PART III

NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed with the prescribed time period. (Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

Monster Worldwide, Inc. (the Company) will not file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006 by the required filing date and does not currently expect that it will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25. The Company plans to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006 as soon as practicable.

As previously announced, a committee of independent directors of the Board of Directors (the Special Committee) of the Company, with the assistance of independent legal counsel, is conducting an independent investigation to review the Company's historical stock option grant practices and related accounting. At this time, the Special Committee has not completed its assessment and is continuing its review. Accordingly, the Company is not in a position to quantify the extent or magnitude of the impact, if any, of the results of the investigation on the Company's historical financial statements nor is it in a position to identify the period(s) that may be affected. The investigation currently includes an examination of option grants that could affect the historical financial statements of all of the fiscal years and fiscal quarters contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Company is working with the Special Committee to determine whether a restatement will be required and, if so, the extent of any such a restatement and the periods affected. Any stock-based compensation charges incurred as a result of a potential restatement would have the likely effect of decreasing reported income from continuing operations or increasing reported loss from continuing operations; decreasing reported income from discontinued operations or increasing reported loss from discontinued operations; decreasing reported net income or increasing reported net loss; and increasing the reported retained deficit figures contained in the Company's historical financial statements. Additional balance sheet accounts may also be affected.

The Company has been informed by the Special Committee and its counsel that the investigation is proceeding expeditiously but they are not in a position to state when a conclusion with respect to the necessity of a restatement will be reached. As the investigation has not yet been concluded, the Company will delay the filing of its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006. As soon as practicable after a definitive conclusion is reached by the Special Committee, the Company will file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006.

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that involve risks and uncertainties related to the investigation by the Special Committee, a potential restatement of the Company's financial statements, the filing of a delinquent report on Form 10-Q and the finalization of the Company's results for the second quarter of fiscal year 2006. These statements are based on management's current expectations and are subject to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. The Company's actual results may differ materially from the results predicted or from any other forward-looking statements made by, or on behalf of, the Company, and reported results should not be considered as an indication of future performance. Potential risks and uncertainties include, among other things: (1) the timing of completion of the Special Committee's investigation, (ii) the Company's review, restatement and filing of its amended historical financial statements, if any, and becoming current in the Company's other required SEC periodic reporting obligations; (2) costs incurred by the Company in connection with the Special Committee's investigation, the SEC investigation and the U.S. Attorney's investigation; (3) the nature and scope of the ongoing SEC investigation and U.S. Attorney's investigation; (4) the effect of the shareholder litigation; and (5) the additional risks and important factors described in the Company's SEC reports, including the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, which is available at the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>. All of the information in this Form 12b-25 is made as of August 8, 2006, and the Company undertakes no duty to update this information.
