PROXY STATEMENT

2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

This Proxy Statement (first mailed to shareholders on or about April 19, 2004) is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Citadel Broadcasting Corporation (the "Company") for use at the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, to be held on Monday, May 24, 2004, at 9:00 a.m., local time, at the JPMorgan Chase Conference Centers, 270 Park Avenue, 11th Floor, New York, NY 10017, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Each valid proxy received in time will be voted at the meeting according to the choice specified, if any. A proxy may be revoked at any time before the proxy is voted, as outlined below.

The Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 accompanies this Proxy Statement but does not form a part of the proxy soliciting material.

If your shares of Common Stock are registered directly in your name on the records of EquiServe Trust Company, N.A., you are considered a shareholder of record and will receive your proxy soliciting material from the Company. If your shares are held through a broker, bank or other financial institution, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name and will receive your proxy soliciting material from your broker, bank or other institution. If you hold your shares in street name, you are generally entitled to provide voting instructions to the registered holder.

The shares of Common Stock represented by valid proxies that we receive in time for the Annual Meeting will be voted as specified in such proxies. Valid proxies include all properly executed, written proxy cards received pursuant to this solicitation that are not later revoked. Voting your proxy will not limit your right to vote at the Annual Meeting if you later decide to attend in person. Executed but unvoted proxies will be voted:

FOR the election of the Board of Directors' nominees for Class I directors; and

FOR the ratification of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent accountants.

If any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named on the proxies will, unless the shareholder otherwise specifies in the proxy, have the discretion to vote upon such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

VOTING SECURITIES

Citadel Broadcasting Corporation has one class of outstanding voting securities, Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of March 29, 2004, there were 132,502,969 shares of Common Stock outstanding. Only shareholders of record of Common Stock at the close of business on March 29, 2004, which the Board of Directors has fixed as the record date, are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. The presence in person or by proxy of holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of Common Stock outstanding entitled to vote at the meeting on the record date will constitute a quorum, permitting the shareholders to elect directors and to take action on approval of the independent accountants and other business matters properly brought before this meeting. The vote of a plurality of the shares of the Company's Common Stock present in person or by proxy at the meeting is required to elect each of the Class I director nominees. Abstentions and broker non-votes in connection with the election of directors have no effect on such election since directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting.

Other business matters, including the approval of the independent auditors, will be approved if they receive a vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the meeting and constituting a quorum. Abstentions with respect to these other matters will be considered a vote against the proposal and broker non-votes will have no effect on such matters since these votes will not be considered present and entitled to vote for this purpose. A broker non-vote occurs when the nominee of a beneficial owner with the power to vote on at least one matter does not vote on another matter because the nominee does not have the discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner with respect to such matter.

VOTING BY PROXY

If a shareholder is a corporation or a partnership, a duly authorized person must sign the accompanying proxy card in the full corporate or partnership name. If the proxy card is signed pursuant to a power of attorney or by an executor, administrator, trustee or guardian, the signer's full title must be given and a certificate or other evidence of appointment must be furnished. If shares are owned jointly, each joint owner must sign the proxy card.

Even after you have submitted your proxy, you may change your vote at any time before the proxy is exercised by filing with the Secretary of the Company either a notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. In addition, the powers of the proxy holders will be suspended if you attend the meeting in person and vote, although attendance at the meeting will not by itself revoke a previously granted proxy.

Unless you give other instructions on your proxy card, the persons named as proxy holders on the proxy card will vote in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors. The Board's recommendation is set forth together with the description of each item in this proxy statement. In summary, the Board recommends a vote:

FOR the election of the Board of Directors' nominees for Class I directors; and

FOR the ratification of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent accountants.

Management is not aware of any matters, other than those specified above, that will be presented for action at the annual meeting, but if any other matters do properly come before the meeting, the proxy holders will vote as recommended by the Board of Directors, or, if no recommendation is given, in their own discretion.

As of March 29, 2004, Forstmann Little partnerships held approximately 58% of the combined voting power of the outstanding Common Stock. Accordingly, Forstmann Little partnerships will have sufficient voting power to elect all members of the Board of Directors and to control substantially all other actions that may come before the Annual Meeting.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF CLASS I DIRECTORS

The Company's board of directors currently comprises nine directors.

