PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This summary highlights information contained elsewhere in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and does not contain all of the information that you should consider before investing in our common stock. You should read this entire prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus carefully, including the section entitled "Risk Factors," and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein, including the financial statements and related notes of Echo and Command.

Our Company

Echo Global Logistics is a leading provider of technology-enabled transportation and supply chain management solutions. We utilize a proprietary technology platform to compile and analyze data from our multi-modal network of transportation providers to satisfy the transportation and logistics needs of our clients. This model enables us to quickly adapt to and offer efficient and cost-effective solutions for our clients' shipping needs. We focus primarily on arranging transportation by truckload ("TL") and less than truckload ("LTL") carriers. We also offer intermodal (which involves moving a shipment by rail and truck), small parcel, domestic air, expedited and international transportation services. Our core logistics services include rate negotiation, shipment execution and tracking, carrier management, routing compliance and performance management reporting.

The success of our model and its ability to deliver a competitive value proposition to the small and middle-market shipper has been the main driver behind our historical growth and we believe will serve as the basis for our continued expansion. Our market share has grown rapidly within this market segment in recent years, primarily through organic growth with the addition of new customers, the expansion of relationships with existing customers, the addition of new services, the development of a training program that enables better client service and the hiring of additional salespeople. We also have supplemented our organic growth through selective acquisitions.

Our Clients

We procure transportation and provide logistics services for clients across a wide range of industries, such as manufacturing, construction, consumer products and retail. Our clients fall into two categories: Transactional and Managed Transportation.

Transactional Clients

We service Transactional clients on a shipment-by-shipment basis. Pricing is often quoted according to pre-existing price agreements maintained with our LTL carriers, or pricing procured in the spot market for TL carriers. It is the objective of our sales representatives to expand client relationships by increasing the shipper's percentage of total freight spend directed to Echo. Transactional clients benefit from their access to our advanced technology, service quality and competitive pricing.

Our revenue from Transactional clients has continued to increase annually, totaling $526.8 million in 2012, $616.6 million in 2013 and $871.3 million in 2014. Revenue from Transactional clients as a percentage of total revenue was 70% in each of 2012 and 2013 and 74% in 2014.

Managed Transportation Clients

We typically enter into multi-year contracts with our Managed Transportation clients, generally with terms of one to three years, to satisfy some, or substantially all, of their transportation management needs. Each Managed Transportation client is assigned one or more dedicated account executives. In limited instances, a Managed Transportation client will request that its account executives work on-site at the client's location.

Table of Contents

Dedicated account executives, together with account management and technology staff, form our Solutions and Integration team that initiates the on-boarding process for each new Managed Transportation client. This team reviews the client's existing business processes, develops a preliminary freight management plan and targets a percentage cost savings achievable for the client over the life of the contract. The team then develops an integration plan that links the client's back office processes to our proprietary technology platform.

The Managed Transportation relationship is initially predicated on a high level of personalized service, cost savings, and the improved efficiency, transparency and reporting achieved through reliance on our systems. Each client's dedicated account team seeks to become more knowledgeable about the client's supply chain operations through an ongoing series of quarterly business reviews. Through this process, additional opportunities for efficiency gains, operating improvements and cost savings are identified and recommended by account managers who generally have significant industry experience.

Managed Transportation contracts often are on an exclusive basis for a certain transportation mode or point of origin and may apply to one or many modes used by the client. These contractual exclusivity provisions help ensure, but do not guarantee, that we receive a significant portion of a Managed Transportation client's transportation spend. In our experience, compliance with such provisions varies from client to client and over time. We work with our Managed Transportation clients and expect them to maintain and improve compliance with any applicable exclusivity provisions.

We also provide small parcel consulting services to a limited number of our Managed Transportation clients. Under these arrangements, we review the client's small parcel shipping contracts and shipment data analyzing their volumes, distribution, rates and savings opportunities, prepare negotiation strategies and directly or indirectly participate in negotiations with carriers to improve the client's rates, charges, services and commitments.

Echo had 260 Managed Transportation client relationships at December 31, 2014. Our revenue from all Managed Transportation clients has continued to increase annually, totaling $230.9 million in 2012, $267.6 million in 2013 and $302.1 million in 2014. Revenue from Managed Transportation clients as a percentage of total revenue was 30% in each of 2012 and 2013 and 26% in 2014.

Our Proprietary Technology

Our proprietary technology platform ("Optimizer") is fundamental to our operating system and solutions offering. We run our business on a technology platform engineered and built from the ground up and believe its proprietary nature differentiates us from our competition in a number of critical ways. All parties to each transaction (clients, carriers and Echo employees) are unified on a single platform through access portals customized to each party's needs. We believe such integration yields critical synergies throughout our organization as well as with our clients and our carriers. Equally important, internal integration ensures speed and accuracy of data capture, information exchange, shipment execution and back-end reporting capabilities.

We believe our web-based suite of applications connects clients with every function required to run an efficient transportation and logistics program. Transportation solutions developed for Managed Transportation clients often involve back-end systems integration, and both the solution and the specific integration requirements vary by client. Optimizer affords us the flexibility to support the supply chain needs of each client, regardless of specifications of the client's own system.

When communicating their transportation needs to us, clients have the flexibility to do so electronically through our web portal ("EchoTrak"), by other computer protocols or by phone. Our system generates price and carrier options for our clients based on either rates pre-negotiated with preferred carriers or historical price and capacity data stored in our system. If a client enters its own shipment, EchoTrak automatically alerts the appropriate account executive. Once the carrier is selected, the client's account executive uses our system to manage all aspects of the shipping process through the life cycle of the shipment. Our clients use Optimizer's "track and trace" tools to monitor shipment status through EchoTrak.

As our business has grown, our technology platform has continued to evolve in order to incorporate new multi-modal capabilities. We believe the agility of Optimizer is essential to keep pace with the changing needs of our business and offers us a critical advantage in the competitive transportation marketplace. Each mode involves different vendors exchanging unique order and price data that must be shared with multiple parties to any given transaction. Our technology engineers build mode-specific requirements into our system that support our ability to sell and service that mode on an enterprise-wide basis. In 2014, 2013 and 2012, we spent approximately $9.6 million, $8.4 million and $7.1 million, respectively, on the development of Optimizer and related technologies.

We rely primarily on a combination of copyright, trademark and trade secret laws, license agreements and other contractual provisions to protect our intellectual property rights and other proprietary rights. Some of our intellectual property rights relate to proprietary business process enhancements. It is our practice to enter into confidentiality and invention assignment agreements with all of our employees and independent contractors. Such agreements include a confidentiality undertaking by the employee or independent contractor; ensure that all new intellectual property developed in the course of our relationship with employees or independent contractors is assigned to us; and require the employee or independent contractor to cooperate with us to protect our intellectual property during and after his or her relationship with us.

Our Transportation Solutions

We satisfy the market demand for freight transportation solutions by delivering a competitive value proposition that combines advanced technology, excellent client service, competitive pricing and highly customized transportation solutions to businesses seeking external transportation management expertise. As a non-asset-based provider of technology enabled transportation and logistics services, our solutions offerings take many forms, including multi-modal transportation brokerage and logistics services.

Mode-Specific Offerings

For clients managing their freight on a transactional basis, Echo offers a wide array of shipping options from which to choose:

Truckload. We provide TL service across all TL segments, including dry van, temperature-controlled and flatbed trucks. Our LaneIQ technology uses our predictive pricing algorithms, industry relationships and historical lane-specific price and capacity data to quickly satisfy our clients' TL needs

Small Parcel. We provide small parcel services for packages of all sizes. Using our EchoPak technology, we often are able to deliver cost saving opportunities to those clients with significant small parcel freight spend.

Intermodal. Intermodal transportation is the shipping of freight by multiple modes. We offer intermodal transportation services for our clients that utilize a combination of truck and rail. Our dedicated intermodal team can select the combination of truck and rail service that best satisfies each client's individual price and shipment criteria.

Table of Contents

Domestic Air and Expedited Services. We provide domestic air and expedited shipment services for our clients whose delivery requirements cannot be satisfied by traditional over the road service.

International. For clients seeking the ease of a comprehensive international delivery option, we provide air and ocean transportation services. Dedicated account teams are able to consolidate shipments, coordinate routing, prearrange custom clearance and organize local pick-up and delivery, all in an effort to minimize the time and economic burdens associated with international shipping.

Logistics Services Offering

Many clients prefer a comprehensive and customized freight management solution that maximizes system wide efficiencies as well as cost savings. In these instances, the shippers outsource their freight management needs to us. For these shippers, often part of our Managed Transportation group, we develop a plan involving a wide range of multi-modal freight brokerage services that often includes the redesign and re-engineering of distribution networks that connect a client to its suppliers and customers.

Transportation management and logistics services that we provide to such clients can include:

Recent Developments

Proposed Acquisition of Command Transportation, LLC

On April 20, 2015, Echo entered into that certain Unit Purchase Agreement by and among Echo, Command, the members of Command (collectively, the "Sellers"), Paul Loeb, as sellers' representative (the "Sellers' Representative"), and Paul Loeb, in his individual capacity (the "Purchase Agreement"). Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, Echo will acquire all of the outstanding membership units of Command from the Sellers (the "Command Acquisition"), resulting in Command becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Echo.

The purchase price for the Command Acquisition is approximately $420 million, subject to post-closing adjustments for working capital and cash. $15 million of the purchase price will be paid in the form of Echo common stock issued to the Sellers and $10 million will be paid in the form of Echo restricted common stock to be issued to certain employees of Command. The number of shares of Echo common stock and restricted common stock to be issued in the aggregate in connection with the Command Acquisition will be determined by dividing $25 million by the volume weighted average price of Echo's common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the twenty trading days ending on the third day prior to the closing. The Echo common stock will be issued pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), at the closing.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties, covenants and agreements. In addition, Echo and the Sellers have agreed to indemnify each other for certain losses, and $25.2 million of the purchase price will be held in escrow to secure the Sellers' indemnification obligations under the Purchase Agreement.

The Command Acquisition is expected to close in the second quarter of 2015, subject to satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including the expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976. Echo's obligation to consummate the Command Acquisition is not subject to any condition related to the availability of financing.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary termination rights for Echo and the Sellers' Representative. Upon termination of the Purchase Agreement under certain specified circumstances, Echo may be required to pay the Sellers' Representative a termination fee of $25.2 million. The Purchase Agreement is subject to termination if the transaction is not completed before July 20, 2015. See "The Command Acquisition."

