[MONTH DAY], 2002

Dear Weatherford Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to join us at a Special Meeting of Stockholders of Weatherford International, Inc. to be held at 11:00 a.m. (Houston time) on [DAY], [MONTH DAY], 2002. The special meeting will be held at The St. Regis Hotel located at 1919 Briar Oaks Lane in Houston, Texas.

We are pleased to present for your approval a proposed merger for the purpose of reorganizing your company. As a result of the merger, Weatherford International, Inc. will become an indirect subsidiary of a new Bermuda holding company, and you will become a shareholder of the new Bermuda holding company. The proposal is explained in the attached proxy statement/prospectus, which we encourage you to read.

If the merger is completed, Weatherford International Ltd., a Bermuda exempted company that we recently formed (which we refer to as Weatherford Bermuda), and its subsidiaries will continue to conduct the business now conducted by Weatherford International, Inc. (which we refer to as Weatherford Delaware) and its subsidiaries. We believe this merger will facilitate the growth of your company by enabling it to gain business, financial and strategic advantages that are not available under our current corporate structure. The merger should enhance our access to international capital markets and our competitiveness regarding international opportunities. It should also increase our operational flexibility and improve our global tax position and cash flow. Additionally, the company should be a more attractive investment alternative to a wider range of investors.

The shares you own of Weatherford Delaware will automatically be converted into the right to receive common shares of Weatherford Bermuda on completion of the merger. The number of Weatherford Bermuda shares you will own will be the same as the number of Weatherford Delaware shares you own immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and your relative economic ownership in the company will remain unchanged. The shares of Weatherford Bermuda will have substantially the same attributes as your existing Weatherford Delaware shares, and will be listed on The New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "WFT", which is the same symbol under which your existing Weatherford Delaware shares are currently listed.

Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, stockholders of Weatherford Delaware who are U.S. persons will recognize gain, if any, but not loss, on the receipt of Weatherford Bermuda common shares in exchange for Weatherford Delaware shares pursuant to the merger. Further, the holding period for any Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by a U.S. holder recognizing gain with respect to the merger will begin the day after the effective date of the merger.

WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO CONSULT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISORS REGARDING YOUR PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER.

This proxy statement/prospectus provides you with detailed information regarding the merger. We encourage you to read this entire document carefully. PLEASE CONSIDER THE RISK FACTORS BEGINNING ON PAGE 8.

The merger cannot be completed unless the holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock on [RECORD DATE], 2002 approve it. A newly formed acquisition company will be merged with and into Weatherford Delaware. Weatherford Delaware will be the surviving company and will continue to exist. Weatherford Bermuda will become the indirect parent holding company of Weatherford Delaware.

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS APPROVED THE AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" ITS ADOPTION.

Whether or not you plan on attending the special meeting in person, it is important that your shares be represented and voted. After reading the enclosed notice of special meeting and proxy statement/ prospectus, please sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card. We urge you to join us in supporting this important opportunity.

Please note that our annual meeting of stockholders is being held on June 26, 2002 at 9:00 a.m. You should have already received a proxy statement and a proxy card for the annual meeting. IN ORDER FOR YOUR SHARES TO BE VOTED AT BOTH THE ANNUAL MEETING AND THE SPECIAL MEETING, YOU MUST COMPLETE AND RETURN BOTH PROXY CARDS. Please read "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 46.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus as well as other filings made by us with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, and our releases issued to the public contain various statements relating to future results, including certain projections and business trends. We believe these statements constitute "Forward-Looking Statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

The following sets forth the various assumptions we use in our forward-looking statements as well as risks and uncertainties relating to those statements. Certain of the risks and uncertainties may cause actual results to be materially different from projected results contained in forward-looking statements in this proxy statement/prospectus and in our other disclosures. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, those described in "Risk Factors" beginning on page 8 and the following:

- Unanticipated costs or nonrealization of expected benefits could affect our projected results. An inability to realize expected benefits of the merger within the anticipated time frame, or at all, would likely affect the forward-looking information provided by us. Similarly, any cost or difficulty related to the merger and related transactions, which could be greater than expected or thought, would also affect the forward-looking information provided by us.
- Unanticipated changes in tax laws could have an adverse effect on our financial condition. Any change in tax laws, tax treaties or tax regulations or the interpretation or enforcement thereof or differing interpretation or enforcement of applicable law by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authorities would likely affect the forward-looking information provided by us.
- A downturn in market conditions could affect our projected results. Any material changes in oil and gas supply and demand balance, oil and gas prices, rig count or other market trends would affect our results and would likely affect the forward-looking information provided by us. The oil and gas industry is extremely volatile and subject to change based on political and economic factors outside our control. In recent periods, there has been a general decrease in prices for oil and natural gas, reflecting diminished demand attributable to political and economic issues. In particular, the United States economy and most foreign economies have weakened in recent periods. An extended regional and/or worldwide recession would result in even lower demand and lower prices for oil and gas, which would adversely affect our revenues and income. At this time, we have assumed that material declines in 2002 will be limited to North and Latin America. Furthermore, our forward-looking statements regarding our drilling and completion products and services assume a modest improvement in the international rig count in 2002 and that no extended material declines in the North American rig count will occur.
- Our results are dependent upon our ability to react to the current market environment. During the fourth quarter of 2001 and 2002 to date, we implemented a number of programs intended to reduce costs and align our cost structure with the current market environment. Our forward-looking statements assume these measures will generate the savings expected and, if the markets continue to decline, that any additional actions we pursue will be adequate to achieve the desired savings.

 A material disruption in our manufacturing could adversely affect some divisions of our business. Our forward-looking statements assume that any manufacturing expansion and consolidation will be completed without material disruptions. If there are disruptions or excess costs associated with manufacturing changes, our results could be adversely affected.

- Our success is dependent upon the integration of acquisitions. During 2001, we consummated acquisitions of several product lines and businesses, including the acquisition of Johnson Screens. The success of our acquisitions will be dependent on our ability to integrate the product lines and businesses with our existing businesses and eliminate duplicative costs. We incur various duplicative costs during the integration of the operations of acquired businesses into our operations. Our forward-looking statements assume the successful integration of the operations of the acquired businesses and their contribution to our results during 2002; however, there can be no assurance that the expected benefits of these acquisitions will materialize. Integration of acquisitions is something that cannot occur in the short-term and that requires constant effort at the local level to be successful. Accordingly, there can be no assurance as to the ultimate success of these integration efforts.
- Our long-term growth strategy is dependent upon technological advances. Our ability to succeed with our long-term growth strategy is dependent in part on the technological competitiveness of our products and services. A central aspect of our growth strategy is to enhance the technology of our current products and services, to obtain new technologically-advanced value-added products through internal research and development and/or acquisitions and to then expand the markets for the technology through the leverage of our worldwide infrastructure. These technological advances include our underbalanced drilling technology, expandable technology, rotary expansion systems and recently added production optimization and fiber optic sensor technology. Our forward-looking statements have assumed above-average growth from these new products and services in 2002.
- Currency fluctuations could have a material adverse financial impact on our business. A material decline in currency rates in our markets could affect our future results as well as affect the carrying values of our assets. World currencies have been subject to much volatility. Our forward-looking statements assume no material impact from future changes in currencies.
- Political disturbances, war, or terrorist attacks and changes in global trade policies could adversely impact our operations. Political disturbances, war, or terrorist attacks and changes in global trade policies could impact our operations. We have assumed that there will be no material political disturbances, war, or terrorist attacks and that there will be no material changes in global trade policies.
- Unexpected litigation and legal disputes could have a material adverse financial impact. If we experience unexpected litigation or unexpected results in our existing litigation that have a material effect on our financial results, the accuracy of the forward-looking statements would be affected. Our forward-looking statements assume that there will be no material unexpected litigation or results.

Finally, our future results will depend upon various other risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, those detailed in Weatherford Delaware's other filings with the SEC. For additional information regarding risks and uncertainties, please read Weatherford Delaware's other current filings with the SEC under the Exchange Act and the Securities Act, particularly under "Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Weatherford Delaware's Annual Report on Form 10-K for our year ended December 31, 2001. These filings are available free of charge at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by forward-looking statements. As you make your decision how to vote, please take into account that forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this document or, in the case of documents incorporated by reference, the date of any such document. We will generally update our assumptions in our filings as circumstances require.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

WHEN AND WHERE WILL THE SPECIAL MEETING BE HELD?

The special meeting will be held on [DAY], [MONTH DAY], 2002 at 11:00 a.m. (Houston time) at The St. Regis Hotel, located at 1919 Briar Oaks Lane in Houston, Texas.

WHAT AM I BEING ASKED TO VOTE ON AT THE SPECIAL MEETING?

You are being asked to vote on a proposed merger for the purpose of reorganizing your company. As a result of the merger, Weatherford Delaware will become an indirect subsidiary of Weatherford Bermuda, and you will become a shareholder of Weatherford Bermuda. The board of directors recommends you vote FOR this proposal.

HOW WILL THE MERGER BE ACCOMPLISHED?

A new Delaware company, Weatherford Merger, Inc., which has been formed specifically for the merger and is owned by Weatherford Bermuda, will merge with and into Weatherford Delaware. Weatherford Delaware will be the surviving company in the merger and will become an indirect subsidiary of Weatherford Bermuda. Each share of Weatherford Delaware common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will automatically convert into the right to receive a common share of Weatherford Bermuda. Weatherford Bermuda will be the new Bermuda parent company of the entire Weatherford International group of companies, which will continue to be engaged in the same business that Weatherford Delaware and its subsidiaries were engaged in before the merger. The additional steps in the merger are more fully described in "The Merger -- Structure of the Merger" on page 11.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS TO THE COMPANY OF COMPLETING THIS MERGER?

A significant portion of our business is currently generated from non-U.S. markets. We believe the merger will allow us to take advantage of financial and other business opportunities that are not available under our current corporate structure, including:

- maximization of our potential business growth and cash flow;
- expansion of our international businesses as a result of greater flexibility in financing arrangements, transaction structuring and access to global capital;
- increased competitiveness regarding domestic and international acquisition opportunities;
- potential improvement of our global tax position and global cash management;

- use of the greater cash flow to invest for further earnings growth; and
- expansion of our investor base as our company's shares may become more attractive to non-U.S. investors.

We believe these benefits should enhance stockholder value. However, we cannot predict what impact, if any, the merger will have in the long term because the achievement of our objectives depends on many things, including our ability to react to any changes in the tax laws and treaties of the various jurisdictions in which we operate or where we are incorporated or are resident. Please read "The Merger -- Background and Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 11.

It is important to note that currently proposed legislation, if enacted, would have the effect of eliminating or reducing the anticipated tax benefits of the transaction.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO MY EXISTING SHARES OF COMMON STOCK OF WEATHERFORD DELAWARE IN THE MERGER?

Your Weatherford Delaware shares will automatically be converted into the right to receive Weatherford Bermuda shares. The number of Weatherford Bermuda shares you will own as a result of the merger will be the same as the number of Weatherford Delaware shares you own immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and your relative economic ownership in the company will remain unchanged. The shares of Weatherford Bermuda will have substantially the same attributes as your existing shares of common stock of Weatherford Delaware and will be listed on The New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "WFT", which is the same symbol under which your existing shares of common stock of Weatherford Delaware are currently listed.

WILL THE MERGER DILUTE MY OWNERSHIP INTEREST?

No. The merger will not dilute your ownership interest. Immediately after the merger is consummated you will own the same percentage of Weatherford Bermuda common shares as you own of Weatherford Delaware common stock immediately prior to the completion of the merger.

WILL I BE TAXED AS A RESULT OF THE MERGER?

Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, stockholders who are U.S. persons will recognize gain, if any, but not loss, on the receipt of Weatherford Bermuda common shares in exchange for Weatherford Delaware common stock in connection with the merger. A U.S. holder will generally recognize gain equal to the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares received in the merger over the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock. Generally, this gain will be capital gain. Further, the holding period for any Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by a U.S. holder recognizing gain with respect to the merger will begin the day after the effective date of the merger. Stockholders will not be permitted to recognize any loss realized on the exchange of their shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock in the merger. In the case of a loss, the adjusted tax basis in each Weatherford Bermuda common share received would equal the adjusted tax basis of each share of Weatherford Delaware common stock surrendered in exchange therefor, and the holding period relative to the Weatherford Delaware common stock would carry over to the Weatherford Bermuda common shares. Thus, subject to any subsequent changes in the fair market value of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares, any loss would be preserved.

WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO CONSULT YOUR TAX ADVISORS REGARDING YOUR PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER.

WILL WEATHERFORD DELAWARE OR WEATHERFORD BERMUDA BE TAXED AS A RESULT OF THE MERGER?

