Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On September 15, 2004, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Celadon Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), dismissed Ernst & Young LLP ("Ernst & Young") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, effective immediately.

The report issued by Ernst & Young in connection with the Company's financial statements for each of its two most recent fiscal years ended June 30, 2004, and June 30, 2003, did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor was either such report qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years ended June 30, 2004, and June 30, 2003, and the subsequent interim period preceding the dismissal of Ernst & Young on September 15, 2004, there have been no disagreements with Ernst & Young on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K), if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young, would have caused Ernst & Young to make a reference to the subject matter of such disagreement in connection with its reports, and there occurred no "reportable events" within the meaning of Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company has provided Ernst & Young with a copy of the foregoing statements. A copy of Ernst & Young's letter to the Securities and Exchange Commission, dated September 21, 2004, regarding its agreement with the foregoing statements is attached to this report as Exhibit 16.1.

Although the Company has not, as of September 21, 2004, formally engaged a new independent registered public accounting firm, the Audit Committee has reached a preliminary understanding with a "Big Four" firm to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005. The formal engagement of this new independent registered public accounting firm is subject to that firm's customary new client acceptance procedures, which are expected to be completed prior to September 30, 2004.