We cannot assure you that we will complete the Command Acquisition on the terms described in this prospectus supplement or at all. The completion of this offering is not contingent upon the completion of the Command Acquisition, and the completion of the Command Acquisition is not contingent upon the successful completion of this offering of common stock or the concurrent offering of our convertible senior notes. Investors in our common stock should not place undue reliance on the pro forma and as adjusted financial data included in this prospectus supplement because this offering is not contingent upon any of the transactions reflected in the adjustments included in such information.

The foregoing summary describes material provisions of the Purchase Agreement and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is included as an exhibit to our Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on April 21, 2015, which is incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement. See "The Command Acquisition" beginning on page S-25 of this prospectus supplement for additional information.

Command's Business and Rationale for the Command Acquisition

Command is one of the largest privately held TL brokers and non-asset based transportation providers in the United States. Command is headquartered in Skokie, Illinois with satellite locations in St. Louis, Missouri; Kansas City, Kansas; and Houston, Texas. For the year ended December 31, 2014, Command generated net sales of $561 million and Adjusted EBITDA of $37 million. Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure. See "Summary Historical Consolidated Financial Data of Command Transportation, LLC" for a definition of Adjusted EBITDA and a reconciliation to net income, the most comparable measure under generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP").

Echo believes that, by bringing together Echo and Command, the Command Acquisition will create a leading provider of technology-enabled transportation and supply chain management solutions with enhanced scale in the TL market. In 2014, Echo and Command had pro forma revenue of $1,734 million. In addition, upon completion of the Command Acquisition, the combined company will have over 1,680 sales representatives in 34 offices across the United States and an expansive nationwide carrier network of TL carriers and will be able to offer greater capacity and a broader network to both Transactional and Managed Transportation clients, as well as a broader suite of services for both companies' existing clients.

Critical Scale Enhances Leading Market Position: Command brings to Echo increased TL network density with a highly complementary TL network. Command's significant relationships and capabilities in TL will allow the combined company to offer greater capacity and a broader network to both Transactional and Managed Transportation clients. While both companies provide TL services nationally, Command's network is more focused in the Eastern and Southeastern regions of the United States and Echo's network is more focused west of the Mississippi River. The complementary nature of each company's network will create greater national coverage which will benefit the clients of the combined business. Echo and Command have limited customer overlap.

Experienced Workforce and Aligned Management: The Command Acquisition brings together two of the strongest leadership teams in the industry, with more than 150 years of combined experience and a commitment to driving deep client and carrier relationships. The combined company will have a best-in-class sales force with common goals focused on customer service and maintaining high standards. Importantly, the strategic nature of the transaction is expected to provide new opportunities for growth and career advancement for employees of the combined company.

Technology Leadership: The transaction will combine industry-leading proprietary technology platforms that include Echo's breadth and multimodal capabilities with Command's customized and proprietary TL platforms and expertise. Echo will integrate some of Command's technology into its platform, and Command will migrate to the Echo platform over time.

Seamless Integration: Echo and Command share a young, energetic and collegial atmosphere and a strong customer and carrier-centric culture. Echo and Command expect that their common cultures, similar processes and business models, and headquarters in Chicago will allow for a seamless integration. Further, the Echo management team has significant experience successfully integrating acquisitions.

Accretive Financially: Following the completion of the transaction, Echo expects to have a strong financial profile with a solid balance sheet, enhanced cash flow and significant growth prospects. Echo will have the ability to realize revenue, cost, operational and purchasing power synergies. In addition, Echo believes that an expanded customer base will provide significant cross selling opportunities, while the talent acquired, including a long-tenured sales force, will further drive increased revenue. Echo expects that the transaction will be accretive to earnings per share.

Financing Transactions

In addition to this offering of common stock, we intend to obtain or otherwise incur financing for the Command Acquisition as follows:

Concurrent Convertible Notes Offering. Concurrently with this offering, we are offering $200 million aggregate principal amount of our convertible senior notes (or $230 million aggregate principal amount of our convertible senior notes if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional notes in full), pursuant to a separate prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus. This prospectus supplement does not constitute an offer of our convertible senior notes. The convertible senior notes offering is not contingent upon the closing of this offering of common stock and this offering of common stock is not contingent upon the closing of the offering of convertible senior notes.

Credit Facilities. In connection with entering into the Purchase Agreement for the Command Acquisition, Echo entered into a commitment letter (the "Commitment Letter") with Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., PNC Capital Markets LLC, PNC Bank, National Association, Credit Suisse AG (acting through such of its affiliates or branches as it deems appropriate) and Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC (collectively, the "Commitment Parties"). The Commitment Letter provides that the Commitment Parties will commit to provide to Echo (i) a $200 million senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility (the "New ABL Facility"), which will be secured on a first priority basis on certain working capital assets and a second lien priority basis on certain fixed assets and (ii) a $300 million senior secured term loan facility (the "New Term Loan Facility" and, together with the

New ABL Facility, the "Credit Facilities"), which will be secured on a first priority basis on certain fixed assets and a second lien priority basis on certain working capital assets. If we receive net cash proceeds from this offering or the concurrent offering of convertible senior notes in an aggregate amount equal to or greater than $100 million, the commitments with respect to the New Term Loan Facility may be automatically and permanently reduced by an amount equal to the amount of such net cash proceeds. See "The Command Acquisition Financing Transactions."

We cannot assure you that we will complete the Command Acquisition or any of the financing transactions on the terms contemplated in this prospectus supplement or at all.

The period-over-period decrease in revenue from Managed Transportation clients was driven by changes in the structure of our contract with one Managed Transportation client. Our results also were impacted by a decline in fuel prices and a softer spot market

CONCURRENT OFFERING OF CONVERTIBLE SENIOR NOTES

Concurrently with this offering of common stock, we are offering $200 million aggregate principal amount of our 2.50% convertible senior notes due 2020 (or a total of $230 million aggregate principal amount if the underwriters in that offering exercise their option to purchase additional notes in full) in an underwritten public offering pursuant to a separate prospectus supplement.

The convertible senior notes will mature on May 1, 2020, unless earlier repurchased, redeemed or converted, and will pay interest semiannually in arrears on May 1 and November 1 of each year, commencing November 1, 2015, at a rate of 2.50% per year. Prior to January 1, 2020, the convertible senior notes will be convertible only during certain periods and certain circumstances. The convertible senior notes will be convertible at any time on or after January 1, 2020 until the business day immediately prior to the maturity date of the convertible senior notes. Upon conversion of a convertible senior note, we will satisfy our conversion obligation by paying or delivering, as the case may be, cash, shares of our common stock or a combination of cash and shares of our common stock, together with a cash payment in lieu of delivering any fractional shares, at our election. The initial conversion rate will be determined in connection with the convertible senior notes offering. The conversion rate will be subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events. If the Purchase Agreement relating to the Command Acquisition is terminated (other than by consummation of the Command Acquisition), we may redeem all, but not less than all the convertible senior notes prior to November 3, 2015 at the redemption price set forth in the prospectus supplement for the convertible senior notes offering.

If we undergo a fundamental change (as defined in the prospectus supplement for the convertible senior notes offering), subject to certain conditions, holders may require us to repurchase for cash all or part of their convertible senior notes at a repurchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the convertible senior notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the repurchase date.

We intend to use the net proceeds from this offering of common stock and the concurrent offering of our convertible senior notes, together with borrowings under the Credit Facilities, to finance the Command Acquisition. See "Use of Proceeds" in this prospectus supplement.

This prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus shall not be deemed an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any of the convertible senior notes. This offering of common stock is not contingent upon the closing of the concurrent convertible senior notes offering, and the concurrent convertible senior notes offering is not contingent upon the closing of this offering of common stock. We cannot assure you that either or both of the offerings will be completed. Unless we specifically state otherwise, the information in this prospectus supplement assumes the completion of the convertible senior notes offering and that the underwriters for this offering do not exercise their over-allotment option to purchase additional shares and that the underwriters for the concurrent convertible senior notes offering do not exercise their over-allotment option to purchase additional convertible senior notes.

We believe the non-GAAP financial measures provide useful information to investors because they provide information about the financial performance of the Company's ongoing business. The non-GAAP financial measures are used by management in its financial and operational decision-making and evaluation of overall operating performance. The non-GAAP financial measures may be different from similarly titled measures used by other companies. The presentation of this financial information, which is not prepared under any comprehensive set of accounting rules or principles, is not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with GAAP.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. Before purchasing shares of our common stock you should carefully consider the following risks regarding the Command Acquisition, our common stock and this offering, as well as the risk factors included in our Annual Report on 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, which is incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement. Each of the risks described in this sections and in the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations, and could result in a complete loss of your investment.

Risks Related to the Command Acquisition

This offering is not conditioned upon the closing of the Command Acquisition. Even if the Command Acquisition is completed, we may fail to realize the growth prospects and cost savings anticipated as a result of the Command Acquisition.

On April 20, 2015, we signed the Purchase Agreement for the Command Acquisition. We expect the Command Acquisition to close in the second quarter of 2015, subject to customary closing conditions. However, completion of the Command Acquisition is not a condition to completion of this offering of common stock or the concurrent offering of our convertible senior notes, and there can be no assurance that the Command Acquisition will be completed.

There are a number of risks and uncertainties relating to the Command Acquisition. For example, the Command Acquisition may not be completed, or may not be completed in the time frame, on the terms or in the manner currently anticipated, as a result of a number of factors, including, among other things, the failure to satisfy one or more of the conditions to closing. See "The Command Acquisition." There can be no assurance that the conditions to closing of the Command Acquisition will be satisfied or waived or that other events will not intervene to delay or result in the failure to close the Command Acquisition. In addition, both we and Command have the ability to terminate the Purchase Agreement under certain circumstances. Failure to complete the Command Acquisition would prevent us and Command from realizing the anticipated benefits of the Command Acquisition. We would also remain liable for significant transaction costs, including legal, accounting and financial advisory fees, and we could become liable to Command if the purchase agreement is terminated under certain circumstances for a termination fee equal to $25.2 million. In addition, the market price of our common stock may reflect various market assumptions as to whether the Command Acquisition will be completed. Consequently, the completion of, the failure to complete, or any delay in the closing of the Command Acquisition could result in a significant change in the market price of our common stock.

In addition, the success of the Command Acquisition will depend, in part, on our ability to successfully integrate Command's business and operations, including the integration of Command's existing information technology platform and development of a uniform compensation structure across both businesses, and fully realize the anticipated benefits and potential synergies from combining our business with Command's business. If we are unable to achieve these objectives following the Command Acquisition, the anticipated benefits and potential synergies of the Command Acquisition may not be realized fully or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. Any failure to timely realize these anticipated benefits would have a material adverse effect on our business, operating results, and financial condition.