The Company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides for a classified board of directors consisting of three classes. Each class consists, as nearly as possible, of one-third of the total number of directors constituting the entire board. The term of the initial Class I directors will terminate on the date of the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders; the term of the initial Class II directors will terminate on the date of the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders; and the term of the initial Class III directors will terminate on the date of the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders.

Beginning in 2004, at each annual meeting of shareholders, successors to the class of directors whose term expires at that annual meeting will be elected for a three-year term and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. A director may only be removed with cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting together as a single class. Each of the four Forstmann Little partnerships has a contractual right, for so long as it holds any shares of our Common Stock, to designate a nominee for election to the Company's board of directors and the Company is obligated to solicit proxies in favor of each of these four nominees and to use reasonable efforts to cause each of these four nominees to be elected. The nominees of the Forstmann Little partnerships are Theodore J. Forstmann, Sandra J. Horbach, Gordon A. Holmes and J. Anthony Forstmann of whom only J. Anthony Forstmann is a Class I director whose term of office will terminate on the date of the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders and is accordingly standing for re-election at the meeting.

Nominees

Upon the recommendation of the board of directors, the following three directors listed in the table below are nominated for election to serve as Class I directors for a term of three years and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. If any of the nominees are unable to serve or refuse to serve as directors, an event which the board does not anticipate, the proxies will be voted in favor of such other person(s), if any, as the board of directors may designate. A plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting will elect each Class I director. Shareholders may not grant a proxy for a greater number of persons than three, which is the number of nominees identified herein.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") must comply with certain standards regarding corporate governance, as codified in Section 303A of the Listed Company Manual of the NYSE, with some exceptions. A company of which more than 50% of the voting power is held by an individual, a group or another company need not comply with the requirements of Sections 303A.01 Independent Directors, 303A.04 Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee or 303A.05 Compensation Committee. Since four of the Company's shareholders, Forstmann Little & Co. Equity Partnership-VI, L.P., Forstmann Little & Co. Equity Partnership-VII, L.P., Forstmann Little & Co. Subordinated Debt and Equity Management Buyout Partnership-VII, L.P. and Forstmann Little & Co. Subordinated Debt and Equity Management Buyout Partnership-VIII, L.P., which are affiliates of each other, control 58% of the combined voting power of the Common Stock, the Company has elected to avail itself of the above exemptions from these three requirements. Accordingly, except in the case of David W. Checketts and Michael A. Miles, who are members of our audit committee, the board has not affirmatively determined that the other directors qualify as "independent" under the NYSE's corporate governance rules, although, based on information available to us, we are not aware of any affiliations, transactions or relationships of the type identified in Section 303A.02(b) of the NYSE rules that would disqualify any of our directors, other than our Chairman and CEO, Farid Suleman, from being an independent director.

The Company has undertaken a review of its corporate governance policies and taken the following measures to comply with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and NYSE regarding corporate governance practices:

Adopted governance guidelines for the board of directors.

Edgar Filing: CITADEL BROADCASTING CORP - Form DEF 14A

Adopted procedures for our independent directors to meet in executive sessions.

Adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that is applicable to all of our directors, officers and employees.

Adopted a Code of Ethics that is applicable to our principal executive officer and senior financial and accounting officers.

Adopted a policy on reporting of improper financial practices to address accounting or auditing concerns.

Adopted an Audit Committee Charter, incorporating all of the applicable requirements of Sarbanes-Oxley and the related regulations.

Adopted a procedure for handling complaints regarding accounting matters.

Adopted a Securities Trading Policy to ensure that persons subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16 of the Exchange Act will be able to comply with all applicable filing requirements in a timely manner.

The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, Code of Ethics for Principal Executive and Senior Financial and Accounting Officers, and the Audit Committee Charter are available on the Company's website at www.citadelbroadcasting.com.

MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

During the year ended December 31, 2003, the board of directors met five times. The board of directors has a standing audit committee which currently has two members. The Company is required to designate a third independent director to the audit committee not later than August 4, 2004. During 2003, each director attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the board of directors and meetings of the audit committee, if the director served on such committee.

