry. Noble's laser-welded blanks are manufactured from two or more blanks of varying thickness and sizes welded together utilizing automated laser assemblies, and are used by original equipment manufacturers or their suppliers in automobile body components such as doors, fenders, bodyside panels, and pillars.

Noble operates four locations in Michigan, Kentucky and Canada. During the first quarter of 2004, the Company opened a facility in Australia. Executive offices are located at 28213 Van Dyke Ave, Warren, MI 48093, tel. (586) 751-5600. Noble's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ National Market under the symbol NOBL. Additional information about the company, including SEC filings, can be found on its web site, www.nobleintl.com.

Noble's fiscal year is the same as the calendar year. Thus any reference to a fiscal year in this Report should be understood to mean the period from January 1 to December 31 of that year.

HISTORY AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Noble International, Ltd. ("Noble") was incorporated on October 3, 1993 in the State of Michigan. On June 29, 1999 Noble reincorporated in the State of Delaware. Since its formation in 1993, Noble has completed over two dozen significant acquisitions and divestitures (the "Acquisitions"). As used in this Annual Report (the "Report"), the term "Company" refers to Noble and its subsidiaries and their combined operations, after consummation of all the Acquisitions.

In 1996, the Company completed the acquisitions of Noble Component Technologies, Inc. ("NCT"), Monroe Engineering Products, Inc. ("Monroe"), and Cass River Coatings, Inc. ("Vassar").

In 1997, the Company completed the acquisitions of Skandy Corp. ("Skandy"), Utilase Production Processing, Inc. ("UPP"), Noble Metal Forming, Inc. ("NMF"), and Noble Metal Processing, Inc. ("NMP"). In November 1997, the Company completed an initial public offering of 3.3 million shares of common stock resulting in gross proceeds of $29.7 million (the "Offering").

In 1998, the Company completed the acquisitions of Tiercon Plastics, Inc. ("TPI"), Tiercon Coatings, Inc. ("TCI"), and Noble Metal Processing-Midwest, Inc. ("NMPM").

In 1999, TPI and TCI were combined with and into Tiercon Industries, Inc. ("Tiercon"). TPI and TCI continued to operate as separate divisions of Tiercon. On August 31, 1999 the Company purchased certain assets of Jebco Manufacturing, Inc. ("Jebco").

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

In 2000, the Company completed the sale of Noble Canada, Inc. ("Noble Canada") including Tiercon (the "Tiercon Sale"). As part of the Tiercon Sale the Company sold Vassar and NCT. The Tiercon Sale comprised all of the operating companies classified as the Company's plastics and coatings division.

In 2000, the Company completed the acquisition of Noble Logistics Services, Inc. ("NLS-TX"), (formerly known as DSI Holdings, Inc. ("DSI")). In addition, in 2000, the Company completed the acquisition of Noble Logistic Services, Inc. ("NLS-CA"), (formerly known as Assured Transportation & Delivery, Inc. ("ATD") and its affiliate, Central Transportation & Delivery, Inc. ("CTD")).

In 2000, the Company completed the acquisition of Pro Motorcar Products, Inc. ("PMP") and its affiliated distribution company, Pro Motorcar Distribution, Inc. ("PMD").

On February 16, 2001, the Company acquired a 49% interest in S.E.T. Steel, Inc. ("SET") for $3.0 million (the "SET Acquisition"). SET is a Qualified Minority Business Enterprise, providing metal processing services to original equipment manufacturers ("OEMs"). Contemporaneously with the SET Acquisition, the Company, through its wholly owned subsidiary Noble Manufacturing Group, Inc. ("NMG") (formerly known as Noble Technologies, Inc.), sold all of the capital stock of NMPM and NMF to SET for $27.2 million (the "SET Sale"). On February 16, 2001, the Company received a note for $27.2 million due June 14, 2001. On June 28, 2001, SET completed bank financing of its purchase of NMF and NMPM and repaid the $27.2 million note to the Company with $24.7 million in cash and a $4.0 million, 12% subordinated note due in 2003. In addition, the Company guaranteed $10.0 million of SET's senior debt. During the quarter ended September 30, 2001, SET repurchased the Company's 49% interest for $3.0 million. The Company received a $3.0 million, 12% subordinated note due in 2003. On April 1, 2002, the Company converted its $7.6 million note receivable, including interest, from SET Enterprises, Inc. ("SET") into preferred stock of SET. The preferred stock was non-voting and was redeemable at the Company's option in 2007. The Company agreed to convert the subordinated promissory note to preferred stock in order to assist SET in obtaining capital without appreciably decreasing the Company's repayment rights or jeopardize SET's minority status. Management believes that continued support of SET furthers the joint strategic objectives of the two companies. On August 1, 2003 SET completed its acquisition of Michigan Steel Processing, Inc. ("MSP"), a subsidiary of Sumitomo Corporation of America ("SCOA"). As part of the transaction, SCOA contributed 100% of the common stock of MSP in exchange for 45% of the common stock of SET. In addition, the Company reduced its guarantee of SET's senior debt from $10.0 million to $3.0 million for a period of one year, after which the guarantee may be eliminated. The Company exchanged its $7.6 million non-convertible, non-voting redeemable preferred stock investment in SET for $7.6 million in Series A non-convertible, non-voting preferred stock which provides an 8% annual dividend, and is non-redeemable by the Company. The Series A preferred stock is redeemable by SET at its option. In connection with the transaction, the Company was issued 4% of the outstanding common stock of SET. The excess of the estimated fair values of the preferred and common stock received over the carrying value of the redeemable preferred stock has been recorded on the Company's books as a component of other income in the statement of operations for approximately $0.3 million.

On June 8, 2001, the Company acquired a 51% interest in SCO Logistics, Inc. ("SCOL"). SCOL is a provider of logistics management services to the bulk chemical industry. On October 1, 2001 the Company sold its interest in SCOL to the management of SCOL for $0.35 million.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

On December 18, 2001, the Company, through its wholly owned subsidiary NMG, purchased 81% of the outstanding capital stock of Noble Construction Equipment, Inc. ("NCE") (formerly known as Construction Equipment Direct, Inc. ("CED")), for $0.35 million in cash and stock valued at $0.35 million along with a call right to purchase the balance of the stock. On December 19, 2001, NCE purchased certain assets and assumed certain liabilities of Eagle-Picher Industries, Inc.'s construction equipment division for approximately $6.1 million in cash. On December 21, 2001, NMG exercised its call option and acquired the balance of the stock of NCE.

On October 4, 2002, the Company completed a secondary offering of 925,000 shares of its $0.001 par value common stock. The net proceeds of $8.6 million were used to reduce the Company's long-term debt.

On December 31, 2002, the Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary NMG, completed the sale of NCE for $14.0 million in cash. The transaction resulted in a gain of $0.174 million, net of tax. The proceeds were used to reduce the Company's long-term debt. The Company completed the transaction with an entity in which the Company's Chairman and certain other officers have an interest. An independent committee of the board of directors of the Company was established to evaluate, negotiate, and completed the transaction. In addition, an independent fairness opinion regarding the transaction was obtained.

On March 21, 2003, the Company completed the sale of its logistics group for approximately $11.1 million in cash and notes as well as the assumption of substantially all payables and liabilities. The transaction included cash of $2.0 million at closing, two short-term notes totaling approximately $5.1 million, a $1.5 million three-year amortizing note and a $2.5 million five-year amortizing note. The two long-term notes bear an annual interest rate of 4.5% and will be repaid in equal monthly installments. On August 14, 2003 the Company and the buyer amended the repayment terms of the remaining balance on the short-term notes. The amended terms provide for repayment of the short-term notes by July 31, 2004 and for payment of interest on the outstanding balance at an annual rate of 7%.

On October 17, 2003, the Company acquired substantially all of the assets of Prototube, LLC ("Prototube") from Weil Engineering GmbH ("Weil") and Global Business Support, LLC ("GBS") for $0.1 million in cash plus the assumption of $1.2 million in liabilities. Prototube manufactures a variety of products with applications in the aerospace, automotive, housing, oil and other industries. Its products are roll formed or stamped from flat steel or a laser welded blank, then, utilizing a proprietary technology, they are formed into a tube and laser welded. Prototube's production process allows parts to be produced in several different shapes including round, rectangular and oval from various types and thicknesses of steel, as well as aluminum. In addition to multiple thicknesses of metal, Prototube can create multi-diameter products and join curved surfaces together by adjusting the output power of the laser.

The Company made the decision to exit the distribution (Monroe, PMP, PMD and Peco Manufacturing, Inc. "Peco") business in the fourth quarter of 2003 and has classified this operation as discontinued. On January 28, 2004 the Company completed the sale of the distribution business to an entity in which the Company's Chairman and another officer have an interest for approximately $5.5 million in cash. An independent committee of the board of directors of the Company was established to evaluate, negotiate and complete the transaction. In addition, an independent fairness opinion regarding the transaction was obtained.

As of December 31, 2003 the Company's continuing operating subsidiaries are organized into a single reporting segment operating in the automotive supply business. This segment includes NMP, Noble Metal Processing - Kentucky, LLC ("NMPK"), Noble Metal Processing - Canada, Inc. ("NMPC") and Prototube.

On January 21, 2004, the Company completed the acquisition of Prototech Laser Welding, Inc. ("LWI") for approximately $14.0 million in cash and the assumption of approximately $0.7 million in subordinated debt and up to an additional $1.0 million payable if certain new business is awarded to Noble within the next twelve months. LWI, based in Clinton Township, Michigan, is a supplier of laser-welded blanks (LWB) to General Motors.

NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION OF INDUSTRY SEGMENTS

CONTINUING OPERATIONS

Automotive

As of December 31, 2003, the Company's continuing operations conduct business in a single industry segment through NMP, Prototube, NMPC and NMPK, (and subsequent to December 31, 2003, LWI). The Company is a supplier of automotive components and value-added services to the automotive industry. Customers include Original Equipment Manufacturers ("OEMs"), such as General Motors ("GM"), DaimlerChrysler AG ("DCX"), Ford Motor Company ("Ford"), BMW of North America LLC ("BMW"), Toyota Motor Corporation ("Toyota"), American Honda Motor Company, Inc. ("Honda") and Nissan North America, Inc. ("Nissan"), as well as other companies which are suppliers to OEMs ("Tier I suppliers"), such as Tower Automotive, Inc., AK Steel, and Thyssen Steel Group Automotive, among others. The Company, as a Tier I and Tier II supplier, provides prototype design, engineering, laser welding of tailored blanks, tailor welded tubes and other laser welding and cutting services of automotive components. The Company's manufacturing facilities have been awarded both QS-9000 and ISO 14001 certifications.

