PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
MAY 29, 2002

GENERAL

This Proxy Statement is submitted in support of the solicitation of the attached proxy by the Board of Directors of Aero Systems Engineering, Inc., a Minnesota corporation ("Company"), for the Annual Meeting of the shareholders of the Company to be held on May 29, 2002 at 2:00 o'clock p.m. at the Company's headquarters, 358 East Fillmore Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota 55107, and at any adjournments thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). The cost of solicitation will be borne by the Company. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Proxy and Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders is intended by the Company to be mailed to its shareholders on or about May 1, 2002. The Company may reimburse brokerage firms, banks, and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries for expenses reasonably incurred in forwarding solicitation materials to beneficial owners of shares.

The Annual Meeting is being held for the purposes of fixing the number of and electing the Company's Board of Directors and to transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

The annual report of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2001, including financial statements, is being mailed to shareholders simultaneously herewith, but the annual report is not to be considered part of the proxy soliciting materials.

Only holders of shares of the Company's Common Stock at the close of business on April 26, 2002, the record date for the Annual Meeting, will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. The securities of the Company outstanding as of April 26, 2002, and which are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, consist of 4,401,625 shares of Common Stock, each share being entitled to one vote. Shareholders do not have the right to cumulate votes for the election of directors.

Edgar Filing: AERO SYSTEMS ENGINEERING INC - Form DEF 14A

The enclosed Board of Directors' proxy, when properly signed and returned to the Company, will be voted at the Annual Meeting as directed therein. Proxies in which no direction is given with respect to the various matters of business to be transacted at the Annual Meeting will be voted to set the number of the Board of Directors at seven, in favor of the nominees for directors proposed by the Board of Directors, and, as to any other matters that may properly come before the Annual Meeting, in the best judgment of the proxy holders named in the enclosed proxy.

The enclosed proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise before or at the Annual Meeting by the execution and exercise of a proxy bearing a later date and notification in writing given to the Secretary of the Company prior to the Annual Meeting. The authority of the proxy holders named in the enclosed proxy will be suspended if the shareholder executing the proxy is present at the meeting and elects to vote in person.

The Company may have one or more of its officers or employees communicate by telephone, telegraph, facsimile, or mail with some of the shareholders who may have omitted to return proxies.

A quorum, consisting of a majority of the shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, must be present in person or by proxy before action may be taken at the Annual Meeting. In general, the shareholders of the Company may take action by the affirmative vote of the holders of the greater of (i) a majority of the voting power of the shares present and entitled to vote on a particular item of business or (ii) a majority of the voting power of the minimum number of shares entitled to vote that would constitute a quorum. If an executed proxy is returned and the shareholder has abstained from voting on any matter, the shares represented by such proxy will be considered present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum and for purposes of calculating the vote, but they will not be considered to have been voted in favor of such matter. If an executed proxy is returned by a broker or other entity holding shares in "street name" which indicates that the broker does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on one or more matters, such shares will be considered present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, but they will not be considered to be represented at the Annual Meeting for purposes of calculating the vote with respect to such matter.

Until September 25, 2001, Celsius, Inc. owned approximately 80% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. Celsius, Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Celsius AB, which is a Swedish company. Celsius AB was acquired by Saab AB in March 2000.

The purchase price of the shares and the contemporaneous loan of $2,600,000 to the Company was funded by contributions from the members and loans from the M&I Marshall & Ilsley Bank. Celsius retains an approximate 29% stock interest in the Company.

In connection with the sale by Celsius, Inc., Celsius loaned the Company $1,500,000, which accrues interest at the rate of 8% per year. The Company's obligations under this three-year Note are secured by a Security Agreement between the Company and Celsius, Inc. and by a combination Mortgage, Assignment of Rents, Security Agreement and Fixture Financing Statement between the Company and Celsius, Inc. pursuant to which all of the personal and fixture assets of the Company are pledged as collateral. In addition, Minnesota ASE, LLC pledged 2,245,000 shares of the Common Stock of the Company to Celsius, Inc. as further collateral to secure the Company's obligations under the Note. The Company, Minnesota ASE, LLC and Celsius, in connection with the foregoing loan and security arrangements, are party to a Stockholders Agreement (the "Stockholders Agreement"). The Stockholders Agreement provides, among other things, for Celsius to have a designee on the Company's Board of Directors so long as it holds at least 10% of the outstanding common shares, a right of first refusal in certain circumstances with respect to any sale of shares by a shareholder to a third party, tag-along rights with respect to sales of stock to third parties, and certain registration rights of shareholders in the event of any public offering of the stock of the Company.