As a result of the Command Acquisition, we will be more dependent on TL brokerage and the spot market.

Table of Contents

Uncertainty about the Command Acquisition may adversely affect the relationships that we, Command or our combined company have with our respective customers, service providers and employees, whether or not the Command Acquisition is completed.

Parties with whom we or Command do business may experience uncertainty associated with the Command Acquisition, including with respect to current or future business relationships with us, Command or the combined business. These business relationships may be subject to disruption as customers and others may attempt to (i) negotiate changes in existing business relationships, (ii) delay, defer or cease purchasing services from or providing services to us, Command or our combined company or (iii) consider entering into business relationships with parties other than us, Command or the combined business, including our competitors or those of Command. These disruptions could have a material adverse effect on the businesses, operating results, and financial condition of each of us or, if the Command Acquisition is completed, the combined business.

Uncertainties associated with the Command Acquisition may cause a loss of management personnel and other key employees that could adversely affect our future business, operations and financial results following the Command Acquisition.

Whether or not the Command Acquisition is completed, the announcement and pendency of the Command Acquisition could disrupt Command's and our respective businesses. We and Command are both dependent on the experience and industry knowledge of our respective senior management and other key employees, including sales and marketing executives, to execute our respective business plans. Our success after the Command Acquisition will depend in part upon our and Command's ability to retain our respective key management personnel and other of our respective key employees in advance of the Command acquisition, and of our combined company's ability to do so following the Command Acquisition. Our current and prospective employees and those of Command may experience uncertainty about their roles within the combined company following the Command Acquisition, which may have an adverse effect on the current ability of Command or us to attract or retain key management and other key personnel or the ability of the combined company to do so following the Command Acquisition.

Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the combined company will be able to attract or retain key management personnel and other key employees of ours or of Command to the same extent that such companies have previously been able to attract or retain employees. In addition, following the Command Acquisition, we might not be able to locate suitable replacements for any such key employees who leave us or Command or offer employment to potential replacements on satisfactory terms.

Our results after the Command Acquisition may suffer if we do not effectively manage our expanded operations following the Command Acquisition.

Following the Command Acquisition, the size of our business will increase significantly beyond the current size of our existing business. Our future success depends, in part, upon our ability to manage this expanded business, which will pose substantial challenges for our management, including challenges related to the management and monitoring of additional operations and associated increased costs and complexity. There can be no assurances we will be successful after closing of the Command Acquisition or that we will realize the expected benefits currently anticipated from the Command Acquisition.

Table of Contents

We will incur significant acquisition-related integration costs in connection with the Command Acquisition and significant transaction expenses in connection with the negotiation and consummation of the Command Acquisition and the related financing transactions.

We are currently developing a plan to integrate the operations of Command after the completion of the Command acquisition. In connection with that plan, we anticipate that we will incur certain non-recurring charges in connection with this integration; however, we cannot identify the timing, nature and amount of all such charges as of the date of this prospectus supplement. Further, we currently expect to incur significant transaction costs relating to negotiating and completing the Command Acquisition and the related financing transactions. These integration costs and transaction expenses will be charged as an expense in the period incurred. The significant transaction costs and Command Acquisition-related integration costs could materially affect our results of operations in the period in which such charges are recorded. Although we believe that the elimination of duplicative costs, as well as the realization of other efficiencies related to the integration of the business, will offset incremental transaction and Command Acquisition-related costs over time, this net benefit may not be achieved in the near term, or at all.

Charges to earnings resulting from the application of the acquisition method of accounting may adversely affect the market value of our common stock following the closing of the Command Acquisition.

In accordance with GAAP, the Command Acquisition will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting, which will result in charges to earnings that could have an adverse impact on the market value of our common stock following the closing of the Command Acquisition. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the total estimated purchase price will be allocated to Command's net tangible assets and identifiable intangible assets based on their respective fair values as of the date of closing of the Command Acquisition. Any excess of the purchase price over those fair values will be recorded as goodwill. The combined company will incur additional amortization expense based on the identifiable amortizable intangible assets acquired pursuant to the Purchase Agreement and their relative useful lives. Additionally, to the extent the value of goodwill or identifiable intangible assets or other long-lived assets may become impaired, the combined company will be required to incur charges relating to the impairment. These amortization and potential impairment charges could have a material impact on the combined company's results of operations.

If we successfully acquire Command, the acquired business may underperform relative to our expectations.

Following completion of the Command Acquisition, we may not be able to maintain the levels of revenue, earnings or operating efficiency that we and Command have achieved or might achieve separately. Command business and financial performance are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, including the risk of the loss of, or changes to, its relationships with its customers and independent contractors. We may be unable to achieve the same growth, revenues and profitability that Command has achieved in the past.

Risks Related to this Offering and Ownership of Our Common Stock

The trading price of our common stock has been and may continue to be volatile.

Since our initial public offering in October 2009 through April 29, 2015, the closing sale price of our common stock as reported by the NASDAQ Global Select Market has ranged from a low of $10.04 on November 11, 2010 to a high of $33.82 on April 23, 2015.

Certain factors may continue to cause the market price of our common stock to fluctuate, including:

fluctuations in our quarterly financial results or the quarterly financial results of companies perceived to be similar to us;

Table of Contents

changes in market valuations of similar companies;

success of competitors' products or services;

changes in our capital structure, such as future issuances of debt or equity securities;

announcements by us, our competitors, our clients or our suppliers of significant products or services, contracts, acquisitions or strategic alliances;

regulatory developments in the United States or foreign countries;

litigation involving our company, our general industry or both;

additions or departures of key personnel;

investors' general perception of us; and changes in general economic, industry and market conditions

In addition, if the stock market experiences a loss of investor confidence, the trading price of our common stock could decline for reasons unrelated to our business, financial condition or results of operations. If any of the foregoing occurs, it could cause our stock price to fall and may expose us to class action lawsuits that, even if unsuccessful, could be costly to defend and distracting to management. As a result, you could lose all or part of your investment.

The concurrent offering of our convertible senior notes, and the availability of our common stock for sale in the future, could reduce the market price of our common stock.

Concurrently with this offering, we are offering $200 million aggregate principal amount of our convertible senior notes (or $230 million aggregate principal amount of our convertible senior notes if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional notes in full). This offering is not contingent on the closing of the concurrent convertible senior notes offering, and the concurrent convertible senior notes offering is not contingent on the closing of this offering. Except as described herein under "Underwriting," we are not restricted from issuing additional common stock, including securities that are convertible into or exchangeable for, or that represent the right to receive, common stock, including any common stock that may be issued upon the conversion of the convertible senior notes. In the future, we may sell additional shares of our common stock to raise capital or acquire interests in other companies by using a combination of cash and our common stock or just our common stock. Any of these events may dilute your ownership interest in our company and have an adverse impact on the price of our common stock. In addition, a substantial number of shares of our common stock is reserved for issuance upon the exercise of stock options and upon conversion of the convertible senior notes. Sales of a substantial number of shares of our common stock, or the perception that these sales may occur, could depress the market price of our common stock and impair our ability to raise capital through the sale of additional equity securities. We cannot predict the effect that future sales of our common stock or other equity-related securities would have on the market price of our common stock.

The convertible senior notes may adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

The market price of our common stock is likely to be influenced by the convertible senior notes. For example, the market price of our common stock could become more volatile and could be depressed by:

investors' anticipation of the potential resale in the market of a substantial number of additional shares of our common stock received upon conversion of the convertible senior notes;

Table of Contents

possible sales of our common stock by investors who view the convertible senior notes as a more attractive means of equity participation in us than owning shares of our common stock; and hedging or arbitrage trading activity that may develop involving the convertible senior notes and our common stock.

Our quarterly results are difficult to predict and may vary from quarter to quarter, which may result in our failure to meet the expectations of investors and increased volatility of our stock price.

The degree to which our clients continue to use of our services depends in part on the business activities of our clients and our ability to continue to meet their cost saving needs. A significant percentage of our revenue is subject to the discretion of our Transactional clients, who may stop using our services at any time. In addition, the transportation industry in which we operate is subject to some degree of seasonal sales fluctuation, as shipments generally are lower during and after the winter holiday season because many of our retail clients ship goods and stock inventories prior to the winter holiday season. Therefore, the number, size and profitability of shipments may vary significantly from quarter to quarter. As a result, our quarterly operating results are difficult to predict and may fall below the expectations of current or potential investors in some future quarters, which could lead to a significant decline in the market price of our stock and volatility in our stock price.

If the Command Acquisition is not completed, our management will have broad discretion over the use of the proceeds and might not apply the proceeds in ways that increase the value of your investment.

The Command Acquisition is subject to the satisfaction of a number of conditions that may prevent, delay or otherwise materially adversely affect the completion of the transaction, including conditions outside the control of the parties to the Purchase Agreement. See "The Command Acquisition Conditions to the Completion of the Command Acquisition" in this prospectus supplement. If the Command Acquisition is not completed, we will use the net proceeds of this offering for working capital and general corporate purposes. Our stockholders may not agree with the manner in which our management chooses to allocate and spend the net proceeds. Moreover, our management may use the net proceeds for corporate purposes that may not increase our profitability or market value.

We do not currently intend to pay dividends, which may limit the return on your investment in us.

We currently intend to retain all available funds and any future earnings for use in the operation and expansion of our business and do not anticipate paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

If our board of directors authorizes the issuance of preferred stock, holders of our common stock could be diluted and harmed.

Our board of directors has the authority to issue up to 2,500,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more series and to establish the preferred stock's voting powers, preferences and other rights and qualifications without any further vote or action by the stockholders. The issuance of preferred stock could adversely affect the voting power and dividend liquidation rights of the holders of common stock. In addition, the issuance of preferred stock could have the effect of making it more difficult for a third-party to acquire, or discouraging a third-party from acquiring, a majority of our outstanding voting stock or otherwise adversely affect the market price of our common stock. It is possible that we may need, or find it advantageous, to raise capital through the sale of preferred stock in the future.

THE COMMAND ACQUISITION

The following summary describes material provisions of the Purchase Agreement and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is included as an exhibit to our Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on April 21, 2015, which is incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement. You are urged to read the Purchase Agreement carefully and in its entirety as it is the legal document governing the Command Acquisition.