The process of laser welding involves the concentration of a beam of light, producing energy densities of 16 to 20 million watts per square inch, at the point where two metal pieces are to be joined. Laser welding allows rapid weld speeds with low heat input, thus minimizing topical distortion of the metal and resulting in ductile and formable welds that have mechanical properties comparable to, or in some cases superior to, the metal being welded. Laser welds provide improved performance as well as visual aesthetics and allow significant automation of the welding process.

Laser welding of blanks offers significant advantages over other blank welding technologies, including cost, weight and safety benefits. The Company has developed a technology and production process that the Company believes permits it to produce laser welded blanks more quickly and with higher quality and tolerance levels than its competitors. In 1995 and 2000, the UltraLight Steel Auto Body Consortium, a worldwide industry association of steel producers, commissioned a study which concluded that laser welded tailored blanks will play a significant role in car manufacturing in the next decade as the automotive industry is further challenged to produce lighter cars for better fuel economy, with enhanced safety features and lower manufacturing costs. In addition, the studies identified 21 potential applications for laser welding of tailored blanks per vehicle. The Company has identified nine additional potential applications.

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

Heavy Equipment

NCE designed, engineered, manufactured and assembled all terrain fork trucks, truck mounted fork trucks, wheeled tractor scrapers and pull scrapers. These products are then sold to an established system of dealers throughout the United States, or are contract-built for customers like Caterpillar Inc. and Terex Corporation. All of the products are made to order based on the customer's specifications.

The Company made the strategic decision to exit this segment in the fourth quarter of 2002 in order to focus on its core automotive operations. NCE was sold in December 2002 for $14.0 million in cash. The Company completed the transaction with an entity in which the Company's Chairman and another officer have an interest. An independent committee of the board of directors of the Company was established to evaluate, negotiate, and complete the transaction. An independent fairness opinion regarding the transaction was obtained.

Logistics

NLS provided same day package delivery solutions to a wide variety of industries. Services included both dedicated contract services and scheduled routed services.

In the fourth quarter of 2002, the Company made the strategic decision to exit the logistics business segment in order to focus on its core automotive segment and has classified this operation as discontinued. On March 21, 2003 the Company completed the sale of the logistics segment for approximately $11.1 million in cash and notes. The Company obtained an independent fairness opinion regarding the transaction.

Distribution

The Company, through Monroe, PMP and PMD, distributes tooling components, including adjustable handles, hand wheels, plastic knobs, levers, handles, hydraulic clamps, drills, jigs and permanent magnets to various customers. Monroe's primary tooling component product line is Kipp(R) brand standard and heavy duty adjustable handles, representing approximately one-half of its tooling component sales. Monroe also distributes Elesa(R) brand high tensile plastic hand wheels, knobs, handles and levers, representing approximately one-quarter of tooling component sales. Although most tooling component products are sold off the shelf, Monroe does perform some light machining of parts for custom orders.

Monroe is a distributor for Kipp(R) products and holds the U.S. patent rights to Kipp(R) adjustable handles. Monroe also holds non-exclusive rights to distribute Elesa(R), Boutet and Brauer products throughout North America.

PMP and PMD manufacture and distribute products used in the paint and coatings industry as well as proprietary products such as paint measurement gauges, portable tint meter gauges, and UV curing lamps.

In the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company made the strategic decision to exit the distribution business segment in order to focus on its core automotive segment and has classified this operation as discontinued. On January 28, 2004, the Company completed the sale of the distribution business (Monroe, PMP, PMD, and Peco) for approximately $5.5 million in cash. The Company sold the business to an entity in which the Company's Chairman and another officer have an interest. An independent committee of the board of directors was formed to evaluate, negotiate and complete the sale of this business. In addition, an independent fairness opinion regarding the fairness of the transaction was obtained.

DESIGN AND ENGINEERING

The development of new automobile models or the redesign of existing models generally begins two to five years prior to the marketing of such models to the public. The Company's engineering staff typically works with OEM and Tier I engineers early in the development phase to design specific automotive body components for the new or redesigned models. The Company also provides other value-added services, such as prototyping, to its automotive customers.

Internally, the Company's engineering and research staff designs and integrates proprietary laser welding systems using latest design techniques. These systems are for exclusive use by the Company and are not marketed or sold to third parties. Continued strategic investment in process technology is essential for the Company to remain competitive in the markets it serves, and the Company plans to continue to make appropriate levels of research and development expenditures.

MARKETING

The Company's sales and engineering staff is located in direct proximity to major customers. Typically, OEMs and Tier I suppliers conduct a competitive bid process to select laser welders for the parts that they will include in their end products. The Company's direct sales force, marketing and technical personnel work closely with OEM engineers to satisfy the OEMs' specific requirements. In addition, the Company's technical personnel will spend a significant amount of time assisting OEM engineers in product planning and integration of laser welded components in future automotive models.

RAW MATERIALS

The raw materials required for the Company's automotive operations include rolled and coated steel and gases such as carbon dioxide and argon. The Company obtains its raw materials and purchased parts from a variety of suppliers. The Company does not believe that it is dependent upon any of its suppliers, despite concentration of purchasing of certain materials from a few sources, as other suppliers of the same or similar materials are readily available. The Company typically purchases its raw materials on a purchase order basis as needed and has generally been able to obtain adequate supplies of raw materials for its operations. The majority of the steel is purchased through OEMs' steel buying programs. Under these programs the Company purchases the steel from specific suppliers at the steel price the customers negotiated with the steel suppliers. Although the Company does take ownership of the steel, the steel price risk is borne by the customer. Further, a portion of the automotive operations involves the toll processing of materials supplied by another Tier I customer, typically a steel manufacturer. Under these arrangements the Company charges a specified fee for operations performed without acquiring ownership of the steel.

PATENTS AND TRADEMARKS

The Company owns a number of patents and trademarks related to its products and methods of manufacturing. The loss of any single patent or group of patents would not have a material adverse effect on the Company's business. The

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

Company also has proprietary technology and equipment that constitute trade secrets, which it has chosen not to register in order to avoid public disclosure thereof. The Company relies upon patent and trademark law, trade secret protection and confidentiality or license agreements with its employees, customers and third parties to protect its proprietary rights.

SEASONALITY

The Company's automotive operations business is largely dependent upon the automotive industry, which is highly cyclical and is dependent on consumer spending. In addition, the automotive component supply industry is somewhat seasonal. Increased revenues and operating income are generally experienced during the second calendar quarter as a result of the automotive industry's spring selling season, the peak sales and production period of the year. Revenue and operating income generally decreases during July and December of each year as a result of changeovers in production lines for new model years as well as scheduled OEM plant shutdowns for vacations and holidays.

The Company's historical results of operations have generally not reflected typical cyclical or seasonal fluctuations in revenues and operating income. The acquisitions and dispositions completed by the Company have resulted in a growth trend which may have masked the effect of typical seasonal fluctuations. There can be no assurance that the Company's business will continue its historical growth trend, or that it will conform to industry norms for seasonality in future periods.

CUSTOMERS

In 2003, automotive industry customers accounted for substantially all of the Company's consolidated net sales from continuing operations. Three customers accounted for 37%, 18% and 17% of consolidated net sales from continuing operations, respectively, in 2003. For the year ended December 31, 2002 two customers accounted for 41% and 25%, respectively, of net sales from continuing operations. For the year ended December 31, 2001 one customer accounted for 19% of net sales from continuing operations.

COMPETITION

The automotive component supply and tooling component industries are highly competitive. In the automotive segment the Company's primary competitors are TWB Company, Shiloh Industries Inc. and PowerLasers Ltd. Competition in this segment is based on many factors, including engineering, product design, process capability, quality, cost, delivery and responsiveness. The Company believes that its performance record places it in a strong competitive position, although there can be no assurance that it can continue to compete successfully against existing or future competitors in each of the markets in which it competes.

ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

Within the automotive component supply operations, the Company is subject to environmental laws and regulations concerning emissions to the air, discharges to waterways, and generation, handling, storage, transportation, treatment and disposal of waste materials. The Company is also subject to other Federal and state laws and regulations regarding health and safety matters. Each of the Company's production facilities has permits and licenses allowing and regulating air emissions and water discharges. The Company believes that it is currently in compliance with applicable environmental and health and safety laws and regulations.

EMPLOYEES

As of December 31, 2003, the Company employed 578 people in its continuing operations. This total included 416 production employees, approximately 50 independent production contractors, and 112 managerial, research and administrative personnel. The Company believes that its relations with its employees are satisfactory. One NMP plant elected to be represented by the International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace, and Agricultural Implement Workers of America ("UAW") in 1999 and a collective bargaining agreement was entered into in September 2000 which expired in December 2003. In January, 2004, the Company entered into a new five year collective bargaining agreement with the UAW which expires in December 2008. The plant has not been subject to a strike, lockout or other major work stoppage.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION ABOUT FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC OPERATIONS

International operations are subject to certain additional risks inherent in conducting business outside the United States, such as changes in currency exchange rates, price and currency exchange controls, import restrictions, nationalization, expropriation and other governmental action.

RISK FACTORS

The following factors are important and should be considered carefully in connection with any evaluation of the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Additionally, the following factors could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those reflected in any forward-looking statements of the Company. The factors identified here do not represent an exhaustive list of potential risks involved in our business that are beyond the Company's control.

Outstanding Indebtedness. In order to finance its operations, including costs related to the consummation of various acquisitions, the Company has incurred substantial indebtedness. The Company's credit facilities are secured by substantially all of its assets as well as the assets of its subsidiaries. In addition to certain financial covenants, the Company's credit facilities restrict its ability to incur additional indebtedness or pledge assets. As of the date of this report, the Company is in compliance with all of the terms of its credit facilities. There can be no assurance, however, that the Company will be able to comply with the terms of its credit facilities in the future. At December 31, 2003, the Company has a $54 million credit facility (the "Credit Facility") with a syndicate of banks led by Comerica Bank N.A. as agent, expiring in July 2006. In January 2004, the credit facility was increased to $74 million primarily to facilitate the acquisition of LWI (refer to Note F).

On March 26 2004, the Company issued $40 million in 4% unsecured convertible subordinated notes (the "Note") in a private placement. The Note has a three year term, maturing on March 31, 2007 and may be extended another three years at the holder's option. The Note is convertible at the holder's option at anytime prior to maturity into shares of the Company's common stock at $32 per share (subject to adjustment pursuant to the terms of the Note). The interest rate on the Note is 4% and is fixed for the entire term. Proceeds from the Note are being used to reduce the Company's current bank borrowings, including paying off the term loan balance and reducing amounts outstanding under the $35 million revolving credit facility, which remains in place.

