Item 8.01 Other Events

On March 22, 2005, Beverly Enterprises, Inc. (the Company) announced that its Board of Directors (the Board) had unanimously voted to conduct an auction process to maximize value for all of the Company's stockholders as soon as practicable through a sale of the Company.

The Company also announced that, to ensure maximum accountability in pursuing an effective sale process, the Board had unanimously voted to hold a special meeting (the Special Meeting) of stockholders six months following the upcoming April 21, 2005, annual meeting, if requested by beneficial owners of at least 20% of the Company's common stock.

In order to assure that stockholders have the ability to elect a new board in October by plurality vote in the same manner as at an annual meeting, the current members of the Board have agreed that they will submit their resignations prior to the October meeting, even though they intend to stand for reelection if stockholders request such a meeting.

A copy of the resolutions adopted by the Board are set forth as Exhibit 99.1 hereto. The procedures for nominating individuals for election as directors at the Special Meeting are consistent with the nomination procedures contained in the Company's By-laws.
