REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the consolidated financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. The Company's Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee currently consists of Directors Paul C. Schorr, III, Thomas M. Hontzas, Jesse M. Harrington, III and A. Jones Yorke (Chair). All members of the Audit Committee meet the independence standards of the NASD's listing requirements. The Board of Directors has determined that A. Jones Yorke is an audit committee financial expert as defined by Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee meets periodically with the Company's independent public accountants and members of management to review the Company's accounting policies. It also reviews the scope and adequacy of the independent accountants' audit of the Company's annual consolidated financial statements. The Audit Committee recommends in advance the firm of independent public accountants to be retained by the Company to provide audit and audit related services. In addition, the Chair of the Audit Committee pre-approves any engagement of accountants to provide non-audit services and all such engagements are reviewed and ratified by the Audit Committee at its next meeting. In 2003, the Audit Committee held telephonic conferences and met ten times.

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company to be set forth in the Company's 2003 Annual Report to Stockholders and the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 with management of the Company. The Audit Committee also discussed with KPMG LLP, independent accountants for the Company who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited consolidated financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended. The Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 includes, among other items, matters relating to the conduct of an audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements under generally accepted auditing standards.

The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from KPMG LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committee, has considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the auditors' independence, and has discussed with KPMG LLP their independence from the Company.

In reliance on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for 2003 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

KPMG LLP independent auditors' reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the fiscal 2002 audit report of KPMG LLP dated February 28, 2003, referred to the change in the Company's method of accounting for goodwill effective January 1, 2002, as required by the Company's adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 142. Representatives of KPMG LLP and Grant Thornton LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will be given an opportunity to make any statements they desire and will also be available to respond to questions.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Company has a Compensation Committee, which is responsible for reviewing and recommending to the Board of Directors of the Company annually the compensation to be paid to the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Compensation Committee consists of Directors Pat Vezertis, Chairperson, William E. Proffitt and Stanley L. Bozeman, Jr. All members of the Compensation Committee are independent under the NASD's listing requirements. The Committee met three times in 2003 and held two telephonic conferences.

Edgar Filing: WESTERN SIZZLIN CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Committee functions include:

Determining the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer;

Overseeing all other executive officers' compensation, including salary and bonus payments, as determined by the Chief Executive Officer.

Decisions with respect to executive compensation are made by the Compensation Committee on an individual basis based upon a number of factors, including the provisions of any existing employment contract with an executive officer, evaluation of the executive officer's performance, the level of responsibility associated with the executive officer's office, recruitment requirements and the performance of the Company.

Compensation of the executive officers of the Company has historically been structured to motivate, reward and retain the executive officers consistent with the needs of the Company from time to time. The major elements of the executive officers' compensation are base salary, short-term incentive in the form of a bonus, and a long-term incentive in the form of options to purchase common stock, with an emphasis on annual bonuses and options.

The Compensation Committee reviews and establishes the base salary of the Chief Executive Officer based on independent competitive data, his leadership in establishing performance standards in the conduct of the Company's business, and its expectations as to his future contributions in directing the long-term success of the Company and its business. On July 1, 2003, the Company hired a new President and Chief Executive Officer, at a base salary of $210,000 and a performance-based bonus beginning in 2004 and an initial stock option grant of 75,000 shares.

The foregoing report is submitted by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company in accordance with requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (as amended) and the rules and regulations thereunder, and is not intended to create any contractually binding employment rights for the benefit of any employee of the Company.

All members of the Nominating Committee are independent as defined by the NASD s listing requirements. The Nominating Committee acts under a written charter, adopted by the Board of Directors, which is appended to this proxy statement. The Nominating Committee held two meetings in 2003.

Nominees are chosen for their ability to represent all of the shareholders, and for their character, judgment, fairness and overall ability. As a group, they are expected to set the appropriate policy for the Company, and to bring to the Board of Directors broad experience in business matters and an insight and awareness of the appropriate and ever-changing role that corporations should have in society. Because the advice of those facing similar problems is of particular value, executive officers of other corporations are desirable nominees.

Understanding and general acceptance of our corporate philosophy

Valid business or professional knowledge and experience, that can bear on our strategies and deliberations

Proven record of accomplishment

The Company formed a limited liability company with W & K Foods, LLC, in which William Proffitt, one of the Company's directors, is the principal. The purpose of the organization is to develop and operate a restaurant. Each member will contribute an initial capital cash contribution of $250,000. The operating agreement has been executed but the project has not yet been funded and is still in the development stage.

There are no other affiliated or related transactions between or among the Company and its Officers and Directors.

The Board of Directors has a policy that all transactions with its Officers, Directors, employees and affiliates of the Company will be approved by a majority of disinterested Directors of the Company or a special committee of the Board of Directors consisting of disinterested persons, and will be on terms no less favorable to the Company that such Directors or committee believe would be available from unrelated third parties.
