1. Press Release entitled Telecomunicações de São Paulo S.A. Telesp Corporate Governance Report dated on August 02, 2010.

Introduction

Telecomunicações de São Paulo S/A (Telesp , or Company), a listed company, whose shares are traded on the São Paulo Stock Exchange (Bolsa de Valores de São Paulo) and the New York Stock Exchange, through American Depositary Receipts (ADRs), is subject to Corporation Law (Lei das Sociedades por Ações) Law# 6,404/76, and other applicable laws and rules of the securities and exchange market. The Company is high involved with specific rules of main business, which involves providing telecommunication services.

According to the best governance practices, Telesp adopts and motivates its administrators and employees to the highest levels of unimpeachable behavior and ethical in all activities, aiming continually to attract value to the company and its shares, to protect its investors, employers, shareholders and costumers, offering fair treatment of shareholders and transparency in its operations and information to the market.

Pursuant to the best corporate governance practices, to improve the quality of Company information disclosures and to decrease shareholders uncertainty, TELESP has been creating and implementing various internal regulations and codes to make the governance practices more clear and objective. TELESP believes that this kind of behavior will benefit the shareholders, actual and future investors, as well as the whole market. According to the internal activities that have been adopted, we can highlight some internal regulations which insure that the objectives will be achieved. Those codes complement the legislation in effect and others companies regulations, and we point out the Corporation Law (Lei das Sociedades por ações), the CVM's Instruction 358/02 and alterations, the CVM Corporate Governance Recommendations and Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

This report discloses the governance principles and practices sighted by the Company and presents, in a simple and objective way, information about the shareholder structure, the composition, the operation and activities of the administrative parts and the Company's relationship with its shareholders, investors and with the market.

Principles of Corporate Governance

The fundamental principles of TELESP corporate governance are contemplated in its By-Laws and in internal guidelines which complement the concepts emanated by law and by principles that set the capital market.

The purpose of these principles, that inspire the administration activity of the Company, can be summarized as follows:

9 Maximizing Company value;

9 Transparency in rendering Company accounts and disclosure relevant information to the market;

9 Transparency in relations with shareholders, employees, investors and customers;

9 Equitable treatment of shareholders;

9 The Board of Directors' essential role in Company management, supervision, and accounts rendered to shareholders.

9 The Board of Directors' performance regarding the Corporate Responsibility ensuring the sustainability of the organization.

Based on those concepts, TELESP developed and implemented the following internal regulations:

(i) Company Relevant Act and Fact Disclosure Policy: Implanted in 07/18/2002 as decided by the Board of Directors of the Company and taking into account CVM's Instruction #358/02. The aim of this policy is to establish rules to information disclosures that are relevant to the market.

(ii) Internal Code of Conduct: Implanted in 03/26/2003 as decided by the Board of Directors of the Company. Establishes behavioral guidelines to stock market related issues, and is not only strictly aligned with the legislation in effect, but is also based on ethical criteria and professional responsibility.

(iii) Market Information Disclosure Guidelines: Regulate the basic operating principles and systems of control of information that will be published. It seeks to ensure quality and control over such information, thereby meeting the requirements established by law in the markets where Company securities are traded. As fixed by the Board of Directors, its implantation was approved by Executive committee in 06/19/2006.

(iv) Guidelines on Registering, Communicating and Controlling Financial and Accounting

Information: In 02/11/2003, the Board of Directors approved this guidelines governing internal procedures and control mechanisms related to producing Company's financial and accounting information, ensuring application of uniform accounting policies and practices. Such regulation also complies with certain requirements in the US Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

(v) Conduct Regulations for Financial Officers: Regulation that specifies standards of conduct for persons in positions of responsibility involving TELESP and its subsidiaries finances, their access to privileged and confidential information and the standard behavior noticed in those situations. The Board of Directors approved it in 04/18/2005.

(vi) Rules on Prior Approval of Services to be Provided by the External Auditor: Establishes criteria and procedures for contracting services from independent auditors, always with prior approval from the Audit and Control Committee. The provisions take into account CVM directives in this area, as well as US legislation. It was implanted with the approval of the Audit and Control Committee in 11/21/2005.