The Board reconfirmed the appointments of Messrs. Maxson and Hoel to the Committee on April 25, 2001. AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

During 2000, the Board of Directors of the Company approved a written audit committee charter, a copy of which has previously been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee oversees the company's financial reporting process on behalf of the board of directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the system of internal control. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles; the reasonableness of significant judgments; and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. The Audit Committee held three formal meetings during fiscal 2001.

In February 2002, the Audit Committee (which consisted of A.L. Maxson, Richard A. Hoel, and Dr. Leon E. Ring) reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001; discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU Section 380), as modified or supplemented; received the written disclosures and letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, as may be modified or supplemented; and discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence. Based on such review and discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001, be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

401(k) Profit Sharing Plan

The Company's ASE, Inc Retirement Savings Plan ("Retirement Savings Plan") is a retirement savings plan under Sections 401(a) and 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"). Under the present plan, eligible employees may choose to reduce their salary or wages from the Company from 1% to 15% (subject to a maximum reduction of $11,000 per year) and have such amounts contributed to MetLife Defined Contribution Group ("MDCG") under the terms of the Retirement Savings Plan; these amounts are not taxed to the employee at the time of contribution to the Retirement Savings Plan. In addition, eligible employees may elect to reduce their salary or wages from the Company by not less than 1% nor more than 10% and have such amounts contributed to MDCG under the terms of the Retirement Savings Plan; these amounts are taxed to the employee at the time of contribution to the Retirement Savings Plan. Contributions up to 6% of the employee's compensation are matched at a rate of 50% by the Company ("Matching Contributions"). In addition, the Company may, but is not obligated to, make additional contributions to the Retirement Savings Plan. Both the Matching Contributions and the additional discretionary contributions are limited to the Company's accumulated net profits (prior to any deduction of contributions to the Retirement Savings Plan and any federal, state or local income taxes). The maximum annual allocation to an employee's account (including earnings, losses and forfeitures) is the lesser of (i) 25% of their salary or wages, or (ii) $40,000. All contributions under the Retirement Savings Plan are invested (pursuant to several investment choices) by the trustee for the Retirement Savings Plan. The current plan will be amended during 2002 to comply with the 2001 tax law changes. The Company's trustee for the Retirement Savings Plan is JP Morgan Chase Manhattan Bank Trust. MDCG is agent to Chase Manhattan Bank Trust.

Distributions of the vested portions of an employee's account balance will typically occur on their employment termination, retirement, death, or disability. Distributions can be made in the form of a lump sum, annuity or installment method of payment, at the discretion of the employee. During the years ending December 31, 2001, 2000, and 1999, $800,975, $494,229, and $635,575, respectively, were distributed by the Retirement Savings Plan. In 2001, 2000, and 1999, no distributions were made to any executive officer of the Company, including the Named Executive Officers. Benefit amounts credited during 2001, 2000, and 1999 pursuant to the Retirement Savings Plan for the Named Executive Officers, the distribution or unconditional vesting of which are not subject to future events, are included in the Summary Compensation Table under the heading "All Other Compensation."

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Charles H. Loux dated August 30, 1999, which provides for a term of one year, commencing on September 20, 1999 and ending September 30, 2000. That agreement was amended and renewed on September 30, 2000 and most recently on September 30, 2001 (the "Agreement"). The Agreement provides for an annual base salary of $162,240 effective January 1, 2002. The Agreement also provides for an annual incentive bonus based on certain performance criteria set forth in the Agreement; these criteria may be adjusted from time to time by the Board in its sole discretion, but upon consultation with Mr. Loux. The maximum incentive bonus that may be paid with respect to any year cannot exceed 50% of the base salary paid during that year. Under the Agreement, Mr. Loux is entitled to participate in any retirement savings plan, life insurance, health insurance, dental insurance, disability insurance or any other fringe benefit which the Company may from time to time make available to its salaried or executive employees; however, the Company agreed under the Agreement to provide Mr. Loux with term life insurance equal to two and one-half (2-1/2) times his annual base salary. Under the Agreement, if Mr. Loux's employment is terminated by the Board of Directors for reasons other than "cause" (as that term is defined in the Agreement), Mr. Loux is to receive a cash severance payment equal to 12 months' base salary in effect at the time of the termination and a pro-rated bonus.

