PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is being furnished in connection with the solicitation of Proxies by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of Security Capital Corporation (the Company) to be used at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Monday, October 24, 2005, and at any adjournment thereof (the Annual Meeting), for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Company's Annual Report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 accompanies this Proxy Statement. This Proxy Statement and accompanying materials are expected to be first sent or given to stockholders of the Company on or about September 26, 2005.

The close of business on September 9, 2005 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of the stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Only holders of record as of that date of shares of the Company's Common Stock, $0.01 par value per share (the Common Stock), and of the Company's Class A Common Stock, $0.01 par value per share (the Class A Common Stock), are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. The Common Stock and the Class A Common Stock are sometimes collectively referred to herein as the Common Equity.

Each share of the Common Stock or the Class A Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote per share on each matter presented to the stockholders for approval at the Annual Meeting. On September 9, 2005, there were 380 shares of the Common Stock and 6,770,587 shares of the Class A Common Stock, or a total of 6,770,967 shares of the Common Equity, outstanding and entitled to vote.

Execution of a Proxy by a stockholder will not affect such stockholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and to vote in person. Any stockholder who executes a Proxy has a right to revoke it at any time before it is voted by advising A. George Gebauer, Vice Chairman of the Board and Secretary of the Company, in writing of such revocation, by executing a later-dated Proxy which is presented to the Company at or prior to the Annual Meeting, or by appearing at the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a Proxy. The Board of Directors has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of Proxies.

The presence, in person or by Proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of the Common Equity entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will constitute a quorum. Assuming a quorum, the seven nominees receiving a plurality of the votes of the shares of the Common Equity present in person or by Proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors will be elected as directors.

With regard to the election of directors, votes may be cast in favor or withheld. Votes that are withheld and broker non-votes, if any, will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, but will have no effect on the election of directors.

Unless specified otherwise, the Proxies will be voted for the election of all the nominees to serve as directors of the Company until the next annual meeting and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. In the discretion of the Proxy holders, the Proxies will also be voted for or against such other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting. Management is not aware of any other matters to be presented for action at the Annual Meeting.

The Company's executive office is located at Eight Greenwich Office Park, Third Floor, Greenwich, Connecticut 06831-5149, and the Company's telephone number is (203) 625-0770.

Except as otherwise indicated, each person is believed to exercise sole voting and dispositive power over the shares reported.

Fitzgerald is the sole stockholder and director and A. George Gebauer and William R. Schlueter are officers; (b) FGS, Inc., a Delaware corporation (FGS), of which Mr. Fitzgerald is the controlling stockholder and Messrs. Fitzgerald and Gebauer are executive officers; and (c) CP Acquisition, L.P. No. 1, a Delaware limited partnership (CPI). By virtue of their status as general partners of CPI, each of Capital Partners, Inc., FGS and FGS Partners may be deemed to own beneficially all of the shares of the Class A Common Stock owned of record by CPI.

(2) Mr. Fitzgerald may be deemed to own beneficially the 513,945 shares of the Class A Common Stock owned of record by him, the 4,455,672 shares of the Class A Common Stock owned of record by CPI and the 527,689 shares of the Class A Common Stock and the 128 shares of the Common Stock owned of record by FGS. Mr. Fitzgerald has shared authority to vote and dispose of the FGS-owned shares of the Class A Common Stock and the Common Stock and disclaims beneficial ownership of such FGS-owned shares for all other purposes. Mr. Gebauer is also a stockholder, officer and director of FGS and an officer of Capital Partners, Inc., but he disclaims beneficial ownership of shares of the Class A Common Stock and the Common Stock owned of record by such corporations for any purpose. The ownership noted above excludes the 82,453 shares of Class A Common Stock owned by the Fitzgerald Trust (of which Mr. Fitzgerald's brother is the trustee and Mr. Fitzgerald's minor children are sole beneficiaries), as to which beneficial ownership is disclaimed for all purposes.

(3) The amounts shown in the Acquirable Within 60 Days column relate to options issued pursuant to the Company's 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the Plan).

Vote Required for Approval

The seven nominees receiving a plurality of the votes of the shares of the Common Equity present in person or by Proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors will be elected as directors.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE SEVEN NOMINEES AS DIRECTORS.

Composition of the Board; Independence

The Board of Directors has determined that four of the nominees for election as directors (Messrs. Haskell, Kelley, Kelly and Williams) are independent directors as defined in Section 121A of the listing standards of the American Stock Exchange (the "AMEX"), and that three of the nominees are not independent directors. Accordingly, a majority of the Company's Board is comprised of independent directors as defined in the AMEX listing standards.

Meetings and Committees of the Board; Nominating Process

The Board of Directors held 11 meetings and acted by written consent six times during the year ended December 31, 2004. Each of the directors, other than Mr. Williams, who was appointed effective December 23, 2004, attended at least 75% of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board and the committees on which such director served. The Company encourages, but does not require, all of its directors to attend the annual meeting. All of the directors then in office attended last year's annual meeting.