The Company does not currently have any other standing committees of the board. Although the Company has not established formal nominating/governance or compensation committees, Theodore Forstmann, Sandra J. Horbach and Farid Suleman have from time to time acted as an ad hoc committee for the purpose of identifying and recruiting qualified board members and Theodore Forstmann and Sandra J. Horbach have acted as an ad hoc compensation committee in reviewing and negotiating the terms of compensation of the Company's Chairman and CEO, Farid Suleman.

The board has not designated a presiding director of executive sessions held on a regular basis by non-management directors.

Any interested party that wishes to communicate directly with the non-management directors may do so by writing to the following address:

Citadel Broadcasting Corporation
Attn: Non-Management Directors
7201 W. Lake Mead Blvd., Suite 400
Las Vegas, Nevada 89128

or by sending an email to the following address:

nonmanagementdirectors@citcomm.com

Communications will be distributed as appropriate to the board depending upon the facts and circumstances outlined in the communication.

Edgar Filing: CITADEL BROADCASTING CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Company does not have a policy regarding board members' attendance at the annual meeting of shareholders.

The Audit Committee

The audit committee provides assistance to the Company's board of directors in fulfilling its legal and fiduciary obligations in matters involving the Company's accounting, auditing, financial reporting, internal control and legal compliance function. The audit committee also oversees the audit efforts of the Company's independent accountants and takes those actions it deems necessary to satisfy itself that the accountants are independent of management. The members of the audit committee are Michael A. Miles and David W. Checketts.

The board of directors has determined that both of the directors of the audit committee qualify as independent directors under rules of the NYSE and the SEC. The board of directors made this determination after considering the following relationships and assessing the potential effect of these relationships on the independence of the named director:

Mr. Miles is a member of the Forstmann Little advisory board and an investor in certain affiliated partnerships of Forstmann Little & Co., which give him an economic interest in certain portfolio investments, including the Company.

Mr. Miles is a special limited partner of Forstmann Little & Co.

Mr. Checketts serves as a director of McLeodUSA Incorporated, whose stock is controlled by certain affiliated partnerships of Forstmann Little & Co.

The board of directors has determined that the relationships discussed above do not affect the independence of the named directors involved because neither director has made any commitment to the affiliated partnerships of Forstmann Little & Co.; in the case of Mr. Miles, none of the rights of an advisory board or a special limited partner of Forstmann Little & Co. are contingent in any way on or affected by his continued service as a director or member of our audit committee nor do his duties as an advisory board member and special limited partner of Forstmann Little & Co. conflict with his duties as a member of the audit committee; and, in the case of Mr. Checketts, his duties as a member of the board of another public company affiliated with Forstmann Little & Co. do not conflict with his duties as a member of the audit committee. The board of directors is not aware of any other relationships involving the audit committee and the Company that required an assessment of materiality by the board.

Each of the audit committee members is financially literate, as determined by the Company's board in its business judgment. In addition, the board of directors has determined that Mr. Miles is an "audit committee financial expert" as defined under the applicable rules of the SEC.

During 2003, the audit committee held two formal meetings and held two conference calls to review quarterly results with the independent auditors. The board of directors has adopted a written audit committee charter. The charter of the audit committee is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A. The charter is also available on the Company's website at www.citadelbroadcasting.com or upon the request of the shareholder by writing to Randy L. Taylor, VP Finance and Secretary at 7201 West Lake Mead Boulevard, Suite 400, Las Vegas, NV 89128.

The audit committee is primarily responsible for oversight of the integrity of the financial reporting process and financial statements of the Company. In general, the audit committee is responsible for the financial statements and disclosure matters, oversight of the Company's relationship with the independent accountants, oversight of the Company's internal audit function and oversight of compliance responsibilities. As part of these responsibilities, the audit committee, among other things:

appoints, retains and replaces the independent accountants for the Company;

reviews the compensation of and services performed by the independent accountants, including non-audit services (if any);

reviews and discusses the preparation of quarterly and annual financial reports with the Company's management and its independent accountants;

discusses with its independent accountants the matters required by SAS 61, Codification of Standards on Auditing Standards and evaluating the independence of the accountants in accordance with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees;

reviews and discusses major issues regarding the Company's accounting principles with management and financial statement presentations and major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls;

reviews and discusses the initial adoption of, and all significant changes to, critical accounting policies and practices used by the Company with the independent accountants;

evaluates the qualifications, performance and independence of the auditors;

reviews the significant reports to management prepared by the internal auditing department and any management responses; and reviews reports and disclosures of insider and affiliated party transactions.