We believe that Weatherford Delaware and Weatherford Bermuda should not incur any significant taxes in connection with consummation of the merger. However, changes in tax laws, treaties or regulations or the interpretation or enforcement of these tax laws, treaties or regulations, could adversely affect the tax consequences of the merger to Weatherford Bermuda, its subsidiaries and the shareholders of Weatherford Bermuda and its subsidiaries. In addition, if the U.S. Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authorities do not agree with our assessment of the effects or interpretation of these laws, treaties and regulations, this could have a material adverse effect on the tax consequences of the merger.

It is important to note that several members of the United States Congress have introduced legislation that, if enacted, would have the effect of eliminating or reducing the anticipated tax benefits of the transaction. In addition, several other members of the United States Congress and the Treasury Department have recently announced the intent to investigate transactions such as the merger. As a result of the increased scrutiny of these transactions, changes in the tax laws, tax treaties or tax regulations may occur, with prospective or retroactive effect, which could have an adverse effect on the expected benefits of the merger. If in response to any of these changes Weatherford Bermuda or its subsidiaries undertake a corporate restructuring, such restructuring could result in additional adverse tax consequences to Weatherford Bermuda, its subsidiaries or its shareholders.

WHEN DO YOU EXPECT TO COMPLETE THE MERGER?

We intend to complete the merger promptly after the stockholders of Weatherford Delaware approve the merger agreement at the special meeting, although the board of directors may delay completion of the merger for some period of time after stockholder approval pending receipt of third party consents or for other business reasons.

WHY WAS BERMUDA SELECTED AS THE PLACE OF INCORPORATION OF THE NEW PARENT COMPANY?

We chose Bermuda for its political stability, legal framework and business friendly environment. The first international (i.e., not locally owned) company was incorporated in Bermuda in the 1930s, and there are currently many companies incorporated there that are publicly traded on U.S. and European markets. We also chose Bermuda because of our familiarity with Bermuda and its corporate legal system through our experience with a subsidiary of Weatherford Delaware that has been incorporated in Bermuda since 1983. Under current Bermuda law, a Bermuda company is not required to pay taxes in Bermuda on either income or capital gains. In addition, despite some differences, the corporate legal system, based on English law, is such that your rights as a Weatherford Bermuda shareholder will be substantially similar to your rights as a stockholder in Weatherford Delaware. We encourage you to read the section "Comparison of Rights of Stockholders" beginning on page 29 for a more detailed description of the differences between your rights under Delaware law and under Bermuda law.

WILL THE PROPOSAL AFFECT CURRENT OPERATIONS? WHAT ABOUT THE FUTURE?

The merger will have no immediate major impact on how we conduct day-to-day operations. The location of future operations will depend on the needs of our business, independent of our place of incorporation.

Although Weatherford Bermuda will be incorporated under Bermuda law, Weatherford Bermuda will be legally managed and controlled through an executive office located in Barbados and consequently will become resident in Barbados. Weatherford Bermuda will be registered as an external company in Barbados under the Barbados Companies Act, Cap. 308 of the laws of Barbados, and licensed to operate as an "International Business Company" or "IBC." As a resident of Barbados, Weatherford Bermuda should be entitled to the benefits under the income tax treaty entered into between the United States and Barbados. Under current Barbados law, an IBC will be required to pay a maximum rate of 2.5% income tax, which is gradually reduced to a minimum of 1% as income increases, on its non-Barbados source income.

WHAT VOTE IS REQUIRED TO APPROVE THE TRANSACTION?

In order for us to effect the merger, we need affirmative votes from holders of a majority of the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock outstanding on [MONTH DAY], 2002. SHARES FOR WHICH NO VOTES ARE CAST EFFECTIVELY WILL BE TREATED AS THOUGH THEY WERE VOTED AGAINST THE AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER, SO IT IS VERY IMPORTANT FOR ALL STOCKHOLDERS TO VOTE. Please read "The Special Meeting -- Vote Required for Approval" on page 18.

WILL I BE ABLE TO TRADE MY SHARES DURING THE TIME IT TAKES TO COMPLETE THE MERGER?

Yes.

DO I HAVE TO CHANGE MY STOCK CERTIFICATES?

Yes. At the effective time of the merger, a subsidiary of Weatherford Bermuda who is a party to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, Weatherford U.S. Holdings, L.L.C., will cause certificates representing a sufficient number of Weatherford Bermuda common shares to be deposited with an exchange agent for the purpose of enabling stockholders to exchange their Weatherford Delaware common stock for an equal number of Weatherford Bermuda common shares. After the merger occurs, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the exchange agent appointed by Weatherford U.S. Holdings in connection with the merger, will send a letter of transmittal to stockholders of Weatherford Delaware that will provide instructions on these exchange procedures. PLEASE DO NOT SEND ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES AT THIS TIME.

For further information, please read "The Merger -- Share Conversion; Exchange of Shares" beginning on page 14.

WHO CAN VOTE AT THE SPECIAL MEETING?

All holders of record of Weatherford Delaware common stock as of the close of business on [MONTH DAY], 2002 are entitled to vote, or to grant proxies to vote, at the special meeting. Each share of Weatherford Delaware common stock is entitled to cast one vote.

WHO IS SOLICITING THESE PROXIES?

Your vote and proxy is being solicited by Weatherford Delaware's board of directors for use at the special meeting. This proxy statement/prospectus and enclosed proxy card are being sent to stockholders beginning on or about [MONTH DAY], 2002.

In addition, Weatherford Delaware has retained Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc. to solicit proxies at an estimated fee of $6,500, plus expenses. This fee does not include the costs of preparing, printing, assembling, delivering and mailing the proxy materials. Some of our directors, officers and employees may also solicit proxies personally, without any additional compensation, by telephone or mail. Proxy materials also will be furnished without cost to brokers and other nominees to forward to the beneficial owners of shares held in their names.

HOW DO I VOTE IF MY SHARES ARE REGISTERED IN MY NAME?

By completing, signing and returning your proxy card in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope, you will authorize the persons named on the proxy card to vote your shares according to your instructions. You may also vote by following the Internet or telephone voting instructions on the enclosed proxy card.

Please vote as soon as possible even if you currently plan to attend the meeting in person, so that your shares may be represented and voted at the special meeting.

HOW DO I VOTE IF MY BROKER HOLDS MY SHARES IN "STREET NAME"?

You should follow the voting instructions provided by your broker.

IF MY BROKER HOLDS MY SHARES IN "STREET NAME," WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

If you do not provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your "street name" shares, your broker will not be permitted to vote them for or against the merger. You should complete and return the enclosed form of proxy or be sure to provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares.

WHAT DO I DO IF I WANT TO CHANGE MY VOTE?

There are three ways in which you may revoke your proxy and change your vote:

- First, you may send a written notice to our proxy solicitor, Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc., stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. This notice must be received prior to the special meeting.
- Second, you may complete and submit a new, later-dated proxy either by Internet, by telephone or in writing. The latest dated proxy actually received by Weatherford Delaware prior to the special meeting will be the one that is counted, and all earlier proxies will be revoked.
- Third, you may attend the special meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy. At the special meeting, the chairman of the meeting will announce instructions for you to follow if you wish to revoke your proxy and vote in person at the meeting.

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow the directions received from your broker to change or revoke your proxy.

WHAT DO I DO IF I RECEIVE MULTIPLE PROXY CARDS?

If you receive multiple proxy cards, this indicates that your shares are held in more than one account, such as two brokerage accounts, and are registered in different names. You should vote each of the proxy cards to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

HOW WILL MY SHARES BE VOTED IF I DO NOT INDICATE HOW I WISH TO VOTE?

If you sign the proxy card but do not indicate how you wish to vote for the merger, the persons named on the proxy card will vote FOR the merger. If you "withhold" your vote for the merger, this will be counted as a vote AGAINST the merger.

HOW MANY SHARES CONSTITUTE A QUORUM?

As of [MONTH DAY], 2002, there were [SHARE NUMBER] shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock issued and outstanding. The holders of the common stock have the right to cast a total of [SHARE NUMBER] votes. The presence, in person or by proxy, of stockholders entitled to cast at least [SHARE NUMBER] votes will constitute a quorum at the special meeting. If you have followed the Internet or telephone voting instructions on the enclosed proxy card, or properly signed and returned your proxy card by mail, you will be considered part of the quorum. If a broker holding your shares in "street name" indicates to us on a proxy card that the broker lacks discretionary authority to vote your shares, we will not consider your shares as present or entitled to vote for any purpose.

THE MERGER

PARTIES TO THE MERGER

WEATHERFORD INTERNATIONAL, INC.

Weatherford Delaware is one of the world's leading providers of equipment and services used for the drilling, completion and production of oil and natural gas wells. Weatherford Delaware, as we know it today, was formed in connection with the May 1998 merger of Weatherford Enterra, Inc. into EVI, Inc. We were incorporated under the laws of Delaware in 1972. Many of our businesses, including those of Weatherford Enterra, have been conducted for more than 50 years.

We conduct operations in approximately 100 countries and have approximately 485 service and sales locations, which are located in nearly all of the oil and natural gas producing regions in the world. We are among the leaders in each of our primary markets, and our distribution and service network is one of the most extensive in the industry.

Our business is divided into three principal operating divisions:

- Drilling and Intervention Services -- This division provides (1) drilling systems, (2) well installation services, (3) cementing products and (4) underbalanced drilling. It is a leader in each of these markets, and this division offers its products and services worldwide. Currently, this division generates approximately 54% of its revenues outside North America.
- Completion Systems -- This division provides a full range of completion products and services. It maintains a growing share of the world's completion market and offers leading proprietary and patented technologies, such as our expandable systems, aimed at minimizing formation damage and maximizing production. Currently, this division generates approximately 61% of its revenues outside North America.
- Artificial Lift Systems -- This division is the only organization in the world that is able to provide all forms of artificial lift used primarily for the production of oil. It also provides production optimization services and automation and monitoring of well head production. The current geographical mix of this division's revenues is 63% North American and 37% international.

In addition to the above operations, historically we operated a Compression Services Division and a Drilling Products Division. In February 2001, we completed the merger of essentially all of our Compression Services Division into a subsidiary of Universal Compression Holdings, Inc. in exchange for 13.75 million shares of Universal, or approximately 48% of Universal's then outstanding common stock. In April 2000, we completed the spin-off to our stockholders of our Drilling Products Division through a distribution of the stock of our Grant Prideco, Inc. subsidiary. Grant Prideco's operations have been classified as discontinued in our financial statements.

THE MERGER (Please read page 11)

Weatherford Delaware's board of directors has approved and recommends that you adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger. The terms of the merger are set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger attached as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus. As a result of the merger, you will own shares in a Bermuda company rather than a Delaware corporation. For a more detailed description of the differences between your rights under Delaware law and under Bermuda law, please read "Comparison of Rights of Stockholders" beginning on page 29. After completion of the merger, Weatherford Bermuda and its subsidiaries will continue to conduct the same business that Weatherford Delaware and its subsidiaries now conduct.

The merger involves the following steps:

- 1. Merger Sub will merge with and into Weatherford Delaware. Weatherford Delaware will be the surviving entity and become an indirect subsidiary of Weatherford Bermuda.
- 2. In the merger, each outstanding share of common stock of Weatherford Delaware will automatically convert by operation of law into the right to receive one common share of Weatherford Bermuda. Stockholders of Weatherford Delaware will own exactly the same number of Weatherford Bermuda common shares immediately after the merger as they owned in Weatherford Delaware immediately before the merger. For a description of the terms of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares, please read the discussion under "Description of Authorized Shares of Weatherford International Ltd." beginning on page 21.

result of the merger. Each outstanding certificate representing shares of Weatherford Delaware shall automatically represent the right to receive the same number of Weatherford Bermuda common shares. Following the merger, certificates for common shares of Weatherford Bermuda will be issued upon surrender of certificates for existing shares of common stock of Weatherford Delaware to an exchange agent appointed by Weatherford U.S. Holdings. PLEASE DO NOT SEND ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES AT THIS TIME.

REASONS FOR THE MERGER (Please read page 11)

International activities are an important part of our current business, and we believe that international operations will account for a greater percentage of our total revenues in the future. For the year ended December 31, 2001, non-U.S. revenues accounted for 59% of our revenues. Expansion of our international business is an important part of our current business strategy, and we believe that significant growth opportunities exist in the international marketplace. We believe that the merger will allow us to implement our business strategy more effectively.

We believe that the merger should increase our access to international capital markets and acquisition opportunities, increase our attractiveness to non-U.S. investors, improve global cash management, improve our global tax position and result in a more favorable corporate structure for expansion of our current business. We anticipate that the merger may result in significant global tax savings. However, we cannot give any assurance as to what our global tax savings will be after the merger. In addition, a number of our competitors are incorporated outside of the United States and already have these competitive advantages. We believe the merger will allow us to compete more effectively on a global scale.