Besides the regulations aforesaid, that give conduct regulations to be adopted aiming the best governance, the company has a compliant channel, set by Audit and Control Committee in 07/18/2005, to receiving and look after complaints and accounting and auditing subjects.

The structure of the TELESP Board of Directors, with the presence of the external directors and independent directors, as well as those elected by the preferred shareholders (*), is aligned with the best corporate governance practices.

Internal Structure and Operations of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors By Laws and Internal Regulations state that the Board will meet ordinarily once every quarter, and extraordinarily as required, when called by its President. Thus, the Board shall establish an annual calendar for Ordinary meetings.

During 2009, the TELESP Board of Directors held 9 (nine) meetings, which lasted an average of 3 (three) hours each, in general terms. In 2010, 4 (four) Board of Directors meetings have been held to date.

In order to ensure adequate preparation for meetings, and to ensure that Board of Directors members have all required information, the meetings will have an agenda that is established in advance, of which the Board of Directors members are notified at least 5 (five) days in advance.

In order to provide the necessary clarifications and discussions about certain issues of the agenda, the main Company Executive Officers have been present at Board meetings to expose, in a detailed way, issues they are responsible for. The Company's Fiscal Committee members are also present at the Board of Directors meetings to clarify any issues related to the corporate law.

Issues submitted for appraisal and decision at Board of Directors meetings are always given substantial consideration. The Board of Directors members take part in debates and discussions, putting forward their opinions on issues whenever they feel that it is opportune to do so. The Chairman organizes the debates and involves all Board of Directors members in decisions, normally asking each for their opinion, especially on issues of great importance to the Company.

Chairman of the Board of Directors

The TELESP Chairman of the Board is appointed by the Board from among its members. According to the Board of Directors By-Laws and Internal Regulations, his specific attributes are:

- (i) to represent the Board of Directors when calling a General Shareholders meeting and before third parties;
- (ii) to preside over the General Shareholders meeting and chose the secretary from those present;
- (iii) call, preside and run the Board of Directors meetings;
- (iv) cast the deciding vote, as set forth in the By Laws, in the event that Board of Directors votes are undecided;
- (v) authorize actions in emergency situations ad referendum of the Board of Directors consideration.

Secretary to the Board of Directors

Currently, the Executive Board is composed of 4 members whose mandates shall end on the date of the first Board of Directors meeting after the Ordinary Shareholders Meeting in 2013. The following is the current structure of the Executive Board of TELESP:

Chairman: Antonio Carlos Valente da Silva

Director General of Fixed Telephony: Mariano Sebastian de Beer

Director of Finance Management and Investor Relations: Gilmar Roberto Pereira
Camurra

General Secretary: Gustavo Fleichman

Management Impediments, Duties and Responsibilities

Law 6404/76 sets aside an entire chapter for management skills, requirements, impediments and conflicts of interest, compensation, substitution, investiture, duties and responsibilities.

By law, the following are not permitted to hold management positions: persons subject to special laws or convicted of crimes specific under these laws, those sentenced to temporary suspension or disqualification applied by the Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM) and those who hold positions in companies that could be deemed market competitors.

Management duties include:

- the duty of diligence, which states that while performing his duties, the manager must employ a level of caution and application that any active and trustworthy individual would normally use in managing their own business;
- the duty of loyalty, which states that the manager must exercise restraint in company business, and is forbidden to: (i) use the business opportunities of which he is aware as a result of his position, (ii) fail to protect Company interests in order to obtain personal advantage for himself or third parties, (iii) purchase, to resell and profit from any asset or right that he knows the Company requires;
- the duty to pursue the Company's objectives and interests;
- the duty to abstain from involvement in any Company business where there is a conflict of interest with the Company;
- the duty to inform ownership of and transactions involving securities issued by the Company and other companies in the same group;
- the duty of confidentiality involving information that has yet to be disclosed to the market and is obtained as a result of this position, and is also capable of influencing securities prices, and the executive is also forbidden from using the information for his own advantage or that of a third party;
- the duty to notify the market of General meetings decisions, management decisions or relevant facts that have taken place in Company business that may influence investor decisions to purchase or sell securities issued by the Company.