Debt Service Obligations. The Company's business is subject to all of the risks associated with substantial leverage, including the risk that available cash may not be adequate to make required payments. The Company's ability to satisfy outstanding debt obligations from cash flow will be dependent upon its future performance and will be subject to financial, business and other factors, many of which may be beyond its control. In the event that the Company does not have sufficient cash resources to satisfy its repayment obligations, it would be in default, which would have a material adverse effect on its business. To the extent that the Company is required to use cash resources to satisfy interest payments to the holders of outstanding debt obligations, it will have fewer resources available for other purposes.

Reliance on Major Customers. Sales to the automotive industry accounted for all of the Company's sales from continuing operations in 2003. In addition, the Company's automotive sales are highly concentrated among a few major OEMs and automotive suppliers. Thus, the loss of any significant customer could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business. As is typical in the automotive supply industry, the Company has no long-term contracts with any of its customers. The Company's customers provide annual estimates of their requirements; however, sales are made on a short-term purchase order basis. There is substantial and continuing pressure from the major OEMs and Tier I suppliers to reduce costs, including the cost of products purchased from outside suppliers. If in the future the Company is unable to generate sufficient production cost savings to offset price reductions, its gross margins could be adversely affected.

Risks Relating to Acquisitions. The automotive component supply industry is undergoing consolidation as OEMs seek to reduce both their costs and their supplier base. Future acquisitions may be made in order to enable the Company to expand into new geographic markets, add new customers, provide new products, expand manufacturing and service capabilities and increase automotive model penetration with existing customers. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in identifying appropriate acquisition candidates or in successfully combining operations with such candidates if they are identified. It should be noted that any acquisitions could involve the dilutive issuance of equity securities or the incurrence of debt. In addition, acquisitions involve numerous other risks, including difficulties in assimilation of the acquired company's operations following consummation of the acquisition, the diversion of management's attention from other business concerns, risks of producing products we have limited experience with, the potential loss of key customers of the acquired company, and the ability of pre-acquisition due diligence to identify all possible issues that may arise with respect to products of the acquired company. All these acquisition risks could materially and adversely affect the financial performance of the Company.

Failure to Obtain Business on New and Redesigned Model Introductions. The Company's automotive product lines are subject to change as its customers, including both OEMs and Tier I suppliers, introduce new or redesigned products. The Company competes for new business both at the beginning of the development phase of new vehicle models, which generally begins two to five years prior to the marketing of such models to the public, and upon the redesign of existing models. The Company's sales would be adversely affected if the Company fails to obtain business on new models, or fails to retain or increase business on redesigned existing models, or if the Company's customers do not successfully introduce new products incorporating the Company's products, or if market demand for these new products does not develop as anticipated.

Dependence on Continuous Improvement of Production Technologies. The Company's ability to continue to meet customer demands within its automotive operations with respect to performance, cost, quality and service will depend, in part, upon its ability to remain technologically competitive with its production processes. New automotive products are increasingly complex, require increased welding precision, use of various materials and have to be run at higher production speeds and with lower scrap ratios in order to reduce costs. The investment of significant additional capital or other resources may be required to meet this continuing challenge. If the Company is unable to improve its production technologies, it will lose business and possibly be forced to exit from the particular market.

Design and Engineering Resources. Within the automotive industry, OEMs and Tier I suppliers require their suppliers to provide design and engineering input during the product development process. The direct costs of design and engineering are generally borne by the Company's customers. However, the Company bears the indirect cost associated with the allocation of limited design and engineering resources to such product development projects. Despite the Company's up-front dedication of design and engineering resources, its customers are under no obligation to order the subject components or systems from the Company following their development. In addition, when the Company deems it strategically advisable, it may also bear the direct up-front design and engineering costs as well. There can be no assurance that the Company's dedication of design and engineering resources, or up-front design and engineering expenditures, will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

Industry Cyclical and Seasonality. The automotive industry is highly cyclical and dependent on consumer spending. Economic factors adversely affecting automotive production and consumer spending could adversely impact the Company's business. In addition, the automotive component supply industry is somewhat seasonal. The Company's need for continued significant expenditures for capital equipment purchases, equipment development and ongoing manufacturing improvement and support, among other factors, make it difficult for us to reduce operating expenses in a particular period if our net sales forecasts for such period are not met, because a substantial component of our operating expenses are fixed costs. Generally, revenue and operating income increase during the second calendar quarter of each year as a result of the automotive industry's spring selling season, which is the peak sales and production period of the year. Revenue and operating income generally decrease during July and December of each year as a result of changeovers in production lines for new model years as well as scheduled OEM plant shutdowns for vacations and holidays.

The Company's historical results of operations have generally not reflected typical cyclical or seasonal fluctuations in revenues and operating income. The acquisitions and divestitures completed by the Company have resulted in a growth trend through successive periods which has masked the effect of typical seasonal fluctuations. There can be no assurance that the Company's business will continue its historical growth trend, that it will continue to be profitable or that it will conform to industry norms for seasonality in future periods.

Risk of Labor Interruptions. Within the automotive supply industry substantially all of the hourly employees of the OEMs and many Tier I suppliers are represented by labor unions, and work pursuant to collective bargaining agreements. The failure of any of the Company's significant customers to reach agreement with a labor union on a timely basis, resulting in either a work stoppage or strike, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business. During 1999, production workers at the Company's NMP facility in Michigan elected to be represented by the UAW. A three year collective bargaining agreement was entered into in September 2000 and expired in December 2003. In January 2004, the Company entered into a new five year collective bargaining agreement, which expires in December 2008, with the UAW at its NMP facility in Michigan. Although this plant has never been subject to a strike, lockout or other major work stoppage, any such incident would have a material adverse effect on the Company's operating income.

Product Liability Exposure. Within the automotive operations, the Company faces an inherent business risk of exposure to product liability claims if the failure of one of its products results in personal injury or death. There can be no assurance that material product liability losses will not occur in the future. In addition, if any of the Company's products prove to be defective, the Company may be required to participate in a recall involving such products. The Company maintains insurance against product liability claims, but there can be no assurance that such coverage will be adequate or will continue to be available to the Company on acceptable terms or at all. A successful claim brought against the Company in excess of available insurance coverage or a requirement to participate in any product recall could have a material adverse effect on its business.

Impact of Environmental Regulation. The Company is subject to the requirements of federal, state and local environmental and occupational health and safety laws and regulations. Although the Company has made and will continue to make expenditures to comply with environmental requirements, these requirements are constantly evolving, and it is impossible to predict whether compliance with these laws and regulations may have a material adverse effect on the Company in the future. If a release of hazardous substances occurs on or from the Company's properties or from any of its disposals at offsite disposal locations, or if contamination is discovered at any of the Company's current or former properties, it may be held liable, and the amount of such liability could be material.

Dependence on Key Personnel. The Company's operations are dependent upon its ability to attract and retain qualified employees in the areas of engineering, operations and management, and are greatly influenced by the efforts and abilities of Robert J. Skandalaris, Chairman and Christopher L. Morin, President and Chief Executive Officer, as well as its other executive officers. The Company has employment agreements with Mr. Skandalaris, Mr. Morin and several other officers. The Company does not maintain key-person life insurance on its executives.

Control by Existing Stockholders. Robert J. Skandalaris owns and/or controls approximately 24% of the outstanding Common Stock. As a result, Mr. Skandalaris is able to exert significant influence over the outcome of all matters submitted to a vote of the Company's stockholders, including the election of directors, amendments to the Company's Certificates of Incorporation and approval of significant corporate transactions. Such consolidation of voting power could also have the effect of delaying, deterring or preventing a change in control that might be beneficial to other stockholders.

Anti-Takeover Provisions. Certain provisions of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws may inhibit changes in control of the Company not approved by the Board of Directors. These provisions include: (i) a prohibition on stockholder action through written consents; (ii) a requirement that special meetings of stockholders be called only by the Board of Directors;

(iii) advance notice requirements for stockholder proposals and nominations; (iv) limitations on the ability of stockholders to amend, alter or repeal the Bylaws; and (v) the authority of the Board of Directors to issue, without stockholder approval, preferred stock with such terms as the Board of Directors may determine. The Company will also be afforded the protections of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, which could have similar effects.

Risks Associated With International Operations. The Company operates a production facility in Ontario, Canada, and has opened a facility during the first quarter of 2004 in Australia. The Company's business strategy may include the continued expansion of international operations. As the Company expands its international operations, it will increasingly be subject to the risks associated with such operations, including: (i) fluctuations in currency exchange rates; (ii) compliance with local laws and other regulatory requirements; (iii) restrictions on the repatriation of funds; (iv) inflationary conditions; (v) political and economic instability; (vi) war or other hostilities; (vii) overlap of tax structures; and (viii) expropriation or nationalization of assets. The inability to effectively manage these and other risks could adversely affect the Company's business.

Shares Eligible for Future Sale. The Company cannot predict the effect that future sales of Common Stock will have on the market price of the Common Stock. Sales of substantial amounts of Common Stock, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the market price of the Common Stock. Approximately 22,233 of the shares of Common Stock currently issued and outstanding are "restricted securities" as that term is defined under Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933 and may not be sold unless they are registered or unless an exemption from registration, such as the exemption provided by Rule 144, is available. All of these restricted securities are currently eligible for resale pursuant to Rule 144, subject in most cases to the volume and manner of sale limitations prescribed by Rule 144.

Possible Volatility of Trading Price. The trading price of the Common Stock could be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in operating results, developments in the automotive industry, general economic conditions, fluctuations in interest rates and changes in securities analysts' recommendations regarding the Company's securities. Such volatility may adversely affect the market price of our Common Stock.

The Failure of SET could materially adversely affect our financial condition. In February 2001, the Company sold two of its non-core subsidiaries to SET Enterprises, Inc., a qualified minority business enterprise providing metal processing services to the automotive OEMs. The Company currently holds $7.6 million in face value of 8% Series A non-convertible, non-voting preferred stock of SET. The Company provides a guarantee of $3.0 million of SET's senior debt, which is scheduled to mature in August 2004, incurred in connection with its purchase of the Company's subsidiaries, and the Company holds approximately 4% of SET's common stock. Due to the amounts invested in the Company's relationship with SET, the failure of SET's business could materially adversely affect the Company's financial condition if it resulted in its inability to recover its investment in preferred stock and common stock, and SET's inability to pay dividends, the Company's accounts receivable, and to pay its senior debt resulting in our requirement to perform under our guarantee.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES

As of December 31, 2003, the Company's continuing operations consisted of its automotive business, which operated four production facilities in the

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

United States and one facility in Canada. These facilities are used for multiple purposes and range in size from 5,000 square feet to 524,000 square feet, with an aggregate of approximately 743,000 square feet. These production facilities are leased under operating leases with expiration dates ranging from 2005 to 2016.

