Business Days: Each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday that is not a day on which banking institutions in Sydney, Australia, New York, New York, or London, United Kingdom are authorized or obligated by law or executive order to close.

Business Day Convention: If any interest payment date would fall on a day that is not a Business Day, other than the interest payment date that is also the date of maturity for the notes, that interest payment date will be postponed to the following day that is a Business Day, except that if such next Business Day is in a different month, then that interest payment date will be the immediately preceding day that is a Business Day.

If the date of maturity is not a Business Day, payment of principal and interest will be made on the following day that is a Business Day and no interest will accrue for the period from and after such date of maturity.

Interest Periods:

Except as described below for the first interest period, on each interest payment date, interest will be paid or duly provided for the period commencing on and including the immediately preceding interest payment date and ending on and including the day preceding the next interest payment date. We refer to this period as an interest period. The first interest period will begin on and include January 25, 2018 and will end on and include the day preceding the first interest payment date.
