Iron Ore Prices for 2003 Japan

Rio de Janeiro, May 23, 2003 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD), the world's largest iron ore producer, and Nippon Steel, a leading Japanese steelmaker, have settled on May 22, 2003, iron ore prices for 2003 Japanese fiscal year (from April 2003 to March 2004).

The price for the Southern System sinter feed, SSF, of US 27.64 cents per Long Ton Fe unit, corresponds to a 9.0% increase over the 2002 price and the price for the Southern System lump, NTA, of US 29.32 cents per Long Ton Fe unit, corresponds to a 8.9% increase over the 2002 price. Both prices are FOB Tubarão Port, Brazil.

Such settlement was achieved between the two companies after several rounds of negotiation that started in December 2002.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