The Company owns two properties totaling approximately 240,000 square feet that it has classified as held for sale.

None of the Company's facilities, other than those that are currently held for sale, is materially underutilized. Management believes that all of the Company's property and equipment, owned or leased, is in good, working condition, is well maintained and provides sufficient capacity to meet the Company's current and expected manufacturing and distribution needs.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company is not a party to any legal proceedings, other than routine litigation incidental to its business, none of which is material.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

No matter was submitted for a vote of security holders during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year covered by this report.

- (1) In 2000, an extraordinary loss was recorded as a result of the buyback of 6% convertible debentures. The convertible debentures had a face amount of $6.376 million and were repaid at an agreed amount of $6.411 million. In addition, approximately $0.3 million in financing costs relating to the convertible debentures were written off.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

- (2) An after-tax extraordinary gain of $1.6 million was recorded in 2001 in connection with the Company's acquisition by NCE of certain assets of Eagle-Picher, Inc.'s construction equipment division. This gain was the result of the implementation of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Statement No. 141, "Business Combinations" which requires the excess of the fair value of acquired net assets over the cost associated with an acquisition be recognized as an extraordinary gain in the period in which the transaction occurs. In December 2002 this segment was sold for $14.0 million.
- (3) In 2002, the Company closed the purchase price allocation period regarding the acquisition of NCE and recognized a $0.315 million after-tax extraordinary gain on the transaction resulting from certain post-closing working capital adjustments that reduced the purchase price.
- (4) EBITDA from continuing operations represents income from continuing operations before income taxes, plus interest expense and depreciation and amortization expense. EBITDA is not presented as, and should not be considered, an alternative measure of operating results or cash flows from operations (as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles), but is presented because it is a widely accepted financial indicator of a company's ability to incur and service debt. While commonly used, however, EBITDA is not identically calculated by companies presenting EBITDA and is, therefore, not necessarily an accurate means of comparison, and may not be comparable to similarly titled measures disclosed by the Company's competitors. Management believes that EBITDA is useful to both management and investors in their analysis of the Company's ability to service and repay its debt. Further, management uses EBITDA for planning and forecasting in future periods.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of continuing operations should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements and notes, and other information thereto included elsewhere in this Report.

GENERAL

Noble International Ltd., through its subsidiaries, is a full-service provider of tailored laser welded blanks for the automotive industry. On December 31, 2002 the Company completed the sale of its heavy equipment segment for $14.0 million in cash to a related party. This segment has been classified as discontinued for fiscal years 2002 and prior. In the fourth quarter of 2002 the Company made the strategic decision to exit the logistics business and has classified this segment as discontinued for fiscal years 2003 and prior. The sale of the logistics segment was completed in March 2003 for approximately $11.1 million in cash and notes. In the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company made the strategic decision to exit the distribution business and has classified this segment as discontinued in fiscal years 2003 and prior. The sale of the distribution business was completed in January 2004 for approximately $5.5 million in cash to a related party. The Company's fiscal year is equivalent to the calendar year. The following discussion relates to the Company's continuing operations.

The Company is a leading supplier of automotive components and value-added services to the automotive industry. Customers include Original Equipment Manufacturers ("OEMs"), such as General Motors Corporation ("GM"), DaimlerChrysler AG ("DCX"), Ford Motor Company ("Ford"), BMW of North America LLC ("BMW"), Toyota Motor Corporation ("Toyota"), American Honda Motor Company,

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

Inc. ("Honda") and Nissan North America, Inc. ("Nissan"), as well as other companies which are suppliers to OEMs ("Tier I suppliers"), such as Tower Automotive, Inc., AK Steel, and Thyssen Steel Group Automotive, among others. The Company, as a Tier I and Tier II supplier, provides prototype design, engineering, laser welding of tailored blanks and other laser welding and cutting services of automotive components. The Company's manufacturing facilities have been awarded both QS-9000 and ISO 14001 certifications.

Fiscal 2003 vs. Fiscal 2002

Net Sales. Net sales from continuing operations increased by $63.0 million, or 52.1%, to $183.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2003 from $120.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2002. The increase in sales is attributable to increased revenue from the automotive laser welded flat blank business. These increases were primarily the result of the increased volumes on several of the automotive platforms on which the Company has business as well as sales from new business launched during 2003, the full year impact of business launched during 2002 and the utilization of laser-welded components on more vehicle models and platforms. In addition, revenue was positively impacted by an increase in steel sales as the number of programs for which the Company purchases and sells the steel used in the laser welding process increased in 2003 compared to 2002.

Cost of Sales. Cost of sales from continuing operations increased by $54.0 million, or 52.5%, to $156.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2003 from $102.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2002. This increase in cost of sales was primarily attributable to increased production volume related to the increased sales in 2003 compared to 2002. As a percentage of net sales, cost of sales increased slightly to 85.4% in fiscal 2003 from 85.2% in 2002. This increase as a percentage of sales is primarily attributable to the increase in the purchase of steel as a percentage of overall cost of sales and is related to the increase in steel sales as a percentage of total sales as the Company continued its transition to a full service supplier from a toll processor. This increase in costs was partially offset by productivity improvements in the Company's manufacturing operations.

Gross Margin. Gross margin from continuing operations increased $9.0 million, or 50.0%, to $26.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2003 from $17.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2002. As a percentage of sales, gross margin declined slightly to 14.6% in fiscal 2003 compared to 14.8% in 2002. This decline is primarily attributable to the increase in steel sales as a percentage of overall sales as a result of the increase in the mix of products and programs for which the Company is required to buy the steel in addition to providing value-added laser welding and related services compared to products and programs for which value-added laser welding and related services only are provided. The steel portion of sales are made at a significantly lower margin than value-added laser welding and other related value-added services. The impact of the lower margin from increased steel sales was partially offset by productivity improvements in the manufacturing operations.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses (SG&A) from continuing operations increased by $2.0 million, or 19.2%, to $12.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2003 from $10.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2002. As a percentage of sales, SG&A declined from 8.5% in fiscal 2002 to 6.7% in 2003. The decrease as a percent of sales was primarily due to expense containment, leveraging of fixed costs in SG&A, as well as the increase in steel sales without a corresponding increase in SG&A expense. In fiscal 2001, the Company recorded $0.1 million for bad debt expense. In fiscal 2002, the bankruptcy of National Steel resulted in the Company recording bad debt expense of approximately $1.2 million related to accounts receivable with National Steel and in fiscal 2003, the Company recorded bad debt expense of $0.5 million primarily as a result of the bankruptcy of

Rouge Industries and its subsidiaries including Rouge Steel.

Operating Profit. As a result of the foregoing factors, operating profit from continuing operations increased $7.0 million, or 91.6%, to $14.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2003 from $7.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2002. As a percentage of sales, operating profit increased to 8.0% in fiscal 2003 from 6.3% in fiscal 2002. The increase, as stated earlier, was primarily the result of productivity improvements in the manufacturing operations, expense containment in SG&A, partially offset by lower operating margin from increased steel sales as a proportion of total sales for fiscal 2003.

Interest Expense. Interest expense from continuing operations increased $1.6 million to $2.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2003 from $0.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2002. The higher interest expense in fiscal 2003 was primarily due to approximately $2.4 million of interest expense associated with discontinued operations classified in the loss from discontinued operations in 2002. The proceeds from sale of the discontinued operations did not reduce all of the debt associated with those operations and as a result, a portion of this interest expense is reflected in interest expense from continuing operations in 2003. This was partially offset by lower average borrowings in 2003 compared to 2002.

Interest Income. Interest income from continuing operations decreased $0.4 million in fiscal 2003 to $0.6 million from $1.0 million in fiscal 2002. The decrease was due primarily to lower notes receivable balances related to the sale of NMF and NMPM, partially offset by the interest income from the notes related to the sale of the logistics business in 2003.

Litigation settlement. In fiscal 2002 the Company recorded a $1.1 million charge related to litigation. The Company recorded a charge as a result of tax-related litigation associated with the Company's acquisition of its automotive operations in 1997. Through arbitration, the seller was awarded approximately $1.1 million. The Company filed an appeal of the decision and ultimately settled the matter prior to the completion of the appeal process for $1.0 million, resulting in a $0.1 million recovery in 2003.

Other, net. Other income and expense, net increased by $1.8 million, from an expense of $0.9 million in fiscal 2002 to income of $0.9 million in fiscal 2003. Other income in 2003 primarily included insurance proceeds ($0.2 million), the recovery of costs previously expensed ($0.4 million), income from the recording of the Company's receipt of 4% of SET common stock ($0.3 million), the writedown of other assets ($0.3 million), and dividend income ($0.2 million). Included in other expense for 2002 is the write-down of certain real-estate assets held for sale of $0.9 million.

Income Tax Expense. Income tax expense related to continuing operations increased $3.0 million, to $4.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2003 from $1.7 million in 2002. This increase was primarily due to higher earnings from continuing operations before income taxes. The 2002 income tax expense amount includes a valuation allowance of $0.5 million against available tax credit carry forward.

Earning from Continuing Operations before Extraordinary items. As a result of the foregoing factors, net earnings from continuing operations before extraordinary item increased $5.1 million, or 124%, to $9.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2003 from $4.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

Extraordinary Item. In fiscal 2002, the Company closed the purchase price allocation period regarding the acquisition of NCE and recognized a $0.3 million after-tax extraordinary gain on the transaction resulting from certain post-closing working capital adjustments. On December 31, 2002 the Company completed the sale of NCE for $14.0 million.

Fiscal 2002 vs. Fiscal 2001

Net Sales. Net sales from continuing operations increased by $50.0 million, or 70.7%, to $120.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $70.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. These increases were primarily the result of the increased volumes on several of the automotive platforms on which the Company has business as well as sales from new business launched during the year and the full year impact of new business launched during 2001 and the utilization of laser-welded components on more vehicle models and platforms. In addition, revenue was positively impacted by an increase in steel sales as the number of programs for which the Company purchases and sells the steel used in the laser welding process increased in 2002 compared to 2001.

