PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

JUNE 9, 2008

This Proxy Statement relates to the Annual Meeting of the stockholders (the Annual Meeting) of Imperial Industries, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the ACompany@) to be held at 11:00 A.M., local time, on Monday, June 9, 2008 at the law offices of Legon, Ponce & Fodiman, P. A., 1111 Brickell Avenue, Suite 2150, Miami, Florida, and at any and all postponements or adjournments thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting.

We will begin sending this Proxy Statement, the attached Notice of Annual Meeting and the accompanying Proxy Card to our stockholders who are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting on or about April 30, 2008.

Why This Proxy Statement is Being Sent

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed Proxy Card are being sent to you by our Board of Directors for the solicitation of proxies from the holders of our common stock so that the holders of common stock may vote their shares at our Annual Meeting of Stockholders. This Proxy Statement summarizes the information you need to know to vote at the Annual Meeting. If you do not wish to attend the Annual Meeting to vote your shares, you may instead complete, date, sign and return the enclosed Proxy Card to vote.

What is Being Voted on at the Annual Meeting

Our Board of Directors is asking stockholders to vote on one matter, the election of three Class I directors for a term of three years. We are not aware of any other matter that will be acted upon at the Annual Meeting.

Who may attend the Meeting

Subject to space availability, all stockholders of record on the Record Date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the Annual Meeting. Since seating is limited, admission to the Annual Meeting will be on a first come, first served basis. Registration and seating will begin at 10:30 a.m. If you attend, please note that you may be asked to present valid picture identification, such as a driver's license or passport. Cameras, recording devices and other electronic devices will not be permitted at the Annual Meeting.

Please also note that if you hold your shares in Astreet name@ (that is, through a broker or other nominee), you will need to bring a copy of a brokerage statement reflecting your stock ownership as of the Record Date and check in at the registration desk at the Annual Meeting.

Who May Vote

Stockholders who owned common stock at the close of business on April 14, 2008 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting (the ARecord Date@). On the Record Date, we had issued and outstanding 2,514,002 shares of common stock. Common stock is the only issued and outstanding class of voting stock. You do not have cumulative voting rights. You have one vote for each share of common stock that you own.

Votes Needed for a Quorum

A majority of the shares of common stock that are issued and outstanding on the Record Date must be present or voted by proxy for a quorum at the Annual Meeting. If you return your Proxy Card or attend the Annual Meeting in person, your common stock will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum exists, even if you wish to abstain from voting on any or all of the matters presented at the Annual Meeting. In determining whether a quorum exists at the Annual Meeting, all votes Afor@ or Aagainst,@ as well as abstentions will be counted. Broker non-votes will also be counted as present or represented for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present for the transaction of business. If you hold your common stock through a broker, bank or other nominee, generally the nominee may only vote the common stock which it holds for you in accordance with your instructions. We do not count abstentions or broker non-votes as Afor@ or Aagainst@ any proposal.

If a quorum is not present at the Annual Meeting, no official business can be conducted. However, if a quorum is not present or represented at the Annual Meeting, the stockholders who do attend the Annual Meeting in person or who are represented by proxy, may adjourn the Annual Meeting until a quorum is present or represented. At any adjournment where there is a quorum, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the original meeting.

How You May Vote by Proxy

A proxy is a person you appoint to vote on your behalf. Because many of our stockholders are unable to attend the Annual Meeting in person, our Board of Directors solicits proxies by mail to give each stockholder an opportunity to vote on all matters that will come before the Annual Meeting. In order to ensure that your vote will be recorded, you are urged to:

Read this Proxy Statement carefully;

Specify your choice on each matter by marking the appropriate box on the enclosed Proxy Card; and

Sign, date and return the Proxy Card in the enclosed envelope.

By signing the Proxy Card, you will be designating S. Daniel Ponce and Howard L. Ehler, Jr. as your proxies. They may act together or individually on your behalf and will have the authority to appoint a substitute to act as proxy. They will vote your shares in accordance with your directions. However, if you sign and return the Proxy Card without instructions marked on it, it will be voted FOR each of the nominees for Class I director listed on the Proxy Card.