The Board has a Compensation Committee and an Audit Committee. The Board does not have a nominating committee. The Company is a controlled company as such term is defined in Section 801(a) of the AMEX listing standards due to the ownership of a majority of the outstanding Common Equity by CPI. As a controlled company, the Company is not subject to the AMEX rules requiring (i) Board of Director nominees to be selected, or recommended for the Board's selection, by either a nominating committee comprised solely of independent directors or by a majority of the independent directors on the Board, and (ii) each AMEX-listed company to have a formal written charter or Board resolutions addressing the nominating process. The Board is not particularly large and believes it is sufficient to rely on the expertise of the Board as a whole in choosing its director candidates. Each of the directors is also highly experienced and knowledgeable in board and business affairs. The nominees for election as directors named in this Proxy Statement were unanimously recommended by the full Board for submission to the stockholders as the Board's nominees. Should the Company or the Board determine in the future that additional or other Board nominees are advisable, it is likely that a variety of sources would be consulted for possible candidates, including the directors of the Company, various advisors to the Company and possibly one or more director search firms. Appropriate consideration also would be given to nominees for director suggested by stockholders of the Company. The process by which a stockholder of the Company may suggest a nominee for director of the Company can be found under "Stockholder Communications with the Board."

Code of Conduct

The Company adopted a Code of Conduct in September 2003, as amended in June 2004. All of the Company's employees and officers (including senior executive, financial and accounting officers) are held accountable for adherence to the Company's Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct is intended to promote compliance with applicable governmental laws and regulations and help ensure adherence to the highest ethical standards of conduct. The Code of Conduct covers a variety of areas, including violations of law, conflicts of interest, fair dealing, proper use of Company assets, delegation of authority, confidentiality and handling of financial information. Employees have an obligation to promptly report any known or suspected violation of the Code of Conduct, and retaliation is prohibited. Additionally, in the event of an amendment or waiver from the Code of Conduct involving the conduct of an officer or Board member, appropriate disclosure will be made to the Company's stockholders to the extent required by listing standards or any other regulation.

A copy of the Code of Conduct can be found in its entirety on the Company's website at www.securitycapitalcorporation.com in the Company Policies section, or may be obtained without charge upon request in writing to Security Capital Corporation, c/o Corporate Secretary, Eight Greenwich Office Park, Third Floor, Greenwich, Connecticut 06831-5149.

Compensation Committee

The Board of Directors has a Compensation Committee whose charge is to develop and make recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to compensation for key employees of the Company and to administer the Plan. The members of the Compensation Committee are Samuel B. Fortenbaugh III and Edward W. Kelley. Mr. Kelley is an independent director as defined in the AMEX listing standards, and Mr. Fortenbaugh is not. As a controlled company, the Company is not subject to the AMEX rules with respect to executive compensation being determined, or recommended to the Board for determination, either by a Compensation Committee comprised solely of independent directors or by a majority of the independent directors on the Board. The Compensation Committee held eight meetings during the year ended December 31, 2004.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is responsible for developing and making recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to the Company's compensation policies and administering the Plan. The Plan was put in place so that the Company could award stock options and other long-term incentives to its executive officers and other key personnel to align their interests with those of the Company's long-term investors and to help attract, retain and motivate these persons.

In 2004 and prior years, Capital Partners, Inc., a corporation controlled by Mr. Fitzgerald, was paid a management advisory services fee by the Company pursuant to a Management Advisory Services agreement (the "MAS Agreement", as discussed in "Certain Relationships and Related-Party Transactions" in this Proxy Statement). Because all Company executive officers are paid compensation by Capital Partners, Inc., the Company did not directly pay any cash compensation to any executive officer for service as an officer of the Company in 2004. However, at the request of the Compensation Committee, the Company's management performed an analysis of the time spent by the Company's executive officers during the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 to ascertain the portion of each executive officer's salary and bonus that was paid to him by Capital Partners, Inc. allocable to the services performed by him as an executive officer of the Company.

The Compensation Committee is authorized to take the following actions with respect to any future award grants and the administration of the Plan on an ongoing basis:

- (i) to select each person to whom awards may be granted;
- (ii) to determine the type or types of awards to be granted to each such person;

- (iii) to determine the number of awards to be granted, the number of shares of stock to which an award will relate, the terms and conditions of any award and all other matters to be determined in connection with an award;
- (iv) to determine whether, to what extent and under what circumstances an award may be settled, canceled, forfeited or surrendered;
- (v) to determine whether, to what extent and under what circumstances cash, stock, other awards or other property payable with respect to an award will be deferred;
- (vi) to determine the restrictions, if any, to which stock received upon exercise or settlement of an award will be subject;
- (vii) to prescribe the form of each award agreement, which need not be identical for each participant;
- (viii) to adopt, amend, suspend, waive and rescind such rules and regulations and appoint such agents as the Committee may deem necessary or advisable to administer the Plan; and
- (ix) to make all other decisions and determinations as may be required under the terms of the Plan or as the Committee may deem necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan.