Report of the Audit Committee

The audit committee or its chairman reviewed and discussed with both management and its independent accountants all financial statements prior to their filing with the SEC. In connection with the December 31, 2003 financial statements, the audit committee (1) reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management, including any significant transactions or issues; and (2) discussed with the independent auditors the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended. The audit committee also discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP ("D&T") their independence, including a consideration of the compatibility of non-audit services with such independence, and received from D&T written disclosures and the letter from D&T required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. Based upon these reviews and discussions, the audit committee has recommended that the board of directors include the audited financial statements in the Company's Annual Report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003.

This report is respectfully submitted by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The Company's board of directors does not currently have a compensation committee. During 2003, Theodore J. Forstmann and Sandra J. Horbach participated in deliberations on behalf of the board of directors concerning compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Farid Suleman. During 2003, Mr. Forstmann, Ms. Horbach and Mr. Suleman participated in deliberations concerning executive officer compensation, other than Mr. Suleman's compensation. Sandra J. Horbach currently serves as one of the Company's officers and as an officer of the Company's subsidiaries but receives no compensation for her services. Farid Suleman, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, did not participate in deliberations regarding his compensation. None of the other board members is either a current or former executive officer or employee of the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries. Each of Theodore J. Forstmann, Gordon A. Holmes and Sandra J. Horbach is a general partner in partnerships affiliated with the Forstmann Little partnerships.

On October 25, 2002, The Company granted options to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock to directors who were neither executive officers nor a general partner of Forstmann Little & Co. The directors who received these options were David W. Checketts, J. Anthony Forstmann and Michael A. Miles. On February 28, 2003, the Company granted Charles P. Rose, Jr. options to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The exercise price of the options granted to Messrs. Checketts, Forstmann, Miles and Rose is $16.00, which was based on the estimated fair market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant. The options have a term of ten years and vest in four equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the grant date, so long as the holder is a director of the Company on the applicable vesting date. On July 28, 2003, the Company granted options to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock to Herbert J. Siegel. The exercise price of Mr. Siegel's options was the initial public offering price of $19.00 per share. Directors do not receive any fees for serving on the Company's board, but are reimbursed for their out-of-pocket expenses arising from attendance at meetings of the board and committees.

Employment Contracts, Termination of Employment and Change-in-Control Arrangements

Mr. Suleman's Employment Arrangements

Farid Suleman joined the Company in March 2002. The following are the key terms of his employment pursuant to a letter, dated February 15, 2002, from Theodore J. Forstmann of Forstmann Little & Co. to Farid Suleman:

Mr. Suleman's annual salary is $1 million per year and is subject to annual review and adjustment;

Mr. Suleman is eligible for an annual bonus of $1 million, payable either in cash or in the form of warrants to purchase our common stock, at the option of the board of directors. The amount of the annual bonus is determined by the board of directors generally based on the Company's overall performance during the last fiscal year. If the bonus is paid in the form of warrants to purchase shares of the Company's common stock, the warrants will be valued, as determined by the board of directors, on the date of payment. The warrants will be fully vested at the time of payment and will have a ten-year term;

Mr. Suleman has received options and purchased shares of common stock, as described below; and

Mr. Suleman is entitled to the Company's standard employee benefit package.

The Company granted to Mr. Suleman options to purchase 4,150,000 shares of the Company's common stock in connection with his becoming the Company's Chief Executive Officer. These options have a term of ten years and have a per share exercise price of $3.50. The $3.50 exercise price was determined by negotiations between the Company and Mr. Suleman and was not based on fair market value.

Mr. Suleman may exercise options for purposes of proportionately participating in the sale of shares of the Company's common stock by the Forstmann Little partnerships or in a change of control of the Company in which the Forstmann Little partnerships cease to own any shares of voting stock. Mr. Suleman's stock option agreement also provides that, if there is a sale of shares of the Company's common stock by the Forstmann Little partnerships or a change of control of the Company in which the Forstmann Little partnerships cease to own any shares of voting stock, Mr. Suleman may be required by the Company to proportionately exercise his options and participate in the sale of shares by the Forstmann Little partnerships.