The Purchase Agreement and the following summary have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the Purchase Agreement. The representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement are not intended to be a source of business or operational information about us or Command as such representations and warranties are made as of a specified date, are tools used to allocate risk between the parties, are subject to contractual standards of knowledge and materiality and are modified or qualified by information contained in our public filings and in the disclosure schedules exchanged by the parties. Business and operational information regarding us and Command can be found elsewhere in this prospectus supplement, our Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on April 21, 2015, and, with respect to us, in the other public documents that we file with the SEC. Summary of the Command Acquisition

On April 20, 2015, Echo entered into that certain Unit Purchase Agreement, by and among Echo, Command, the Sellers, the Sellers' Representative, and Paul Loeb, in his individual capacity. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, Echo will acquire all of the outstanding membership units of Command from the Sellers, resulting in Command becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Echo.

The purchase price for the Command Acquisition is approximately $420 million, subject to post-closing adjustments for working capital and cash, of which $15 million will be paid in the form of Echo common stock issued to the Sellers and $10 million will be paid in the form of Echo restricted common stock to be issued to certain employees of Command. The number of shares of Echo common stock and restricted common stock to be issued in the aggregate in connection with the Command Acquisition will be determined by dividing $25 million by the volume weighted average price of Echo's common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the twenty trading days ending on the third day prior to the closing. The Echo common stock will be issued pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act at the closing.

Our board of directors has approved and adopted the Purchase Agreement. The Command Acquisition is not subject to approval by our stockholders. The Purchase Agreement also has been approved and adopted by the manager and members of Command. In connection with the closing of the Command Acquisition, the Echo board of directors will be increased to seven directors and Paul Loeb will be appointed to Echo's board of directors.

Conditions to the Completion of the Command Acquisition

Each party's obligation to consummate the Command Acquisition is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions, including the absence of an injunction or the enactment of any law that would make the Command Acquisition illegal and the expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976.

Our obligation to consummate the Command Acquisition is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including:

The accuracy of the representations and warranties of Command contained in the Purchase Agreement;

Table of Contents

Command and the Sellers having performed their respective covenants under the Purchase Agreement in all material respects;

All required governmental approvals have been obtained;

There shall not have been any event or occurrence that has a material adverse effect on Command's business; and Agreements related to employment, restricted stock grants and share lock-ups shall be in full force and effect.

Echo's obligations to consummate the Command Acquisition are not subject to any condition related to the availability of financing.

Command's obligation to consummate the Command Acquisition is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including:

The accuracy of the representations and warranties of Echo contained in the Purchase Agreement;

Echo having performed its covenants under the Purchase Agreement in all material respects;

The indemnity escrow agreement shall be in full force and effect;

The purchase price shall have been paid by Echo in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement; and Paul Loeb has been appointed as a member of Echo's board of directors or will be appointed within five days of Echo's annual meeting of stockholders.

Indemnification

Echo and the Sellers have agreed to indemnify each other for certain losses, and $25.2 million of the purchase price will be held in escrow to secure the Sellers' indemnification obligations under the Purchase Agreement.

Termination of the Purchase Agreement

The Purchase Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the Command Acquisition under the following circumstances:

By the mutual written consent of Echo and the Sellers' Representative.

By either Echo or the Sellers' Representative if the other party breaches any of its representations warranties, covenants or agreements in the Purchase Agreement such that the conditions to closing would not be satisfied and such breach has not been cured within 30 days' notice to the breaching party.

By either Echo or the Sellers' Representative if the closing has not occurred on or before July 20, 2015 (provided that the right to terminate the Purchase Agreement will not be available to a party whose breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement caused the failure of the Command Acquisition to be consummated by such date).

By either party if a permanent injunction or other order which is final and non-appealable is issued preventing or prohibiting the consummation of the Command Acquisition.

By the Sellers' Representative (x) if all the conditions to closing have been satisfied, (y) Command has provided notice to Echo that such conditions have been satisfied or waived and the Sellers are prepared to close and (z) Echo fails to consummate the closing within two business days.

In the event the Sellers' Representative terminates the Purchase Agreement subject to the last bullet point above, Echo will be required to pay Command a termination fee of $25.2 million.

Financing Transactions

In connection with entering into the Purchase Agreement for the Command Acquisition, Echo entered into the Commitment Letter with the Commitment Parties. The Commitment Letter provides that the Commitment Parties will commit to provide to Echo (i) a $200 million New ABL Facility, which will be secured on a first priority basis on certain working capital assets and a second lien priority basis on certain fixed assets and (ii) a $300 million New Term Loan Facility, which will be secured on a first priority basis on certain fixed assets and a second lien priority basis on certain working capital assets. If we receive net cash proceeds from this offering or the concurrent offering of convertible senior notes in an aggregate amount equal to or greater than $100 million, the commitments with respect to the New Term Loan Facility may be automatically and permanently reduced by an amount equal to the amount of such net cash proceeds.

In addition to using the proceeds of the Credit Facilities to consummate the Command Acquisition, we may use a portion of the proceeds of the Credit Facilities for working capital purposes or other general corporate purposes. The commitments to provide the Credit Facilities are subject to various conditions, including (i) the execution of definitive documentation reflecting the terms set forth in the Commitment Letter and (ii) other customary closing conditions.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate that our net proceeds from the sale of shares of our common stock in this offering will be approximately $137.0 million, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us. If the underwriters' over-allotment option to purchase additional shares in this offering is exercised in full, we estimate that our net proceeds from this offering will be approximately $157.7 million upon completion of this offering, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us.

We intend to use all of the net proceeds from this offering of common stock, along with the net proceeds from the concurrent offering of our convertible senior notes (expected to collectively generate approximately $330.3 million in net proceeds) and borrowings under the Credit Facilities to finance the Command Acquisition. See "Prospectus Summary Recent Developments Proposed Acquisition of Command Transportation, LLC." If the Command Acquisition is not consummated, we will use the net proceeds from this offering for working capital and general corporate purposes, and we intend to use the net proceeds from the convertible senior notes offering to fund the redemption of the convertible senior notes (if we so elect) or for working capital and general corporate purposes.

This offering is not conditioned upon the completion of the Command Acquisition and there can be no assurance that the Command Acquisition will be completed on the terms described herein or at all. Pending the use of the net proceeds from this offering as described above, we plan to invest the net proceeds of this offering in short-term, interest-bearing obligations.

CAPITALIZATION

The table below sets forth our cash and cash equivalents and capitalization as of December 31, 2014:

on an actual basis;

on an as adjusted basis to give effect to the sale and issuance of 5,000,000 shares of our common stock pursuant to this offering at the public offering price of $29.00 per share and the sale and issuance of $200 million aggregate principal amount of our convertible senior notes pursuant to our concurrent convertible senior notes offering, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us; and on a pro forma as adjusted basis to give effect to (1) the sale and issuance of 5,000,000 shares of our common stock pursuant to this offering at the public offering price of $29.00 per share and the sale and issuance of $200 million of aggregate principal amount of our convertible senior notes pursuant to our concurrent convertible senior notes offering, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us and (2) the Command Acquisition, including borrowings under the Credit Facilities to finance a portion of the purchase price and the issuance of $15 million of shares of our common stock to the Sellers as a portion of the purchase price at an assumed price of $29.64 per share, the last reported sale price of our common stock on The NASDAQ Global Select Market on April 29, 2015.

The as adjusted and pro forma as adjusted data in the following table assumes the transactions referred to above had been completed as of December 31, 2014 on the terms and in accordance with the assumptions set forth under "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data" included elsewhere in this prospectus supplement. You should read this table together with "Use of Proceeds," which appears elsewhere in this prospectus supplement, as well as our "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and our consolidated financial statements and related notes incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. In addition, investors should not place undue reliance on the as adjusted or pro forma as adjusted information included below, as this offering is not contingent upon completion of the concurrent convertible senior notes offering or the Command Acquisition reflected in the adjustments below.

- (1) In accordance with ASC 470-20, a convertible debt instrument that may be wholly or partially settled in cash is required to be separated into a liability and an equity component, such that interest expense reflects the issuer's non-convertible debt interest rate. Upon issuance, a debt discount is recognized as a decrease in debt and an increase in equity. The debt component will accrete up to the principal over the expected term of the debt. ASC 470-20 does not affect the actual amount that we are required to repay, and such amounts reflect the approximate liability component net of the debt discount that is recognized in equity.
- (2) Includes $15 million of shares of our common stock issued to the Sellers as a portion of the purchase price for the Command Acquisition at an assumed price of $29.64 per share, the last reported sale price of our common stock on The NASDAQ Global Select Market on April 29, 2015, less a marketability discount related to the holding period restriction associated with such common stock. The actual number of shares of common stock to be issued in connection with the Command Acquisition will be determined by dividing $15 million by the volume weighted average price of our common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the twenty trading days ending on the third day prior to the closing. See "The Command Acquisition." Does not include $10 million of shares of our restricted common stock with a one-year vesting period that will be issued to certain employees of Command in connection with the closing of the Command Acquisition.
- (3) Additional paid-in capital as adjusted reflects the addition of the convertible debt equity component of $25.4 million before equity issuance costs of $4.5 million and the equity impact of the associated deferred tax liability of $9.7 million.

The information in the table above assumes no exercise of the underwriters' over-allotment option to purchase additional shares of common stock, or, in the concurrent offering of our convertible senior notes, additional convertible senior notes.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL DATA

The following sets forth certain unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data giving effect to our completion of the Command Acquisition, including the sale and issuance of 5,000,000 shares of our common stock in this offering at an assumed public offering price of $33.82 per share, the last reported sale price of our common stock on The NASDAQ Global Select Market on April 23, 2015, the sale and issuance of an assumed $150 million aggregate principal amount of our convertible senior notes in our concurrent convertible senior notes offering, and borrowings of $100 million under the Credit Facilities to finance the Command Acquisition. The Command Acquisition is expected to close in the second quarter of 2015, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions. See "The Command Acquisition."

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data set forth below has been presented for informational purposes only. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data set forth below is not necessarily indicative of what our financial position or results of operations actually would have been had the Command Acquisition been completed as of the dates indicated. In addition, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data does not purport to project the future financial position or operating results of the combined company. There were no transactions between us and Command during the periods presented in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements that would need to be eliminated.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2014 assumes that the Command Acquisition took place on January 1, 2014. Our condensed consolidated statement of operations, derived from our audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014, has been combined with Command's audited consolidated statement of operations for the same period.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of December 31, 2014 assumes that the Command Acquisition took place on December 31, 2014 and combines our December 31, 2014 audited consolidated balance sheet with Command's December 31, 2014 audited consolidated balance sheet.