For a discussion of the risk factors associated with the merger, please read the discussion under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 8.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO STOCKHOLDERS (Please read page 38)

Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, stockholders who are U.S. persons will recognize gain, if any, but not loss, on the receipt of Weatherford Bermuda common shares in exchange for Weatherford Delaware common stock in connection with the merger. A U.S. holder will generally recognize gain equal to the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares received in the merger over the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock. Generally, this gain will be capital gain. Further, the holding period for any Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by a U.S. holder recognizing gain with respect to the merger will begin the day after the effective date of the merger. Stockholders will not be permitted to recognize any loss realized on the exchange of their shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock in the merger. In the case of a loss, the adjusted tax basis in each Weatherford Bermuda common share received would equal the adjusted tax basis of each share of Weatherford Delaware common stock surrendered, and the holding period relative to the Weatherford Delaware common stock would carry over to the Weatherford Bermuda common shares. Thus, subject to any subsequent changes in the fair market value of Weatherford Bermuda common shares, any loss would be preserved.

WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO CONSULT YOUR TAX ADVISORS REGARDING YOUR PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER.

CONDITIONS TO CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER (Please read page 13)

The consummation of the merger is conditioned on several factors, including the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Weatherford Delaware entitled to vote at the special meeting and that none of the parties to the Agreement and Plan of Merger is subject to any governmental authority that in the discretion of the board of directors of Weatherford Delaware would make the consummation of the merger inadvisable.

CREDIT FACILITIES (Please read page 16)

As a result of the merger, Weatherford Delaware may fail to comply with certain covenants contained in its credit agreements and other debt instruments. In addition, the merger may be deemed a "change of control" or constitute a "termination event" under these facilities. A change of control, termination event or failure to comply with covenants could

- require mandatory prepayment of all amounts borrowed under these debt instruments,
- result in a default under certain debt instruments, or
- terminate Weatherford Delaware's ability to sell receivables under its receivables facility.

Weatherford Delaware intends to seek waivers in connection with any violations, change of control or termination events that require mandatory prepayments or trigger defaults, although we cannot assure you that Weatherford Delaware will be able to obtain these waivers. If waivers are not obtained, Weatherford Delaware will need to refinance amounts under the relevant agreements. Weatherford Delaware does not believe the mandatory prepayments, defaults or termination events will adversely affect it, its operations or its stockholders or Weatherford Bermuda or its shareholders if the merger is completed.

RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS (Please read page 29)

The principal attributes of the existing Weatherford Delaware common stock and the Weatherford Bermuda common shares will be substantially similar. There are differences, however, between the rights of stockholders under Delaware law and shareholders under Bermuda law. In addition, there are differences between Weatherford Delaware's certificate of incorporation and by-laws and Weatherford Bermuda's memorandum of association and bye-laws. We encourage you to read the section titled "Comparison of Rights of Stockholders" beginning on page 29 for a more detailed discussion of these differences.

STOCK EXCHANGE LISTING; RECENT STOCK PRICES (Please read page 16)

Immediately following the merger, Weatherford Bermuda's common shares will be listed on The New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "WFT", the same symbol under which Weatherford Delaware's common stock is currently listed.

The closing price per share of Weatherford Delaware's common stock on The New York Stock Exchange was $44.99 on April 4, 2002. The high and low sales prices of Weatherford Delaware's common stock on The New York Stock Exchange were $47.16 and $44.55 on April 4, 2002, the last trading day before the public announcement of the merger.

NO RIGHTS OF DISSENTING STOCKHOLDERS (Please read page 15)

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, you will not have "dissenters" or appraisal rights in connection with the merger.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT OF THE MERGER (Please read page 16)

The merger will be accounted for as a merger of entities under common control that will not result in changes in our historical consolidated carrying amounts of assets, liabilities and stockholders' equity.

RISK FACTORS

SOME WEATHERFORD DELAWARE STOCKHOLDERS WILL RECOGNIZE A TAXABLE GAIN AS A RESULT OF THE MERGER.

Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, stockholders who are U.S. persons will recognize gain, if any, but not loss, on the receipt of Weatherford Bermuda common shares in exchange for Weatherford Delaware common stock in connection with the merger. A U.S. holder will generally recognize gain equal to the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares received in the merger over the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock. Generally, this gain will be capital gain. Further, the holding period for any Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by a U.S. holder recognizing gain with respect to the merger will begin the day after the effective date of the merger. Stockholders will not be permitted to recognize any loss realized on the exchange of their shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock in the merger. In the case of a loss, the adjusted tax basis in each Weatherford Bermuda common share received would equal the adjusted tax basis of each share of Weatherford Delaware common stock surrendered, and the holding period relative to the Weatherford Delaware common stock would carry over to the Weatherford Bermuda common shares. Thus, subject to any subsequent changes in the fair market value of Weatherford Bermuda common shares, any loss would be preserved.

WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO CONSULT YOUR TAX ADVISORS REGARDING YOUR PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER.

THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE AND OTHER NON-U.S. TAXING AUTHORITIES MAY NOT AGREE WITH OUR TAX TREATMENT OF VARIOUS ITEMS.

We believe that Weatherford Delaware and Weatherford Bermuda will not incur any significant taxes in connection with consummation of the merger. However, changes in tax laws, treaties or regulations or the interpretation or enforcement of these tax laws, treaties or regulations, could adversely affect the tax consequences of the merger to Weatherford Bermuda, its subsidiaries and the shareholders of Weatherford Bermuda and its subsidiaries. In addition, if the U.S. Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authorities do not agree with our assessment of the effects or interpretation of these laws, treaties and regulations, Weatherford Delaware could incur a material amount of U.S. federal income tax as a result of the merger.

WEATHERFORD BERMUDA MAY BECOME SUBJECT TO U.S. CORPORATE INCOME TAX, WHICH WOULD REDUCE WEATHERFORD BERMUDA'S NET INCOME.

Weatherford Delaware currently is subject to U.S. corporate income tax on its worldwide income. After the merger, Weatherford Delaware and its then-existing U.S. subsidiaries will continue to be subject to U.S. corporate income tax on their worldwide income, and Weatherford Delaware's then existing foreign subsidiaries will continue to be subject to U.S. corporate income tax on their U.S. operations. Weatherford Bermuda anticipates that its non-U.S. operations will not be subject to U.S. corporate income tax.

Weatherford Bermuda and other non-U.S. Weatherford affiliates will conduct their operations in a manner intended to ensure that Weatherford Bermuda and its non-U.S. affiliates do not engage in the conduct of a U.S. trade or business and, thus, we believe that Weatherford Bermuda and its non-U.S. affiliates should not be required to pay U.S. corporate income tax, other than withholding tax on U.S. source income. However, if the IRS successfully contends that Weatherford Bermuda or any of its non-U.S. affiliates are engaged in a trade or business in the United States, Weatherford Bermuda or such non-U.S. affiliate would be required to pay U.S. corporate income tax on income that is subject to the taxing jurisdiction of the United States, and possibly the U.S. branch profits tax.

LEGISLATION HAS BEEN PROPOSED THAT WOULD TREAT WEATHERFORD BERMUDA AS A U.S. CORPORATION FOR TAX PURPOSES AFTER THE MERGER.

Several members of the United States Congress have introduced legislation that, if enacted, may cause Weatherford Bermuda to be treated as a U.S. corporation for tax purposes. One bill would apply beginning in 2003 to corporations regardless of when such corporations effectuated their restructuring. Two bills would apply immediately to any corporation restructuring after September 11, 2001 and would apply beginning in 2004 to corporations restructuring on or before September 11, 2001. A fourth bill would apply to corporations restructuring on or after January 1, 2002.

In addition, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and the ranking Republican member have expressed concern with restructurings of the sort we are proposing and stated that they will introduce a bipartisan bill on the issue. In a separate initiative, the United States Treasury Department has indicated that it will study such restructurings. It is impossible at this time to predict what legislation, if any, may be enacted.

Weatherford Delaware will review all legislative developments prior to completing the merger to determine whether it is advisable to proceed. If the merger is completed, it is possible that legislation may be enacted thereafter with retroactive effect, which will treat Weatherford Bermuda as a U.S. corporation for tax purposes or reduce certain other benefits of the merger. In this event, under certain circumstances, Weatherford Bermuda might be subjected to more burdensome U.S. taxes than an ordinary U.S. corporation. Moreover, if Weatherford Bermuda for this or any other reason decided to redomesticate in the United States, the shareholders would possibly incur a tax on any incremental post-merger gain or possibly on their share of the earnings and profits, as determined for tax purposes, of Weatherford Bermuda.

WEATHERFORD BERMUDA IS A BERMUDA EXEMPTED COMPANY, AND IT MAY BE DIFFICULT FOR YOU TO ENFORCE JUDGMENTS AGAINST WEATHERFORD BERMUDA OR ITS DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS.

Weatherford Bermuda is a Bermuda exempted company. As a result, the rights of holders of Weatherford Bermuda common shares will be governed by Bermuda law and Weatherford Bermuda's memorandum of association and bye-laws. The rights of shareholders under Bermuda law may differ from the rights of shareholders of companies incorporated in other jurisdictions. One of the persons who will be a director of Weatherford Bermuda after the merger and some of the named experts referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus are not residents of the United States, and a substantial portion of Weatherford Bermuda's assets will be located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process on those persons in the United States or to enforce in the United States judgments obtained in U.S. courts against Weatherford Bermuda or those persons based on the civil liability provisions of the U.S. securities laws. We have been advised by our Bermuda counsel, Conyers Dill & Pearman, that uncertainty exists as to whether courts in Bermuda will enforce judgments obtained in other jurisdictions, including the United States, against Weatherford Bermuda or its directors or officers under the securities laws of those jurisdictions or entertain actions in Bermuda against Weatherford Bermuda or its directors or officers under the securities laws of other jurisdictions.

WEATHERFORD BERMUDA'S BYE-LAWS RESTRICT SHAREHOLDERS FROM BRINGING LEGAL ACTION AGAINST WEATHERFORD BERMUDA'S OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS.

Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws contain a broad waiver by Weatherford Bermuda's shareholders of any claim or right of action, both individually and on Weatherford Bermuda's behalf, against any of Weatherford Bermuda's officers or directors. The waiver applies to any action taken by an officer or director, or the failure of an officer or director to take any action, in the performance of his or her duties, except with respect to any matter involving any fraud or dishonesty on the part of the officer or director. This waiver limits the right of shareholders to assert claims against Weatherford Bermuda's officers and directors unless the act or failure to act involves fraud or dishonesty.

WEATHERFORD BERMUDA'S BYE-LAWS HAVE ANTI-TAKEOVER PROVISIONS THAT MAY DISCOURAGE A CHANGE OF CONTROL.

Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws contain provisions that could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire us without the consent of our board of directors. These provisions provide for:

- directors only to be removed for cause;
- restrictions on the time period in which directors may be nominated; and
- the board of directors to determine the powers, preferences and rights of Weatherford Bermuda's preference shares and to issue the preference shares without shareholder approval.

Similar to the current authority of Weatherford Delaware's board of directors, the board of directors of Weatherford Bermuda may issue preferred shares and determine their rights and qualifications. The issuance of preferred shares may delay, defer or prevent a merger, amalgamation, tender offer or proxy contest involving Weatherford Bermuda. This may cause the market price of Weatherford Bermuda shares to decrease significantly.

These provisions could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire Weatherford Bermuda, even if the third party's offer may be considered beneficial by many shareholders. As a result, shareholders may be limited in their ability to obtain a premium for their shares.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A STOCKHOLDER WILL CHANGE AS A RESULT OF THE MERGER.

Because of differences in Bermuda law and Delaware law and differences in the governing documents of Weatherford Bermuda and Weatherford Delaware, your rights as a stockholder will change if the merger is completed. For a description of these differences, please read "Comparison of Rights of Stockholders -- Comparison of Corporate Governance Provisions" beginning on page 29

STRUCTURE OF THE MERGER

The board of directors of Weatherford Delaware has approved and recommends that you adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger. Under the Agreement and Plan of Merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into Weatherford Delaware. Weatherford Delaware will be the surviving company in the merger and become an indirect subsidiary of Weatherford Bermuda. The terms of the merger are set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger attached as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus. As a result of the merger, your shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock will automatically convert into the right to receive the same number of Weatherford Bermuda common shares.

After completion of the merger, you will own an interest in a Bermuda holding company which, through Weatherford Delaware and its other subsidiaries, will be engaged in the same business that Weatherford Delaware and its subsidiaries were engaged in prior to the merger.

The merger involves the following steps:

- 1. Merger Sub will merge with and into Weatherford Delaware. Weatherford Delaware will be the surviving entity and become an indirect subsidiary of Weatherford Bermuda.
- 2. In the merger, each outstanding share of common stock of Weatherford Delaware will automatically convert by operation of law into the right to receive one common share of Weatherford Bermuda. Stockholders of Weatherford Delaware will own exactly the same number of Weatherford Bermuda common shares immediately after the merger as they owned in Weatherford Delaware immediately before the merger. For a description of the terms of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares, please read the discussion under "Description of Authorized Shares of Weatherford International Ltd." beginning on page 21.

