PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement contains information related to the solicitation of proxies by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of Next Generation Media Corp. ("NGMC" or the "Company") for use in connection with the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Monday, December 15, 2003, beginning at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the MGM Grand Hotel, 3799 Las Vegas Blvd. South, Las Vegas, Nevada, 89109, and at any and all adjournments or postponements thereof. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy are being mailed to shareholders on or about November 14, 2003.

ABOUT THE MEETING

What is the purpose of the Annual Meeting?

At our Annual Meeting, shareholders will act upon the matters outlined in the notice of meeting on the cover page of this Proxy Statement, including the election of directors and ratification of the Company's independent auditors. In addition, management will report on the performance of the Company during fiscal 2002 and the fiscal year to date and respond to questions from shareholders.

Why am I receiving these materials?

NGMC's Board of Directors is providing these proxy materials for you in connection with our Annual Meeting of Shareholders, which will take place on December 15, 2003. Shareholders are invited to attend the annual meeting and are requested to vote on the proposals described in this Proxy Statement.

What information is contained in these materials?

The information included in this Proxy Statement relates to the proposals to be voted on at the Annual Meeting, the voting process, the compensation of directors, and certain other required information including a proxy card.

What proposals will be voted on at the Annual Meeting?

There are two proposals scheduled to be voted on at the Annual Meeting:

the election of five directors until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders; and the ratification of the appointment of Turner & Jones, LLP as NGMC's independent auditors for fiscal year 2003.

Who is entitled to vote at the meeting?

The shares of Common Stock of NGMC constitute the only class of securities entitled to notice of, to attend and to vote at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on October 22, 2003, the record date for the meeting, are entitled to receive notice of and to participate in the Annual Meeting. If you were a shareholder of record on that date, you will be entitled to vote all of the shares that you held on that date at the meeting, or any postponements or adjournments of the meeting. Each outstanding share of NGMC common stock will be entitled to one vote on each matter.

What is the difference between holding shares as a shareholder of record and as a beneficial owner?

Most shareholders of NGMC hold their shares through a stockbroker, bank or other nominee rather than directly in their own name. As summarized below, there are some distinctions between shares held of record and those owned beneficially.

Shareholder of Record

If your shares are registered directly in your name with NGMC's transfer agent, OTR Transfer Agent and Registrar, you are considered, with respect to those shares, the shareholder of record, and these proxy materials are being sent directly to you by NGMC. As the shareholder of record, you have the right to grant your voting proxy directly to NGMC or to vote in person at the Annual Meeting. NGMC has enclosed a proxy card for you to use.

Beneficial Owner

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker or nominee who is considered, with respect to those shares, the shareholder of record. Brokers, dealers, banks, voting trusts and/or their nominees are requested to forward soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of shares and will be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses.

How can I vote my shares in person at the Annual Meeting?

Shares held directly in your name as the shareholder of record may be voted in person at the Annual Meeting. If you choose to do so, please bring the enclosed proxy card and proof of identification. Even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, NGMC recommends that you also submit your proxy as described below so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the Annual Meeting. Shares held in street name may be voted in person by you only if you obtain a signed proxy from the record holder giving you the right to vote the shares in person.

How can I vote my shares without attending the Annual Meeting?

Whether you hold shares directly as the shareholder of record or beneficially in street name, you may direct your vote without attending the Annual Meeting. You may vote your directly held shares by granting a proxy or, for shares held in street name, by submitting voting instructions to your broker or nominee.

Can I change my vote?

You may change your proxy instructions at any time prior to the vote at the Annual Meeting. For shares held directly in your name, you may accomplish this by granting a new proxy bearing a later date (which automatically revokes the earlier proxy) or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not cause your previously granted proxy to be revoked unless you specifically request to do so. For shares held beneficially by you, you may accomplish this by submitting new voting instructions to your broker or nominee.

Edgar Filing: NEXT GENERATION MEDIA CORP - Form PRE 14A

Who can attend the meeting?

All shareholders as of the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the meeting. Cameras, recording devices and other electronic devices will not be permitted at the meeting. All shareholders are urged to attend the meeting in person or by proxy. WHETHER OR NOT YOU EXPECT TO ATTEND THE MEETING IN PERSON, PLEASE SIGN AND SUBMIT YOUR PROXY CARD AS SOON AS POSSIBLE SO THAT YOUR SHARES CAN BE VOTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING IN ACCORDANCE WITH YOUR INSTRUCTIONS. For specific instructions on voting, please refer to the instructions on your proxy card or the voting instruction card.

What are the Board's voting recommendations?

Unless you give other instructions on your proxy card, the persons named as proxy holders on the proxy card will vote in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors. The Board's recommendations are set forth together with the description of each item in this Proxy Statement. In summary, the Board recommends a vote:

FOR election of the nominated slate of directors (see Proposal 1);
and

FOR ratification of the appointment of Turner & Jones, LLP as the Company's independent auditors for fiscal 2003 (see Proposal 2).

With respect to any other matter that properly comes before the meeting, the proxy holders will vote as recommended by the Board of Directors or, if no recommendation is given, in their own discretion.

How are votes counted?

