PART I - FINANCIAL INFORMATION

ITEM 1. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

As used herein, the term “Company” refers to AmeriResource Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and its subsidiaries and predecessors, unless otherwise indicated. Consolidated, unaudited, condensed interim financial statements including a balance sheet for the Company as of the quarter ended June 30, 2008, statement of operations and statement of cash flows for the interim period up to the date of such balance sheet and the comparable periods of the preceding year are attached hereto beginning on Page F-1 and are incorporated herein by this reference.

The consolidated financial statements for the Company included herein are unaudited but reflect, in management’s opinion, all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments that are necessary for a fair presentation of the Company’s financial position and the results of its operations for the interim periods presented. Because of the nature of the Company’s business, the results of operations for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2008 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full fiscal year. The financial statements included herein should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in the Form 10-KSB for the year-ended December 31, 2007.

AMERIRESOURCE TECHNOLOGIES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2008
(Unaudited)

NOTE 1 – DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

As used herein, the term “Company” refers to AmeriResource Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and its subsidiaries and predecessors, unless the context indicates otherwise. The Company was formerly known as KLH Engineering Group, Inc. (“KLH Engineering”), which was incorporated on March 3, 1989 to provide diversified engineering services throughout the United States. KLH Engineering changed its name to AmeriResource Technologies, Inc. on July 16, 1996. Although the Company’s operations have historically consisted of providing engineering and construction services, the Company closed and/or sold off its engineering subsidiaries due to continued losses in 1996. The Company then began to focus on locating viable businesses that were in a niche market, had assets and revenues, and had the desire or need to become an operating subsidiary of a Public Company

NOTE 2 – BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited and condensed consolidated financial statements included herein have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP), for interim financial statements, and pursuant to the instructions for Form 10-Q, and Item 310 (b) of Regulation S-B of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, these statements do not include certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America and are unaudited. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three and six months ended June 30, 2008, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year-ended December 31, 2008. For further information, the statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year-ended December 31, 2007. The Company follows the same accounting policies in the preparation of interim reports.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenue and expenses during the reporting period. In these financial statements assets and liabilities involve extensive reliance on management’s estimates. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Ameriresource Technologies, Inc.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2008
(Unaudited)

Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the combined accounts of AmeriResource Technologies, Inc., West Texas Real Estate & Resources, Inc., RoboServer Systems, Corp., Self-Serve Technologies, Inc., Net2Auction Corporation, and Auction Wagon Inc., BizAuctions, Inc., and BizAuctions Corp. All significant intercompany transactions and accounts have been eliminated in consolidation.

Earnings (Loss) per common share

Basic earnings (loss) per common share are calculated by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Options, warrants, and convertible debt outstanding are not included in the computation because the effect would be antidilutive.

NOTE 3 – GOING CONCERN

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, applicable to a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and the liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has incurred continuing losses and has not yet generated sufficient working capital to support its operations. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent, among other things, on its ability to reduce certain costs, increase sales and revenues, obtain additional financing through equity, and eventually, attaining a profitable level of operations.

It is management's opinion the going concern basis of reporting its financial condition and results of operations is appropriate at this time. The Company plans to increase cash flows through increased revenues, reduce expenses through consolidation, and purchase additional revenue producing assets through equity, and the sale or closure of unprofitable subsidiary operations.

NOTE 4 – STOCKHOLDERS' DEFICIT

Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue Fifty Billion (50,000,000,000) shares of Common Stock and Ten Million (10,000,000) shares of preferred stock ("Preferred Stock"), as of June 30, 2008. The Company filed with the State of Delaware an Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation increasing the authorized from Three Billion (3,000,000,000) to Fifty Billion (50,000,000,000) that became effective on March 7, 2008.

In February of 2002, the Company approved a 100 for 1 reverse stock split, and in December of 2004, the Company approved a 40 for 1 reverse stock split, and in November of 2007, the Company approved a 50 for 1 reverse stock split and in May of 2008 a 400 for 1 reverse stock split. The shares are shown after the reverse stock splits.

GENERAL

As used herein, the term “Company” refers to AmeriResource Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and its subsidiaries and predecessors, unless the context indicates otherwise. The Company was formerly known as KLH Engineering Group, Inc. (“KLH Engineering”), which was incorporated on March 3, 1989 to provide diversified engineering services throughout the United States. KLH Engineering changed its name to AmeriResource Technologies, Inc. on July 16, 1996. Although the Company’s operations have historically consisted of providing engineering and construction services, the Company closed and/or sold off its engineering subsidiaries due to continued losses in 1996. The Company then began to focus on locating viable businesses that were in a niche market, had assets and revenues, and had the desire or need to become an operating subsidiary of a Public Company.