Although Weatherford Bermuda will be incorporated under Bermuda law, Weatherford Bermuda will be legally managed and controlled through an executive office located in Barbados. Weatherford Bermuda will be registered as an external company in Barbados under the Barbados Companies Act, Cap. 308 of the laws of Barbados, and licensed to operate as an "International Business Company" or "IBC."

BACKGROUND AND REASONS FOR THE MERGER

INTERNATIONAL EXPANSION

International activities are an important part of our current business. Internationally, operating revenues were approximately $1,020 million in 2000 and $1,379 million in 2001, accounting for approximately 56% and 59%, respectively, of our total operating revenues in these years. We believe that a substantial portion of future opportunities for our services will be outside of the United States and accordingly, we believe international operations will account for a greater percentage of our total revenues in the future. We believe the merger will give us competitive advantages not available to a U.S. company. As a Bermuda company, we believe we will have greater access to international capital markets and international acquisition opportunities, which will allow us to implement our international expansion strategy more effectively. In addition, a number of our competitors are incorporated outside of the United States and already have these competitive advantages. We believe the merger will allow us to compete more effectively on a global scale.

GLOBAL TAX POSITION

The board of Weatherford Delaware is recommending the merger in part because it believes that the merger will improve our global tax position and should maximize potential growth and cash flow. We anticipate that the reorganized structure may enhance our ability to realize significant tax savings. However, we cannot give any assurance as to what our tax savings will be after the merger. After the merger, our tax rate will depend on, among other things, profitability and the relative mix of our operations worldwide and our ability to react to any changes in tax laws, treaties and policies and the interpretation of these laws, treaties and policies in the jurisdictions where we operate or are incorporated or are resident. Our actual effective tax rate may vary materially from our expectations.

As a result of the expected improvement in cash flow, we believe we will be able to:

- maximize growth of existing businesses; and
- commit additional capital to international expansion.

Weatherford Bermuda will be indirectly subject to U.S. tax on income earned from its U.S. business much as we are now. However, we believe the merger may:

- improve our global tax position;
- facilitate foreign tax savings through a more flexible corporate structure; and
- provide future U.S. tax savings to the extent that new foreign businesses may be held by Weatherford Bermuda without any intervening U.S. owners.

Thus, the new corporate structure should give us greater flexibility in seeking to lower our worldwide tax liability and effective tax rate.

In addition, Weatherford Delaware's board believes that the merger will result in a more favorable corporate structure for expansion of our current business because it will facilitate the cost effective acquisition and operation of non-U.S. businesses.

It is important to note that several members of the United States Congress have introduced legislation that, if enacted, would have the effect of eliminating or reducing the anticipated tax benefits of the transaction. In addition, several other members of the United States Congress and the Treasury Department have recently announced the intent to investigate transactions such as the merger. As a result of the increased scrutiny of these transactions, changes in the tax laws, tax treaties or tax regulations may occur, with prospective or retroactive effect, which could have an adverse effect on the expected benefits of the merger. If in response to any of these changes Weatherford Bermuda or its subsidiaries undertake a corporate restructuring, such restructuring could result in additional adverse tax consequences to Weatherford Bermuda, its subsidiaries or its shareholders.

POTENTIAL EXPANSION OF INVESTOR BASE

The board of Weatherford Delaware also believes that the merger may increase Weatherford Bermuda's attractiveness to non-U.S. investors. Estate taxes are payable in some cases in respect of the value of shares in a U.S. corporation owned by a non-U.S. investor. Although Weatherford Delaware has not paid any cash dividends on its common stock, distributions with respect to stock in a U.S. corporation to nonresident aliens could be subject to withholding taxes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code. As you will own common shares of a non-U.S. corporation following the merger, these taxes will generally no longer be applicable to non-U.S. investors. Under existing Bermuda law, there will be no Bermuda income or withholding tax on dividends, if any, paid by Weatherford Bermuda to its shareholders. Furthermore, no Bermuda tax or other levy is payable on the sale or other transfer (including by gift or on the death of the shareholder) of Weatherford Bermuda common shares. Likewise, under existing Barbados law, there will be no Barbados income or withholding tax on dividends, if any, paid by Weatherford Bermuda to its shareholders. Furthermore, U.S. shareholders will not be subject to any Barbados taxation on the sale or other transfer (including by gift or on the death of the shareholder) of Weatherford Bermuda common shares. Weatherford Bermuda is not aware of any other taxes that non-U.S. residents might incur that could discourage an investment in Weatherford Bermuda as compared to an investment in Weatherford Delaware. As a result, non-U.S. investors may be more receptive to an investment in Weatherford Bermuda common shares.

In addition to the potential benefits described above, the merger will expose you to some risks. Please read the discussion under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 8. There are also differences between

Delaware and Bermuda corporate law and the organizational documents of Weatherford Delaware and Weatherford Bermuda. For a discussion of these differences, please read "Comparison of Rights of Stockholders" beginning on page 29. The board of directors of Weatherford Delaware has determined that the potential advantages of the merger substantially outweigh these risks and differences.

Accordingly, the board of directors of Weatherford Delaware has approved the Agreement and Plan of Merger and declared its advisability and recommends that stockholders vote "FOR" its adoption. However, no assurances can be given that the anticipated benefits of the merger will be realized.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

Weatherford Delaware, Weatherford Bermuda, Merger Sub and Weatherford U.S. Holdings will enter into the Agreement and Plan of Merger, which is the legal document that governs the merger. We recommend that you read carefully the complete merger agreement for the precise legal terms of the merger and other information that may be important to you. The merger agreement is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I and is incorporated in this document by reference.

CONDITIONS TO CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER

The merger will not be completed unless, among other things, the following conditions are satisfied or, if allowed by law, waived:

- the Agreement and Plan of Merger is adopted by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock outstanding on the record date;
- none of the parties to the Agreement and Plan of Merger is subject to any governmental decree, order or injunction that in the discretion of the board of directors of Weatherford Delaware would make the consummation of any of the steps in the merger inadvisable;
- the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part is declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission, and no stop order is in effect;
- the Weatherford Bermuda common shares to be issued in connection with the merger have been approved for listing on The New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance, for at least 10 trading days prior to the effective time of the merger;
- all filings required by any governmental or regulatory agency are made;
   and
- all consents and approvals required by any governmental or regulatory agency and all other material third-party consents are received.

We are parties to agreements that require the consent of third parties prior to the implementation of the merger. We believe that we will obtain all material consents required prior to the completion of the merger and that the failure to obtain any other consents will not have a material impact on our business or our ability to consummate the merger.

EFFECTIVE TIME

If the Agreement and Plan of Merger is adopted by the requisite vote of Weatherford Delaware stockholders, the merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with Delaware law. If the merger agreement is adopted, Weatherford Delaware expects to file the certificate of merger and have the merger become effective promptly following the special meeting, although the board of directors may delay completion of the merger for some period of time after stockholder approval pending receipt of third-party consents or for other business reasons.

In the event the conditions to the merger are not satisfied, the merger may be abandoned or delayed even after the Agreement and Plan of Merger has been adopted by our stockholders. In addition, the merger may be abandoned or delayed for any reason by the board of directors of Weatherford Delaware at any time prior to its becoming effective, even though the Agreement and Plan of Merger has been adopted by our stockholders and all conditions to the merger have been satisfied.

AMENDMENT OR TERMINATION

The Agreement and Plan of Merger may be amended, modified or supplemented at any time before or after its adoption by Weatherford Delaware stockholders. However, after adoption, no amendment, modification or supplement may be made or effected that does any of the following:

- alters or changes the amount or kind of shares to be received by Weatherford Delaware stockholders in the merger;
- alters or changes any term of the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation; or
- alters or changes any other terms and conditions of the Agreement and Plan of Merger if any of the alterations or changes would adversely affect the holders of Weatherford Delaware common stock.

Weatherford Delaware's board of directors may terminate the Agreement and Plan of Merger and abandon the merger at any time prior to its effectiveness.

SHARE CONVERSION; EXCHANGE OF SHARES

Each share of Weatherford Delaware common stock will automatically convert by operation of law into the right to receive one common share of Weatherford Bermuda upon the consummation of the merger. If you desire to sell some or all of your Weatherford Bermuda common shares after the effective date of the merger, delivery of the stock certificate(s) that previously represented shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock will be sufficient.

The holding period for any Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by a U.S. holder recognizing a gain, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, with respect to the merger will begin the day after the effective date of the merger. The holding period for any Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by U.S. holders with a loss, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, on their Weatherford Delaware common stock will include the holding period of the Weatherford Delaware common stock exchanged therefor. Your right to sell shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock before the effective date of the merger will not be affected.

Weatherford U.S. Holdings will appoint American Stock Transfer & Trust Company as exchange agent to handle the exchange of Weatherford Delaware stock certificates for Weatherford Bermuda common share certificates.

Prior to or at the time of the merger, Weatherford U.S. Holdings will cause certificates representing a sufficient number of Weatherford Bermuda common shares to be deposited with the exchange agent for the purpose of enabling stockholders to exchange their Weatherford Delaware common stock for an equal number of Weatherford Bermuda common shares. Soon after the closing of the merger, the exchange agent will send a letter of transmittal, which is to be used to exchange Weatherford Delaware stock certificates for Weatherford Bermuda share certificates, to each former Weatherford Delaware stockholder. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions explaining the procedure for surrendering Weatherford Delaware stock certificates. YOU SHOULD NOT RETURN STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD.

Weatherford Delaware stockholders who surrender their stock certificates, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, will receive share certificates representing the common shares of Weatherford Bermuda. After the merger, each certificate that previously represented shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock will represent only the right to receive the common shares of Weatherford Bermuda.

Although Weatherford Bermuda anticipates that it will not pay any cash dividends on its common shares for the foreseeable future, if it does pay any dividends it will not pay dividends to holders of Weatherford Delaware stock certificates in respect of the common shares of Weatherford Bermuda into which the Weatherford Delaware shares represented by those certificates have been converted until the Weatherford Delaware stock certificates are surrendered to the exchange agent.

After the merger becomes effective, Weatherford Delaware will not register any further transfers of shares of the Weatherford Delaware common stock that were outstanding prior to the merger. Any certificates for Weatherford Delaware shares that you present for registration after the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for certificates for Weatherford Bermuda common shares.

If you surrender a Weatherford Delaware stock certificate and request the new Weatherford Bermuda certificate to be issued in a name other than the one appearing on the surrendered certificate, you must endorse the stock certificate or otherwise prepare it to be in proper form for transfer.

MANAGEMENT OF WEATHERFORD BERMUDA

When the merger is completed, all of the directors and all of the executive officers of Weatherford Delaware will also be the directors and executive officers of Weatherford Bermuda. The current directors of Weatherford Delaware will also continue as directors of Weatherford Delaware.

REQUIRED VOTE FOR THE MERGER

In order to complete the merger, the merger agreement must be adopted by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock outstanding on [MONTH DAY], 2002. Because of this vote requirement, ABSTENTIONS WILL HAVE THE SAME EFFECT AS VOTES AGAINST THE PROPOSAL TO ADOPT THE AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER. THE FAILURE OF A STOCKHOLDER TO SUBMIT A FORM OF PROXY OR TO VOTE IN PERSON AT THE MEETING WILL ALSO HAVE THE EFFECT OF A VOTE AGAINST THE ADOPTION OF THE AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER. Under the rules of The New York Stock Exchange, brokers who hold shares in "street name" for customers have the authority to vote on many "routine" proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. Under these rules, brokers are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to proposals for non-routine matters like the merger. THUS, ABSENT SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS FROM YOU, YOUR BROKER IS NOT EMPOWERED TO VOTE YOUR SHARES WITH RESPECT TO THE ADOPTION OF THE AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (I.E., "BROKER NON-VOTES"). Because the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock is required for adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, A BROKER NON-VOTE WILL HAVE THE SAME EFFECT AS A VOTE AGAINST ADOPTION OF THE AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER.

NO RIGHTS OF DISSENTING STOCKHOLDERS

Under Delaware law, you will not have "dissenters" or appraisal rights in connection with the merger because, among other reasons, Weatherford Delaware common stock is listed on The New York Stock Exchange and Weatherford Bermuda common shares will be listed on The New York Stock Exchange following the effective time of the merger.

DIVIDENDS

Weatherford Delaware has not declared or paid any cash dividends on its common stock. We do not intend to pay any cash dividends on our common stock for the foreseeable future. If the Agreement and Plan of Merger is adopted and the merger is completed, Weatherford Bermuda anticipates that it will not pay any cash dividends on its common shares for the foreseeable future.