Our historical consolidated financial data has been adjusted in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements to give effect to pro forma events that are (1) directly attributable to the Command Acquisition, (2) factually supportable, and (3) with respect to the statement of operations, expected to have a continuing impact on the combined company. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data should be read in conjunction with the accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined information set forth below. In addition, the unaudited pro forma combined financial data was based on and should be read in conjunction with our historical consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes and those of Command which are incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement. See "Where You Can Find More Information."

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data has been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting under GAAP, which is subject to change and interpretation. We have been treated as the acquiror in the Command Acquisition for accounting purposes. The acquisition method of accounting is dependent upon certain valuations and other studies that have yet to commence or progress to a stage where there is sufficient information for a definitive measurement. Accordingly, the pro forma adjustments are preliminary and have been made solely for the purpose of providing unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data. Differences between these preliminary estimates and the final acquisition accounting will occur and these differences could have a material impact on the accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements and the combined company's future results of operations and financial position.

Table of Contents

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data does not reflect any cost savings, operating synergies or revenue enhancements that the combined company may achieve as a result of the Command Acquisition, the costs to combine our operations with those of Command or the costs necessary to achieve any of the foregoing cost savings, operating synergies and revenue enhancements. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data also reflects the convertible senior notes and common stock contemplated to be issued and sold and borrowings under the Credit Facilities to finance the Command Acquisition.

Table of ContentsNotes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements

- (1) As part of the Command Acquisition, Command management entered into new employment agreements with Echo Global Logistics which provide for stock compensation. Based on the contractual nature of the agreements, the adjustments reflect the change in stock compensation under each agreement. Stock compensation under the new agreements would have been $10,000,000 for the year ended December 31, 2014. The stock compensation expense recognized in the pro forma financial statements for the new arrangements includes only the time-based awards granted.
- (2) To record pro forma amortization expense of $14,480,000 for the 12 months ended December 31, 2014. Pro forma amortization is calculated as follows:
- | Asset | Fair Value | Useful Life | Estimated Amortization |
|----------------------------|-----------------------|-------------|------------------------|
| Trademarks/Trade Name | $ 7,000,000 | 7 Years | 1,000,000 |
| Technology | $ 3,000,000 | 3 Years | 1,000,000 |
| Customer Relationships | $ 132,000,000 | 15 Years | 11,680,000 |
| Non-Competition Agreements | $ 4,000,000 | 5 Years | 800,000 |
| Total Fair Value | $ 146,000,000 | | |
- Amortization expense has been calculated using the accelerated method for customer relationships over the estimated useful life. Amortization expense has been calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life for other intangible assets.
- (3) Represents the removal of interest related expense of Command of $403,330 for the 12 months ended December 31, 2014. Command had borrowings outstanding from its majority member under a note payable agreement at certain points in 2014. From time to time, Command actively increased borrowings from the majority member and also made payments to the majority member in order to repay borrowings. Interest on the outstanding borrowings was applied at 6.00% per annum in order to repay borrowings. There were no amounts outstanding as of December 31, 2014. The note payable agreement was dissolved as part of the Command Acquisition. This amount is removed from interest expense.
- (4) Represents the interest expense paid and incurred on the $150,000,000 convertible note offering and the expected interest expense related to borrowings on the New ABL Facility. See Notes 14 and 15 for the expected terms of the respective arrangements. Interest expense includes the amortization of loan commitment fees. As the fees are fixed and determinable, the fees are recognized as an adjustment of yield over the related loan's life.
- (5) Reflects the income tax effects of the historical results of Command and the pro forma adjustments for the 12 month period ended December 31, 2014 using the statutory rate of 38.0%.
- (6) Reflects adjustments to the denominator of basic earnings per share giving effect to the 5,000,000 shares issued in the anticipated equity offering and an assumed 443,525 shares issued as consideration for the business as if they occurred January 1, 2014, the beginning of the period presented.
- (7) Reflects adjustments to the pro forma diluted earnings per share by giving effect to the dilutive impact of the number of shares issued in relation to the $10,000,000 of restricted stock granted to several key Command employees as part of the Unit Purchase Agreement. The restricted stock will be issued at the closing and vests after one year. There is no dilutive impact of the shares that may be issued in relation to the issuance of convertible notes as the conversion price exceeds the current market price.

- (9) Cash amount is reduced for $11,410,000 of fees that will be paid out of available cash. $8,000,000 of the $11,410,000 fees relate to commitment fees related to the convertible notes (Note 14) and the New ABL Facility (Note 15). These are divided between short-term and long-term portions of the fees. The remaining $3,410,000, which are advisory, legal and other directly related transaction costs will be paid in cash and are transaction related costs. The $3,410,000 is presented after affecting the items for income tax. As these transaction expenses are not expected to have an ongoing impact, they are not reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations.

- (10) Sources and uses of cash:

See Note 8 above for a preliminary purchase price allocation. Goodwill resulting from the Command Acquisition is not amortized, and will be assessed for impairment at least annually in accordance with applicable accounting guidance on goodwill. The goodwill resulting from the Command Acquisition is deductible for income tax purposes.

(12) Represents the preliminary allocation of purchase price to identifiable intangible assets, as follows:

Trademarks/Trade Name:	$	7,000,000
Technology:	$	3,000,000
Customer Relationships:	$	132,000,000
Non-Competition Agreements:	$	4,000,000

(13) The pro forma financial statements reflect the assumed issuance of 5,000,000 shares of common stock, the issuance of $150,000,000 of convertible notes and the draw of $100,000,000 from the New ABL Facility to fund the purchase price and related fees. Net proceeds from the equity offering after associated fees are expected to be $160,100,000. Not included in the 5,000,000 shares of common stock to be issued is $13,875,000 of new common stock issued to the Sellers as part of the consideration transferred. The equity to be issued to Seller has been adjusted from $15,000,000 for a marketability discount related to the holding period restriction associated with the common stock issued as consideration in the Command Transaction. Using a closing price on April 23, 2015 of $33.82, 443,525 shares would be issued to Sellers in addition to the 5,000,000 issued in relation to the new equity offering. A $1.00 increase in the issue price of Echo Global Logistics, Inc. common stock would decrease the number of shares issued to the Sellers by 12,738. A $1.00 decrease in the issue price of Echo Global Logistics, Inc. common stock would increase the number of shares issued to the Sellers by 13,514. In the event that the Company is unable to secure the contemplated equity and convertible note financing for the Command Acquisition, it has arranged for the New Term Loan Facility with Morgan Stanley, Credit Suisse and PNC to finance the Command Acquisition. The New Term Loan Facility will bear interest at Echo's option at a rate based on LIBOR or an adjusted base rate, plus the applicable margin. The applicable margin on the base rate will be 3.75% and 4.75% on the LIBOR option. There is a 1% floor on LIBOR. The New Term Loan Facility will mature 7 years from the closing date.

(14) Represents the liability recorded in association with the debt portion of an anticipated convertible note offering. The total offering size is $150,000,000 with a five year maturity. These instruments will be unsecured senior notes. The anticipated coupon rate is expected to be between 2.75% and 3.25%. The expected conversion premium will be between 27.5% - 32.5% of the market price on the date of issuance. It is anticipated that the debt obligation will be settled in cash with an additional premium settled in shares. The debt portion of the instrument has been recorded at $134,040,000. $15,960,000 of the total $150,000,000 instrument was allocated to the conversion feature. In relation, a deferred tax liability of $6,064,800 was created for the conversion feature using the statutory tax rate of 38%.

(15) Represents the anticipated borrowings under the New ABL Facility. The New ABL Facility will be secured by the Company's accounts receivable and subject to borrowing base requirements. The New ABL Facility bears interest at the Echo's option based upon LIBOR or the base rate plus a margin determined by the excess availability. The New ABL Facility bears interest at Adjusted LIBOR plus a range from 1.50%-2.00% determined on excess availability or at an alternate base rate plus a range from 0.50% - 1.00% determined on excess availability.

(16) Reflects adjustments to eliminate Command's historical members' equity of $54,419,171.

(17) Reflects adjustments to account for transaction costs of $3,410,000 (net of tax) related to the Command Acquisition. As the transaction expenses will not have a continuing impact, the transaction expenses are not reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS FOR NON-U.S. HOLDERS

The following summary is a general discussion of the material United States federal income consequences of owning and disposing of our common stock by a "non-U.S. holder" (as defined below) that acquires our common stock pursuant to this offering. This discussion is limited to non-U.S. holders who hold our common stock as a "capital asset" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). As used in this discussion, the term "non-U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of our common stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, an individual, corporation, estate or trust other than:

an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; or a trust if it (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in place to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The following discussion is based on provisions of the Code, applicable U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, and administrative and judicial interpretations, all as in effect on the date of this prospectus supplement, and all of which are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. Any such change may significantly affect the tax considerations that we describe in this summary. We have not sought and do not plan to seek any ruling from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, which we refer to as the IRS, with respect to statements made and the conclusions reached in the following summary, and there can be no assurance that the IRS or a court will agree with our statements and conclusions.

This discussion does not consider:

U.S. federal estate or gift tax consequences, or U.S. state or local or non-U.S. tax or tax treaty consequences;

specific facts and circumstances that may be relevant to a particular non-U.S. holder's tax position;

the tax consequences for the shareholders, partners, or beneficiaries of a non-U.S. holder;

special tax rules that may apply to particular non-U.S. holders, such as banks or other financial institutions; insurance companies; tax-exempt organizations; governments or government instrumentalities or agencies; entities treated as flow-through entities or disregarded as separate from their owner for U.S. federal income tax purposes; hybrid or reverse hybrid entities; "expatriated entities" subject to section 7874 of the Code; certain former citizens or former long-term residents of the United States; part-year resident aliens; "controlled foreign corporations" or "passive foreign investment companies"; corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax; persons who own, directly, indirectly or constructively, more than 5% of our common stock; underwriters, broker-dealers, and traders in securities; persons subject to the unearned income Medicare contribution tax; or special tax rules that may apply to a non-U.S. holder that holds our common stock as part of a "straddle," "hedge," "conversion transaction," "synthetic security," or other integrated investment.

Table of Contents

If a non-U.S. holder is classified as a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes), the United States federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners should consult their tax advisors about the United States federal tax and other tax law consequences of owning and disposing of our common stock.

Prospective investors should consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income and other tax considerations with respect to owning and disposing of shares of our common stock.