The options granted under the Plan provide value to the recipients only if and when the market price of the Class A Common Stock increases above the option exercise price. To that end, there is an ongoing review by the Compensation Committee of the market price of the Class A Common Stock and the exercise price of options. It is the Compensation Committee's goal to preserve this incentive as an effective tool in attracting, retaining and motivating key personnel and to evaluate the need to add other components to an executive's compensation package if it feels it is warranted at some future date. The Company did not grant any other options under the Plan to any executive officer in 2004, 2003 or 2002.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) generally disallows a public company's deduction for compensation to any one employee in excess of $1 million per year unless the compensation is pursuant to a plan approved by the public company's stockholders. The Compensation Committee believes that the Plan will not be adversely impacted by Section 162(m) of the Code.

Chief Executive Officer

As mentioned above, because all of the Company's executive officers are paid compensation by Capital Partners, Inc. rather than by the Company, the Company did not pay Mr. Fitzgerald any direct cash compensation during 2004. However, the portion of his Capital Partners, Inc. salary and bonus set forth in the Summary Compensation Table was determined through an analysis performed by Company management to be allocable to services performed by him as the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee has the responsibility for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors and the direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm (independent auditors). The Audit Committee selects the independent auditors, consults with the independent auditors and with management with regard to the adequacy of the Company's internal control over financial reporting, considers any non-audit functions to be performed by the independent auditors and carries out such activities related to the financial statements of the Company as the Board of Directors shall from time to time request. The members of the Audit Committee are M. Paul Kelly, Edward W. Kelley, Jr. and, since December 23, 2004, Robert M. Williams Sr., all of whom are independent, as defined in Section 121A of the AMEX listing standards and Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Board has determined that M. Paul Kelly is an audit committee financial expert, as defined by applicable Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. The Audit Committee held nine meetings and acted by written consent once during the year ended December 31, 2004. The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board of Directors.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditors

The Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit, audit-related and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditors. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. The Audit Committee may also pre-approve particular services on a case-by-case basis. The independent auditors are required to periodically report to the Audit Committee regarding the extent of services provided by the independent auditors in accordance with such pre-approval. The Audit Committee may also delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. Such member or members must report any decisions to the Audit Committee at the next scheduled meeting.

Report of the Audit Committee

Management has the primary responsibility for the Company's financial statements being prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Additionally, management has responsibility for the Company's financial reporting process as well as the related system of internal control over financial reporting. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for auditing the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board and for issuing an opinion regarding compliance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. The Audit Committee has the responsibility for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors and the direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the independent auditors.

The past 12 months have been extremely busy for the Audit Committee. As we will discuss below, we oversaw an internal independent investigation into related-party transactions and conflicts of interest, oversaw the restatement of the Company's previously filed financial statements with respect to the application of lease and leasehold improvements accounting standards and selected new independent auditors to replace Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young), who notified us that they did not wish to stand for re-appointment for the 2005 audit engagement.

In July 2004, management notified us that they discovered that CompManagement Inc. (CMI) and CompManagement Health Systems, Inc. (CHS), and collectively with CMI, the CMI Companies), wholly owned subsidiaries of WC, may have engaged in potential related-party transactions with an entity that was controlled by certain officers of the CMI Companies (CMI Management). Management launched a review of the matter by making additional inquiries and performing supplemental procedures (the Supplemental Procedures). The Supplemental Procedures revealed that certain members of CMI Management owned, operated and controlled two entities that had certain unauthorized and undisclosed transactional, operational and financial relationships with the CMI Companies. The Supplemental Procedures also revealed that the unauthorized and undisclosed transactional, operational and financial relationships with the CMI Companies resulted in conflicts of interest, but no fraud or financial impropriety that would indicate the Company's historical financial statements were misstated. CMI Management had either previously divested its controlling interest or, as a result of the Supplemental Procedures, divested its controlling interest, in each of these entities.

Nevertheless, in November 2004, we initiated our own internal independent investigation (the Investigation) into the above-described related-party transactions and conflicts of interest designed to investigate those matters previously discovered by management, to search for other instances of potential related-party transactions or conflicts of interest and to determine the impact, if any, of such matters on the Company's previously issued financial statements. To assist us in the Investigation, we retained independent legal counsel and forensic accounting experts.