In relation to the duties of confidentiality and to notify relevant facts or acts, as well as inform ownership or transactions involving Company securities, the CVM issued CVM Instruction No 358 regulating these areas. As a result of this Instruction, the Board of Directors approved the Relevant Fact or Act Disclosure Policy, a code that is applicable to members of the Board of Directors, Executive Board, Fiscal Committee and other employees who have access to relevant Company information as a result of their positions and functions, and the Board also approved the Internal Code of Conduct, as stated above.

According to the specific law, Directors are also forbidden from:

- benefiting third parties at the expense of the Company;
- borrowing or using Company resources or assets for their own benefit or that of third parties or companies in which they hold stakes, without prior authorization from the General Shareholders Meeting, or the Board of Directors in circumstances involving the executive officers;
- receiving any type of direct or indirect personal advantage from third parties as a result of their position, without statutory or General meetings authorization.

Management Remuneration

Telesp's Management remuneration is set by the General meetings pursuant to Corporation Law. The 2010 ordinary shareholders' meeting, held on 04/07/2010, set annual global management remuneration at R$16,290,000.00 (sixteen million and two hundred and ninety thousand reais), for the period between the Ordinary General Meeting of 04/07/2010 until the Ordinary General Meeting of the year 2011.

The individual amount for the Executive Officer is set by the Board of Directors, as set forth in the Company's bylaws, counting with the studies and recommendations issued by its Appointment, Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee.

The Fiscal Committee

The Fiscal Committee is a mandatory organ in Brazilian corporations, and the Company By-Law must govern its operations, whether operating on a permanent basis or not. It is not a management body, but a body that oversees Company management and the actions of its managers. At TELESP, the Fiscal Committee operates on a permanent basis.

Members of the Fiscal Committee are elected by the General Shareholders meeting for a 1 (one) year mandate and they may be re-elected. Corporation law guarantee holders of preferred shares the right to elect a full and a substitute member of the Fiscal Committee in a separate vote.

By law, compensation for members of the Fiscal Committee, over and above reimbursement for travel and accommodation costs incurred in the performance of their duties, is set by the General Shareholders meetings that elects them, and for each active member, said compensation cannot be less than 10% (ten per cent) of the average compensation awarded to each Executive Officer, not including the benefits, commercial expenses and profit sharing.

By law, the Fiscal Committee is composed of between 3 and 5 members and an equal number of substitutes. The TELESP Fiscal Committee is composed of 03 (three) active members and 03 (three) substitutes, elected on 04/07/10, with mandates up to the date of the Ordinary General meeting in 2011, as listed below:

Active

*Flavio Stamm
Patrícia Maria de Arruda Franco
Carlos Raimar Schoeninger

Substitute

*Gilberto Lerio
Stael Prata Silva Filho
João Orlando Lima Cordeiro

* Elected by the preferred shareholders, in a separate vote, without the participation of the controller.

Fiscal Committee Members Impediments, Duties and Responsibilities:

Only Brazilian citizens resident in this country, holding university degrees, or those who have held the position of Company manager or audit committee member for a period of 3 (three) years, may be elected to the Fiscal Committee. Fiscal Committee members are subject to the same impediments applied to manager elections.

Fiscal Committee members hold the same duties as the managers (Board of Directors and Executive Board) and are liable for harm caused by any omission in fulfilling their duties and negligence or malfeasance, or violation of any law or statute. They shall perform their functions in the Company's best interests.

Fiscal Committee's Attributes

The main attributes of the Fiscal Committee involve reviewing and commenting on accounting statements, overseeing management activities, submitting opinions on the Annual Management Report and on management proposals that are to be submitted to the meeting pertaining to modification of capital stock, capital budgets, dividend distribution and mergers, incorporations or splits.

Management and Fiscal Committee Member Shareholdings in Company Equity

It is required by the Brazilian legislation that managers of the Company, as well as the members of the Fiscal Committee, to declare ownership of securities issued by the Company, subsidiaries or companies of the same group to the Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the Stock Exchange. They are also required to notify any modification in their respective shareholder positions. This information is also available in the regulatory bodies websites.

