SL GREEN REALTY CORP.

PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

On December 9, 2002, the Company announced that it had entered into an agreement to purchase The News Building located at 220 East 42nd Street, New York, NY. This transaction was consummated on February 13, 2003.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet of SL Green Realty Corp. (the "Company") as of September 30, 2002 has been prepared as if the Company's acquisition of the property located at 220 East 42nd Street had been consummated on September 30, 2002. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated income statements for the year ended December 31, 2001 and the nine months ended September 30, 2002 are presented as if the Company's acquisition of the property located at 220 East 42nd Street occurred on January 1, 2001 and the effect was carried forward through the year and the nine month period.

The pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements do not purport to represent what the Company's financial position or results of operations would have been assuming the completion of the this acquisition had occurred on January 1, 2001 and for the period indicated, nor do they purport to project the Company's financial position or results of operations at any future date or for any future period. These pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's 2001 Annual Report on Form 10-K and the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2002.

Report of Independent Auditors

Board of Directors and Stockholders
SL Green Realty Corp.

We have audited the statement of revenues and certain expenses of 220 News Building (the "Company") for the year ended December 31, 2001. The financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying statement of revenues and certain expenses was prepared for the purpose of complying with Rule 3-14 of Regulation S-X of the Securities and Exchange Commission for inclusion in Form 8-K of SL Green Realty Corp. and is not intended to be a complete presentation of the Company's revenues and expenses.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenues and certain expenses of the Company as described in Note 1 for the year ended December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

220 News Building*Notes to Statement of Revenues and Certain Expenses*December 31, 2001*1. Basis of Presentation

Presented herein is the statements of revenues and certain expenses related to the operation of an office building located at 220 East 42nd Street ("220 News" or the "Property") in Manhattan, New York. On November 20, 2002, SL Green Realty Corp., entered into an agreement to acquire 220 News, closing is expected to occur in early 2003.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for the acquisition of real estate properties. Accordingly, the financial statements exclude certain expenses that may not be comparable to those expected to be incurred by the Company in the proposed future operations of the aforementioned property. Items excluded consist of interest, depreciation and general and administrative expenses not directly related to the future operations.

2. Use of Estimates

The preparation of the statement of revenues and certain expenses in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the statement of revenues and certain expenses and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Revenue Recognition

220 News is being leased to tenants under operating leases. Minimum rental income is generally recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. The excess of amounts so recognized over amounts due pursuant to the underlying leases amounted to approximately $869,000 (unaudited) for the nine months ended September 30, 2002 and $1,633,000, for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Included in tenant reimbursements for the nine months ended September 30, 2002 is a true up of prior year tenant reimbursements in the amount of approximately $310,000, which had been estimated in prior years.

4. Management Agreements

The Property is managed by The Witkoff Group, LLC (the "Property Manager"), an affiliate of one of the members of the Company, pursuant to a management agreement which provides for management fees at the rate of 1.5% of monthly rental income receipts, as defined.
