On May 7, 2012, Perficient, Inc. sent the following to select employees:

Hello,

Recently you received proxy materials from Perficient for the shares you own. Every year we hold an annual meeting for our shareholders to elect the members of our Board of Directors and conduct other business for the company. In your proxy materials you will see that this year, we've included a proposal for a new stock plan under which our employees can receive grants of stock awards. We believe it is crucial that this proposal be approved by Perficient shareholders, since this is an important element of compensation for our employees that is aligned with shareholders interest. As a previous recipient of awards under our incentive plans, you will be eligible for potential future grants. When you receive your proxy materials, please review them and vote your shares. Management is available to answer any questions you may have.

We have filed a definitive proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") in connection with our 2012 Annual Meeting. You are strongly advised to read the definitive proxy statement carefully, as it contains important information. Free copies of the definitive proxy statement, and any amendments or supplements thereto, and other materials filed by us with the SEC will be available free of charge on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, on our website at www.perficient.com under Investor Relations/SEC Filings or by directing requests to me.

Thank you,
Paul E. Martin