Dividends

As discussed under "Price Range of our Common Stock and Dividends" above, we do not currently expect to make distributions with respect to our common stock. In the event that we do make distributions on our common stock, those distributions will constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent paid from our current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. To the extent those distributions exceed our current and accumulated earnings and profits, they will constitute a return of capital and first reduce the non-U.S. holder's basis in our common stock (but not below zero) and then will be treated as gain from the sale of our common stock as described below under "Gain on Disposition of Common Stock." Any such distributions would also be subject to the discussions below under the sections titled "Information Reporting and Backup Withholding" and "FATCA."

We or an applicable withholding agent will have to withhold U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30%, or a lower rate under an applicable income tax treaty, from the gross amount of the dividends paid to a non-U.S. holder that are not effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States. Non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under a relevant income tax treaty.

In order to claim the benefit of an applicable income tax treaty, a non-U.S. holder will be required to provide a properly completed and executed U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or other applicable form) in accordance with the applicable certification and disclosure requirements. Special rules apply to partnerships and other pass-through entities and these certification and disclosure requirements also may apply to beneficial owners of partnerships and other pass-through entities that hold our common stock. A non-U.S. holder that satisfies the requirements for a reduced rate of U.S. federal withholding tax under an income tax treaty may obtain a refund or credit of any excess amounts withheld by filing an appropriate claim for a refund with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. Non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits, if any, under a relevant income tax treaty and the manner of claiming the benefits.

Dividends that are effectively connected with a non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty are attributable to a permanent establishment or a fixed base maintained by the non-U.S. holder in the United States) are taxed on a net income basis at the regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates in the same manner as if the non-U.S. holder was a resident of the United States. In such cases, we or an applicable withholding agent will not have to withhold U.S. federal income tax if the non-U.S. holder provides a properly completed and executed U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI (or other applicable form) in accordance with the applicable certification and disclosure requirements. In addition, a "branch profits tax" may be imposed at a 30% rate, or a lower rate under an applicable income tax treaty, on a foreign corporation that has earnings and profits (attributable to dividends or otherwise) that are effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States.

A claim for exemption from or reduction in tax will not be valid if the person receiving the applicable form has actual knowledge or reason to know that the statements on the form are false.

Gain on Disposition of Common Stock

Subject to the discussions below under " Information Reporting and Backup Withholding" and " FATCA," a non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax or any withholding thereof with respect to gain realized on a sale or other disposition of our common stock unless one of the following applies:

the gain is effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment or a fixed base maintained by the non-U.S. holder in the United States); in this case, the non-U.S. holder will generally be taxed on its net gain derived from the disposition at the regular graduated rates in the same manner as if the non-U.S. holder were a resident of the United States and, if the non-U.S. holder is a foreign corporation, the "branch profits tax" described above may also apply;

the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the disposition and meets certain other requirements; in this case, except as otherwise provided by an applicable income tax treaty, the gain, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses (provided the non-U.S. holder timely files U.S. federal income tax returns with respect to such losses), generally will be subject to a flat 30% U.S. federal income tax (even though the non-U.S. holder is not considered a resident alien under the Code); or our common stock constitutes a United States real property interest by reason of our status as a "United States real property holding corporation," or a "USRPHC," (as defined in the Code and U.S. Treasury regulations) for U.S. federal income tax purposes at any time during the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date you dispose of our common stock or the period you held our common stock. Generally, a corporation is a USRPHC if the fair market value of its "United States real property interests" equals or exceeds 50% of the sum of the fair market value of its worldwide real property interests plus its other assets used or held for use in a trade or business. We believe that we are not currently, and we do not anticipate becoming in the future, a USRPHC. However, there can be no assurance that we will not become a USRPHC in the future. However, as long as our common stock is "regularly traded on an established securities market" within the meaning of Section 897(c)(3) of the Code, our common stock will not be treated as United States real property interests if you do not own directly, indirectly or constructively more than 5% of such regularly traded common stock during the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date you dispose of our common stock or the period you held our common stock and we were a USRPHC during such period. However, there can be no assurance that our common stock will continue to be "regularly traded on an established securities market" for purposes of these rules.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

We and other withholding agents must report annually to the IRS and to each non-U.S. holder certain information, including the non-U.S. holder's name, address and taxpayer identification number, the amount of dividends paid to that non-U.S. holder, if any, and the tax withheld from those dividends. These reporting requirements apply regardless of whether withholding was reduced or eliminated by an applicable income tax treaty. Copies of the information returns reporting those dividends and withholding may also be made available under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty or agreement to the tax authorities in the country in which the non-U.S. holder is a resident.

Table of Contents

Under some circumstances, U.S. Treasury regulations require backup withholding and additional information reporting on reportable payments on common stock. The gross amount of dividends paid to a non-U.S. holder that fails to certify its non-U.S. holder status in accordance with applicable U.S. Treasury regulations generally will be reduced by backup withholding at the applicable rate (currently 28%). A non-U.S. holder's provision of a properly completed and executed applicable U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 certifying that it is not a United States person will permit it to avoid backup withholding.

The payment of the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of common stock by a non-U.S. holder to or through the U.S. office of any broker, U.S. or non-U.S., generally will be reported to the IRS and reduced by backup withholding, unless the non-U.S. holder either certifies that it is not a United States person under penalties of perjury or otherwise establishes an exemption. In general, the payment of the proceeds from the disposition of common stock by a non-U.S. holder to or through a non-U.S. office of a non-U.S. broker will not be reduced by backup withholding or reported to the IRS, unless the non-U.S. broker has certain enumerated connections with the United States. The payment of proceeds from the disposition of common stock by or through a non-U.S. office of a broker that is a United States person or has certain enumerated connections with the United States generally will be reported to the IRS (but will generally not be reduced by backup withholding) unless the broker receives a statement from the non-U.S. holder certifying that it is not a United States person under penalties of perjury or the broker has documentary evidence in its files that the holder is not a United States person.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a non-U.S. holder can be refunded or credited against the non-U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner. These backup withholding and information reporting rules are complex and non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of these rules to them.

FATCA

The Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act and the final U.S. Treasury regulations and official IRS guidance associated with such provisions (such provisions, regulations and guidance commonly known as FATCA) generally imposes a United States federal withholding tax of 30% on dividend income and the gross proceeds of a sale or other disposition of common stock paid to (1) a foreign financial institution (as the beneficial owner or as an intermediary for the beneficial owner), unless such institution (a) enters into, and is in compliance with, a withholding and information reporting agreement with the United States government to collect and provide to the United States tax authorities substantial information regarding United States account holders of such institution (which would include certain equity and debt holders of such institution, as well as certain account holders that are foreign entities with United States owners) (a "FATCA Agreement") or (b) is a resident in a country that has entered into an intergovernmental agreement with the United States in relation to such withholding and information reporting and the financial institution complies with the related information reporting requirements of such country, or (2) a foreign entity that is not a financial institution, unless such entity provides the withholding agent with a certification identifying the substantial United States owners of the entity, which generally includes any United States person who directly or indirectly owns more than 10% of the entity or certifies that it does not have any substantial United States owners. Certain exemptions may apply. A person that receives payments through one or more foreign financial institutions may receive reduced payments as a result of FATCA withholding taxes if (i) any such foreign financial institution does not enter into a FATCA Agreement and does not otherwise establish an exemption, or (ii) such person is (a) a "recalcitrant account holder" (as defined in FATCA) or (b) a foreign financial institution that fails to enter into a FATCA Agreement or establish an exemption.

Table of Contents

Withholding under FATCA generally will apply to dividend payments, if any, on our common stock regardless of when they are made. However, under the applicable U.S. Treasury regulations, withholding under FATCA generally will only apply to payments of gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of our common stock on or after January 1, 2017. An intergovernmental agreement between the United States and the applicable non-U.S. country, or future U.S. Treasury regulations or other official IRS guidance, may modify these requirements. Under certain circumstances, a non-U.S. holder of our common stock may be eligible for refunds or credits of such taxes, but a non-U.S. holder would generally be required to file a U.S. federal income tax return (which may entail significant administrative burden) to claim such refunds or credits. Investors should consult with their tax advisors regarding the implications of this legislation on their investment in our common stock.

You should consult your tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences to you of holding or disposing of our common stock, including the applicability and effect of any federal, state, local, or non-U.S. tax laws or tax treaties and of any changes or proposed changes in applicable law.

the establishment by any person other than us of a trading plan pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 under the Exchange Act for the transfer of shares of common stock, provided that (i) such plan does not provide for the transfer of common stock during the restricted period and (ii) to the extent a public announcement or filing under the Exchange Act, if any, is required or voluntarily made regarding the establishment of such plan, such announcement or filing shall include a statement to the effect that no transfer of common stock may be made under such plan during the restricted period; or transfers or disposition of common stock under a trading plan pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 under the Exchange Act in effect as of the date of this prospectus supplement, provided, among other things, that such Rule 10b5-1 plan shall not be amended or otherwise modified during the restricted period; or shares of common stock issued in connection with a transaction with an unaffiliated third party that includes a bona fide commercial relationship with us (including joint ventures, marketing or distribution arrangements, collaboration agreements or intellectual property license agreements) or an acquisition of the business, stock or assets of such unaffiliated third party, provided that (i) the aggregate number of shares of common stock issued hereby during the restricted period will not exceed 5% of the total number of shares issued and outstanding immediately following the closing of this offering and (ii) prior to the issuance of any shares of common stock pursuant hereto during the restricted period, the recipient of such common stock will sign and deliver a lock-up agreement to the underwriters.

Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC and Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, in their sole discretion, may release the common stock and other securities subject to the lock-up agreements described above in whole or in part at any time.

In order to facilitate the offering of the common stock, the underwriters may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of our common stock. Specifically, the underwriters may sell more shares than they are obligated to purchase under the underwriting agreement, creating a short position. A short sale is covered if the short position is no greater than the number of shares available for purchase by the underwriters under the option. The underwriters can close out a covered short sale by exercising the option or purchasing shares in the open market. In determining the source of shares to close out a covered short sale, the underwriters will consider, among other things, the open market price of shares compared to the price available under the option. The underwriters may also sell shares in excess of the option, creating a naked short position. The underwriters must close out any naked short position by purchasing shares in the open market. A naked short position is more likely to be created if the underwriters are concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of the common stock in the open market after pricing that could adversely affect investors who purchase in this offering. As an additional means of facilitating this offering, the underwriters may bid for, and purchase, shares of common stock in the open market to stabilize the price of the common stock. These activities may raise or maintain the market price of the common stock above independent market levels or prevent or retard a decline in the market price of the common stock. The underwriters are not required to engage in these activities and may end any of these activities at any time.