If any other matter is validly presented at the Annual Meeting, your proxies will vote in accordance with their best judgment. We do not currently know of any other matter that will be acted on at the Annual Meeting.

How You Can Revoke Your Proxy

You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the Annual Meeting by doing any of the following:

giving written notice of its revocation to the Company,

by submission of another duly executed proxy dated after the Proxy Card to be revoked, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Your mere presence at the Annual Meeting will not revoke the prior appointment.

Vote Required For Election of Directors

Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock registered in his name on the Record Date for each matter brought before the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. Directors are elected by a plurality of votes of the holders of the common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. The three nominees for Class I director receiving the highest number of votes will be elected for the term of such directorships. A properly executed proxy marked "Withhold authority" with respect to the election of one or more directors will not be voted with respect to the director or directors indicated. However, it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

If you hold your shares in "street name" through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to some of the matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on those matters and will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval. Shares represented by such "broker non-votes" will however, be counted in determining whether there is a quorum.

Voting is Confidential

Proxy Cards, ballots and tabulations that identify individual stockholders are confidential. Only the inspectors of election and certain of our employees associated with processing Proxy Cards and counting votes have access to your Proxy Card. Additionally, all comments directed to the Company (whether written on the Proxy Card or elsewhere) remain confidential, unless you ask that your name be disclosed.

We Pay the Cost of Solicitation of Proxies

Your proxy is being solicited by our Board of Directors. We will pay all expenses associated with this proxy solicitation. Such costs include preparing, printing, assembling and mailing the Notice of Annual Meeting, the Proxy Statement and the Proxy Card, as well as all costs of soliciting proxies. We will primarily solicit proxies by mail. However, our officers, directors and regular employees may solicit by telephone, facsimile transmission, e-mail or in person. Such officers, directors and employees would not receive additional compensation. We will also request brokerage firms, nominees, custodians and fiduciaries to forward proxy materials to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such persons and we will reimburse such persons, including our transfer agent, for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in forwarding such materials. We may retain the services of a proxy solicitation firm to solicit proxies and will pay all reasonable costs associated with such firm.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Pursuant to our Certificate of Incorporation, our Board of Directors is currently divided into three classes, with one class standing for election each year for three year terms. The terms of the Class I directors are scheduled to expire at the Meeting. Accordingly, the terms of the three nominees for Class I director listed below, if elected at the Meeting, will expire at the 2011 annual meeting. The Board of Directors recommends that the Company's stockholders vote for the election of the Class I nominees. The three nominees for Class I Director receiving the greatest number of affirmative votes of the shares of Common Stock represented at the Annual Meeting will be elected as Directors. Stockholders are not entitled to cumulate their votes for the election of the Class I directors.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ITS COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors is currently divided into three classes, each class having three year terms that expire in successive years. Directors hold office until the expiration of their respective terms and until their successors are elected or until death, resignation or removal. Class I Directors are up for election at the Annual Meeting. There are currently two Class I Directors. However, the number of Class I directors has been expanded to three and Mr. Kintzinger has been nominated to fill such vacancy.

Director Independence.

Our common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Capital Market. The NASDAQ requires that a majority of our directors be independent directors, as defined by the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market, promulgated by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Generally, a director does not qualify as an independent director if the director is an employee of the Company or (or in some cases, members of the director's immediate family) has, or in the past three years has had, certain material relationships or affiliations with the Company, its external or internal auditors, or other companies that do business with the Company. The Board has affirmatively determined that four of the Company's six current directors have no other direct or indirect material relationships with the Company and therefore are independent directors on the basis of the NASDAQ listing standards and an analysis of all facts specific to each director. The independent directors are Lisa M. Brock, Nadine Gramling, Milton J. Wallace, and Morton L. Weinberger.

Board Attendance.

The Board of Directors conducts its business through meetings of the Board and through its committees. Each director is expected to dedicate sufficient time, energy and attention to ensure the diligent performance of his or her duties, including attending meetings of the shareholders of the Company, the Board and committees of which he or she is a member. The Board of Directors met eight times in fiscal 2007. Each director attended all of the Board of Directors meetings and such committees on which they served in 2007.