REPORT OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Edgar Filing: AERO SYSTEMS ENGINEERING INC - Form DEF 14A

During the year ended December 31, 2001, the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, with the exception of Charles H. Loux, were not executive officers or employees of the Company or its subsidiaries. For the period from January 1, 2001 to September 25, 2001, Mr. Christer Persson was the only member of the Board that also served as a Director or Executive Officer of a company of which the capital stock is owned directly or indirectly (that is, through its subsidiaries) by the Company's ultimate parent, Saab AB. For the period after September 25, 2001, Messrs. Richard A. Hoel, James S. Kowalski, and Thomas L. Auth are members of Minnesota ASE, LLC, which owns 51% of the Company's stock. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for ensuring that compensation for executives is consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy. The Board believes that the Company's executive compensation is reasonable given its financial performance and as compared to other similar companies in the industry.

The Board annually evaluates the performance and compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"). The Board's deliberations regarding annual salary and incentive bonus are made without the presence of the CEO. Annual base salary for the CEO is established on the basis of a number of factors, including general performance of the Company and competitive standards. Although the Board takes into account corporate performance generally in determining annual base salary, there is no specific formula relating corporate performance to annual salary.

The Company's policy with respect to the compensation of its executive officers, including its CEO, includes the following beliefs:

1. The Company believes that its compensation system should attract and retain experienced, highly qualified executive officers.
2. The Company believes in pay for performance based on specific written goals and objectives and that executive compensation should have a substantial component of incentive compensation based on performance.
3. The Company believes that its executive compensation level should be measured by comparison to similar companies as well as other factors, such as an individual's contributions and performance.
4. The Company believes that the overall compensation level of the Company's executive officers should take into account the overall performance of the Company as compared to similar companies.

Determination of Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

The CEO's total annual compensation consist of two elements -- annual base salary and annual incentive bonus. Charles Loux's annual base salary for 2001 was determined in part by comparison to the annual salaries of chief executive officers of other companies of similar size and complexity of the Company. The annual incentive bonus component of Charles Loux's 2001 compensation plan was determined by establishing certain levels of financial performance of the Company as compared to the pre-determined annual budget and certain other factors. The factors and performance thresholds for 2001 were determined in the first quarter of that year by agreement between Charles Loux and Mr. Christer Persson, the Chairman of the Board. For the year ended December 31, 2001, 80% of Charles Loux's total available incentive bonus was based on the Company reaching certain levels of net income in 2001 as compared to the annual budget. The remaining 20% of Charles Loux's 2001 incentive bonus was determined in the Board's discretion after reviewing his overall performance. For 2001, Charles Loux did not receive an annual incentive bonus.

The Board believes that its current compensation philosophy and approach has served the Company's shareholders fairly, and it plans to continue the same compensation philosophy and approach for the foreseeable future.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Until September 25, 2001, Celsius Inc. owned approximately 80% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. Prior to this date, Celsius guaranteed certain bank lines of credit granted to the Company by Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken ("SEB"). In addition, during the same period of 2001, Celsius Inc. provided customer assistance and consulting services to the Company. As consideration for such guarantees, customer assistance and consulting services, the Company incurred and paid interest charges (or fees) to Celsius Inc. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Celsius AB, a Swedish holding company owned by Saab AB) in the amount of $140,000 for the period of January 1, 2001 to September 25, 2001. During this same period up to September 25, 2001, the bank lines of credit to the Company from SEB were in the amount of $6,000,000. Although the line of credit had a $6,000,000 limit, Celsius Inc. allowed the Company to exceed this limit for short periods of time. The portion over $6,000,000 was assessed a higher interest rate. To secure the guarantees by Celsius Inc. of such lines of credit and to secure any other present or future obligations of the Company to Celsius Inc., the Company granted security interests to Celsius Inc. in substantially all of the Company's assets. This line of credit was paid off and terminated on September 25, 2001, as part of the transaction of Minnesota ASE, LLC acquiring 51% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company.