Cost of Sales. Cost of sales from continuing operations increased by $47.3 million, or 85.1%, to $102.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $55.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. This increase in cost of sales was primarily attributable to increased production volume related to the increased sales in 2002 compared to 2001. As a percentage of net sales, cost of sales increased to 85.2% in fiscal 2002 from 78.6% in 2001. This increase as a percentage of sales is primarily attributable to the increase in the purchase of steel as a percentage of overall cost of sales and is related to the increase in steel sales as a percentage of total sales as the Company transitioned to a full service supplier from a toll processor.

Gross Margin. Gross margin from continuing operations increased $2.7 million, or 18.0%, to $17.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $15.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. As a percentage of sales, gross margin decreased from 21.4% in fiscal 2001 to 14.8% in 2002. The increase in gross margin from continuing operations was primarily the result of higher net sales. As a percentage of sales, the gross margin decline was primarily the result of increased steel sales as a proportion of total sales which has significantly lower margins than the laser welding processing and other related value-added services.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses (SG&A) from continuing operations increased by $2.7 million, or 36.4%, to $10.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $7.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. As a percentage of sales, SG&A declined from 10.6% in fiscal 2001 to 8.5% in 2002. The decrease as a percent of sales was primarily due to expense containment within the operations as well as the inclusion of approximately $0.7 million of goodwill amortization in 2001. In addition, the Company recorded $1.2 million of bad debt expense in 2002 related to accounts receivable with National Steel as a result of the National Steel bankruptcy. In fiscal 2001, the Company expensed $0.1 million in bad debt expense.

Operating Profit. As a result of the foregoing factors, operating profit from continuing operations was $7.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 compared to a similar amount for the year ended December 31, 2001. As a percentage of sales, operating profit declined to 6.3% in fiscal 2002 from 10.8% in fiscal 2001. The decline, as stated earlier, was primarily the result of lower operating margin from steel sales, the higher proportion of steel sales in net sales for fiscal 2002 and bad debt expense.

Interest Expense. Interest expense from continuing operations decreased $1.3 million, or 61.2%, to $0.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $2.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2001. The higher interest expense in fiscal 2001 was primarily due to higher interest rates and borrowings.

Interest Income. Interest income from continuing operations decreased $0.6 million in fiscal 2002 to $1.0 million from $1.6 million in fiscal 2001. The decrease was due to lower interest rates as well as lower notes receivable balances related to the sale of NMF and NMPM.

Litigation Settlement. In fiscal 2002 the Company recorded a $1.1 million charge related to litigation. The Company recorded a charge as a result of tax-related litigation associated with the Company's acquisition of its automotive operations in 1997. Through arbitration, the seller was awarded approximately $1.1 million.

Other, net. Other income and expense from continuing operations declined by $2.5 million, from $1.6 million income in fiscal 2001 to an expense of $0.9 million in fiscal 2002. Other income in 2001 was higher due to a one-time fee related to the arrangement of financing for SET. Included in other expense for 2002 is the write-down of certain real-estate assets held for sale of $0.9 million.

Income Tax Expense. Income tax expense related to continuing operations decreased $1.0 million, or 38.3%, to $1.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $2.7 million in 2001. This decrease was primarily due to lower earnings from continuing operations before income taxes and a $1.1 million tax expense in 2001 related to the sale of assets. The 2002 income tax expense amount includes a valuation allowance of $0.5 million against available tax credit carry forwards.

Earnings from Continuing Operations before Extraordinary Items. As a result of the foregoing factors, net earnings from continuing operations before extraordinary items decreased $1.9 million, or 31.9%, to $4.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 from $6.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Extraordinary Item. In fiscal 2002, the Company closed the purchase price allocation period regarding the acquisition of NCE and recognized a $0.3 million after-tax extraordinary gain on the transaction resulting from certain post-closing working capital adjustments. An after tax extraordinary gain of $1.6 million was recorded (representing the excess of the fair value of acquired net assets over the cost associated with the acquisition) in 2001 in connection with the Company's acquisition of NCE. On December 31, 2002 the Company completed the sale of NCE for $14.0 million.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's cash requirements have historically been satisfied through a combination of cash flow from operations, equity and debt financings and loans from stockholders. Working capital needs and capital equipment requirements in the continuing operations have increased as a result of the growth of the Company and are expected to continue to increase as a result of anticipated growth. Anticipated increases in required working capital and capital equipment expenditures are expected to be met from cash flow from operations, equipment financing and borrowings under a credit facility. As of December 31, 2003, the Company had a net working capital surplus of approximately $16.4 million.

The Company generated cash from continuing operations of $9.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2003. Net cash generated from continuing operating activities was primarily the result of net earnings, plus non-cash expense such as depreciation expense and increases in accounts payable and accrued liabilities. This was partially offset by increases in accounts receivable, inventories and prepaid expenses. The increases in accounts receivable, inventories, and accounts payable are primarily the result of increase in sales and related production activities. The significant decrease in the deferred income taxes of $8.4 million is partially offset by the increase in refundable income taxes of $5.7 million and is primarily the result of the loss from the discontinued logistics operations and its subsequent sale. Discontinued operations used cash in the amount of $2.5 million for fiscal 2003.

The Company used cash from investing activities of $3.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2003. This was primarily the result of the purchase of fixed assets of $9.8 million offset by proceeds from the sale of the logistics business of $6.2 million, including $2 million in cash at closing and $4.2 million in the collection of notes receivable.

The Company used $3.8 million of cash flow in financing activities for the year ended December 31, 2003, primarily for repayment of subordinated debt as discussed below. The Company had net borrowings on its credit facility of $1.6 million, redeemed $3.5 million in junior subordinated debentures; paid dividends of $2.5 million and received proceeds from the issuance of common stock of $1.2 million

The Company maintains a secured Credit Facility with a syndicate of banks led by Comerica Bank N.A. The amount of the facility was $53.9 million on December 31, 2003, and has an expiration date of July 2006. As of December 31, 2003 the Credit Facility had a balance of $40.0 million. The Credit Facility consists of two loans. The first is a $25.0 million revolving loan with no borrowing base formula. Availability under the revolving loan at December 31, 2003 was $13.9 million. The second loan is a term loan of $28.9 million. The Company made quarterly principal payments of $1.1 million on the term loan. The Credit Facility is secured by assets of the Company and its subsidiaries and provides for the issuance of up to $5 million in standby or documentary letters of credit. The Credit Facility may be utilized for general corporate purposes, including working capital and acquisition financing, and provides the Company with borrowing options for multi-currency loans. Borrowing options include a Eurocurrency rate, or a base rate. Advances under the facility bore interest at an effective average rate of approximately 4.0% and 4.4% as of December 31, 2002 and 2003, respectively. Costs of originating the Credit Facility of $1.3 million are being amortized over three years. The unamortized balance of origination costs is $0.9 million at December 31, 2003 and is included in other assets. The Credit Facility is subject to customary financial and other covenants including, but not limited to, limitations on consolidations, mergers, and sales of assets, and bank approval on acquisitions over $15 million.

The Company has from time to time, been in violation of certain of its financial debt ratio covenants and covenants relating to the issuance of preferred stock and the payment of preferred and common stock dividends, requiring it to obtain waivers of default from its lenders. At December 31, 2003 the Company is in compliance with all of its financial debt covenants under the Credit Facility.

In January 2004, the Company amended its credit facility to increase the facility to $74.0 million. The revolving loan was increased to $35.0 million with no borrowing base formula and the term loan was increased to $39.0 million. The Company makes quarterly payments of principal under the term loan of $1.4 million. The amendment and increase in the credit facility was primarily to facilitate the acquisition of LWI. LWI was purchased for $14.0 million in cash and the assumption of $0.7 million in subordinated notes payable with up to an additional $1.0 million payable if certain new business is awarded to the Company within twelve months. Subsequent to the acquisition of LWI, the Company completed the sale of its distribution business for approximately $5.5 million in cash and received approximately $6.1 million in a tax refund, both of which were applied to reduce borrowings under the credit facility.

On March 26, 2004, the Company issued $40 million in 4% unsecured convertible subordinated notes (the "Note") in a private placement. The Note has a three year term, maturing on March 31, 2007 and may be extended another three years at the holder's option. The Note is convertible at the holder's option at anytime prior to maturity into shares of the Company's common stock at $32 per share (subject to adjustment pursuant to the terms of the Note). The interest rate on the Note is 4% and is fixed for the entire term. Proceeds from the Note are being used to reduce the Company's current bank borrowings, including paying off the term loan balance and reducing amounts outstanding under the $35 million revolving credit facility, which remains in place.

The Company guarantees $3.0 million of SET's senior debt in connection with its sale of NMF and NMPM to SET. The Company would be required to perform under the guarantee if SET was unable to repay or renegotiate its credit facility. The Company expects the guarantee to be eliminated upon the maturity of SET's credit facility in August 2004, provided SET is in compliance with the terms of its credit facility. As of December 31, 2003, the Company had not been notified by SET or SET's lender of any default that would require performance under the guarantee. The maximum amount the Company would be required to pay is $3.0 million. The Company does not currently carry a liability for this guarantee. The guarantee is unsecured and the Company would be entitled to the proceeds from any liquidation after the senior debt lender had been paid in full.

On July 31, 1998 and concluding August 10, 1998 the Company closed a private offering of 6% Convertible Subordinated Debentures (the "Debentures") for gross proceeds of $20.76 million. The proceeds were used to reduce the amount of outstanding advances under the Credit Facility. The Debentures mature on July 31, 2005 and interest is payable on January 31 and July 31 of each year; provided, however, that for the first three years, in lieu of cash interest, additional Debentures were issued. During the years ended December 31, 1999, 2000, and 2001 the Company issued $1.2 million, $1.1 million and $1.0 million, respectively, in additional Debentures as payment of interest. The Debentures are unsecured obligations of the Company which may be redeemed by the Company during the twelve months beginning July 31, 2002 at 102.5% of the principal amount (plus accrued interest) and at 101.5% and 100.5% during each 12 month period following. Commencing November 30, 1998, the Debentures became convertible into Common Stock at $14.3125 per share (subject to adjustment). Beginning January 31, 2004 and on each July 31 and January 31 thereafter, the Company is required to redeem for cash 25% of the outstanding principal amount of the Debentures through the maturity date. During 2001, the Company redeemed $1.1 million of Debentures for $0.35 million in cash and 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. Offering costs of $1.114 million on the original issuance are being amortized over seven years. The unamortized balance of offering costs is $0.2 million at December 31, 2003 and is included in other assets. During 2003, the holders of approximately $3.5 million in subordinated Debentures exercised their option to convert their subordinated Debentures into the Company's common stock. The balance of subordinated Debentures outstanding at December 31, 2003 was $12.5 million. Subsequent to December 31, 2003 holders of an additional approximately $9.5 million in subordinated Debentures exercised their option to convert their subordinated Debentures into the Company's common stock. On February 2, 2004 the Company made a mandatory retirement payment pursuant to the terms of the subordinated debenture of $0.8 million. The balance of subordinated Debentures outstanding after the conversions and the mandatory retirement payment was approximately $2.2 million.