Upon exercise of any of his options, Mr. Suleman is required to enter into a stockholder's agreement with the Company.

The stockholder's agreement provides that Mr. Suleman may participate proportionately in any sale by the Forstmann Little partnerships of their shares of the Company's common stock to a third party. In addition, Mr. Suleman may, and may be required to (if determined by the board of directors), participate proportionately in a public offering of shares of common stock by the Forstmann Little partnerships, by selling the same percentage of his shares that the Forstmann Little partnerships are selling of their shares. If the Forstmann Little partnerships sell their common stock to a third party, the Forstmann Little partnerships may require Mr. Suleman to sell a proportionate amount of his shares and, if stockholder approval of the transaction is required, to vote his shares in favor of the sale.

The Company has the option to purchase, at their fair value, all of the shares of common stock purchased by Mr. Suleman upon exercise of his options after his termination of employment.

Report on Fiscal 2003 Executive Compensation

Because the board of directors does not currently have a compensation committee, the board is responsible for determining the compensation of the Company's executive officers and generally reviewing the Company's employee compensation policies. In practice, Theodore J. Forstmann and Sandra J. Horbach have acted as an ad hoc committee of the board on matters concerning compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Farid Suleman; and Mr. Forstmann and Ms. Horbach, together with Farid Suleman, have acted as an ad hoc committee of the board on matters concerning compensation of the Company's other executive officers. Mr. Suleman does not participate in board discussions regarding his own compensation.

It is the policy of the board to provide attractive compensation packages to the Company's executive officers to attract and retain individuals with the appropriate experience and skills, to motivate them to devote their full energies to our success, to reward them for their services and to align their interests with the interests of our stockholders. Considering all of the foregoing, our executive compensation packages currently consist primarily of base salaries, annual cash bonuses and stock options.

Determinations as to appropriate base salaries of our executive officers are largely subjective and do not depend upon the application of a particular formula or the use of designated benchmarks. In general, the level of base salary is intended to provide appropriate base pay to our executive officers, taking into account the competitive employment market for comparable positions, each individual's historical contribution to our success, each individual's unique value and the recommendations of Mr. Suleman. In establishing base salaries for our executive officers in 2003, our board considered numerous factors, including a subjective assessment of each individual's performance, the nature of the individual's responsibilities, the individual's contributions and importance to us, the individual's historical compensation and the nature and extent of the individual's other forms of compensation. We anticipate that future determinations of base salary made by the board will be based on similar factors.

Cash bonuses are generally based on the achievement of specific financial and operating objectives such as targeted results for EBITDA and free cash flow. Each executive officer is assigned a target bonus, which is generally expressed as a percentage of base salary. Target bonuses vary in relation to each individual's responsibilities. Cash bonuses are paid based on the achievement of individual objectives considered along with our performance as a whole. In certain cases, bonuses have been guaranteed based on the compensation package negotiated at the time of employment. All of our executive officers are participants in the bonus program.

We also use stock options as a means of long-term incentive compensation. The board determines the number of stock options granted to our executive officers and other employees on an individual, discretionary basis based on the recommendation of Mr. Suleman.

All compensation paid to our CEO, Farid Suleman, in 2003 was made pursuant to the terms of compensation arrangements negotiated on our behalf by Theodore Forstmann and Sandra Horbach at the time Mr. Suleman joined us in 2002. In 2003, this payment included a base salary of $1 million. There was no bonus for 2003. In addition, when Mr. Suleman became our CEO in 2002, we granted him an option to purchase 4,150,000 shares of our common stock. Twenty-five percent of these options were immediately exercisable and an additional 25% of the options became exercisable in 2003. Mr. Suleman received no other compensation from us in 2003, and, accordingly, the board took no action with respect to Mr. Suleman's compensation during the year.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally provides that publicly held corporations will only be able to deduct, for federal income tax purposes, compensation paid to its named executive officers in excess of $1,000,000 per year if it is paid pursuant to qualified performance-based compensation plans approved by our stockholders. Compensation as defined under Section 162(m) includes, among other things, base salary, incentive compensation and income attributable to stock option transactions. The board's primary objective in designing and administering our compensation policies is to support and encourage the achievement of our long-term strategic goals and to enhance stockholder value. When consistent with this compensation philosophy, the board also intends to structure its compensation programs such that compensation paid thereunder will be tax deductible by us to the maximum extent possible. The board intends to consider, on a case-by-case basis, how Section 162(m) will affect our compensation plans and contractual and discretionary compensation but reserves the right to pay compensation that is not deductible under Section 162(m).