On September 25, 2001, Celsius Inc. sold 2,245,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock, or 51% of the total outstanding shares of common stock of ASE, to Minnesota ASE, LLC. Related to this transaction, the Company secured new bank financing agreements for operating funds and future letter of credit needs. These new agreements are asset-based collateral agreements, with the funds available under these agreements determined by the available securable assets at any point in time, up to a maximum of $6,000,000 of operating funds and $3,000,000 of letter of credit funds. Also related to this transaction, Celsius Inc. agreed to continue to hold until maturity certain existing back guarantees that were previously provided to a few of the Company's customers, and Celsius Inc. provided a three-year $1,500,000 loan to the Company at 8% per year, which is subordinated debt to the new bank agreement. This loan is collateralized by a third party pledge by Minnesota ASE, LLC, of the shares of ASE purchased by Minnesota ASE, LLC, from Celsius Inc. The Company also provided an indemnification agreement to Celsius Inc. to secure Celsius Inc.'s interest in the above items. The Company's obligations under the three-year Note are secured by a Security Agreement between the Company and Celsius, Inc. and by a combination Mortgage, Assignment of Rents, Security Agreement and Fixture Financing Statement between the Company and Celsius, Inc. pursuant to which all of the personal and fixture assets of the Company are pledged as collateral. The Company, Minnesota ASE, LLC and Celsius, in connection with the foregoing loan and security arrangements, are party to a Stockholders Agreement (the "Stockholders Agreement"). The Stockholders Agreement provides, among other things, for Celsius to have a designee on the Company's Board of Directors so long as it holds at least 10% of the outstanding common shares, a right of first refusal in certain circumstances with respect to any sale of shares by a shareholder to a third party, tag-along rights with respect to sales of stock to third parties, and certain registration rights of shareholders in the event of any public offering of the stock of the Company.

On September 25, 2001, Minnesota ASE, LLC, loaned the Company $2,600,000 in order to supplement bank financing, and $2,300,000 of the balance was repaid prior to year end, leaving an outstanding balance of $300,000. The remaining $300,000 has been converted to a note bearing interest at 8% and does not have a stated due date.

For the period of September 25, 2001 through December 31, 2001, Minnesota ASE, LLC charged the Company as consideration for such guarantees and for certain administrative support provided and the Company paid a fee of $60,000. The Company presently pays no compensation to board members that are affiliated with Minnesota ASE, LLC.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's officers and directors and persons who own more than ten percent of the Company's Common Stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Based upon inquiries made by the Company of its executive officers and directors and of inquiries made of Minnesota ASE, LLC, and Celsius Inc., which are the only persons known to the Company which own more than ten percent of the Common Stock, the Company believes that during 2001, its officers and directors, Minnesota ASE, LLC and Celsius Inc. met all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements.

OTHER BUSINESS

All items of business intended by management to be brought before the Annual Meeting are set forth in this Proxy Statement, and management knows of no other business to be presented. If other matters of business not presently known to the Board of Directors shall be properly raised at the Annual Meeting, the person named as the proxies will vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

FUTURE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), the shareholders of the Company have certain rights to have shareholder proposals included within the Proxy Statement of the Company for the Company's Annual Shareholders Meeting in 2003.

Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") sets forth the procedure and requirements for requesting that the Company include these proposals in its Proxy Statement. Under that Rule, the deadline for submitting proposals under Rule 14a-8 is a reasonable time before the Company begins to print and mail its proxy materials.

Shareholders also may submit proposals to be voted on at an annual meeting without having the proposals included in the Company's proxy statement. These proposals are known as "non-Rule 14a-8 proposals". Rule 14a-4(c)(1) under the Exchange Act explains when the proxies named by a company to vote at an annual meeting may exercise their discretionary voting powers for proposals not included in the company's proxy statement, including non-Rule 14a-8 proposals. Rule 14a-4(c)(1) provides that proxies named by a company to vote at an annual meeting may be given discretionary authority to vote all proxies with respect to any non-Rule 14a-8 proposals that properly come before the annual meeting for a vote of the shareholders if (i) in case of a company such as the Company that has changed the date of its annual meeting by more than 30 days from the date of the previous year's meeting, the company has not received advance notice of the proposal a reasonable time before it mails its proxy materials, and (ii) shareholders have been notified of this advance notice requirement.

You are hereby notified that, for the annual meeting of shareholders to be held later this year, the Company's proxies will be able to exercise their discretionary voting authority with respect to any non-Rule 14a-8 proposal not submitted to the Company a reasonable time before the Company mails its proxy materials.

Any Rule 14a-8 proposal that a shareholder wishes to have considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy solicitation materials for the annual meeting of shareholders in 2003, and notice of any non-Rule 14a-8 shareholder proposals, should be given in writing to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's executive offices. Due to the technical nature of the rights of shareholders and the Company in this area, a shareholder desiring to make a shareholder proposal should consider consulting his or her personal legal counsel with respect to such rights.