On December 16, 1998 and concluding December 22, 1998 the Company closed a private offering of Junior Subordinated Notes (the "Junior Notes"), together with 105,000 warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Company at an exercise price of $10.00 per share expiring on the maturity date, for gross proceeds of $3.5 million with $.141 million, or $1.34 per share, attributable to the warrants. The proceeds were used to reduce the Credit Facility. The Junior Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and were sold to qualified investors as part of a private offering pursuant to Regulation D of a maximum of $10 million in principal amount of Junior Notes. The Junior Notes are unsecured obligations of the Company, which may be redeemed by the Company upon five days prior notice without penalty or premium. The Junior Notes matured on December 16, 2003 and were redeemed in full. The Company has no warrants outstanding as of December 31, 2003.

On April 22, 2002, the Company completed a sale and leaseback transaction of its Shelbyville, KY facility to the Company's Chairman. The sale price was $6.2 million which was equal to the book value of the property. The proceeds of the transaction were used to reduce the Company's debt under its current credit facility. The lease has a term of five years and provides for monthly rent of $0.07 million. The sale price and rent amount were determined by the estimated fair value of the property and estimated prevailing lease rates for similar properties. Although the Company did not obtain an independent valuation of the property or the terms of the transaction, it believes the terms of the sale and leaseback were at least as favorable to Noble as terms that could have been obtained from an unaffiliated third party. The Company has accounted for this lease as an operating lease.

The liquidity provided by the Company's existing and anticipated credit facilities, combined with cash flow from continuing operations is expected to be sufficient to meet currently anticipated working capital and capital expenditure needs and for existing debt service for at least 12 months. There can be no assurance, however, that such funds will not be expended prior thereto due to changes in economic conditions or other unforeseen circumstances, requiring the Company to obtain additional financing prior to the end of such twelve-month period. In addition, the Company continues to evaluate, as part of its business strategy, and may pursue future growth through opportunistic acquisitions of assets or companies which may involve the expenditure of significant funds. Depending upon the nature, size and timing of future acquisitions, the Company may be required to obtain additional debt or equity financing. There can be no assurance, however, that additional financing will be available to the Company, when and if needed, on acceptable terms or at all.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company's off balance sheet financing consists primarily of operating leases for equipment and property. These leases have terms ranging from a month-to-month basis to thirteen years. In 2003, lease expense was approximately $3.7 million. From 2003 through 2007 and thereafter the Company will make contractual minimum lease payments as well as short and long-term debt payments as follows (in thousands):

FUTURE MATURITIES AND CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

	Total	1 Year	Less Than 1-3 Years	4-5 Years	Over Years
Long-term debt (including lines of credit)	$52,999	$9,999	$ 43,000	$ -	$ -
Operating leases for equipment and property	$38,664	$3,843	$ 6,695	$ 5,745	$22,380
Purchase obligations	$ 518	$ 518	$ -	$ -	$ -

Purchase obligations include primarily commitments for capital expenditures. We have not included information on our recurring purchases of materials used in our manufacturing operations. These amounts are generally consistent from year to year, closely reflect our levels of production and are not long term in nature (less than three months).

The Company also expects to receive minimum rental income of approximately $1.2 million per year for the period 2004 through 2012 related to the sublease of a portion of one of the Company's manufacturing facilities to SET.

Critical Accounting Policies

A summary of the critical accounting policies consistently applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements follow below.

Property, Plant and Equipment. The Company's automotive operations are highly capital intensive. Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided for using the straight line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets which range from 5 to 39 years for buildings and improvements and 3 to 10 years for machinery and equipment. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. The Company capitalizes interest cost associated with construction in progress. Capitalized interest costs in 2002 and 2003 were $0.3 million and $0.5 million, respectively. The Company periodically reviews the realization of long-lived assets, based on an evaluation of remaining useful lives and the current and expected future profitability and cash flows related to such assets. Land is carried at acquisition cost.

Valuation of deferred tax assets. Because the Company operates in different geographic locations, including several state and local tax jurisdictions, the nature of the Company's tax provisions and the evaluation of the Company's ability to use all recognized deferred tax assets are complex. In assessing the ability to realize such deferred tax assets, the Company reviews the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, the projections of taxable income in future periods and the effectiveness of various tax planning strategies in making assessments. The consideration of these matters requires significant management judgment in determining deferred tax asset valuation allowances. While it is believed that the appropriate valuations of deferred tax assets has been made, unforeseen changes in tax legislation, regulatory activities, operating results, financing strategies, organization structure and other related matters may result in material changes in the Company's deferred tax asset valuation allowances.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

Goodwill. Goodwill is the excess of cost over the fair value of net assets acquired in business combinations and through December 31, 2001 was amortized over a 20-year period on the straight-line method. On January 1, 2002 the Company implemented Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 142 "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets." Under SFAS 142 goodwill and other intangible assets are no longer amortized. As required under SFAS 142, management will regularly evaluate the carrying value of businesses and determine if any impairment exists. As part of the evaluation, the Company estimates the fair value of the reporting unit to determine whether or not impairment has occurred. At adoption and at June 2002 and June 2003, the Company determined that goodwill was not impaired. As of December 31, 2002 and 2003, the Company had an unamortized goodwill balance from continuing operations of $11.5 million and $11.8 million, respectively. The change in goodwill reflects approximately $0.3 million in purchased goodwill related to the acquisition of Prototube. In the fourth quarter of 2002 and 2003, the Company made the strategic decision to exit its logistics and distribution businesses, respectively, and as a result their operations have been included in discontinued operations. In connection therewith, the Company, based upon the anticipated proceeds from the sale of those businesses, incurred goodwill impairment charges of approximately $19.9 million and $2.0 million related to the logistics and distribution businesses, respectively. In March 2003, the Company completed the sale of the logistics operations for approximately $11.1 million in cash and notes. On January 28, 2004 the Company completed the sale of the distribution business for approximately $5.5 million in cash.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts. The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the inability of its customers to make required payments. Management makes these estimates based on an analysis of accounts receivable using available information on our customers' financial status and payment histories. Historically, with the exception of $1.2 million of bad debt expense recorded in 2002 related to the National Steel bankruptcy and $0.4 million in 2003 related to the Rouge Steel bankruptcy, bad debt losses have not been significant or have not differed materially from the Company's estimates. The balance in the allowance for doubtful accounts at December 31, 2003 and 2002 was $0.1 million and $0, respectively.

Inflation

Inflation generally affects the Company by increasing the interest expense of floating rate indebtedness and by increasing the cost of labor, fuel, equipment and raw materials. The Company does not believe that inflation has had any material effect on its business over the past three years.

Impact of New Accounting Pronouncements

FASB Statement No. 150. In May 2003, the FASB issued Statement No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Both Liabilities and Equity." FASB Statement No. 150 affects the accounting for mandatorily redeemable shares, options and forward purchase contracts that require the issuer to repurchase shares and certain obligations that can be settled in shares. FASB Statement No. 150 is effective for all financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003 and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period after June 15, 2003. The adoption of this statement did not have any material impact on the results of operations of financial position of the Company at December 31, 2003.

FIN No. 46. In January 2003, FASB issued Interpretation 46,

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

"Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an interpretation of ARB 51." FIN No. 46 requires that the primary beneficiary of a variable interest entity consolidate the entity even if the primary beneficiary does not have a majority voting interest. The adoption of this interpretation did not have any impact on our results of operations or financial position at December 31, 2003.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company is exposed to the impact of foreign currency fluctuations. International revenues from the Company's foreign subsidiaries were approximately 19% of total revenues from continuing operations for fiscal 2003. The Company's primary foreign currency exposure is the Canadian Dollar. The Company manages its exposures to foreign currency assets and earnings primarily by funding certain foreign currency denominated assets with liabilities in the same currency and, as such, certain exposures are naturally offset. Refer to Note N of Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

The Company's financial results are affected by changes in U.S. and foreign interest rates due primarily to the Company's Credit Facility containing a variable interest rate. The Company does not hold any other financial instruments that are subject to market risk (interest rate risk and foreign exchange rate risk).

SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURE OF NON-CASH FINANCING ACTIVITIES:

During 2001, the Company issued $1.0 million of convertible subordinated Debentures as payment for interest expense.

During 2001, $1.105 million of convertible subordinated Debentures were repurchased of which part of the purchase price consisted of 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock.

During 2001, 53,030 shares of the Company's Common Stock were issued in connection with the purchase of NCE.

During 2002, the Company exchanged an account receivable from SET of $2.0 million for certain equipment with a fair market value of $2.0 million.

During 2002, the market price requirement of 107,452 shares of the Company's putable common stock that was issued in connection with the acquisition of DSI in 2000 was met, resulting in the put option expiring. Therefore, the common stock was reclassified from long-term debt to stockholders' equity.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

During 2003, approximately $3.5 million of convertible subordinated Debentures were converted into 247,748 shares of the Company's Common Stock.

During 2003, the Company exchanged its $7.6 million non-convertible, non-voting redeemable preferred stock investment in SET for $7.6 million in Series A non-convertible, non-voting preferred stock which provides an 8% annual dividend, and is non-redeemable by the Company. In addition, the Company was issued 4% of the outstanding common stock of SET. The excess of the estimated fair values of the preferred and common stock received over the carrying value of the redeemable preferred stock has been recorded on the Company's books as a component of other income in the statement of operations for approximately $0.3 million.

During 2003, the Company sold its logistics business for approximately $11.1 million, including $2.0 million in cash and approximately $9.1 million in notes.

NOBLE INTERNATIONAL, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FISCAL YEARS 2001, 2002 AND 2003

NOTE A - BASIS OF PRESENTATION, NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. All amounts related to discontinued operations in fiscal 2002 and 2003 have been reclassified in prior fiscal years' financial statements in order to conform to the current year presentation.

NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Noble International Ltd., through its subsidiaries, is a full-service provider and industry leader of tailored laser welded blanks for the automotive industry. The principal markets for its products and services are the United States and Canada.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the significant accounting policies consistently applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements follows below.

