Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 18, 2005, Chiron Corporation (Chiron) entered into an amendment (Amendment No. 6), effective as of January 1, 2004, amending the Agreement dated June 11, 1998 between Chiron and Gen-Probe Incorporated (Gen-Probe) that established a strategic alliance to develop and market Nucleic Acid Testing based products for the blood screening and clinical diagnostics markets (the Agreement). Pursuant to Amendment No. 6, Chiron and Gen-Probe agreed to make certain changes and clarifications to their respective rights and obligations for revenue sharing and accounting relating to the TIGRIS instrument system with respect to blood screening products only.

On February 18, 2005, Chiron and Gen-Probe also entered into the Modified Blood Screening Instrument eSAS 2 Addendum Amending the Agreement entered into as of June 11, 1998, between Chiron and Gen-Probe, effective as of January 1, 2002 (the Addendum). Under the Addendum, Chiron and Gen-Probe have agreed upon a development plan pursuant to which Chiron plans to develop the eSAS 2 instrument. In addition, Chiron has the exclusive rights under the Addendum to manufacture and distribute the eSAS 2 instrument for use in the blood screening field, and Gen-Probe has the exclusive rights to manufacture and distribute the eSAS 2 instrument for use in the clinical diagnostics field. Gen-Probe also has the right under the Addendum to acquire from Chiron the exclusive rights to manufacture and distribute the eSAS 2 instrument in all fields upon the termination or expiration of the Addendum. The Addendum also sets forth the respective revenue sharing obligations of the parties for the distribution of the eSAS 2 instrument. The Addendum will expire upon the later of the end of the initial term of the Agreement or five years after the first commercial sale of the last new product developed during the initial term of the Agreement. Either party may terminate the Addendum for material breach by written notice to the other party of an uncured material breach by the other party. Chiron may terminate the Addendum at any time.