This report is respectfully submitted by the Board of Directors.

In June 2001, 15 employees (together with two entities controlled by an employee) were awarded the right to purchase, and actually purchased, shares of the Company's common stock. Mr. Taylor, one of the Company's executive officers, was among these 15 employees and purchased 88,785 shares of common stock for approximately $6.76 per share. In addition, in February 2002, the Company agreed with Mr. Suleman that he would purchase $4.0 million of shares of the Company's common stock in connection with his joining the Company in March 2002. Mr. Suleman paid for these shares in April 2002. Mr. Suleman purchased a total of 592,074 shares of common stock for approximately $6.76 per share, which was not based on fair market value. In May 2003, Judith A. Ellis, the Company's Chief Operating Officer, was awarded the right to purchase, and actually purchased, a total of 48,899 shares of the Company's common stock for approximately $10.23 per share. The price paid for these shares was based upon the estimated fair value of the shares on the date of purchase. These members of our management entered into stockholder's agreements relating to these shares of our common stock, which, among other things, restrict the transfer of the shares of common stock. The stockholder's agreements are substantially identical and are summarized below. As of March 31, 2004, the Company has an aggregate amount of 1,280,516 shares of common stock subject to stockholder's agreements.

The stockholder's agreements provide that the stockholder may participate proportionately in any sale by the Forstmann Little partnerships of their shares of the Company's common stock to a third party. In addition, the stockholder may, and may be required to (if determined by the board of directors), participate proportionately in a public offering of shares of common stock by the Forstmann Little partnerships, by selling the same percentage of his or her shares that the Forstmann Little partnerships are selling of their shares. If the Forstmann Little partnerships sell their common stock to a third party, the Forstmann Little partnerships may require the stockholder to sell a proportionate amount of his or her shares and, if stockholder approval of the transaction is required, to vote his or her shares in favor of the sale.

If a stockholder's employment is terminated, the Company has the option to purchase any unvested shares of common stock held by the stockholder. The purchase price for these shares is the stockholder's cost. If a stockholder engages in prohibited or competitive activities, or criminal acts, or grossly or willfully neglects his or her duties, we have the option to purchase any shares of common stock held by the stockholder. The purchase price for these shares is the lesser of the stockholder's cost or the book value per share.

If a stockholder's employment is terminated without cause, a stockholder may require the Company to purchase all, but not less than all, of the shares of common stock held by the stockholder. The purchase price for these shares is the stockholder's cost, except that in the case of the repurchase of vested shares from a stockholder terminated by reason of death, permanent disability or adjudicated incompetency, the purchase price is fair value.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In June 2001, the Company was capitalized by four partnerships affiliated with Forstmann Little & Co. and members of the Company's management, to acquire Citadel Communications Corporation, which was then a publicly owned company. The Company financed the acquisition by issuing its common stock to the Forstmann Little partnerships and members of management, by incurring indebtedness under a new credit facility and by issuing an aggregate of $500 million of subordinated debentures to two of the Forstmann Little partnerships. These partnerships immediately distributed the subordinated debentures to their respective limited partners. The subordinated debentures were general senior subordinated obligations, were not subject to mandatory redemption and were to mature in three equal annual installments beginning June 26, 2012, with the final payment due on June 26, 2014. The debentures bore interest at a fixed rate of 6% payable semi-annually in June and December each year. The balance of debentures outstanding at December 31, 2003 was $500 million. On February 18, 2004, the Company prepaid all of the outstanding subordinated debentures with the net proceeds from the offering by the Company of 9,630,000 shares of common stock and the issuance of $330.0 million of convertible subordinated notes.