We and the underwriters have agreed to indemnify each other against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

A prospectus supplement in electronic format may be made available on websites maintained by one or more underwriters, or selling group members, if any, participating in this offering. The representatives may agree to allocate a number of shares of common stock to underwriters for sale to their online brokerage account holders. Internet distributions will be allocated by the representatives to underwriters that may make Internet distributions on the same basis as other allocations.

The underwriters and their respective affiliates are full service financial institutions engaged in various activities, which may include securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, investment research, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities. Certain of the underwriters and their respective affiliates have, from time to time, performed, and may in the future perform, various financial advisory and investment banking services for us, for which they received or will receive customary fees and expenses. In particular, each of Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC and PNC Capital Markets LLC or one of its affiliates have committed to provide us a New ABL Facility and a New Term Loan Facility, subject to certain reductions based on the net cash proceeds of this offering, for which such underwriters or their affiliates will receive customary fees and expenses in connection therewith.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their various business activities, the underwriters and their respective affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions in such securities and instruments. Such investment and securities activities may involve our securities and instruments. The underwriters and their respective affiliates may also make investment recommendations or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or instruments and may at any time hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long or short positions in such securities and instruments.

ABOUT ECHO GLOBAL LOGISTICS, INC.

We are a leading provider of technology-enabled transportation and supply chain management solutions. We utilize a proprietary technology platform to compile and analyze data from our multi-modal network of transportation providers to satisfy the transportation and logistics needs of our clients. This model enables us to quickly adapt to and offer efficient and cost-effective solutions for our clients' shipping needs. We focus primarily on arranging transportation by truckload and less than truckload carriers. We also offer inter-modal (which involves moving a shipment by rail and truck), small parcel, domestic air, expedited and international transportation services. Our core logistics services include rate negotiation, shipment execution and tracking, carrier management, routing compliance and performance management reporting.

We procure transportation and provide logistics services for clients across a wide range of industries, such as manufacturing, construction, consumer products and retail. Our clients fall into two categories, Enterprise and Transactional. We typically enter into multi-year contracts with our Enterprise clients, which are often on an exclusive basis for a specific transportation mode or point of origin. As part of our value proposition, we also provide core logistics services to these clients. We provide transportation and logistics services to our Transactional clients on a shipment-by-shipment basis, typically with individual, or spot market, pricing.

Our principal executive offices are located at 600 West Chicago Avenue, Suite 725, Chicago, Illinois 60654, and our telephone number at this address is (800) 354-7993.

Before making any investment decision, you should carefully consider these risks as well as other information we include or incorporate by reference in this prospectus or in any applicable prospectus supplement. For more information, see the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 13 of this prospectus. These risks could materially affect our business, results of operations or financial condition and affect the value of our securities. You could lose all or part of your investment.

These statements may be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "anticipate," "believe," "continue," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "might," "plan," "potential," "predict," "should," or the negative thereof or other variations thereon or comparable terminology. All statements contained or incorporated in this prospectus which address operating performance, events or developments that we expect or anticipate may occur in the future, including statements related to statements about our expectations, beliefs, plans, objectives, assumptions or future events or performance, are forward-looking statements. Important factors, risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ from those expressed in our forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

poor performance on the part of our carriers;

increases in carrier prices;

industry competition;

defects or errors in our proprietary software;

inability to protect our intellectual property;

the length of our selling and implementation cycles;

the ability of our clients to discontinue use of our services on short notice with limited or no penalties;

failure to identify and integrate acquisitions;

increases in the cost of fuel;

a decrease in levels of excess capacity in the transportation services industry;

a decrease in the number of carriers participating in our network;

extension of credit to certain clients as part of our business model;

claims arising from our transportation operations;

seasonal sales fluctuations;

failure to comply with government regulations;

failure to staff and retain sales representatives and agents; and other risks and uncertainties, including those described under "Risk Factors."

Given these risks and uncertainties, we caution you not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements included in this prospectus are made only as of the date hereof. We do not undertake and specifically decline any obligation to update any of these statements or to publicly announce the results of any revisions to any of these statements to reflect future events or developments.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, the net proceeds we receive from the sale of the securities offered by this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement will be used for working capital and other general corporate purposes. We will have significant discretion in the use of any net proceeds. General corporate purposes may include, but are not limited to:

the repayment or refinancing of debt;

capital expenditures; or the financing of possible acquisitions or business expansion.

The net proceeds from the sale of securities may be invested temporarily or applied to repay short-term debt until they are used for their stated purpose. When particular securities are offered, we will describe in the applicable prospectus supplement our intended use for the net proceeds received from the sale of such securities.

CONSOLIDATED RATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

Our ratio of earnings to fixed charges for each of the five most recently completed fiscal years and any required interim periods will each be specified in a prospectus supplement or in a document that we file with the SEC and incorporate by reference pertaining to the issuance, if any, by us of debt securities in the future.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

The following descriptions of our capital stock and of certain provisions of Delaware law are subject to and qualified in their entirety by reference to our Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Certificate") and our Amended and Restated By-laws (the "By-laws"). Copies of the Certificate and the By-laws have been filed with the SEC and are filed as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

General

As of March 31, 2015, our authorized capital stock consists of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.0001 par value, and 2,500,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.0001 par value, and there were 23,831,874 shares of common stock issued and outstanding and no shares of preferred stock issued and outstanding. All of our outstanding shares of common stock are fully paid and non-assessable.

Common Stock

Holders of common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters subject to a vote of stockholders, subject to the rights of holders of any outstanding preferred stock. Accordingly, holders of a majority of the shares of common stock entitled to vote in any election of directors may elect all of the directors standing for election, subject to the rights of holders of any outstanding preferred stock. Holders of common stock will be entitled to receive ratably any dividends that the board of directors may declare out of funds legally available therefor, subject to any preferential dividend rights of outstanding preferred stock. Upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of common stock will be entitled to receive ratably our net assets available after the payment of all debts and other liabilities and subject to the prior rights of holders of any outstanding preferred stock. Holders of common stock have no preemptive, subscription, redemption or conversion rights. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the common stock.

Preferred Stock

We are authorized to issue 2,500,000 shares of preferred stock, which may be issued from time to time in one or more series upon authorization by the board of directors. The board of directors, without further approval of the stockholders, is authorized to fix the number of shares constituting any series, as well as the dividend rights and terms, conversion rights and terms, voting rights and terms, redemption rights and terms, liquidation preferences and any other rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions applicable to each series of preferred stock. The issuance of preferred stock, while providing flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, could also adversely affect the voting power and dividend and liquidation rights of the holders of common stock. The issuance of preferred stock could also, under certain circumstances, have the effect of making it more difficult for a third party to acquire, or discouraging a third party from acquiring, a majority of our outstanding voting stock or otherwise adversely affect the market price of our common stock. It is not possible to state the actual effect of the issuance of any shares of preferred stock on the rights of holders of common stock until the board of directors determines the specific rights of that series of preferred stock.

The particular terms of any series of preferred stock that we offer under this prospectus will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement relating to that series of preferred stock. Those terms may include:

the title and liquidation preference per share of the preferred stock and the number of shares offered;

the purchase price of the preferred stock;

the dividend rate (or method of calculation), the dates on which dividends will be payable, whether dividends shall be cumulative and, if so, the date from which dividends will begin to accumulate;

any redemption or sinking fund provisions of the preferred stock;

any conversion, redemption or exchange provisions of the preferred stock;

the voting rights, if any, of the preferred stock; and any additional dividend, liquidation, redemption, sinking fund and other rights, preferences, privileges, limitations and restrictions of the preferred stock.

You should refer to the certificate of designations establishing a particular series of preferred stock which will be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the SEC in connection with any offering of preferred stock.

Each prospectus supplement relating to a series of preferred stock may describe certain U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to the purchase, holding and disposition of such series of preferred stock.

Elimination of Liability in Certain Circumstances

Our Certificate eliminates the liability of our directors to us or our stockholders for monetary damages resulting from breaches of their fiduciary duties as directors. Directors will remain liable for breaches of their duty of loyalty to us or our stockholders, as well as for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, and transactions from which a director derives improper personal benefit. Our Certificate will not absolve directors of liability for payment of dividends or stock purchases or redemptions by us in violation of Section 174 (or any successor provision of the Delaware General Corporation Law).

The effect of this provision is to eliminate the personal liability of directors for monetary damages for actions involving a breach of their fiduciary duty of care, including any such actions involving gross negligence. We do not believe that this provision eliminates the liability of our directors to us or our stockholders for monetary damages under the federal securities laws. The Certificate and By-laws provide indemnification for the benefit of our directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law as it may be amended from time to time, including most circumstances under which indemnification otherwise would be discretionary.

Number of Directors; Removal; Vacancies

Our By-laws provide that the number of directors shall be fixed by the board of directors from time to time, provided that in no event shall such number of directors be less than three nor more than fifteen. Vacancies on the board of directors may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office. Our By-laws provide that, subject to the rights of holders of any future series of preferred stock, directors may be removed, with or without cause, at meetings of stockholders by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

Special Meetings of Stockholders; Limitations on Stockholder Action by Written Consent

Our Certificate provides that special meetings of our stockholders may be called only by our chairman of the board, our chief executive officer, our secretary pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the board of directors then in office or holders of not less than a majority of our issued and outstanding voting stock. Any action required or permitted to be taken by our stockholders must be effected at an annual or special meeting of stockholders and may not be effected by written consent unless the action to be effected and the taking of such action by written consent have been approved in advance by our board of directors.

Amendments; Vote Requirements

Certain provisions of our Certificate and By-laws provide that the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on any matter is required for stockholders to amend our Certificate or By-laws, including those provisions relating to action by written consent and the ability of stockholders to call special meetings.

Authorized but Unissued Shares

The authorized but unissued shares of common stock will be available for future issuance without stockholder approval. These additional shares may be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital, corporate acquisitions and employee benefit plans. The existence of authorized but unissued shares of common stock could render it more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of us by means of a proxy contest, tender offer, merger or otherwise.

Advance Notice Requirements for Stockholder Proposals and Nomination of Directors

Our By-laws provide that stockholders seeking to bring business before an annual meeting of stockholders, or to nominate candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting of stockholders, must provide timely notice in writing. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received at our principal executive offices not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders. However, in the event that the annual meeting is called for a date that is not within 30 days before or after such anniversary date, such notice will be timely only if received not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the date on which notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed to stockholders or made public, whichever first occurs. Our By-laws also specify requirements as to the form and content of a stockholder's notice.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for our common stock is American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC.