The Company's non-management directors meet separately from the other directors in regularly scheduled executive sessions at least annually and at such other times as may be scheduled by the Chairman of the Board. During 2007, the non-management directors held two meetings without management.

The Board does not have a formal policy with respect to members of the Board of Directors' attendance of annual stockholder meetings. However, each Board member attended the Company's annual shareholders meeting held in May 2007. It is expected that all directors will attend the 2008 Annual Meeting.

Director Nominating Process.

Our Board of Directors does not maintain a Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors has determined that it is in our best interest that the entire Board takes the appropriate actions that would normally be delegated to such a committee. Accordingly, each member of the Board of Directors participates in the consideration of director nominees. A majority of the Company's Board of Directors is independent as that term is defined by the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market, promulgated by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The Board of Directors does not have a separate nominating committee charter. However, it has adopted Board resolutions establishing the procedures for the nomination of directors, which is outlined below.

The Board of Directors considers candidates for Board membership suggested by its members, as well as management and shareholders. A shareholder who wishes to recommend a prospective nominee for the Board should notify the Company's Corporate Secretary or any member of the Board of Directors in writing with whatever supporting material the shareholder considers appropriate.

Once the Board of Directors has identified a prospective nominee, the Board would make an initial determination as to whether to conduct a full evaluation of the candidate. This information is based on whatever information is provided to the Board with the recommendation of the prospective candidate, as well as the Board's own knowledge of the prospective candidate. This information may be supplemented by inquiries to the person making the recommendation or others. The preliminary determination is based primarily on the need for additional Board members to fill vacancies or expand the size of the Board and the likelihood that the prospective nominee can satisfy the evaluation factors described below. If the Board determines that additional consideration is warranted, it may request a third party search firm to gather additional information about the prospective nominee's background and experience and report its findings to the Board. The Board would then evaluate the prospective nominee based on the following criteria:

The ability of the prospective nominee to represent the interests of the shareholders of the Company, rather than any special interest or constituency;

The prospective nominee's standards of integrity, commitment and independence of thought and judgment;

The prospective nominee's ability to dedicate sufficient time, energy and attention to the diligent performance of his or her duties, including the prospective nominee's service on other public company boards;

The extent to which the prospective nominee contributes to the range of talent, skill and expertise appropriate for the Board; and

Be free from interests that would present the appearance of being adverse to, or conflict with, the interests of the Company.

The Board also considers such other relevant factors as it deems appropriate, including the current composition of the Board, the balance of management and independent directors and the need for Audit Committee expertise. After completing the evaluation process, the Board would determine the nominees to the Board, which must be approved by a majority of the independent directors.

Douglas P. Kintzinger has been nominated as a Class I director to serve for a three year term through the Company's annual meeting to be held in 2011. Mr. Kintzinger was initially recommended as a nominee by Ms. Brock, a non-management member of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors used the criteria set forth above to evaluate Mr. Kintzinger as a proposed nominee.

relating to accounting, internal controls or auditing matters should be addressed to the Chairman of the Audit Committee and will be handled in accordance with procedures established by the Audit Committee with respect to such matters.

Code of Conduct and Ethics

The Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Business Conduct, applicable to its directors, executive officers and employees. The Code of Business Conduct is available on the Company's website at www.imperialindustries.com. The Code of Business Conduct complies with Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) requirements, including procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission by employees or others of any complaints or concerns about the Company or its accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters. The Company will also mail these materials to any shareholder who requests a copy. Requests may be made by contacting the Corporate Secretary as described above under Shareholder Communications.

Board Committees

The Board has established a number of standing committees to assist it in the discharge of its responsibilities. The Board presently has two standing committees: the Compensation and Stock Option Committee and the Audit Committee. Information regarding the principal responsibilities of each committee, their present membership and the number of meetings held by each committee are described below. Any action taken by a committee of the Board is reported to the Board of Directors, usually at the next Board meeting.