AmeriResource Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) conducts its business as a holding Company in a structure that includes several wholly-owned and majority-owned subsidiaries which are involved in software development for the Fast-Food and full service restaurant industry, and as a commercial liquidator for some of the nation’s top retailers for their excess inventory, overstocks, and returned merchandise selling the products on eBay. The Company’s subsidiaries are listed below and with the percent of ownership as of June 30, 2008, as follows; RoboServer Systems Corp. (“RBSY”), Self-Serve Technologies, Inc. (“SSTI”), Net2Auction Corporation (“NAC”), AuctionWagon Inc. (“AWI”) Auction Boulevard (“AB”), BizAuctions, Inc. (“BZCN”) and, BizAuctions Corp. (“BAC”), Business Auctions, Inc. (“BSAI”) As of June 30, 2008, the Company owned 100% of Net2Auction Corporation, and AuctionWagon Inc. The Company owned approximately 40% of RoboServer’s common stock and upon conversion of the Super-Voting Preferred would give the Company approximately 59% control. Self-Serve Technologies, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary. RoboServer is publicly traded on the Pink Sheets under the symbol “RBSY. The Company owned approximately 59% of BizAuctions, Inc.’s common stock and upon conversion of the Super-Voting Preferred would give the Company approximately 81% ownership or control of BizAuctions, Inc. BizAuctions Corp. and Business Auctions, Inc. are wholly-owned subsidiaries of BizAuctions, Inc. BizAuctions, Inc., is publicly traded on the Pink Sheets under the symbol “BZCN.” Despite the operations of our various subsidiaries, the Company continues to search for viable business operations to acquire or merge with in order to increase the Company’s revenues, asset base and achieve profitability.

The Company will continue to strive to attain consistent profitability through acquisitions of revenue producing businesses, growing the business models of BizAuctions and RoboServer, and or divestitures of our current subsidiaries if an attractive offer from possible suitors is received. As of June 30, 2008, the Company had a total of 14 full time employees and 6 full time consultants.

The Company continues to search for viable business operations to acquire or merge with in order to increase the Company’s asset base, revenues, and to achieve profitability on a consistent level.

On May 18, 2004, the Company's subsidiary, Self-Serve Technologies, Inc. ("SSTI"), purchased software and hardware system and self-serve system called Point of Sales ("POS") from Curtis Chambers, a software engineer and the owner and developer of the POS system, for twenty-five million (25,000,000) shares of the Company's restricted stock. As part of this transaction, Mr. Chambers assumed the position of Lead Developer with Self-Serve Technologies, Inc. and remained with the Company until he resigned from the Company in September of 2006.

RoboServer Systems Corp.

On August 26, 2004, the Company entered into an agreement whereby it sold 100% of its interest in its subsidiary, Self-Serve Technologies, Inc. to RoboServer. In exchange, RoboServer issued to the Company, 25,000,000 shares of RoboServer, common stock and 6,500,000 shares of RoboServer, preferred stock. The Company acquired approximately 99% of the RoboServer voting rights through the exchange at the time of the transaction. As the Company's subsidiary, RoboServer is now developing the Company's self-serve kiosk application and point of sale technologies

The POS-Self-Serve system is a specialized application whereby, utilizing the POS software in a Kiosk application that allows management the flexibility of reducing staffing requirements thus lowering the labor expenses for the restaurant. This application also allows the customer to order the food as well as pay in a much faster time period and reduces the possibility of creating incorrect orders. The original POS software and hardware system have been in commercial use since 2001 in southern California with the new applications in use since December of 2005.

Since the acquisition of the POS system and self-serve systems, RoboServer has concentrated its development on the RoboServer self-serve kiosk application to the fast-food and full service restaurant industries. RoboServer's self-serve systems are designed to work like ATM machines, allowing customers to quickly and easily place orders, pay, and go. Industry estimates and market observations show that self-serve technologies can cut customer waiting time by 33%.

RoboServer free standing kiosks are manufactured by KIS Kiosks. RoboServer's partnership with KIS allows us to offer the competitive pricing and top quality hardware products available. The market for RoboServer's point-of-sale and self-serve technologies is increasing rapidly. Business owners are seeking out self-serve kiosks to allow such owners to provide more efficient services to their customers as well as reduce labor costs. Other partners include Pro-Tech Inc. which is RoboServer's supplier for outdoor kiosks. Currently, the very popular two-side "Assisted Server CT-MY1" is manufactured by Team Research and RoboServer holds the licensing rights to the "Assisted-Server CT-MY1" POS self-service units. Business owners have expressed the need to migrate customers to self-service without losing contact with them, thus, RoboServer is the first to market with the "Assisted-Server CT-MY1" to accomplish that. The "Assisted Server CT-MY1", is a natural progression from traditional POS line ordering to self-service with the latest version of the "Assisted-Server" referred to as the "3-N-1 POS Self-Server" as it operates as a stand along kiosk, or a Self-Service unit where counter helpers can interact and be part of the ordering process, or strictly as a POS where the counter helper orders and uses as a POS. All three of these modes of operation have the ability to take credit/debit cards or with attendants input, the customers can pay with cash.