STOCK COMPENSATION PLANS AND EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

If the merger is completed, Weatherford Delaware will amend and revise its employee and director stock option and other stock-based plans and arrangements to:

- provide that Weatherford Delaware will continue to sponsor the employee plans and Weatherford Bermuda will assume sponsorship of certain director plans;

- provide that common shares of Weatherford Bermuda will be issued upon the exercise of any options or the payment of any other stock-based awards under the plans and arrangements; and
- otherwise appropriately reflect the substitution of common shares of Weatherford Bermuda for common stock of Weatherford Delaware under the plans and arrangements and related agreements.

Your approval of the merger will also constitute approval of those amendments and revisions to our stock option and other stock-based plans and arrangements providing for future use of Weatherford Bermuda common shares in lieu of common stock of Weatherford Delaware after the merger.

STOCK EXCHANGE LISTING

Our common stock is currently listed on The New York Stock Exchange. There is currently no established public trading market for the common shares of Weatherford Bermuda. We will make an application so that, immediately following the merger, the common shares of Weatherford Bermuda will be listed on The New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "WFT", the same symbol under which Weatherford Delaware common stock is currently listed.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT OF THE MERGER

The merger will be accounted for as a merger of entities under common control that will not result in changes in Weatherford Delaware's historical consolidated carrying amounts of assets, liabilities and stockholders' equity.

CREDIT FACILITIES

As a result of the merger, a "change of control" of Weatherford Delaware may be deemed to have occurred under:

- our credit agreement, dated as of May 27, 1998, as amended, among Weatherford Delaware, one of its subsidiaries, Chase Bank of Texas, N.A., The Bank of Nova Scotia, and ABN AMRO Bank NV, which we refer to as the Chase credit agreement;
- our credit agreement, dated as of April 26, 2001, as amended, among Weatherford Delaware, two of its subsidiaries, Bank One, NA, The Royal Bank of Scotland, Royal Bank of Canada, ABN AMRO Bank NV and Banc One Capital Markets, Inc., which we refer to as the Bank One credit agreement;
- our credit agreement, dated as of June 18, 2001, as amended, among several subsidiaries of Weatherford Delaware and The Royal Bank of Scotland, which we refer to as the Royal Bank of Scotland credit agreement; and
- the agreements dated as of July 2, 2001 among Weatherford Delaware, several of its subsidiaries, and several financial institutions relating to the sale of U.S. accounts receivable by Weatherford Delaware's subsidiaries, which we refer to collectively as the U.S. receivables facility.

A change of control of Weatherford Delaware under the Chase credit agreement and the Bank One credit agreement would require a mandatory prepayment of all amounts borrowed under these facilities within 15 days after the change of control, and would constitute an event of default under the Royal Bank of Scotland credit agreement. A change of control of Weatherford Delaware would constitute a "termination event" under the U.S. receivables facility, which would terminate our ability to sell any additional receivables under this facility and would require that all receipts on previously sold receivables be applied to repay investments made by the purchasers under this facility until they had received a specified return on their investment. As of February 28, 2002, borrowings under the Chase credit agreement totaled $50.0 million, under the Bank One credit agreement totaled $90.2 million, and under the Royal Bank of Scotland credit agreement totaled $24.4 million. As of that date, we also had $38.1 million of letters of credit outstanding under the Chase credit agreement. Also as of that date, purchasers under the U.S. receivables facility would be entitled to receive approximately $116.5 million from the collection of our receivables upon a termination event. Weatherford Delaware presently intends to seek waivers in connection with any such change of control and any resulting mandatory prepayments, default, and termination event, although we cannot assure you that Weatherford Delaware will be able to obtain these waivers. If waivers are not obtained, we will need to refinance amounts under the relevant agreements. Weatherford Delaware does not believe such mandatory prepayments, default or termination event will adversely affect it, its operations or its stockholders or Weatherford Bermuda or its shareholders if the merger is completed.

We urge you to return both proxy cards for the annual meeting and the special meeting.

WHAT WILL BE VOTED UPON

At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon the following items:

- To adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, substantially in the form attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I, among Weatherford Delaware, Merger Sub, Weatherford Bermuda and Weatherford U.S. Holdings whereby Weatherford Delaware will become an indirect subsidiary of Weatherford Bermuda and you will become a shareholder of Weatherford Bermuda. The merger will be accomplished by merging Merger Sub with and into Weatherford Delaware. Weatherford Delaware will be the surviving entity and become an indirect subsidiary of Weatherford Bermuda;
- $\mbox{-}$  To transact any other business as may properly come before the special meeting.

ONLY WEATHERFORD DELAWARE STOCKHOLDERS OF RECORD AS OF [MONTH DAY], 2002 ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on [MONTH DAY], 2002, as shown in our records, will be entitled to vote, or to grant proxies to vote, at the special meeting. On the record date, there were [NUMBER] shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

MAJORITY OF OUTSTANDING SHARES MUST BE REPRESENTED FOR A VOTE TO BE TAKEN

In order to have a quorum, the holders of a majority of the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock outstanding on the record date must be represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting.

VOTE REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

The Agreement and Plan of Merger must be adopted by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock outstanding on [MONTH DAY], 2002. Each share of Weatherford Delaware common stock is entitled to cast one vote.

VOTING YOUR SHARES AND CHANGING YOUR VOTE

VOTING YOUR SHARES

The Weatherford Delaware board of directors is soliciting proxies from the Weatherford Delaware stockholders. This will give you the opportunity to vote at the special meeting. When you deliver a valid proxy, the shares represented by that proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. IF YOU DO NOT VOTE BY MARKING, SIGNING AND MAILING YOUR PROXY CARD OR BY ATTENDING THE SPECIAL MEETING AND VOTING IN PERSON, IT WILL HAVE THE SAME EFFECT AS VOTING AGAINST THE ADOPTION OF THE AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER.

Stockholders of record may vote by marking, signing and mailing their proxy card in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope or by following the Internet or telephone voting instructions on the enclosed proxy card.

If you hold your Weatherford Delaware shares in the name of a bank, broker or other nominee, you should follow the instructions provided by your bank, broker or nominee when voting your shares. To be effective, a form of proxy must be received by us prior to the beginning of voting at the special meeting.

CHANGING YOUR VOTE BY REVOKING YOUR PROXY

There are three ways in which you may revoke your proxy and change your vote:

- First, you may send a written notice to our proxy solicitor, Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc., stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. This notice must be received prior to the special meeting.
- Second, you may complete and submit a new later-dated proxy either by Internet, by phone, or by marking, signing and mailing a new proxy card. The latest dated proxy actually received by Weatherford Delaware prior to the special meeting will be the one that is counted, and all earlier proxies will be revoked.
- Third, you may attend the special meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy. At the special meeting, the chairman of the meeting will announce instructions for you to follow if you wish to revoke your proxy and vote in person at the meeting.

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow the directions you receive from your broker to change or revoke your proxy.

HOW PROXIES ARE COUNTED

If you return a signed and dated proxy card but do not indicate how the shares are to be voted, those shares represented by your proxy card will be voted for the merger. A valid proxy also gives the individuals named as proxies authority to vote in their discretion when voting the shares on any other matters that are properly presented for action at the special meeting. A properly executed proxy marked "ABSTAIN" will not be voted. However, it will be counted to determine whether there is a quorum present at the special meeting. Accordingly, because the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Weatherford Delaware common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, A PROXY MARKED "ABSTAIN" WILL HAVE THE EFFECT OF A VOTE AGAINST THIS PROPOSAL. Broker non-votes (i.e., shares held by brokers or nominees which are represented at a meeting but with respect to which the broker or nominee is not empowered to vote on a particular proposal) will also be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum at the special meeting. The New York Stock Exchange rules do not permit brokers and nominees to vote the shares that they hold beneficially either for or against the adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger without specific instructions from the person who beneficially owns those shares. THEREFORE, IF YOUR SHARES ARE HELD BY A BROKER OR OTHER NOMINEE AND YOU DO NOT GIVE THEM INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO VOTE YOUR SHARES, THIS WILL HAVE THE SAME EFFECT AS VOTING AGAINST THE MERGER.

COST OF SOLICITATION

Weatherford Delaware will pay the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to solicitation by mail, telephone or other means, Weatherford Delaware will make arrangements with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send proxy material to beneficial owners. Weatherford Delaware will, upon request, reimburse these institutions for their reasonable expenses. Weatherford Delaware has retained Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc. to aid in the solicitation of proxies. Weatherford Delaware will pay Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc. a fee of $6,500 and reimburse Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc. for its expenses in connection with its services.

WEATHERFORD DELAWARE STOCKHOLDERS SHOULD NOT SEND IN THEIR STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH THEIR PROXY CARDS.

MEETINGS, QUORUMS AND VOTING

Under Bermuda law, a company is required to convene at least one general meeting of shareholders each calendar year. Bermuda law provides that a special general meeting of shareholders may be called by the board of directors of a company and must be called upon the request of shareholders holding not less than 10% of the paid-up capital of the company carrying the right to vote. Bermuda law also requires that shareholders be given at least five days' advance notice (unless shorter notice is agreed, as described below) of a general meeting, but the accidental omission to give notice to any person does not invalidate the proceedings at a meeting. Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws provide that the chairman or Weatherford Bermuda's board of directors may convene an annual general meeting or a special general meeting. Under Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws, at least 10 days' notice of an annual general meeting or a special general meeting must be given to each shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting. This notice requirement is subject to the ability to hold such meetings on shorter notice if such notice is agreed: (i) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all of the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at such meeting; or (ii) in the case of a special general meeting, by a majority of the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the meeting holding not less than 95% of the shares entitled to vote at such meeting. The quorum required for a general meeting of shareholders is two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy a majority of the shares entitled to vote at such meeting.

The holders of Weatherford Bermuda common shares will be entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of the holders of common shares of Weatherford Bermuda. Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws do not provide for cumulative voting. Except as specifically provided in Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws or in the Companies Act, any action to be taken by the shareholders at any meeting at which a quorum is in attendance shall be decided by a majority of the issued shares present in person or represented by proxy and voting at such meeting. There are no limitations imposed by Bermuda law or Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws on the right of shareholders who are not Bermuda residents to hold or vote their Weatherford Bermuda common shares.

DIVIDEND RIGHTS

Under Bermuda law, a company's board of directors may declare and pay dividends from time to time unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that the company is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due or that the realizable value of its assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and issued share capital and share premium accounts. Each Weatherford Bermuda common share is entitled to dividends if, as and when dividends are declared by its board of directors, subject to any preferred dividend right of the holders of any preference shares. There are no restrictions on Weatherford Bermuda's ability to transfer funds (other than funds denominated in Bermuda dollars) in and out of Bermuda or to pay dividends to U.S. residents who are holders of Weatherford Bermuda's common shares.

Any cash dividends payable to shareholders of Weatherford Bermuda at any time when the corresponding shares are quoted on The New York Stock Exchange will be paid to American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, Weatherford Bermuda's transfer agent in the United States, for disbursement to those holders. Weatherford Bermuda does not anticipate that it will pay any cash dividends on its common shares for the foreseeable future.

PREEMPTIVE, REDEMPTION, SINKING FUND AND CONVERSION RIGHTS

Holders of Weatherford Bermuda's common shares have no preemptive, redemption, conversion or sinking fund rights.

STOCK EXCHANGE LISTING

Immediately following the merger, Weatherford Bermuda's common shares will be listed on The New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "WFT", the same symbol under which Weatherford Delaware's common stock is currently listed.

CAPITALIZATION OF PROFITS AND RESERVES

Pursuant to Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws, its board of directors may (i) capitalize any part of the amount of Weatherford Bermuda's share premium or other reserve accounts or any amount credited to its profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution by applying such sum in paying up unissued shares to be allotted as fully paid bonus shares pro-rata (except in connection with the conversion of shares) to the shareholders; or (ii) capitalize any sum standing to the credit of a reserve account or sums otherwise available for dividend or distribution by paying up in full partly paid shares of those shareholders who would have been entitled to such sums if they were distributed by way of dividend or distribution.

UNTRACED SHAREHOLDERS

Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws provide that its board of directors may forfeit any dividend or other monies payable in respect of any shares that remain unclaimed for 12 years from the date when such monies became due for payment. In addition, Weatherford Bermuda is entitled to cease sending dividend warrants and checks by post or otherwise to a shareholder if such instruments have been returned undelivered to, or left uncashed by, such shareholder on at least two consecutive occasions or, following one such occasion, reasonable inquiries have failed to establish the shareholder's new address. This entitlement ceases if the shareholder claims a dividend or cashes a dividend check or a warrant.

CHANGES TO RIGHTS OF A CLASS

If at any time Weatherford Bermuda has more than one class of shares, the rights attached to any class, unless otherwise provided for by the terms of issue of the relevant class, may be varied either: (i) with the consent in writing of the holders of 75% in nominal value of the issued shares of that class; or (ii) with the sanction of a majority of votes cast at a general meeting of the relevant class of shareholders at which a quorum, consisting of two or more persons holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class, is present. Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws specify that the creation or issue of shares ranking equally with existing shares will not, unless expressly provided by the terms of issue of those shares, vary the rights attached to existing shares. In addition, the creation or issue of preferred shares ranking prior to common shares will not be deemed to vary the rights attached to common shares.