Thus, on the date of this Report, our Executive Officers and Fiscal Committee held the following shares:

Internal Audit

The Company has an Internal Audit Department that analyzes and evaluates the fulfillment of obligatory procedures.

The main goal is to support the management regarding internal controls systems, overseeing risks, compliance of laws and regulations and internal rules, information accuracy, operations effectiveness and efficiency and integrity of the Company assets.

Aiming its goals, the Audit and Control Committee approves, yearly, the Internal Audit work plan, including, among others, the following assignments:

- Check and analyze internal accounting control and operational systems;
- Review controls aiming Company's assets protection;
- Overseeing problems and opportunities to improve ongoing operating revisions;
- Proof the existence of suitable controls for information systems;
- Review the fulfillment of internal Corporate Governance regulations.

Markets

Investor Relations department

In order to seek closer ties with the financial markets, the shareholders and investors, in Brazil and also in United States, the Company has an Investor Relations department which main function is to design and execute a Company communication program for financial markets, in order to inform and explain its main strategic, operational, organizational and business activities of the Company, collaborating with the appropriate valuation of its securities.

TELESP uses this department to organize meetings that provide information on its performance taking part its shareholders and institutional investors from Brazil and abroad to participate, with participation from high-ranking executives when convenient, according to the subject matter presented.

In 2009, more than 140 meetings were held with investors and analysts from Brazil, Europe and United States, besides a huge number of telephone contacts, e-mails and other correspondences.

The Investor Relations department carries out a periodic analysis of Company shareholders, analysts and bondholders information requirements in order to optimize the disclosure information and to help TELESP remain a leading Company in this sector in terms of transparency and accessibility.

Market Information Disclosure

TELESP disclosures to markets where its shares are traded all relevant acts related to its business, than can influence the securities prices.

Considering the importance of the market information disclosure in an adequate and opportune way, the Direction of Investors Relations gives a special attention to the communication with the shareholders and investors, being always at the disposal of the financial community to clarify any doubts or handle any queries.

Moreover, all of this information is available at the Company Corporate website. It is particularly necessary to highlight that the design and the management of the specific Investor Relations web page was developed in a way to privilege transparency in information disclosure, ensuring simultaneous and non-discriminatory access. The Investor Relations web page offers several sections for easy access to all official, financial, operational and strategic information issued by the Company to the various regulatory bodies and markets in general (<http://www.telefonica.com.br/investidores/>).

In addition, it is important to note that the Telefônica Group information and transparency policy, approved and recognized internationally, is also used as a guideline by TELESP, focusing on the quality, depth and speed of its response to investor relations.

To conclude, as already mentioned above, the Company implanted the Market Information Disclosure, that set the basic system principles and methods of information disclosure control, providing the quality and control about the disclosure information, issued by the regulatory bodies as well as in press publication. Thus, it was settled the Disclosure Committee, as follows in the next topic.

Disclosure Committee

The main responsibility of the Disclosure Committee is to ensure that the information placed at the market's disposal was elaborated considering the appropriated principles, criteria and professional practices.

The Committee revises relevant information to securities market to be published, certifying an appropriate disclosure structure, containing correct information related to relevant acts or facts, do not omitting any fact that can cause interpretation problems, being specific, complete and appropriate, providing the shareholders, investors and the market in general a suitable knowledge and decision. Internal Code of Conduct

Regarding the adoption of conduct guidelines to prevent possible infractions regarding the use of privileged information and related matters, the Board of Directors, as previously discussed, approved the Internal Code of Conduct for issues related to the stock markets (RIC).

This Code is applicable to all personnel that have greater and more frequent contact with privileged Company information, including high-ranking executives and employees whose functions may involve regular access to this type of information.

This Code covers matters related to transactions with Company and Group securities, banishing transacting while in possession of privileged information, establishing wide temporary restrictions for occasions when there is objective important information within the Company, for example, during the month preceding the preparation and approval of the annual accounts by the Board of Directors. Additionally, it mandates that securities purchased are to be kept for a minimum period, in order to stop speculation involving Company securities.

The Code provides detailed analysis of the principles that must be followed in the event of a conflict of interest, establishing a duty to notify the Company a possible conflict situation.