RoboServer has installed two (2) of its pilot self-serve units in two (2) different fast-food franchisees, with the first installation at Angelo's Burgers in Encinitas, CA, and the second installation at Dairy Queen in Oceanside, CA. The Angelo's Burgers installation was completed in the fall of 2005, and the Dairy Queen in the spring of 2006. Due to on-going maintenance issues at Angelo's Burgers with the kitchen staff and electrical infrastructure, RoboServer removed the kiosks in the fall of 2007. RoboServer has no plans of reinstalling the kiosk until the maintenance issues are worked out with the staff. Since the installation of the pilot self-serve free-standing kiosk in Dairy Queen, RoboServer has installed a 2nd model, a counter-top self-serve unit in the fall of 2006. RoboServer will be installing the "Assisted Server" for a pilot test in the Oceanside DQ in the 2nd or 3rd quarter of 2008.

RoboServer created two new divisions, iOrder and LineBuster during the fall of 2007 to facilitate the software programming and manufacturing of the hardware or kiosks whether free standing, wall mounted, or counter-top. iOrder provides interactive self-service ordering software for the restaurant and fast-food industry, and develops custom interfaces and systems for a variety of specialized kiosk applications. iOrder offers software for the following industries; restaurants, payment systems, theater, sports and entertainment ticketing and informational systems. LineBuster is the division that provides the kiosk solutions or the hardware which is configured to handle restaurant, theatre, financial and informational applications. The hardware-kiosks are free-standing floor units, wall mounted, and counter-top units.

RoboServer has created a new product line and revenue center, RoboServer Easy Pay. This newly created division of RoboServer Systems offers a portfolio of customized integrated software applications. Examples include the processing of payments for utilities (water, electricity, and natural gas bills), franchise or property taxes, parking or speeding tickets, and many other opportunities for self-service payment processing. RoboServer Easy Pay is fully compatible with RoboServer stand-alone touch-screen kiosk models or RoboServer's innovative Assisted-Server Dual Screen counter-top model. The software application is very intuitive and fluid to provide the customer with a complete and satisfactory transaction while reducing costs and increasing productivity for the owner, whether private or governmental.

BizAuctions has established itself as a leader within the eBay marketplace through its online auctions of well known name brand merchandise. Our designation on eBay as a Power-Seller ranks us amongst the most successful leaders on eBay in terms of sales and customer satisfaction. With a worldwide audience of approximately 250 million registered users, eBay provides us a well known and established forum to market and sell our merchandise for top dollar in a competitive bidding format.

Our strategy is that of the most basic of economic principles: Buy low and sell high. We have contracted with retailers that are leaders in their industry to purchase salvaged merchandise at a discount and sell for a profit on eBay. This salvaged merchandise is generally overstock inventory, display models, and customer returns. We sell everything from quality home goods and brand name clothes to high-tech electronics. We list the merchandise through our own proprietary software which is fully integrated and compliant with eBay. Once an auction ends, payment is collected via PayPal or credit card. We have our own designated Account Executives with both eBay and PayPal to help us achieve our highest potential.

Our sales volume and revenue has increased significantly since inception as we have capitalized on the constant demand of a loyal and growing customer base. Our customers are excited to be able to purchase top of the line merchandise at a discount from retail prices. It is a winning combination that keeps us well positioned in the marketplace.

BizAuctions operates out of San Diego, CA. We are currently providing liquidation services to retailers in California, Arizona, and Colorado, and in the process of expanding into other states. Over the past 2 years, we have created and refined an efficient business model that will allow for expansion and growth in the years ahead. The current operational capacity has the ability to handle much more business that is limited only to our purchasing power. Our goal is to have operations strategically placed throughout the U.S. to accommodate our growth and demand for our products and services. For more information, please see www.bizauctions.com.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Results of Operations

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and notes thereto included in our annual report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, and should further be read in conjunction with the financial statements included in this report. Comparisons made between reporting periods herein are for the six-month period ending June 30, 2008 as compared to the same period in 2007.

