Other Events

On May 15, 2009, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, which has jurisdiction over the reorganization proceedings under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code for Circuit City Stores, Inc. (the "Company") and each of its wholly-owned United States and Puerto Rican subsidiaries, entered on its docket an order granting approval of the sale of the Company's intellectual property, Internet-related property and customer information to Systemax Inc ("Systemax") following an auction earlier the same week. Under the terms of the asset purchase agreement, Systemax will pay $14 million to the Company, plus a share of the future revenue generated by the assets over a 30-month period, which is guaranteed not to be less than $3 million. The sale remains subject to customary closing procedures.

Forward Looking Statements

Statements made in this release may be considered forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and are subject to risks and uncertainties. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements regarding the Company's expectations concerning the bankruptcy process. Actual results may differ materially from those included in the forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, including, without limitation, developments in the bankruptcy proceedings, the results of the liquidation sales and other matters.
