Item Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.
1.01

On June 22, 2014, Integrys Energy Group, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Wisconsin Energy Corporation, a Wisconsin corporation (“Wisconsin Energy”), providing for, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of specified conditions, the acquisition of the Company by Wisconsin Energy in a stock and cash transaction. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Wisconsin Energy will create two wholly owned subsidiaries and merge one of the subsidiaries with and into the Company (the “Initial Merger”), with the Company as the surviving corporation (the “Initial Surviving Corporation”) and a wholly owned subsidiary of Wisconsin Energy. Immediately after the effective time of the Initial Merger (the “Effective Time”) the Initial Surviving Corporation will merge with and into the other subsidiary of Wisconsin Energy (the “Subsequent Merger” and, together with the Initial Merger, the “Mergers”).

At the Effective Time, each share of the Company’s common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned by the Company, Wisconsin Energy or their respective wholly owned subsidiaries, but including shares of the Company’s common stock held in the Company’s rabbi trust) will be converted into the right to receive $18.58 in cash and 1.128 shares of Wisconsin Energy common stock (the “Merger Consideration”).

In connection with the Mergers, each vested and unvested outstanding stock option under the Company’s equity plans will be canceled in exchange for the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the excess of the value of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price for such stock option. Each outstanding restricted stock unit award under the Company’s equity plans that vests based solely on the continued service of the holder will vest and be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the value of the Merger Consideration. Each outstanding restricted stock unit award under the Company’s equity plans that is subject to performance-based vesting will vest in full as of the Effective Time at the greater of target level and the level projected to be achieved at the end of the applicable performance period, as determined by the Company prior to closing, and will be canceled in exchange for a cash payment equal to the value of the Merger Consideration. In addition, each stock unit credited to a participant’s account in the Company’s deferred compensation plan will vest and be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the value of the Merger Consideration, payable in accordance with the terms of the Company’s deferred compensation plan.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, effective at the Effective Time, three new directors will be appointed to newly created positions on Wisconsin Energy’s board of directors. The new directors will be selected from the Company’s board of directors by the Company in consultation with Wisconsin Energy, subject to New York Stock Exchange independence requirements and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission interlocking directorship requirements, and taking into effect Wisconsin Energy’s corporate governance guidelines. Effective at the Effective Time, Wisconsin Energy intends to change its name to WEC Energy Group, Inc.

The consummation of the Mergers is subject to the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company’s shareholders and approval by Wisconsin Energy’s shareholders of the issuance of Wisconsin Energy common stock in connection with the Mergers. In addition, the Mergers are subject to other customary closing conditions, including, among others, (i) the receipt of required antitrust and other regulatory approvals and such approvals having become final orders, (ii) the absence of a law, judgment, ruling or other legal restraint prohibiting the consummation of the Mergers and (iii) delivery of a customary opinion from each party’s counsel that the Mergers will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. The obligation of each party to consummate the Mergers is also conditioned upon the other party’s representations and warranties being true and correct, the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement and the other party not having suffered a material adverse effect, in each case as set forth in the Merger Agreement. Wisconsin Energy's obligation to consummate the Mergers is also conditioned on no legal restraint being in effect that, and no suit, action or other proceeding pending before any governmental entity seeking to impose, or that has imposed, any term, condition, liability, obligation, commitment, sanction or action that, individually or in the aggregate, has resulted or would reasonably be expected to result in a Parent Regulatory Material Adverse Effect (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement). The Mergers are not conditioned upon Wisconsin Energy's receipt of financing.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties made by each of the Company and Wisconsin Energy, and also contains customary covenants, including covenants requiring each of the parties to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Mergers to be consummated, including by using its reasonable best efforts to obtain all required regulatory approvals. The Merger Agreement provides that Wisconsin Energy is not required and the Company is not permitted to undertake any efforts or take any action with respect to obtaining the required regulatory approvals that would or would reasonably be expected to result in a Parent Regulatory Material Adverse Effect (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement also contains covenants requiring the Company and Wisconsin Energy (i) subject to certain exceptions, to conduct its business in the ordinary course of business in all material respects during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Mergers and (ii) not to solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage, induce or knowingly facilitate the making of any proposals or offers relating to alternate transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, engage in any discussions or negotiations with respect thereto. In addition, the Merger Agreement contains covenants that require each of Wisconsin Energy and the Company to call and hold special shareholder meetings and, subject to certain exceptions, require the Company's board of directors to recommend to its shareholders the approval of the Merger Agreement and Wisconsin Energy's board of directors to recommend to its shareholders the approval of the issuance Wisconsin Energy's common stock in connection with the Mergers.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Wisconsin Energy and the Company, including in the event that (i) the Mergers are not consummated on or before June 22, 2015 (which deadline may be extended by either party to December 22, 2015 under certain circumstances if required regulatory approvals have not been obtained), (ii) the approval of the shareholders of Wisconsin Energy or the shareholders of the Company is not obtained at a shareholder meeting or (iii) either Wisconsin Energy or the Company terminates the Merger Agreement to enter into a binding agreement providing for a superior alternative transaction. The Merger Agreement further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including, but not limited to, a change in the recommendation of the board of directors of the Company or Wisconsin Energy or a termination of the Merger Agreement by the Company or Wisconsin Energy to enter into a binding agreement providing for a superior alternative transaction, the Company or Wisconsin Energy, as the case may be, will pay to the other party a cash termination fee of $175 million.

A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement has been included solely to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to be a source of financial, business or operational information about Wisconsin Energy, the Company or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement are made only for purposes of the agreement and are made as of specific dates; are solely for the benefit of the parties; may be subject to qualifications and limitations agreed upon by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purpose of allocating contractual risk between the parties instead of establishing matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors or security holders. Investors and security holders should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Wisconsin Energy, the Company or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures.