Audit Committee: The Audit Committee's main role is to assist the Board of Directors with oversight of (1) the integrity of the Company's financial statements, (2) the independent auditor's qualifications and independence and (3) the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors. As part of its duties, the Audit Committee assists in the oversight of (a) management's assessment of, and reporting on, the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, and (b) the independent auditor's audit, which includes expressing an opinion on the conformity of the Company's audited financial statements with United States generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit Committee oversees the Company's accounting and financial reporting process and has the authority and responsibility for the appointment, retention and oversight of the Company's independent auditors, including pre-approval of all audit and non-audit services to be performed by the independent auditors. The Audit Committee annually reviews and approves the firm to be engaged as independent auditors for the Company for the next fiscal year, reviews with the independent auditors the plan and results of the audit engagement, reviews the scope and results of the Company's procedures for internal auditing and monitors the design and maintenance of the Company's internal accounting controls. The Audit Committee Report appears on page 17 of this proxy statement. A current copy of the written charter of the Audit Committee is available on the Company's website at www.imperialindustries.com.

The current members of the Audit Committee are Morton L. Weinberger, as Chairman, Milton J. Wallace and Nadine Gramling. The Audit Committee met four times during 2007. Lisa Brock was a member of the Audit Committee until she resigned her position on such committee in November 2007. All members of the Audit Committee are independent of the Company and management, as defined in the listing standards of NASDAQ and SEC Rule 10A-3.

The Board of Directors has determined that Morton L. Weinberger meets the requirements adopted by the SEC for qualification as an audit committee financial expert. Mr. Weinberger is a certified public accountant and has served as an independent auditor with independent public accounting firms as described in his biography above.

Compensation and Stock Option Committee: The Compensation and Stock Option Committee (the Compensation Committee) is responsible for, among other things: (i) reviewing the Company's executive compensation goals, policies and philosophies and monitoring the appropriateness of the Company's executive compensation practices, (ii) reviewing and, as appropriate, approving management's recommendations regarding executive compensation, (iii) reviewing and, as appropriate, approving the Company's executive compensation plans, including designating plan participants, establishing objectives and applicable performance measurement criteria and making awards, (iv) reviewing surveys and other data to gauge the competitiveness and appropriateness of levels and elements of executive compensation and benefits, and (v) to the extent not undertaken by the entire Board, reviewing the level and composition of compensation, benefits and perquisites provided to non-employee members of the Board. The Compensation Committee also administers the Company's 2006 Stock Award and Incentive Plan and has the authority to determine, among other things, to whom to grant options or other equity awards, the amount of options or other equity awards, the terms of such awards and the exercise prices of options granted thereunder.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy

The Audit Committee has adopted procedures for pre-approving all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor. The Audit Committee may either pre-approve such services based on the amount of fees associated with such services without consideration of specific case-by-case services (general approval) or pre-approve specific services (specific pre-approval). Unless a type of service to be provided by the independent auditor has received general pre-approval, it will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee. For both types of pre-approval, the Audit Committee considers whether such services are consistent with the SEC s rules on auditor independence. The Audit Committee also considers whether the independent auditor is best positioned to provide the most effective and efficient services, for reasons such as familiarity with the Company s business, people, culture, accounting systems, risk profile and whether the services enhance the Company s ability to manage or control risks and improve audit quality.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services to the Company by Grant Thornton, LLP was compatible with maintaining the independence of Grant Thornton, LLP. Additional information concerning the Audit Committee and its activities with Grant Thornton, LLP can be found in the sections of the proxy statement: ABoard Committees and Meetings@ and AReport of the Audit Committee.@

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The following Report of the Audit Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report by reference therein.

This Report concerns the Audit Committee's activities regarding oversight of the Company's financial reporting and auditing process. The Company's Audit Committee is comprised of three non-employee members of the Company's Board of Directors and operates under a written charter adopted by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors. The complete text of the Audit Committee Charter is attached Annex I to the Company Proxy Statement for its annual meeting of stockholder for 2004 and is also available on the Company's website at www.imperialindustries.com. The composition of the Audit Committee, the attributes of its members and the responsibilities of the Audit Committee, are as reflected in the Audit Committee Charter.

