ITEM 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Not applicable (the Registrant's Common Stock is registered Securities Exchange Act of 1934).

ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

Not Applicable.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The directors and officers of Principal Financial Group, Inc.
may be indemnified against liabilities, fines, penalties and claims imposed upon or asserted against them as provided in the Delaware General Corporation Law and the company's certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws and in individual indemnification agreements entered into between the Company and each director and senior officer. Such indemnification covers all costs and expenses incurred by a director or officer in his or her capacity as such. Pursuant to the individual indemnification agreements, to the extent permitted by law, no determination is required that indemnification is proper in the circumstances. If such determination is required, the board of directors, by a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors or, under certain circumstances, independent counsel appointed by the board of directors, must determine that the director or officer seeking indemnification was not guilty of willful misconduct or a knowing violation of the criminal law. In addition, the Delaware General Corporation Law and the company's certificate of incorporation may, under certain circumstances, eliminate the liability of directors and officers in a stockholder or derivative proceeding.

If the person involved is not a director or officer of Principal Financial Group, Inc., the board of directors may cause the company to indemnify, to the same extent allowed for the company's directors and officers, such person who was or is a party to a proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an employee or agent of the company, or is or was serving at the company's request as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise.

The company has policies in force and effect to insure its directors and officers against such losses that they or any of them will become legally obligated to pay by reason of any actual or alleged error or misstatement or misleading statement or act or omission or neglect or breach of duty by such directors and officers in the discharge of their duties, solely by reason of their being directors or officers. Such coverage is limited by the specific terms and provisions of the insurance policies.

ITEM 7. EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION CLAIMED

Not Applicable.

ITEM 8.
EXHIBITS

An Exhibit Index, containing a list of all exhibits filed with this Registration Statement, is included below on page 9.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS

(a) Rule 415 Offering. The Registrant hereby undertakes:

To file, during any period in which offers or sales
(1) are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

To include any prospectus required by
(i) Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, unless the information that would be required to be included in a post-effective amendment is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement;

To reflect in the prospectus any facts or
(ii) events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement, unless the information that would be required to be included in a post-effective amendment is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement;

To include any material information with (iii) respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement.

That, for the purpose of determining any liability (2) under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

To remove from registration by means of a (3) post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

Subsequent Exchange Act Documents. The undersigned (b) registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Indemnification. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities (c) arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