Each of the four Forstmann Little partnerships has a contractual right, for so long as it holds any shares of the Company's common stock, to designate a nominee for election to the Company's board of directors and the Company is obligated to solicit proxies in favor of each of these four nominees and to use reasonable efforts to cause each of these four nominees to be elected.

The Company has also granted to the Forstmann Little partnerships six demand rights to cause the Company to file a registration statement under the Securities Act covering resales of all shares of common stock held by the Forstmann Little partnerships, and to cause the registration statement to become effective. The registration rights agreement also grants "piggyback" registration rights permitting the Forstmann Little partnerships to include their registrable securities in a registration of securities by the Company. Under the agreement, the Company will pay the expenses of these registrations.

The Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Farid Suleman, is a special limited partner of Forstmann Little & Co. Mr. Suleman is paid $1.2 million per annum for providing advice and consulting services to Forstmann Little & Co. as a special limited partner. Mr. Suleman has the right to invest in Forstmann Little & Co. portfolio investments from time to time. Mr. Suleman has informed us that he has not invested in the Forstmann Little partnerships' investments.

The Company reimburses Forstmann Little & Co. and its affiliates for expenses paid on the Company's behalf and receives reimbursements from Forstmann Little & Co. for expenses paid on its behalf including travel and related expenses, and office and other miscellaneous expenses. For the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company reimbursed Forstmann Little & Co. and its affiliates a net amount of approximately $1.8 million. Forstmann Little & Co. also provides use of office space to the Company's executive officers at no cost.

FL Aviation Corp., an affiliate of Forstmann Little & Co., operates and maintains the Company's corporate aircraft at cost. In connection therewith, the Company reimburses all costs incurred by FL Aviation Corp. in operating the aircraft.

Theodore J. Forstmann is the senior partner of, and Sandra J. Horbach and Gordon A. Holmes are general partners of, Forstmann Little & Co. Messrs. Forstmann and Holmes serve as members of the Company's board of directors. Ms. Horbach also serves as a member of the Company's board of directors and as a non-executive officer of the Company and its subsidiaries, although Ms. Horbach receives no compensation for her services as an officer. Michael A. Miles and J. Anthony Forstmann are special limited partners of Forstmann Little & Co. Mr. Miles also serves on the Forstmann Little advisory board and, as such, has an economic interest in the Forstmann Little partnerships. Mr. Miles is also an investor in certain affiliated partnerships of Forstmann Little & Co., which gives him an economic interest in certain portfolio investments, including the Company. J. Anthony Forstmann is the brother of Theodore J. Forstmann.

Effective July 11, 2003, D. Robert Proffitt ceased to be employed as the Company's President and on July 15, 2003, in accordance with the Company's rights under our stockholder's agreement with Mr. Proffitt, the Company repurchased all unvested shares of common stock held by Mr. Proffitt at cost for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $1.2 million.

On May 21, 2003, Judith A. Ellis, the Company's Chief Operating Officer, purchased a total of 48,899 shares of common stock for approximately $10.23 per share. These shares of common stock are subject to a stockholder's agreement, which, among other things, restricts the transfer of the shares of common stock.

Effective March 31, 2003, Donna L. Heffner resigned as the Company's Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary and from all executive officer and director positions that she held with subsidiaries of the Company. On May 12, 2003, in accordance with the Company's rights under its stockholder's agreement with Ms. Heffner, the Company repurchased all unvested shares of common stock held by Ms. Heffner at cost for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $1.6 million.

On February 18, 2004, the Company completed a public offering of 29,630,000 shares of its common stock at $19.00 per share, including 9,630,000 primary shares sold by the Company and 20,000,000 shares sold by certain of the Company's stockholders. The 20,000,000 shares included 19,856,626 and 18,338 shares of common stock sold by Forstmann Little & Co. and its affiliates, and Randy Taylor, one of the Company's executive officers, respectively.

Randy L. Taylor, one of the Company's executive officers, has been indebted to the Company since June 2001 under a promissory note which bears an annual interest rate of 5.02%. This note is full recourse against Mr. Taylor. This note was delivered to the Company by Mr. Taylor in partial payment for his purchase of the Company's common stock. The promissory note was secured by the 88,785 shares of common stock to which it relates. Based on the closing price of the Company's common stock on the NYSE on December 31, 2003 of $22.37 per share, the shares of common stock were valued at $1,986,120. To the extent Mr. Taylor sells any common stock, the note requires that the net proceeds he receives, after taxes, be used to reduce the outstanding balance under his note. The highest amount outstanding under Mr. Taylor's note since January 1, 2003 was $413,704. On February 18, 2004, Mr. Taylor repaid $304,466 of his note using proceeds of the sale of 18,338 shares of common stock.