In the election of directors, you may vote "FOR" all of the nominees or you may vote "WITHHOLD AUTHORITY" with respect to one or more of the nominees. For the ratification of the appointment of Turner & Jones, LLP, you may vote "FOR", "AGAINST" or "ABSTAIN." If you "ABSTAIN," it has the same effect as a vote "AGAINST." If you sign your proxy card or broker voting instruction card with no further instructions, your shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board described above.

What vote is required to approve each item?

Election of Directors - The affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power present at the meeting is required for the election of directors. A properly executed proxy marked "WITHHOLD AUTHORITY" with respect to the election of one or more directors will not be voted with respect to the director or directors indicated, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Accordingly, a withheld vote will essentially have the effect of a negative vote.

Other Items - For the ratification of the appointment of Turner & Jones, LLP, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the item will be required for approval. A properly executed proxy marked "ABSTAIN" with respect to any such matter will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Accordingly, an abstention will have the effect of a negative vote. If you hold your shares in street name through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to some of the matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on those matters and will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval. Shares represented by such "broker non-votes" will, however, be counted in determining whether there is a quorum.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy or voting instruction card?

It means your shares are registered differently or are in more than one account. Please provide voting instructions for all proxy and voting instruction cards you receive.

Where can I find the voting results of the Annual Meeting?

NGMC will publish the final results in NGMC's year-end report on Form 10-KSB.

STOCK OWNERSHIP

Who are the largest owners of NGMC's stock?

The following table sets forth information regarding beneficial ownership as of October 22, 2003, of the Company's common stock, by each director and by officers and directors of the Company as a group.

Directors, executive officers and greater than ten-percent beneficial owners are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based upon a review of filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, we believe that all of our directors and executive officers are in compliance with the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 since the Companies most recent 10KSB.

The Board of Directors has appointed the independent accounting firm of Turner and Jones LLP, certified public accountants, to audit the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries for the 2002 fiscal year. Representatives of Turner & Jones, LLP are not expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and therefore will not have the opportunity to make a statement or be available to respond to appropriate questions.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO RATIFY THE APPOINTMENT OF TURNER & JONES, LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS OF THE COMPANY FOR THE 2003 FISCAL YEAR.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING THE ANNUAL MEETING

What happens if additional proposals are presented at the Annual Meeting?

Other than the two proposals described in this Proxy Statement, NGMC does not expect any other matters to be presented for a vote at the Annual Meeting.

Edgar Filing: NEXT GENERATION MEDIA CORP - Form PRE 14A

What is the quorum requirement for the Annual Meeting?

The quorum requirement for holding the Annual Meeting and transacting business is a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to be voted. Based on the number of shares outstanding on the October 22, 2003 record date, 6,236,698 shares will constitute a quorum for purposes of this Annual Meeting. The shares may be present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting. Both abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. Broker non-votes, however, are not counted as shares present and entitled to be voted with respect to the matter on which the broker has expressly not voted. Thus, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of any of the matters being voted on at the Annual Meeting. Generally, broker non-votes occur when shares held by a broker for a beneficial owner are not voted with respect to a particular proposal because the broker has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner and the broker lacks discretionary voting power to vote such shares. Abstentions are treated as shares present and entitled to vote for purposes of any matter for which a majority of shares present are required for passage and, accordingly will not have the affect of votes against such matters.

Is my vote confidential?

Proxy instructions, ballots and voting tabulations that identify individual shareholders are handled in a manner that protects your voting privacy. Your vote will not be disclosed either within NGMC or to third parties except (1) as necessary to meet applicable legal requirements, (2) to allow for the tabulation of votes and certification of the vote, or (3) to facilitate a successful proxy solicitation by the Board. Occasionally, shareholders provide written comments on their proxy card, which are then forwarded to NGMC's management.

Who will bear the cost of soliciting votes for the Annual Meeting?

NGMC will pay the entire cost of preparing, assembling, printing, mailing and distributing these proxy materials. In addition to the mailing of these proxy materials, the solicitation of proxies or votes may be made in person, by telephone or by electronic communication by NGMC's directors, officers, and employees, who will not receive any additional compensation for such solicitation activities. In addition, NGMC will also reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation material to such beneficial owners.

May I propose actions for consideration at next year's Annual Meeting of Shareholders or nominate individuals to serve as directors?

Any shareholders desiring to submit a proposal for action at the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held in 2004 and for presentation in the Company's Proxy Statement with respect to such meeting should arrange for such proposal to be delivered to the Secretary of the Company at its principal place of business no later than August 1, 2004 in order to be considered for inclusion in the Company's Proxy Statement relating to that meeting. Matters pertaining to such proposals, including the number and length thereof, eligibility of persons entitled to have such proposals included and other aspects are regulated by the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, Rules and Regulations of the SEC and other laws and regulations to which interested persons should refer. The Company anticipates that its next annual meeting will be held in December 2004.

Under Rule 14a-4 as promulgated under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended the Company will be allowed to use its discretionary voting authority when the proposal is raised at the meeting, without any discussion of the matter in the Proxy Statement, in two situations: (i) if a proponent of a proposal fails to notify the Company at least 45 days prior to the current year's anniversary of the date of the mailing of the prior year's Proxy Statement, or (ii) if the date of the Company's annual meeting has changed by more than thirty (30) days from the prior year, if notice is not received a reasonable time before the Company mails the Proxy Statement for the current year.
