recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and the results of operations for interim are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

Item 2.Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

Plan of Operation.

The Company has created relationships with a limited number of clients. Furthermore, the Company plans on increasing its client base through advertisement and by broadening the services in which it currently provides.

Results of Operations

The Company's operations during the quarterly period ended March 31, 2000, resulted in $0 in revenue and incurred expenses of $79, stemming from costs related to sales, and also, general and administrative expenses.

Liquidity

At March 31, 2003, the Company had total current assets of $1,519 and total liabilities of $5,450. Management believes that its cash on hand of $1,519 will be sufficient to allow it to continue its operations for the next six months.

Item 3.Controls and Procedures

An evaluation was performed under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the CEO and CFO, regarding the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures within 90 days before the filing date of this quarterly report. Based on that evaluation, the Company's management, including the CEO and CFO, concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective. There have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to their evaluation.