Revenues

Revenues for the 2nd Qtr. ended June 30, 2008, were $907,316 compared to $453,841 for the same period ended June 30, 2007. This represented an increase of $453,475 or 99.9% from June 30, 2007 to June 30, 2008. The increase in revenues is attributed to the increase of commercial liquidation accounts of its majority owned subsidiary, BizAuctions.

Expenses

Operating expenses for the 2nd Qtr. ended June 30, 2008 and June 30, 2007, were $664,066, and $851,828, respectively. This is a decrease of $187,762, and is mainly attributed to a decrease in consultant expenses of $244,490 for the period ended June 30, 2008.

The Company's expenses for the second quarter ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the same period in 2007, are set forth below:

Expenses	2008	2007
General and Administrative	168,253	168,306
Consulting	279,070	523,560
Employee Salaries and Bonuses	128,245	107,949
Interest Expense	53,399	102,842
Legal and Professional	75,169	33,291
Depreciation and amortization	13,329	18,722
Total Expenses	717,735	954,670

The decrease in these expenses for the three months ended, June 30, 2008, as related to the same period for 2007, is due mainly to the increased operations of the Company's subsidiaries. Revenues increased significantly for the quarter ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the same period in 2007, due to the increased operations of its subsidiaries.

The decrease in consulting expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the same period in 2007, is primarily attributed to less utilization of outside consultants during the period.

The decrease in interest expense for the three months ended June 30, 2008, as compared to the same period in 2007, is due to a one time charge for interest expense during the same period in 2007.

Operating Loss

The Company's operating loss decreased to $540,281 in 2008 from $964,455 in 2007. The decrease in operating loss is attributed to an increase in revenues and a decrease in General and Administrative and consulting expenses.

Net Loss

The Company's net loss decreased to $403,769 in 2008 as compared to a net loss of $567,659 in 2007. The decrease in net loss is attributed to an increase in operations, sales, and gross profits for the quarter.

During the period ended June 30, 2008 the Company sold its interests in VoIPCOM USA, Inc. in the amount of $200,000. The Company had recorded good will and expenses in the amount of $99,879, resulting in a loss of $5,964 on the sale after legal, professional fees, and commissions in the amount of $106,085 were recorded and paid upon the closing.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's net cash used in operating activities for the six months ended June 30, 2008 decreased to $222,674 as compared to $419,388 for the same period in 2007. This decrease is mainly attributable to an increase in the amount of stock used to pay expenses of $1,279,439 for the six months ended June 30, 2008 as compared to $936,846 for the six months ended June 30, 2007.

The Company's cash flow used in investing activities was $9,176 during the six months ended June 30, 2008, as compared to $13,402 for the same period in 2007. The decrease is due to purchase of fixed assets.

The Company's cash flow provided by financing activities was $258,764 during the six months ended, June 30, 2008, as compared to $640,289 for the same period in 2007. This decrease is due to a net receipt of cash received from subscription agreements during the same period in 2007.

The Company has relied upon its chief executive officer for its capital requirements and liquidity. The Company's recurring losses, lack of cash flow, and lack of cash on hand raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans with respect to these matters include raising additional working capital through equity or debt financing and acquisitions of ongoing concerns, which generate profits, ultimately allowing the Company to achieve consistent profitable operations. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

We do not participate in transactions that generate relationships with unconsolidated entities or financial partnerships, such as entities often referred to as structure finance or special purpose entities ("SPEs"), which would have been established for the purpose of facilitating off-balance sheet arrangements or other contractually narrow or limited purposes as part of our ongoing business. As of June 30, 2008, we were not involved in any unconsolidated SPE transactions.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In February 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 155, Accounting for Certain Hybrid Financial Instruments (“SFAS No. 155”), which amends Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities (“SFAS No. 133”) and Statement of Financial Accounting Standards

No. 140, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities (“SFAS No. 140”). SFAS No. 155 permits fair value measurement for any hybrid financial instrument that contains an embedded derivative that otherwise would require bifurcation, establishes a requirement to evaluate interests in securitized financial assets to identify interests that are freestanding derivatives or hybrid financial instruments containing embedded derivatives. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS 155 to have a material impact on the consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, “Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes—an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109” (FIN 48), which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions. This Interpretation requires that we recognize in our financial statements the benefit of a tax position if that position is more likely than not of being sustained on audit, based on the technical merits of the position. The provision’s of FIN 48 become effective as of the beginning of our 2008 fiscal year, with the cumulative effect of the change in accounting principle record as an adjustment to opening retained earnings. We do not expect the adoption of FIN 48 to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS NO. 157 “Fair Value Measurements”. SFAS No. 157 defined fair values established a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles and expand disclosure about fair value in generally accepted accounting principles and expands disclosure about fair values. This statement is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within these fiscal years. Management believes that the adoption of SFAS No. 157 will not have a material impact on the consolidated financial results of the Company.