RIGHTS UPON LIQUIDATION

In the event of Weatherford Bermuda's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of its common shares are entitled to share equally and ratably in Weatherford Bermuda's assets, if any, remaining after the payment of all of Weatherford Bermuda's debts and liabilities, subject to any liquidation preference on any outstanding preference shares.

LIABILITY FOR FURTHER CALLS OR ASSESSMENTS

Weatherford Bermuda's common shares to be acquired by Weatherford Delaware's stockholders in the merger will be duly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

Weatherford Bermuda's board of directors may in its absolute discretion and without assigning any reason refuse to register the transfer of a share that is not fully paid. Weatherford Bermuda's board of directors may also refuse to recognize an instrument of transfer of a share unless it is accompanied by the relevant share certificate and such other evidence of the transferor's right to make the transfer as Weatherford Bermuda's board of directors shall reasonably require. Subject to these restrictions, a holder of common shares may transfer the title to all or any of its common shares by completing a form of transfer in the form set out as Form "C" in the Schedule to Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws (or as near thereto as circumstances admit) or in such other common form as the board of directors may accept. The instrument of transfer must be signed by the transferor and transferee, although in the case of a fully paid share Weatherford Bermuda's board of directors may accept the instrument signed only by the transferor.

REPURCHASE RIGHTS

The board of directors may, at its discretion, authorize the purchase by Weatherford Bermuda of its own shares of any class, at any price (whether at par or above or below par), as long as the purchase is made in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act.

ACCESS TO BOOKS AND RECORDS AND DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION

Under Bermuda law, members of the general public have the right to inspect the public documents of a company available at the office of the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda. These documents include the company's memorandum of association, including its objects and powers, and certain alterations to its memorandum of association. The shareholders have the additional right to inspect the bye-laws of the company, minutes of general meetings and the company's audited financial statements, which must be presented at the annual general meeting. The register of shareholders of a company is also open to inspection by shareholders without charge and by members of the general public on the payment of a fee. The register of shareholders is required to be open for inspection for not less than two hours in any business day (subject to the ability of a company to close the register of shareholders for not more than 30 days in a year). A company is required to maintain its share register in Bermuda but may, subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, establish a branch register outside Bermuda. A company is required to keep at its registered office a register of directors and officers that is open for inspection for not less than two hours in any business day by members of the public without charge. Bermuda law does not, however, provide a general right of shareholders to inspect or obtain copies of any other corporate records.

COMPULSORY ACQUISITION OF SHARES HELD BY MINORITY HOLDERS

An acquiring party is generally able to acquire compulsorily the common shares of minority holders in the following ways:

- By a procedure under the Companies Act known as a "scheme of arrangement". A scheme of arrangement could be effected by obtaining the agreement of Weatherford Bermuda and of holders of common shares, representing in the aggregate a majority in number and at least 75% in value of the common shareholders present and voting at a court ordered meeting held to consider the scheme of arrangement. The scheme of arrangement must then be sanctioned by the Bermuda Supreme Court. If a scheme of arrangement receives all necessary agreements and sanctions, upon the filing of the court order with the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda, all holders of common shares could be compelled to sell their shares under the terms of the scheme of arrangement.
- If the acquiring party is a company, by acquiring pursuant to a tender offer 90% of the shares or class of shares not already owned by, or by a nominee for, the acquiring party (the offeror), or any of its subsidiaries. If an offeror has, within four months after the making of an offer for all the shares or class of shares not owned by, or by a nominee for, the offeror, or any of its subsidiaries, obtained the approval of the holders of 90% or more of all the shares to which the offer relates, the offeror may, at any time within two months beginning with the date on which the approval was obtained, require by notice any nontendering shareholder to transfer its shares on the same terms as the original offer. In those circumstances, nontendering shareholders will be compelled to sell their shares unless the Bermuda Supreme Court (on application made within a one-month period from the date of the offeror's notice of its intention to acquire such shares) orders otherwise.

- Where the acquiring party or parties hold not less than 95% of the shares or a class of shares of the company, by acquiring, pursuant to a notice given to the remaining shareholders or class of shareholders, the shares of such remaining shareholders or class of shareholders. When this notice is given, the acquiring party is entitled and bound to acquire the shares of the remaining shareholders on the terms set out in the notice, unless a remaining shareholder, within one month of receiving such notice, applies to the Bermuda Supreme Court for an appraisal of the value of their shares. This provision only applies where the acquiring party offers the same terms to all holders of shares whose shares are being acquired.

REGISTRAR OR TRANSFER AGENT

A register of holders of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares will be maintained by Codan Services Limited in Bermuda, and a branch register will be maintained in the United States by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, who will serve as branch registrar and transfer agent.

PREFERRED SHARES

Pursuant to Bermuda law and Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws, its board of directors by resolution may establish one or more series of preference shares having such number of shares, designations, dividend rates, relative voting rights, conversion or exchange rights, redemption rights, liquidation rights and other relative participation, optional or other special rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions as may be fixed by the board of directors without any further shareholder approval. Such rights, preferences, powers and limitations as may be established could also have the effect of discouraging an attempt to obtain control of the Company.

ANTI-TAKEOVER PROVISIONS

Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws have provisions that could have an anti-takeover effect. Generally, these provisions are intended to substantively replicate provisions currently in Weatherford Delaware's restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws. In addition, Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws include an "advance notice" provision that places time limitations on shareholders' nominations of directors and submission of proposals for consideration at an annual general meeting. These provisions are intended to enhance the likelihood of continuity and stability in the composition of the board of directors and in the policies formulated by the board of directors and to encourage negotiations with the board of directors in transactions that may involve an actual or potential change of control of Weatherford Bermuda.

Directors can be removed from office at a special general meeting of shareholders only for cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of Weatherford Bermuda on the relevant record date. The board of directors does not have the power to remove directors. These provisions can delay a shareholder from obtaining majority representation on the board of directors.

The bye-laws also provide that the board of directors will consist of not less than three nor more than 18 persons, the exact number to be set from time to time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. Accordingly, the board of directors, and not the shareholders, has the authority to determine the number of directors and could delay any shareholder from obtaining majority representation on the board of directors by enlarging the board of directors and filling the new vacancies with its own nominees.

The bye-laws of Weatherford Bermuda provide that at any annual general meeting, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the board of directors, by any shareholder who complies with certain procedures set forth in the bye-laws or by any shareholder pursuant to the valid exercise of the power granted under the Companies Act. For business to be properly brought before an annual general meeting by a shareholder in accordance with the terms of the bye-laws, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in proper written form to the Secretary of Weatherford Bermuda and satisfied all requirements under applicable rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission or by The New York Stock Exchange or any other exchange on which Weatherford Bermuda's securities are traded. To be timely for consideration at the annual general meeting, such shareholder's notice must be received by the Secretary at Weatherford Bermuda's principal executive offices and its registered office in Bermuda not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual general meeting, provided that in the event that the annual general meeting is called for a date that is not within 60 days before or after such anniversary date, not later than the 7th day following the day on which such notice of the date of the annual general meeting was mailed or such public disclosure of the date of the annual general meeting was made, whichever occurs first. In order for a shareholder to nominate directors in connection with an annual general meeting of shareholders, a shareholder's notice of his intention to make such nominations must be received in proper written form as specified in the bye-laws of Weatherford Bermuda by the Secretary of Weatherford Bermuda within the time limits described above. In addition, the Companies Act provides for a mechanism by which not less than 100 shareholders or shareholders holding at least 5% of the voting power of a Bermuda company may require the company to give notice of a resolution that may properly be moved at an annual general meeting of the company, or to circulate to members entitled to notice of any general meeting a statement with respect to any proposed resolution or business to be dealt with at that meeting. Please read "Comparison of Rights of Stockholders -- Advance Notice Requirements for Matters to be Considered at a General Meeting" beginning on page 32.

Subject to the terms of any other class of shares in issue, any action required or permitted to be taken by the holders of Weatherford Bermuda's common shares must be taken at a duly called special or annual general meeting of shareholders unless taken by written resolution signed by or on behalf of all holders of common shares. Under the bye-laws, special general meetings may be called at any time by the chairman, the board of directors or when requisitioned by shareholders pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act. The Companies Act permits shareholders holding at least 10% of the paid-up capital of a company entitled to vote at general meeting to requisition a special general meeting.

The board of directors is authorized to issue, from time to time, without obtaining any vote or consent of the holders of any class or series of shares unless expressly provided by the terms of issue of a class or series, any authorized and unissued shares on such terms and conditions as it may determine. For example, the board of directors could authorize the issuance of preferred shares with rights that could discourage a takeover or other transaction that holders of some or a majority of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares might believe to be in their best interests or in which holders might receive a premium for their shares over the then market price of the shares.

ELECTION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws provide that its board of directors shall consist of between three and 18 directors. Weatherford Bermuda's board of directors will initially consist of 9 directors. Each director is elected for a one-year term of office, expiring at each annual general meeting.

Any shareholder wishing to propose for election as a director someone who is not an existing director or is not proposed by Weatherford Bermuda's board of directors must give notice of the intention to propose the person for election. Such notice must be given not later than 60 days and not more than 90 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual general meeting, provided that in the event that the annual general meeting is called for a date that is not within 60 days before or after such anniversary date, not later than the 7th day following the day on which such notice of the date of the annual general meeting was mailed or such public disclosure of the date of the annual general meeting was made, whichever occurs first.

A director may be removed, with cause, by the shareholders, provided notice is given to the director of the shareholders' meeting convened for the purpose of removing the director. The notice must contain a statement of the intention to remove the director and a summary of the facts justifying the removal and must be served on the director not less than 14 days before the meeting. The director is entitled to attend the meeting and be heard on the motion for his removal.

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws provide that its business is to be managed and conducted by its board of directors. Bermuda law requires that Weatherford Bermuda's directors be individuals, but there is no requirement in its bye-laws or Bermuda law that directors hold any of its shares. There is also no requirement in Weatherford Bermuda's bye-laws or Bermuda law that its directors must retire at a certain age.

The remuneration of Weatherford Bermuda's directors is determined by its board of directors, and there is no requirement that a specified number or percentage of "independent" directors must approve any such determination. Weatherford Bermuda's directors may also be reimbursed for all travel, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with Weatherford Bermuda's business or their duties as directors.

Provided a director discloses a direct or indirect interest in any contract or arrangement with Weatherford Bermuda as required by Bermuda law, such director is entitled to vote in respect of any such contract or arrangement in which he or she is interested unless he or she is disqualified from voting by the chairman of the relevant board of directors meeting. A director (including the spouse or children of the director or any company of which such director, spouse or children own or control more than 20% of the capital or loan debt) can not borrow from Weatherford Bermuda, (except loans made to directors who are bona fide employees or former employees pursuant to an employees' share scheme) unless shareholders holding 90% of the total voting rights have consented to the loan.

CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF BERMUDA LAW

Weatherford Bermuda has been designated by the Bermuda Monetary Authority as a non-resident for Bermuda exchange control purposes. This designation allows Weatherford Bermuda to engage in transactions in currencies other than the Bermuda dollar, and there are no restrictions on Weatherford Bermuda's ability to transfer funds (other than funds denominated in Bermuda dollars) in and out of Bermuda or to pay dividends to United States residents who are holders of Weatherford Bermuda's common shares.

Weatherford Bermuda intends to apply for, and expects to receive the consent of, the Bermuda Monetary Authority for the issue and free transferability of all of the common shares that are to be issued in connection with the merger to and between non-residents of Bermuda for exchange control purposes, provided Weatherford Bermuda's shares remain listed on an appointed stock exchange, which includes The New York Stock Exchange. Approvals or permissions given by the Bermuda Monetary Authority do not constitute a guarantee by the Bermuda Monetary Authority as to Weatherford Bermuda's performance or its creditworthiness. Accordingly, in giving such consent or permissions, the Bermuda Monetary Authority shall not be liable for the financial soundness, performance or default of Weatherford Bermuda's business or for the correctness of any opinions or statements expressed in this proxy statement/prospectus. Certain issues and transfers of common shares involving persons deemed a resident of Bermuda for exchange control purposes require the specific consent of the Bermuda Monetary Authority.

This proxy statement/prospectus will be filed with the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda pursuant to Part III of the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda. In accepting this proxy statement/prospectus for filing, the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda shall not be liable for the financial soundness, performance or default of Weatherford Bermuda's business or for the correctness of any opinions or statements expressed in this proxy statement/prospectus.

In accordance with Bermuda law, share certificates are only issued in the names of companies, partnerships or individuals. In the case of a shareholder acting in a special capacity (for example, as a trustee), certificates may, at the request of the shareholder, record the capacity in which the shareholder is acting. Notwithstanding such recording of any special capacity, Weatherford Bermuda is not bound to investigate or see to the execution of any such trust. Weatherford Bermuda will take no notice of any trust applicable to any of its shares, whether or not it has been notified of such trust.

