Edgar Filing: COASTAL CARIBBEAN OILS & MINERALS LTD - Form 8-K

Item 4.01 Changes in Company's Certifying Accountant.

Previous Independent Accountants

On August 18, 2005 James Moore & Co., P.L. ( James Moore ) resigned as Coastal Caribbean Oils & Minerals, Ltd. 's (the Company ) independent auditors. James Moore 's decision to resign was not recommended or approved by the Company 's board of directors or any committee thereof.

The reports of James Moore on the Company 's consolidated financial statements for the past two fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to audit scope or accounting principles, but did contain an explanatory paragraph for an uncertainty regarding the Company 's ability to continue as a going concern.

In connection with the audits of the Company 's financial statements for the past two fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and in the subsequent interim periods, there were no disagreements with James Moore on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope and procedures which, if not resolved to James Moore 's satisfaction, would have caused James Moore to make reference to the matter in their report. There were no reportable events as that term is described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K. The Company has requested James Moore to furnish it a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements. A copy of the letter, dated August 18, 2005 is filed as Exhibit 16 to this Form 8-K.

The Company has retained James Moore to provide the Company and its Subsidiary with ongoing accounting and tax services

New Independent Accountants

On August 18, 2005, Baumann, Raymondo & Company, P.A. ( New Accountant ) was retained as the Company 's independent auditors. Baumann, Raymondo & Company, P.A. is registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board ( PCAOB ), and is located in Tampa, Florida.

During the Company 's two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period(s) prior to engaging the New Accountant, neither the Company nor anyone acting on behalf of the Company consulted the New Accountant regarding (i) either (a) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or (b) the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company 's financial statements; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement (as defined in paragraph 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions to Item 304 of Regulation S-K) or a reportable event (as described in paragraph 304(A)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K). In addition, during the Company 's two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period(s) prior to engaging the New Accountant, no written report was provided by the New Accountant to the Company and no oral advice was provided that the New Accountant concluded was an important factor considered by the Corporation in reaching a decision as to any accounting, auditing, or financial reporting issue.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Others; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

b. Departure of Principal Officers

The Company's Chief Financial Officer, Kenneth M. Cornell, resigned effective August 18, 2005.

c. New Principal Executive Officer

The Company appointed its current President and Chief Executive Officer Phillip W. Ware to the position of Principal Accounting Officer, effective August 18, 2005. Mr. Ware is a geologist. He is 55 years old and has served as President of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Coastal Petroleum Company and as a vice-president and director of the Company since 1985. He has served as President of the Company since March 1, 2003. Mr. Ware is not related to any other executive officer, or director of the Company, nor is there any arrangement or understanding between Mr. Ware and any other person pursuant to which he was selected as an officer. The Company does not have an employment agreement with Mr. Ware.
