ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On August 8, 2008, Force Protection, Inc. was awarded through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Force Protection Industries, Inc., a contract modification under its contract with the U.S. Marine Corps for the Mine Resistant Ambush Protected (MRAP) Program. The total consideration under this undefinitized contract modification is approximately $69.5 million for the provision of service and support, including spare parts, for MRAP vehicles. A portion of the work under this contract modification may be performed by General Dynamics Land Systems, Inc. (GDLS) pursuant to the terms of the workshare allocation set forth in the agreement dated December 15, 2006 between Force Protection, Inc. and GDLS, whereby GDLS is entitled to perform approximately 50% of the work awarded under the MRAP program. Force Protection will record all of the revenue for the MRAP contract and a corresponding expense for the work subcontracted to GDLS. The award was made pursuant to a contract between Force Protection Industries, Inc. and U.S. Marine Corps dated January 25, 2007 for the testing, production and sustainability for its MRAP vehicle program.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including, without limitation, statements concerning our business and possible or assumed future results of operations. Certain words, such as believe, may, could, will, intend, expect, anticipate, plan, and similar expressions are used to identify forward-looking statements. Undue reliance should not be placed on these forward-looking statements. Force Protection's actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements for many reasons including: its ability to raise capital when necessary; availability of parts and raw materials for its products; continued customer acceptance of its products; ongoing success of its research and development efforts; greater than expected costs; and other risks and uncertainties as may be detailed from time to time in Force Protection's public announcements and SEC filings. Although Force Protection believes the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, they relate only to events as of the date on which the statements are made, and Force Protection's future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements may not meet these expectations. Force Protection does not intend to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this document to conform these statements to actual results or to changes in its expectations, except as required by law.