Revenue Recognition and Accounts Receivable

Revenue is recognized when products are shipped and title transfers under standard commercial terms. Shipping costs associated with the delivery of products are classified as part of cost of sales in the statement of income. On a regular basis the Company evaluates the credit risk of customers and collection risk of outstanding accounts receivable. Based upon its analysis at December 31, 2003 the Company recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts of $0.1 million. In 2002, National Steel filed for Bankruptcy protection. As a result of this event, the Company recorded bad debt expense of approximately $1.2 million in 2002. In 2003, Rouge Industries and its subsidiary, Rouge Steel, filed for bankruptcy protection. As a result of this event, the Company recorded bad debt expense of $0.4 million in the fourth quarter of 2003.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

All highly liquid investments with maturities of less than three months are considered to be cash equivalents.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost, determined on a first-in, first-out basis, or market.

Property, Plant, and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is determined using the straight line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from 5 to 39 years for buildings and improvements, and 3 to 10 years for machinery and equipment.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the lives of the leases or estimated useful lives of the assets, whichever is less. When assets are sold or otherwise retired, the cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the books and the resulting gain or loss is included in other income/(expense). The Company capitalizes interest costs associated with construction in progress. Capitalized interest costs in 2000, 2001 and 2003 were $0.4 million, $0.3 million and $0.5 million, respectively.

Goodwill and Covenants Not to Compete

Goodwill is the excess of cost over the fair value of net assets acquired in business combinations and through December 31, 2001 was amortized over a 20-year period on the straight-line method. On January 1, 2002 the Company implemented SFAS 142. Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 142 goodwill and other intangible assets are no longer amortized; instead, management will evaluate at least annually the carrying value of its businesses and determine if any impairment exists. As of December 31, 2002 and 2003 the Company's continuing operations had goodwill (net of accumulated amortization) of $11.5 million and $11.8 million, respectively. The change in goodwill during 2003 is a result of the acquisition of Prototube, which resulted in goodwill of approximately $0.3 million. Previously reported net income and earnings per share related to the amounts adjusted for the exclusion of goodwill amortization net of the related income tax effect follows (per share amounts are subject to rounding):

GOODWILL AND ADOPTION OF STATEMENT NO. 142

Add: Goodwill amortization, net of tax	0.06	-	-
Adjusted diluted earnings per share from continuing operations	$ 0.92	$ 0.57	$ 0.57

For fiscal year 2003, no goodwill or other intangible assets related to continuing operations were impaired or disposed. Refer to Note B for discussion regarding the impairment of goodwill as it relates to the Company's logistics and distribution operations which are included in discontinued operations for 2003 and prior years.

Covenants not to compete attributable to continuing operations are amortized over the life of the agreement, typically three to five years. As of December 31, 2003 the Company has a balance of covenants not to compete of $0.2 million, net of accumulated amortization of $1.2 million. Annual amortization expense for fiscal years 2001, 2002 and 2003 was $0.2 million. The Company expects to fully amortize the existing covenants not to compete by fiscal 2004.

NOBLE INTERNATIONAL, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FISCAL YEARS 2001, 2002 AND 2003

NOTE A - BASIS OF PRESENTATION, NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

On January 1, 2002, the Company adopted SFAS 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". The new standard requires one model of accounting for long-lived assets to be disposed of and broadens the definition of discontinued operations. The adoption of this standard had no impact at January 1, 2002. The Company periodically evaluates the carrying value of its long-lived assets in accordance with SFAS 144, based on an evaluation of remaining useful lives and upon the estimated cash flows to be generated by these assets. The impairment review is generally triggered when such events as a significant industry downturn, product discontinuance, plant closures, product dispositions, technological obsolescence or other changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. When such events occur, the Company evaluates the book value against the fair value of the assets.

During the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company made the decision to exit the distribution business and after estimating the net proceeds from a sale of the business, recorded a goodwill impairment charge of $2.0 million.

The Company made the decision to exit the logistics business segment in the fourth quarter of 2002. The Company began discussions with potential buyers and determined that the business was impaired. An impairment charge primarily related to goodwill of $19.9 million was recorded in December 2002. Refer to Note B for further discussion with respect to the disposition of the logistics and distribution segments.

In addition, the Company has classified certain real estate holdings as assets held for sale. The Company has determined that due to current market conditions the value of these properties is lower than their net book value. Therefore, the Company has recorded a $0.9 million impairment charge for these assets in fourth quarter of 2002.

Stock-Based Compensation

In December 2002, FASB issued SFAS 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure - an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123. The main objective of SFAS 148 is to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to fair value-based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. SFAS 148 also amends the disclosure requirements of SFAS 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements with respect to the method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results.

The Company accounts for its Stock Option and Stock Incentive Plans (the "Plans") under APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized under the Plans. Had compensation cost been determined based on the fair value at the grant dates for awards under the Plan consistent with the method of SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation, the Company's net earnings and earnings per share would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts indicated in the following table for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003 (in thousands, except per share data):

SFAS 148 did not have any impact on the results of operations or financial position in 2002 or 2003.

Fair values of options granted were determined using the Black-Scholes option pricing model based on the assumptions of 3.0%, 2.82% and 2.94% risk-free interest rate for 2001, 2002 and 2003; dividend yield of 4% for 2001 and 2002, and 1.7% for 2003; expected life of 5 years and expected volatility of 93.02%, 210.0% and 45% for 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively. The weighted average fair value of options granted were $3.91, $6.80 and $3.77 during 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

Income Taxes

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

The Company accounts for income taxes using an asset and liability approach that requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities, net of any valuation allowance, for the expected future tax consequences attributable to deductible temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases, and the effect of operating loss and tax credit carry forwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years when those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in the period that includes the enactment date.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments include cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, notes receivable and long-term debt. The carrying value of these instruments approximates their estimated fair value.

37

NOBLE INTERNATIONAL, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FISCAL YEARS 2001, 2002 AND 2003

NOTE A - BASIS OF PRESENTATION, NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Foreign Currency Translation

Balance sheet accounts of the Company's foreign operations for which the local currency is the functional currency is translated into U.S. dollars at period-end exchange rates, while income, expenses and cash flows are translated at average exchange rates during the period. Translation gains or losses related to net assets of such operations are shown as accumulated comprehensive loss in stockholders' equity in the balance sheet and separately as a component of comprehensive income in the statement of comprehensive income. Gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions, which are transactions denominated in a currency other than the U.S. dollar, are considered to be realized and are included as a component of other income in the consolidated statement of operations.

Earnings (loss) per share

Basic earnings (loss) per share exclude dilution and are computed by dividing income (loss) available to common stockholders by the weighted-average common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised and converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that then shared in the earnings of the entity.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE INTERNATIONAL LTD - Form 10-K

The convertible subordinated Debentures equating to approximately 1.1 million shares were not included in the calculation of diluted earnings per share in 2002 as their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive.

The following tables reconcile the numerator and denominator to calculate basic and diluted earnings (loss) on common shares before extraordinary items and discontinued operations for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003 (in thousands, except share and per share amounts). These figures differ from amounts previously reported due to the discontinuance and reclassification of certain operations. Refer to Note B.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

SFAS No. 150. In May 2003, the FASB issued Statement No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Both Liabilities and Equity." FASB Statement No. 150 affects the accounting for mandatorily redeemable shares, options and forward purchase contracts that require the issuer to repurchase shares and certain obligations that can be settled in shares. FASB Statement No. 150 is effective for all financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003 and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period after June 15, 2003. The adoption of this statement did not have any material impact on the results of operations of financial position of the Company at December 31, 2003.

FIN No. 46. In January 2003, FASB issued Interpretation 46, "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an interpretation of ARB 51." FIN No. 46 requires that the primary beneficiary of a variable interest entity consolidate the entity even if the primary beneficiary does not have a majority voting interest. The adoption of this interpretation did not have any impact on our results of operations or financial position at December 31, 2003.

NOTE B - DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS AND ASSETS HELD FOR SALE

HEAVY EQUIPMENT

On December 31, 2002 the Company completed the sale of its heavy equipment segment ("NCE") for $14.0 million in cash to an entity in which the Company's Chairman and another officer have an interest. Due to the related party nature of the transaction, an independent committee of the board of directors was formed to evaluate, negotiate and complete the sale of this business. In addition, an independent fairness opinion related to the sale was obtained. The Company sold this segment in order to focus on its core automotive operations. The sale resulted in a pre-tax extraordinary gain of $0.3 million. Condensed financial information relating to the discontinued heavy equipment operations follows (in thousands). It should be noted that the Company purchased NCE on December 15, 2001 and fiscal year 2001 results of operations cover only

DISTRIBUTION

During the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company made the decision to exit the distribution business. The sale of the distribution business was completed on January 28, 2004 for approximately $5.5 million in cash to an entity in which the Company's Chairman and another officer have an interest. Due to the related party nature of the transaction, an independent committee of the board of directors was formed to evaluate, negotiate, and complete the sale of this business. In addition, an independent fairness opinion related to the sale was obtained. In the fourth quarter of 2002, the Company made the strategic decision to focus on its core automotive business and as a result classified the distribution business in discontinued operations for fiscal years 2003 and prior. In accordance with SFAS 144, the Company valued the business based upon the estimated net proceeds from the anticipated sale. As a result, an impairment charge of approximately $2.0 million was recorded. Condensed financial information relating to the discontinued distribution business and net assets of discontinued operations held for sale follows (in thousands):

During fiscal year 2002 and 2003, the Company decided to sell certain real estate assets. As a result, the real estate was reclassified as "Assets Held for Sale" on the consolidated balance sheet. As of December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2003 the real estate held for sale had a book value, net of accumulated depreciation, of $1.1 million and $4.3 million, respectively. The Company was required to value this property at the anticipated sales price less costs to dispose. The Company determined that the current market conditions valued these properties at an amount lower than the current carrying value. Therefore, the Company recorded a $0.9 million impairment charge in the fourth quarter of 2002.

On April 1, 2002, the Company converted its $7.6 million note receivable in connection with the sale of certain of the Company's operations (Refer to Note K), including interest, from SET Enterprises, Inc. ("SET") into redeemable preferred stock of SET. The preferred stock is non-voting and is redeemable at the Company's option in 2007. The Company agreed to convert the subordinated promissory note to redeemable preferred stock in order to assist SET in obtaining capital without appreciably decreasing the Company's repayment rights or jeopardize SET's minority status. Management believes that continued support of SET furthers the joint strategic objectives of the two companies.