Our common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol "ECHO."

DESCRIPTION OF DEBT SECURITIES

The following description, together with the additional information we may include in any applicable prospectus supplements and in any related free writing prospectuses, summarizes the material terms and provisions of the debt securities that we may offer under this prospectus. The terms of any debt securities offered under a prospectus supplement may differ from the terms described below.

Edgar Filing: Echo Global Logistics, Inc. - Form 424B5

We may issue debt securities from time to time in one or more distinct series. The debt securities may be senior debt securities or subordinated debt securities. Senior debt securities may be issued under a senior indenture and subordinated debt securities may be issued under a subordinated indenture. If we issue debt securities pursuant to an indenture, in the applicable prospectus supplement we will specify the trustee under such indenture. We will include in a supplement to this prospectus the specific terms of debt securities being offered, including the terms, if any, on which debt securities may be convertible into or exchangeable for common stock, preferred stock or other debt securities. Unless otherwise specified in a prospectus supplement, the debt securities will be direct unsecured obligations of Echo. This prospectus is part of a registration statement that provides that we may issue debt securities from time to time in one or more series under one or more indentures, in each case with the same or various maturities, at par or at a discount. Unless indicated in a prospectus supplement, we may issue additional debt securities of a particular series without the consent of the holders of the debt securities of such series outstanding at the time of the issuance. Any such additional debt securities, together with all other outstanding debt securities of that series, will constitute a single series of debt securities under the applicable indenture.

We intend to disclose any restrictive covenants for any issuance or series of debt securities in the applicable prospectus supplement.

DESCRIPTION OF WARRANTS

We expect the following provisions will generally apply to warrants we may offer, unless we specify otherwise in the applicable prospectus supplement.

We may issue warrants for the purchase of common stock, preferred stock or debt securities (collectively "warrants"). Warrants may be issued independently or together with common stock, preferred stock or debt securities and may be attached to or separate from any offered securities. Each series of warrants will be issued under a separate warrant agreement (a "warrant agreement") to be entered into between us and a bank or trust company, as warrant agent (the "warrant agent"). The warrant agent will act solely as our agent in connection with the warrants and will not have any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any holders or beneficial owners of warrants. The statements and descriptions in this prospectus or in any prospectus supplement regarding provisions of the warrants are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to, the provisions of the warrant agreement.

General

If we offer warrants to purchase common stock, preferred stock or debt securities, the related prospectus supplement will describe the terms of the warrants, including, if applicable:

the title of the warrants;

the offering price, if any;

the aggregate number of warrants;

Edgar Filing: Echo Global Logistics, Inc. - Form 424B5

the designation, terms and principal amount of the common stock, preferred stock or debt securities purchasable upon exercise of the warrants and the initial price at which such securities may be purchased upon exercise;

the date on which the right to exercise the warrants shall commence and the date on which such right shall expire;

if applicable, the designation and terms of the securities that the warrants are issued with and the number of warrants issued with each security;

if applicable, the date from and after which the warrants and any securities issued with the warrants will be separately transferable;

if applicable, the minimum or maximum amount of the warrants that may be exercised at any one time;

a discussion of certain federal income tax considerations, if applicable;

the redemption or call provisions, if any;

the currency, currencies or currency units in which the offering price, if any, and exercise price are payable;

the antidilution provisions of the warrants; and any other terms of the warrants, including terms, procedures, and limitations relating to the exchange and exercise of the warrants.

The shares of common or preferred stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants will, when issued in accordance with the warrant agreement, be fully paid and non-assessable.

No Rights

Holders of warrants will not be entitled, by virtue of being such holders, to any rights of holders of the underlying securities. For example, holders of warrants will have no rights to:

vote or consent;

receive dividends;

payments of principal of and interest, if any, on the securities;

receive notice as stockholders with respect to any meeting of stockholders for the election of our directors or any other matter; or exercise any rights whatsoever as our stockholders.

Exchange of Warrant Certificate

Warrant certificates may be exchanged for new warrant certificates of different denominations and may (if in registered form) be presented for registration of transfer at the corporate trust office of the warrant agent, which will be listed in the related prospectus supplement, or at such other office as may be set forth therein.

Exercise of Warrants

Warrants may be exercised by surrendering the warrant certificate at the corporate trust office of the warrant agent, with the form of election to purchase on the reverse side of the warrant certificate properly completed and executed, and by payment in full of the exercise price, as set forth in the prospectus supplement. Upon the exercise of warrants, the warrant agent will, as soon as practicable, deliver the securities in authorized denominations in accordance with the instructions of the exercising warrant holder and at the sole cost and risk of such holder. If less than all of the warrants evidenced by the warrant certificate are exercised, a new warrant certificate will be issued for the remaining amount of warrants.

DESCRIPTION OF SUBSCRIPTION RIGHTS

We may issue subscription rights to purchase debt securities, preferred stock, common stock or other securities. These subscription rights may be issued independently or together with any other security offered hereby and may or may not be transferable by the stockholder receiving the subscription rights in such offering. In connection with any offering of subscription rights, we may enter into a standby arrangement with one or more underwriters or other purchasers pursuant to which the underwriters or other purchasers may be required to purchase any securities remaining unsubscribed after such offering.

The applicable prospectus supplement will describe the specific terms of any offering of subscription rights for which this prospectus is being delivered. A holder or prospective holder of subscription rights should refer to the applicable prospectus supplement for more specific information.

DESCRIPTION OF STOCK PURCHASE CONTRACTS AND STOCK PURCHASE UNITS

We may issue stock purchase contracts, representing contracts obligating holders to purchase from us, and requiring us to sell to the holders, a specified number of shares of common stock at a future date or dates.

The price per share of common stock may be fixed at the time the stock purchase contracts are issued or may be determined by reference to a specific formula set forth in the stock purchase contracts. The stock purchase contracts may be issued separately or as a part of units, or stock purchase units, consisting of a stock purchase contract and either (x) senior debt securities, senior subordinated debt securities, subordinated debt securities or junior subordinated debt securities, or (y) debt obligations of third parties, including U.S. Treasury securities, in each case, securing the holder's obligations to purchase our common stock under the stock purchase contracts. The stock purchase contracts may require us to make periodic payments to the holders of the stock purchase contracts or vice versa, and such payments may be unsecured or prefunded on some basis. The stock purchase contracts may require holders to secure their obligations thereunder in a specified manner and in certain circumstances we may deliver newly issued prepaid stock purchase contracts, or prepaid securities, upon release to a holder of any collateral securing such holder's obligations under the original stock purchase contract. The applicable prospectus supplement will describe the terms of any stock purchase contracts or stock purchase units and, if applicable, prepaid securities.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We may sell common stock, preferred stock, debt securities, warrants, subscription rights, stock purchase contracts, and/or stock purchase units in one or more of the following ways from time to time:

to or through underwriters or dealers;

through agents;

through a combination of any of these methods of sale; or through any other methods described in a prospectus supplement.

Edgar Filing: Echo Global Logistics, Inc. - Form 424B5

The prospectus supplements relating to an offering of securities will set forth the terms of such offering, including:

the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents;

the purchase price of the offered securities and the proceeds to us from the sale;

any underwriting discounts and commissions or agency fees and other items constituting underwriters' or agents' compensation; and any public offering price, any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers and any securities exchanges on which such offered securities may be listed.

Any public offering prices, discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers may be changed from time to time.

If underwriters are used in the sale, the underwriters will acquire the offered securities for their own account and may resell them from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. The offered securities may be offered either to the public through underwriting syndicates represented by one or more managing underwriters or by one or more underwriters without a syndicate. Unless otherwise set forth in a prospectus supplement, the obligations of the underwriters to purchase any series of securities will be subject to certain conditions precedent and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all of such series of securities if any are purchased.

In connection with underwritten offerings of the offered securities and in accordance with applicable law and industry practice, underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the offered securities at levels above those that might otherwise prevail in the open market, including by entering stabilizing bids, effecting syndicate covering transactions or imposing penalty bids, each of which is described below:

A stabilizing bid means the placing of any bid, or the effecting of any purchase, for the purpose of pegging, fixing or maintaining the price of a security.

A syndicate covering transaction means the placing of any bid on behalf of the underwriting syndicate or the effecting of any purchase to reduce a short position created in connection with the offering.

A penalty bid means an arrangement that permits the managing underwriter to reclaim a selling concession from a syndicate member in connection with the offering when offered securities originally sold by the syndicate member are purchased in syndicate covering transactions.

These transactions may be effected on the NASDAQ Global Market, in the over-the-counter market, or otherwise. Underwriters are not required to engage in any of these activities, or to continue such activities if commenced.

If a dealer is used in the sale, we will sell such offered securities to the dealer, as principal. The dealer may then resell the offered securities to the public at varying prices to be determined by that dealer at the time for resale. The names of the dealers and the terms of the transaction will be set forth in the prospectus supplement relating to that transaction.

Offered securities may be sold directly by us to one or more institutional purchasers, or through agents designated by us from time to time, at a fixed price or prices, which may be changed, or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. Any agent involved in the offer or sale of the offered securities in respect of which this prospectus is delivered will be named, and any commissions payable by us to such agent will be set forth in the prospectus supplement relating to that offering, unless otherwise indicated in such prospectus supplement, any such agent will be acting on a best efforts basis for the period of its appointment.

Underwriters, dealers and agents may be entitled under agreements entered into with us to indemnification by us against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribution with respect to payments that the underwriters, dealers or agents may be required to make in respect thereof. Underwriters, dealers and agents may be customers of, engage in transactions with, or perform services for us and our affiliates in the ordinary course of business.

Under the securities laws of some states, the securities offered by this prospectus may be sold in those states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers.

Any person participating in the distribution of common stock registered under the registration statement that includes this prospectus will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, and applicable SEC rules and regulations, including, among others, Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of our common stock by any such person. Furthermore, Regulation M may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of our common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to our common stock. These restrictions may affect the marketability of our common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to our common stock.

Other than our common stock, which is listed on the NASDAQ Global Market, each of the securities issued hereunder will be a new issue of securities, will have no prior trading market, and may or may not be listed on a national securities exchange. Any common stock sold pursuant to a prospectus supplement will be listed on the NASDAQ Global Market, subject to official notice of issuance. Any underwriters to whom we sell securities for public offering and sale may make a market in the securities, but such underwriters will not be obligated to do so and may discontinue any market making at any time without notice. We cannot assure you that there will be a market for the offered securities.