In September 2006, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued State Accounting Bulletin No. 108, “Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements when Quantifying Misstatements in Current Year Financial Statements”, (SAB 108), which addresses how to quantify the effect of financial statement errors. The provisions of SAB 108 become effective as of the year ended 2007, our fiscal year. We do not expect the adoption of SAB 108 to have a significant impact on the financial statements.

SFAS No. 141(R). In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141 (Revised 2007), Business Combinations. SFAS No. 141(R) will significantly change the accounting for business combinations. Under SFAS No. 141(R), an acquiring entity will be required to recognize all the assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a transaction at the acquisition-date fair value with limited exceptions. It also amends the accounting treatment for certain specific items including acquisition costs and non controlling minority interests and includes a substantial number of new disclosure requirements. SFAS No. 141(R) applies prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after January 1, 2009. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that the SFAS No. 141(R) will have on its financial statements.

SFAS No. 160. In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 160, "Non controlling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements" - An Amendment of ARB No. 51. SFAS No. 160 establishes new accounting and reporting standards for the non controlling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. Specifically, this statement requires the recognition of a non controlling interest (minority interest) as equity in the consolidated financial statements and separate from the parent's equity. The amount of net income attributable to the non controlling interest will be included in consolidated net income on the face of the income statement. SFAS No. 160 also includes expanded disclosure requirements regarding the interests of the parent and its non controlling interest. SFAS No. 160 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods beginning after January 1, 2009. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that the SFAS No. 160 will have on its financial statements.

SFAS No. 161. In March 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 161, "Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities-an amendment of FASB Statement No. 133" ("FAS 161"). FAS 161 changes the disclosure requirements for derivative instruments and hedging activities. Entities are required to provide enhanced disclosures about (a) how and why an entity uses derivative instruments, (b) how derivative instruments and related hedged items are accounted for under Statement 133 and its related interpretations, and (c) how derivative instruments and related hedged items affect an entity's financial position, financial performance, and cash flows. The guidance in FAS 161 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after November 15, 2008, with early application encouraged. This Statement encourages, but does not require, comparative disclosures for earlier periods at initial adoption. The Company is currently assessing the impact of FAS 161.

ITEM 3.

CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act. Internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of an issuer's financial statements for external purposes in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). Internal control over financial reporting includes policies and procedures that:

- °Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transaction and dispositions of an issuer's assets; and
- °Provide reasonable assurances that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP, and that an issuer's receipts and expenditure are being made only in accordance with authorizations of its management and directors; and
- °Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisitions, use or disposition of an issuer's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, the application of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods is subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

As required by Rule 13a-15(c) promulgated under the Exchange Act, our management, with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007. Management's assessment was based on criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission in Internal Control—Integrated Framework ("COSO"). Our assessment did not identify deficiencies that were determined to be significant deficiencies in internal control.

A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the initiation, authorization, and recording, processing or reporting of reliable financial data. Since there were significant deficiencies in our assessment, management concluded that our internal control over financial reporting was effective as of June 30, 2008, and December 31, 2007.

Remediation Plan

We are including information with respect to our internal control over financial reporting for the period subsequent to the June 30, 2008, and the December 31, 2007 periods in order to provide readers with a current understanding of the identified significant deficiencies, as well as how they were being addressed in our remediation plan.

Subsequent to June 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007 period, we had undertaken, extensive work to remediate the significant deficiencies identified in our internal control over financial reporting, including specific remediation initiatives as described below. The implementation of these initiatives was a priority for us in fiscal year 2006, 2007, and continues to be a priority in fiscal 2008. We had begun implementing the actions described below with respect to the identified significant deficiencies and had these deficiencies corrected by the year-end December 31, 2007;

Inadequate staffing. We have focused intensive efforts on improving the overall level of our staffing in a number of finance and accounting areas related to the significant deficiencies.

Ineffective Controls related to the Entering of Transactions into the General Ledger, Preparation of Certain Account Analyses, Account Summaries, and Account Reconciliations.

As a result of the adjustments made with respect to certain balance sheet accounts for the fiscal year-ended December 31, 2006, we determined a more detailed review for these accounts was necessary in connection with our quarterly and annual financial reporting process. The Company developed a more intensive financial close process to ensure a thorough review of entering transactions into the general ledger is performed, supporting schedules are adequately prepared and/or reviewed, and that they included adequate supporting documentation.