ENFORCEMENT OF CIVIL LIABILITIES

Weatherford Bermuda is a Bermuda exempted company. As a result, the rights of holders of its common shares will be governed by Bermuda law and its memorandum of association and bye-laws. The rights of shareholders under Bermuda law may differ from the rights of shareholders of companies incorporated in other jurisdictions. One of the persons who will be a director of Weatherford Bermuda after the merger and some of the named experts referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus are not residents of the United States, and a substantial portion of Weatherford Bermuda's assets will be located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process on those persons in the United States or to enforce in the United States judgments obtained in U.S. courts against Weatherford Bermuda or those persons based on the civil liability provisions of the U.S. securities laws. However, Weatherford Bermuda will irrevocably agree that it may be served with process with respect to actions based on offers and sales of securities made in the United States and other violations of U.S. securities laws by having Weatherford Delaware, located at 515 Post Oak Boulevard, Suite 600, Houston, Texas 77027, be its United States agent appointed for that purpose. Weatherford Bermuda has been advised by its Bermuda counsel, Conyers Dill & Pearman, that uncertainty exists as to whether courts in Bermuda will enforce judgments obtained in other jurisdictions (including the United States) against Weatherford Bermuda or its directors or officers under the securities laws of those jurisdictions or entertain actions in Bermuda against Weatherford Bermuda or its directors or officers under the securities laws of other jurisdictions.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Your current rights as a stockholder of Weatherford Delaware are governed by Delaware law and Weatherford Delaware's restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws. After the merger, you will become a holder of Weatherford Bermuda common shares and your rights will be governed by the Companies Act and Weatherford Bermuda's memorandum of association and bye-laws.

The principal attributes of the existing common stock of Weatherford Delaware and the Weatherford Bermuda common shares will be substantially similar; however, there are certain differences between your rights as a stockholder under Delaware law and as a shareholder under Bermuda law, which is largely modeled after the law of England. In addition, there are certain differences between Weatherford Delaware's restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws and Weatherford Bermuda's memorandum of association and bye-laws. Other than the addition of the advance notice provision in the bye-laws, it is our intention that your rights as a shareholder of Weatherford Bermuda be substantially the same as your rights as a stockholder of Weatherford Delaware before the merger and, accordingly, any differences that may arise would be as a consequence of the difference between Bermuda and Delaware law. In addition, actions that constitute violations of U.S. federal securities laws would not necessarily constitute violations of Bermuda law. Under Bermuda law, criminal liability may arise where any person makes or authorizes the making of an untrue statement in a prospectus unless that statement is immaterial or the person making the statement had reasonable grounds to believe that it was true at the time that he made the statement. In addition, under the Companies Act, civil liability for loss or damage sustained by persons purchasing shares from a company as a result of any untrue statement included in the company's prospectus may arise in respect of promoters of the company, persons who are or are named as officers of the company, and persons who have authorized the issue to the public of the prospectus. Civil liability on the part of the company may also arise as a result of untrue or misleading statements included in a prospectus.

The memorandum of association and the bye-laws of Weatherford Bermuda that will be in effect upon consummation of the merger are included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Annexes II and III, respectively, and are incorporated by reference herein. The amended and restated certificate of incorporation of Weatherford Delaware is included as Exhibit 3.1 to Weatherford Delaware's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 1998 filed March 31, 1999. The amended and restated by-laws of Weatherford Delaware are included as Exhibit 3.2 to Weatherford Delaware's Current Report on Form 8-K filed June 2, 1998. The amended and restated certificate of incorporation and the amended and restated by-laws of Weatherford Delaware are incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. # INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

U.S. INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO STOCKHOLDERS

Scope of Discussion

The following general discussion summarizes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences applicable to holders of Weatherford Delaware common stock as a result of the merger, and of the post-merger ownership and disposition of Weatherford Bermuda common shares. This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to Weatherford Delaware shareholders in light of their individual circumstances or to particular Weatherford Delaware shareholders who, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, are subject to special rules, such as:

- dealers or traders in securities, commodities or currencies;
- tax-exempt entities;
- banks, financial institutions, or insurance companies;
- grantor trusts;
- real estate investment trusts or regulated investment companies;

- holders who hold Weatherford Delaware common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, wash sale, synthetic security, conversion transaction, or other integrated investment comprised of Weatherford Delaware common stock and one or more other investments;
- holders who have been, but are no longer, citizens or residents of the United States;
- holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;
- holders who acquired their Weatherford Delaware common stock in compensatory transactions;
- non-U.S. holders, as hereinafter defined, that are or previously have been engaged in the conduct of a trade or business, or that have or previously had a permanent establishment, in the United States; and
- holders who own, or are deemed to own, 10% or more, determined by voting power or value, of Weatherford Delaware common stock or Weatherford Bermuda common shares.

Further, this discussion does not address any U.S. federal estate and gift or alternative minimum tax consequences or any state, local, or foreign tax consequences relating to the merger or the ownership and disposition of Weatherford Delaware common stock or Weatherford Bermuda common shares.

This discussion is based on the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), the U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, and judicial and administrative interpretations thereof, in each case as in effect and available on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. All of the foregoing are subject to change, which change could apply with retroactive effect and could affect the tax consequences described below. Neither Weatherford Delaware nor Weatherford Bermuda will request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the Service) as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to the merger or the ownership and disposition of Weatherford Delaware common stock or Weatherford Bermuda common shares.

For purposes of this discussion, a "U.S. holder" is a beneficial owner of Weatherford Delaware common stock that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is (1) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (2) a corporation or any other entity taxable as a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or of a state of the United States or the District of Columbia, (3) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source, or (4) a trust, if such trust validly has elected to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes or if (a) a U.S. court can exercise primary supervision over its administration and (b) one or more

U.S. persons have the authority to control all of the substantial decisions of such trust. A "non-U.S. holder" is any beneficial owner of Weatherford Delaware common stock other than a U.S. holder. In the case of a holder that is a partnership, determinations as to material tax consequences are generally made at the partner level, but special considerations not set forth herein may apply.

This discussion assumes that Weatherford Delaware stockholders hold their Weatherford Delaware common stock and Weatherford Bermuda common shares as capital assets. In addition, this discussion is based on certain customary assumptions and representations made or to be made by Weatherford Delaware and Weatherford Bermuda, including (1) that the facts set forth in this registration statement are true, accurate, and complete, and (2) that the merger will be consummated as described in this registration statement. Any change in the truth, accuracy or completeness of any of the facts, assumptions or representations on which this discussion is based could affect the tax consequences described below.

THIS SUMMARY IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO A WEATHERFORD DELAWARE STOCKHOLDER. EACH WEATHERFORD DELAWARE STOCKHOLDER IS URGED TO CONSULT SUCH STOCKHOLDER'S OWN TAX ADVISER REGARDING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND NON-U.S. TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER AND THE OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF WEATHERFORD BERMUDA COMMON SHARES IN LIGHT OF SUCH STOCKHOLDER'S OWN SITUATION.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO U.S. HOLDERS

Receipt of Weatherford Bermuda Common Shares

The merger should qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code. However, pursuant to special rules contained in section 367(a) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, U.S. holders exchanging their Weatherford Delaware common stock for Weatherford Bermuda common shares pursuant to the merger will recognize gain, if any, but not loss. In general, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder will recognize gain equal to the excess of the fair market value of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by the U.S. holder pursuant to the merger over such holder's adjusted basis in the Weatherford Delaware common stock exchanged therefor. Any such gain will be capital gain, and will be long-term capital gain if the Weatherford Delaware common stock has been held for more than one year at the effective time of the merger. A U.S. holder that recognizes gain pursuant to the merger will have an adjusted tax basis in its Weatherford Bermuda common shares received equal to the adjusted tax basis of the Weatherford Delaware common stock exchanged therefor, increased by the amount of gain recognized. A U.S. holder will not be permitted to recognize any loss realized on the exchange of its Weatherford Delaware common stock in the merger. In such case, the adjusted tax basis of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by a U.S. holder with a loss on its Weatherford Delaware common stock will be equal to such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in its Weatherford Delaware common stock surrendered in exchange therefor. Thus, subject to any subsequent changes in the fair market value of the Weatherford Bermuda common shares, any loss will be preserved. In determining the amount of gain recognized, each of the Weatherford Delaware shares transferred is treated as the subject of a separate exchange. Thus, if a U.S. holder transfers some Weatherford Delaware common stock on which gains are realized and other Weatherford Delaware common stock on which losses are realized, the U.S. holder may not net the losses against the gains to determine the amount of gain recognized.

The holding period for any Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by a U.S. holder recognizing gain with respect to the merger will begin the day after the effective time of the merger. The holding period for any Weatherford Bermuda common shares received by U.S. holders with a loss on their Weatherford Delaware common stock will include the holding period of the Weatherford Delaware common stock exchanged therefor.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO U.S. HOLDERS OF OWNING AND DISPOSING OF WEATHERFORD BERMUDA COMMON SHARES

Distributions on Weatherford Bermuda Common Shares

Weatherford Bermuda does not anticipate that it will pay any cash dividends on its common shares for the foreseeable future. Subject to this and the discussion below under "-- Passive Foreign Investment Company Provisions," in general, U.S. holders will be required to include in gross income as ordinary income the gross amount of any distribution on the Weatherford Bermuda common shares to the extent that the distribution is paid out of Weatherford Bermuda's current or accumulated earnings and profits as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes (a "dividend"). These dividends will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction, which is generally allowed to U.S. corporate shareholders on dividends received from certain domestic and foreign corporations. Distributions in excess of the current and accumulated earnings and profits will be applied first to reduce the U.S. holder's tax basis in its Weatherford Bermuda common shares, and thereafter will constitute gain from the sale or other taxable disposition of such stock. Weatherford Bermuda will calculate its earnings and profits under U.S. federal income tax principles.

For foreign tax credit purposes, dividends paid by a foreign corporation generally constitute foreign source income. However, under section 904(g) of the Code, dividends paid by a foreign corporation that is more than 50% owned by U.S. persons may be treated as U.S. source income for foreign tax credit purposes to the extent that the foreign corporation itself has more than an insignificant amount of U.S. source income. It is expected that a portion of any dividends paid by Weatherford Bermuda will be treated as U.S. source income under section 904(g) of the Code. To the extent that any dividends distributed by Weatherford Bermuda are treated as foreign source income, however, such dividends generally will constitute passive income or, in the case of certain U.S. holders, financial services income for foreign tax credit purposes.

Sale of Weatherford Bermuda Common Shares

Subject to the discussion below under "-- Passive Foreign Investment Company Provisions," a U.S. holder of Weatherford Bermuda common shares generally will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the sale or other taxable disposition of such shares in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized from such sale or other taxable disposition and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such shares. The gain or loss will generally be capital in nature. In the case of a noncorporate U.S. holder, the maximum marginal U.S. federal income tax rate applicable to such gain will be lower than the maximum marginal U.S. federal income tax rate applicable to ordinary income if such U.S. holder's holding period for such Weatherford Bermuda common shares exceeds twelve months. The gain or loss generally will be U.S. source gain or loss for foreign tax credit purposes. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Passive Foreign Investment Company Provisions

A foreign corporation is a passive foreign investment company, PFIC, if either (1) at least 75% or more of its gross income for the taxable year is passive income, or (2) the average percentage of assets held by such corporation during the taxable year which produces passive income or which is held for the production of passive income is at least 50%. For purposes of applying the tests in the preceding sentence, the foreign corporation is deemed to own its proportionate share of the assets, and to receive directly its proportionate share of the income, of any other corporation of which the foreign corporation owns, directly or indirectly, at least 25% by value of the stock. In addition, special rules provide that for purposes of determining whether a foreign corporation is a PFIC, "qualified stock" held by certain domestic corporate subsidiaries of the foreign corporation is treated as an asset which does not produce passive income (and is not held for the production of passive income), and any amount included in gross income with respect to such stock is treated as active income. It is anticipated that the stock of certain indirect, domestic subsidiaries of Weatherford Bermuda may constitute qualified stock after the merger.

Based upon estimates with respect to its income, assets and operations, Weatherford Bermuda believes that it will not be a PFIC immediately following the merger, and it does not anticipate becoming a PFIC in the foreseeable future. However, because the determination of PFIC status must be made on an annual basis, and will depend on the composition of the income and assets, as well as the nature of the activities, of Weatherford Bermuda and its subsidiaries, from time to time, there can be no assurance that Weatherford Bermuda will not be considered a PFIC for any taxable year. Moreover, neither an opinion from counsel nor a ruling from the Service will be obtained regarding whether Weatherford Bermuda is or will be a PFIC.