The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche LLP for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's 401(k) plan for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 were $14,000 and $12,500, respectively.

Tax Fees

The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche LLP for professional services rendered in connection with tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 were zero and approximately $32,000, respectively.

All Other Fees

Deloitte & Touche did not render professional services other than those described above under "Audit Fees," "Audit-Related Fees," and "Tax Fees" for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

The audit committee has adopted policies and procedures requiring audit committee review and approval in advance of all particular engagements for services provided by the Company's independent auditors. Prior to rendering any audit and non-audit professional services, Deloitte & Touche discusses such services with the audit committee, and the committee pre-approves the scope of such services and the related estimated fees. The scope of all audit and non-audit services rendered by Deloitte & Touche during the year ended December 31, 2003 were pre-approved by the audit committee.

During the approval process, the audit committee considers the impact of the scope of services and the related fees on the independence of the auditor. The services and fees must be deemed compatible with the maintenance of the auditor's independence, including compliance with the SEC rules and regulations.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") requires the Company's executive officers and directors and persons who own more than 10% of the Company's Common Stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of the Company's Common Stock with the SEC and the NYSE. Based solely on a review of copies of such reports and written representations from the reporting persons, the Company believes that during the year ended December 31, 2003, its executive officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders filed on a timely basis all reports due under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act.

SUBMISSION OF SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

It is anticipated that the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders of the Company will be held in May 2005. Any shareholders who intend to present proposals at the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders, and who wish to have such proposals included in the Company's Proxy Statement for the 2005 annual meeting, must ensure that such proposals are received by the Secretary of the Company not later than January 24, 2005. Such proposals must meet the requirements set forth in the rules and regulations of the SEC in order to be eligible for inclusion in the Company's 2005 proxy solicitation material. Any proposals should be sent to the Secretary, Citadel Broadcasting Corporation, 7201 West Lake Mead Boulevard, Suite 400, Las Vegas, Nevada 89128.

In addition, the Company's by-laws provide that shareholders seeking to bring business before an annual meeting of shareholders or to nominate candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting of shareholders, must provide timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Company. To be timely, a shareholder's notice generally must be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive office of the Company, not less than 45 days nor more than 75 days prior to the first anniversary of the date on which the Company first mailed its proxy materials for the preceding year's annual meeting of the shareholders. However, if the date of the annual meeting is advanced more than 30 days prior to or delayed by more than 30 days after the anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, to be timely, notice must be delivered not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which the public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. To be in proper written form, the notice must contain certain information concerning the nominee and the shareholder submitting the nomination. These provisions may preclude stockholders from bringing matters before an annual meeting of the shareholders or from making nominations for directors at an annual meeting of shareholders.

OTHER MATTERS

The expenses of printing and mailing proxy material, including expenses involved in forwarding materials to beneficial owners of stock, will be paid by the Company. No solicitation other than by mail is contemplated. The Company will reimburse brokers, banks, institutions and others holding Common Stock as nominees for their expenses in sending proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners of such Common Stock and obtaining their proxies.

Eligible beneficial shareholders who share a single address may have received a notification that only one copy of the Annual Report and Proxy Statement will be sent to that address unless the broker, bank, institutions or other nominee that provided the notification received contrary instructions from any beneficial shareholder at that address. This practice, known as "householding", is designed to reduce printing and mailing costs. However, if a beneficial shareholder at such an address wishes to receive a separate Annual Report or Proxy Statement this year or in the future, the shareholder may contact the Secretary of Citadel Broadcasting Corporation at (720) 804-5200 or at 7201 West Lake Mead Boulevard, Suite 400, Las Vegas, Nevada 89128. Eligible registered shareholders receiving multiple copies of these documents can request householding by contacting the Company in the same manner. Persons holding shares through a bank, broker, institutions or other nominee can request householding by contacting the nominee.