On August 1, 2003 SET completed its acquisition of Michigan Steel Processing, Inc. ("MSP"), a subsidiary of Sumitomo Corporation of America ("SCOA"). As part of the transaction, SCOA contributed 100% of the common stock of MSP in exchange for 45% of the common stock of SET. In addition, the Company reduced its guarantee of SET's senior debt from $10.0 million to $3.0 million for a period of one year, after which the guarantee may be eliminated. The Company exchanged its $7.6 million non-convertible, non-voting redeemable preferred stock investment in SET for $7.6 million in Series A non-convertible, non-voting preferred stock which provides an 8% annual dividend. The Series A preferred stock is non-redeemable by the Company. The Series A preferred stock is redeemable by SET at its option. In connection with the transaction, the Company was issued 4% of the outstanding common stock of SET. The excess of the estimated fair values of the preferred and common stock received over the carrying value of the redeemable preferred stock has been recorded on the Company's books as a component of other income in the statement of operations for approximately $0.3 million.

On March 21, 2003 the Company completed the sale of its logistics group (NLS-TX, formerly DSI; NLS-CA, formerly ATD, CTD) for approximately $11.1 million in cash and notes as well as the assumption of substantially all payables and liabilities. The transaction included cash of $2.0 million at closing, two short-term notes totaling approximately $5.1 million, a $1.5 million three-year amortizing note and a $2.5 million five-year amortizing note. The interest rate on the three-year and five-year notes is 4.5%. On August 14, 2003 the Company and the buyer amended the repayment terms of the remaining balance on the short-term notes. The amended terms provide for repayment of the short-term notes by July 31, 2004 and for payment of interest on the outstanding balance at an annual rate of 7%. As of December 31, 2003 the balance on the short term notes was approximately $1.8 million and the balance on the long term notes was $3.3 million.

NOTE F - LINE OF CREDIT AND LONG-TERM DEBT

The Company maintains a secured Credit Facility with a syndicate of banks led by Comerica Bank N.A. The amount of the facility was $53.9 million on December 31, 2003, and has an expiration date of July 2006. As of December 31, 2003 the Credit Facility had a balance of $40.0 million. The Credit Facility consisted of two loans. The first is a $25.0 million revolving loan with no borrowing base formula. Availability under the revolving loan at December 31, 2003 was $13.9 million. The second loan is a term loan of $28.9 million. The Company made quarterly principal payments of $1.1 million on the term loan. The Credit Facility is secured by assets of the Company and its subsidiaries and provides for the issuance of up to $5 million in standby or documentary letters of credit. The Credit Facility may be utilized for general corporate purposes, including working capital and acquisition financing, and provides the Company with borrowing options for multi-currency loans. Borrowing options include a Eurocurrency rate, or a base rate. Advances under the facility bore interest at an effective average rate of approximately 4.0% and 4.4% as of December 31, 2002 and 2003, respectively. Costs of originating the Credit Facility of $1.3 million are being amortized over three years. The unamortized balance of origination costs is $0.9 million at December 31, 2003 and is included in other assets. The Credit Facility is subject to customary financial and other covenants including, but not limited to, limitations on consolidations, mergers, and sales of assets, and bank approval on acquisitions over $15 million.

The Company has, from time to time, been in violation of certain of its financial debt ratio covenants and covenants relating to the issuance of preferred stock and the payment of preferred and common stock dividends, requiring it to obtain waivers of default from its lenders. At December 31, 2003 the Company is in compliance with all of its financial debt covenants under the Credit Facility.

In January 2004, the Company amended its credit facility to increase the facility to $74.0 million. The revolving loan was increased to $35.0 million with no borrowing base formula and the term loan was increased to $39.0 million. The Company makes quarterly payments of principal under the term loan of $1.4 million. The amendment and increase in the credit facility was primarily to facilitate the acquisition of LWI. LWI was purchased for $14.0 million in cash and the assumption of $0.7 million in subordinated notes payable (refer to Note K). Subsequent to the acquisition of LWI, the Company completed the sale of its distribution business for approximately $5.5 million in cash and received approximately $6.1 million in a tax refund, both of which were applied to reduce borrowings under the credit facility

The Company guarantees $3.0 million of SET's senior debt in connection with its sale of NMF and NMPM to SET (refer to Note K). The Company would be required to perform under the guarantee if SET was unable to repay or renegotiate its credit facility. The Company expects the guarantee to be eliminated upon the maturity of SET's credit facility in August 2004, provided SET is in compliance with the terms of its credit facility. As of December 31, 2003, the Company had not been notified by SET or SET's lender of any default that would require performance under the guarantee. The maximum amount the Company would be required to pay is $3.0 million. The Company does not currently carry a liability for this guarantee. The guarantee is unsecured and the Company would be entitled to the proceeds from any liquidation after the senior debt lender had been paid in full.

On July 31, 1998 and concluding August 10, 1998 the Company closed a private offering of 6% Convertible Subordinated Debentures (the "Debentures") for gross proceeds of $20.76 million. The proceeds were used to reduce the amount of outstanding advances under the Credit Facility. The Debentures mature on July 31, 2005 and interest is payable on January 31 and July 31 of each year; provided, however, that for the first three years, in lieu of cash interest, additional Debentures were issued. During the years ended December 31, 2000, and 2001 the Company issued $1.1 million and $1.0 million, respectively, in additional Debentures as payment of interest. The Debentures are unsecured obligations of the Company which may be redeemed by the Company during the twelve months beginning July 31, 2002 at 102.5% of the principal amount (plus accrued interest) and at 101.5% and 100.5% during each 12 month period following. Commencing November 30, 1998, the Debentures became convertible into Common Stock at $14.3125 per share (subject to adjustment). Beginning January 31, 2004 and on each July 31 and January 31 thereafter, the Company is required to redeem for cash 25% of the outstanding principal amount of the Debentures through the maturity date. During 2001, the Company redeemed $1.1 million of Debentures for $0.35 million in cash and 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. Offering costs of $1.114 million on the original issuance are being amortized over seven years. The unamortized balance of offering costs is $0.2 million at December 31, 2003 and is included in other assets. During 2003, the holders of approximately $3.5 million in subordinated Debentures exercised their option to convert their subordinated Debentures into the Company's common stock. The balance of subordinated Debentures outstanding at December 31, 2003 was $12.5 million. Subsequent to December 31, 2003 holders of an additional approximately $9.5 million in subordinated Debentures exercised their option to convert their subordinated Debentures into the Company's common stock. On February 2, 2004 the Company made a mandatory retirement payment pursuant to the terms of the subordinated debenture of $0.8 million. The balance of

On December 16, 1998 and concluding December 22, 1998 the Company closed a private offering of Junior Subordinated Notes (the "Junior Notes"), together with 105,000 warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Company at an exercise price of $10.00 per share expiring on the maturity date, for gross proceeds of $3.5 million with $.141 million, or $1.34 per share, attributable to the warrants. The proceeds were used to reduce the Credit Facility. The Junior Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and were sold to qualified investors as part of a private offering pursuant to Regulation D of a maximum of $10 million in principal amount of Junior Notes. The Junior Notes were unsecured obligations of the Company which matured on December 16, 2003 and were redeemed in full. The Company has no warrants outstanding as of December 31, 2003.

On March 26 2004, the Company issued $40 million in 4% unsecured convertible subordinated notes (the "Note") in a private placement. The Note has a three year term, maturing on March 31, 2007 and may be extended another three years at the holder's option. The Note is convertible at the holder's option at anytime prior to maturity into shares of the Company's common stock at $32 per share (subject to adjustment pursuant to the terms of the Note). The interest rate on the Note is 4% and is fixed for the entire term. Proceeds from the Note are being used to reduce the Company's current bank borrowings, including paying off the term loan balance and reducing amounts outstanding under the $35 million revolving credit facility, which remains in place.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed annually for differences between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income.

At December 31, 2002 and 2003, the Company reported $2.2 million and $1.0 million, respectively, of deferred tax assets attributable to foreign tax credit carry forwards. The foreign tax credit carry forwards at December 31, 2003 can be utilized over a five-year period, but if unused during that period they will expire in varying amounts in the years 2007 to 2009. Realization of the foreign tax credit carry forwards is dependent upon generating sufficient foreign income and United States tax liability during the 5-year carry forward period. Management believes that there is sufficient risk that some of these foreign tax credit carry forwards may expire unused and, accordingly, there is an offsetting valuation allowance as of December 31, 2002 and 2003 of $0.5 million. During 2003, management recorded a $2.0 million goodwill impairment charge that is related to the Company's distribution business. The goodwill impairment charge has been reflected in discontinued operations. The tax loss attributable to the impairment charge was realized during the first quarter of 2004 when the distribution business was sold. The resulting tax loss attributable to the stock sale will result in a capital loss carryforward, which management does not expect to utilize during the statutory 5-year carryforward period. Therefore, the Company has recorded the deferred tax asset of $0.7 million and an offsetting valuation allowance in the same amount. Although not assured, management expects the Company to earn sufficient future income in order to realize the deferred tax assets net of the valuation allowance, which are recorded at December 31, 2003.

At December 31, 2003, the Company recorded net refundable income taxes of approximately $5.9 million which relate primarily to discontinued operations. In February 2004, the Company received the tax refund payment.

NOTE I - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

On February 15, 2001, the Company repurchased 160,000 shares of its Common Stock from its Chairman for $880,000 in cash.

On April 22, 2002, the Company completed a sale and leaseback transaction of its Shelbyville, KY facility to the Company's Chairman. The sale price was $6.2 million which was equal to the book value of the property. The proceeds of the transaction were used to reduce the Company's debt under its current credit facility. The lease has a term of five years and provides for monthly rent of $0.07 million. The sale price and rent amount were determined by the estimated fair value of the property and estimated prevailing lease rates for similar properties. Although the Company did not obtain an independent valuation of the property or the terms of the transaction, it believes the terms of the sale and leaseback were at least as favorable to Noble as terms that could have been obtained from an unaffiliated third party. Rent expense for 2002 and 2003 was approximately $0.6 million and $0.8 million, respectively.

On December 31, 2002 the Company completed the sale of NCE for $14.0 million in cash to an entity in which the Company's Chairman and another officer have an interest. Due to the related party nature of the transaction, an independent committee of the board of directors was formed to evaluate, negotiate and complete the sale of this operation. In addition, an independent opinion regarding the fairness of the transaction was obtained.

On January 28, 2004 the Company completed the sale of its distribution business (Monroe, Peco, PMP, PMD) for $5.5 million in cash to an entity in which the Company's Chairman and another officer have an interest. Due to the related party nature of the transaction, an independent committee of the board of directors was formed to evaluate, negotiate and complete the sale of this business. In addition, an independent opinion regarding the fairness of the transaction was obtained.

NOTE J - SIGNIFICANT CUSTOMERS

For the year ended December 31, 2003 three customers accounted for 37%, 18%, and 17%, respectively, of net sales from continuing operations.