The highly complex rules which apply to PFIC's are generally intended to end the ability under prior law of all direct and indirect U.S. holders of PFIC stock to defer federal income tax with respect to the earnings of the PFIC until distributions are received from the PFIC or the shares of the PFIC are sold. Classification of a foreign corporation as a PFIC can have various adverse U.S. tax consequences to U.S. holders. These include taxation of gain on a sale or other disposition of the shares of the corporation (possibly including a disposition by way of gift or exchange in a corporate reorganization, or the grant of the stock as security for a loan) at ordinary income rates and imposition of an interest charge on gain or on distributions with respect to the shares. Accordingly, if Weatherford Bermuda is classified as a PFIC, such classification could change the tax consequences of the distributions and sales or exchanges described above. Moreover, a step-up in the tax basis of the stock of a PFIC may not be available upon the death of an individual U.S. holder.

If Weatherford Bermuda should determine in the future that it is a PFIC, it will endeavor to so notify U.S. holders, although there can be no assurance that it will be able to do so in a timely and complete manner. U.S. holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors about the PFIC rules, including the availability of certain elections.

BACKUP WITHHOLDING TAX AND INFORMATION REPORTING

Currently, any distributions with respect to Weatherford Delaware common stock and proceeds from the sale or redemption of Weatherford Delaware common stock would be subject to U.S. backup withholding tax and information reporting rules. After the merger, it is anticipated that the same rules would apply to distributions with respect to Weatherford Bermuda common shares and to proceeds from the sale or redemption of Weatherford Bermuda common shares.

U.S. backup withholding tax and information reporting requirements generally apply to certain payments to certain noncorporate holders of stock. Information reporting generally will apply to payments of dividends on, and to proceeds from the sale or redemption of, Weatherford Bermuda common shares made within the United States to a holder of Weatherford Bermuda common shares (other than an "exempt recipient," including a corporation, a payee that is not a U.S. person that provides an appropriate certification and certain other persons). A payor will be required to withhold at the then applicable rate on any payments of dividends on, or proceeds from the sale or redemption of Weatherford Bermuda common shares within the United States to a holder (other than an "exempt recipient") if such holder fails to furnish its correct taxpayer identification number or otherwise fails to comply with, or establish an exemption from, such backup withholding tax requirements. In the case of such payments by a payor or middleman within the United States to a foreign simple trust, a foreign grantor trust, or a foreign partnership (other than payments to a foreign simple trust, a foreign grantor trust, or a foreign partnership that qualifies as a "withholding foreign trust" or a "withholding foreign partnership" within the meaning of such U.S. Treasury regulations and payments to a foreign simple trust, a foreign grantor trust, or a foreign partnership that are effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States), the beneficiaries of the foreign simple trust, the persons treated as the owners of the foreign grantor trust, or the partners of the foreign partnership, as the case may be, will be required to provide the certification discussed above in order to establish an exemption from backup withholding tax and information reporting requirements. Moreover, a payor or middleman may rely on a certification provided by a payee that is not a U.S. person only if such payor or middleman does not have actual knowledge or a reason to know that any information or certification stated in such certificate is incorrect.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO NON-U.S. HOLDERS OF THE MERGER AND OF OWNING AND DISPOSING OF WEATHERFORD BERMUDA COMMON SHARES

Receipt of Weatherford Bermuda Common Shares

Non-U.S. holders will generally be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on gain realized, if any, on the exchange of Weatherford Delaware common stock for Weatherford Bermuda common shares only if:

- Such gain is effectively connected with the conduct by the non-U.S. holder of a trade or business within the United States or, if a tax treaty applies, is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by the non-U.S. holder in the United States;
- In the case of certain capital gains, the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which the capital gain is recognized and certain other conditions apply;
- The non-U.S. holder does not qualify for an exemption from backup withholding; or
- Either Weatherford Delaware is or has been a "U.S. real property holding corporation" within the meaning of section 897(c)(2) of the Code at any time within the shorter of the five-year period preceding the merger or such non-U.S. holder's holding period, and the non-U.S. holder holds, or has held at any time during such shorter period, more than 5% of the Weatherford Delaware common stock.

Weatherford Delaware does not believe that it is or has been within the last five years a U.S. real property holding corporation.

Owning and Disposing of Weatherford Bermuda Common Shares

A non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on distributions made by Weatherford Bermuda on the Weatherford Bermuda common shares. In addition, a non-U.S. holder generally would not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on any gain recognized on the sale, exchange or other disposition of Weatherford Bermuda common shares provided:

- such gain is not effectively connected with the conduct by the non-U.S. holder of a trade or business within the United States or, if a tax treaty applies, is not attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by the non-U.S. holder in the United States;
- in the case of certain capital gains recognized by a non-U.S. holder that is an individual, such individual is either not present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which the capital gain is recognized or otherwise qualifies for an exemption; and

- the non-U.S. holder qualifies for an exemption from U.S. federal backup withholding.

In order to qualify for an exemption from backup withholding tax on certain dividends on, and proceeds from the sale, exchange, or disposition of, Weatherford Bermuda common shares paid within the United States, a non-U.S. holder may be required to certify such holder's foreign status or otherwise establish an exemption.

THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES SUMMARIZED ABOVE ARE FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY. EACH WEATHERFORD DELAWARE STOCKHOLDER SHOULD CONSULT HIS OR HER TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE PARTICULAR CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER THAT MAY APPLY TO SUCH STOCKHOLDER, INCLUDING THE APPLICATION OF STATE, LOCAL, NON-U.S. AND OTHER FEDERAL TAX LAWS.

BERMUDA INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

At the present time, there is no Bermuda income or profits tax, withholding tax, capital gains tax, capital transfer tax, estate duty or inheritance tax payable by Weatherford Bermuda or by Weatherford Bermuda shareholders in respect of its shares. Weatherford Bermuda expects to obtain an assurance from the Minister of Finance of Bermuda under the Exempted Undertakings Tax Protection Act 1966 that, in the event that any legislation is enacted in Bermuda imposing any tax computed on profits or income, or computed on any capital asset, gain or appreciation or any tax in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax, such tax shall not, until March 28, 2016, be applicable to Weatherford Bermuda or to any of its operations or to its shares or other obligations except insofar as such tax applies to persons ordinarily resident in Bermuda or to any taxes payable by Weatherford Bermuda in respect of real property or leasehold interests in Bermuda held by it.

42

BARBADOS INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

Weatherford Bermuda will be registered to operate as an IBC for Barbados tax purposes and Weatherford Bermuda will be legally managed and controlled through an executive office located in Barbados. Under current Barbados law, an IBC is subject to tax on its international business profits generated outside of Barbados at a maximum rate of 2.5%. This tax rate gradually decreases to 1% as taxable income increases. The benefits of these lower tax rates for companies registered as IBCs can be guaranteed by the Minister for up to 15 years. Barbados imposes no income tax on capital gains. In addition to Barbados income tax, Weatherford Bermuda will be subject to Barbados property transfer tax to the extent that it transfers real property owned in Barbados and certain other taxes to the extent that it employs persons in Barbados.

Under existing Barbados law, there will be no Barbados income or withholding tax imposed on any dividends, interest, royalties or other amounts paid by Weatherford Bermuda to any person resident outside of Barbados. Furthermore, U.S. shareholders will not be subject to any Barbados taxation on the sale or other transfer (including by gift or on the death of the shareholder) of Weatherford Bermuda common shares.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The firm of Ernst & Young LLP ("Ernst & Young"), independent public accountants, served as our auditors for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 and has been selected as auditors for Weatherford Delaware and Weatherford Bermuda for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002. Ernst & Young replaced Arthur Andersen LLP ("Arthur Andersen") who had served as Weatherford Delaware's auditors from 1972 to 2000.

On August 13, 2001, Weatherford Delaware dismissed Arthur Andersen as its independent public accountants and engaged Ernst & Young as its new independent public accountants. The decision to change the Company's independent public accountants was recommended by Weatherford Delaware's Audit Committee.

Arthur Andersen's reports on Weatherford Delaware's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were such reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the two years ended December 31, 2000, and the subsequent interim period preceding the decision to change independent public accountants, there were no disagreements with Arthur Andersen on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement(s), if not resolved to the satisfaction of Arthur Andersen, would have caused the former accountant to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its reports covering such periods.

During the two years ended December 31, 2000, and the subsequent interim period preceding the decision to change independent public accountants, there were no "reportable events" (hereinafter defined) requiring disclosure pursuant to Item 304(a)(1)(v)(A)-(D) of Item 304 of Regulation S-K.

During the two years ended December 31, 2000, and the subsequent interim period preceding the decision to change independent public accountants, neither Weatherford Delaware nor anyone on its behalf consulted Ernst & Young regarding either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on Weatherford Delaware's financial statements, nor has Ernst & Young provided to Weatherford Delaware a written report or oral advice regarding such principles or audit opinion.

In addition to audit services, Ernst &Young also provided certain non-audit services to the Company in 2001. The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of these additional services is compatible with maintaining the independence of Ernst & Young.

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or the DGCL, empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer or director of such corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. A Delaware corporation may indemnify past or present officers and directors of such corporation or of another corporation or other enterprise at the former corporation's request, in an action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor under the same conditions, except that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the corporation must indemnify such person against the expenses (including attorneys' fees) that such person actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith. Section 145 further provides that any indemnification shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in each specific case upon a determination that indemnification of such person is proper because he has met the applicable standard of conduct (i) by the stockholders, (ii) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, (iii) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, or (iv) by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, if there are no such disinterested directors, or if such disinterested directors so direct. Section 145 further provides that indemnification pursuant to its provisions is not exclusive of other rights of indemnification to which a person may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise. As permitted by the DGCL, the amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides that directors of Weatherford Delaware shall have no personal liability to Weatherford Delaware or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Weatherford Delaware or its stockholders, (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) under Section 174 of the DGCL or (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. David J. Butters and Robert B. Millard, employees of Lehman Brothers Inc., or Lehman Brothers, constitute two of the eight members of the board of directors of Weatherford Delaware. Under the restated certificates of incorporation, as amended to date, of Lehman Brothers and its parent, Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., or Holdings, both Delaware corporations, Messrs. Butters and Millard, in their capacity as directors of Weatherford Delaware, are to be indemnified by Lehman Brothers and Holdings to the fullest extent permitted by Del aware law. Messrs. Butters and Millard are serving as directors of Weatherford Delaware at the request of Lehman Brothers and Holdings. The amended and restated by-laws of Weatherford Delaware provide that Weatherford Delaware shall to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL indemnify each of its present and former officers and directors, and each of its present or former officers, directors, agents or employees who are serving or have served at the request of Weatherford Delaware as an officer, director or partner (or in any similar position) of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether by or in the right of Weatherford Delaware, by a third party or otherwise, to which such person is made a party or threatened to be made a party by reason of such office in Weatherford Delaware or in another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. The amended and restated by-laws also provide that to the fullest extent that the DGCL permits, under general or specific authority granted by the board of directors, (a) Weatherford Delaware may furnish such indemnification to its agents and employees with respect to their activities on behalf of Weatherford Delaware; (b) Weatherford Delaware may furnish such indemnification to each present or former officer, director, employee or agent of a constituent corporation absorbed in a consolidation or merger with Weatherford Delaware and to each officer, director, agent or employee who is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as an officer, director, agent or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise; and (c) Weatherford Delaware may purchase and maintain indemnification insurance on behalf of any of the officers, directors, agents or employees whom it is required or permitted to indemnify. Section 145 of the DGCL also empowers a Delaware corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporations, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of Section 145. Policies of insurance are maintained by Weatherford Delaware under which its directors and officers are insured, within the limits and subject to the limitations of the policies, against certain expenses in connection with the defense of actions, suits or proceedings, and certain liabilities that might be imposed as a result of such actions, suits or proceedings, to which they are parties by reason of being or having been such directors or officers. Messrs. Butters and Millard are insured against certain liabilities that they may incur in their capacity as directors pursuant to insurance maintained by Holdings.

Weatherford International Ltd. is a Bermuda exempted company. Section 98 of the Companies Act of 1981 of Bermuda, as amended (the Companies Act), provides generally that a Bermuda company may indemnify its directors, officers and auditors against any liability which by virtue of any rule of law otherwise would be imposed on them in respect to any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, except in cases where such liability arises from fraud or dishonesty of which such director, officer or auditor may be guilty in relation to the company. Section 98 further provides that a Bermuda company may indemnify its directors, officers and auditors against any liability incurred by them in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is awarded in their favor or in which they are acquitted or granted relief by the Supreme Court of Bermuda pursuant to Section 281 of the Companies Act. In addition, Weatherford International Ltd. expects to enter into indemnification agreements with its directors and certain executive officers substantially similar to those of Weatherford International, Inc. described above.

Weatherford International Ltd. has adopted provisions in its bye-laws that provide that it shall indemnify its officers and directors to the maximum extent permitted under the Companies Act.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer of controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public

The registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (1) that is filed pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph, or (2) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other