The Investigation was completed in March 2005. As a result of the findings of the Investigation, we recommended to the Company's Board of Directors that the CEO and CFO/General Counsel of the CMI Companies be terminated for cause. The total cost of the Supplemental Procedures and Investigation was $3 million. In addition, the Company saw a significant increase in auditing cost as our then-current independent auditors significantly increased their audit procedures. We estimate that the additional auditing cost incurred as a result of the Investigation was approximately $1 million, which is in addition to the $3 million mentioned above. Apart from these costs, we do not believe that the issues uncovered were material to the Company's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

In February 2005, the Office of the Chief Accountant of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) issued a letter to the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants expressing its views regarding certain lease accounting issues and their application under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 13, Accounting for Leases and other authoritative pronouncements. In light of this letter, management initiated a review of its accounting for leases and leasehold improvements and determined that the then-current accounting practices for leases and leasehold improvements were incorrect in our Employer Cost Containment and Health Services segment and at our corporate headquarters. Accordingly, management conducted an in-depth review of the Company's lease accounting to determine the magnitude of the potential error on the financial statements. Based on the results of that review, we determined that the previously issued financial statements should no longer be relied upon and should therefore be restated in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 (the 2004 Form 10-K).

Due to the Investigation, the restatement, and increased auditing procedures, the Company did not file its 2004 Form 10-K until June 28, 2005. The late filing of the 2004 Form 10-K naturally caused a delay in the filing of the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2005 (the First Quarter 10-Q) and June 30, 2005 (the Second Quarter 10-Q). The First Quarter 10-Q was filed on September 1, 2005 and the Second Quarter 10-Q was filed on September 16, 2005. Management has informed us that the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2005 will be timely filed.

On April 15, 2005, Ernst & Young notified us that they did not wish to stand for re-appointment as the Company's independent auditors after completion of the 2004 annual audit. We worked closely with management to interview and meet with prospective independent registered public accounting firms, and ultimately selected McGladrey & Pullen, LLP (McGladrey) as the Company's independent auditors for 2005. McGladrey accepted the appointment on July 28, 2005.

The Audit Committee has obtained from the Company's independent auditors a formal written statement describing all relationships between the independent auditors and the Company that might bear on their independence required by Independence Standards Board No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. In accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Committee pre-approved all audit and non-audit services performed by the independent auditors.

In discharging its oversight responsibility, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent auditors throughout 2004 and through the date of this report. Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent auditors. INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors selected Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) as the independent auditors of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. On April 15, 2005, Ernst & Young notified the Chairman of the Audit Committee that it declined to stand for re-appointment as the Company's independent auditors after completion of the 2004 annual audit. Ernst & Young ceased to be the Company's independent auditors on June 28, 2005.

During the two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period preceding the termination of Ernst & Young's engagement on June 28, 2005, there were no disagreements between the Company and Ernst & Young on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports. In a letter provided to the Company's Audit Committee and management, Ernst & Young stated that, during its audit, it noted various matters involving internal control over financial reporting and its design and operation that it considered to be a material weakness in the Company's year-end close process. Ernst & Young's reports on the Company's financial statements for the past two years did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor were such reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

On July 25, 2005, the Audit Committee selected McGladrey to audit and report on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 and to perform a review of the Company's interim financial information for each of the quarterly interim periods of 2005. Prior to the engagement of McGladrey, the Company had not consulted with McGladrey during its two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period from January 1 to July 25, 2005 on any matter regarding: (a) the application of accounting principles to a specified completed or proposed transaction; (b) the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements; or (c) any matter that was the subject of either a disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of SEC Regulation S-K) or a reportable event (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).

One or more representatives of McGladrey are expected to be available at the Annual Meeting to respond to appropriate questions. They will have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FEES

In addition to retaining Ernst & Young to audit the consolidated financial statements for 2004 and 2003, the Company and its subsidiaries retained Ernst & Young to provide audit-related and tax services in 2004 and 2003. The aggregate fees for professional services by Ernst & Young in 2004 and 2003 were as follows:

Also, in 2004, the Company was charged $732,000 for services and procedures relating to the Investigation and an additional $140,000 for services rendered for the annual audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements for 2003. In 2003, the Company incurred an additional $89,000 for services rendered for the annual audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements for 2002.

Audit-Related Fees: The Company was charged $170,000 in 2003 for fees associated with the audit for the acquisition of Octagon Risk Services, Inc.

Tax Fees: The Company was charged $120,000 and $90,000 for tax compliance services for the Company and its subsidiaries for 2004 and 2003, respectively. The Company was charged $30,000 in 2004 and $326,000 in 2003 for specific subsidiary tax advice.

All Other Fees: The aggregate fees for services not included above were $5,000 for subscriptions to a proprietary online database in 2003.

Such officers, directors and 10% stockholders of the Company are also required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file.

Based solely on the Company's review of the copies of the reports furnished by such persons, the Company believes that, for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, officers, directors and 10% stockholders filed all required Section 16(a) reports on a timely basis.