All three current members of the Audit Committee are independent as defined by the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market, promulgated by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

As set forth in more detail in the Audit Charter, the Audit Committee's primary responsibilities fall into three broad categories:

Financial Reporting Oversight. The Audit Committee is charged with monitoring the preparation of quarterly and annual financial statements by the Company's management, including discussions with management and the Company's independent auditors about draft annual financial statements and other accounting and reporting matters.

Independent Auditor Relationship. The Audit Committee is responsible for matters concerning the relationship between the Company and its independent auditors, including recommending their appointment or removal; reviewing the scope of their audit services and related fees, as well as other services being provided to the Company; and determining whether such auditors are independent; and Internal Controls Oversight. The Audit Committee oversees management's implementation of effective systems of internal controls, including review of policies relating to regulatory compliance, ethics and conflicts of interest.

During the year ended December 31, 2007, the Audit Committee met four times. The Audit Committee schedules its meetings with a view to ensuring that it is able to devote sufficient time and attention to all of its tasks. The meetings were designed to facilitate and encourage private communications between the members of the Audit Committee, management and the Company's independent auditors, Grant Thornton, LLP. In addition to formal meetings of the Audit Committee, the Chairman of the Audit Committee meets regularly with the Company's management and accounting staff to review financial reporting and internal controls, as well as with the Company's independent auditors. The Chairman then reports to the Audit Committee on his findings. The Audit Committee reports on its activities to the full Board of Directors, usually at the next Board meeting.

The Company's management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles and internal controls. Grant Thornton, LLP is responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements and for expressing an opinion on management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls and on the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls over financial reporting.

The functions of the Audit Committee are not intended to duplicate, or to certify, the activities of management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee provides a Board-level oversight role, in which it provides advice, counsel and direction to management and the auditors on the basis of the information it receives, discussions with management and the auditors, and the experience of the Audit Committee's members in business, financial and accounting matters.

In overseeing the preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements, the Audit Committee met with both management and representatives of Grant Thornton, LLP to review and discuss the Company's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2007 and quarterly operating results prior to their issuance, including a discussion of the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosure in the financial statements. During fiscal 2007, Management advised the Audit Committee that all financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepting accounting principles and reviewed significant accounting and disclosure issues with the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee met with Grant Thornton, LLP., with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

The Audit Committee's review included discussion with the independent auditors of matters required to be discussed pursuant to *Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, A*Communication with Audit Committees,@ including the quality of the Company's accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

Grant Thornton, LLP also provided the Audit Committee with the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board *Standard No. 1, A*Independence Discussions with Audit Committees.@ The Audit Committee discussed the independence of Grant Thornton, LLP., including the compatibility of non-audit services provided by such firm with its independence to the Company.

If any other matter calling for stockholder action should properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof, those persons named as proxies in the enclosed proxy will vote in accordance with their best judgment.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Stockholders who wish a proposal to be included in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the 2009 annual meeting must be received by the Company no later than February 6, 2009 for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement related to the 2009 annual meeting. DELIVERY OF PROXY MATERIALS AND ANNUAL REPORTS

The U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e. g. brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to these stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as "householding" potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies. Beneficial owners sharing an address who have been previously notified by their broker, bank or other intermediary and have consented to householding, either affirmatively or implicitly by not objecting to householding, will receive only one copy of the Company's Annual Report (including audited financial statements as of December 31, 2006 and 2007 and for each of the two (2) years in the period ending December 31, 2007) and this proxy statement. If you hold your shares in your own name as a holder of record, householding will not apply to your shares

Beneficial owners who reside at a shared address at which a single copy of the Company's 2007 Annual Report and this proxy statement is delivered may obtain additional copies of the Annual Report and this proxy statement at no additional cost by sending a written request to the Company Attention: Corporate Secretary, 3790 Park Central Boulevard North, Pompano Beach, Florida 33064.

Copies of the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the Fiscal Year ended December 31, 2007 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission may also be obtained by writing to Corporate Secretary, 3790 Park Central Boulevard North, Pompano Beach, Florida 33064.
